School Board Finds Cutting Budget Tough

Loudon County School Board met in special session Monday night to attempt to reduce its budget request presently pending before the County Court Budget Committee.

At a meeting last week the Budget Committee asked the Board to trim their budget by $318,000, which represents about half the new local tax money it would take to fund the $3,397,041 county school budget for next year.

The special board session lasted about two hours. When the smoke cleared, only some $70,000 to $80,000 had been taken out. Just $30,000 was in firm cuts, with the remainder to be figured from personnel salaries. Superintendent Edward Headlee presented a formula for the reduction, which would mean smaller raises for teachers, but would give additional pay for additional college credits above the bachelor and master levels on increments of 16 credit hours.

Superintendent Headlee will go back to the Budget Committee at 7:30 p.m. Monday. During the discussions by the board there were several cuts in some areas of the budget but additional needs that have developed since the tentative budget was constructed offset many cuts. About $16,500 was cut from the Administrative area of the budget, mostly by dropping Headlee's request for an additional administrative position.

In the area of instruction Headlee said the base could be placed at $7700 for a first year bachelor degree teacher, if the state approves a $400 raise with state funds, or the base could be figured at $7500, using no state funds, but adding $200 for each position in local funds.

Headlee said that for teachers earning additional hours in segments of 15 credit hours for summer college work, he proposed an increase of one-third level in the salary index to help offset their expenses in getting the additional education. He said he will have new figures on instruction expenses by the time he meets with the budget group, but expects the cuts here to be under $50,000.

Some $5,885 was removed from the budget for teacher's aides; $12,000 from maintenance, and $2,900 from food services.

A major $30,000 cut in anticipated lower costs for parking in the area of Loudon High School and Eaton was offset by additions to the budget for renovation to Glendale School.

Board member J. B. Hagler said that he thought the board should do all it could to cut the budget, but at the same time they had to protect the quality of education the system offers and wishes to offer with the budget.

Title I Schools, More Teachers Are Named

The selection of the eight elementary schools in Loudon County to receive Title I classroom services for the 1975-76 year was the subject of a consuming item on the School Board agenda last Thursday night.

Federal Programs Director Bill Lawson explained that under the percentage system used by the Federal Government to determine eligibility for Title I teachers and classroom instruction, eight of the nine schools in the county were eligible. The school eligible under the system was Eaton.

The Board entered into a lengthy discussion of the method of determining the eligibility used in the percentage of low-income children in the schools, when the eligibility for the class is determined on the learning deficiencies of the student and not their family income level.

It appeared for a while that some board members were wanting to drop the class at Loudon Elementary School and put the facility at Eaton, but after the discussion Ted Wampler made the motion to approve the schedule of eligible schools that was presented by Lawson. The schools are Browder, Steeple, Davis, Glendale, Philadelphia, Greenback Elementary, Loudon Elementary and Highland Park.

Teachers Hired
Nine new school teachers were hired at the meeting. All the new teachers were present at the meeting at the request of the Board.

The teachers and the schools they will instruct in are as follows: Angela C. Boone, Highland Park, kindergarten; Betty L. Brooks, Davis, second grade; Corinn S. Gaudy, Philadelphia, fifth grade; Elizabeth E. Krogram, Glendale, first and second grade; Kathy B. Thompson, Loudon Elementary, kindergarten; Elizabeth Jackson, Loudon Elementary, second grade (transfer from Davis); Nancy M. Marcus, Loudon Elementary, fourth grade; Kathleen Howard, Loudon High, French, German and English; J. Paul Keiron, Loudon High, mathematics.

Biology II Approved
The continuation of the Biology II class at Loudon High School was approved for the next school year. The class is not a part of the state minimum program and must have yearly approval. Teacher Hargis, Loudon Board Member J. B. Hagler said he was wrong in his assumption concerning a recommendation and hiring of non-tenure teachers. The board members agreed with Superintendent Headlee did not recommend the re-hiring of Loudon Board member Brenda Crabtree and five other teachers.

Hagler said the state department had explained to him that only the school board can hire teachers, but first they must be recommended by the Superintendent. He further said that the law was designed in that manner to be a balance of power between the Superintendent and the Board in cases of non-tenure teachers. Hagler also said that after the law was explained, concerning the possibility of lawsuits, the Superintendent was correct in not giving any reasons for not re-hiring a non-tenure teacher for re-appointment.

Board Chairman Jim Bailey said that the State Department said that there is still a possibility of a lawsuit in such cases, but under the terms of the state law the plaintiff would not be at an advantage during such a lawsuit.

ARCHITECT HIRED
The firm of Barber and McMurray was hired for architects for the proposed addition of classrooms at Eaton School to accommodate an expected growth in student population there next year.

For the fifth or sixth consecutive session of the board a delegation of members of the Glendale School requested badly needed improvements and a new school be built to serve the community.

The parents said that the promise of a new roof for the school, given by the County Court, had not materialized. They said some minor stuff had been done but the leaks when it rained were worse than ever. They said that improper safety equipment and health hazards at the condemned school had not been repaired.

The parents are still asking for a decision on whether or not the school will be put in a safe condition before they will allow their children to return there next year.

Glendale is scheduled to be closed if additional classrooms are built at Greenback. The parents say the students will not go to Greenback and say they believe there are enough potential students in the area to justify a K-8 school to be built in Glendale to serve the community.

Randolph Going Out Of Auto Business

Loudon Motor Company President Jack Randolph announced this week that he is going out of business. Loudon Motor Company is the oldest continuously operated car dealership in Loudon County, being founded 55 years ago.

Randolph said that the franchise for the Chrysler-Plymouth dealership in the process of being sold to three Loudon County men. He said if the approval is given from Chrysler for new dealers to begin operations on June 15 from the present location of Loudon Motor Company.

The American Motors franchise cannot be transferred. Randolph said that he expects a dealer in Lenoir City to be awarded that franchise in the near future.

Mining Firm Finds Barite Potential In Loudon County

The U.S. Borax and Chemical Corporation of Los Angeles and Knoxville announced last week that it has been engaged in extensive core-drilling program in Loudon, McClint and Monroe Counties for about two years.

The company said it had not planned to announce its activity here until June, but made the move because of the pending mineral severance tax legislation pending in Tennessee.

The drilling effort has been undertaken to discover major barite deposits for underground mining. Borax disclosed that drilling has encountered state substantial tonnages of low-grade fluorapatite and barite mineralization in potentially economic quantities, with reserves projected to be very large in the three county area.

Increased exploration and evaluation for underground mining development are now underway from U.S. Borax's Knoxville exploration office.

Fluorapatite, a mineral, essential as a fluxing agent in the manufacture of steel and aluminum. The U.S. currently imports about 83 percent of its basic requirements. Barite is used primarily as a drilling mud additive for oil and gas exploration which will be essential for the expected future drilling on the east coast off-shore shelf.

Initial development of these essentially pollution-free deposits would create a significant number of new jobs in the area. Charles S. Smith regional manager of Borax said, and many additional jobs if this new natural-resource industry were to expand as is currently envisioned.

DEATH CAR - Wrecker crews had just uprighted the car in which Bobby Purdy was killed Friday night. Purdy, returning from a softball game, died when the car left highway 11 south of Loudon, struck some rocks in a field and overturned.

Bobby Gene Purdy Killed, Car Leaves Road, Overturns

Bobby Gene Purdy, 43, a long time employee of Loudon Utilities and former stand-out athlete at Loudon High School, was killed Friday night when the car he was driving left Highway 11, struck some large rocks and overturned near the Calloway farm between Loudon and Philadelphia.

Philadelphia police officer Frank McKenzie said that Purdy was driving alone about 11:10 p.m. when the car (traveling north) veered across the highway into a field. The cause of the accident has not been determined.

Purdy, an avid sports fan, reportedly had been to the Philadelphia Park to watch a softball tournament and was returning home at the time of his death. He sustained a broken neck and massive head injuries. Rescue Squad members and ambulance personnel said the victim was dead when he was removed from the wreckage where he was trapped for a short time.

Purdy was an active member of the Loudon Lions Club and VFW Post 5150. He served in Korea with the United States Navy during the Korean Conflict. He was also a member of the First Baptist Church of Loudon.

He graduated from Loudon High School in 1959. While in school he was a member of the Heekin football, basketball and baseball teams. He had been employed at Loudon Utilities since 1953. He had also been active in the City of Loudon Recreation program.

The victim, the third person to die in traffic accidents in Loudon County this year, is survived by his wife, Patsy M. Duker Purdy, daughters J.J. Kelly and Amy; son, Perry, all of the family home at 704 Cedar Street, Loudon; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Purdy of Loudon; sister, Mrs. Jo Ann Purdy Whillock, Lenoir City.

Funeral services were held Monday from Karnes Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. O.C. Itanwater officiating. Burial

MR. PURDY was in Loudon County Memorial Gardens with members of VFW Post 5150 conducting military services.

167 Loudon Graduates Get Diplomas, Awards

One hundred and sixty-seven students comprising the 1975 Senior class at Loudon High School received their high school diplomas Tuesday night with about 1,000 friends and relatives watching. In addition to the diplomas, presented by Principal Jim Gibson and Superintendent of Education Edward Headlee, 24 other awards and scholarships were presented.

Valedictorian Evelyn Duncan and Salutatorian David Blankenship addressed the class. Both challenged their classmates to accept their heritage and build on it for a better world for themselves and the generations that follow. Each of these students received awards for their class ranking.

Four students were awarded scholarships. Paul Bivens, who was president of his class throughout high school, was presented the William S. Napier Memorial Scholarship. The scholarship was presented by John Napier, the son of the late Loudon High School Principal.

June 7 Date For 13th Arts And Crafts Festival

Last June more than 15,000 people attended the Lenoir City Arts and Crafts Festival, arriving by boat, by bus, by automobile and on foot. And this year the sponsoring club, Suburbia Junior Women's Club, is ready for an even greater influx of visitors to browse and buy original paintings, pottery and other hand-crafted items for the home and for gifts.

Hours are from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Should inclement weather occur, the Festival will be held Sunday, June 8, from 1 to 6 p.m. In case of bad weather both days of the Festival will be held the following Saturday, June 14.

There is no admission charge and purchases may be made directly with the exhibitors.

Selections may be made this year from a wide variety of arts and crafts, including paintings in oils, acrylics, pastels, water colors; tile and quilting, sculpture, wheel-thrown pottery, stitcheary, leathercraft, needlecraft, woodcraft, egg shell art, ceramics, decorated hand bags, jewelry and candles.

Club members will make a food booth throughout the day. Hamburgers, hot dogs and cold drinks will be available. There will be a barbecued chicken plate including baked beans, cole slaw, bread, coffee or tea served at the noon hour.

Signs directing visitors to the Festival will be erected on main highways into Lenoir City. Members of the Auxiliary Police will be on hand to assist with parking in the area, or for those who prefer, buses will run regularly from the Lenoir Shopping Center parking lot to the Festival.

Water access is by way of Ft. Loudoun Lake. The festival will be held on the picturesque peninsula of Lenoir City Park within sight of Ft. Loudoun Dam.

"Last year those visitors on hand to see and buy, and to just enjoy the setting found it a most pleasant experience," Mrs. Vernon McKinney, club president, said, "and everything indicates that this year will offer more of the same."

ROBERT LEUZE, Lenoir City potter, has recently been accepted by the Foothills Craft Guild of Oak Ridge. His work was evaluated by a panel of judges before being accepted. It is now being shown in a craft shop in Oak Ridge as well as local shops and the Flea Market in Knoxville. He will be an exhibitor in the Arts and Crafts Festival in Lenoir City June 7.

Catholics Set Festival Saturday

St. Thomas Catholic Church is sponsoring a Spring Festival on Saturday, May 24, at the church on Harbison Road, Lenoir City, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

A chili dinner and a la carte menu will be served continuously in the church basement. Something has been planned for everyone—booths include White Elephant, Bakery, Arts and Crafts, Green House, Fish Pond, Grab Bag, Parcel Post and many more. A riding lawn mower and a country ham will be given away during the festival.

Rev. Herbert Prescott, pastor, invites everyone to attend this special event. Proceeds from the Spring Festival will be used to purchase much needed equipment for the church.

Deathridge, Yates, Purdy, Locke, Thearp, And Swiney Are Top Honorees At Loudon All-Sports Banquet

The Loudon Athletic Department held its annual All Sports Banquet last Saturday night at the Loudon High School cafeteria. School athletic letters were handed out to 127 sports participants covering football, boys and girls basketball, baseball and boys and girls tennis.

were graduating senior fullback-linebacker Johnny Deathridge, who had over a 1000 yards in rushing this last fall. Deathridge got a watch as the Tic Toe Jeweler's Best Back Award. Deathridge, who attended Tennessee Tech this spring, and will perform in football there come fall, won the Butch Crabtree Trophy as the Best All Round Player selected by the team and coaches. Senior lineman Mike Yates, a signee with Vanderbilt, captured the Tic Toe awarded for the Best Lineman and also was named VFW Best Back trophy by a committee of VFW members. Senior quarterback Dennis walked away with the majority of awards. The 6-6 frontliner was honored with the Tic Toe Award and VFW Trophy as the Best Player of 1974-75. Also on the team on the All Loudon County hoop squad and for the second straight year by the vote of players was the Most Valuable Player.

Queen won the VFW Best Back Trophy. Nine Redskins made the Loudon County Herald All County Football team. The unusual high number is a single team record for such honors. Those receiving trophies and certificates were seniors Sam Lyle, Johnny Deathridge, Mike Yates, Dennis Queen, Donnie Thearp, and Jimmy Skinner. Juniors were Dickie Colvin, Marlon Brown, and Rick Melton.

Coach Gibson also making an informal speech characterizing the team. Coach Gibson commented on the unique style of the 1974 football team in posting victory after victory and their unity of play and team efforts. Coach Gibson also extended a special thanks for the "support" provided the team through Kev. Jack Ferguson. The cheerleaders who performed as banquet serving hosts, was hailed by Coach Gibson and Coach Ratledge for their continual efforts to keep the school spirit alive during the season. Loudon lost 17 seniors, but an unbeaten freshman team and a dozen battle tested seniors-to-be are expected to once again make Loudon a worthy foe in the double-A play come fall. Coach Ratledge again thanked one and all who helped finance the team's holiday trip to the Sugar Bowl. Coach Gibson concluded the football part of the night by saying, he appreciated each

BIG NIGHT FOR DONNIE—Loudon Boys Basketball coach Hugh Watson shakes hands with senior Donnie Thearp as the big 6-6 frontliner received the majority of boys basketball awards and trophies.

And as all good players have to bow out in time Loudon had one of its most loyal and avid fans to step aside as the All Sports Banquet. Mr. James H. Williams, a better known to most as "Frog" and a fixture of Loudon High School Loudon athletic events announced his official retirement after some 40 years of service to the school janitorial service and maintenance department. "Frog" has stood by the side of Coach Ratledge on game nights for 20 years and has his own personal seat on the team bus for away games. Mr. Williams stated he would be retiring to his home in the hills near the school. He was a member of the school's athletic department for 20 years and has his own personal seat on the team bus for away games.

Harriman Is Dist. 10 Baseball Champs

Jeff Evans drove home the winning run in the eighth inning Sunday afternoon as Harriman edged Oak Ridge 4-3 for the championship in the District Ten baseball tournament at Oak Ridge. The Blue Devils, who eliminated Oak Ridge from tournament play for the third straight year, were set to face Clinton at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the opening round of the Region Three tournament at Clinton. The Harriman win Sunday bore a striking similarity to the 4-3 win over Oak Ridge last Wednesday night, which put the Blue Devils in the driver's seat in the double elimination tournament. In both contests, Harriman fell behind early 3-0, but Harrison 7-6, 9-4 in the Men's A Doubles. John Telford was a two set victor over Richard Blackburn in the Men's Intermediate A singles 6-3, 6-1. Norman McQueen fell to Mike McNabb 6-1, 6-2 in a Men's Singles B game. Pena Campbell won his first encounter in the Men's Beginner class over David Grasso 6-0, 6-3. The finals of the tournament are scheduled for this weekend at the Loudon City Tennis Courts located adjacent to the Loudon High School.

five-hit barrage in the bottom of the same inning. Coach Ron Dickerson brought in Larry Wright in the top of the fifth to relieve Wisener, who had gone all the way in the first win over Oak Ridge. Wright, who had already beaten Coalfield and Lenoir City earlier in the tournament, blanked Oak Ridge on only one hit the rest of the way. Johnson returned to the mound for Oak Ridge in the bottom of the fifth and was promptly greeted by a long double to rightfield by Wright. The Blue Devils loaded the bases with one out on back-to-back walks to Oody and Love, however Johnson bore down to retire Randolph on a popup and Weaver on a fly ball to center. Harriman got the winning run in the first extra inning as Love walked and advanced to second on a single by Randolph. Johnson got two straight hitters on popups, however Evans, who had delivered the clutch blow in the earlier win, did it again with a single down the right field line that would have gone for extra bases had not the game ended then and there. For Coach Ron Dickerson's Harriman team, it was the second district championship in three years following last year's second place finish. The Blue Devils should also be odds-on favorites next year when seven of their top ten performers return. At the conclusion of the tournament, a 14-man all-tournament team was selected which included six players each from champion Harriman and runnerup Oak Ridge. Members of the team were: Pitchers—Larry Wright, Harriman, Jr.; Johnny Johnson, Oak Ridge, Jr.; and

Atomic Races Spoiled

If Bob Martin was running a baseball show he says he'd be on the first team with his .500 batting average, but things just aren't that good when the average is for racing. In fact, Martin and the weatherman both are "hitting" .500 following last Saturday night's rain-out of the late model sportsman competition at Atomic Speedway. It marked the fourth time in eight weeks the show has been called off by rain. Saturday night's action open with time trials for sportsman drivers at 7:30. Four to the 25-lap main event there will be heat races and a semi-feature. The action, however, doesn't end with the feature. A demolition derby is to follow the 15-lap run for B class racers. More than 40 sportsman drivers are expected to be on hand for the racing. Top contenders for the top sportsman prize include Toole Estes, who drives a Camaro, Snooks DeFoor in a Mustang, Ken Phillips in a Camaro, and Little Bill Corum in a Chevy II.

OR Bounces Panthers From District 10 Baseball Play, 9-2

Oak Ridge pushed across four runs in the third inning and five more in the fifth to eliminate Lenoir City, 9-2, in Sunday's opening game in the District 10 Tournament.

The tourney had been canceled for three straight days due to rain.

The Panthers seized the early lead in the contest as Bobby Smith doubled in the top of the second inning and came home on a double by Mike Ellis.

The Panthers again mounted a threat in the top of the third, forcing the Wildcats to bring in one of their first-line starters, Donnie Beckler, to quell the threat after Lenoir City got runners on first and second with only one out.

A bunt single and a walk set the stage for Oak Ridge's four-run flurry in the bottom of the third. Teddy Fischer singled in one run. Dwayne Horton doubled home two more, and Dean Nichols plated the fourth with a single scoring Horton.

In the Panther fourth, Bobby Smith walked and Mike Ellis reached on an error, however Lenoir City batters proceeded to hit into three consecutive forces.

Lenoir City closed the gap to 4-2 in the top of the fifth as Jeff Walker and Mike McConkey put together back-to-back singles with one out. Joey Cunningham then grounded into a force play at second base, however the relay to first was off-target, allowing Walker to score.

CUNNINGHAM FAILS TO CONNECT—Lenoir City third baseman Joey Cunningham is caught in sequence of his batting swing as he fails to connect on this hitting attempt.

The junior infielder and pitcher did add a base hit later as the Panthers collected nine in the game.

Loudon Swimming Pool To Open Fri.

Loudon Recreation Baseball Tryouts Rescheduled

Rain played havoc with the Loudon Recreation baseball tryouts this past Saturday at Legion Field. Thus tryouts will again be attempted this Saturday at the same time schedule. Also all men 18 and over interested in playing in the Knoxville Stan Musial League are urged to meet at Legion Field with manager Jerry "Baldy" Simpson at 2 p.m. to organize and plan the Loudon entry into the league. Loudon's recreation play will be broken down into four divisions with four teams in each division. The way to find out which division you will be in, figure out how old you will be on August 1, 1975 and see which age group you belong to.

11-12 Dixie Youth 12:30 p.m.
11-15 Babe Ruth 2:00 p.m.
16-18 Sr. Babe Ruth 3:30 p.m.

Each player should have a parent or guardian at the try outs to fill out permission slips and pay the insurance fee of $3.00 which must be paid before you will be issued a uniform. Any adult wishing to coach a team in one of the four age divisions are urged to contact G. Hall from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily or call 49-4104 after 5 p.m. There will also be a girls softball registration for girls 13-16 years of age on Saturday Legion Field. All girls who will not be 17 before August will be eligible.

Sheriff Asks $31,000 Budget Increase

ADMITTED TO CRIMINAL COURT PRACTICE—Five new attorneys were admitted to practice before the Loudon County Criminal Court Monday. Judge Lloyd McCluen (seated far right) admitted the group, who were introduced by Loudon-Lenoir City attorney Jim Simpson (right). The new attorneys and their firms (left to right) are Terry Vann, Dannel, Harris, Easter and Vann of Lenoir City; Robert Langston, Crabtree and Langston of Knoxville and Loudon; Steve Shope, Croley and Davidson, Knoxville; William H. Crabtree, Crabtree and Langston; and Gerald F. Easter of Dannel, Harris, Easter and Vann.

In a not too subtle manner the Loudon County Court Budget Committee voted to send the County School Board back to the school board for major surgery. The Committee is asking for cuts of $330,000 which represents about half the new money the School Board is asking for their 1975-76 budget.

The action on the school budget came at the end of a two hour session and after the Committee had County Judge William Russell to inform Superintendent Edward Hodson the Committee would not consider his budget at the session.

The Committee intends to take up the school budget at a session set for 7 p.m. May 26.

The only other budget that included substantial local property tax funding increases was from the Sheriff's office for Law Enforcement.

The sheriff has requested a budget of $216,000 up from $183,000 this year. Federal revenue sharing will pay for almost $177,000. The budget calls for an increase of $21,000 from county tax funds.

Some $125,000 was the budget request for the Ambulance Service which will be in its first year of full county funding. Up until the opening of the Justice Center, the service was administered by the hospital where half the operating costs were absorbed.

Other budgets considered and their requests are as follows:

- County Extension Service, an increase of $1,200.
- Overlook Mental Health Center, an increase of $1,000.
- County Health Department, an increase of $14,000.
- County Court Clerk, an increase of $1,300.

—County Industrial Development, an increase of $1,500.

—Riverview Cemetery Foundation, no increase sought.

—County Juvenile Service Officer, increase of $2,722.

Squire Boyd Duckworth suggested abandoning the program and placing the juvenile matters in the hands of the deputies. Sheriff Guy Russell and Chief Deputy Jake Bright defended the present program as the only correct way to handle juvenile cases.

—Civil Defense, a decrease of $6,500, due to federal funds.

Squire Duckworth made a motion which was approved by the committee to recommend the policemen at Philadelphia and Greenback for a $50 a month maintenance allowance.

CAR CRASHED INTO STORE—A car driven by Aileen Wilson, 58, Rt. 4, Loudon struck and knocked down a utility pole at the intersection of Mulberry and Highland Avenue about 6 p.m. Tuesday and then crashed into the front of Satterfield Grocery, breaking a front window, damaging the building and demolishing some stock inside the store. The driver was treated for minor injuries at the hospital, but no one in the store was injured. City Police Sargent Bill Grimes said.

County Tax Percentage For Schools Higher Than Average

What price education in Loudon County? How do local governmental expenditures for school operations compare with those in other communities?

A report recently released by the Department of Commerce, following a national survey, shows that education is by far the most costly element in local budgets.

No less than 52 percent of the expenditures made in Loudon County by local government agencies are for school construction and maintenance, for teachers salaries, for equipment and for various other expenses connected with school operations.

It runs considerably more than this in some parts of the country and somewhat less in others.

On the average, throughout the United States, local governments have been allocating 41 percent of their budgets for education. In the State of Tennessee, 44 percent has been earmarked for that purpose.

Local governments provide only a portion of the education bill. The rest comes from Federal and state sources.

The data was compiled by the Social and Economic Statistics Administration in the first study of the kind since 1967. It surveys the finances of local communities every five years.

Of the total expenditures made by governmental bodies in Loudon County, which were equivalent to $29 for every man, woman and child in the population, $129 went for education, it shows.

By way of comparison, the outlay for education at the local level elsewhere in the United States was $284 per capita. The average was $163 in Tennessee.

The magnitude of education's impact on the American economy is indicated in reports released by the National Education Association and the U.S. Office of Education.

They estimate that expenses in the current school year will amount to $108 billion, which is about 8 percent of our gross national product. Some $68 billion of it will be going to elementary and secondary schools and $40 billion to institutions of higher education. Involved are 58.6 million students and over 3 million teachers.

DRIVER TRAPPED AFTER PLUNGE - Bill Moore of Philadelphia was trapped in the cab of a 4 1/2 ton truck for about an hour as Rescue Squad, Sheriff's deputies and Ambulance Crewmen worked to free him. Chief Deputy Luke Bright and Squadman Brent Davis are shown assisting Moore from the wreckage after he was freed. According to reports on the accident, which occurred about 9:23 p.m. Wednesday on a rural road near Poplar Springs, the truck was being towed by another vehicle when the truck plunged off a wooden county bridge. The truck was wedged on the banks of a 20 foot gully about eight feet below the bridge deck. Heavy undergrowth helped stop the truck from plunging to the bottom of the drainage ditch. Moore was treated at Loudon County Memorial Hospital for minor injuries.

County Road Bill Still Pending

With only one week remaining in the current session of the General Assembly, two bills of local interest are still to be acted upon.

Two other bills and a Senate resolution affecting the Loudon County area have been passed, and one bill failed earlier in the session. One of the bills still outstanding is designed to create a Department of Transportation and the office of Commissioner of Transportation for Loudon County, replacing the present three county roads supervisors. Other legislation is to repeal a section of the Private Acts of Loudon County relative to clerical aid for judges. Judges currently are empowered to employ clerical and stenographic assistance at a salary of $1800 a year. The figure was written into the act some years ago and through inflation has become grossly inadequate.

Sen. Carl Koellia (R-Maryville), sponsor of the measure, said the legislation was drawn up as a result of a project to compile all private acts relating to Loudon County and make certain they do not conflict with general statutes. Koellia explained the section dealing with clerical salaries was in conflict with later general statutes, in addition to being out of date, and thus legislation was introduced for repeal.

The measure, which has the support of local legislators in the House, is expected to be passed this week, facing no opposition as a local bill.

The Transportation Department legislation, more far-reaching and controversial, apparently has not yet been signed by its House sponsors, Benny Stafford and Anna Belle Clement O'Brien.

Both legislators earlier expressed their reluctance to support the measure until local opinion on the issue became known. Stafford has stated he is waiting a letter from County Judge Bill Russell, signed by members of the County Quarterly Court, expressing their approval, before pushing the bill in the House.

The two pieces of legislation which passed earlier this year allow for a change in the type of municipal government in the City of Loudon and for a change in the seat of the county General Sessions court. If the former bill is approved by the city, Loudon will have a council-manager form of government.

An adopted Senate resolution, sponsored by Victor Ashe and Carl Koellia, may also affect Loudon County. The resolution requests a report on tree-cutting along the right-of-way of Interstate 40 in West Knox and Loudon counties.

A 1974 House resolution directed a study of such cutting, which is not permitted private citizens on state-owned land, to be done by the State Departments of

Trooper Force Increased Here

The Tennessee Highway Patrol force in Loudon County has been doubled, bringing the number of troopers here to six. The Herald learned Tuesday.

TIP Sergeant Wallace Mills said that Earl Hall, formerly assigned to Loudon County, who has been in Roane County for the past four years, has been returned here. Two others, both formerly of Loudon County, Birk Chester and Joe Lemmons, have received assignments to Loudon County. Each has several years experience on the Patrol.

The two other members of the Loudon County force, who have been stationed here for several years, are George Pierce and Joe Littleton.

Sgt. Mills said the additional men were placed in Loudon County mainly to help keep a constant patrol on I-75 from the Knox County line to the Monroe County line.

Child Hurt At Skeekee

Ten year old Ricky Wiggins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wiggins, received treatment at Loudon County Memorial Hospital Monday for a playground accident at Skeekee School.

The youth was playing near a merry-go-round when a rider on the ride struck young Wiggins. He required about 12 stitches in his hip and chin.

I-75 Texaco Robbed Again

Last week was a bad week for Charles Lester Texaco. On Monday, three armed bandits took $210 from a station attendant and then on Friday an envelope containing $190 and about 10 to 15 credit cards disappeared from a desk drawer at the station.

The station is located on Highway 95 at the I-75 interchange.

Loudon County Squad One Of State's Best Equipped, Trained

May 18-24 has been proclaimed by Governor Ray Blanton as Tennessee Rescue Squad Week. A similar proclamation has been delivered by County Judge William Russell in particular honor of the Loudon County Emergency and Rescue Squad.

Local Squad Captain John Parris is quick to compliment his organization for their quick action, cool heads and expert knowledge when needs arise. Of the 50-plus members of the Loudon County Squad many have in common a high training and on-the-scene experience in emergency situations.

The men of the Loudon County Emergency and Rescue Squad, Inc. are always ready for emergencies, and are on call 24 hours a day to help in emergencies. The Loudon County Emergency and Rescue Squad, Inc. is staffed with trained members and out-fitted with the most up-to-date equipment available. They are members of the Tennessee Association of Rescue Squads (T.A.R.S.). The International Rescue and First-Aid Association and a participating unit of the Loudon County Civil Defense. The Loudon County Emergency and Rescue Squad is aware that safety is always the most important factor in the Rescue Squad business.

Capt. Parris and the members of the Squad make an extra effort to insure the safety of motorists and pedestrians while answering a call or caring for the requirements of a patient. As part of the extra effort that characterizes the Loudon County Emergency and Rescue Squad, the members have been attending Special training courses that will qualify them as Registered Emergency Medical Technicians, in Coronary Palmatory, Pulmonary Resuscitation, in fire fighters and advanced first aid.

Recent law was passed by the Tennessee Legislature regulating ambulance and other emergency vehicles. This law requires training such as that which some of the Loudon County Emergency and Rescue Squad personnel have completed. These men are qualified to meet these extensive requirements for emergency vehicles. These laws merely reinforce the high standards which have always marked the performance and equipment of the Squad.

During these training courses members were taught extensive medical training, how to handle emergency vehicles, how to handle an injured person, what his legal responsibilities are and every other aspect of his work as a Rescue Squadman. Training such as this is what you expect of the persons coming to help in an emergency or to assist you or someone you know.

Members have also received training in how to extricate an injured person from a wrecked vehicle, a burning building or from a factory. The Loudon County Squad was organized in October 1968 when a group of citizens gathered to see what could be done to serve the people of Loudon County. The squad was formed with eight charter members and was chartered as a general welfare corporation on Nov. 21, 1968. A county-wide effort, the squad has grown until it now has 44 active members with a unit in Greenback with 6 active members.

The squad headquarters is located half way between Lenoir City and Loudon on Highway 11. This central location is the most accessible to the area served by the squad at this time. The Rescue Squad now serves the county from two other locations, one at Eatons Cross-Roads and one in Greenback on Highway 95.

Let us visit each building. At headquarters in Lenoir City-Loudon Area we find a fully self contained building. With elect. kitchen, a place to eat, a place to sleep, a place to shower and wash up. In the basement you find emergency power supplies, that can be used to supply electricity for the building and power for radio communications. A 2,000 gal fire truck equipped with a powerful pump, scot-air packs, oxygen, axes, ladders, roll after roll of fire hose, two way radio and other equipment. Next you find a crash truck with two-way radio's, oxygen, scot-air pack, power saws, porta-powers, pry-bars, cutting torch, chains, cables, rope, steel chokers and come-alongs, etc.

Next you find fully equipped emergency ambulances with the latest in first-aid supplies and life saving equipment. These ambulances are used as a back up service for the Loudon County Ambulance Service, and will only be used in case all of their ambulances are tied up and unable to answer a call.

You will also find three boats and motors on trailers ready to be taken to the scene of a drowning. These boats are kept ready to roll at all times. You find a six passenger truck to be used to pull boat trailers or any other job it is needed for.

You will find plenty of work space and find other types of life saving gear also. This building can be used as an emergency first-aid station, with complete radio communications on two frequencies.

Let us now go out on highway 95 to Eaton-Cross Roads.

You find at this location a building housing two big tank type firetrucks. Big red, as everyone calls her, is a 2,000 gallon tanker with pump, fire hose, axes, ladders, scot-air pack, oxygen and other equipment. Also a 100 gallon tank type fire truck equipped the same way. These trucks are a short distance from either interstate highway and can get to a house or business fire in a very short time.

The Squad is the only such unit in the State of Tennessee which is equipped for this type of fire fighting. Fire fighting is by far it's most frequent call in the Loudon-Lenoir City area. With three big tanker trucks, with a total capacity of 5,400 gallon of water, the unit attempts to provide fire fighting services to the rural areas similar to that of fire-fighters inside the cities. Many homes and other buildings have been saved, and even in case where the squad was not able to get to a fire in time to save the initially burning building adjacent buildings have been saved. The question that is never asked, "Do you have insurance?" "Are you a homeowner?" or "Sub-Writer?" Or are you willing to put up a cash deposit? This question is one that is never asked, when someone calls for their many services. There is no charge.

How does the Loudon County Emergency and Rescue Squad operate? How do they get the money to provide these services? The squad operations and activities are paid for by individual donations, by support of the Loudon County United Fund, through the sale of Christmas tree donations and from Loudon County.

The Squad has never applied for a federal or state grant. And has never received one. 90 percent of the mechanic and maintenance work is done by the squad members. They wash and clean their own vehicles. Each Squad member is a volunteer and receives no pay whatsoever. Dedication is the key to their organization, and dedicated they are.

The squad has a mobile kitchen, with running water, gas stoves, electric refrigerator, electric deep freeze and has equipment to cook in and plates, cups, knives, forks, etc. to feed the men or for them to eat out of. They take the kitchen where it is needed.

The third building is located in the south east part of the county, on Highway 95 in Greenback. At this location you will find another building that can be used for an emergency first-aid station in the State of Tennessee which is equipped for this type of fire fighting. Fire fighting is by far it's most frequent call in the Loudon-Lenoir City area. With three big tanker trucks, with a total capacity of 5,400 gallon of water, the unit attempts to provide fire fighting services to the rural areas similar to that of fire-fighters inside the cities. Many homes and other buildings have been saved, and even in case where the squad was not able to get to a fire in time to save the initially burning building adjacent buildings have been saved. The question that is never asked, "Do you have insurance?" inspected by the E.M.S. They have special chauffeur licensed drivers and registered emergency medical technicians to operate these services. Some of the latest and most modern will be found in the first-aid supplies and equipment used in these vehicles. Dual oxygen systems, suction units, bag masks, air splints, padded wooden splints, traction splints, short and long spine boards, portable cots, burn sheets, blankets, body bags, O.B. kits, rescue emergency blankets, two-way radios, scoop-stretcher, and the new X build-a-board scoop stretcher. This unit was the second one to be purchased by the Maryville, Knoxville Lenoir City-Loudon Area. The response time on these vehicles from time of call to time at the scene is 9-11 minutes on a one way average one-hundred-fifty nine calls were answered in 1974.

One station wagon crash vehicle is also at the Greenback location, equipped with two-way radio, oxygen unit, fire fighting gear to provide a quick safety factor in case of a car fire, porta-powers, power saws, come-alongs, cables, rope, chains, axes, pry-bars, can opener type pry bar tool, stretcher and hand tools.

Three boats and motors mounted on trailers are ready to be used at any time day or night. Portable generators are kept ready for lighting and emergency power. All rescue squad vehicles have flash light and hand lights in them and are checked often to be sure they are in working order.

Do rescue squadmen have wives? Yes! These wives are to be congratulated for their steadfast love and dedication to their husbands as members of the rescue squad. Also for their kindness and the willingness to help others. So many times a wife's plans for the day or weekend are changed or adjusted to make up for a week missed. So many times these men will lose hour after hour of work to help others. The following is a mission report for the year 1974: First-aid Stand by 43; Car wrecks, 19; Lost Persons, 2; Oxygen Calls 6; Fire fighting 8; Ambulance Calls, 150; House fires, 24; Business fires, 3; Barn fires, 2; Car fires, 25; Field fires, 18; Tomatoes, 2; Flood waters, 1; State and Region meetings, 1; State and Region fire stand-by, 48; week ends, 1; Called work details, 3; Total of 417 missions or calls, 16,246 man hours 12,889 miles driven. The first four months of 1975 calls have increased by ten percent over last year. Fire calls up approximately ten percent, car wrecks, twelve percent. Lost persons, eight percent. Ambulance calls twelve percent.

TVA Hikes Rates Again

TVA has announced that the continuing rise in power system fuel expense will add 85 cents per 1,000 kilowatt-hours on home electric bills in June.

On a typical home electric bill this will represent an increase of about 4 percent over the comparable bill in May, and a total of about 25 percent added by increases in fuel and related costs over the past year. Actual bills and percentage increases vary with the level of power consumption and other factors.

Monthly billing charges are computed to reflect changes in the actual costs of fuel and power purchases for the TVA system, with the June charge based on costs experienced in April.

The average cost of coal burned in TVA power plants in April was nearly $17 a ton, an increase of $1 a ton over the previous month as this overall coal cost continues to show the expected impact from last year's big jump in coal prices. This 17 percent average represents an increase of nearly 100 percent since the end of 1973.

It looks like a very busy year ahead for the Loudon County Emergency and Rescue Squad. Future plans this year are in the making. The rescue squad has or is making plans to extend and increase their many services in the following locations of Loudon County: The Loudon Philadelphia area and the Greenback-411 highway area; also to add more activity to the Lenoir City-Eaton Cross Roads area.

Auxiliary Police Is Reorganized

A reorganization of the Loudon County Auxiliary Police, a branch of the County Civil Defense, was held last Tuesday night, CD Director Don Gidley reported.

The AP's will be headed by Chief Dan Ellis, a long-time Auxiliary and Rescue Squad member. Other officers are Assistant Chief Bill Fox, Captains Bill Lennex and Bobby Johnson.

Chief Ellis said that the Auxiliary and Rescue Squad all law enforcement agencies in the county and be used at the demand of the Civil Defense Director in times of need.

Of course, this means that this couple will celebrate their 56th Wedding Anniversary this year. We are sure their multitude of friends will join with us in wishing them a happy 56th Anniversary. We are sure many of their friends will call or visit with them on this very special occasion in their lives. Again, our most sincere congratulations.

We would like to use another one of our pictures from the group Shad Haskins brought to us. In this picture are Earl Lockie, Mrs. Mary Frances Smith, Tim Watt and Frank Robinson, Jr. It looks like it could be still could find things to create a laugh about and this is a trail that is noteworthy. We again thank Shad for his thinking of us with these old photos of life around Loudon.

We had a very nice letter this past week from our very dear friend, Dan P. Groves of Loudon. This man and his family have meant a lot to me over the passing years. He was my second Master and a very good one. I feel he made a very worthwhile contribution to my life. I attended school with his children and we were good friends.

Mr. Groves sent us a picture which we were grateful for. This old picture was taken at Robertson Springs in June of 1919. To all of us from the Good Old Days, Robertson Spring is a place well known possibly not a place that will make the pages of history, but a very definite important spot in our area of Loudon County. Those in the picture are: Mr. and Mrs. Groves, Mrs. Mary Frances Robinson, Irene Haskins, Maude Robertson, Loudon minister's wife, name unknown, in the center, holding the cup is Mrs. Don Groves and on the bench at right is Maude Mitchell and Don P. Groves. Mr. Groves stated that this picture was made just after he and Mrs. Groves had returned from their honeymoon. The Groves' met when Mrs. Groves came to Loudon to teach school at Robertson School. They were married on May 28, 1919. They recall that most of their courting was done on horseback and they both loved to ride.

Of course, this means that this couple will celebrate their 56th Wedding Anniversary this year. We are sure their multitude of friends will join with us in wishing them a happy 56th Anniversary. We are sure many of their friends will call or visit with them on this very special occasion in their lives. Again, our most sincere congratulations.

We have had many comments and all good about our thoughts about a Good Old Days book. Our many thanks. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Happy Birthday, Frank!

The most popular frank of all, the skinless frank, was born 50 years ago. We know because we're the ones who developed it. First we came up with a cellulose skin that shapes the frank but can be removed after processing. Then we worked with meat packers to find ways to make the frank better and tastier. And to process it at high speed so the price would stay low. As a result, the frankfurter became one of the most popular food items in the world. Last year, Americans ate 21 billion frankfurters. Most of them were made with our casing. The same type of cellulose film also goes around many other delicious things. Bologna, pepperoni, kielbasa, kosher salami, bratwurst—you name it. Other films we make help preserve the freshness of meats and poultry right to your table. And, of course, you know about our GLAD bags and wraps. As for frank's birthday, if you'd like to help us celebrate it, just look in your refrigerator. The guest of honor is probably in there

Stafford Blasts Blanton Firings

State Representative Benny Stafford (R-Lenoir City), chairman of the Republican Caucus in the State House of Representatives, has charged the Blanton Administration with "wholesale firings throughout the State" in their efforts to satisfy the patronage needs of party hacks and politicians eager for "a piece of the action."
Stafford earlier exposed a number of hiring and firing improprieties in the Blanton administration, said that the recent reinstatement of two employees in the Department of Conservation, coupled with the previous reinstatement of three workers in the Department of Personnel was an indication that "if you call their hand with the threat of legal action, they'll back down, because they know they're wrong."
The East Tennessee lawmaker said that the State's Board of Cosmetology has been the latest target area for wholesale patronage pay-offs. "Regional inspectors from Middle Tennessee, Knoxville, and Chattanooga have either already been fired or are being threatened now," he revealed.
Stafford, hinting that a major disclosure concerning improprieties involving the Blanton Administration and their involvement with the operations of the Cosmetology Board is expected "any day now" said "the firing of regional inspectors for the Board was plainly political. These jobs pay only $300 and $400 per month."
"To illustrate my point," he continued, "you might take the case of Jane Maddox of Crossville who was fired by G.C. Warren, Director of Regulatory Boards on March 11, 1975."
"Mrs. Maddox was fired, according to a letter from Warren, which I am releasing to the news media today, because she did not live in the center geographically of her 19 county region and allegedly was causing extra travel expenses to the furthest points of her region," Stafford said.
According to Stafford, Mrs. Maddox lives in Crossville. "The region she was responsible for ran northeast to Jellico, southeast to Dayton, northwest to Selma and southwest to Woodbury," he said.
"According to all reports I got, the woman was doing a creditable job. And, this seems to be a mighty flimsy excuse for dismissal," he added.
"The real injustice in this case is that the woman they hired to replace Mrs. Maddox lives within the same community," Stafford revealed. "And, she does not meet the minimum requirements for an inspector."
According to the Department of Personnel, Eunice Stevens, 58, of Rt. 4, Crossville, has been named to the position. She has no experience as a hair dresser, nor has she attended a school of cosmetology. Her previous employment was as a bookkeeper and sales person (from 1964 to 1975) at a crossville hardware. She is not a high school graduate.

"The State requirements, according to the Department of Personnel, state that an inspector for the Cosmetology Board must have a high school diploma, must be a graduate of an accredited school of cosmetology, and must hold a state cosmetology license as well as have had worked two of the last five years in the field of cosmetology," Stafford said.
Mrs. Maddox's replacement meets none of these requirements, according to Stafford. He said that the employment of Stevens, whose assistance and advice have been sought and heeded by every other nation, began early in the 17th century, the Atlantic seaboard of North America began to develop as the home of all conditions of men from a score or more of nations. English Protestants settled in New England; English Catholics in Maryland. The Dutch built a town on Manhattan and established large estates on Long Island and up the Hudson River. German peasants slowly conquered the Pennsylvania wilderness. The Scotch-Irish struggled into the Carolina mountains. Swedes settled in Delaware. France claimed the land from Maine to the peninsula between Lake Huron and Lake Michigan and down the valley of the Mississippi to New Orleans and Baton Rouge. New Spain stretched from Florida to San Antonio, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Those who first came to America were not only different in nationality but in customs and occupations as well. Many are wondering, in the midst of the terrible chaos in which we are living, if this is any time to try to commemorate the success of the American experiment — even wondering, if it is a success. From California to Maine, from Alaska to Florida, the Bicentennial should be a time when Americans take stock of themselves, measure themselves by the standards of truth which never change, even when they are called "old fashioned." Honor and decent ways of living have been sought and heeded by every other nation, beginning in the 17th century, the Atlantic seaboard of North America began to develop as the home of all

FORECLOSURE
NOTICE
 WHEREAS, by a deed of trust dated 21 June 1973, of record in the Register of Deeds office for Loudon County, Tennessee, in Trust Book 136, page 45, et seq., Clyde J. Davis and wife, Nell Davis, did convey in trust to Donald L. Canter, Trustee, the tract of land hereinafter described to secure the payment of the principal sum of $21,196.11, evidenced by promissory note due Hamilton National Bank of Loudon, Tennessee, all as stated in said deed of trust, and being incorporated herein by reference; and WHEREAS, said deed of trust provided that in the event of default in the payment of any of said notes and interest, when due, the entire indebtedness shall at the option of the holders and owners thereof become due and payable, including attorney fees as provided by said note; and WHEREAS, default having been made in the payment of certain installments, now due, and the holders of said notes having declared the entire balance now due and payable, and have instructed the undersigned Trustee to foreclose said deed of trust.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of authority vested in me, as Trustee under said instrument, I will, on Saturday, the 14th day of June, 1975, offer for sale and sell in front of the courthouse door in Loudon, Tennessee, at 10:30 a.m., Eastern Daylight Savings Time, to the last, highest and best bidder, for cash in hand, and in bar of the equity of redemption, the following described property: Located in the First Civil District of Loudon County, Tennessee, and being Lot No. 8 of the Huff Addition to the Town of Loudon as surveyed by J. F. McQuire on April 22, 1941, which addition plat is of record in the Register's office for Loudon County, Tennessee, in deed book 41, page 546, and being more particularly bounded and described as follows:

BEGINNING on a stake in the Robinson Road, corner to Robert Easter; thence N. 41 degrees 30' W. 330 feet to a stake, corner with Lot 7; thence S. 45 degrees 30' W. 125 feet to a stake and corner with Jones; thence with Jones S. 41 degrees 30' E. 342 feet to a stake and corner in Robinson Road; thence with said road N. 48 degrees E. 106 feet to a stake; thence N. 42 degrees 30' E. 19 feet to the point of beginning, containing one acre, more or less, as shown by survey of R. W. Sweney, Jr., dated September 1, 1970. Being the same property conveyed to Clyde J. Davis and wife, Nell Davis, by deed of record in the Register's office for Loudon County, Tennessee, in deed book 314, page 197.

Notice is also given to any holder of any second mortgage or deed of trust on said property. Trustee believes that said property is free and clear except for 1974 Loudon County taxes and 1975 Loudon County taxes, and a second deed of trust of record in Trust Book 136, page 48, Register of Deeds office for Loudon County, Tennessee, to be sold subject to all matters.

New Maintenance Systems Approved

A new maintenance department to cover the county's buildings and school system, was approved by the Personnel Board last week. Approval is contingent on the school board and hospital board agreeing to pay a portion of the costs.

Under the new system, the position of Purchasing Agent and Maintenance Director is created. Archie Buddy's Jenkins, present purchasing agent, will probably fill that position.

A maintenance supervisor would work under the director. The supervisor will have ten attendants at the primary station, three bus-maintenance men and 10 maintenance men.

The Purchasing Agent and Maintenance Director will be paid $11,000 a year each from the schools and the county. The supervisor would get $6,000.

The maintenance men would start at $97 per month. One of the maintenance men would be designated a crew chief and would draw $92 a month.

Judge Russell said the plan will eliminate requests in the school board to double the school maintenance crew. In other action, the board approved a clerk-typist position for the school system's central office but balked at reclassifying Ruth Rutledge who works in the office.

Superintendent Edward Headlee requested the board create a new classification of Administrative Assistant and set a salary of $7,500. Squires Jim Blair and R. P. Hamilton requested the move. They said other employees would then want to be reclassified.

The matter has been a matter of controversy since the personnel system was instituted. Miss Rutledge is classified as a clerk-typist but the school board voted last fall to describe her job as Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent. Headlee told the board she has responsibilities far beyond those of a clerk-typist.

The board discussed changing the classification to secretary and finally settled on requesting a re-evaluation of the position by the state officials who first drew up the classifications.

A request from Judge Russell for a secretary at the Justice Center was approved on the condition Loudon, Lenoir City, the sheriff and the county each pay 1/4 the cost.

SALES SERVICE

PHONE 458-2616

LOUDON, TENN. 37774

Dear Customer:

This is to inform you that we have made a decision to take the following action at Loudon Motor Co., Inc.:

AMERICAN MOTORS FRANCHISE:

To resign as American Motors dealers, effective June 1st, 1975. We are not allowed to sell this franchise as American Motors has decided that when we cease to do business, the point for a dealership will be Lenoir City, Tennessee. It was moved to Loudon in 1958 to allow us to become a dealer.

There is a fine dealer in Lenoir City who would like to have the franchise. If he is selected, I am sure you will be happy to have him service your American Motors products. If not, they have a fine dealer in Delmar Haynes, Alcoa, Tennessee.

CHRYSLER PLYMOUTH FRANCHISE:

We have a buyer for this franchise if the company sees fit to approve their purchase. If this is done, it will be effective June 15th, 1975. The buyers are fine local people who will make excellent auto dealers and will have more time to devote to the business. They will make every effort to service your needs.

Our company has operated for fifty five years. I personally have been here twenty-nine years. I have enjoyed doing business with you and have appreciated your loyalty to me over this period of time. Some of you haven't purchased an auto from anyone except me since I have been in business and I truly appreciate this.

If there is anything I have promised anyone and not taken care of, please let us know as soon as possible. I will not have the facilities to take care of it later.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Jack Randolph

Survey Proposes K-8 School At Loudon

OPENING DAY SUCCESS—Students from the Loudon area took advantage of the free admission to the Loudon Municipal Pool Friday. The opening day Schools Out party drew over 750 persons. The pool is open daily from 12 to 6, Sunday from 1 to 6 and Friday noon until 8 p.m.

County Seeks To Rent Space At West Hill

The Loudon County Board of Education and the County Court will get a rundown on what the County School Survey, which has been conducted by a team of University of Tennessee professors, will say at a meeting Friday at 7 p.m. at the courthouse.

Superintendent of Education Edward Headlee said the meeting will be to let the board and the county start plans on action it might want to take in regard to the current budget process.

Headlee said he has seen the rough draft and it includes a substantially lower outlay for school buildings and remodeling than had been proposed in the board's four year program. He said there will be two or three additions in the county and one new building which is being added.

The major addition would be a Loudon Junior High where existing classrooms, built to close the Loudon Grammar School and move all students kindergarten through the eighth grade to that one 800 student school.

Headlee said the survey does not recommend a new school at Glendale as is being sought by a parent group there. He said it will recommend the closing of Glendale, Browder and Davis. He will suggest major additions at other schools to bring all schools to 6 S status with state approval.

Concerning immediate plans for Glendale, Squire Boyd Duckworth suggested the county approach the Lenoir City Board of Education about the possibility of leasing the available space at the West Hill School to take care of the Glendale students next year.

In other discussion the Boarder School was tossed in and the Budget Committee in formal resolution asked Headlee to see if space could be obtained from Lenoir City, on a lease basis, for the Glendale and Browder students. It was understood by several that Lenoir City is using less than half the classroom space at West Hill. Moving Glendale students to West Hill would eliminate an expenditure estimated at $25,000 to put Glendale in usable condition.

In discussing the record $3.4 million school budget, Headlee indicated that about $150,000 in capital outlay for school renovation and remodeling could be eliminated by including these items in the bond issue for school construction and this would not reflect on the 1975-76 school budget.

The meeting between Headlee and the Budget Committee was mainly to see how much Headlee had been able to trim from the school budget, which asks $175,000 in local tax money, up some $600,000 from last year.

Headlee said about $50,000 in cuts, but said most of his final figures are being held up by the state legislature. He said he is hoping after the state education appropriations by the state legislature. He said he is hoping after the state education appropriations by the state legislature. ## $8,000 Grant Approved To Study Law Enforcement Consolidation

The Tennessee Law Enforcement Planning Commission announced today that it has approved a $8,000 award to Loudon County. The funds will be used to study the feasibility of consolidating Loudon County, City of Loudon and Lenoir City Criminal Justice Agencies. Judge William H. Russell will serve as project director.

The grant application was prepared with the assistance of the East Tennessee Development District.

The money is part of a block grant of federal funds made to the State of Tennessee by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration for the purpose of improving the criminal justice system in the state.

The Tennessee Law Enforcement Planning Commission's grant will provide 90 percent of the project cost. The remaining 10 percent will be supplied by equal shares of state and local funds.

The combination of the police agencies in Loudon County was proposed by the Fort Loudon Chapter of the Fraternal Order of Police last winter. The FOP is an organization of active law enforcement officers in the county, comprised of the Sheriff's Department and city police departments.

Such a move had been expected to allow the completion of the new Justice Center which serves as central jail and communications center for all law enforcement in the Loudon County.

Judge Russell is expected to hire a specialist group to conduct the study of economic feasibility of the proposal and to determine if the quality of law enforcement will be greater through a metro-type of police department.

It is understood that leading public officials in the county and both the cities of Loudon and Lenoir City are interested in the possibility but have reserved comment until a study and a complete proposal can be outlined.

Under the proposal presented to county court by Lenoir City Police Chief Clifton Williams last year the top law enforcement officer in the county would be a County Chief of Police, appointed and hired by a Law Enforcement Commission established by the county and two cities.

BABY CRITICALLY INJURED—A two year old child, Chad Houston Thompson, was critically injured when the Volkswagen, pictured, collided with a farm tractor on Grimes Road Saturday. Two other persons in the car received less serious injuries.

Boy, 2, Suffers Skull Fracture

A two year old Loudon boy, Chad Houston Thompson, received a skull fracture, and two other persons received lesser injuries when the Volkswagen they were riding in collided with a farm tractor on Grimes Road near Loudon Saturday afternoon.

County Deputy Allen Clemmer said the farm tractor, driven by Ed Walden, 65, was pulling from a private drive onto Grimes Road when the collision occurred.

Clemmer said that a slight hill and tall grass along the roadside apparently prevented the man from seeing the oncoming car.

The car was driven by Janice Thompson, 25, Rt. 4, Loudon. Mrs. Thompson and another passenger Lanett Lynn, 15, received face, head and other injuries, but were treated and released from Loudon County Memorial Hospital. The tractor driver escaped injury, Clemmer said.

The child, son of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Thompson, was taken to Loudon where the injury was determined then was transferred to U-T Hospital in Knoxville where he was reported to be in critical condition Sunday.

The youngster underwent surgery Sunday at U-T to relieve pressure on the brain caused by the injury. The family reported that there was no permanent brain damage. He was released from intensive care Monday and removed from the critical list. He will remain hospitalized for about a week.

48 Indicted By Grand Jury

The Loudon County Criminal Court Grand Jury returned 48 indictments on 48 of the 69 cases it heard. Jury cases are now scheduled, beginning this past Monday through June 18. Criminal Court Clerk Billy Joe Akins reported.

Union Carbide Open House Set

Union Carbide Films-Packaging Division at Loudon will invite all employees, their families and friends to an open house on Thursday, June 5, from 1:30 to 6:30 p.m. in recognition of the firm's anniversary of the Division.

It was in 1925 that the Visiting Corporation, predecessor of Union Carbide Films-Packaging Division, was established in a building located in the Union Stock Yards in Chicago. The firm was the first producer of man-made sausage casing — a manufacturing feat which followed almost 18 years of research in an effort to find a material and develop the machinery to produce a substitute for the animal casings for winners and other sausage products in use until that time.

The last 18 years of that half-century have seen a plant located at Loudon engaged in the production of cellulose casing which is used in the meat packing industry all over the world.

The open house will feature guided tours through the plant — for many Loudon contains their first opportunity to see the operation and visiting employees, their families and the general public will be served (what else?) hot dogs as well as other refreshments.

Further plans for the 50th anniversary observance and background information about the development of the manufacturing process and the company will be published in this newspaper next week.

Vo-Ed Bid Opening Today

The State Department of Education will open bids today (Thursday) on the Loudon County Vocational School Center. The state projected construction contract cost of the school is $1.2 million.

The school will be built on a 25 acre tract of land the county recently purchased from Jim Fine for $50,000.

County Court Meeting At 7 p.m. Monday

Loudon County Court will meet for their regular June meeting Monday at 7 p.m. in the main courtroom, Judge William Russell announced this week.

Among the items of discussion are the new Intercal Cooperation Act, consideration of a county road bond issue, and consideration of a charge in funding procedures for the County Health Department.

Regular reports will come from the planning commission, department of education, purchasing department, Justice Court, hospital and ambulance service. There are two agenda considerations on the agenda.

MRS. MARY M. JONES, South Central Bell Service representative in Lenoir City, recently received a gold watch from W. F. Vandell, Division Manager for the Company in recognition of her 30 years of service to the firm.

Mary Jones Honored By South Central Bell

In a special ceremony at the Lenoir City Business Office last week South Central Bell honored Mrs. Mary M. Jones for 30 years of Bell System Service.

Mrs. Jones was presented a 17 jewel gold wristwatch by W. F. Vandell, Division Commercial Manager from Knoxville, L.S. Dale, District Manager from Oak Ridge. Mrs. Jones was also on hand to present Mrs. Jones with a six point golden sapphire pin marking her 30 years of service to the firm.

Mrs. Jones began her telephone career here in Lenoir City in 1945. Her first job was an operator in the Traffic exchange office. She served in this capacity until 1960 when she was transferred to her present position of Service Representative in the local Business Office. Her job brings her into contact with every phase of the telephone business as she responds to customer needs and follows through to see they are met.

A lifetime resident of Loudon County, Mrs. Jones (the former Mary Maples) has one son, Buddy, Jones of Wichita Falls, Texas, and a six year old grandson. Mrs. Jones attends Trinity United Methodist Church here.

Mr. Vandell, in making the presentation said, "We are extremely fortunate from the standpoint of the company and the customer to have an employee with Mrs. Jones' ability, background, and experience."

JOHN J. CRUTCHFIELD, Daisy, will show original etchings, many of them well-loved Southern scenes, at the Festival. The limited editions of these delicate etchings are signed and numbered. ## Local Artists, Craftsmen Key To Annual Festival

Last June more than 15,000 people attended the Lenoir City Arts and Crafts Festival, arriving by boat, by bus, by automobile and on foot. And this year the sponsoring club, Suburbia Junior Woman's Club, is ready for an even greater influx of visitors to browse and buy original paintings, pottery and other handcrafted items for the home and for gifts.

The 13th annual Arts and Crafts Festival is scheduled for Saturday, June 7 and is described by the Festival Chairman, Mrs. Bobby Black, as expected to be "better than ever." Mrs. Bill Kirkland is co-chairman. The festival site for the annual event is, as always, the Lenoir City Park peninsula into Ft. Loudoun Lake. Paintings and crafts will be displayed on tables and on clothes lines among the trees of the park.

Hours are from 10 a. m. to 6 p.m. Should inclement weather occur, the Festival will be held Sunday, June 8, from 10 to 6 p.m. In case of bad weather both days, the Festival will be held the following Saturday, June 14.

There is no admission charge and purchases may be made directly with the exhibitors.

Selections may be made this year from a wide variety of arts and crafts, including paintings in oils, acrylics, pastels and water colors; tile and quilling; sculpture, wheel-thrown pottery, stitchery, needlecraft, leathercraft, woodcraft, egg shell art, ceramics, decorated hand bags, jewelry and candles.

Club members will man a food booth throughout the day. Hamburgers, hot dogs and cold drinks will be available. There will be a barbecued chicken plate, including baked beans, cole slaw, bread, coffee or tea, served at the noon hours.

Signs directing visitors to the Festival will be erected on main highways into Lenoir City. Members of the Auxiliary Police will be on hand to assist with parking in the area, or for those who prefer, buses will run regularly from Lenoir City Shopping Center parking lot to the Festival.

"Last year those visitors who came to see and buy, or to just enjoy the setting found it a most pleasant experience," Mrs. Vernon McKinney, club president, said, "and everything indicates that this year will offer more of the same."

Area artists and exhibitors slated to participate in the festival include:

From Lenoir City: Lamar M. Anthony, wood carving and woodwork; Mrs. J.E. Adams, beads, rings, bracelets, earrings; Mrs. Anne Avery Bailey, rag dolls, stuffed animals, appliqued shirts, Christmas decorations; Mrs. Iva Brewster, needlecraft, quilts, pillows, crocheted work; Calberta Baird Bowden, oils and water colors; Wayne Blankenship, oil paintings; Margaret Littleton, sock dolls; Robert M. Leuze, pottery; Martel United Methodist Church, baked goods; Gwen Patterson, three-dimensional ceramic plaques; decoupage; Linda L. Phillips, crocheted afghans, ceramics; Vivio Robinson, water colors, oils, pastels, ink drawings, collages, quilts; Janice Spoon, holly hobby dolls; Apon, embroidered pillow cases; Lynda Wheeler, oil paintings; Ella Wilkerson, oils, acrylics, water colors; Joy Hesseque, oils, acrylics, water colors.

From Lenoir, Mrs. Lillie Bridges, Raggedy Ann and Andy, bonnets, ties, granny dresses, button beads.

From Greeneback, Karen Boruff, crocheted afghans, baby blankets, bunnings, old fashioned bonnets, hand made cloth and corn shuck flowers, dried flower arrangements, house plants; Mrs. Fred Lifer, needlecraft, jewelry, candles.

From Concord, Mrs. E.C. (Mildred) Cole, ceramics, handbags, needlepoint, embroidery; Polly Fox, ceramics, needlecraft, terrariums; Marie Hopwood, decoupage plaques, boxes and purses; textured art, polydorns; Marjorie LaRue, art, ceramics, dolls, chalks, wood signs; Margie McFall, hanging pots, penum people, stools, basket flowers, candles, decoupage bread; Judy Perry, crocheted afghans and baby blankets; Nancy Hopkins, crocheted plant hangers and bottle planters.

County Choral Society Coffee Concert Friday

Loudon County Choral Society will present a "Coffee Concert" of music from Broadway musical shows Friday night at the Lenoir City High School cafeteria, beginning at 8 p.m.

"We believe everyone, from lovers of so-called 'serious music' to rock and country fans will enjoy this program," declared Vernon McKinney, director of the group. "At any rate, we've been having a great time getting it ready, and that's frequently a good indication."

The program will be presented in a somewhat innovative manner. The audience will be seated around tables in the cafeteria and invited to enjoy pie and coffee during the program, McKinney said.

Admission price of $1.50 covers both the program and refreshments. Choral society members have tickets for sale.

The group presented the same concert at Roanoke State Community College May 15 as one of the programs in the school's week-long "Spring Sing."

The Loudon County Choral Society was organized about 10 years ago and in recent years has presented one or two concerts a year and has sung at various events. They appeared at the Lenoir City High School graduation Friday night. Until this year, Roy G. Carwell Jr. has been director, but he asked to be relieved because of a heavy travel schedule this year.

Piano accompanists are Mrs. Natalie Curtis and Mrs. Maxine McKinney.

McKinney suggested that those who plan to attend arrange for their tickets ahead of time. "We can seat only about 200 and advance tickets are selling well. Every member of the group has tickets and you could arrange for tickets by calling Mrs. Joe Malone, secretary, or Ivan Threlk, president, of the Choral Society or Roy Carwell, ticket chairman, both at 231-1111.

The program will include: "Another Op'nin', Another Show," from "Kiss Me Kate" by Cole Porter; "Consider Yourself," from "Oliver" by Lionel Bart; Medley from "Hello, Dolly" by Jerry Herman; "Italian Street Song," from "Naughty Marietta" by Victor Herbert, sung by Laris Frater; "Sound of Music," sung by Barbara Easter, and "Climb Every Mountain," both from "Sound of Music" by Rodgers and Hammerstein; "Try to Remember," from "The Fantasticks" by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt; "Summertime," from "Porgy and Bess" by George Gershwin, sung by Jenni Cusick; "There is Nothing Like a Dame," from "South Pacific" by Rodgers and Hammerstein, sung by the men's chorus; "Seventy Six Trombones" from "The Music Man" by Meredith Willson; Title Song from "Mame," sung by Vernon McKinney; "I'm Just a Girl Who Can't Say No," sung by Janet Shaw, and the Title Song, both from "Oklahoma" by Rodgers and Hammerstein; and "Hey, Look Me Over," from "Wildcat," by Carolyn Leigh and Cy Coleman.

374 Businesses In Loudon County

For its size, Loudon County supports a large number of business establishments. According to figures recently released by the government in operation locally, in proportion to population, there are many communities across the country. The findings are reported in a new study by the Department of Commerce, entitled "County Business Patterns."

It is based upon data compiled by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare from tax reports filed last year by employers. In it is listed, for every county in the United States, comparable data on employment and payrolls for firms engaged in retail and wholesale trade, manufacturing, finance, services and the like. In operation in Loudon County are some 374 separate businesses that employ one or more persons; the figures show. In addition, there are an untabulated number that have no employees and are owner-operated. Of the 374 listed, there are 190 that have from 1 to 3 persons on their payrolls, 92 with 4 to 7 and 65 with 8 to 19. Although firms of long standing make up the bulk of the local business community, each year witnesses some changes as new enterprises are started and some older ones are discontinued for one reason or another. As in most parts of the country, small and medium-size businesses predominate locally. They have proved to be quite durable, despite the competition from chain stores and other large companies. The report shows that 93 percent of them have 20 employees or less. Nationally, 84 percent are that size. At last count, businesses in Loudon County were providing gainful employment for some 5,777 men and women in non-farm, covered jobs. By "covered" is meant employment that falls within the scope of Social Security. Not included are self-employed people, domestic workers, members of the armed forces and government workers. Because wages and salaries have been going up, year by year, the annual payroll for these covered workers has also been rising. It has reached a high of $35,020,900.

Blair Bend Developers Outline Building Plans

A group of about 20 homebuilders, suppliers and finance people attended a dinner meeting at the Loudon VFW Friday to hear the plans of the Creative Properties Development Company for the residential development in the Blair Bend area at Loudon. Roger Davis and John H. Weston Jr., two of the principals of CPD, said that they are ready to start construction soon on property (51 acres) they had purchased from Cecil Webb and that they are still trying to finalize the purchase of the 280-acre W. D. Williamson farm.

Davis stated that a road had been cut into the 51-acre site and that 27 lots had been platted on the top of an overlook to the Tennessee River. The lots will sell for $5,000 to $11,000 on an average of $7,500. They stated the road into the project, which will be single family homes, will be paved and completed in July, that water should be in place by mid-June and final planning commission approval is expected in June.

The developers said they will now take reservations for lots and will sell to developers. Weston said he and Davis plan to build a few homes in the area this summer and hoped that other builders would build speculative homes at the same time in order to have a Parade of Homes. Just before the fall school term begins.

Creative Properties, a Maryville based firm, has long range plans for a massive apartment, condominium and recreational development, should the purchase of the Williamson property be completed. They said earlier this year it is possible for up to $20 million in housing and land development to take place on the area.

Davis commented that the site has more natural beauty than any in East Tennessee and the development plan will protect and enhance that beauty. He said the company hopes to attract buyers from the Knoxville-Oak Ridge area and later in the multi-family development get retired couples from the northern area of the country to move to the development.

Willard Price At LSU

Price, Cashier, Bank of Loudon County, Lenoir City, is among the 1,272 bankers attending the 28th annual two-week session of the School of Banking at the South being held at Louisiana State University. Classes started May 19 and continue through May 31, covering advanced study in all phases of banking, economics, and finance. The school, sponsored by bankers associations of 15 southern states, requires attendance at campus sessions for three years, plus extensive home study work during the remainder of the year. An outstanding faculty of more than 100 bankers, businessmen, economists, and educators teach courses dealing with bank management, service and operations. During their three years at LSU, banker-students receive a total of 180 hours of classroom instruction, 20 hours of review, organized evening study, and written final examinations at the end of each year.

"This program makes an important contribution toward improving and increasing the type and quality of banking services being offered in the South," said Charles Cassidy, Director of the School. Mr. Cassidy is chairman of First State Bank and Trust Co., Bogalusa, La. In addition to class lectures, instruction concentrates on banking and business case studies.

Watson Gets BA Degree

Rufus Brown Watson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Watson, 704 Lakeview Drive, Loudon, received a B. A. degree in Political Science at commencement exercises at the University of the South, Sewanee, Sunday, May 28. The ceremony included presentation of honorary degrees, awarding of honorary doctorates and earned degrees. Mr. Watson earned his degree in December, 1974.

He was a member of the Order of Gileadites, the Delegate Assembly, president of the Blue Key, president of the Green Tabernacle Society, vice-president of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, a member of the Track Team, and the Sewanee Volunteer Fire Department. He was Captain of the Football Team and selected for inclusion in Who's Who Among Colleges and Universities.

Eddie Harbin, felonious assault. Sandra Harbin, Hebe McShoul, Common Archer and Richard Archer, assault and battery. Curtis Williams, drunk and disorderly, assault and battery.

Jack Sledge and Larry Lynn of Monroe County entered pleas of guilty to a charge of attempting to commit a felony Monday. They were sentenced to one to three years in prison and given 90 days to file an application for probation.

The two were caught at Ferguson's Flying Circus, a private airport at Philadelphia which has been hard hit by gas thieves in recent months. Airport owner Buich Ferguson shot Sledge with a shotgun when the man ran after he confronted them attempting to take gasoline out of one of the nine aircraft based at the strip.

Greenback Hit By Vandals

Vandals did minor damage at Greenback High School sometime Friday night.

County Deputy Tom Jensen said that the vandals went into the school cafeteria through a window. Inside they opened a cooler and broke a quantity of eggs.

After using another window to get into the hallways of the school, clothes on coat hooks were scattered in the hallways and curtains in the restrooms were stuffed into toilets.

LC Golfers Place Third In Region Meet

The Loudon City Panther Golf team has been eliminated from last season's tournament play. The Panthers of Coach Joe Hall placed third in last week's Region High School Golf Tournament at Moccasin Bend in Chattanooga.

The third place team finish closed the Panther season at 264 for regular season play and if tournament competition was added in as done in the college ranks. The Panther golfers would have a closing 449 record. At any respect the Panther golf team of 1975 will have to rate as the all time best to date for the Loudon City School as a team, and as individuals, finishing the season as probably somewhere in the top dozen high school golf team in the state.

RICKY MOORE HAS BEST LC EFFORT IN REGION PLAY

Notre Dame (team) and the top four individual best region scores now qualify for state tournament play which begins with a Nashvilles Harpeth Hills Golf Course. The tournament ends June 5. Region Tournament scores:

Game & Fish WILDLIFE RESOURCES

REX COLLIER 458-5589 HUNTING SEASONS TO BE SET

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission will meet May 29, 30 in Nashville's Ellington Agricultural Center to set the 1975-76 hunting seasons and bag limits.

The public meeting will get underway Friday, May 30 at 10 a.m. at which time sportsman will have the opportunity to discuss the proposed hunting season dates before being approved by the Commission.

Seasons, dates, and bag limits for all huntable wildlife species have been developed by regional and Nashville office wildlife biologists. The recommendations made by the Agency's wildlife biologists were developed following public meetings held earlier this spring.

THREE NEW COMMISSIONERS NAMED Three commissioners for the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission, the policy-making body of the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency, have been named by Governor Ray Blanton.

The new commissioners are William R. Law of Riddleton replacing the expired term of Edgar Ewins of Alexandria.

Sheena Lindner, Marietta Blackburn, Win Twice In Loudon Booster Club Tennis Tournament

Three Loudon girls took home two titles each from the Loudon Booster Club Tennis Tournament last weekend. Marietta Blackburn won the Women's A Singles by beating Sue Watson, 6-0, 6-4, and then teamed with Richard Blackburn to win the Mixed A Doubles over Gary Lindner and Terry McCabe, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5.

David Aaron took the Men's Intermediate B Singles, 6-1, 6-3, over John Munsey. He and Charlie Winkle won the Men's B Singles, 6-2, 6-4, over Jack Ferguson and Ron Henderson.

Sheena Lindner also claimed two titles. She defeated Glenda Arp, 6-0, 6-0, for the Women's B Singles. She and Glenda Arp won the Mixed B Doubles, 6-3, 6-1, over David Brodner and Glenda Arp.

Ben Plant of Oak Ridge replacing Rhea Brodner of Harriman; and Dr. Harold Butler of Union City replacing James Beasley of Milan. All three will see their first official action as member of the 10-member board of commissioners May 29, 30 in the scheduled Commission meeting in Nashville.

Harriman, District 10 Baseball Champ, Goes Down

Defending state champion Tullahoma scored twice in the first inning for the game's only runs Monday night as the Wildcats edged Harriman 2-0 in the opening round of the TSSAA state baseball playoffs at Papermaker Park in Harriman.

Joe Tuck, top hurler for the Wildcats pitching staff for the past three seasons, made the early lead stand up, allowing Harriman only three hits and striking out 12 Blue Devil batters along the way.

Harriman, which had pushed across 23 runs in a two-game sweep of the Region Three tournament at Clinton was unable to mount an effective attack Monday night but stayed within range throughout with a brilliant defensive effort behind the effective pitching of minor league Larry Wright.

Some 600 fans (paid attendance) turned out for the contest despite a light drizzle following a heavy afternoon shower which almost forced postponement of the contest.

Harriman threatened in the first inning as Grady Langley reached on an error and Glen Randolph drew a two-out walk, however Tuck bore down to retire Mike Weaver on a pickup to second to retire the side.

The Wildcats put together half of their six hits for the evening in the bottom of the first to account for the game's only runs.

With one away, Ronnie James doubled to right center, and then came around to score on another double by Scott Darlington. Tuck fled to rightfield for the second out, however Tom Finch singled to center, and the weather came into play here as Bob Wisener half-slipped as he charged the ball with a better than even chance of nailing the runner at the plate.

Wright, getting brilliant fielding support from Wisener in center, Langley at second, and Greg Scandyn in right, got his stuff together at this point and retired 13 of the next 16 Tullahoma hitters before a pair of harmless two-out singles in the Wildcats final turn at the plate. Wright did not walk a batter in the contest and was supported by errorless ball from his teammates.

Wisener kept Harriman's hopes alive in the seventh with a long leadoff double to the wall in right center, however Tuck retired Ewins on a grounder to shortstop and got the final two batters on strikeouts to end the game.

Tullahoma is now set to face Kingsport Thursday night in the semifinals as the Wildcats bid to repeat as TSSAA state champs.

Forty-six people drowned in 1974 while using TVA lakes for recreation, Dr. James A. Oppold, planning supervisor of TVA's Hazard Control of TVA's Hazard Control program at Chattanooga, said recently.

"This statistic represents a tragic waste of human life," Dr. Oppold said. "Most drownings occur because everyone fails to take common-sense precautions. The toll could be much lower if everyone using the lakes would avoid unnecessary risks."

Factors in boating deaths included boating without flotation devices, inexperienced or unsafe operation of the boat, drinking and other unsafe conduct, overloaded boats, and other common violations of boating safety practices.

Two 25 Lap Races Set

A $200 bonus will be the reward Saturday night at Atomic Speedway if a late model sportsman driver can win, start on the back of the field, and then duplicate the feat.

A pair of Twin 25s are on tap at the third-mile dirt oval to headline the weekly show. If the same driver wins both, he gets the extra $200 for a total take-home of $750. Each of the 25-lappers will be worth $75 for first place.

The payoff for the next five positions will be $150, $100, $75, $50, and $40.

The competition gets under way at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $4 (reserved) and $3.50 (general admission).

Only the fastest 20 cars in time trials will start the Twin 25s. A semi-feature is scheduled for drivers not making the main attraction. Class B drivers, the amateurs, are to run their longest feature of the season - a 30-lapper. Meanwhile, Little Bill Corum has finally gotten back to the front at the speedway.

Piloting a newly built Camaro for the first time, Corum won last Saturday's 30-lap feature. It was his first triumph of the season. He had to battle to hold off Todd Estes at the finish.

City Golf Standings Have Little Change

John Cobb and Richard Archer held to their first place ranking in the American Division of Loudon City Golf League this week but Monty Lawson and Gordo Watson, idle last week, are right back after the top position.

Cobb and Archer rolled up a 24 point lead two weeks ago and found themselves 19 team points ahead of Lawson and Watson this week. Cobb and Archer have 123 team points to date. Lawson and Watson have accumulated 104.

Butch Early and Coye Blankenship, who had moved up as high as second last week fell back to third place with 100 points to their credit.

John Greer and John Greer, Jr. can't seem to shake the challenge of Jack Ferguson.

Paul Brakelich and Inky Swiney are stationed in fourth place but still active in the season race with 102 team points.

Dick Ryan and Red Ryan battled to take the team low score honors last week with a 74.

Billy Chambers has a slim one point lead over Jack Ferguson.

Mrs. Crabtree stated that a full crew of full time lifeguards had not been hired at the present time other than Mr. Watson being named to the head post. Loudon pool hours are Monday through Saturday, 12 noon til 6 p.m. and 14 on Sunday's. Private pool parties are also available upon request and a charge of $25.

David Hamill and Donnie Lambert brought home the low team net score in the American Division this week with a 72 combination.

Joe Mourfield was the top individual player with a 69 medalist score.

John Cobb is steadily pulling away in the individual point race with a current total of 59. He is followed by a fast charging Buck Kirkland who has 57 individual points and Coye Blankenship, 56 points.

Bert Ratledge is the new entry in the National Division play, taking the partner spot along side Cotton Thomas. Ratledge replaces Bobby Purdy for the remainder of the season.

John Greer and John Greer, Jr. can't seem to shake the challenge of Jack Ferguson.

Recreation Baseball To Girl Softball Players To Tryout

The Loudon Summer Recreation program is expected to be moving under a full head of steam by the first week of June.

Loudon Recreation Director Bill Birkholz stated this week that he was expecting some 16 teams to take part in the youth league baseball program and that the men's softball play was already involved in its second week of league activity.

"We had an excellent turn out last Saturday for baseball tryouts," continued Birkholz. "We plan to finish with the older groups (Babe Ruth and Senior Babe Ruth) by mid week and then we will release each team roster for printing."

Right now we are short on uniforms for several teams and are expecting them to be here by the weekend. They have not been lettered and therefore team nicknames are undecided as of now."

Birkholz will list team schedules by listing team manager's names for the first few league games.

A possible first, and certainly for Loudon will be a woman coaching a boys team in baseball. Due to a shortage of interested parents and adults as managers and coaches Mr. Birkholz has had to draft his wife Sheila to pilot one of the Minor League teams.

The first week's baseball schedule is as follows:

- DIKIE YOUTH LEAGUE (new field adjacent high school)
  - Monday, June 3: 6:30 p.m. Jim Kizer vs Leroy Russell; 8:00 p.m. Jo Heason vs Mike Russell
  - BABE RUTH LEAGUE (Legion Field)
    - Friday, June 6: 8:30 p.m. Wayne Watson vs Harold Brookshire; 8:00 p.m. Larry Hughes vs Johnny Everett
    - MINOR LEAGUE
      - Saturday, June 7: 9:30 a.m. Chli Jones vs Tommy Godsey; 10:30 a.m. Charlie Kerr vs Sheila Birkholz
      - SENIOR BABE RUTH LEAGUE
        - Saturday, June 7: 6:30 p.m. Garner Henley vs Danny Russell; 8:00 p.m. Bill Thompson vs Homer Henley

RECREATION TRYOUTS-The Loudon Recreation Department had spring baseball tryouts last Saturday at Legion Field as over 100 youngsters and parents attended the tryout and draft of new players. Pictured is a group of the Dixie Youth tryouts taking turns fielding while a prospective player has his turn at bat. Loudon recreation instructor and high school teacher Jerry Foster operates the Recreation Department's batting machine to speed up the pace of the day long tryouts. A total of 16 teams are expected to be fielded in this summer's Loudon Recreation baseball format.

Loudon Recreation Director Bill Birkholz has set Saturday, May 31 for girl softball tryouts for young ladies ages 12-16. The tryouts will be held at the new baseball field adjacent to Loudon High School. No time was available. For more information contact the Loudon Recreation Department or Walina Lyons.

The annual Loudon summer Youth Club Recreation Program will get underway this next week.

The Loudon Youth Club sponsors the daily recreation activities which start around 9 o'clock each morning, Monday through Friday and carry through until 12 noon.

Summer registration is set for Monday morning at 9 a.m.

For students interested in tennis or basketball, registration will be conducted at Loudon High School.

Also registration for adults in tennis will be Monday evening at the high school at 7 p.m.

For more information contact Coach Bert Ratledge at the high school.

Bank Of Loudon County Unbeaten In Softball

The Bank of Loudon County, annual men's softball league power in the Loudon Recreation format, is once again setting the early pace after two weeks of action.

The Bankers rolled by Union Carbide on 10-4 last week as Sonny Downs and Melvin Hawkins sparked the win with two for three hitting efforts.

Ricky Dixon had two hits in three official bats for the losers.

Keener's of Lenoir City rode the three hits of Johnson - a Pond Creek 9-0. Buster Custard banged out a pair of singles for Pond Creek.

Madlock of Lenoir City won handily over Marenmont 17-4 as Petty finished with four hits in five bats. Gary Hudson accounted for the Marenmont scorer with two hits in three tries at the plate.

In Lenoir City the Loudon teams fell twice as the Lenoir City Merchants edged by the Loudon Merchants 6-1. Ray Petty and Taylor Adams carried the bulk of the Lenoir City hitting while R.L. Branam and Jim Russell were the best hitters for the Loudon team.

In a second game Pexco surprised the Hamilton Bank of Loudon 11-6.

Ed DeWitt and Bob Vandergriif each had three hits for Pexco.

Gene Ratledge, Bill Thompson, and Inky Swiney were the standouts for the Hamilton Bank, with each reaching base twice on safe hits.

Softball Schedule

- Thursday May 29: 6:30 Hamilton Bank vs Pond Creek; 8:30 Marenmont vs Dutton; 8:30 Loudon Merchants vs Eaton
- at Lenoir City: 7:00 Waldens vs Union Carbide; 8:00 Bank of Loudon County vs Ready-Mix

- July 6 Kiowah A
- July 10 Athens A

Three Teams Share Low Net Play In Carbide Golf

Three teams all carded low net team marks of 75 last week in the Union Carbide Golf League play.

Jack Delaney and Charlie Helms, last year's league champs, have finally escaped the league cellar this summer by jumping to 12th following last week's low team score effort.

David Carver and Hall Summers used their 75 to move up a notch to fourth in the league standings and Halgi Schrimsher and J.J. Watkins kept their names at the head of the pack for the fourth straight week as their team points surged to 94.3.

Jack Miller and Jim Cardwell are the new weekly challengers to Schrimsher and Watkins some 13 points off the league pace.

Kidon White and Dick Rosenbaum are in third place with 79 team points to date.

Larry Flack and Bob Dravecky dipped to fifth place despite Flack gaining hold on the individual point standings with a low net medalist effort of 39 for nine holes. Flack has 39 personal points and is followed by J.J. Watkins with 35 individual merits.

Novas are always been good. Now it's beautiful. The compact '75 Nova has been emphatically refined along the lines of elegant European sedans. Yet it's more than ever a strong reflection of the Chevrolet engineering tradition. And clearly, economy has taken a beautiful turn for the better.

Novas new beauty is ably represented by a new kind of Nova, one that might just be precisely right for the times. Economically priced and ready to drive.

FORT LOUDOUN INVITATIONAL TROPHIES ON DISPLAY—The trophies for the second annual Fort Loudoun Invitational Softball Tournament scheduled for June by the Loudoun Recreation Department have arrived for public display. The hardware worth over $1500 is on display at the Hamilton Bank of Loudoun. Pictured looking over the handsome trophies which will be given away to the top four finishers and individual trophies to the all tournament team are (left to right) Hamilton Bank vice president Jim Curtis, bank president Don Canter and city recreation director Bill Birkholz.

Plenty VA Loan Funds Available

The Veterans Administration suggests that during these times of rising housing costs, veterans interested in becoming homeowners should consider the advantages of a GI loan. Officials noted the agency has approved nearly nine million loans valued at $11.3 billion since World War II, and more than half the loans have already been repaid in full. "As buying a home generally is the largest and most important expenditure a family ever makes, care should be taken to insure value received for money paid, officials stressed. A veteran who buys a home with VA assistance usually finds the loan easier to obtain because the agency guarantees part of the loan. No downpayment is necessary unless required by the lender, or the purchase price exceeds the reasonable value as determined by VA.

Martin Loses GS Appeal

Terry Martin appealed three General Sessions Court sentences totaling fines of $75 and 40 days in jail to Criminal Court and wound up getting $75 in fines, 100 days in jail, although he beat one of the cases. Martin was charged by Chief Deputy Luke Bright of wreckless driving, assault on an officer (Bright), and failing to stop at a stop sign. Judge Lloyd McCluen upheld the $25 fine and 10 days in jail for wreckless driving, but he increased the 30 days in jail for assault to 100 days, maintained the $50 fine. McCluen did dismiss a $2 fine on a failing to stop for a stop sign.

BRIDGE DAMAGED—A closed bed truck driven by James Curtis, traveling on College Avenue in Loudoun Sunday afternoon struck the overhead bridge near Loudoun Junior High School damaging both the bridge and the truck. A section of the walkway on the bridge was knocked away by the impact.

highway bridge. This was always a place of interest to many of our folks from the Good Old Days in our town. Mr. Don J. Grove, who loaned us the old Roberson Springs picture says he has some old Boy's Scout group pictures of the old Philadelphia Troup and plans on loaning them to us.

A couple of weeks ago we ran a picture of the old doughnut shop that used to operate in Loudoun. In our comments we stated that it started in the old Hayder store building. Well, we were wrong in this. We found out that it started in the building now housed by Bob Hamilton's Barber Shop but was only there for a short period of time and then moved across the highway into the old Hayder store building. Another thing, the business was started by a Brown man, Mr. Estil Satterfield came by the other day and filled us in on this additional information. Mr. Satterfield and I were talking about the years he operated a planing mill on Lee Highway. For many years he was in the lumber business before he opened the grocery store on the corner. At one time he had a large wood building where the Western Auto Store is now located. Later it was used as an automobile repair shop, which was operated by a Mr. Lane for several years. We recall it was a busy place as an auto repair shop. That was in the days when the West End section of Loudoun was just starting to grow. At one time it had a drug store, theatre and other things. I guess the old Curtis Hayder Grocery was the first grocery store. Later, the Millard Parks grocery, Lawson Buick Co., Skeet Miller's skating rink and others. Time has brought many changes and possibly the future will bring even more. But to old timers, the doughnut shop will remain in our memories.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

It has been many years since the Loudoun County Courthouse had a picket fence but it did have one which stood for many years and like many other things has been the victim of time.

This picture we are using this week was taken in front of the Courthouse many years ago. The Courthouse was a popular background for picture taking by our local folks. This shows a group of young people, some of whom we know and others we can't seem to place. Those we know are Roy Miller, Shad Haskins, and Tim Watt. Maybe our readers can identify the others. The faces look familiar, but we just can't seem to place them.

The other picture we have is also one of the group Shad Haskins loaned us. We have used several of them and we have expressed our sincere appreciation to Shad for the loan of them. Our readers have commented on how much they have enjoyed them. The picture is of a group gathered at what we believe is the construction of the Loudoun

County Health Council Sets Orientation Session

The Loudoun County Health Council is inviting the general public to an orientation session on comprehensive health planning and its significance for Loudoun County. The meeting, to be conducted by the staff of the East Tennessee Health Planning Council, will be held on Thursday, May 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the Central United Methodist Church in Lenoir City.

Judge William Russell will be making a few introductory remarks on the health needs in the county.

Other topics to be discussed include a summary of the Health Resources Planning and Development Act of 1974 which greatly expands the role of comprehensive health planning agencies, a discussion on existing health resources in the five-county area, and an overview of the health planning process. Everyone who attends will be asked to participate in a small group discussion on the priority health problems of Loudoun County.

The Loudoun County Health Council will be using the results of the small group session in determining next year's planning priorities. Anyone needing additional information should contact Mr. Jim Wilburn, Chairman.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY

(C) 1975, Art Lee Smith & Associates

BY M. LEE SMITH

The toughest scrap of the current legislative session occurred last week on a motion to recall the prevailing wage bill from committee directly to the floor of the House of Representatives for a vote. Putting aside the merits of the legislation, the fight was a classic demonstration of the workings of the House on a hard fought, closely contested issue.

The question involved a bill designed to undo a Blanton administration executive decision - subsequently somewhat modified - directing that on state construction projects contractors be required to pay union wages as opposed to the prevailing local wage rate.

The bill easily passed the Senate, was reported from standing committee in the House, and then stalled in the House Calendar and Rules Committee. When it became apparent to its sponsors that the bill would not move from the House Calendar and Rules Committee, a motion was filed in the House to recall the bill from that committee and bring it directly to the floor for a vote.

Recall motions rarely succeed. Many legislators believe that a recall motion weakens the committee system and that a bill should reach the floor only through the normal committee process.

Last Thursday after weeks of intense lobbying by both sides, Rep. Tom Jensen (R-Knoxville) called up the motion for a vote. In support were all Republican legislators, several rural Democrats, and the construction industry. Opposition came from the House Democratic leadership, the Blanton administration, and organized labor.

The vote was expected to be very close. Roll calls on several preliminary motions revealed that proponents of the recall motion had either 50 or 51 votes with 50 needed for approval.

Realizing that the motion would be approved, opponents began a mini-filibuster after attempts to adjourn and recess failed. The stalling tactics came to an end when Rep. W.L. Carter (R-Clarksville) successfully moved to limit debate.

Proponents of the motion at that moment realized that their 50 or 51 votes on preliminary motions had slipped to 49, or one less than needed. The wavering legislator was identified as Rep. Roscoe Pickering (D-Clarksville). Jensen and others confronted Pickering, advised him that he was the 50th vote, and reminded him of his earlier commitment.

Meanwhile, several House Democratic leaders had cornered Representative Paul Starnes (D-Chattanooga), who intended to vote for the motion, asking, "What legislation can we trade on?" Starnes declined the trade offer.

With lobbyists for both sides watching from the House gallery, the arm twisting in the chamber continued. As the time limit for debate established under the Carter motion expired, Gov. Ray Blanton was trying to reach Pickering with one phone call holding in the House chamber and another outside.

Pickering decided that it might be better to take the phone call outside the chamber and with luck to miss the critical vote.

Unfortunately for Pickering, Rep. Jim Lanier (D-Dyersburg) had been assigned to maintain a head count on Democratic supporters of the motion. Lanier was standing guard at the door in the rear of the chamber. He pleasantly but firmly persuaded Pickering that it was not time to leave, even in response to a phone call from the state's Chief Executive.

With little choice Pickering remained in the chamber and the call for the vote sounded. Rep. Jensen pushed his green eye button and stood closely while Pickering did the same. House Majority Leader Stanley Rogers, leading the opposition to the motion, was heard to say, "Well, we lost him again."

When the vote tally was taken it showed 50 aye votes and the wavering Representative Pickering had proven to be the difference. That is you 99 member Tennessee House of Representatives at work on a volatile issue.

How They VOTED

Here's how area legislators voted on key issues before the General Assembly during the thirteenth week of the session.

SENATE

On a bill to provide that one spouse not be liable for the debts of the other spouse unless the spouse has co-signed the application for credit, except to extent of providing for necessities. Passed 21-1. For: Carl Koella (R).

On a joint resolution urging Congress to extend the Voting Rights Act of 1965 for another ten years. Failed 15-5. (17 votes required for adoption).

On an amendment to a bill establishing a Medical Malpractice Review Board permitting the introduction of the report of the board as evidence in court. Passed 20-11. For: Koella.

On a bill to establish a Medical Malpractice Review Board to review cases before going to court, to establish a 3 year statute of limitations in malpractice cases, and to provide for procedures in malpractice cases. Passed 20-3. For: Koella.

On a bill to provide for a severance tax on all minerals produced in Tennessee. Failed 15-15. (17 votes required for passage). Against: Koella.

On an amendment to the severance tax bill which would remove a provision permitting the first $1.7 million for teacher salary increases. Adopted 15-14. Against: Koella.

On an amendment to the severance tax bill which would exempt the proceeds of bond sales on any project where wages higher than 1 1/2 percent for the next fiscal year. Passed 28-1. For: Koella.

On an amendment to the appropriations bill to prevent cost-of-living salary increases for state officials. Failed 12-13. Against: Koella.

On an amendment to the appropriations bill to provide $4.6 million for the tuition grant program. Adopted 21-2. For: Koella.

On an amendment to the appropriations bill to prohibit use of state funds for payment of abortion or counseling for abortion. Adopted 24-3. For: Koella.

On an amendment to the appropriations bill to require the Governor to cut the budget by 4 percent or $40 million by whatever means he feels is best. Adopted 22-1. For: Koella.

The appropriations bill passed with all 33 Senators voting in favor.

On a motion to override the Governor's veto of a bill to prohibit volume discounts to liquor retailers. Overridden 18-8. Not voting: Koella.

On a bill to authorize the sale of $9,000,000 in bonds for construction of and equipment of an art-architecture building at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. Passed 22-2.

On a bill to provide for postcard voter registration. Passed 20-8. Against: Koella.

On a bill to allow public officials and employees to hold liquor licenses. Failed 13-8. (17 votes required for passage). Against: Koella.

HOUSE

On a bill to redraw the boundaries of the 6th, 7th, and 8th Congressional Districts. Passed 56-32. For: Anna Belle Clement, O'Brien (D). Against: Benny Stafford (R).

On a motion to table a bill to amend the presidential primary statute in House calendar for next week, but failed to pass out of Senate State and Local Government Committee. A bill to give the majority party in the General Assembly a majority on the State Election Commission has passed both houses.

Additional legislation in this area is on House calendar for May 29. A similar bill dealing with the constitutionality of commissions has passed House, is on Senate calendar for May 27. A bill requiring a run-off in elections for Governor, U.S. Representative and Senator, and Public Service Commissioner has passed House, is on Senate calendar for next week. A bill to redraw the boundaries of the 6th, 7th, and 8th Congressional Districts has passed the House, is on Senate calendar for next week. Legislation to provide for a uniform ballot across the state has been signed into law. A bill to provide for postcard registration passed both houses.

ETHICS, LEGISLATION, AND EDUCATION. A bill to give special powers to the Governor in the case of an emergency has been signed into law. Legislation to create a state energy office has been deferred. The passage of appropriations bills in House, is on Senate calendar for May 27.

TAXATION AND APPROPRIATIONS. Consideration of legislation to exempt the elderly from the sales tax

HOLIDAY SAFETY BREAK—The Loudon County Citizens Band Radio Club sponsored a Take-A-Break For Safety stand on I-76 at State 72 over the Memorial Day Weekend. During the three days they dispensed several hundred soft drinks and cookies to travelers who stopped in.

Status Of Major Legislation

Here is a summary of the status of major legislation before the Tennessee General Assembly after thirteen weeks.

ELECTION LAWS. A bill to amend the presidential primary statute in House calendar for next week, but failed to pass out of Senate State and Local Government Committee. A bill to give the majority party in the General Assembly a majority on the State Election Commission has passed both houses.

Additional legislation in this area is on House calendar for May 29. A similar bill dealing with the constitutionality of commissions has passed House, is on Senate calendar for May 27. A bill requiring a run-off in elections for Governor, U.S. Representative and Senator, and Public Service Commissioner has passed House, is on Senate calendar for next week. A bill to redraw the boundaries of the 6th, 7th, and 8th Congressional Districts has passed the House, is on Senate calendar for next week. Legislation to provide for a uniform ballot across the state has been signed into law. A bill to provide for postcard registration passed both houses.

On drugs and from tax on investment income and to remove sales tax from prescription drugs has been deferred until passage of the appropriations bill, but passage appears unlikely. The appropriations bill has been amended by House Finance Ways and Means, has passed the Senate with amendment calling for a reduction by the Governor of 4 percent. Severance tax on minerals passed the House, but failed by one vote to pass the Senate. A bill raising the sales tax to 7 percent has been withdrawn. The House has passed bond authorizations for highways, state education facilities, mental and public health facilities, and art and architecture building at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, and the Obion-Forked Deer Basin Authority. The Senate also voted favorably on bond issue for the UT art-architecture building.

LABOR. State government employees unionization bill failed in the House, has been replaced on calendar for next week in both houses. Local government employees unionization bill is on calendar for both houses next week.

committee in the House and is on House calendar for May 28, passed the Senate earlier.

The following bills have been withdrawn, failed in committee, or failed for lack of a constitutional majority and are therefore dead for this session: voter registration by party; party lever; repeal of presidential primary; administration and attorney general's consumer protection bill; anti-trust law revision; milk, cigarette, and frozen dessert; fair trade repeal; energy facility siting; energy consumption information from retailers; a minimum wage bill; repeal of capital punishment; increased drunk driving penalties; revision of criminal code; reconstituting State Board of Education; revision of Contractors Licensing Board regulations; extension of sales tax to commercial leases; teacher unionization.

Mysteries Of The Electric Meter

Electric bills for most homes vary from one month to another, sometimes by large margins. And since most of us don't notice much change in our use of electricity, local electric systems often get requests to check a customer's meter and see whether it is accurate. But this is rarely the meter's fault. The electric meter is a precision instrument, more accurate than an ordinary watch, according to a new folder prepared by TVA's Division of Power Marketing.

The folder explains how a family can check its own power consumption by reading its own electric meter—including a simple explanation of the system of alternately rotating dials used on most meters. This way the family can verify the electricity use shown on power bills and plan its own steps to reduce consumption.

Changes in consumption are usually the reason for the variations in electric bills. Monthly variable charges on electric bills were adopted by TVA last year to cover changes in fuel and related costs for power supply, but this increase in home electric rates has averaged only two or three percent from one month to the next.

However, in January and February some customers called local electric systems asking how their bills could double in one month. Winter heating can take several times as much energy as all of the year-round home uses of electricity put together. So it is normal for the first electric bill covering cold weather to show a big jump for homes that are heated electrically, or even those with a portable heater or two. In effect, the heating bills other homes pay for coal or oil or gas are added to the electric bill when the heat comes from electricity.

The same kind of effect can be expected this summer on bills for homes with air conditioning. And differences in temperature, winds, and cloud cover can make a difference in power consumption even for two winter months or two summer months that seem similar.

One bill can be larger than another because of variations in the intervals between meter readings. While local electric systems generally try to read each meter at an interval of about 30 days, bad weather, holidays, and other factors can make the interval longer in one month than another. But there is no change in the amount of electricity the customer pays for in the long run. This is because the electric meter is not turned back to zero when it is read, but continues to build up a higher total of kilowatt-hours. As a car owner would do in keeping track of his monthly mileage, the monthly power consumption is obtained by subtracting the last total from the new reading. So if the meter reader makes a mistake, it will be corrected automatically with the next reading.

The amount of use also needs to be taken into account in comparing bills with neighbors, since even similar homes may vary widely in the families' patterns of power use, the booklet says. It also gives tips on energy-saving measures "to keep your electric meter spinning as slowly as possible."

Copies of "Your Electric Meter and How to Read It" are available free from local power distributors or from the TVA Information Office, Knoxville, Tennessee.

Citizens of Loudon

Remember June 7 is the date of your City Election

As your Mayor I urge you to vote for the candidates of your choice. Remember both of the city voting precincts are in the cafeteria of Loudon High School. I wish to thank all of you for your past confidence and vote and hope you will see fit to give me your vote on June 7.

Loudon City Election
Saturday, June 7, 1975

I have served the City for Four years as Commissioner and six years as Mayor. I have worked for the welfare and progress of the City of Loudon for the past 10 years and at the same time worked to keep your taxes as low as possible.

- Some of the things that have happened which I have taken part are—
- Lions Municipal Park
- New Swimming Pool and Park near Loudon High
- New Water Treatment Plant
- Industrial Park and new industries
- The new Nursing Home to open soon

These are just a few things I have added to the welfare of Loudon and there are many more.

FROM YOUR LEGISLATURE

By Anna Belle Clement O'Brien
(36th Legislative District)

What to do with the budget and which, if any taxes, will be approved to balance the state's finances remained the central questions for lawmakers as the first half of the 89th General Assembly finished its 13th week with adjournment not likely to come before next Friday.

The budget question became even more confused this week as the Senate added on several costly amendments to the General Appropriations bill before sending it to the House. The amendments totaled some $8.8 million and pushed the estimated budget deficit over $45 million.

The Senate also tacked on an amendment which gives the Governor broad discretionary powers in administering an across-the-board four percent budget slash as one means to balance the budget.

House approval of the four percent authority is uncertain because many House leaders feel that it is up to the legislative branch—not the executive—to make decisions about which programs need to be cut and how much.

Approval by the House Wednesday of the sale of bond issues totaling $29 million further clouded the financial situation of state government.

The bonds, including $33 million for highways and $24.5 million for education, require an appropriation each year of approximately $1 million per $10 million of bonds outstanding last to pay the interest on the principle.

Legislative leaders say that issuing bonds at such high levels in a time of extreme revenue shortages could have the effect of undermining the state's ability to meet future financial obligations when large amounts of state capital are tied up simply to pay off interest.

Some of the bond issues and amounts include: $9 million for an art-architectural building at UT-3; $2 million for the Obion-Forked Deer Basin Authority; $5 million for state parks improvement; $14.75 million for various state buildings, and $5 million for energy research at UT.

In a critical vote Thursday, the House recalled from committee a bill which will impose a prevailing wage scale standard on state projects rather than the union scale instituted by Gov. Blanton. The bill will come up for a vote in the lower chamber next Wednesday.

In other developments on Capitol Hill, the Senate passed and the House concurred with a comprehensive medical malpractice bill setting up a medical review board to consider the "merits" of malpractice cases before they actually go to trial.

The bill aimed at reducing the number of frivolous malpractice suits while at the same time protecting each citizen's right to seek relief in court in instances of genuine medical malpractice.

The House also concurred with the Senate's version of two ethics bills dealing with campaign financing and lobbyists control. The House did not concur with the Senate version of a third ethics bill regulating personal disclosure of elected officials. The personal disclosure bill now goes to a conference committee where lawmakers from both Houses will try and work out the differences.

Loudon Does Well In Federal Funds

From a dollars and cents standpoint, how much aid General grants-in-aid and revenue sharing produce for Loudon County in the past fiscal year?

Did the price it had to pay for these grants, by way of taxes, allocated to the programs, make them worthwhile financially? Under the various types of aid available—there are hundreds of them—assistance is offered to states and local communities for purposes ranging from welfare grants and child care to road building and education.

The cost to some localities, in the past year, proved to be greater than the aid received. Others got back more than they put in.

A comprehensive state-by-state study of the programs, based upon Treasury Department figures, was made by the Tax Foundation, a non-profit research organization that keeps watch over government taxation and spending.

A breakdown of its figures indicates that the amount of aid received by Loudon County was relatively large. An estimated $4,939,000 went to the local area in the year under a variety of aid programs.

In the State of Tennessee as a whole, the grants totaled $82,000,000, the Government's figures show. The amounts refer only to grants-in-aid and revenue sharing and do not include Federal spending in local areas for goods and services.

As to the cost of the benefits received, the Tax Foundation finds that some $700,000,000 of the taxes collected throughout the state went into the aid programs. Loudon County's share of the cost was approximately $4,198,000, exclusive of matching funds.

Harvey To Train At Lowry

Airman Keith F. Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elkanah K. Harvey of Rt. 3, Loudon, has been selected for technical training in the U.S. Air Force armament systems field at Lowry AFB, Colo.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. where he studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

Airman Harvey is a 1973 graduate of Roane County High School, Kingston.

To The Citizens Of Loudon

You have given me the opportunity to serve as a Commissioner during an exciting and progressive period in our City's history. Loudon's advancement has been the result of carefully planning for the future, not just waiting for the future to arrive.

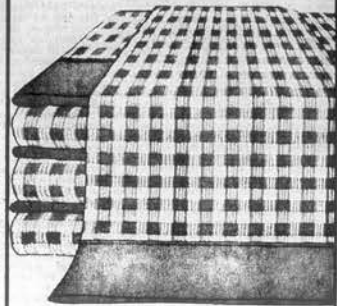

I want to continue working for and with you, and urge you to vote in the city election, Saturday, June 7, Loudon High School, 10 AM to 8 PM.

More Women Head Families

In Loudon County, as in most other parts of the country, more families are headed by women than ever before, according to a new survey.

In the absence of husbands, for one reason or another, they have taken over the responsibility of earning a living, maintaining a home and bringing up their children by themselves.

In 1970, when the last census was taken, it was found that 750 local families, amounting to 11.2 percent of the total, were headed by women.

Since then there has been a general increase throughout the country, according to a sampling survey made by the Department of Commerce.

In Loudon County, as a result, it is estimated that the proportion is now approximately 12.5 percent. Elsewhere in the United States, by way of comparison, the average is 12.4 percent.

Among the white population it is 9.9 percent and, among the black, 24.0 percent.

There are now over 6.6 million families headed by women, 1 million more than in 1970.

Why the sudden increase? The Institute of Life Insurance has an explanation for it.

It states that in 1968, for example, being widowed (46 percent) was the principal reason for women moving into the leadership role. The second was divorce or separation (44 percent).

Today, divorce or separation has jumped into the lead (50 percent), well ahead of widowhood (37 percent). The number of single women heading families has also increased, going from 10 percent to 13 percent.

More and more, as a result, children are being brought up by their mothers alone. The Census Bureau reports that 14 percent of all children in the United States under the age of 18, or 1 out of every 7, are now being raised by their mothers.

Four On MTSU Honors List

Five hundred thirty five students of the 9,448 enrolled for the spring semester 1975 at Middle Tennessee State University were named to the Honor Roll, MTSU President M.G. Scarlett announced this week.

Also 1,046 students made the Dean's List for the same period, Scarlett said.

A student must have at least a 3.5 average on the four-point scale for the semester to make the Dean's List. Honor Roll status indicates an average of at least 3.5 during the student's entire academic career.

Kathy Smith Dickson from Loudon County was on the Honor Roll and Dean's List. Presley Jane Jenkins and Kimberly Anne Williams were on the Dean's List.

Industry Week Events Planned

The Chambers of Commerce of Loudon and Lenoir City and the Loudon County Committee of 100 are jointly sponsoring a full week of activity honoring the industry in Loudon County. Industry Appreciation Week began Monday and continues through Tuesday of next week.

Displays of pictures and products produced at the more than 25 manufacturers have been set up in business display windows of businesses throughout Loudon County.

Saturday the displays will be moved to the Lenoir City Park at Fort Loudoun for the annual Arts and Crafts Festival, becoming the largest single display at the festival.

Judge William Russell, Mayors Eugene Lambert, Joe Grayson, Tom Preker and Roy Bledsoe have all been asked to proclaim the week in honor of the industrial firms in the county.

Union Carbide's celebration of the 50th Anniversary year of the Films-Packaging Division, has been timed to fall during Industrial Appreciation Week. Thursday (today) the local Union Carbide plant will be open to the public for tours and refreshments from 1:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Tuesday, June 10th a golf tournament and Industrial Appreciation Banquet will be held at Deane Hill Country Club, coming the day management personnel of the plant.

County Road Bill Passage Expected

Difference of opinion between the House and Senate on the budget and taxes have extended an already lengthy session and made it possible for the Loudon County transportation department bill to be enacted.

The legislation, which would create a county Department of Transportation and the office of Commissioner of Transportation, was introduced some weeks ago in the House but only last Thursday in the Senate.

Local bills normally pass without opposition but must lie over in each chamber three legislative days before being moved. If the legislature had followed its own plans, similar tax and appropriations bills would have passed and the body adjourned Friday, the day after the bill's introduction.

As it occurred, both houses will enjoy a week's recess while legislative and administration leaders try to find some solution to the apparent impasse. When they reconvene next week, the Loudon bill may be enacted if area legislators decide to go ahead.

The bill, which would create a county Department of Transportation and the office of Commissioner of Transportation, was introduced some weeks ago in the House but only last Thursday in the Senate.

The bill, in addition to doing away with the present roads and supervisor jobs and creating a Department and position of Commissioner of Transportation, spells out the duties, responsibilities and requirements of the new agency. These include maintenance of the county's roads and bridges and long-range planning to provide for future transportation needs, including mass transit.

The legislation also contains a ratification clause, which will have final say on the act's taking effect.

Blair Suggests 2 Month School Term

Squire J. J. Blair said that the Loudon County Board of Education should consider adopting a 32 month school year plan similar to Knoxville's to make full use of school facilities and cut down the expenditures for more school classrooms. Blair's statement came at Monday night's meeting of County Court after Superintendent of Education Edward Headlee said he expected to be able to act on the recommendations of the "school survey" (reported elsewhere) and then request a bond issue from county court in the very near future.

Headlee also asked the County Court Budget Committee to postpone a meeting that was set for this past Tuesday night on the school budget. Headlee said the lack of action on the part of the State Legislature was hampering the final draft of his proposed budget.

Judge William Russell said that work on the budget must proceed with or without the state figures and suggested a meeting be called in the next 10 days to act on the budget.

The court unanimously approved a master resolution authorizing the issuance of $600,000 in general obligation bonds to pay for the county

Bradshaw Is Commander

Helen Bradshaw, who has served three terms as Commander of American Legion Post 120 of Loudon, was elected last week at the State American Legion Convention as Commander of the Second District American Legion Department of Tennessee.

Bradshaw served three years in the armed forces during the Korean War, 15 months of which was in South Korea.

He has also been vice commander of the Loudon Post for two terms. He has been employed at the Union Carbide Films-Packaging plant in Loudon for 18 years.

Bradshaw's district includes 20 American Legion Posts.

Connector Bids Slated

Bids for the paving, installation of highway signs and guardrails on the Sugar Lamb connector from I-75 to Highway 11, will be received by the State Department of Transportation on Friday, June 27.

The DOT estimates cost of the paving to be $309,000 for the two mile project. The job is to be completed on or before January 1.

Contractors on the grading portion of the project are now putting down base rock.

Courthouse In Registry

The Loudon County Courthouse has been named to the National Register of Historic Places by the U.S. Department of Interior.

Congressman John Duncan said it was action effective May 28.

Union Carbide Open To Public Tours Thursday

Loudon Countyans including families, friends, and special guests of employees are invited to an open house Thursday, June 5, from 1:30 to 6:30 p.m. at the Loudon plant of the Union Carbide Films-Packaging Division, Ray Birkoletz, plant manager said this week.

The occasion is the plant's observance of the 50th anniversary of the predecessor company of the Division, the Visking Corporation, organized in Chicago in 1925 as the world's first producer of man-made sausage casings.

Birkoletz said this week that the Loudon plant officials and other personnel are looking forward to the opportunity to play hosts to visitors and show them how the more than 150 miles of casing per hour are made at the facility here.

He observed, in that connection, that last year the plant produced enough casing to make two round trips to the moon-making it the largest producer of casings in the world.

In addition to guided tours through the plant, visitors will be served appropriately-hot dogs and other refreshments and will be presented gifts as souvenirs of their visit to the plant.

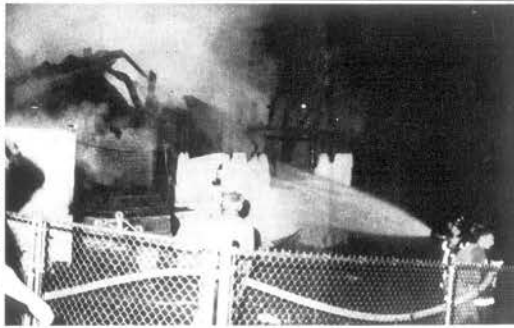

Visitors should wear comfortable shoes, he advised.

Exhibits and demonstrations also will be a part of the open house.

Opened here in 1927, the Loudon plant was built in 1952 and has been in operation for the last 18 years of the half-century being observed.

It was during the time that construction was being completed here that a major corporate change was taking place. Stockholders voted to approve the sale of the Visking Corporation to Union Carbide

Loudon Voters To Select Council Members Saturday

If voters of the City of Loudon stay away from the polls Saturday the way they have for the past six years, there are three new names to be cast ballots in the City Election Saturday.

The incumbents are Joe Carter, with 10 years experience in city government, four years as a commissioner and six years as mayor. Mr. Carter is an official at the Bacon Company. Alben Richesin seeks her fourth term on the Council. She operates We Widom Kindergarten. Bernie Ray (Inky) Swiney, also a six year veteran of city service, is an Assistant Vice President of the Hamilton Bank and is manager of the bank's Philadelphia Branch.

The newcomers are Kenneth Cotton Thomas, who is employed at Oak Ridge. He is a life-long resident of Loudon. The other new name is Howard H. Gibson, a self employed carpenter, who resides on Main Street in Loudon.

Present Commissioner Doug Lyle is not seeking re-

Fewer Schools, More Professional Staff Are Survey Points

There were no great surprises in the preliminary report the U-T School Planners made to the Loudon County Board of Education and County Court Friday night. The two major items were that the system lacked adequate supervisory staff (professional people working out of the Superintendent's office), and that several smaller schools should be "grouped" into larger schools.

The report was a preview of what the final draft of an $11,000 study the U-T professors conducted of the county school system. The final draft will be published in late June.

The team reported that supervisory personnel assisting the Superintendent is non-existent. That instead of having one supervisor a system the size of Loudon should have at least five.

Superintendent Edward Headlee had proposed a supervisor in the next budget to handle transportation and maintenance, but due to ongoing cutbacks in the budget he deleted the $16,000 aide.

The study team said that the Superintendent should be developing and assisting in instructional programs.

Because of the lack of staff he spends most of his time with transportation, maintenance, and being a bookkeeper.

At the outset of the meeting Dr. Orin Graff, head of the Department of Education Administration Supervision at U.T., said that the Loudon County Schools have plenty of good points, quality and dedicated people working the system, but there were areas of weakness and inequity. And it would be on those points the report would deal with.

"The central office is the key to your educational system, and if they are limited in staff, many things you could be getting for your instruction system in the classroom will not happen," Dr. Graff said. He stated that teachers and principals do not get enough help from the Superintendent's office simply because the staff at the central office is overloaded with work. He strongly urged the central office staff be expanded immediately.

Building Program

Superintendent Dr. Roger Trotter reported that the team suggested a building and remodeling program that would make full use of the present facilities, group the schools into a Kindergarten through eighth grade facility, make the schools large enough for full-time principals and several state supported teaching positions (such as librarians and physical education instructors) that the smaller schools do not now qualify for and would cost the county less money than the building program proposed earlier.

Before giving a school-by-school recommendation Dr. Trotter said that the study team did not include the Lenoir City system, but it was noted that Lenoir City has several buildings larger than they need for the number of students they have and perhaps some arrangement can be made for use of idle space by the county. He said the team also suggested that the county continue its arrangement with Lenoir City for the education of county students who do not attend those schools.

The school-by-school recommendations are as follows:

1-Loudon High School—Possibly the only school building in the county survey that is completely adequate in size, space and facilities.

2-Greenback High School—Although it is much smaller than a high school should be it should be continued because of the geographic location.

3-Philadelphia Elementary—Again geographic location demands it be continued. It needs major renovation and additional classroom space to properly educate its 300 to 350 students.

4-Steekee and Davis Schools—the combined at Steekee into a K-8 facility. This would mean the addition of several classrooms at Steekee. Steekee is presently K-8 and Davis has grades 1-3.

5-Greenback Elementary—He expanded, renovated and students from Glendale be moved there. Glendale is inadequate and the study shows that the community and an elementary school for many years. The combination of the two schools will enhance the educational opportunities of both schools.

6-Loudon Grammar School and Loudon Junior High—He combined into one K-8 school at the site of Loudon Junior High. Construct additional classrooms, gymnasium-auditorium and other facilities, to handle 5th grade now at old high school and all students at Loudon Grammar School.

7-Eaton, K-8, Portions of building adequate, some obsolete. Is good location, good site, but needs more classrooms and instructional support facilities.

8-Highland Park, K-4. Needs major renovation in areas.

9-New Providence-Special Education—Should move all special education facilities to that school or close it. Operation now too expensive for the number of students and teachers at the school.

10-Browder-Close it. Move high school renovation in areas.

11-If the School Board and County Court follow the recommendations all elementary schools in the county would be grades K-8 and Glendale, Browder, Davis and Loudon Elementary would be closed. The report says small schools are expensive and do not offer the state programs that are eligible to larger schools.

The team recommended making use of the closed buildings where possible to benefit the communities they are located in.

It was also recommended that the central office at the old high school be remodeled into a more functional arrangement.

Pupil Transportation

Loudon County should look toward owning and operating its own school bus fleet, the survey team said. The report said that under the private owner-contractor bus system used in the county Loudon County is paying one of the highest figures per child for transportation in the State.

He said that the state average for transporting one child to school per year is $50.46, but Loudon County this year is paying $72.52 per child. This was compared to Knox County where the average is $43.82 per child. The county this year has $228,000 budget for payment to bus contractors. The study suggests the county ask the State Department to make a bus year survey to get the most efficient routes to cut down mileage traveled to limit drivers to no more than 100 bus runs of the morning and afternoon. PARSONAGE NOTE BURNED—Members of New Macedonia Baptist Church used the occasion of their annual homecoming and decoration Sunday, June 1, to burn a bank note for funds borrowed to finance the recent construction of the church parsonage. The membership paid off the indebtedness in only nine months. The parsonage, was toured after the dedication and note burning Sunday. Pictured are members of the building committee: (left to right) Sonny Gentry, Kenny Blankenship, Baxter Ward and Rev. Elmer Hurst, pastor.

Picnic Held For Foster Children

A picnic sponsored by the Loudon County Department of Human Resources was held Friday at Union Carbide Park for the parents and children in the Foster Child program of the Department. About 40 persons attended.

Funds to pay for the food were contributed by the Loudon Woman's Club, the Loudon Club and Coy Tee Club of Lenoir City.

Mrs. Jesse Ridenour, Director of the Human Resources Department, said that more foster parents are needed to care for the growing number of foster children in the county. She said that the state does provide funds for the upkeep of the children. The program has doubled in size in the past year, she stated.

Kenneth Dean Vineyard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vineyard, Route 4, Loudon, will celebrate his first birthday on June 30. Grandparents are Mrs. Morgan Collins and Robert Vineyard of Lenoir City.

David Bell Gets Degree

David R. Bell, husband of former Margaret Windle of Loudon, is one of more than 1,000 students who will receive advanced degrees on Saturday, June 7 at commencement exercises at University of Utah.

Mr. Bell received a BS degree in General Engineering from US Military in 1971. He is presently stationed with the U.S. Army in Germany.

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Many times we get old pictures which only in part can be connected to proper events from the Good Old Days in Loudon, but we are always glad to receive them and pursue the avenues related to our town by places or people. Such is the case with a picture we are using this week. It was loaned to us by Charles McCall and Charlie is in the picture which was taken in Lincoln County.

Charlie thought that the picture would be of interest to our readers because of one of the men in the picture, M. D. Brock who had the distinction of being Loudon County's first County Agent and therefore a part of our county's history.

Mr. Brock, who came to Loudon in 1913, might be remembered for his ability as an outstanding sportsman. He was a highly successful baseball pitcher and of course joined Loudon's baseball team. And one of the requirements of the people was for him to win Saturday and Sunday ballgames, with the toughest team being Lenoir City. Mr. Brock had played baseball with L. T. and was considered to be a top notch pitcher. Charlie said he thought Mr. Brock is now deceased. He was the first County Agent Loudon County had and was followed by J. C. Baker, H. P. Byrd and our present county agent, Charlie McCall. We believe Mr. Baker and Mr. Byrd are both now deceased.

Charlie stated the man standing with his back against the building, wearing a corduroy coat and one tie is the late M. D. Brock. Also in the picture is Mrs. Josephine McQueen and Charlie McCall. We are grateful to Charlie for thinking of the Good Old Days when going through his picture collection and picking this one out for us to use. Charlie is a very dear friend of ours and has contributed much to the Good Old Days.

Dedication Is Postponed

The planned dedication of the Loudon County Justice Center, set for June 14, has been postponed until September. The Loudon County Law Enforcement Committee took the action Saturday because landscaping at the center has not been completed, a suitable speaker had not been found and because of construction on the Sugar Linn Connector adjacent to the building.

The Committee said more definite plans would be announced later.

Arts-Crafts Festival Is Good Family Event

With cooperation from the Weatherman, Saturday is the day to have an outing—on the peninsula of Lenoir City Park. The occasion is the Arts and Crafts Festival.

No need to pack a lunch. Food will be available. No need to plan for recreation. There will be more than enough to keep one busy throughout the day.

Saturday, June 6, is the 13th annual Arts and Crafts Festival sponsored by the Suburbia Junior Women's Club. The location has been the same each year, but the event has grown several times the size of its beginning.

No need to pack a lunch. Food will be available. No need to plan for recreation. There will be more than enough to keep one busy throughout the day.

The invitation from club members is "Come by boat, come by bus, come by car, or walk, but please come. Spend as much time as you like browsing and visiting with the artists and craftsmen. If something catches your fancy, purchase it directly from the exhibitor."

The festival opens at 10 a.m. and continues until 6 p.m.

Transportation for the festival for area residents is being aided by two buses running every 30 minutes. Buses will leave the back of the Lenoir Shopping Center and from the parking lot at the Bus Station and will return to the same locations. The bus schedule will start about 10 a.m. and local residents are encouraged to take advantage of the buses to help eliminate traffic congestion.

Charcoal broiled hamburgers and hot dogs will be available throughout the day, along with cold drinks and coffee. At the noon hour, a barbecued chicken plate will be served, consisting of one-fourth of a chicken, baked beans, cole slaw, bread, tea, or coffee.

Donuts and coffee will be available early in the morning.

Should Saturday weather be rainy, the festival is scheduled for the next afternoon, Sunday, June 8, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Should both days be rainy, Saturday, June 14 will be the festival date.

Fines, Prison Terms Given In Criminal Court Trials

A Criminal Court jury last week fined Ralph Tallent of Lenoir City $5,000 after finding him guilty of a false pretense indictment. The case involved a car which apparently never existed. Tallent was charged with creating a Cadillac automobile on paper, insuring it, reporting it stolen and collecting the insurance.

A number of prison sentences were also received by several defendants.

Robert and Ralph Wright were given one year prison terms for escaping jail. Ralph Wright also received sentences of one to two years for uttering and passing forged checks. These sentences are consecutive with the jail break conviction.

Alvin Skipper Barron, who was a party to the jail break will be tried this week.

Jerry Johnson entered a plea of guilty to a bond check charge and received 60 days in jail. Johnson was found guilty in two receiving and concealing stolen property cases. His co-defendant, Jackie Stevens was found guilty on two similar indictments. He received three to 10 years on one conviction and one to three years on the second.

Eugene Stepp was given 11 months and 20 days in jail and a $50 fine for felonious assault, and one year in prison for attempted jail break. He was found not guilty of armed robbery and public drunkenness.

Sherman Akin Jr., was given 11 months and 20 days for armed robbery with the sentence suspended for time served in jail preceding the trial about four months.

Ralph Murrell was found guilty of burglary in the 3rd degree and sentenced to three to six years in prison.

Mike Rogers drew one to two year sentences on two indictments for forgery.

Paul Menger, facing indictments of burglary in the 2nd degree and receiving and concealing stolen property drew sentences of five to 10 years in prison. Larry Hamm, a co-defendant entered a guilty plea and received three years in prison given an opportunity to file application for probation.

Tommy Breeding entered a guilty plea on a receiving and concealing stolen property charge and was given three to five years in prison.

A fine of $51 and one day in jail was given to Carl Orr for assault and battery. His wife, Battie, was found not guilty on the same charges.

Hill Joins Bank Staff

Glen Hill, who for the past five years has managed the Thomas Hill's Clothing Stores in Lenoir City, has joined the staff of the Bank of Loudon County President Ed Bell announced this week. Hill will be trained in the complete banking operations in Bank Management.

Prior to his association with Thomas Hill's he was a quality control supervisor at Beumitt Fibers in Etowah.

Hill is a native of Philadelphia, but has lived in Lenoir City for the past 14 years.

He is a member of Calvary Baptist Church of Lenoir City, member of the Lenoir City Civitan Club and the Lenoir City Industrial Bond Board.

Hill is an avid supporter of UT basketball and bowls in several area leagues and ABC tournaments.

Mr. Hill and his wife, Janice, reside on Oak Street in Lenoir City. She is secretary for Goodwin and Eblen Attorneys. They have two daughters, Glenna, 13, and Jana, 3.

JERRY AND THE SINGING GOFFS will be at Loudon High School Auditorium on Thursday, June 12 for a gospel singing along with the Orr Brothers of Loudon. The singing, sponsored by the Loudon High Band Boosters Club, will begin at 8 p.m. Advance tickets are $3 and are now on sale at all three Hamilton Bank offices and Russell and Shields Insurance Office, Grove Street, Loudon. Tickets at the door will be $3.50 for adults and $1 for children.

Help Stop Madeline O'Hare

Madeline Murray O'Hare is at it again. Several years ago she succeeded in making it illegal to read the Bible or pray in public schools. Now she has obtained 27,000 signed letters protesting the decision of astronauts to read the Bible as a Christmas message to the world from their space-craft while orbiting the moon in December, 1968.

She plans to present these letters to NASA (again in May, 1975) with the demand that the astronauts be publicly censured for their act and a further demand to prohibit any further demonstrations of religion by public leaders. If this goes through, it can stop the mention of God and prayer on TV and radio.

YOU can stop her this time. An effort is being made now to secure one million signed letters commending the astronauts for their faith in God and the Bible publicly. This would defeat Mrs. O'Hare and show that there are still many Christians alive and well in America. Mrs. O'Hare will succeed if YOU do nothing.

HERE IS WHAT YOU CAN DO: Sign, detach, and mail the form below. Be sure it is filled out completely. Ask at least five friends to send either in their own words or a form similar to this one.

We can STOP her if you will do your part. She is doing this now because the United States and Russia are planning a joint space venture and if her plans succeed, she would obtain world-wide attention.

Carbide Open To Public Tours Thursday

OPEN HOUSE HERE THURSDAY-In observance of the 50th Anniversary of the Films-Packaging Division of Union Carbide, an Open House will be held at the Loudon plant from 1:30 to 6:30 p.m., Thursday. The public is invited.

IT ALL STARTED HERE-The original food casing plant of the Vicking Corporation, now a division of Union Carbide, was in the building here in Chicago. This week the division is celebrating its 50th anniversary. Union Carbide has several food casing plants, one of which is in Loudon that manufactures "skins" for skinless wieners.

and Carbon Corporation, a name already familiar to Loudon Countians for its extensive operations in Oak Ridge.

For several years however, the division continued to be officially known as the Vicking Company. It later was designated the Food Products Division, and more recently the Films-Packaging Division of Union Carbide Corporation.

Employment here is now 500, rising to 550 in the summer months with student employment. Birkholz pointed out. Ninety-five percent of all employees live within 10 miles of the plant and all plant personnel are encouraged to participate in community, civic, governmental and social affairs.

Other plants of the division are located in Chicago, Ill., Centerville, Iowa and Barcelona, PR. Products are shipped all over the world.

Organized in 1923, the formation of the Vicking Corporation in 1925 was the culmination of a research effort which had been begun by a man of vision years earlier. The man with the dreams was Erwin O. Freund, who had spent his business life in the animal casing business. By 1916 he had long realized that encasing meat in animal intestines had disadvantages. One of them was that sheep intestines were largely imported and were difficult to obtain in quantities in a world at war.

It was then that Mr. Freund determined to develop an improved casing. That same year he established a fellowship at the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research at Pittsburgh, Pa., for developing sausage casings made of raw materials that would be cheap and plentiful in the United States.

Research and experimentation went slowly. It was almost 10 years later that a successful casing, made of cellulose, with the required strength, stability, uniformity and elasticity was developed. Early in that 10 years, two men successively worked on the problem and both reached the conclusion that cellulose held the greatest potential for development of a synthetic casing.

In July, 1920, W.F. Henderson arrived at the Mellon Institute and was assigned to carry on the project. After considerable study and research, he too agreed with his predecessors that cellulose, in some form, offered the most promise.

After considerable experiments, Mr. Henderson was able to produce short lengths of casing by painting viscose on enameled pipes drying in a trough. This changed the dry viscose back to cellulose and the wet tube slipped off the enameled pipe. It was a big day's work to produce 30 feet of frankfurter casing.

Further efforts resulted in the development of the first laboratory extrusion machine, which after a few improvements, was capable of producing runs of 100 foot lengths casing with very little trouble.

Early Test Disaster

The first big packing house test was a next thing to a disaster. Because animal casing was the standard, the assumption was that cellulose casings also should be stuffed with the same stuff. The stuffing horns, uneven filling and frequent breaks occurred. More casing material ended up on the floor than in successfully-filled sausages. The test ended abruptly.

Back to the laboratory. It was almost accidental when a sudden thought occurred to the researchers. Why not try to stuff the cellulose casings dry? Some of the old wet casings on hand were dried, inflated to avoid shrinking, and tried on a stuffing horn. It worked. The next packing house test was successful. The uniformly filled casings slipped off the stuffing form without breaking.

The first commercial shipment of casing was made to a Pittsburgh, Pa. sausage company. The new casing stuffed well, was linked and went into the smokehouse. It emerged looking a mess—the casing was loose, raggy, and contained water pockets. Surely such a ridiculous looking product would not be sold by any self-respecting butcher.

Skinless Frank Developed

Then Mr. Freund made a startling discovery. Seizing one of the strands, he found that in the separation of the meat from the casing, the strands had retained their shape and were firm. And they literally fell out of the casing.

Mr. Freund eyed them carefully and proclaimed the birth of the skinless frankfurter.

The Vicking Corporation was incorporated in 1925 with commercial production of cellulose casings starting in the same year.

Research and development continued. Casing for sausage products were introduced in 1927. To 1930 cellulose casing was introduced and in the same year a method of printing casings was evolved through which makers could identify their brands in the meat case.

The next big step was more uniform casing for the sausage industry was evident in 1935. Cellulose casings were introduced. They were made of a special paper that had unusual strength. The casing was formed into a tube and impregnated with viscose to form a strong casing with minimal stretch. In years following, several types of fibrous casings were developed to meet the special needs of certain sausage products such as hot sausage, bratwurst and slicing.

Along with supplying sausage makers with different types of casings for a variety of products, the casings were from time to time upgraded to improve customers' plant efficiencies, reduced labor costs and increased stuffing speeds. In 1971 E.Z. Peel Nax casings were introduced which made possible greater increased peeling or casing removal speeds on the processing services.

Technical assistance in customers' plants is an ongoing part of the operation. Helping customers solve their production problems—developing machines and equipment to produce and package more efficiently have been continuing services.

Other Uses Developed

The company also is responsible for several contributions to medical sciences. During World War II, cellulose tubing was found to be a highly desirable material for intravenous injection tubing. Later, the artificial kidney was made feasible and used for certain kidney ailments. Another tubing, supplied by Vicking, could be used to purify the blood.

The company annually sells millions of feet of tubing for use by hospitals, laboratories and institutions. Tubing and separation processes (dialysis) are used.

Also during the war, with supplies of critical raw materials cut off, Vicking was called on by the U.S. Government to help develop synthetic materials to replace them.

Laboratories of Imperial Chemical Industries in Great Britain had already discovered a new resin called polyethylene which the British armor forces were using as a coating in radar and other electronic devices.

Wishing to work on other uses for this resin and out of the laboratories and research projects came a new method of producing film by a wet extruding and blowing process. This method provides for the manufacture of film uniform controllable physical characteristics important for diverse uses.

Many military uses were developed for this polyethylene film and tubing, including its use for weatherproofing guns and ammunition.

In 1955 a group of Loudon County citizens learned that the Vicking Corporation was looking for a site to build a new plant and had been considering East Tennessee.

Company "Courtied"

The local group began "courtiering" the company to come here and in a few days raised $50,000 to help build a road siding to the plant. The local participation was viewed by company officials as a token of good faith, and they added it to their favorable impressions of the site and its adequate water source, electrical supply and labor pool and other features.

With the purchase of 60 acres on the banks of the Tennessee River, construction began on the 180,000 square foot plant. Some 17 months later, in January, 1957, the plant began operations with a work force of 220. Employment has steadily grown, to the present 500.

First plant manager was Ed Swenson, long an employee of the firm. He served until 1963 when he was transferred back to Chicago and assistant plant manager Ray Birkholz was named to succeed him. He continues to serve in that capacity.

The Swensons, upon his retirement in 1970, returned to Loudon to make their home. Chicago and assistant plant manager Ray Birkholz said the plant today covers 220,000 square feet and is located on a 96-acre tract of prime industrial land. About 50 varieties of casing, differing in size, color and length are produced at the plant in a continuous 24-hour, seven day a week operation. The multi-million dollar investment in the Loudon plant continues to increase with expansions and additions of more modern equipment.

supervision to handle transportation problems, re-evaluate the insurance program for bus contractors which is paid by county funds and not to haul any child who resides closer than 1/2 mile from a school; try to cut the number of bus contractors to no more than four owners.

Maintenance & Operations

Again the need for a county supervisor was pointed out. It was said that the county school board has a very good set of rules and regulations for maintenance, but they are not enforced.

It suggests the crews be expanded to include specialists; hire janitors and maintenance people on a 12-month basis, not use maintenance people for construction; conduct in-service training for janitors; develop work schedules; have more communication between the principals and janitors; and implement enforcement of the present rules and regulations.

Teacher Salaries

According to county income, property evaluations, and average income, the survey says the county should be paying higher teacher salaries. It noted that most of the teachers in year county were home-grown products. It was quick to point out that the vast majority were very good teachers, but the county needed to attract teachers from the surrounding area, and counties except Loudon County pay more in teacher salaries than Loudon County.

It said bringing in teachers from outside and a higher turn-over of teaching positions would bring in new ideas into the system. The team also suggested that the ratio of assistant teachers was too high and more money should be hired. Again the low pay scale was cited as a reason more men were not interested in teaching in Loudon County.

Superintendents

Loudon County spends about half the state average of its school dollars on administration and supervision, pointing out the need for more top level administrative positions. In terms of spending for schools the county ranks 22nd out of 27 systems. The study says money spent wisely on education proves that the higher the dollar input the more education a student received. Through more programs and individual attention. The county is 16th of 146 in teacher salaries. The county ranks 12th of 146 in receiving state funds; is 63rd in per capita income expenditures; and 14th of 146 in federal funds for schools mainly because it does not have the staff to develop programs and make applications for such funds.

share of the Philadelphia and Sugar Limb Connectors. The county borrowed the funds on short term notes from local banks several months ago. County Bond Advisor Tom Veitch asked the resolution be adopted to put his firm in position to let the bonds when market conditions improve.

An interlocal cooperation agreement between Loudon, Buchanan, Scott, Morgan, and Campbell Counties was approved. Under the program, state and federal funds will be received to purchase equipment and supplies to manufacture highway marking signs for local roads.

Administrative Assistant Randy McGill said that stop signs, curve indicators and etc. can be made a great savings and that Road Commissioners had started a survey of county roads and the county needed. He said the initial investment by the county would be about $200,000 which would be recovered through in-kind services of the road commissioners who will need the signs.

A delegation of about 20 residents of the Eaton crossroads area was at the meeting to protest a rezoning request of a parcel in the (Ed) district for a beer tavern. Judge Russell said he had been notified by the parties seeking the rezoning that they were withdrawing their petition.

Squire Blair for the second time brought to the attention of the court that the construction of 173 was causing drainage problems on several county roads. He stated that the resolution was correct, any such problems but that nothing had been done.

Judge Russell said state engineers had looked at several problems at Loudon. Philadelphia, State Planner Steve Campbell said that his office had received a letter from the State claiming the matter was a county problem. Both Russell and Campbell contend it is the state's responsibility to make the corrections. Judge Russell was instructed by the court to return the case to be held in Nashville to get action on the matter.

Judge Russell appointed Squires Jim Hartsock, Boyd Dicksworth and J. G. Hudson as a Survey Committee. The trio is to study all land and building holdings of the county and recommend uses or what disposal should be made of them.

A training class for Licensed Practical Nurses and Nurses Aides will begin June 11 at the Loudon County Memorial Hospital Squire I. D. Conner said. Conner, Chairman of the Hospital Board of Directors also reported the hospital was considering seeking accreditation.

Philadelphia Invitational Softball Tourney To Start Tonight

The Philadelphia Community Club will hold its annual Philadelphia Invitational Softball Tournament this weekend starting on Thursday night.

The double elimination tournament is composed of 12 teams with five games being slated for Thursday night's opening round. Union Carbide will oppose West End at 6 p.m. to open the tournament. Games will run on an hourly schedule thereafter with the game one winner meeting IGA at 10 p.m. Thursday night to close the action.

The tournament will carry into the winner's bracket semi-finals on Friday night's five contests.

The tournament will commence at 9 a.m. Saturday morning and at least 11 games are assured with the championship game being set for 8 p.m. and a second game to follow at 9 p.m. if necessary.

Admission for each tournament session is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children under 12. Children under six years of age will be admitted free.

Trophies are to be given to the top four teams finishing in the tournament.

Rev. David Stephens is the tournament director and for further information concerning the tournament he can be contacted by phone 458-3546.

The Philadelphia Community Club will also sponsor a concession stand through out the tournament with Mr. Kenneth Hamilton having charge of the operations.

Union Carbide Golfers Take Mid-Season Break

The Union Carbide Golf League took the week of last week by way of mid-season 18-hole tournaments. A total of 18 individuals entered the break action play that was broken into four flights.

Herbert Hodge captured the First Flight with a low net 71 while Dick Huff wound up with a close 75.

J. J. Watkins curled a low net 86 to win the Second Flight play over Larry Flack, 73, and Jack Miller and Jack Randolph with 75's.

Jack Delaney proved to be the lone entry in the Third Flight honors with a 79.

Spencer Watkins nipped a battling Robert Goodwin by a stroke to take the Fourth Flight as several of the league team members did not wish to enter the individual mid-season event. Delaney had a 74 for the 18 holes.

Regular team play resumes this week with Ralph Schmitzner and J. J. Watkins holding the league lead with 94.2 team points. Jack Miller and Jim Cardwell are in second place with 91 team points to date.

Hamilton Bank Is Second In Ball Camp Tourney

The Hamilton Bank of Loudon has added another addition to their fast growing accretion of softball tournament trophies.

The Hamilton Bank participated in the Ball Camp Invitational over the past weekend and finished runner-up to the Knoxville Hot Dogs.

The Loudon based Bankers rambled through nine games in two days to gain the trophy finals. Led by the hitting of catcher Ted Sitzer, third baseman Kenny Radledge and fielders Danny Russell, Gene Radledge, and Buck Kirkland, the Hamilton Bank skipped over such teams as Perry's Coffee Shop, and Gateway of Knoxville.

Union Peoples Bank of Clinton slipped the Hamilton Bank into the loser's bracket with a 10-4 setback. But with strong defensive play from Kenny Radledge and Buck Kirkland the Hamilton Bank remained alive averaging their loss with a 7-4 decision over Union Peoples Bank to reach the championship finals.

The Hamilton Bank won a close game 5-4 over the Hot Dogs only to fall in a follow-up second game 8-7 in extra innings.

The Hamilton Bank will be competing in the Philadelphia Softball Invitational this weekend in still another effort to add to their trophy case of honors.

ADULT TENNIS LESSONS—Loudon Football Coach Bert Radledge, who heads up the Loudon Youth Club Summer Recreation program took time Monday night during the adult tennis registration to explain a few of the basics to be mastered in the first few, highly sessions. Late sign-ups may enroll in the tennis course by contacting Coach Radledge at the high school.

Loudon City Golf Play Becoming More Competitive

Loudon City Golf League President Ted Lomax told the Herald in early spring that this summer's two division format would provide the best competitive league play in the organization's three year history. Mr. Lomax's prediction may be more precise than he had expected. Following an early season rocket get away by American League preseason favorites John Cobb and Richard Archer and National League low handicappers John Greer and John Greer, Jr., the divisional play has become most competitive.

Both Cobb and Archer and the Greer's all had one time pace setting leads over their closest challengers. But no more. After a seven week stay on top of the National Division John Greer and John Greer, Jr. are suddenly lingering in third place. The new division chairmen are Jack Ferguson and Glen McNabb with 144 team points to date.

Ferguson and McNabb, The Greer's rank third with 126 team points and Dick Ryan and Red Ryan hold on to fourth place. Over in the American Division Cobb and Archer have company at the top of the latter as continual challengers Monty Lawson and Gordy Watson have made up their point deficit by way of a bye in the schedule some weeks back. Both teams have accumulated 130 team points to date.

Jeff Woods was the winning pitcher for Smith Chair Company giving up six hits and striking out eight.

Curt Wayman was tagged with the loss and had to have relief help from Jimmy Russell. The losing out combined to strike out 16 of the Smith Chair Company batters but 18 base on balls proved instrumental in the winners scoring efforts.

David Kirkland, Charles Hooker, and Tommy Bowers each had a hit for the Reds. Cooper was the losing pitcher.

Lenoir City Connie Mack Team Logs First Victory, Defeats Tellico 10-3

The Eagleton Connie Mack Baseball season is just barely a week old and already the eight team field is without an unbeaten team.

Lenoir City, starting its second year in the league, won its first actual game Monday night by downing Tellico 10-3 before the fans at Civitan Field.

Lenoir City's team, made up of a majority of high school Panthers that performed for Coach Brannon's diamond crew this spring, jumped to an early lead and were never headed by the Monroe Cougars.

Mike McConkey was the moundsman in receiving credit for the win. The 18 year old right hander struck out 10 and walked four in out battling Tellico's pitcher Steve Shell. Shell, a 19 year old from Sweetwater also struck out 10, but walked seven and served up RBI hits in Jeff Walker, Robert Salvage, Mike McConkey, Joey Cunningham, and Steve Arnold.

Salvage had the longest hit of the night, a double, while Walker produced two runs with his hit, also scored a run. The win, Lenoir City's first real victory although they were awarded three forfeits last summer by cancellations, puts them into the thick of the Connie Mack race this season. Lenoir City had lost its first two games of the young season, a home opening loss to Elizah, 2-1. The Piledrivers were a late rearranged opponent due to high school graduation exercises affecting the Blount County league circuit.

McConkey opened the season on the mound for Lenoir City nine and after seven innings found himself locked in a 1-1 struggle with Elizah pitcher Gary Patterson. The Elizah team managed to get a runner on with a walk and the winning run was brought home on a bunt.

Lenoir City ran into a better than expected Madisonville team last Friday night with Madisonville lefthander Wayne Trentham teaming with Greenback 18 year old Tony Linginfeller to hurl the Monroe County Bombers to a 1-0 decision.

Lenoir City was unable to get a hit until the seventh inning when Jeff Walker lined a two out single. Walker had reached base on an error in the top of the Panther second inning.

Shortstop Mike Hudson was the only other Lenoir City base runner to reach base on a fielding error.

Duane Bowers 17 year old lefthander started for Lenoir City and was relieved by Bobby Smith and later Joe Allen.

Madisonville collected 11 hits and scored four runs in the first inning enroute to the win. Trentham and Linginfeller struckout 12 Lenoir City batters and did not give up a walk.

The team with the best overall league mark at the close of the season is awarded a berth in the Tennessee Connie Mack State Tournament. Each division also sends a representative to the Senior Babe Ruth Sub-State Tournament. This also is based on win-loss records.

The standings through Monday night are as follows:

Who'll Win Atomic Race

Who will be the next winner at Atomic Speedway - Lenoir's Ken Phillips. Lenoir City's Gary Duggan, Knoxville's I. E. Vaneyard or Snooks DePoot of Chattanooga, Ga.

All will be battling Saturday night for their first victory of the season at the high banked dirt facility. All except Duggan have been winners in the past.

A big feature for late model sportsman drivers tops the Saturday show. Class B cars are scheduled for a 20-lapper. A semiregular will be staged for sportsman drivers not making the main event.

Action starts at 8:30. Adult tickets are $3.50 and $5. Children under 12 are admitted without charge.

The speedway just hasn't had a double winner this year. Four General Motors products and one Ford have taken the "two Georgia competitors have been among the victors."

Two Georgia competitors have been among the victors. Last Lenoir driver to win the season-opening 100 of Fame 100 and Charles Duggan of Dalton became the first non-Cherokee winner in nearly two years when he triumphed. Other winners have been Todd Estes of Knoxville, Bill Corum of Mayodaville and Clay Kelley of Knoxville.

A field of at least 40 sportsman drivers is expected to be on hand for time trials.

Game And Fish

WILDLIFE RESOURCES ACTIVITY by HEN COLLIER 158-546

In working the lakes, I have noticed that a great number of boaters insist upon sitting on the back of the seats or on the Gunwale (the upper edge of the sides of the boat) while underway.

This practice is extremely dangerous. A large wake taken at a wrong angle, a sudden turn, or unseen debris could easily cause a person to be thrown overboard.

Drownings have occurred because of just these things happening. There have been cases where boaters have been thrown overboard and totally or seriously injured by the propeller.

While this may be a comfortable way to ride or steer, I urge you, for your own safety, to remain seated while underway.

State Record Paddlefish

A seventy-four and one-half pound Paddlefish, taken by Gary Mackler of Lebanon, Va., on April 20th has become the new State record. The behemoth was caught in the backwaters of Cherokee Lake below the Rogersville Steam Plant. The fish, which was 49 inches long and 24 inches in girth, was landed on a 10 pound test line.

The previous record was a 65 pounder taken out of Centerville Lake by David E. Buttram in June, 1969.

Don't Be Litter-Boater

BOATING ENTHUSIASTS are destroying the beauty of their "playground, the lakes and streams on which they see recreation, by flagrant littering.

Once beautiful shorelines are made ugly by beer cans, empty boxes, tin cans and many other items that may be observed floating in the water when they are washed ashore. It's the litter tossed overboard carelessly without thought of the hazards they pose or the ugliness they create on the waterways.

It is a simple matter to include a litter bag aboard even the smallest runabout or fishing boat. It is also a simple thing to place all litter in the bag and keep it aboard until returning to the dock. Almost all have "Pitch In" cans available where the litter can be disposed of neatly and easily.

Tennessee's lakes and streams are a major part of the beautiful landscape which is so appealing to tourists as well as to Tennesseans. Not only does litter on the water ruin the picturesque view, but can be a hazard to boats and water skiers.

The waterways are a benefit to all who either use them or just admire scenery uncluttered by man's presence. Campers have caught the anti-litter theme, but boaters are still despoiling their nest.

They can help protect the beauty of our lakes by being more careful with their litter... and could wind up paying a heavy fine in court. There are laws!

Just one axiom prevails: If you take it off the boat, bring back the containers and dispose of 'em properly.

Koella Initiates Stall Of State Tax Bills

The General Assembly stands in recess this week as a result of an impasse on the appropriations bill and tax measures and a parliamentary situation which made it difficult for differences to be resolved.

Area Senator Carl Koella (R-Marysville) was the initiator of parliamentary maneuvering which left the House and Senate poles apart on a proposed severance tax on minerals.

The impasse was reached last Friday when the Senate refused to concur in any House amendments to the appropriations bill, most of which would have had the effect of reducing the budget. The House then refused to concur in a Senate amendment to the severance tax legislation instituting a one cent per gallon privilege tax on gasoline.

Hard lines were drawn when many members of the House expressed their opposition to any direct taxes on consumers, and some Senators, including Speaker John Wilder, announced they would support either both taxes or no taxes.

Sewanee Hoop Camp Dates Told

The fifth Sewanee Basketball Camp will begin its 1975 sessions June 15-21, with Mac Petty, head basketball coach at the University of the South, as director. The camp is for boys and girls ages 10 through high school who want to learn more about basketball and sharpen their fundamentals.

Other sessions will be June 22-28 (Girls), July 13-19 and July 20-26. Campers may attend one or all sessions.

The staff will be composed of outstanding high school and college coaches. Some of these coaches are: Hugh Walker, Women's Basketball Coach at Middle Tennessee State Community College; Pat Sarver, Women's Basketball Coach at Middle Tennessee State Community College; Rudy Thacker, Assistant Basketball Coach at M.T.S.U.; Bobby Halls, Basketball Coach at McMinnville; DeWayne Arp, Basketball Coach at Loudon.

Hugh Geleton, Basketball Coach in Baltimore, Maryland; and Bill Bethman, player at the University of the South, will be other outstanding coaches and players. Campers will stay in a University dormitory and eat at the dining hall. They will be able to use other University of the South athletic and recreational facilities such as lakes, tennis courts, bowling alley and swimming pool.

Prospective campers should apply at once to Coach Mac Petty at the University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee 37375, giving age, height and weight, school, and which session they want to attend. Boarding tuition is $99 of which $39 is payable with the application. Reduced rates apply in effect for any day campers, and group rates are available.

Jobs for more than 4000 Loudon Countians are provided by the 27 industrial plants in Loudon County. It is through the economic base that they provide for our families, communities and governments that Loudon County owes much of its growth.

During this Industrial Appreciation Week we urge everyone to pay special tribute to the industry of the county and invite you to see the special picture displays throughout the county and to visit the Industrial Appreciation booth at the Arts and Crafts Festival at Lenoir City Saturday.

To the men and women making up our industrial community we say thanks for not only your economic contributions but for the support you give to all phases of life in our county.

We hope that our gestures during YOUR WEEK will in some small way show how proud we are to have you as our friends and neighbors.

... in 1925 we started making the "skins" for skinless wieners

50 years ago the search for a better sausage casing led to the establishment of our business ... and a new industry.

America's appetite for skinless wieners has been growing ever since. And as our customers have expanded their production and consumer sales, we've grown, too.

In 1957 our Loudon Plant opened to meet this growing demand. Since this time our firm has been a vital and growing segment of Loudon County. We appreciate the contributions made by our employees, their families and all the people of Loudon County. For these reasons we want you to be a part of our birthday celebration and hope you can visit with us on June 5th.

by EDWARD HEADLEE
Loudon County School Superintendent

Board Meeting
The Loudon County Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, June 5 in the superintendent's office. The agenda is included below.

College Courses
Loudon County will have no summer college courses from the University of Tennessee. There will be courses offered in Madisonville. These are: Educ. C & 1 5276 - Mon. and Wed., 9:30-4:30 p.m. - June 18th - 1st class; Educ. Psy. 5340 - June 18th - 1st class. These classes will probably meet at Madisonville Junior High School. For further information call 974-6678.

Countywide Survey
The survey team from the University of Tennessee presented their tentative results to a joint meeting of the County Court and the Board of Education on Friday, May 30th at the courthouse. The recommendations can probably be found in an article elsewhere in this paper.

Now those of us locally must take the ball and either run with it or put it down. We can accept the recommendations and take steps to carry them out, or ignore the recommendations and continue to grope along in an effort to improve the quality of education in Loudon County.

Kindergarten Registrations
All kindergarten registrations which have not been turned in to the school in which your five-year-old will be attending next year should be filed in the superintendent's office prior to June 16.

As of this date we do not have enough children registered to justify the eleven classes which we had this past year.

We sincerely hope that every parent who has a child old enough to attend public school kindergarten next year will seriously consider enrolling their child in the kindergarten nearest his/her home.

Agenda

Status Of Major Legislation

Here is a summary of the status of major legislation before the Tennessee General Assembly after fourteen weeks.

ELECTION LAWS A bill to amend the presidential primary statute was on House calendar for Friday, failed to pass out of Senate State and Local Government Committee. A bill to give the majority party in the General Assembly a majority on the State Election Commission has passed both houses. Necessary additional legislation passed the Senate but was amended to take effect in 1977, deferred until 1976 in the House. A similar bill dealing with county election commissions passed House, deferred in the Senate until 1976 because of lack of support. A bill requiring a runoff in election for Governor, U.S. Senator and Representative and Public Service Commissioner has passed House, referred to Finance, Ways and Means Committee in Senate. A bill to redraw the boundaries of the 6th, 7th, and 8th congressional districts has passed House, but was rejected in Senate. Legislation to provide for uniform ballots across the state has been signed into law. A bill to provide for postcard registration passed both Houses, signed by Governor.

ETHICS - LEGISLATION
The House has concurred in the Senate amendments to the bills providing for campaign financial disclosure and lobbyist regulation. These bills have been sent to the Governor for his signature. The House has concurred in the Senate amendment to conflict of interest legislation, which is now apparently dead.

COMMERCIAL AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS
Legislation to repeal fair trade on liquor and brand name items have been signed by the Governor.

ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT
A bill to give special powers to the Governor in the case of an energy emergency has been signed into law. Legislation to create a state energy office was on House calendar Friday, passed Senate.

TAXATION AND APPROPRIATIONS
A bill to exempt the elderly from sales tax on prescription drugs passed the House, awaits Senate action. Legislation to exempt the elderly from the tax on investment income will be considered by both Houses next week. The appropriations bill has been amended and passed by both Houses. A conference committee will be required to bring the amendments into conformity.

WELFARE, HEALTH AND EDUCATION
A bill creating a medical malpractice review board of claims passed the Senate with amendments. House concurred in the amendments signed by Governor. Legislation creating a joint underwriting pool for medical malpractice insurance has passed both houses, sent to Governor for signature. A bill to rename the Department of Public Welfare as the Department of Human Services has been signed into law.

STATE GOVERNMENT
Both houses have passed a major revision of the state general consumer protection bill; anti-trust law revision; milk, cigarette, and frozen dessert; fair trade repeal; energy facility siting; energy consumption information from retailers; a minimum wage bill; repeal of capital punishment; increased drunken driving penalties; revision of Contractors' Licensing Board and regulations; extension of sales tax to commercial leases; teacher unionization; state and local public employees unionization; and licensure of social workers.

TO THE CITIZENS AND VOTERS OF LOUDON

I urge you to use your voice in City Government by voting on June 7 for the candidates of your choice in the City Election.

For the past six years I have been privileged to serve you and hope with your votes I can continue for two more years as a member of the City Council.

I am proud of the accomplishments of the City and the small part I have played. In developing programs I have always tried to move forward at a pace that would be in keeping with the financial capability of the City.

Remember the City Precincts are now located in the cafeteria at the New High School and will be open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

BERNIE RAY (INKY) SWINEY For City Council

For City Council VOTE FOR Joe M. CARTER

Loudon City Election Saturday, June 7, 1975

I have served the City for Four years as Commissioner and six years as Mayor. I have worked for the welfare and progress of the City of Loudon for the past 10 years and at the same time worked to keep your taxes as low as possible.

Some of the things that have happened which I have taken part are -
- Lions Municipal Park
- New Swimming Pool and Park near Loudon High
- New Water Treatment Plant
- Industrial Park and new industries
- The new Nursing Home to open soon

These are just a few things I have added to the welfare of Loudon and there are many more.

Henry Hope Is Law Partner Of Jaworski

Henry W. Hope, a former Loudon resident, was admitted to the partnership of the law firm of Fulbright and Jaworski, June 1. Fulbright and Jaworski, one of the largest legal firms in the country, has its principal office in Houston, Texas, with offices in Washington D.C. and London, England, and in Mexico City. The firm has more than two hundred attorneys in its various offices. Leon Jaworski, a senior partner in the firm, recently served as special prosecutor in the Watergate investigations.

Mr. Hope is the son of Mrs. Kate Hope of Loudon and was a 1958 graduate of Loudon High School. He attended the University of Tennessee, receiving a degree in Industrial Engineering in 1962. While at the University of Tennessee, Mr. Hope was a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity, the Scarabean Senior Honor Society, and was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Mr. Hope graduated with honors from the George Washington University Law School where he was a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. Order of the Coif and the Law Review editorial staff.

Upon graduation he joined the Fulbright and Jaworski firm and specialized in the practice of patent, trademarks and copyright law. In 1972 he was transferred to the corporate section of the firm where he practiced general corporate and securities law, including work before the Securities and Exchange Commission. Near the end of 1974, Mr. Hope also began to practice in the newly developing field of law relating to energy matters.

Mr. Hope is presently a member of the Texas, Virginia, and American Bar Associations, the Houston Bar and Houston Junior Bar Associations and the Houston and American Patent Law

Candidate for City Commissioner

Election
Saturday, June 7, 1975
Loudon High School
Polls Open 10 a.m. - 8 p.m.

The last few years have been a time of real achievement in Loudon. The City Commission has passed many measures which have benefited you and your family WITHOUT INCREASING TAXES OR CREATING NEW BONDED INDEBTEDNESS. Among the advancements which I have diligently supported and worked for are:

- Nursing Home to be opened soon.
  - New means of garbage disposal
  - Upgrading street and fire department equipment
  - Swimming pool, ball park and tennis court complex.
  - Improvements at Legion Ballfield.
  - Picnic and recreational facilities at Lions Municipal Park.
  - Construction of Municipal garage to house street machinery and equip.
  - Obtaining Federal money for signal light soon to be installed at Highland Ave. railroad crossing.
- I ask for your support in this Saturday's election and pledge my continued effort on behalf of progressive government for Loudon.
- Mrs. Henri (Aileen) Richesin

Library Improvement At Loudon Elementary School

Loudon Elementary School is in the process of upgrading their school library. The principal, faculty, and parents, realizing the importance of nurturing in children a love of books during the crucial early years of a child's education expressed a commitment to striving for a strong library program.

The library has been in operation on an abbreviated schedule since January. Since funds were not available from the county for the purchase of library books and audio-visual materials the Loudon Parent-Teacher Organization contributed approximately $800 to the library fund. The Loudon Woman's Club contributed $48.05, which represented the entire proceeds from their annual card party, to the library fund. Also the following "friends of the library" contributed money for the purchase of books: Ms. C. J. Snow, Mrs. Clyde Norton, Ms. J. E. Greenway, and Mr. Bob McEachern. In addition to the above contributors, the library received $46 from the memorial book fund. It is anticipated that the library will receive $600 from a grant under Project Title II for next year. In addition to monetary contributions, donations of materials and services for the library were made by Links Carpet Center, Greer Hardware and The Carpet Shop. These contributions enabled the school to purchase the most immediate needs of the library. Next year some funding from the county school budget for library books and audio-visual materials will allow continued improvement and expansion of the library.

Also, the school library time reading, to help each child discover and explore varied interest areas and above all to help start each child on the road to becoming a lifetime reader and learner. A qualified librarian, Mrs. Judy Millsaps, has been hired for full time next year. Mrs. Millsaps is a graduate of Tennessee Wesleyan College and presently enrolled in the University of Tennessee Graduate School of Library and Information Science. Mrs. Millsaps is also a certified kindergarten and elementary school teacher.

Canter, Trustee, the tract of land hereinafter described, to secure the payment of the sum of $5,324.40, evidenced by promissory note due Hamilton National Bank of Loudon, Tennessee, all as stated in said deed of trust, and being incorporated herein by reference; and

WHEREAS, said deed of trust provided that in the event of default in the payment of any of said notes and interest, when due, the entire indebtedness shall at the option of the holders and owners thereof become due and payable, including attorney fees as provided by said note; and

WHEREAS, default having been made in the payment of certain installments, now due, and the holders of said notes having declared the entire balance now due and payable, and have instructed the undersigned Trustee to foreclose said deed of trust;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of authority vested in me, as Trustee under said instruments, I will, on Thursday, the 20th day of June, 1975, offer for sale and sell in front of the courthouse door in Loudon, Tennessee, at 10:00 A.M., Eastern Daylight Savings Time, to the last, highest and best bidder, for cash in hand, and in bar of the equity of redemption, the following described property:

Located in the First Civil District of Loudon County, Tennessee, and more particularly described as follows: BEGINNING at a pine knot corner (formerly post oak) of Russell (now Ridenour) and Sam Johnson; thence N. 30 min. East 577 feet to a pile of stones; thence S. 52 degrees 30' W. 265 feet to a stake on a line between Russell (now Ridenour) and Arthur Davis; thence in a southerly direction to a stone on line between Russell (now Ridenour) and Johnson; thence N. 69 degrees 00' E. 123 feet to the point of beginning.

This being the same property in deed recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Loudon County, Tennessee, in deed book 78, page 182, and received by Bobby D. White pursuant to a divorce decree in General Sessions Cause No. 1217 in General Sessions Court for Loudon County, Tennessee, filed on April 8, 1974, and includes the rights of way described therein. See also quit claim deed of record in deed book 117, page 386.

Trustee believes that said property is free and clear except for 1975 Loudon County taxes, but is to be sold subject to all matters.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY

BY M. LEE SMITH

(C) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

One action which the General Assembly did not take this year was the establishment of a strong state consumer protection agency designed to curb unfair business sales practices.

The bill died in the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee in recent years has become the burial ground for a large number of bills. The committee is chaired by Senator William Baird (D-Lebanon). He and a majority of the committee members maintain a very conservative, pro-business point of view.

The committee has been justifiably criticized for not reporting several good bills such as those to repeal fair trade laws on milk, beer, and cigarettes. But there are several valid questions concerning consumer protection legislation, and the committee was probably wise in this instance.

Federal legislation somewhat similar to bills beneficial regulation results in some waste.

The problem of government regulation is predominantly at the federal level. But in considering a state consumer protection agency the General Assembly should make certain that any new state regulation will result in benefits sufficient to justify the cost.

Two Receive Promotions

Fort Loudoun Savings and Loan Association has promoted Mrs. Carole Humphreys and Mrs. Sharon DeFord.

Mrs. Humphreys was appointed cashier and Mrs. DeFord office manager.

W. Brody Harrison, president of the association, made the appointments this week.

Both Mrs. Humphreys and Mrs. DeFord have been with Fort Loudoun Savings and Loan Association since September of 1973, prior to the opening in December of 1973. Mrs. Humphreys was employed by Valley Fidelity Bank, Knoxville, and the Bank of Loudon County in Loudon City. She is married to Leroy Humphreys, formerly of Sweetwater. Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys and their two sons reside at 611 W. Broadway in Loudon City.

Mrs. DeFord previously was employed by Valley Fidelity Bank, Knoxville, and the Bank of Loudon County in Loudon City. She is married to Leroy Humphreys, formerly of Sweetwater. Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys and their two sons reside at 611 W. Broadway in Loudon City.

The 5 simple truths about checking accounts that can save you money now.

Ask the Hamiltons.

There are 5 simple truths about checking accounts. You need to know and understand these truths before you open any account, anywhere. Or before you decide the one you already have is O.K.

The Hamiltons have learned these truths. For most of them, personally, a Hamilton Bank checking account makes money-saving sense. Here are the truths that helped them decide.

1. Checking isn't for everybody. If you pay 3 or fewer bills a month, you probably do not need a checking account.
2. "FREE" checking can be misleading. Sometimes "free" means there is no charge for checks. Or no service charge. Or no charge of any kind if a minimum balance is maintained. Rarely does it mean all three . . . or totally free checking, no strings attached. If you have any questions about your account, ask the Hamiltons.
3. It costs postage to mail payments. Fifteen checks a month would cost $1.50 or more to mail.

4. It costs gas to pay cash. Unless you have very few bills to pay, cash is no match for a checking account. At 50¢ or more a gallon, you can't go very far before gasoline and parking charges more than triple the minimal cost of mailing checks.
5. Cancelled checks are proof of purchase. These days, we've got to watch every dollar. With a checking account, it can be done. A monthly statement shows how much was spent, how much is left. Your cancelled checks are receipts, too. They are very useful for figuring deductions at income-tax time.

The 5 simple truths about checking accounts can save you money right now!

The Hamiltons will be glad to show you why and how, because these days we all have to make every dollar count.

Ask the Hamiltons. We're here to help.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ABANDONMENT
Before the Interstate Commerce Commission
(Sub. No. 9)

Notice is hereby given that the Interstate Commerce Commission is being requested to issue a certificate of public convenience and necessity permitting abandonment of the line of railroad of Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company ("Applicant") extending from railroad Mile Post KT 296 near Friendsville in a south-south-westerly direction to railroad Mile Post KT 304.5 near Greenback, a distance of 8.5 miles, in Blount and Loudon Counties, Tennessee. This line includes the non-agency stations of Ilega and Dora.

The interest of employees will be protected by "The Burlington Conditions" (Chicago B. & Q. RR Abandonment, 257 I.C.C. 700 (1941)).

REASONS FOR PROPOSED ABANDONMENT
This is an unproductive line of railroad as evidenced by the fact that it generated only twenty-two (22) carloads of traffic (2.6 carloads per mile) in the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the filing of this notice. A list showing various information on each of these twenty-two (22) movements is attached hereto as Appendix A and incorporated as part of this application in compliance with 49 C.F.R. 113.21(d).

By virtue of the proposed abandonment, applicant would enjoy substantial economies in the areas of avoidable maintenance and salvage of needed track materials. Applicant plans to leave in place, as industrial trackage, the mile of track on the northern extremity of the abandonment trackage and the mile and one-half of track on the southern extremity of the "don'tonment trackage." As to the remaining 6 miles of abandonment trackage, all rail and metal track materials of 90-lbs. and above, and all results ties will be salvaged for reuse. Applicant has an immediate need for such track material and ties for use in projects throughout its system. The substantial sums necessary to purchase such materials on the open market can thus be avoided, and the track materials and ties now devoted to this unproductive portion of railroad can be transferred to other locations to serve the public convenience and necessity.

The abandonment trackage is the middle portion of a branch which connects at both ends (Mentor on the north and Jena on the south) with applicant's Knoxville-Atlanta main line. This branch is pointed out by a red arrow on the portion of applicant's system map marked Exhibit 1 which is attached hereto and incorporated as part of this application.

The names and addresses of applicant's representatives to whom inquiries may be made are: Mr. Emmit D. Cole, Jr., Assistant General Attorney, Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, 902 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky 40201 and R. Lyle Key, Jr., Attorney, Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, 902 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky 40201

Commission will rule on this application without hearing unless protests are received which contain information indicating a need for such hearings. In accordance with the Commission's regulations (49 C.F.R. 110.250) in Ex Parte No. 55 (Sub-No. 4), Implementation National Environmental Policy Act, 1969, 340 I.C.C. 411 (1972), any protests may include a statement indicating the presence or absence of any effect of the requested Commission action on the quality of the human environment. If any such effect is alleged to be present, the statement shall include information relating to the relevant factors set forth in Ex Parte No. 55 (Sub-No. 4), Part B (11-5-73), 340 I.C.C. 431, 61.

After careful consideration, applicant states that the authorization sought herein will not constitute a major Federal action of significant effect on the quality of the human environment. Any protests referring to this notice, (Sub No. 9) shall be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423, not later than July 23, 1975.

FORECLOSURE NOTICE
WHEREAS, by a deed of trust dated April 28, 1972, of record in the Register of Deeds office for Loudon County, Tennessee, in Trust Book 136, page 45, et seq., Clyde J. Davis and wife, Nell Davis, did convey in trust to Donald L. Canter, Trustee, the tract of land hereinafter described to secure the payment of the principal sum of $21,966.11, evidenced by promissory note due Hamilton National Bank of Loudon, Tennessee, all as stated in said deed of trust, and being incorporated herein by reference; and

WHEREAS, said deed of trust provided that in the event of default in the payment of any of said notes and interest, when due, the entire indebtedness shall be and payers thereof become due and payable, including attorney's fees as provided by said note; and

WHEREAS, default having been made in the payment of certain installments, now due, and the holders of said notes having declared the entire balance now due and payable, and have executed the undersigned Trustee to foreclose said deed of trust.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of a promissory note in me, as Trustee under said instruments, I will, on Saturday, the 10th day of June, 1975, offer for sale and sell in front of the courthouse door in Loudon, Tennessee, at 10:30 a.m. an Eastern Daylight Savings Time, to the last, highest and best bidder, for cash in hand and in full of the equity of redemption, the following described property:

Located in the First Civil District of Loudon County, Tennessee, and being Lot No. 8 of the Huff Addition to the Town of Loudon as surveyed by J. F. McQuire on April 29, 1941, which addition plan is on record in the Register's office for Loudon County, Tennessee, in deed book 41, page 546, and being more particularly bounded and described as follows:

Old Jail Being Demolished

Watching an old building being torn down, even a jail can be sad. The photos here show the destruction of the old Loudon County Jail behind the courthouse in Loudon.

Even if it is a jail, where persons from a misguided juvenile to rapists and murderers have been housed, the building played a definite role in Loudon County history for over 50 years.

The site will soon be a parking lot. The building, but not the memories of events that occurred there, will be gone.

Lawmakers Postpone Road Bill Vote

The on again - off again Loudon County Road Bill is off again until January. The Herald learned Tuesday morning. There had been some indication last week that the county's legislators in Nashville were going to put the private act creating a Department of Transportation for the county through the legislative process this week.

It was learned Tuesday that a meeting of the two State Representatives - Benny Stafford, Mrs. Anna Belle Clement O'Brien and State Senator Carl Koella was held in Nashville Tuesday morning and passage of the bill was postponed until January.

Representative Stafford told the Herald last week he was in favor of going ahead with the legislation but that Mrs. O'Brien was leaning toward postponement of the bill. County Judge William Russell, who drafted the bill,

School Consolidation Study Proposed

Judge, Mayor To Name Committee

For the first time since the rumors of consolidation of the Lenoir City and Loudon County School Systems started more than two years ago, officials of both government agencies discussed the issue in a public meeting.

The exchange between County Judge William Russell and Lenoir City Mayor and School Board Chairman Joe Grayson took place at a meeting of the Loudon County Budget Committee Monday night.

Judge Russell asked Mayor Grayson point blank, what the City was planning to do with their schools, and what was their thinking on consolidation. Russell pointed out that rumors were all the county had to go on and since he has been Judge no one in the city had formally proposed any consolidation talks.

Mayor Grayson, who seemed receptive to consolidation, said his boards had discussed consolidation several times but no determinations had been made. He suggested that the city get a similar survey of schools, like the one just completed for Loudon County. He suggested a committee from the county and city should study and discuss the problems involved.

Judge Russell said the county board had told him they were concerned about the impact of consolidation, but felt they were not the ones to institute a consolidation study.

Grayson suggested the City and County work toward a study of the advantages and disadvantages. He mentioned a committee had been appointed more than two years ago but no meetings had been held.

The Mayor and Judge agreed to either reappoint the committee or appoint a new one to start work on the problems involved.

Mayor Grayson had attended the Budget meeting to request that the county County Auditor's Office be reappointed to the position of deputy county auditor for county students attending Lenoir City Schools. Grayson said that the city system spent $52.05 per student more than the $40 in the entire Lenoir City system. He did not ask for a definite amount stating the city would request either a portion or all the difference be paid by the county. Should the county pay the amount on the high school students alone some $27,000 would be involved. Squire L. D. Conner said the county should pay the entire amount. No action was taken.

The suggestion from the budget committee earlier that the county seek use of space in the West Hill for Glendale students should that school be closed this year. Lenoir City Board member Gene Hamby said no one had made a formal request for use of additional space at the school, but if the county wanted to send students here the school could probably absorb them. Mayor Grayson said if the county just wanted space and furnished their own teachers it would depend on the amount of available classrooms. There was no mention of how either idea would be received by the Lenoir City School Board.

A delegation from Glendale School presented the Budget Committee with an estimate of $22,000 made by a builder, Buck Russell, for the repair of Glendale School. This would include lowering the ceiling, roofing work, bathroom work and electrical work. The committee was not very receptive to the proposal saying it should be closed because of the county school building program the money would be needed. The Glendale people want to get the building repaired and hope to maintain the school on an indefinite basis. No action was taken with the Budget Committee passing the matter back to the school board for recommendation.

A tentative tax rate of 55 cents was set for the county debt service. This was 10 cents lower than the projected rate. The committee approved taking money from the special highway fund to lower the tax rate on debt service. The rate last year was 61 cents.

Apparently some $2,568.00 of Federal Revenue Sharing money will be used to finance the operation of the Loudon County Ambulance Service next year. This would cut 25 cents from the expected $1.03 general fund budget.

Squire Boyd Duckworth renewed his efforts to do away with the juvenile court. Juvenile Services Officer Duckworth suggested using the additional position of deputy sheriff by Sheriff Guy Russell for a juvenile officer. The committee pointed out that the position at $9828, the same as a deputy's salary, up from $7,891 last year. Judge Russell felt that the cities of Loudon and Lenoir City might share in the juvenile services budget. Duckworth wants the authority of the office taken from the Sheriff's office suggesting that a committee of the Judge and two mayors act as advisors for the office. Judge Russell said that the General Sessions and Juvenile Court would be the proper supervisor if it was removed from the sheriff's office.

Open House at the $1 million facility will be held Sunday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Care Inn Open House Sunday

The new $1 million 90 bed Care-Inn Nursing Home at Loudon will be open to public inspection Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m., Administrator Ernest Vincetti said this week. The Care Inn is located on Vonore Road at the Loudon City limits.

At 2 p.m. a short dedication and ribbon cutting service will be held in front of the sprawling structure. A guest speaker, to be named, will give a short address. Others on the program will be Mr. Vincetti, Rev. O. C. Rainwater, Murray Murphy, president of William Bond, Inc., the parent company of Care Inn; Mayor Eugene Lambert, County Judge William Russell, and Ray Birkholz, chairman of the Loudon Health and Education Board.

William Bond Inc. operated about a dozen other intermediate care nursing homes in Tennessee and Mississippi.

After an opening ceremony the facility will be open to public inspection and refreshments will be served.

The building itself consists of four wings joined at the hub by the general use areas including the office, dining room, recreation and television room, and nursing stations.

The building was designed for the eventual housing of 120 patients, but was licensed to open for 90 patients. The large patient rooms will be either private or semi-private depending on the desires of the patients. The rooms are decorated with Early American wood furniture, private bath facilities for each room, and cheerful colors.

Furnishings throughout the building are Early American, with the dining room and recreation room resembling decor of a prestigious restaurant or club.

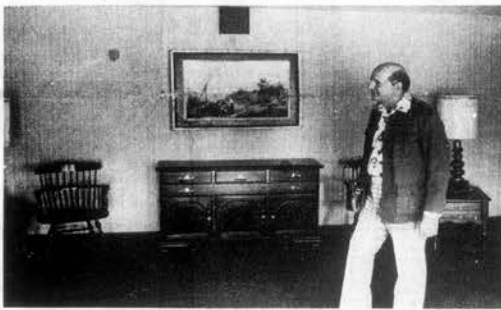

Patients will begin arriving at the facility on Monday June 16, Mr. Vincetti said. He said only a few patients per day will be admitted to give the patients and staff time to get acquainted and oriented.

When the operation gets into full swing it will have from 50 to 60 employees.

Mrs. Wiley Bond, registered nurse formerly employed at Loudon County Memorial Hospital, will head the nursing care staff at the facility. Dr. Elsie Tomkinson will serve as staff physician.

Mr. Vincetti said the building design, four wings with general use centers as the hub, was created to make better use of staff for nursing care and to have facilities used by the patients such as the dining room and recreation area centrally located.

Construction of the facility was financed by a revenue bond issue through the City of Loudon Health and Education Facilities Board, then guaranteed by a lease-purchase agreement with William Bond, Inc.

Nursing Home Administrator Ernest Vincetti is pictured in the reception lobby of the Care Inn. Vincetti and his staff will host an Open House at the facility Sunday.

Miller Opposes Merging Two Loudon Schools

Only one of the recommendations of the county school survey was acted on by the Loudon County Board of Education Thursday night, but several were discussed.

Loudon board member Chel Miller expressed his dislike for the recommendation that the Loudon Grammar School be closed and combined with the Junior High by a major building addition at the Junior High. "There is a lot of good floor space at the Grammar School and I can't see abandoning a good building," Miller said.

He was reminded that the state has said it may condemn the building because of its inadequate design, age, and safety factors.

The part of the survey that was acted on concerned transportation. As the UT team suggested the school board is going to call on the State Department of Education to send in their transportation experts to survey the school bus routes of the county.

The survey showed that the county was spending almost double the state average on transportation on a per-child average. Board member Ted Wampler said he did not believe the seat base of $7 and the mileage of 27 cents was out of line but that the routes themselves might not be efficiently planned. The survey pointed out that the county was paying the bus contractors from the time they left wherever they kept their buses until they got back, instead of a basis of from first pick up to the school. The survey also found the county was paying one contractor of a bus that does not exist.

School Board Chairman Jim Bailey said that when the bus routes change there will be a lot of complaints by "mamas" but money was being wasted it should be stopped.

The survey suggested the county look toward operating its own bus fleet. That was not mentioned by the board.

Glendale parent Dick Waterhouse told the board he agreed with some parts of the survey and disagreed with others. He agreed that more central staff supervisory should be stopped.

All incumbents running for reelection in the City of Loudon Mayor-Council Election last Saturday were returned to office along with a new council member Kenneth (Cotton) Thomas. The voter turnout was very high with only 231 of the city's 1600 registered voters going to the polls.

The only candidate on the ballot not to be elected was Howard Gibson. Mr. Gibson carried his home precinct (Loudon East) polling 51 votes, but was not elected by any council candidate. He lost the election in the West Precinct where he was out-voted by more than two to one.

Mayor Eugene Lambert, running for a third term unopposed, led all candidates with 172 votes. Mrs. Alice Richesin, as she did in the last election got the most council votes, 152. She was followed by new councilman Cotton Thomas with 149. Councilmen Joe Carter and Berrie Ray (Ikey) Swiney each polled 146 votes. The lower Howard Gibson collected 46 votes for his effort.

The council will take office being sworn into office on the first Monday in July. Two County Councilman Doug Lyle did not seek re-election. A precinct breakdown of the voting is available below:

More Draw Prison Terms

The conviction rate in the Loudon County Criminal Court continues to be very high as about 20 persons have received jail or prison sentences during trials the past two weeks.

James Edward Jones, who faced a long list of indictments after a chase with County deputies which resulted in damage to a cruiser and the eventual shooting out of the tires on Jones' car, received three 11 month and 29 days sentences and a $500 fine. The jail sentences, to be served concurrent, were for assault with an auto, driving while intoxicated and destruction of county property. The fine was on the assault charge. He was found not guilty of carrying a deadly weapon and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. His wife, Thelma received a $50.00 fine for carrying a pistol.

A court directed verdict of not guilty was returned in favor of Kenneth W. Selvidge charged with arson on two counts. Ronnie Smithers entered a guilty plea to receiving and concealing stolen property. He was given a six month jail sentence, suspended for time served.

Charles Divine was given 30 days in jail and fined $30 for public drunkenness. A mistrial was declared in the trial of Charles Divine and Ivan Hamby on a charge of breaking and entering and larceny. The jury could not agree on guilt or innocence. Hamby was fined $50 and given a 30 day jail sentence for public drunkenness. A bad check charge was dismissed.

Alvin Bart (Skipper) Barron, entered a guilty plea for breaking jail. He was sentenced to one year in prison.

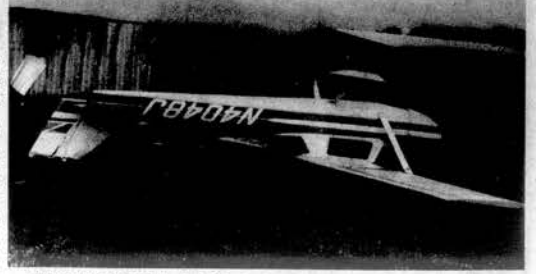

A one to three year sentence was given to Gary Dorsey by a jury on a charge of kidnapping. He was charged with taking a 13 year old girl out of state.

James and Eugene Burger were sentenced to five to 10 years in prison for breaking into the home of their sister in Greenback.

In reporting trial results last week the 11 month 29 day jail sentence of Sherman Akin, Jr. was listed for armed robbery. Akin was indicted on an armed robbery charge but entered a guilty plea to an assault charge which was accepted by the state.

FIRST BICENTENNIAL CONTRIBUTION—Harry (left) and Ted Wampler, managers of Elm Hill Meats and Wampler's Wholesale Meats, respectively, made the first contribution to the Loudon County Bicentennial effort this week. Roland Bradshaw, member of the Bicentennial finance committee, is at right. Roland Wampler-Elm Hill contribution was $150. Bradshaw said other industries and businesses have been contacted, but this was the first response. Several thousand dollars will be needed, he suggested, to carry out some of the hopes of the Bicentennial committee.

UNHAPPY LANDING—A pilot didn't land it that way, but a wind and rain storm Thursday night tore this Cessna 150 feet away from its tie-downs at Ferguson Field, flipped it on its top causing heavy damage to the tail, wings, prop and fuselage. Damage to a hanger in the background is also visible. The plane is owned by James Anderson of Loudon and Bob Porter of Lenoir City.

Miller Opposed Merging Two Loudon Schools

personnel was needed. He said the Superintendent and Instruction Supervisor have more than they can do and if there was one person to handle transportation and maintenance as the survey suggested many of the problems could be solved faster and more efficiently. Waterhouse and Ray Maxwell, Glendale Parent Teacher Organization President, headed a delegation at the meeting once again asking for improvements at Glendale.

Waterhouse said he had hoped the school board would be ready to make known its decisions concerning the recommendations for school buildings by the survey team. The survey recommends that Glendale be one of four schools closed and grouped with other schools. In the case of Glendale the survey recommends placing the students at Greenback after that facility is enlarged.

The Glendale parents said that Greenback, according to the survey, does not offer children a broad high school education, and he thought that the Glendale people would not support the move.

A kindergarten through eighth grade school at Glendale is what the parents are seeking. They want the condemned building that is there now renovated to make it safe for use until a new school can be used. The parents say if a good school building is built at Glendale the people there will use it and stop sending their children to other county and Lenoir City schools.

P-T-O President Maxwell said that money will have to be spent somewhere, at Glendale or Greenback to provide those students with an education and the people of Glendale would rather it be at Glendale.

After some months of discussing the possibility of hiring a psychologist for the county schools the board voted to participate in the psychological services program operated by the Little Tennessee Valley Educational Cooperative.

The program (for $20,520) would provide a full-time psychologist working under county handicapped program director Bill Lawson. It would also provide supervisory consultation with cooperative psychologists, provide indirect services such as use of 12 other psychologists, if necessary, and use of a social services staff.

Also through the cooperative the county plans to offer drivers education at Greenback High School starting next fall.

Both Mr. Lawson and supervisor Bob Cassidy recommended using the psychological program and drivers-ed programs of the Cooperative.

Approval was given on taking bids for the purchase of three portable classrooms for Eaton School. Eaton, the board said is overcrowded and must have three new classrooms when school starts this fall. Superintendent Headlee said he hoped to have permanent classrooms constructed, but the county's architect said there was no way this could be done in time. It is expected that the classrooms will cost from $13,000 to $15,000 each. Headlee said that when they are not needed at Eaton they can be used elsewhere during the construction period of other schools. Each of the classrooms will be self-contained.

Two new teachers for Loudon High were hired at the meeting. They were Michael Swiney, originally of Loudon, who has taught in West Virginia and for the past year has worked with the Boy Scouts in Alabama. He has his masters degree and will be teaching biology, science and chemistry. David B. Lynn, who has taught at Glasborne County this past year, will teach vocational agriculture at LHS.

Union Carbide Golf Returns To League Play

The Union Carbide Golf League has returned to its team competition after a mid-season individual tournament and rest. Ralph Schrimsher and J.J. Watkins wasted no time in reminding everyone that they are the league leaders by posting a low team net score of 73. Schrimsher and Watkins have accumulated 115 and one third team points to date. Meanwhile David Carver and Hall Summers are not giving up by any means with 97 and one third team points to date for second place. Jack Miller and Jim Cardwell are a close third with 95 team points to their credit. Larry Flack tapped out a 33 for low individual honors in last week's play.

QB Club Readies Plans For 4th July Horse Show

The Loudon Quarterback Club has started to construct plans in organizing its fifth annual Fourth of July Horse Show. The gala event will fall on a Friday night this summer with 18 classes competing for a total of $1500 in prize money. The first class, two year old walking horses, opens the show at 7 p.m. The horse show will again be displayed at Loudon's Legion Field on Grove Street with the Honorable C. A. Bobo of Shelbyville being the judge this year. The organizer will be Connie Getzby of Manchester.

Loudon Countians who have been instrumental in the horse show success over the past years, Mr. Roy Biedoe of Philadelphia and Mr. Rosa Wilkerson of Lenoir City, will again serve in their respective roles as Ring Master and Master of Ceremonies. The Quarterback Club is expecting in the neighborhood of 200 horses for this year's event with newsletters containing the list of classes, prize money, and entry fees already being mailed out. Quarterback Club member Joe Henson, 438-1453, is handling all the publicity and horse show information for this year.

respect of the show the two annual large challenge trophies in memory of two of Loudon County's finest horse raisers, Charles H. Bacon and Riley Wampler, will again highlight the 18 class features. These trophies are for the best in Stud and Gelding classes and in Racking Championship.

The trophies become the property of the horse and his owner should either one of the trophies be won for three straight years by the same horse. This year could be the year in the Racking event as the same horse has captured the coveted prize for two years running.

Atomic Speedway Moves Into Sixth Year Saturday

Atomic Speedway moves into its sixth year of competition Saturday night with a 3-lap late model sportsman race headlining the anniversary program. Heading into a new year, Atomic now has 30 different classes. During that time, 25 track champions from 11 states have earned a portion of the more than $250,000 that has been paid out. Tom Presley of Lenoir City goes after a second straight win in the Class B feature this week.

Action gets under way at 8:30 p.m. Saturday. Handing out the racing card will be a semi-feature for sportsman drivers, a 20-lapper for the Class B competitors and heat races.

A demolition derby - second of the season at the speedway - winds up the program. Knoxville's Bill Ogles continues to come on strong. Never a winner on the dirt

Chrysler Credit Is Runner-Up In Athens Tourney

Chrysler Credit of the Lenoir City Women's Softball League went trophy hunting over the weekend and returned to Loudon with a runner-up distinction in the Athens Women's Invitational. Chrysler Credit, beeping up its talented line-up with four members from Lenoir City's Hamilton Bank, Marietta Blackburn, Frances Blackburn, Janet Leeper, and Cindy Ledbetter, topped Decatur (Meigs County) 7-0, West End of Athens 10-3, Kizwal 12-7, Knoxville All Stars 13-6, Athens Rockettes 19-3, and Cleveland 7-5. The Loudon based team fell to tournament champion Sterling IGA 19-3, and 7-5. Making up the Chrysler Credit team was Linda Hawkins, Aquilla Henley, Sylvia Hawkins, Brenda McKee, Bonnie Wear, Sharon Lane, and Marilyn Smith.

Woodward Battles To Win Philadelphia League Softball Invitational Over LC Merchants

Woodward of Athens emerged from the loser's bracket Saturday night to capture the Philadelphia League Softball Invitational. The tournament ran precise to schedule despite having the opening round rained out of Thursday night and the use of the Loudon City Field adacent to the high school borrowed for Friday night catch-up games. Roy David Stephens, tournament director, and Joe Williams were commended by all the 12 teams entered for the running of a snappy and enjoyable tournament weekend. Woodward opened the tournament with a 26-0 win over Union Carbide. The winners had 22 hits with Ross Dodson pacing the win with three hits and two walks. Tommy Goodson had three hits in three times at bat and scored a run for Union Carbide.

Woodward continued to go on a hitting rage topping IGA 22-8 in the second round of action. IGA had 12 hits with Luke Bright going two for three and scoring twice. Ross Dodson won five for five and Paul McMillan four for five to lead the winners in a 2-1 hit assault.

Woodward finally bogged down on Saturday morning as a 17-8 elimination round of the first Baptist of Lenoir City. Woodward then edged by Sunnyside 5-3 in extra innings last night.

Lenoir City Bows In CM Game

The Lenoir City Connie Mack baseball team lost once and had one rained out in league play this past week. The Lenoir City team, who appeared about to come around following their first league win in two seasons of play, had their troubles last Friday night.

The Maryville Mets, pretty much the Everett High School team and National Division leader, pounded on Lenoir City pitcher Joey Cunningham for seven runs in the first inning to route to a 11-1 win over the Loudon Countians.

Cunningham, making his first start for the Connie Mack, nine walked two, hit two, yielded three hits, two double and a single in two thirds of an inning.

Mike McConkey came on in relief and gave up four hits and four runs over four and a third innings.

Lenoir City made four errors and permitted the Mets to steal 16 bases in the game.

Lenoir City managed just two hits in the game with Kenny McNabb going one for two at bat and a walk. Mike McConkey collected the other Lenoir City hit and was hit by a pitched ball to also reach base twice in the game.

Bobby Smith scored the lone Lenoir City run in the fifth inning, having reached base

Ferguson and McNabb Top City Golf Team

John Lennox and Buck Kirkland gained a total of 31 team points in the American Division Loudon City Golf League standings last week with a low net score of 66. The duo's efforts shot them into second place in the division standings with 149 team points to date and just three points shy of the division lead.

Ed Swenson and Gerald Cole shared the low net team honors score with Kirkland and Lennox, having in an equal round of 66.

Swenson also was the individual medalist for the week with a 13 boosted himself and Cole into fourth place in the heated division race with 137 team points.

John Cobb and Richard Archer broke from a tie for the league lead during the week by taking the upper hand with 131 team points to date.

Monty Lawson and Gordo Watson dropped from a share of third place with 148 team points to date.

In the National Division Jack Ferguson and Glen McNabb appear to be widening their hold on the division lead with 171 team points. Ferguson and McNabb have set the division pace for some four weeks without faltering.

Ferguson and McNabb carded the low net team score for the second time in five weeks with a 69 last week.

Larry Lane and Tom Lambert put together a round of 69 to share low net team honors and move up to fourth place in the National Division with 138 team points.

Glen McNabb had a round of 70 to take individual medalist recognition.

Billy Chambers and Junior Mills are now in second place in the National Division with 156 team points followed by a total of 17 team points back in Paul Brakebill and Inky Swiney with 139 team points.

Sr. Babe Ruth, Minor League Boys, Opened Baseball Season Saturday

The Loudon Senior Babe Ruth Baseball (6-18) League opened its season Saturday night at Loudon's Legion Field with the Carter Lumber Company Braves slugging by the Hall Oil Company Indians 5-4.

Rick McCrary gained the mound decision by getting 5 and two-thirds innings and yielding just one hit seven walks kept the Braves starter in trouble nonetheless.

The Indians came to life late with an overall eight hit attack highlighted by Bumper Webster's two safeties, but five errors in the field proved too costly for the Indians.

In a preliminary game to the Senior Babe Ruth contest the Pirates downed the Yankees 12 in Minor League Recreation Baseball play and the Athletics batted by the Orioles 6-2.

Handy Arp and Tim Lennox led the Pirates to their opening season win, while Richard Williams and Kenny Ridings each hit a double and home run for the A's victory.

Steve Ward had a pair of singles for the Orioles.

Tennessee Game And Fish Report

WILDLIFE RESOURCES AGENCY
by REX COLLIER
458-5569

Hand Gun Hunting Deferred

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission meeting in regular session Friday, May 30 at the Ellington Agricultural Center in Nashville, deferred action for one year on legalizing large caliber handgun hunting for big game in Tennessee.

The postponement was granted to allow more thorough study into the safety aspects of handgun possession in the field by thousands of hunters.

One of the questions raised by state and local law enforcement agencies was the problem of persons allegedly hunting with a handgun, but, in fact, were pursuing an illegal activity instead.

Executive Director of the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency reports that a task force will be appointed in the near future to study handgun hunting in Tennessee and to develop a plan whereby handgun hunting for big game can be hopefully be legitimized with the least amount of concern from those opposed.

The task force will include representatives from the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission, Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency staff, legislators and state enforcement personnel, and sportsmen.

New Wildlife Laws

The "Blaze Orange Law" which will require big game hunters to wear a minimum 500 square inches of blaze orange on all firearms hunts starting this fall was signed into law by Governor Ray Blanton on May 19. On the same date a law removing the wild turkey from the classification of a big game species was also signed. The turkey is now in a class by itself as a game bird.

On May 23 the Governor signed the License Increase Bill. This bill which will mean about 1.3 million dollars in additional revenue to the Wildlife Resources Agency carries the following fees:

The loss was Lenoir City's third of the season in four games.

Rain prevented league play on Tuesday night as the Lenoir Citizens were scheduled to travel to Etowah.

Lenoir City has a pair of games set for this week with a visit to Maryville and a game with Harrison Construction Company on Friday night and a home encounter on Monday evening with Athens.

SEARCH ORGANIZED—Rescue Squad Captain John Parris is giving a group of squadmen instructions on what areas around Lenoir City to search for Ellen Cooper Mogday night a short time after she was reported missing.

Squad Searches For Missing Girl

The Loudon County Rescue Squad and County Sheriff's officers Wednesday morning were continuing a search that began Monday for a 20-year-old retarded.

Sheriff Guy Russell and Rescue Squad Captain John Parris said the missing girl, Ellen Cooper, reportedly moved to the home of her father on North Shore Drive near Martel just a few weeks ago from West Virginia.

The father, reported to the Rescue Squad late Monday afternoon that the girl left the home about 2:30 p.m. Monday wearing red shorts, a light house and carrying a radio.

She reportedly has long dark hair and is small in stature.

Monday night the Squad and Sheriff's Deputies followed out a number of reports of people seeing the girl. Sheriff Russell said the search is now centered around the assumption the girl was picked up in a car. A man living in Hardin Estates, who was working in his garden at the time, told officers he saw the girl get into a small compact car about 5:30 p.m. on Martel Road.

Squad officer Dan Ellis said he saw the girl himself near Lakeland Drive a short time before she was reported missing. Sheriff Russell said the search was centered Tuesday night in the Martel and North Shore area in the belief that if the girl had left with someone that they might bring her back to the area.

Dixie Youth Reds Tame Pirates

The Union Carbide Reds faced the Union Carbide Pirates in the Loudon Dixie Youth Recreational Baseball program on Monday night.

The Reds used John Cardwell's two home runs, one a grand slam blast, to capture the decision 7-3. Tommy Bowers was the winning pitcher limiting the Pirates to just a couple of hits.

In the night cap the Smith Chair Company Phillies routed to a 2-1 triumph over the VFW Giants.

Pat Brown led the Phillies with a home run and a triple while Neil Schrimsher and Travis Kiser also powered home runs in the game.

Jeff Woods was the winning pitcher, stopping the Giants on three hits and struck out 14.

 Card

DEPEND ON
MR. IGA

...It may sound strange to say that I have not looked forward to this day. In fact, I have almost dreaded this day! You see, this is the first Father's Day in my life when I did not have a father. From the time I left home to make it on my own, I never missed a Father's Day that I didn't send my dad a card and gift. I always phoned him on Father's Day but I walked by a counter the other day which was loaded with pretty Father's Day cards, waiting to be purchased and mailed, and my heart ached and hurt as I fought back the tears. I could hardly resist buying a Father's Day card in spite of knowing I could not use it. I hope you will understand, and surely God will be forgiving toward me, when I tell you that I envy those whose fathers are still with them. I have several suggestions for those whose fathers are still here: First, love your father! Don't be ashamed to tell him. Tell him how that you love him while his ears can hear those lovely words. My dad remember a few times when I could have said it more often.
 Secondly, honor your father! Father isn't always right, but he is always father! And someday when you become a parent, you will understand much more than you do now. Thirdly, give him the gifts and flowers now! Give the flowers now while his nostrils can inhale the sweet fragrance. Kiss him now while his cheeks can feel the warmth of your lips.
 Fourthly, visit your father as often as you can! Don't let him die without knowing how much you care. This will mean much more to him than an impressive monument after he is gone. Have the kind of relationship with your father that will bless and inspire your life after he is gone; the kind of relationship that will leave behind beautiful memories. I have an unused Father's Day card, but I also have beautiful memories to cherish.

1200 Tour Carbide During Open House

More than 1200 persons toured the Union Carbide Films-Packaging plant at Loudon Thursday during Open House at the facility in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the Division.
 Guests were treated to tours of the sprawling plant, given demonstrations on how food casings are produced from the time the raw material, cotton, enters the plant until the finished casings leave the facility bound for meat packers where the product serves as a "skin" for skinless winners.
 At the end of the tour all who attended were treated to hot dogs (what else), soft drinks and given a gift for coming. A day-long celebration began at 10 a.m. for a group of some 90 invited guests including local business, civic, government and industrial leaders. Among those attending were County Judge William Russell, State Representatives Benny Stafford and Anna Belle O'Brien, members of county court, city officials, industrial leaders and others.
 Plant manager Ray Birkholz and other management personnel welcomed guests when they arrived at the plant throughout the day. At the morning session a Viscose demonstration showing how the casings are made was given by Technical Engineer J. D. Rose. Employee Relations manager Paul Titus outlined the history of the company and plant manager Ray Birkholz introduced a number of special guests including company Executive Vice President Gerry Loy and Operations Vice President Dr. C. J. Brownstein, both of Chicago. After the plant tour for the invited guests a luncheon for them was held at the company's employee park. In the afternoon the public toured the plant at their leisure with guides and special demonstrations throughout the facility set up to explain the operations on how casings for more than 40 million hot dogs per day are produced at the plant.
 The Open House at the Loudon plant was first of Carbide's Films-Packaging plants to stage the event in honor of the 50th Anniversary. Plant Manager Birkholz said he and plant officials were pleased with the public response and appreciated the interest shown by those who came.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY BY M. LEE SMITH

(C) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

A Bedford County magistrate recently retired after 26 years of service. His salary averaged $40 a year. He is now receiving a monthly state pension of $187.

In commenting on the Tennessee pension system, Representative John Bragg (D-Murfreesboro) has said, "If the general public knew all about it, they would probably call it the number one scandal in the State of Tennessee." Bragg is right, and fortunately the General Assembly has now enacted legislation to curb some of the more blatant problems. The act sponsored by Bragg and Senator Leonard Dunavant (R-Millington) prohibits receiving a pension greater than salary, drawing benefits from more than one tax-supported retirement system, and collecting double pensions for the same period of service. State and county retirement benefits paid by the state far exceed revenue paid into and earned by the system. This year pensions will cost Tennessee taxpayers more than $75 million. By 1979 the figure will almost triple.

The problem stems primarily from one legislative enactment after another providing or liberalizing benefits. During the 88th General Assembly more than 100 retirement bills were introduced. Often these bills affect only one or two individuals.

For example, last year A. "Pat" Patterson retired after 21 years with the state. Shortly after his appointment in 1971 as Executive Assistant to State Treasurer Tom Wiseman, Patterson drafted and successfully lobbied legislation amending the statute establishing the attorney's general retirement system.

The Patterson bill provided that the term "attorney general" shall include "the secretary to the attorney general retirement system who shall be named by the State Treasurer." After passage, Wiseman appointed Patterson as secretary for the attorney general system.

The effect of Patterson's handwork was to permit him to transfer all previous years' service from the regular state retirement system into the much more lucrative retirement system for attorneys general.

Patterson had several moderately paying jobs with the state. He retired with a salary of $2,112 per month, his highest salary level with the state. He is now receiving a monthly pension of $2,505.

Some problems stem from the fact that until July 1, 1972 the state had several separate retirement systems. All county officials except county and general sessions judges, who were in another system, were supposed to participate in the county officials retirement system. But many chose not to do so.

In 1972 the consolidated retirement system was established. Those in the county officials retirement system were given the option of continuing with that program or joining the new system. County officials elected to office after July 1, 1972 had to join the new system.

Subsequently county officials who had chosen not to join the old program succeeded in obtaining legislation to rejoin the system for one year. During this period about 400 county officials joined the old program.

The reopening led to much abuse. By a quirk the prohibition against dual participation in the state retirement system and a local retirement system was lifted. Many county officials became eligible to collect two pensions for one period of public service.

Other abuse has occurred as a result of further amendments to the consolidated system. The statute provides regardless of a person's highest salary, he or she can receive in retirement a minimum allowance of $7 per month for every year of service. But to provide control the statute originally provided further that a person could never receive more than 60 per cent of his or her highest salary.

This latter provision was amended out of the law last year with results such as that involving the Bedford County magistrate.

The act passed by Bragg and Dunavant will eliminate the most flagrant abuses now occurring. But there is still need for comprehensive reform of the Tennessee pension system. The law as it stands now is a complicated jungle understood by virtually no one.

Last week a call was placed to obtain information from an individual in the State Retirement Division who was not in. Upon inquiring if there was anyone else there who could answer the questions, the secretary said, "Not intelligently."

That best states the nature of the problem.

Coast Guard Has Jobs

The Coast Guard in Knoxville has recently taken on many new public responsibilities, such as pollution patrols, and federal boating manufacture standards. In order to accomplish these goals, the Coast Guard is looking for well-qualified people who are available on a part-time basis, to help in these civic kinds of work.

The new responsibilities have been given to the Coast Guard Reserve Unit in Knoxville, which is headed up by Comdr. J. Wesley Miller, of Lyons View Drive in Knoxville. The unit employs people on a part-time basis, 16 to 20 hours per month, in order to ensure the safety of recreational boating on all the local lakes, the proper condition of aids to navigation in and near the lakes, the availability of trained personnel for search and rescue cases.

Because of the great variety of jobs that the Coast Guard has in this area, there is considerable flexibility in scheduling someone's effort. If you have some spare time available, and would like to use that time to perform some civic duties, and be well paid at the same time, you should call Dave Runnag at 637-9900. He'll be able to tell you more about specific qualifications that are presently needed.

How They VOTED

Here's how area legislators voted on key issues before the General Assembly on the last day before recess.

SENATE
On a motion to table a motion that the Senate refuse to recede from its amendments to the severance tax bill, Passed 12-3. The parliamentary tangle that resulted prevented a conference committee from being named to consider the tax bill and led to the legislature's 10 day recess. For: Carl Koella (R).

HOUSE
On a bill to permit the Public Service Commission to regulate and to inspect motor vehicles transporting petroleum or other hazardous products in bulk for purpose of safety. Passed 50-21. Against: Anna Belle Clemens O'Brien (D). Not voting: Benny Stafford (R).

On a bill authorizing the sale of bonds for specific projects of the Department of Conservation. Passed 75-3. For: O'Brien. Not voting: Stafford.

On a bill to establish Tennessee Energy Office to define its powers and duties program to allocate an alternate energy. Passed 15. Against: Stafford. Not voting: O'Brien.

On a motion to concur in Senate amendment to the severance tax bill which would not permit $14.7 million of the proceeds to be used solely for teacher salary hikes. Failed 49-28. 50 vote required for approval. For: O'Brien. Against: Stafford.

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

A couple of weeks ago we ran a picture of Roberson Springs. Our thoughts at the time recalled the Roberson school, which is now gone like so many of our country schools. We were hoping that someone would send us a picture of this popular and well known school of days gone by. Well, lo and behold, that very thing happened. One of our readers, Lois Miller of Route 2, Lenoir City, put us one in the mail and we can't express to her how proud we were to receive it.

Quite a few years have passed since this old school group picture was made. The date is April, 1926, which makes it about 19 years old. Lois not only supplied us with the picture but also added a complete list of names of those in the group. We appreciate this very much.

Billy Lankford, Carolyn Lankford, Danny Nix, Sammy Brannan, Tommy Mincey and Beety Lynn. Third row, Clayton Presley, Gene Dotson, Janice Nix, Helen Nix, Baldy Lynn, Buster Presley, Freddie Dotson and Reba Moore. The teacher, standing on the right, is Nancy Roberson.

This picture was made at the brick building that was the last one to house this school. It later burned after being converted into a business establishment. Again, our many thanks to Lois Miller for thinking of the Good Old Days.

In the large group of pictures that Shad Haskins brought us a few weeks ago, there were two or three that we were not identified. We don't know if Shad didn't know who the groups were or just failed to furnish us with the identification. Anyway, we feel that the one we are using this week has a lot of well known Loudon people in it, so we would like very much to have your help on this one. If you know what the picture is or who the people are, please let us know and we will bring our

Conservation Guidelines Are Cited

Some basic guidelines farmers should consider when planning to participate in the 1975 cost-sharing Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) were cited this week by Martha Brannan, County Executive Director of the Loudon County ASCS Office.

"The value and success of the ACP rests upon sound planning," she said. "Each farmer" should consider developing a conservation plan providing an analysis of the conservation needs of all parts of his farm. Such plans may be obtained through USDA's Soil Conservation Service (SCS). Farmers should then call or visit the county ASCS Office about the practice or practices he or she chooses to undertake this year."

The period of June 16 through June 27 has been set as the time for farmers to enroll in the Long Term Agreement program of the ACP. This offers to share the cost of the planned conservation measures for a time ranging from three to ten years.

$$ Circulation Here Said Low

Currently, the amount of paper money circulating in Loudon County and in most other parts of the country is less than usual.

It is a reflection of the recession, say the economists. People are concerned about inflation and rising unemployment and are not spending at their normal rate. The result is that there is less money circulating and recirculating.

The recent decision by Washington to cut taxes by billions of dollars, leaving more money available to consumers, is expected to bring them back to the market place, thereby giving the economy a much-needed upward push.

Not only has there been a smaller amount of paper money circulating in the local area and elsewhere, there has also been a severe shortage of coins. Storekeepers have had to scurry around to keep enough change on hand for their day-to-day business needs.

That situation is rapidly being eased, however. During the past year the U. S. Mint went into high gear, producing more than 11.6 billion new coins. It was the greatest outpouring of coins in its history.

Loudon County's share of this output, based on uniform distribution, is 1,323,000 coins or 84 per capita.

Per local resident there is now available one new 50-cent piece, 3 quarters, 5 dimes, 4 nickels and 42 pennies. In addition, the Mint turned out one one-dollar piece for every three persons.

The face value of the 11.6 billion coins produced in the year is $41 million. That is not their intrinsic value, however, since silver is no longer used in their manufacture.

The cost of producing them was only 4 percent of their face value, it is estimated. The resultant profit to the Government, called seigniorage, was more than $300 million.

All told, according to the latest Mint figures, there are over $8.3 billion in coins, face value, spread across the country at present.

Loudon County's quota, for its population, is about $960,000.

As for the amount of paper money in circulation, the Treasury Department places it at $61 billion, which is mathematically equal to $234 per person in the United States.

Glass Is Navy Grad

Navy Seaman Robert C. Glass Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Glass Sr. of Route 1, Loudon, was graduated from Basic Quartermaster School at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

During the four-week course, he received instruction in vessel navigation, compass plotting and communication procedures.

Quartermasters assist a ship's navigator by plotting and transmitting the vessel and receiving messages.

He is a 1972 graduate of Loudon High School.

PVT. 2 Brian K. Brown recently spent a 22 day leave with his mother, Nora Brown and family at 842 Mulberry Street, Loudon. Brown will be stationed in Germany for a tour of duty with the U. S. Army.

One hundred twenty one youths from Tennessee attended the event which is sponsored by the Tennessee Valley Authority and are selected on the basis of 4-H achievement and leadership abilities. Loudon County's delegates were Nancy Trout (left) of Lenoir City and Teresa Goddard of Greenback. Mrs. Roy Goddard (not pictured) also attended as a conference leader.

HERITAGE HIGHLIGHTS... BICENTENNIAL SERIES

They Started to Hang Him...

He was a short, powerfully built man of 27 with a bristling beard and a military manner. He seemed marked for trouble from the very day that he and his fellow colonists sailed from London in December of 1606.

From his fertile imagination he related wild and fictional adventures. His boastful ambition finally convinced his fellow passengers that he intended murdering the expedition's leaders and proclaiming himself ruler. Either from fear, or to still his incessant tongue, the company was in the midst of hanging him when calmer heads intervened.

With winter coming on at the new Jamestown settlement, the colonists were starving when this bragget was able, at the risk of his life, to persuade Powhatan, the Indian ruler, to trade for enough food to get them through the winter.

Without the man they sought to hang, the Jamestown, Virginia Colony would have perished. His name? Captain John Smith.

12,000 To 15,000 Attend Arts Festival

ARTS FESTIVAL IS SMASH AGAIN—Between 12,000 and 15,000 persons turned out for the 13th Annual Arts and Crafts Festival in Loudon County Saturday. Weather for the event was perfect and the exhibitors and craftsmen reported that sales were much higher than in past years. The panels of photos show some of the crowd and exhibits which attracted the large crowd.

41 Percent Of Revenue Comes From Local Taxes

How much of the money needed for local governmental operations in Loudon County comes from property taxes?

Do these taxes produce a greater or a smaller proportion of locally-raised revenue than they do in other communities?

Property taxes have always been the chief source of such revenue in most sections of the country and they still are. But they no longer carry as large a share of the load as they did in former years.

With cities and counties requiring more money each year to provide necessary public services, which have been growing more expensive because of the rising cost of labor and materials, they have been forced to increase existing taxes and to seek additional revenue from other sources.

As for property taxes, they have reached the point in many communities at which attempts to boost them any higher are meeting with stern resistance.

In Loudon County, according to the latest findings of the Department of Commerce, approximately 41.3 percent of the revenue obtained from local sources comes from property taxes.

In other communities across the country, an average of 62.5 percent is from such sources and, in the State of Tennessee, 46.2 percent.

The relative importance of the property tax has been official in many localities, by the newer taxes that have been imposed in the last decade or so, such as the gross sales tax and the local income tax. The yield on these two has increased three-fold in the past 10 years.

As a result, although the property tax is now producing $50.9 billion a year nationally, as against $22.6 billion in 1965, it represents a much smaller proportion of the total collection than it did then.

The Government's report shows that property taxes are considerably higher in some sections of the country than in others.

In Loudon County, the figures indicate, the amount being collected annually through property taxes is equivalent to $57 per local resident.

Elsewhere in the United States it is $205 per capita and, in Tennessee, $96.

Continuing Cost Rise Seen For Power System

TVA announced last week that its financial estimates for the new fiscal year that will begin July 1 show a continuing increase in power system costs, particularly fuel expense.

The estimates were presented to the TVA Board on May 28 as it began its quarterly power financial review. They show a projected increase of $34 million in power system costs, to a total of $1,465 million, for the 1975-1976 fiscal year. Part of this increase reflects an assumed rise of 11 percent in power sales over this year's level, which was held down by special power curtailment measures, business conditions, and other factors.

Larger expense for power plant fuel accounts for most of the expected increase in the average cost of electricity, and this will be covered automatically by the monthly charges on electric bills that reflect monthly changes in fuel and related cost. However, increases are projected for other power system expenses as well.

On June 12 the TVA Board will complete its financial review and determine whether any electric rate adjustment is needed for the July-September quarter, in addition to the continuing fuel charge.

This fuel cost charge has been rising as the average cost of coal burned in TVA power plants grew from $9.61 a ton in the 1973-1974 fiscal year to $17 a ton this spring. This cost is expected to be more stable in the coming year, since the market price of coal has eased back from last year's high peaks, TVA officials said. However, increased coal consumption is expected to result in larger fuel expense that will be reflected in the fuel cost charge.

TVA has been able to use less coal than usual this year because of measures taken last fall to conserve coal supplies, plus unusually high hydroelectric power output at dams. With a return to more typical power operations and increased power sales, coal consumption is expected to show a sharp increase in the new fiscal year. Another factor is the temporary loss of power from Browns Ferry Nuclear Plant during several months of repair work, which requires more coal use at other power plants to replace this electricity.

Similar cost increases for power supply are taking place nationwide, and electric rates for consumers in the Tennessee Valley still compare favorably in TVA's latest check of representative electric bills. In May the home electric bill for 1,000 kilowatt-hours is about $21 under a typical rate schedule for the TVA area (actual bills vary with the level of consumption and with local rate schedules). Comparable electric bills ranged from $28 to $34 in most of the cities elsewhere in the South that were covered in this brief survey.

West Completes Training

Army Private Tommy L. West, 19, whose mother, Mrs. Edna McDonald, and wife, Mary, live on Route 4, Loudon, completed nine weeks of advanced individual training at the U.S. Army Infantry Training Center, Ft. Polk, La.

He received general training as a light weapons infantryman and as a mortar and recoilless rifle crewman. In addition to specialized weapons instruction, he also was taught the proper use of high explosives and the placement, detection and disarming of mines.

Teamwork was emphasized while he learned to work as a member of a rifle squad, mortar squad or direct fire section. Each team member completed the training well qualified to perform other jobs in case of casualties.

Pvt. Mealer Is Promoted

Kenneth R. Mealer, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Mealer, Route 2, Lenoir City, Tenn., was promoted to Army private first class while serving as a driver with the 25th Infantry Division at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii.

COLONIAL HOME FEATURES TWO STORY FAMILY ROOM

A family room reaching two stories high is the feature of this home. Windows covering the entire height combine with the view of an open rail balcony upstairs to give an open feeling. Also included are a cozy fireplace and a rear wooden deck.

The formal living and dining areas are separated by the foyer and are secluded from the heavy traffic flow. The kitchen has a step-saving U-shape design and offers lots of cabinet and counter space. There is a dish washer and two pantries as well. Access to the dining area or the breakfast area, with its bay window, is easy because of the central location.

A laundry area with washer-dryer connections and a half bath are close by.

The first of the four bedrooms completes the main floor. This large suite includes a powder room with a vanity, a private bath and a big walk-in closet.

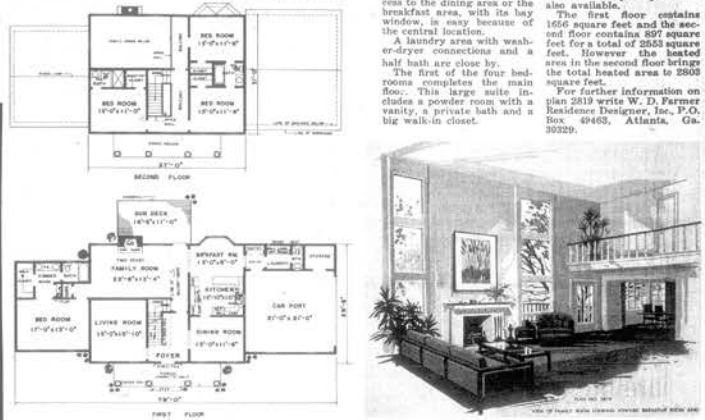

Each of the three remaining bedrooms upstairs have ample closet space and direct access to a full bath.

The colonial exterior of this home is reflected by the symmetrical design, the colonnaded front porch and dentils.

A contemporary front is also available.

The first floor contains 1650 square feet and the second floor contains 897 square feet for a total of 2547 square feet. However, the heated area in the second floor brings the total heated area to 2800 square feet.

Loudon's Union Carbide Films-Packaging plant was one of 12 chemical manufacturing plants and laboratories in Tennessee among 646 throughout the United States and Canada that have been awarded certificates of achievement by the Manufacturing Chemists Association for having completed 1974 operations without a disabling injury.

MCA President William J. Driver said that the safety achievements of these facilities are the results of intensified efforts by all employees to continue to promote safety.

"As recognized by the National Safety Council," Mr. Driver said, "the chemical industry has one of the finest safety records in all of industry. Our ever-standing goal is to improve this record."

In last weeks edition of the Loudon County Herald "The Fur Loudoun Chapter of the Daughters of American Colonial" prepared an article containing the names of the Loudon County War dead. I would like to call to the attention of the Ladies that on March 26, 1963, my family lost a 19 year old son and brother in what is known as the Korean Conflict, whose name was left unmentioned in the Ladies article. I don't know if this was intentional or a mere oversight on the Ladies part, but I would just like them to know that article or not he is loved and remembered by his family.

DAIRY MONTH IS A NATURAL TIME TO SAY THANK YOU.

The dairy farmers and their families who live and work around our community deserve a great deal of thanks. Their stability helps our community remain stable and healthy. Their insistence on offering only the highest quality milk and dairy products sets an example for us all, and improves the quality of our lives. We congratulate them now, during Dairy Month, and thank them for their contributions.

John Milnor Bodlien, son of the Rev. M.W. Bodlien and the late Gladys Bodlien, graduated from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville Tuesday with honors.

He was also commissioned in the U.S. Army as a 2nd Lieutenant at the exercises. John plans to enter the UT School of Pharmacy in Memphis in September. After pharmacy school he will enter the Medical Corp of the US Army for two years, afterwards he will re-enter school to acquire his PHD in Pharmacy.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ABANDONMENT Before the Interstate Commerce Commission
Number AB-7 (Sub No. 9)

Notice is hereby given that the Interstate Commerce Commission is being requested to issue a certificate of public convenience and necessity permitting abandonment of the line of railroad of Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company ("Applicant") extending from railroad Mile Post KT 296 near Friendsville in a south-southwesterly direction to railroad Mile Post KT 304.5 near Greenback, a distance of 8.5 miles, in Blount and Loudon Counties, Tennessee. This line includes the non-agency stations of Rega and Dora.

The present employees will be protected by "The Burlington Conditions" (Chicago, Ill., 4, RR Abandonment, 257 I.C.C. 700-1944).

REASONS FOR PROPOSED ABANDONMENT

This is an unproductive line of railroad as evidenced by the fact that it generated only twenty-two (22) carloads of rail and 124 carloads per mile in the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the proposed abandonment. The names and addresses of applicant's representatives to whom inquiries may be made are:

Enrich D. Cole, Jr., Assistant General Attorney Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, 908 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky 40201 and Mr. R. Lyle Key, Jr., Attorney Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, 908 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky 40201.

By virtue of the proposed abandonment, applicant would enjoy substantial economies in the areas of avoidable maintenance and salvage of seeded track materials.

Applicant plans to leave in place, as industrial trackage, the mile of track on the northern extremity of the abandonment trackage. As to the remaining 4 miles of abandonment trackage, all rail and ties in compliance of 90-lbs. and above, and all reusable ties will be salvaged.

May Rainfall

May rainfall averaged 3.4 inches across the Tennessee Valley, slightly more than an inch above the normal 2.2 inches, TVA reports.

Rainfall was generally lighter in the upper half of the Valley, east of Chattanooga, and heavier in the western half. The highest May total reported to TVA was 19.4 inches at Rossman in western North Carolina. The lowest total for the month was 2 inches at Maryville, Tennessee.

Lacy White, Hazel Atkins, Margaret Wilkerson, Julia Key, Dennis Ward, Patricia Amburn, Carla Nix, Eugene Henry, Kimberly Tucker, James Marr, Jerry Collis, Willie Key, Peggy Thompson, New Lemex, Thomas Bernas, Cordelia Wynn, Dale Ward, Wayne Johnson, Sharon V. Gibson, Peggy Caley, Phebe Willis, Preston Strickland, Mary Ball, Clarence Morrell, C.H. Moore, Edna Langley, Ben A. Burns, Clella Bandy, Sonya Tipton.

for reuse. Applicant has an immediate need for such track material and ties for use in projects throughout its system. The substantial sums necessary to purchase such materials on the open market can thus be avoided, and the track materials and ties now devoted to this unproductive portion of railroad can be transferred to other locations to serve the public convenience and necessity.

The abandonment trackage is the middle portion of a branch which connects at both ends (Mentor on the north and Jena on the south) with applicant's main line. This branch is pointed out by a red arrow on the portion of applicant's system map marked Exhibit 1 which is attached hereto and incorporated as part of this application.

The names and addresses of applicant's representatives to whom inquiries may be made are:

Enrich D. Cole, Jr., Assistant General Attorney Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, 908 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky 40201 and Mr. R. Lyle Key, Jr., Attorney Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, 908 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky 40201.

The Interstate Commerce Commission will rule on this application without hearing unless protests are received which contain information indicating a need for such hearing, in accordance with the Commission's regulations (49 C.F.R. 1100.250 in Ex. Parte No. 25 (Sub-No. 4), Implementation National Environmental Policy Act, 199, 349 I.C.C. 83 (1972), and Mr. R. Lyle Key, Jr., Attorney Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, 908 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky 40201.

Unless a protest is received which contains information indicating a need for such hearing, in accordance with the Commission's regulations (49 C.F.R. 1100.250 in Ex. Parte No. 25 (Sub-No. 4), Implementation National Environmental Policy Act, 199, 349 I.C.C. 83 (1972), and Mr. R. Lyle Key, Jr., Attorney Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, 908 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky 40201, the Commission will rule on this application without hearing.

will not constitute a major federal action having a significant effect on the quality of the human environment.

Any protests referring to this notice (No. AB-7 (Sub-No. 9)) shall be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423, not later than July 23, 1975.

WELL DOCUMENTED-Members of Project Management Corporation's Technical Services Department in Chicago stand behind 14 volumes of information related to the safety and environmental effects of the Clinch River Breeder Reactor Project, the Nation's first large-scale breeder demonstration plant planned for construction at Oak Ridge. The documents were submitted to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission in connection with NRC's review of the project's construction permit application. Included is a ten-volume Preliminary Safety Analysis Report, which discusses all safety related aspects of the project, and a four-volume Environmental Report, which considers the environmental impact of construction and operation of the plant. More than 4,000 pages of information are contained in the volumes which were prepared by FMC, Westinghouse, the project's lead reactor manufacturer, the Energy Research and Development Administration, Tennessee Valley Authority, and Burns and Roe, architect-engineers for the CRBRP. Shown with the documents, from left, are Dr. Henry E. Bliss, Manager of Technical Services, FMC, and Henry B. Piper, Barbara A. Brunka and Braun Roysden, all of the Technical Services Department which coordinated preparation of the reports.

Loudon County Development Industrial

Loudon County Monday night session to City Manager Hensley to possibility of training and development industrial park. Hensley said the City Council that the site of Williams farm on the Tennessee River near Carbone plant will be the market area. The site is priced at $1,350. Tennessee Valley Development Agency called the site or remaining "chicken" sites on the Tennessee River. The Council Hensley try and option on the project with the help of consulting firm. Tennessee Development District see grants and loans available. Mayor Eugene said that if the project...

City Council Has New

Loudon County adopted a property tax rate of $2.35, same as last year. The first reading of the $622,949 budget for 1975-76 was approved. Mayor Eugene said that the Council almost $60,000 of budget to keep the same level as last year. The use of Federal Sharing funds also save off a tax bill property owners.

The City Council budget calls for an increase of $52,727, up almost 10% over last year. The department budget for Recreation is $282,800. Street Aid is $72,000. Revenue Sharing is $100,000. A general fund budget and its share with the last two published elsewhere. The budget shows plans to spend $100,000 on street maintenance and improvement, an all-time high for the city. The Commission will meet Wednesday to make any final adjustments on the budget and final reading. The recent passage of a new city charter called City Council to appoint City Manager. Gary Hensley has been named City Administrator for 4 years was named by Hensley announced. City Council recently elected with each of office in...

Loudon "Looks" At Development Of Industrial Park

Loudon City Council Monday night gave permission to City Manager Gary Hensley to study the possibility of the city obtaining and developing a large industrial park complex.

Hensley informed the Council that the 200-acre W. D. Williams farm on the Tennessee River near the Union Carbide plant was again on the market and had been priced at $1,350 an acre. The Tennessee Valley Authority and the State Industrial Development Agency has long called the site one of the few remaining "choice" industrial sites on the Tennessee River.

The Council asked that Hensley try and secure an option on the property and with the help with the city consulting firm and the Tennessee Development District see what federal grants and loans were available.

Mayor Eugene Lambert said that if the property could be obtained and sufficient grants and loans could be secured the development of such an industrial park when sold could answer the long term financial pressures faced by the city.

Clinton Smith of ETD, formerly with the state industrial agency, termed the site "the most desirable between Knoxville and Chattanooga." He said the site has been shown many times and the only reason it was not covered with industry is that it was not publicly owned and developed with the necessary services were not immediately available.

Smith urged the city to do all it could to obtain the property for industrial use.

Mayor Lambert said the proposal is a huge undertaking for a small city, but its potential benefits made it mandatory that the city at least take a look at what could be done, if sufficient grants and loans were available.

City Of Loudon Has No Tax Hike

Loudon City Commission adopted a property tax rate of $2.35, same as last year, and on first reading adopted a $622,949 budget for fiscal 75-76.

Mayor Eugene Lambert said that the Council trimmed almost $60,000 out of the budget to keep the tax rate at the same level and even at that the total budget is up about $53,000 over last year.

The use of Federal Revenue Sharing funds also helped stave off a tax hike for this city's property owners.

The City General Fund budget calls for expenditures of $437,727, up about $24,900 over last year. Other department budgets are Recreation $39,222; State Street Aid $18,000 and Revenue Sharing $70,000.

A general summary of the budget and its comparison with the last two years is published elsewhere in this issue.

The budget shows the city plans to spend $105,228 on street maintenance and improvement, an all-time record for the city.

The Commission was to meet Wednesday of this week to make any final adjustments in the budget and pass it on final reading.

The recent passage of the new city charter calls for the City Council to appoint a City Manager, Gary Hensley, who has been the City Administrator for over three years was named to the post.

Hensley announced that the City Council members recently elected will take their oaths of office in ceremonies at the Utility Building at 7 p.m. Monday, July 1 with County Judge William Russell administering the oaths.

W. V. Kirkland, a long time member of the Loudon Utilities Board was reappointed for a six year term by the council on the recommendation of Mayor Lambert.

Manager Hensley said that the city would begin a series of experiments with the traffic signal at Ward Avenue and Mulberry Street to try and achieve a smooth traffic flow.

The light was recently cut back to a flashing yellow on Mulberry and flashing red on Ward.

In that connection the Council asked that prices be obtained for a new street light system for the city which would coordinate the times and signal changes at all three city signals. It was estimated that this would cost about $10,000.

The yearly problem of vendors selling produce and other items in the downtown area near the White Store found its way into the meeting Monday. The Council ordered enforcement of current ordinances that allow a local producer to sell up to $500 without a license and that all persons bringing in outside produce and selling it must have a license and a defined place of business, not just a city parking meter.

The Council will study the possibility of creating a farmer's market in an area near the business district but would clear congestion in the area of Grove and Cedar Streets.

School Budget Stalls Tax Rate Session

SHERIFF GUY RUSSELL and Chief Deputy LUKE BRIGHT are shown examining 1/2 pint of bonded whiskey taken in a raid at the home of Lorene Hickman on Utitia Road Friday about 11 a.m. Mrs. Hickman and Don Waldrop were charged with possession of whiskey for resale. A third person, Charles Johnson was charged with public drunkenness. All three will appear in General Sessions Court for trial Friday.

Court, Board To Meet On School Building Program

The Loudon County Budget Committee held an intensive series of meetings during the past week trying to meet a deadline on getting the fiscal document ready for a public hearing on the 1975-76 county budget scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday, June 25.

The bond debt and general fund budgets appear to be firm, but the school budget which consumes well over two-thirds of the county spending is still far from complete, with the Budget Committee and School Board tossing it back and forth.

Saturday morning the budget committee set the Bond Debt budget at 55 cents, General Fund at 57 cents. After spending almost an hour with Superintendent of Education Edward Headlee they decided that it was impossible to get an accurate picture of that budget, and because of the deadline on publishing the "tentative" budget, set a school tax of $2.99, far from the $4.86 rate needed to fund the "trimmed" $3,077,542.56 budget Headlee presented them Saturday.

Using the "tentative" figures the proposed tax rate stands at $4.11, which is 15 cents higher than last year, but all members of the Budget Committee are quick to say they know, unless a miracle of figure juggling takes place, the actual rate will be considerably higher.

When the squires selected the "eye wash" figure of $2.99 for schools, Building Director June (Ustead) pointed out that if the schools maintain just the program they had this past year, an additional 42 cents on the tax rate would be required.

The Herald learned later that the School Board, which met Friday night without the knowledge of the newspaper, that the Board voted not to participate in the proposed "Maintenance program."

The proposed County budget is published elsewhere in this issue.

In looking at the budget a deficit of $491,163.51 is shown. This is because the Budget Committee fixed a tax rate for the budget without completing work on the school requests.

A joint meeting of the school board and entire county court has been set for 7 p.m. today (Thursday) in the main courtroom for the two bodies to discuss the school budget and the building program of the schools contained in the school survey.

Using a little juggling the Committee kept the Bond Debt and General Fund tax rates at the same totals. At Saturday's meeting they cut $26,134 from the General Fund budget. At a meeting Wednesday night they had found other cuts bringing the proposed rate for General Fund support from $1.03 to 70, then Saturday brought that down to 62 cents. Squire Henry Foster, who is expected to announce his retirement from the court before the end of this month, suggested taking $2,000 from surplus funds, further reducing the General Fund to the 57 cents level.

The cuts made by the school board the night before the Budget meeting amounted to $156,848.95. Most of this was in increasing the state pay like for teachers was set at $150 and the School Board trimmed the local raise to $50. This amounted to $185,970.25. Other major cuts were in Administration. This included the deletion of the new position of assistant to the Superintendent and a $2,000 cut in the Superintendent's pay. Headlee said that all personnel would get a 2.8 percent raise in his budget.

The anticipated paving of the parking lots at Loudon High was slashed completely out of the budget by the board.

What the actual tax rate will be is still very much in question, but from outward appearances the broad program of upgrading the school system will cut heavily by the budget committee.

Budget committee members charged that the School Board is trying to push through an unrealistic budget and their efforts to reduce the tax rate of the schools have been unsatisfactory.

A delegation from Glendale School attended the meeting to suggest a $25,000 item in the school budget for improvements at the school in an effort to get the condemned school re-approved by the state.

July 4th Events Set

The annual family-style July 4th celebration of Independence Day is now being planned for Loudon.

A parade, set for 10 a.m. will start the celebration. Sponsors of the parade said all entries, horses, antique vehicles, decorated bikes, floats, marching units and others are invited to participate. All they have to do is show up at the line-up area on Carter Street next to the high school at 9:30 a.m. on the 4th. There will be prizes for the best decorated bikes.

The Loudon Lions Club is also planning a Family Carnival at the Lions Municipal Park at Huberson Springs. It includes games, food, bingo, greasy pole and much more. The carnival lasts all day from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Squires Seek Pension For Election Commission

A special meeting of Loudon County Quarterly Court will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 26. County Judge Bill Russell announced this week.

Judge Russell said he was presented a petition Saturday by Squire Curtis Williams signed by five other squires asking for the meeting for the purpose of placing the Election Commission members under the Tennessee Consolidated Pension System.

Judge Russell said he does not know the amount, but if the court approves the retirement for election commissioners, it would cost the county hundreds of dollars to pay back years contributions to the system.

The call for the special meeting will also include an item which calls for withdrawing eligibility for county court members from participating in the pension program.

Squires Henry Foster, J. D. Conner, J. G. Hudson and Jim Blatz all have over 20 years service on the court and are eligible to retire at pensions believed to be about $140 a month, if they resign from the court prior to July 1. Only Foster has indicated he will do so. The others have told of fiscal of county government they will not resign.

After July 1 the monthly benefits that a Court member will drop to about $40 a month.

Judge Russell received a letter Monday indicating that even if the court approves placing the Election Commission under the retirement program their action would be too late for Littleton to receive the higher benefit.

The letter from Richard G. Williams, director of membership services of the Tennessee Consolidated Retirement System says it would take three months of paper work to approve a change in the county's participation in the program. This would mean approval could not come before Sept. 1, well past the deadline for the benefits offered by the program that have been cut off by action of the state legislature.

Squire Curtis Williams presented the petition containing the names of Squires James M. Hartscock, J. D. Conner, Henry Foster, J. G. Hudson and Boyd Duckworth.

Concerning withdrawing eligibility of county court members from the program Judge Russell said there are those on the court who feel it is not right for court members who are not full-time employees to draw a pension paid in part by county funds.

Birkholz Named As LC Bank Director

Ray T. Birkholz, plant manager of the Union Carbide Filene-Packaging plant at Loudon since 1963, was elected to the Board of Directors of the Loudon County Bank Tuesday night at the regular monthly meeting of the Board.

Announcing the appointment, Bank President Ed Bell said that Birkholz was one of the most respected and able persons in Loudon County and it was an honor for the bank to have him accept the position.

Birkholz and his family moved to Loudon in 1956 during the start of the new Carbide plant. He was then Plant Superintendent. Birkholz and his wife Edna reside on Robinson Drive in Loudon. They have four sons and one daughter.

Mr. Birkholz was born in Joliet, Ill., attended Joliet Township High, Joliet Junior College and the University of Chicago. He started work for the Viking Corporation in Chicago in 1937 as a management trainee. He helped start a new plant in Ontario, Canada in 1960.

After coming to Loudon he was named assistant plant manager in 1962 and a year later elevated to plant manager.

He is a member and elder of Grace Lutheran Church of Knoxville; First Vice President of the Loudon Lions Club; Vice President of the Loudon Chamber of Commerce; Chairman of the Loudon Health and Education Facilities Board; on the board of the Loudon Committee of 100 and member of the American Legion.

He is a World War II Veteran and has months of cutting the ribbon officially opening the Care Inn at Huberson Home Sunday. At left is Ed Bailey, assistant to

A Trail of String and Twigs...

Three young pioneer girls were dragged roughly through the underbrush... their Indian captors gave them little rest. The two Calloway girls were crying from fatigue and the pain of the tight buckskin thong. Limping, from a twisted ankle, their friend Jimma lagged behind. It was a July day in 1776 near the Kentucky settlement of Booneborough and the Indians, with their captives, were miles ahead of their pursuers. Jimma continued to fall behind, breaking twigs on the bushes she grasped for support. From time to time she tore and dropped small strips and strings from the handkerchief wadded in her palm. On the second night, the pioneer leader and his companions, who had followed Jimma's well-marked trail, burst into a clearing, killed two redskins and rescued the three girls. Jimma Boone and her father, Daniel Boone, were reunited.

Couple Weds On Supper Break At Maremont

Herbert Huskins and Doris Lawson met about nine months ago at the Maremont Corporation's Keene Street plant where they both work. They later fell in love and decided to get married. Herbert works the evening shift and Doris the day shift. They both like their jobs very much and the folks they work with. For these reasons and the fact they met on the job they decided to get married at the plant.

At first company officials thought it was a joke, but after realizing the couple was serious, consented. At 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 13, when the supper whistle sounded, about 40 muffer assembly workers filed into the cafeteria to witness the 10 minute ceremony and attend a reception. Everyone in the wedding party works at the plant. Rev. Tim Fleecker, a ministerial student at Carson-Newman, working at Maremont this summer, performed the religious ceremony. Best man was Herbert's shift supervisor, Johnny McConkey. Matron of Honor, a co-worker of Doris, was Joyce Fox. Both the bride and groom are muffer equipment operators.

The couple soon departed the plant and found their car well decorated. As they left for their honeymoon at Fontana, the whistle sounded, and it was back making mufflers for the wedding guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cross of Loudon. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Green Huskins of Philadelphia. A company personnel official said it was the first time anyone had been married at a Maremont plant and he is holding their breath that he one wanted to give birth to a baby there.

Wash jars in hot soapy water. Rinse well in hot water. Keep jars in hot water until ready to pack with food.

Use large stoneware, glass, pottery or unchipped earthenware containers for recipes that remain in a vinegar or brine solution for any length of time.

Do not use copper, brass, tin, or galvanized utensils. These metals may react with the acids and salts in the pickling liquid and cause undesirable chemical changes or form hazardous compounds. Use the varieties of commercial growers especially for pickling.

For best flavor and texture, pick cucumbers should be used within 24 hours after picking.

Be sure to remove bitterness from the cucumbers. They can be the source of bitterness responsible for soft pickles.

Select tightly and evenly firm cucumbers (they retain their shape and taste better during pickling).

Avoid soaking produce. This causes a loss of vitamins.

Use only clean glass, earthenware or plastic jars. Do not use jars that have been used to preserve foods.

Use pure granulated, pickling salt or uniodized table salt. Iodized table salt causes pickles to darken.

The soft water since minerals in hard water may interfere with the pickling process or cause pickles to darken. If soft water is unavailable, boil water when it is used and remove scum.

The use of alum and lime is not necessary for crisp pickles when good quality ingredients and standardized recipes and procedures are used.

Free recipe booklets on pickling, canning, and freezing are available from the Agriculture Extension Office at 438-2071 or drop by the Old Bacon Hospital Building in Loudon.

Home Canning Tips

By Bonnie F. Sheeley, Assistant Extension Agent Homegrown and home canned foods are gaining popularity as food budgets continue to bulge. Last year, nearly 6 million Americans planted their home garden for the first time, reports the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA). Unfortunately, however, USDA statistics also indicate 20 cases of foodborne botulism resulting in five deaths that were directly attributable to home preserved foods.

There are three methods of preserving foods: pickling, freezing and canning. Jars used for canning should be sterilized and inspected for defects such as nicks, chips, cracks, dents or rust. Select standard canning jars, caps or lids. Do not use jars and lids from commercially packed foods; they are not suitable for home preserving.

Be sure jars and closures are free from nicks, chips or cracks, dents or rust. Defects such as these will prevent airtight seals.

Never re-use canning lids. Canning jars may be re-used. Be sure to re-check jars for defects such as nicks, chips, cracks, dents or rust.

WHEN YOU BUY AN AIR CONDITIONER

... there are two things you need to be careful about. One is size. The other is efficiency.

Before you buy, determine how much air conditioning you need. If you buy a unit that's too small, it won't do the job. If you buy one that's too large, it won't dehumidify the air properly. (The average home takes about 18 Btu's of cooling per square foot.)

You can tell how efficient an air conditioner is by finding the unit's energy efficiency ratio (EER). If the EER is not given on the unit, figure it yourself by dividing the watts into the Btu/hr.

The higher the EER, the higher the efficiency of the air conditioner, meaning it uses less electricity.

An EER of 10 or more is excellent. Eight to 10 is good. It is not wise to buy a unit with an EER below seven.

Search Continues For Cooper Girl

Loudon County Rescue Squad Captain John Parris said this week that the length of time that Ellen Cooper has been missing is causing just concern by her family and by authorities involved in the search for the girl. Ellen, 20, disappeared Tuesday, June 10.

She was last seen on Mariel Road in the Mariel Estates area, about three miles from her home. A man working in his garden saw the girl trying to get a ride from passing cars. She succeeded and was picked up by a young man and woman driving a tan or brown small compact car.

Squad Captain Parris said he is sure the couple who stopped on Mariel Road for the girl just gave her a ride to somewhere in the Loudon City area. He said if these people would come forward it might aid in the search for the girl.

Ellen is described as 5-6, 120 pounds, brown below shoulder length hair, bangs over forehead, worn in pony tail or pig tails, blue eyes. She talks with a lisp and walks with an odd shoulder movement, and has the mentality of a 14 year old.

She reportedly was wearing light blue sandals, red shorts, light blue tatter or short blouse with an anchor on front.

Captain Parris said it has been learned that Ellen has run away from home before but had returned or been found by police in a short period of time. She just moved to the Loudon City area from West Virginia some three weeks before she disappeared.

Loudon County Chief Deputy Sheriff Lake Bright said the girl probably left voluntarily with property and the length of time since that gives him reason for concern about the girl's safety.

TEA Attacks Cut By Legislature

The Tennessee Education Association has declared that by "defaulting its responsibility to education" the 1975 legislature has created a "serious teacher unrest in the state and is pushing public school teachers into a militant stance."

Responding to action by the legislature to cut $40 million in programs and pay raises from the state budget, the TEA Board of Directors, meeting in Cookeville for organization's annual leadership conference, issued a statement strongly critical of the legislature.

The TEA contended that this session of the legislature "has done more to breed unrest in the teaching profession than anything that has ever happened in this state."

"These legislators who would be the first to object to militancy in the organized teaching profession are the very ones who led in creating conditions favorable for such a movement," the TEA statement charged.

Acknowledging that many legislators "made a diligent and sincere effort to provide additional funding for education" and promising that "their efforts will not go unrecognized," the TEA policy making body predicted that the collective action of the 89th General Assembly will adversely affect Tennessee for years and perhaps generations, to come.

Because of "broken promises" by legislators and the influence of "wealthy corporations using well financed lobbyists," TEA said the "moral of educators has received a crushing blow."

"Teachers deeply resent the fact that their reasonable requests have been taken lightly while special financial interests so strongly influenced the legislative process to their own advantage and to the detriment of education."

The position statement also stated: "The TEA deplores the fact that there were members in the legislature who stated that teachers should not even ask for a pay increase, in spite of the fact that their purchasing power is reduced by more than 12 per cent due to inflation, in spite of the fact that Tennessee teacher salaries are more than $2,000 less than the salaries in other states, in spite of the knowledge that numerous adjustments, and mines and demotions."

FROM YOUR LEGISLATURE

By Anna Belle Clement O'Brien (36th Legislative District)

After 18 long weeks, the first half of the 89th General Assembly adjourned Thursday, as lawmakers decided during the last week of the session that it would be in the best interests of the people of Tennessee to cut Gov. Blanton's $2.1 billion budget rather than enact new taxes in a time of economic crisis.

Inability to agree on which taxes should be adopted developed into a legislative impasse with lawmakers resolving to tighten the state's belt and go home with the economic picture will improve before they come back on January 12, 1976, or the second half of the 89th General Assembly.

The decision to not impose any new taxes will mean cuts of some $48.5 million in a number of budget items, including elimination of the tuition grant program; reducing teachers pay raises to 150; limiting state employee raises to 2.5 percent, and to funding for the police pay supplement bill.

In another move to cut down state spending, the legislature acted in the final week to limit cost of living pay increases for all state officials including judges and attorneys general, to a set, 2.5 percent level.

This action means that all public employees will be treated equally when it comes to receiving raises next year. In two other key votes of the final day, the House overrode Gov. Blanton's veto of a bill permitting a state turnpike authority and a tax relief measure for a number of Tennessee firms dealing in agricultural products which never actually enter the state.

The 89th General Assembly ended with a number of solid achievements and, for members of the House and Senate, a feeling of accomplishment on behalf of the people of Tennessee.

Among the issues successfully resolved during the long session were: A modest medical malpractice bill protecting patients, doctors and hospitals and insurance that high quality health care will continue to be available to Tennesseans. Two wide ranging ethics measures designed to give the people faith in public officials. A pension reform bill which will eliminate double pension loopholes and be more equitable to all citizens; Repeal of a variety of fair trade laws and price maintenance agreements affecting liquor, and extension of unemployment benefits beyond the standard 26 weeks to aid Tennesseans in the search for a job elsewhere.

The ledger of the 89th General Assembly shows that the most and longest were elected from back home to come to Nashville, came to do the job they worked hard for, and they served the people the best way they knew how.

Difficult decisions were made in the course of the last 16 weeks, decisions which may prove to be unpopular to one segment or another of Tennessee citizens. The overall thrust of the General Assembly was to do what was collectively decided upon by the 122 members in the House and Senate on behalf of the more than four million citizens in this state. On a personal note, I was disappointed that some vital programs including some aspects of aid to education, teacher pay raises and increases for state employees could not be incorporated into the state's budget for next year.

However, I think that we did the fairest thing we could do without enacting new taxes by trying to treat everyone equally.

I think that the Tennessee revenue picture is going to improve within the next six months before we come back in session and hope that some of the programs which had to be either cut out or back to the first half of the 89th General Assembly will get another look.

Look forward to working on problems within the legislative district over the summer and getting out to meet the people of the four counties.

Call or write me either at home or at my legislative office in Nashville if I may be of any assistance as your representative.

The Loudon Merchants softball team has gained the lead in the Loudon Recreation League standings. The Merchants won three games last week while the Bank of Loudon County was splitting a pair of contests.

The Merchants turned back Union Carbide (led as Bobby Russell) and Mike McCall contributed two hits each. Rick Dixon led Union Carbide with two hits.

The Merchants also prevailed in a rain shorted game that was finished last week between them and the Hamilton Bank of Loudon. The Merchants squeezed by with a 7-4 score. Jerry Russell had two hits to pace the winners. The Merchants then concluded their week of play with a rousing 16-3 rout of Marenton. A nine run fourth inning proved to be the deciding factor. Dewayne Plonias had three hits to lead the Merchants attack.

The Hamilton Bank of Loudon also defeated Marenton 11-1. Arnold Brookshire and Danny Russell blasted a pair of doubles in the game.

The probable surprise of the week came with the Hamilton Bank's 6-4 triumph over the Bank of Loudon County. The Hamilton team had no batter with more than one hit but eight Bank of Loudon County errors were instrumental in the loss. Eddie Lorenz pounded out two hits

Ray Mears Hoop Camp In 10th Year

The Ray Mears Basketball School is the oldest day school in "Big Orange Country" that has top college coaches and past college All-Americans. The staff includes Head Coach Ray Mears of the University of Tennessee, who has moved into first place in compilation of the nation's top basketball coaches, based on percentage of victories during his 18 years in college coaching. Coach Mears moved from second to first place when Coach John Wooden retired after notching his tenth NCAA Championship as Head Coach of the U.C.L.A. Bruins. Returning to the Staff are All-American Bill Justus and Ohio College Coach of the Year, Bob Hamilton of Wittenberg University.

The 10th Annual Session of the Mears' School, open to boys who finished the second grade, through to the twelfth grade, will be conducted on various courts of the Webb School in Knoxville, August 11 through the 18th.

Webb's athletic facilities have kept pace with the growth of Mears' School, which was founded in 1963 with emphasis on Danny Schultz style of ball handling. Webb School is the only high school in the South with tartan surfaces.

For the first time since All-American Danny Schultz initiated the ball handling, has the school been favored with a great ball handler. This year the S.E.C. Assist Leader, Rodney Woods, will be available to reemphasize ball handling and deft passing. The $55 fee for the week is the lowest fee of any

A PRESS AWARD TROPHY presented to The Herald for the Bank of Loudon County.

In the Bank of Loudon County's only other outing, they outscored Pond Creek 16-11. Yancy Hampton had five hits, including three doubles for his best effort of the season for the Bankers.

Jerry Alexander had three singles for Pond Creek. Pond Creek rebounded to pin a 13-6 loss on Union Carbide. Pond Creek jumped out to an early 8-0 lead and never challenged.

Humper Webster, Jim Brown, and Frank Henson all had three hits for the winners. Dick Ryan was best for Union Carbide with two hits and three runs scored.

Fort Loudoun Softball Classic Just Seven Days Away

The Fort Loudoun Classic men's softball, Sr. Babe Ruth baseball, Babe Ruth baseball, girls' softball, men's and women's basketball, tennis tournaments, dances for high school age people, plus upkeep on certain areas of the three fine parks in Loudon.

The field of teams in the tournament will be one of the finest ever to play in Loudon County and in a couple of years could be one of the premier tournaments in the South-East with the backing of the people. This year the teams will be coming from as far away as Louisville, Kentucky and will be bringing their families to Loudon to help support their teams.

These teams are of championship caliber and will be some of the best long-ball hitters in the game.

There will also be a couple of local teams from the county participating in the tournament to try to keep as much of the tournament hardware in Loudon as possible.

In addition the Recreation Department will be giving away a twelve gauge Smith & Wesson semi-automatic shotgun. Tickets will be available with each one dollar donation.

Advanced tickets to the tournament will be available at City Hall in Loudon or from Fred Mode, Bill Lemax, Harold McColister, Bill Birkholz or the Loudon Herald office. Advanced tickets will be $2.00 and tickets at the gate for the three day event will be $1.00 per day.

We hope the people of Loudon will welcome the outsiders and help support this tournament and make it a success.

Each evening at 7 p.m. and lasts through 11 p.m. Jerry Foster and Gordon Watson are also instructors in the morning recreation activities which also includes the fundamental teachings and team play in basketball at the Loudon High School gym. Almost all participants are 14 and over. Mixed doubles will only be allowed in the 14-year old and younger bracket.

Troubles will be awarded first and second place in each division.

Entry forms plus a $5 fee must be received from each team before Saturday, June 26. Entry forms may be picked up at the Loudon County Herald Office or at the Loudon Swimming Pool.

For more information contact John Rose, 458-3848.

Divisional play will be divided into advanced, intermediate, beginner, and 14-year old and under.

The release location is not identified so that the fish may have an opportunity to adapt to their new surroundings without being disturbed.

Yankees, Pirates Lenoir City Connie Mack Team Has Busy Week

The Lenoir City Connie Mack baseball team had an active week last week with three league games and one exhibition performance. The Lenoir City team won the week with a revenge win over Etowah by the score of 4-3. The Lenoir City team lost to the Pirates 2-1 in the season opener. Bobby Smith was the winning pitcher, going the route. The fire balling right hander scattered eight hits and was backed by errorless ball in the field. Steve Arnold went three for four and scored twice and K. K. Salvage was three for three with a walk added in and scored once to spark the hitting. Smith had a hit and Jeff Walker lashed a booming double for two runs batted in the sixth frame. Don Davis had three hits for the Etowah nine. A grand slam home run in the first inning was all the Harrison Construction Company needed for a 4-1 decision over the Lenoir City team at Maryville-Etowah. Mike McConkey was the hard luck pitcher, striking out nine and giving up just five hits. Lenoir City scored its only run in the top of the seventh. Mike Hudson, Steve Arnold, Salvage, Smith, and two hits by Jeff Walker were the Lenoir City players getting hings.

City Golf Leaders Carve Out Working Margins

John Cobb and Richard Archer have carved themselves a small margin of winning in the Loudon City Golf League's American Division. Front running (Cobb and Archer) have a 11 point edge over second place team Monty Lawson and Gordo Watson who have again returned to the runner-up position after falling to third place last week. Kirkland and Huck Selvey are in third place after a rather so-so week of play. They go into their 15 team points with a 10 point lead.

Ft. Loudoun Softball Classic For Women Planned

The Loudon Recreation Department announced this week that they will sponsor their first annual Women's Fort Loudoun Softball Classic tournament. An entry fee of $80 in all interested teams meeting in regular season in the 1975-76 hunting seasons. Squid hunters will enjoy a longer season running from August 23 to Feb. 1, 1976. Ruffed Grouse season will be open from October 31 through February 29, 1976. Rabbit and Quail hunters also got an extended season running from November 1 to February 29, 1976. Naccow, Bobcat, Opossum and Mink may be taken from sunset November 21 sunrise on January 1, 1976 East of S. Highway 27. This shorter season reflects the concern shown by East Tennessee counties for a low Raccoon population.

Hunting Seasons Set

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission announced this week that they will sponsor their first annual Women's Fort Loudoun Softball Classic tournament. An entry fee of $80 in all interested teams meeting in regular season in the 1975-76 hunting seasons. Squid hunters will enjoy a longer season running from August 23 to Feb. 1, 1976. Connie Mack Team Has Busy Week

Larry Lane and Tom Lambert have progressed to the number three ranking with a low net team record of 72 and Lane fashioned a 35 for low medalist honors to top the team overall effort to 164 team points. Lead second place challenger Billy Chambers and Junior Mills by 15 points (122), capturing this week's schedule.

Dixie Youth Teams Jam First Place

The Loudon Dixie Youth League recreation baseball tournament at Bruce Arden was the top of the standings. Three teams are currently sharing the lead with 161 total team points and fourth place.

Red Cross Swimming Lessons, Life Saving Course To Be In July

The Loudon County American Red Cross Chapter will be winding up its adult beginners and adult advanced beginner swimming lessons this Friday night at the Loudon Swimmers course. The Loudon Red Cross Chapter will again be using the Loudon Swimmers course for starting July 7. This course will be for children beginners, intermediates. The class 8-10 up will be broken into two time slots with beginners being instructed from 6:15 coming Saturday night. Goddard's 13.92 standard has stood for two years.

Atomic To Have Busy 4th July Week

The weekend of July 4 is going to be a busy one at Atomic Speedway with a 100-lapper and a weekly program just two days apart. The Independence 100, Lake (107) in Hamblen and Grainger Counties are closed to deer hunting. Portions of Blount, Carter, Greene, Johnson, Monroe, Sevier, Union and Washington Counties are closed to deer hunting. Consult your Hunting Guide or wildlife officer before hunting in these counties. Hawkins County will have a 150 hunter quota hunt for antlerless deer from January 5, 7, 1976. Hog hunts in Blount portion of Monroe County north of the Tellico River will be September 27 - October 12 (archery), October 13 (gun-archery) and November 15 - 17 (gun-archery). Deer season (dog) gun-archery will be open in Blount, Cooke, Greene, Monroe, Sevier, Union and Washington Counties from October 13-16 and December 16-20. Consult your Hunting Guide for information on wildlife management area hunts and other regulations. These Guides should be available by mid-July.

Small Game Surveys

TVA biologists and wildlife officers will be running small game surveys across the state from June 27 through August 15. Established twenty mile routes are run each year with three mile stops at each mile along the route. The number of quail, dove, and rabbit seen are noted along each route is tabulated. This is done on the assumption that the number of animals thus noted is related to the total size of the population. Fluctuations in these surveys from year to year thus indicate whether the population is up or down. Such information gives the Agency a basis for advising hunters in the summer of what type season they can expect in the fall. CHUCK SWAN'S FUTURE In Union County is a peninsula that sticks out into Norris Lake. Approximately 25,000 acres of this peninsula are owned by the Tennessee Department of Conservation. This area which was sold to the state by TVA in 1962 has been jointly managed by the Department of Conservation's Division of Forestry and the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency as the Chuck Swan Wildlife Management Area. The major management and development programs around this valuable, yet fragile resource.

Director Hired For Office On Aging

The first full-time director of the new program in Loudon County, Mrs. Karl (Ellen) Netting, has been busy establishing her office at the center for the past two weeks. Mrs. Netting, wife of Rev. Karl Netting, associate pastor of Concord United Methodist Church, received her Masters in Social Work Administration at the University of Tennessee earlier this month.

The director will maintain a permanent office in the Senior Citizens Center which is open from 9:30 to 4:30 Monday thru Friday. The telephone number of the office is 458-4465.

Work remodeling the old nurses quarters building into the Senior Citizens Center with the help of a $9,000 grant through the Mid East Community Action Agency, is nearing completion. Mrs. Netting said this week that she will be taken on furnishings and equipment for the center later this month and that county maintenance crews are nearly completed with the painting, construction of a sun deck and other additions to the building.

The local program, continuing the Senior Citizens Center and Office on Aging, is a joint project involving Loudon County, the Mid East Community Action Agency, the East Tennessee Development District and the Human Resources Agency. Mrs. Netting said her first few weeks will be getting acquainted with the six active Senior Citizens organizations in the county as well as conducting a survey of needs and interest of the groups.

Area legislators at session decided not to move a bill creating a Loudon County Department of Transportation and the office of Commissioner of Transportation for the county.

Rep. Benny Stafford (Lenoir City), Rep. Anna Belle (Clement O'Brien D-Crossville), and Sen. Carl Koehl (H-Marysville) discussed the pending legislation the last week of the session and determined to wait until the beginning of the next session before moving passage.

The controversial piece of legislation had been pending for some weeks, while Stafford and Mrs. O'Brien tried to ascertain the feeling of Loudon County officials and voting public on the matter. County Judge Bill Russell, initiator of the legislation, had promised a letter signed by all members of the county court

She is planning a meeting with Senior Citizens in Greenback on July 3 at the local residence to help organize a group in that community. She said that a strong organization of community senior citizen groups will add strength to the Aging program and will key her "outreach" efforts.

The director received her bachelor degree from Duke University, and prior to that attended Emory and Henry College.

Mrs. Netting outlined five areas of work she will be undertaking. They are:

1. Secure working agreements with public and private agencies serving older people in order to provide coordinated, non-duplicating services.
2. Cooperate with county office of the Department of Public Welfare in providing information and referral services to elder citizens.
3. Provide staff support to the County Council on Aging, assist in the development of the council by identifying problems confronting older citizens, and by identifying organizations and individuals who can assist the council.
4. Accumulate pertinent data on numbers and location of elderly persons, their characteristics and needs, and to document those needs which are not being met because of non-existent services.
5. Exert leadership in developing, through coordination of local resources, new or improved services based on documented needs, once the basic services of information, referral, escort, outreach and transportation are operating.

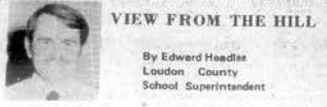

supporting the bill. Both Stafford and Mrs. O'Brien agreed to move the legislation if and when the letter is presented.

When finally forwarded, the letter contained the names of only one-half the county court members.

Stafford had expressed a willingness to push the legislation and let the people decide its ultimate fate, since the bill contained a ratification clause.

After discussion with Mrs. O'Brien however, it was decided to wait until January to open the county judge and to open a letter and mutually agreeable bill.

Sen. Koehl's attitude was to follow the lead of the House members, since he as a Loudon Countyman, was not personally familiar with the circumstances and possible problems of the legislation.

Loudon County School Superintendent

Building Program
The Loudon County Board of Education and the Loudon County Court will meet at 7 p.m. on Thursday, June 19, in the main courtroom of the County Courthouse to discuss the building program for Loudon County Schools. The Court wants the Board's recommendations of the recommendations of the Board concerning all County schools in order to determine the funding necessary for the total program. Parents and others interested in learning about the plans for their local school should try to have representatives present on Thursday.

Budget
The budget committee of the County Court was informed Saturday, June 14, that a tax rate increase of 28 cents is necessary to maintain the school budget at the same level of funding as last year. This is due to the fact that approximately $10,000 was taken from Loudon County last year's budget request in order to keep the tax rate from increasing last year.

Unless the County Court can see the necessity of increasing next year's budget over this past year's budget, the system will face another year of underfunding. There will be no pay raises for any school system employees, no money for library books, no improvements or major repairs to any school buildings, no additional personnel for the maintenance crew, and not enough money to purchase the needed janitorial supplies to keep the schools clean and healthful for the children.

The public hearing that will be held concerning the budget is the opportunity for any and all citizens to express their views on the proposed budget. We in the school system realize that economic condilems are difficult, but we also know that we will have the kind of school system that we are willing to pay for. Education, like everything else, has increased in price. Let your representative on County Court know how you feel about our schools. After all, this is the American way!

Ag Office Is Moved

The Loudon County Agriculture Extension Offices have moved from the County Office Building where many farmers, homemakers and 4-H members have gone to get information on farming and home economics for the past 23 years.

The office is now located in the Bacon Building on the second floor in the Eastern wing. The telephone number is still the same (458-2621). To enter either use the front entrance and go straight through or enter through the old emergency door on the ground floor. Take the steps or the elevator to the second floor and turn left.

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to thank all our friends, neighbors, and relatives for all their prayers, flowers, food and all acts of kindness shown during the illness and loss of our baby. A special thanks to the Rev. Milton Bodden and the First Baptist Church.

C.F. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C.F. Smith, Sr., Robinson Drive, Loudon, received his degree of Doctor of Medicine from the University of Tennessee Medical School in Memphis, Sunday, June 8.

Dr. Smith graduated from Loudon High School in 1967 with a B.A. degree in Chemistry. He and his wife, Monica, will leave for Pasadena, California this month where he will serve his Internship at Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena. After his internship, they plan to return to the Knoxville-Loudon area where Dr. Smith will practice medicine.

Selective Service Sets Registration Deadlines

Young men born in 1957 or earlier years who did not register with Selective Service before April 1, 1975 will be required to register during the first annual registration period expected to be early in 1976. Young men who did register before April 1, 1975 will not be required to register again.

The State Director of Selective Service for Tennessee, Colonel William F. Sanders will distribute a letter reminding young men of their registration obligation under the Military Selective Service Act. The letter clarifies the facts about when young men may register with Selective Service.

Col. Sanders said: "Until April 1, 1975 young men were required to register within a few days of their 18th birthday. President Ford stopped that registration procedure and directed planning for a one-year period of registration. The Selective Service System is now planning annual registration. The first period when annual registration may be accomplished is expected to be early in 1976."

In Washington, D.C., Byron V. Pepton, the Director of Selective Service said: "As soon as the new procedure has been proclaimed by the President, we will launch a nationwide publicity campaign to inform the public of the dates of annual registration. The current registration period is being extended through the end of the year. Local news media will be asked to give local publicity to the places where young men may go to register in their communities."

The letter reminding young men of their registration obligation and clarifying details of the current requirements, will be distributed through most of the high schools in Tennessee. Sanders urged young men to read the reminder letter-but more important, urged them to be alert for the publicity about annual registration which may be expected late in 1975 or early in 1976.

New Phone Rates Start

Increases for basic service in Loudon County range from $1.20 to a two-party residence $3.50 a month for business service. A one-party service increased $1.50. Increases also apply for additional annual connection charge auxiliary or miscellaneous services.

The court action for May 12th order of the Service Commission that denied increase requested by South County, in response to an appeal the telephone company have pooled a losses while the court the total case.

W.N. Calvert, manager for South County, stated that the company is encouraged the rate has authorized new rates under board. "We have pooled a guarantees any or increase will be real the customers, plus in requires it," he said.

Calvert added that court's action, in effect the loss of revenue company which would continue until decision is reached; the customer and the final decision is made to obtain the necessary to continue that needs to be added.

Calvert reported players who were last given the opportunity to work meet increasing demands of customers in Tennessee.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY

BY M. LEE SMITH

(c) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

After fifteen weeks the General Assembly has completed its work. The legislature this year was better organized, increasingly independent of the executive branch, more government, less industry influence by Capitol Hill lobbyists, and not as politically partisan as in recent past sessions.

Despite better organization and the length of the session, relatively few major legislative proposals became law. Those which were enacted were for the most part progressive, needed, and well thought through.

New Phone Rates Start

New rates for telephone service went into effect June 4 following a Davidson County chancery court order authorizing the changes under bond, while the court reviews South Central Bell's request for additional annual revenue totaling about $65 million before taxes—about 32 million after taxes.

Increases for basic local service in Loudon County range from $1.30 a month for two-party residence service to $3.50 a month for one-party business service. Residence one-party service was increased $1.50 a month. Increases also apply to long distance calls within the state, connection charges, and auxiliary or miscellaneous services.

The court action followed a May 12th order of the Public Service Commission in order that denied increased rates requested by South Central in November 1974. It was in response to an appeal filed by the telephone company to prevent continued revenue losses while the court reviews the total case.

W.N. Calvert, local manager for South Central, stated that the telephone company is encouraged that the court has authorized the new rates under bond.

"We have posted a bond that guarantees any or all of the increase will be refunded to the customers, plus interest, if the final decision in the case requires it," he said.

Calvert added that the court's action, in effect, stops the loss of revenue to the company which otherwise would continue until a final decision is reached. "Both the customer and the company are protected any way the final decision goes."

"Arrangements are being made to obtain the materials and any additional work force necessary to continue the job that needs to be done," he added.

Calvert reported that employees who were laid off will be given the opportunity to return to work right away to meet increasing service demands of telephone customers in Tennessee.

products, lobbyist and campaign finance regulation, establishment of a medical malpractice review board, and curtailment of abuse in the state and county officials retirement system.

A major failure of the General Assembly was its refusal to pass conflict of interest legislation which required financial disclosure by public officials, and prohibited public officials from doing business with the level of government of which they are a part.

The General Assembly is also subject to criticism for its handling of the budget for the coming fiscal year. And much of the blame for the action of the General Assembly on the budget is due Governor Ray Blanton.

On March 4 the Governor presented a $2.1 billion budget to the General Assembly. He said it was a "bare bones" budget and requesting $40 million in new taxes. Two days later Blanton told the Nashville evening newspaper that with more time he could have found "more fat" to eliminate in the proposed budget.

The "more fat" statement amounted to an invitation to the General Assembly to reduce the budget and avert a tax increase. The General Assembly went to work at it for over three long months, finally bogging down in a three-sided disagreement among the Governor, the Senate and the House.

When the General Assembly reconvened last week after a ten-day recess, it became clear that the legislature would not increase by $40 million. It was also apparent that the General Assembly would probably enact the Governor's $15 million severance tax bill.

At this point Governor Blanton accused legislators of "acting like demagogues," and he advised General Assembly Speakers John Wilder and Ned Ray McWherter and later the Senate Democratic caucus that he wanted either $40 million in new taxes or no new taxes. The result was no new taxes.

Blanton explained his all-or-nothing statement in political terms, saying he did not want to be known as a Governor who raised taxes and cut programs in the same budget. Regardless of the politics of it, the statement was illogical and not consistent with Blanton's previous position.

If, as Blanton has contended for three months, $40 million in new revenue was essential to fund necessary state services, then obviously any lesser amount of new revenue must have been needed.

After rejecting any revenue increase, the General Assembly was forced to cut teacher pay hikes from $40 to $350, to eliminate funding of the tuition grant, reading and police pay supplement programs; and to reduce substantially appropriations for vocational education, education of the handicapped and the county roads and city streets program.

The big loser was public education. And the net result is that improvements in state services which the state has made in recent years will be curtailed or cut back.

On the same day the Senate voted to reduce the state budget, it also voted to override Governor Blanton's veto of the act to provide a tax concession to Cook Industries of Memphis. The company's chief executive officer E. W. "Ned" Cook had threatened to move the business out of Tennessee unless the bill was enacted.

Tennessee's corporate tax structure is in need of revision and the state would have lost more revenue by the industry moving than by granting the tax concession.

But the action of the General Assembly in response to a threat was unfortunate and gave the appearance that the General Assembly was granting an undue tax break to a wealthy corporation. The problem should have been resolved some other way.

At the conclusion of the session last week Senator Leonard Dunavani (R-Millington) asked reporters, "How would you rate us on a scale of 1-10? Minus 2?" I would say about 5.

How They VOTED

Here's how area legislators voted on the bill before the General Assembly during the last week of the session.

SENATE

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

A few years ago to talk about a power producing dam in East Tennessee was a rare thing. I think I am right in saying that possibly the first one in our area was the Cheaha Dam and I believe it was built by the Aluminum Co. of America to produce power for their plants, which required large amounts of electrical energy for production methods. Although, the dams were built for electric power production, they also brought some other benefits along their water ways and likewise possibly created some hardship along the way.

We believe the dam is now called Calderwood. It was begun by a firm known as Knoxville Power Co. and later changed to Alcoa. The first two men hired were big Albert Nichols and his son-in-law, Gabe Coonshire. J. L. Campbell was the third man hired. The dam was started in 1912. The work camp was built where Fontana Lodge is now located and the workers went in by wagon to Rabbit Creek. This was on the old railroad bed, which was built by E. T. and W.N.C. Company. From Rabbit Creek all the supplies were carried up the river to the site where the dam was being built. The information on the dam was furnished by Ernest Campbell, Route 1, Venoire, Mr. Campbell will be 80 years old this month and is still in good health.

We are grateful to Mr. Joe Bivens of Philadelphia for the loan of this interesting old picture of the Alcoa Dam when it was just being built. A construction job of this size in those days was a large undertaking.

Over the years we have ran several picture of sawmills. They have always created a lot of interest with our readers and one of the things that make this so interesting is a waste of time and money by most of them is the old and over almost extinct steam engine which powered them. Modern mills are quite different in many respects.

Sawmills in our section of the County were a major employer years ago and many men worked their entire life at this trade. Our thoughts along this line was motivated by a picture we have this week of an old time sawmill which was powered by an old time steam engine. This was the main source of power for all types of machinery in those days. This, we are sure will bring back many memories to a lot of our readers.

This picture was loaned to us by Mrs. Joe (Louise) Bivens, who states that the man who is releasing steam at the boiler is her father, Mrs. Bivens' brother, Clyde, is operating the saw. Mrs. Bivens stated that both men are now deceased.

The picture was made in the mountains near Kingsport. The other man in the picture is Jess Clark. I believe Mrs. Bivens said they were from Loudon and Monroe County. Although neither of the pictures were made in Loudon County, both are of interest to many people and we are proud to receive them for use in the Good Old Days. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Little River Meeting Set

The Association for the Preservation of the Little Tennessee River will meet at Fort Loudon near Venoire, Tennessee, on Sunday, June 22, at 1 p.m. for a covered dish picnic.

Opposition to the Tellico Dam now under construction at the mouth of the Little T currently centers on the status of the small darter, a rare fish recently named to the U.S. Interior Department's endangered species list.

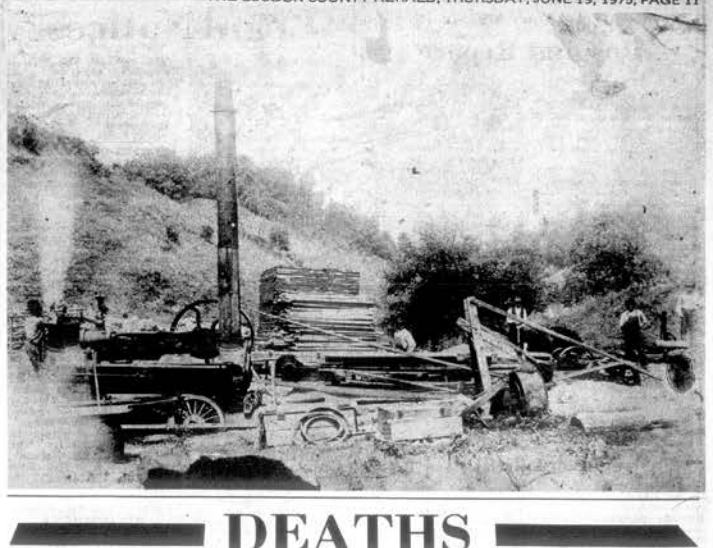

Opponents of the dam claim that TVA is now in violation of the Endangered Species Act of 1973. TVA has announced plans to transplant the small darter to the Hiwassee River, but this move has been called "a waste of time and money" by Dr. David Etnier, the University of Tennessee zoologist who discovered the fish.

DDT Kills

Tobacco treated with DDT or DDE after being transplanted will not be eligible for price support, according to Martha Blair, County Executive Director of the Loudon County ASCS Office.

For several years price support has not been available to tobacco treated with DDT or DDE. It has been determined the use of Toxaphene and Endrin results in objectionable flavors in tobacco and its continued use could jeopardize the export of tobacco products.

Prior to the issuance of a marketing card producers will be asked to certify whether or not a pesticide containing any of these chemicals was used on the tobacco crop.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ABANDONMENT
 Before the Interstate Commerce Commission
 Number AB-2
 (Sub-No. 9)

Notice is hereby given that the Interstate Commerce Commission is being requested to issue a certificate of public convenience and necessity permitting abandonment of the line of railroad of Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company ("Applicant") extending from railroad Post RT 296 near Friendsville in a south-south-westerly direction to railroad Mile Post RT 308 near Greenback, a distance of 8.5 miles, in Blount and Loudon Counties, Tennessee. This line includes, but is not limited to, the sections of Rega and Dora. The interest of employees represented by the Burlington Conditions' (Chicago B. & Q. RR Abandonment, 237 I.C.C. 700-1 (1941)).

REASONS FOR PROPOSED ABANDONMENT
 This is an unproductive line of railroad as evidenced by the fact that it generated only twenty-two (22) carsloads of traffic (2.5 carsloads per mile) in the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the filing of this notice. A list showing various information on each of these twenty-two (22) movements is attached hereto as Appendix A and incorporated as part of this application in compliance with 49 C.F.R. 112.81(c).
 By virtue of the proposed abandonment, applicant would enjoy substantial economies in the areas of avoidable maintenance and salvage of needed track material. Applicant plans to leave in place, as industrial trackage, the mile of track on the northern extremity of the abandonment trackage and the mile and one-half of track on the southern extremity of the abandonment trackage. As to the remaining 6 miles of abandonment trackage, all rail and metal track material of 90-lbs. and above, and all reusable ties will be salvaged for reuse. Applicant has an immediate need for such track material and ties for use in projects throughout its system. The substantial sums necessary to purchase such materials on the open market can thus be avoided, and the track materials and ties now devoted to this unproductive portion of railroad can be transferred to other locations to serve the public convenience and necessity.

The abandonment trackage in the middle portion of a branch which connects at both ends (Mentor on the north and Jena on the south) with applicant's Knoxville-Atlanta main line. This branch is pointed out by a red arrow on the portion of applicant's system map marked Exhibit I which is attached hereto and incorporated as part of this application.
 The names and addresses of applicant's representatives to whom inquiries may be made are:
 Mr. Emried D. Cole, Jr., Assistant General Attorney
 Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company
 908 West Broadway
 Louisville, Kentucky 40201
 and
 Mr. R. Lyle Key, Jr., Attorney
 Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company
 908 West Broadway
 Louisville, Kentucky 40201
 The Interstate Commerce Commission will rule on this application without hearing unless protests are received.

Budget, Retirement, Consolidation Meetings Thursday

Three separate meetings involving members of the County Court will be held at the courthouse Thursday night.

At 7 p.m. will be the public hearing on the county budget for the coming year. A proposed tax rate of $4.11 has been offered, but lacks about $500,000 meeting the expenditures included in the budget.

At 8 p.m. a special meeting of County Court will be held to discuss a proposal that members of the County Election Commission be placed under the uniform retirement program. If approved it would allow one election commissioner, H. P. Littleton, to retire at a monthly pension of more than $100 a month. There has developed considerable opposition to the move. In fact a second item on the agenda calls for the removal of county court members from the retirement program.

Immediately following this session the county court and county school board has invited the Lenoir City School Board and City Council to discuss the possibility of consolidation of the two school systems.

South Carolina Man Shot On Interstate

Loudon and Roane County Sheriff's officers are investigating the shooting of a South Carolina man who was struck by a bullet which reportedly came in the open window of the car he was riding in on the early Saturday morning.

The wounded man, William Johnson, 49, Greenville, S.C., a cab driver, is in Oak Ridge Hospital in critical condition with a .22 caliber slug in his chest.

Johnson and two women companions were on their way to Kingston to visit one of the ladies' husband who reportedly is in jail there.

Johnson was riding in the rear seat of the car. In the front were Hazel Alexander, identified as Johnson's girlfriend, and her daughter-in-law, Judy Ann Williams.

Mrs. Alexander said that as the three were driving along I-40 about three miles east of Gallaher Road Exit, about 11 a.m. Saturday Johnson cried out that he had been shot. She said they stopped just down the highway and called the Roane County Sheriff's office. It was later determined that at the time of the shooting the car was inside Loudon County. Sheriff Guy Russell said that conflicting statements in the two women Mrs. Alexander said she did not hear any shot or noise before Johnson cried out "they got me in the heart."

Mrs. Williams, who's husband, Terry, is in Roane County Jail, also heard a loud shot.

Officers from both counties are still investigating. Sheriff Russell said Monday that Johnson was still unable to talk to officers about the shooting.

Carnival, Parade To Highlight 4th

It has long been a tradition for celebration to be held in Loudon on July 4th. This year will be no exception. The Loudon Lions Club will sponsor a parade and a family carnival with the events lasting from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

King Lion Jim Savage said that Earl Ridenour will direct an all-comers parade in Loudon. The parade will be held on Carter Street at 9:30 and all horses, antique cars, emergency vehicles, decorated bikes, marching units, motorcycles and etc. are invited to participate. Once the country is in its Bicentennial Celebration of the signing of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, the parade entrants are asked to follow a patriotic theme on the parade. Cash prizes will be awarded to the best decorated bikes. The parade will leave Carter Street at 10 a.m. travel to the downtown area by way of Steekee, Ward Avenue, Grove Street and back to the American Legion Building.

The second phase of the celebration, a Family Carnival, will start at 11 a.m. and continue until 7 p.m. at the Lions Municipal Park on Hoberson Springs Road. Games will include bingo, football throw, darts, weight guess, fish pond, greasy pole climb, horse shoes, basketball throw and others. All events will cost from 10 cents to 25 cents.

The carnival prizes to winning participants.

Throughout the day and night will be selling food and cold drinks.

Ellen Cooper Found In Jail

Ellen Cooper, the 20-year old Lenoir City woman, who disappeared from her home near Martel on June 18, was located in West Virginia last Thursday, reports at the Loudon County Justice Center indicated.

Mrs. Cooper according to reports was arrested on a drunkenness charge at Beckley, West Va., on June 11 and had been in jail there since.

A search by the Loudon County Rescue Squad started on the night of the 18th and continued for several days. The girl had been seen getting into a car on Martel Road about 5:30 on June 9 but the trial of her whereabouts had ended there.

TIM PAUL, 15 of Lenoir City is shown with Rescue Squad Captain John Parris and TVA Safety officer Virgil Brown. Paul was presented a certificate of merit from the Squad for the part he played in saving the life of Ted Marsh at Melton Hill Lake last week.

Teenager, TVA Guard Save Youth's Life

A 14 year old Lenoir City boy literally owes his life to another teenager and a TVA Safety officer. David T. Marsh, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Marsh, Martel Road, Lenoir City, was pulled from Melton Hill Lake Wednesday afternoon with no heart beat and not breathing. But because of the skills of Kim Paul, 15 of Ford Road, Lenoir City, and TVA Safety Officer Ray Wilburn of Nashville, the youth is alive.

Marsh, his brother-in-law Randy Crawley and Paul were swimming along the public recreation area on the Loudon County side of Melton Hill just above the dam about 7:15 p.m. Wednesday when the drama took place.

Crawley and Paul missed Marsh, but thought he had gone to an adjacent restroom. After a few minutes they started looking for the youth in the water. They later saw Safety Lt. Virgil Brown later that about 10 minutes had passed when Crawley saw Marsh in about four feet of water some 20 feet from the bank stepped on the arm of the youth.

They dragged Marsh to the bank. At 7:18 Officer Wilburn arrived. He asked if any of the 30 persons who had gathered knew how to administer mouth to mouth resuscitation. Paul said he did. His mother, Mrs. Frederick said Paul had been taught the life saving skill while attending a dietician clinic. He has been dietician since he was 12.

Wilburn, according to Lt. Brown, cleaned the sand and mud out of Marsh's mouth and as Paul began the mouth to mouth, Wilburn began to give him artificial respiration. The youth coughed and started breathing.

Marsh was taken to the hospital. He is recovering well.

Marsh's mother said she was grateful to the youth and the officer who saved her son's life.

School Board Approves $5 Million Building Program

The Loudon County School Board presented the County Court Budget Committee a package building program, almost identical to the one proposed by the county-wide school survey team from U.T. then got a cold reception to the "do it all now" $5 million proposal.

Last October Superintendent Edwards Headlee presented the court with a four year $8 to $10 million building program. After learning of the planned school survey, the court budgeted and said they wanted to see what the survey said and they would consider the entire building program in one bond issue.

All of this was taking place under a threat from the State Department of Education to cut off state funds to county schools if the court did not pass a resolution authorizing the sale of bonds to correct major deficiencies in a number of county school buildings. The state had ordered Glendale School closed after this year and cited a number of major problems with every school in the county, even the nine year old Loudon High School.

After discussing the building program for about a hour in the special meeting Tuesday night the Budget Committee said it would recommend to the county court that an emergency resolution authorizing the borrowing of $100,000 on short term notes to bring state aid up to acceptable standards, purchase three portable classrooms for classrooms, fire escape for Loudon Elementary School, and for additional funds for class additions at Philadelphia if funds on hand are not sufficient.

Squire I.D. Conner said he did not think the court would go along with the entire building program on one bond issue. "The County can't afford it, and the court did not say they would do all the building at once, we just would consider the program all at one time," Conner said.

School Board Chairman Jim Hatley said this is not what the school board understood and was not what the state was led to believe. Hatley said if the court does not use plain language to satisfy the state that the building program and upgrading program is going to be funded this year, he expects the state to withhold school funds.

Conner asked for a list of priorities but Superintendent Headlee said that almost every case was of top priorities and he felt that any state of priorities would be unfair because the people in most of the communities have been expecting school improvements for years.

Squire Boyd Duckworth said that it was sensible for the county to even talk about a major building program with

School Building Program

- The following proposal for a one-shot school building program for Loudon County was approved by the County Board of Education last Friday night and presented to the County Budget Committee. The recommendations are almost identical to the one recommended by the U.T. survey team, except in the case of Glendale School.
- LOUDON COUNTY SCHOOL BUILDING PROGRAM - 1975
- Survey Recommendations
- Philadelphia (K-8) - Extensively remodel existing building to provide additional classrooms (4) and library facilities. Remove old gymnasium and construct new gymnasium auditorium (100 seats).
- Steekee Elementary (K-8) - Minor remodeling to existing building. Construct new addition to house grades 1-8 from Davis and library facilities.
- Davis Elementary - Consolidate with Steekee to make a K-8 school.
- Loudon Elementary - Consolidate with Loudon Jr High to create a K-8 school.
- Loudon Jr High (K-8) - Remodel existing building to add ceiling, fluorescent lighting and air conditioning. Construct, additional space for classrooms for Loudon Elementary to include a gymnasium-auditorium complex and a library.
- Loudon High - Remodel industrial arts area to include permanent facilities for health occupations classrooms. Remodel kitchen area to conform to fire code. Pave parking areas and driveways.
- Browder Elementary - Close and consolidate with Eaton Elementary and Highland Park Elementary. Bus transportation to be worked out later.
- New Providence Special Ed Center - Remodel and re-equip to house the special education facility. Loudon County for all handicapped children within the school district. Other school systems may participate by contractual agreement with the Loudon County Board of Education.
- Eaton Elementary (K-8) - Extensive remodeling to add section of existing building. Construct additional classroom space to house growing student population and additional students from Browder.
- Highland Park Elementary (K-8) - Remodel old building and construct some additional space for classrooms and storage-workroom areas.
- Glendale Elementary - (The Board has already decided to remodel Glendale and fix it to meet State requirements.)
- Greenback (K-12) - Remodel existing building to include primary physical education area, science lab-classroom facility, library area, band-music area, and additional cafeteria space. Construct additional classrooms (2) to replace science lab addition and construct new auditorium (300 seats) to replace library-bandroom complex. "These schools would be closed under this plan. All remodeling and new construction would utilize through-the-wall units to provide both heating and air conditioning. These improvements will enable the schools to be utilized twelve months a year if desired."

An Editorial School Board Resignations Cause For Concern

By Larry Cate, Editor

The Loudon County School System is facing a double crossroads, or what is stronger language. One of the major issues is the staggering 1975-76 budget and the proposed $5 million building program. The other is the prospect of at least two and possibly three members of the present seven member school board resigning before this month is out.

It is all but definite that School Board Chairman Jim Hatley, an 18 year veteran, and Clell Miller, some 20 years on the board, are going to resign. Another member, Lester Thomas, also is considering the move.

Why? Because the three are eligible to draw substantial state retirement pensions under the program which will expire on July 1. Each of the men can draw $6 a month for each year of service they have on the school board. This would mean $180, approximately in Thomas' case and about $132 a month in Miller's case.

Should they retire, and it can be expected, the county court will face the prospect of appointing their replacements. We have already heard some talk of deals which would further the interests of individuals and not the schools and students.

Mr. Batley is from Lenoir City, Miller from Loudon and Thomas from Philadelphia. Several years ago when Ernest Thompson of Philadelphia retired his vacancy was filled by a Lenoir City man, who has made an excellent board member.

But this does not present an equitable situation. The board is now dominated by the Second and Fifth Districts where only four of the 12 county schools are located. The present school board has a good record of supporting the total system and not just a segment of the county they represent, but with three new members and the prospect the appointments would further imbalance the distribution of the membership, we can see potential problems.

In recent months the school board has been more active and more vocal in their control over the system. We can find one fault and that is that the board members do not get enough first hand information on the conditions at the schools. Seldom do they visit the schools. We would guess that not one member of the board visited as many as half the schools during the past school year.

County Court should remember that the schools are the number one recipient of county funds and the people they put on the board that runs the schools. The people who are interested in the COUNTY schools and would take the time to find out for themselves what goes on inside the school and the conditions of the physical plants.

It is clear that the schools will not get the budget that will help get Loudon High School accredited in the next two years, or will provide additional teaching positions to broaden programs at several schools. In fact the final money document could mean cuts from the program as it stood last year. If this happens our already shaky position will slip lower on the state scale.

For years schools have gone downhill from the lack of proper funding, now the state says do something or else. County Court is really up against it. To do what needs to be done would mean almost doubling the tax rate for county operation and a $5 million to $7.5 million bond issue to fix up what should have been done little by little over the past. This is not likely and the problems will just grow and become more costly.

South Carolina Man Shot On Interstate

Loudon and Roane County Sheriff's officers are investigating the shooting of a South Carolina man who was struck by a car which reportedly came in the open window of the car he was riding in on I-40 early Saturday morning.

The wounded man, William Johnson 49, Greenville, S.C., a cab driver, is in Oak Ridge Hospital in critical condition with a .22 caliber slug in his chest.

Johnson and two women companions were on their way to Kingston to visit one of the ladies' husband who reportedly is in jail there.

Johnson was riding in the rear seat of the car. In the front were Hazel Alexander, identified as Johnson's girlfriend, and her daughter-in-law, Judy Ann Williams.

Mrs. Alexander said that she and the three were driving along I-40 about three miles east of Gallier Road Exit about 10 a.m. Saturday Johnson cried out that he had been shot. She said they stopped just down the highway and called the Roane County Sheriff's office. It was later determined that at the time of the shooting the car was inside the Loudon County Sheriff Guy Russell said that conflicting statements were taken from the two women. Mrs. Alexander said she did not hear any shot or voice before Johnson cried out "they got me in the heart."

Mrs. Williams, who's husband, Terry, is Roane County Jail, said she heard a loud shot.

Officers from both counties are still investigating. Sheriff Russell said Monday that Johnson was still unable to talk to officers about the shooting.

Johnson and two women companions were on their way to Kingston to visit one of the ladies' husband who reportedly is in jail there.

Teenager, TVA Guard Save Youth's Life

A 14 year old Lenoir City boy literally owes his life to another teenager and a TVA Safety officer. David T. Marsh, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Marsh, Martel Road, Lenoir City, was pulled from Melton Hill Lake Wednesday afternoon with no heart beat and not breathing.

L.J. Brown said when he arrived Paul and Wilburn were continuing to work over the youngster. After several more minutes and when breathing was stronger Marsh started expelling fluids from his lungs. L.J. Brown said he had to pull the youth's tongue from the back of his mouth several times. A TVA oxygen pack was used starting about 7:43. The officers reported that after 10 to 15 breaths the youth regained full breathing and was transferred to a Rescue Squad Ambulance and was taken to Fort Sanders Hospital. Officer Wilburn said.

Marsh, his brother-in-law Harry Crawley and Paul were swimming along the public recreation area on the Loudon County near Melton Hill just above the dam about 7:15 p.m. Wednesday when the drama took place.

Crawley and Paul missed Marsh, but thought he had gone to nearby trees. After a few minutes they started looking for the youth in the water. They told TVA Safety Lt. Virgil Brown later that about 10 minutes had passed when Crawley was walking about four feet of water some 20 feet from the bank stepped on the arm of the youth.

They dragged Marsh to the bank. At 7:18 Officer Wilburn arrived. He asked if any of the 20 persons who had gathered knew how to administer mouth to mouth resuscitation. Paul said he did. His mother, Mrs. Frederick said Paul had been taught the life saving skill while attending a diabetic clinic. He has been diabetic since he was 10.

Wilburn, according to Lt. Brown, cleaned the sand and mud out of Marsh's mouth and as Paul began the mouth to mouth, Wilburn began to give the youth closed chest heart massage. It took them nearly 10 minutes to get a faint heart beat and irregular breathing from the youngster.

Virgil Brown later that about 10 minutes had passed when Crawley was walking about four feet of water some 20 feet from the bank stepped on the arm of the youth.

They dragged Marsh to the bank. At 7:18 Officer Wilburn arrived. He asked if any of the 20 persons who had gathered knew how to administer mouth to mouth resuscitation. Paul said he did. His mother, Mrs. Frederick said Paul had been taught the life saving skill while attending a diabetic clinic. He has been diabetic since he was 10.

Wilburn, according to Lt. Brown, cleaned the sand and mud out of Marsh's mouth and as Paul began the mouth to

School Board Approves $5 Million Building Program

The Loudon County School Board presented the County Court Budget Committee a package building program, almost identical to the one proposed by the county-wide school survey team from U-T. Then got a cold reception to the "do it all now" $5 million proposal.

Last October Superintendent Edward Headlee presented the court with a four year $8 to $10 million building program. After learning of the planned school survey, the court hedged and said they wanted to see what the survey team said and they would consider the entire building program in one bond issue.

All of this was taking place under a threat from the State Department of Education to cut off state funds if the schools if the court did not pass a resolution authorizing the sale of bonds to correct major deficiencies in a number of county school buildings. The state had ordered Glendale School closed after this year and cited a number of major problems with the school.

The board is discussing the building program for about a hour in the special meeting court this evening. the prospect of the Lenoir City school system being consolidated into the county system. "If we knew what was going on I am for doing everything at one time."

Duckworth asked that a meeting of the county court, county board of education, Lenoir City school board and city council be set up to get the consolidation issue out in the open and find out what the Lenoir City leaders are thinking.

"We are sitting here afraid to do anything because of consolidation, but we have got to move on school improvements. We will just have to lay down the law to Lenoir City," Duckworth said.

Judge William Russell said he would request the meeting with the Lenoir City group immediately following the scheduled 8 p.m. called session of County Court Thursday night at the courthouse.

When the School Board was presenting their building program to the budget committee, Chairman Bailey suggested the use of a rural bond issue, which in effect would cut off participation on the bond proceeds from Lenoir City. The city gets one-third of all county funds for schools based on the school tax take from county taxes collected in Lenoir City.

The borrowing of $100,000 for the school improvements would cut the school budget by that amount getting the school budget request down to near $3 million for next year, but still above what the budget committee seems willing to recommend to the county court.

A delegation of Glendale parents was at the meeting. Group spokesman Dick Waterhouse said that the $2,000 sought for the school would put it in acceptable condition for up to eight years of additional use. During this time he said the county should be making plans to build a new school at Glendale. He said if a new school was built there the students who are now being taken to Lenoir City Schools by their parents, would return to Glendale. At every opportunity Waterhouse spoke conditionally that a school should be maintained in the community.

The budget committee kept asking how long the school board planned to operate Glendale if funds to improve it were approved. There was no definite answer given, but the School Board, in a meeting with the students in a K-8 school program.

In the school board meeting earlier in the evening it was evident that the board preferred a rural school bond issue which would not have Lenoir City participate in the proceeds. If there was a "General Obligation" issue the total bond sale for the county to get $5 million would have to be $7.5 million. Chairman Bailey said that Lenoir City Schools have a $200,000 surplus this year, and to add more money to their treasury when they did not have anything to spend it for would be foolish.

When discussing the proposed building program, Bailey said the board should make very near abandoning their promise to the Glendale parents about seeking funds to repair the school and keep it open. Finally they decided to repair Glendale, but not make any promise of how long the school would operate, if the

The following proposal for a one-shot school building program for Loudon County was approved by the County Board of Education last Friday night and presented to the County Budget Committee. The recommendations are almost identical to what was recommended by the U-T survey team, except in the case of Glendale School.

LEUDON COUNTY SCHOOL BUILDING PROGRAM - 1975
Survey Recommendations
-Philadelphia Elementary - Extensively remodel existing building to provide additional classrooms (4) and library facilities. Remove old gymnasium and construct new gymnasium auditorium complex (10,000 sq. ft. size).
-Steekee Elementary (K-8) - Minor remodeling of existing building. Construct new addition to house grades 1-3 from Davis and library facilities.
-Davis Elementary - Consolidate with Steekee to make a K-8 school.
-Loudon Jr High (K-8) - Remodel existing building to add ceiling, fluorescent lighting, and air conditioning. Construct additional space for classrooms for Loudon Elementary to include a gymnasium-auditorium complex and a library-media center.
-Loudon High - Remodel industrial arts area to include permanent facilities for health occupations classrooms. Remodel kitchen area to conform to fire code. Pave parking areas and driveways.
-Broadler Elementary - Close and consolidate with Eaton Elementary and Highland Park Elementary. Bus transportation to be provided by the county.
-New Providence Special Ed. Center - Remodel and re-equip to serve as the special education facility for Loudon County for all handicapped children within the school district. Other school systems may participate by contractual agreement with the Loudon County Board of Education.
-Eaton Elementary (K-8) - Extensive remodeling to oldest section of existing building. Construct additional classroom space to house growing student population and additional students from Broadler.
-Highland Park Elementary (K-8) - Remodel old building and construct new addition to include classroom and storage-room areas.
-Glendale Elementary - The Board has already decided to remodel Glendale and fix it to meet State requirements.
-Greenback (K-12) - Remodel existing building to include primary physical education area, science lab-classroom, facility, library area, band-music area, and additional cafeteria space. Construct additional classrooms (2) to replace science-lab addition and construct new auditorium (500 seats) to replace library-bandroom complex. These schools would be closed under this plan. All remodeling and new construction would utilize through-the-wall units to provide both heating and air conditioning. These improvements will enable the schools to be utilized twelve months a year if desired.

County Court should remember that the schools are the number one recipient of county funds and the people they put on the board that runs the schools should be people who are interested in the COUNTY schools and would take the time to find out for themselves what goes on inside the school and the condition of the physical plant.

It is clear that the schools will not get the budget that will help get Loudon High School accredited in the next two years, or will provide additional teaching positions to broaden programs at several schools. In fact the final money document could mean cuts from the program as it stood last year. If this happens our already shaky positions will slip lower on the state scale.

For years schools have gone downhill from the lack of proper funding, now the state says do something or else. County Court is really up against it. To do what needs to be done would mean almost doubling the tax rate for school operation and a $5 million to $7.5 million bond issue to fix what should have been done little by little over the past. This is not likely and the problems will just grow and become more costly.

An Editorial

School Board Resignations Cause For Concern

by Larry Cate, Editor
The Loudon County School System is facing a double crossroad, or crisis to use stronger language. One of the major issues is the staggering 1975-76 budget and the proposed $5 million building program. The other is the prospect of at least two and possibly three members of the present seven member school board resigning before this month is out.

It is all but definite that School Board Chairman Jim Bailey, an 18 year veteran, and Ciel Miller, some 20 years on the board, are going to resign. Another member, Lester Thomas, also is considering the move.

Why? Because the three are eligible to draw substantial state retirement pensions under the program which will expire on July 1. Each of the three has a month for each year of service they have on the school board. This would mean $100, approximately in Thomas' case and about $132 a month in Miller's case.

Should they retire, and it can be expected, the county court will face the prospect of appointing their replacements. We have already heard some talk of deals which would further the interests of individuals and not the schools and students. Mr. Bailey is from Lenoir City, Miller from Loudon and Thomas from Philadelphia. Several years ago when Ernest Thompson of Philadelphia retired his vacancy was filled by a Lenoir City man who has made an excellent board member.

But this does not present an equitable situation. The board is now dominated by the Second and Fifth Districts where only four of the 12 county schools are located. The present school board has a good record of supporting the total system and not just a segment of the county they represent, but with three new members and the prospect the appointments would further imbalance the distribution of the membership, we can see potential problems.

In recent months the school board has been more active and more vocal in their control over the system. We can find one fault and that is that the board members do not get enough first hand information on the conditions at the schools. Seldom do they visit the schools. We would guess that not one member of the board visited as many as half the schools during the past school year.

Hartsell-Raines Vows Pledged

Miss Martha Jane Hartsell became the bride of Gary Lynn Raines in ceremonies June 7 at 7:30 p.m. at Greenback Memorial Baptist Church. Rev. Clarence Sexton performed the double ring ceremony before an altar of arches entwined with greenery with lighted tapers. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Hartsell, Route 3, Lenoir City. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Homer Raines, Route 1, Greenback. Wedding music was presented by Larry Itson on the organ and Mrs. Ann Fugh, flutist. Special selections were

"Whither Thou Goest", "Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "Color My World". The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of bridal satin, featuring a mandarin collar of Chantilly lace and long full sleeves of matching lace. Her train of Chantilly lace was detachable and she wore a chapel length veil held by a Juliet cap and trimmed in Chantilly lace. She carried a cascade of yellow roses, daisies and baby's breath.

Miss Linda Myers of Maryville was Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were: Lisa Tarwater, Terri Rogers and Mrs. Kim Shepherd, all of Greenback; Miss Pam Gibson of Charleston was flower girl. They all wore dresses of yellow cotton featuring a mandarin collar, short puffed sleeves and eyelet apron trimmed in eyelet lace. Miss Myers and Little Miss Gibson carried baskets of daisies and multi-colored pomps and the bridesmaids carried nosegays of the same flowers.

Homer Raines, father of the groom, served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were Rex Shepherd and David Steele of Greenback and Ronnie Becker of Alcoa. Dwayne Carver of Greenback was ring bearer. A reception was held at the church following the ceremony given by Mrs. Shirley Bell. Those assisting were Mrs. Ruby Delozier, Mrs. Betty Simpson, Mrs. Katherine Jackson, Mary Lynn Curtis, Jill Bell and Sherry Counts. Mrs. Micki Ritchey kept the Bride's Book. Following a wedding trip to Gallitburg the couple will be at home in Lenoir City.

The bride is a sophomore at UT and is employed at UT in the Office Administration Department. The groom is a computer operator at American National Bank Data Processing Center. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Lane, Jeff and Richard, Hendersonville; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell, Oak Ridge; Betty Tenpeny, Nashville; Mrs. Ruby Tenpeny, Murfreesboro; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Gibson, Kim and Pam of Charleston, and Miss Peachie Snodgrass of Morristown.

Eight one ounce bags of marijuana were found in a ditch along Hickory Creek Road just off Highway 70 near Eaton Crossroads last Friday afternoon. Chief Deputy Luke Bright said this week.
Bright stated that a resident of the area reported seeing someone throw two paper bags in the ditch and suspected a drug drop was involved. When officers Jake Chapman and Allen Clemmer arrived the bags had not been picked up.
One person, not identified by the officers, has been arrested and charged with possession of marijuana for resale.

Officer Charged In Kidnapping

A Sweetwater Police Officer, Roy Moore has been charged with kidnapping a 16 year old Loudon County girl. Moore was arrested on a warrant taken by the girl's mother on June 17. He was later freed under $3,500 bond pending a General Sessions Court hearing Friday at the Justice Center.
Officers in Loudon County said that Moore was reported to have taken the girl, who resides just inside Loudon County on Rt. 3 Sweetwater to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., about the first of June and returned just before his arrest.
A source in Monroe County said that Moore was the principal witness in a large drug case in that county which was dismissed after Moore failed to show for prosecution of the case.

Fort Loudoun Softball Classic To Be Tournament Of Champions

The second annual Fort Loudoun Invitational Softball Tournament will be held in Loudoun this weekend. Eighteen teams make up the field for this year's double elimination classic with five first round games being played on Friday night. A total of 25 games, three first round encounters, and advanced play into the winner's bracket and loser's bracket will fill the schedule on Saturday. Saturday games will be played on two fields, Loudoun Legion Field and the City Field next to the high school. Saturday's first game will be at 3:30 in the morning. Friday night's tournament opening is slated for 4:30.

Fort Loudoun Softball Classic Fri.—Sat.—Sun.

The tournament finals will be held on Sunday with at least three games and possibly four necessary to derive the initial champion.

Tickets are on sale in advance for $2.00 or if preferred $1.00 per day of the tourney. This year's tournament is one of the finest and well planned galas ever put on by a community. The tournament is sponsored by the Loudoun Recreation Department. Extensive planning and organizing can be credited to Loudoun Recreation Director Bill Birkholz and to the Fort Loudoun Classic Tournament Director Mr. Fred Mode. Both have been as busy as bees in seeing last minute details are in perfect order for this big event.

The names of the teams alone constitute great softball play but to put them in a showdown three-day tournament will give the sport fans of Loudoun, Loudoun County and the surrounding area more to talk about than words can be said. Only to see it will some of the facts be realistic enough to believe.

A quick run down of the tournament field finds three teams entered from Loudoun and one from Lenoir City. A closer check of the teams and the preview looks as such:

West End of Athens...coached by Kenneth Charles and placed third in last year's Loudoun Labor Day Softball Invitational Tournament.

Beverly of Knoxville...is coached by Mike Haum who handles third base and will be one of the power hitters in the tournament. Mike was an All-Tournament selection and the home run king of last year's Fort Loudoun Classic.

Hamilton Bank of Loudoun, coached by Don Carter, this team has become an active participant of most of the tournaments held throughout the area this summer and placed third in last year's Loudoun Labor Day Softball Invitational.

O'Kain Insurance of Oak Ridge, coached by J. C. Lyons and a true tournament competitor.

The Athletic House of Knoxville, coached by Sam Newman, this team excels as a defensive team with sparks of power.

Union Valley of Knoxville, coached by Earl Jones, a good defensive club with Kent Rose the team's best power hitter.

Hamilton First National Bank of Oak Ridge, coached by Jimmy Smith, was a state contender last year, won Loudoun Labor Day Invitational, features speed and power topped by the Labor Day tourney MVP Arnold Hawkins, who also was crowned the home run king. All American Athletic of Knoxville is coached by Bill Livesay and features Brent Carter in the outfield, whose throwing arm will rife down many a base runner. He is also an excellent batter.

Saint Luke's Saints of Chattanooga, coached by Dr. John R. Morris, won the state church league championship, placed fourth in the World Tournament and has been the top attraction of the annual Lenoir City Eaton Softball Invitational in past summers.

Chadwell Meats of Knoxville, coached by Gary Spade, little is known of this team but for a tournament of this type they are sure to be worthy competitors.

Lenoir City, always ready for a big tournament this Lenoir City team has played with the best and has standouts Junior Collins in the outfield and first baseman Gerald McCorky to match talents with the best. Coached by Xan Walker.

Bank of Loudoun County...they too are long time tournament competitors and with Yancy Hampton setting the pace can be explosive.

Amvets Post No. 59 of Johnson City...is coached by David Stout and is currently second in the Johnson City Open League standings and third in district with a 25-13 record. Top players are shortstop Harvey Eddleman and hitter Dell Garland.

Loudoun Merchants, Coach Earl Russell has brought this team along over the past couple of years to be capable of playing with any team in any tournament. Shortstop Donnie Darnell, Early Bird Invitational Most Valuable Player, will anchor a steady defense.

Bank of Williamsburg, coached by Jim Roland, has won nine of their last 10 tournaments including the Eastern Kentucky Invitational. This team has great speed and features All World player outfielder Steve Rodgers.

Trentham Builders of Knoxville, coached by Gerald Glenn was runner-up in last year's Loudoun Labor Day Invitational Tournament.

Easy Shop WACO's of Louisville, coached by Jim Davenport, this team is the Kentucky State Industrial League Champions and runner-up in the World Industrial Tournament from last year.

Central Methodist of Knoxville, coached by Bob Moore, won last year's Fort Loudoun Classic and is eager to defend the title this year.

While the teams are preparing to give Loudoun a real sample of softball at its best this weekend the Loudoun Recreation Department will also be offering some lucky fans an opportunity to take home a 12 gauge shotgun as an added part of this year's tournament program.

Pond Creek Comes To Life In Softball Play

The Pond Creek Mill softball team has come alive in the Loudoun Recreation softball league. The "Mill" men captured three games last week with Thursday night's effort putting the topping to the cake.

Pond Creek nipped Union Carbide 4-3 in a gallant seventh inning rally. Behind by a 3-0 count the surging Pond Creek team came up with four runs in the bottom of the seventh inning of Jerry Alexander's double and Marlon Brown's triple. Union Carbide was led by Gene Viars and Jim Birkholz with a pair of hits.

SATURDAY MORNING MINOR LEAGUE BASEBALL—Loudon Recreation Field Manager Jerry Foster "tees" up the ball in the pitching machine as he over sees the Saturday morning instructional play for the young baseball stars the future at Legion Field. Jerry had a new experience last weekend when a girl made her appearance in the batter's box. Mr. Foster is understood to have shown no mercy, giving "iron mike" the electricity to throw the ball...the young lady answered with a base hit.

Big Atomic Weekend Planned For July 4th
 Atomic Speedway will open and close one of East Tennessee's wildest weekends of racing on July 3.
 A 100-lap late model sportman event — the Independence 100 — is scheduled the night of July 3 at the high-banked dirt oval. A regular weekly show on July 5 is to be the site of an $800 bonus payoff for the most consistent driver over a three night span.
 Sandwiched between the Atomic races is the Firecracker 100 the night of July 4 at Knoxville Raceway. That's where the bonus money comes in.
 The driver who accumulates the fewest points for the three races takes the bonus. The winner of each race is to get one point, two for second, three for third, etc.
 Should a driver be fortunate enough to score a sweep his total take for three nights would total $3050. First prize for the Independence 100 is $1,000, $750 for the Firecracker 100 and $500 for the Saturday night event at Atomic.
 "With the bonus money coming over a span of three races, I believe fans in this area are in for some of the wildest driver ever," said Atomic owner Bob Martin. Then, too, there's another incentive for drivers at Atomic. Martin has posted a $100 bonus for the one shattering the two-year-old Qualifying record. Herman Goodard set the 13.72-second mark (76.413 miles per hour).
 Prior to the big weekend another weekly event is on tap Saturday night at the speedway. Action begins at 8:30. Sportman drivers are to compete in a 30-lap main event.

Madisonville Rally Overshadows Lenoir City Home Run Barrage

The Lenoir City Connie Mack baseball team, fashioning the possible most improvement of any team in the Fayette County Mack League since the start of the season, ran into the league elite during the past eight days.
 The Panthers were barely nipped by a veteran Athens team 9-8 only eight days ago at Civitan Field in a heart breaking setback. A jaunt to Maryville and an encounter with the Maryville Bankers resulted in an 11-3 loss on Thursday night. The Bankers wasted no time, scoring four runs in the bottom of the first inning to take control of the contest.
 On Monday night Madisonville visited the Lenoir City Connie Mackers. The Monroe Countians, who disposed of the Panthers with ease in their first meeting 10-0, found ace right hander Mike McConkey in a tangle measure job but falling behind early 7-3.
 Three Lenoir City home runs, a tape measure job by first baseman Jeff Walker and a couple of chip shots just over the 245-center field fence by Mike McConkey and Ken McNabb provided the Panthers with the momentum through five innings.
 Madisonville's three run home run and four RBI's for the game, match-up the home and home exhibition baseball play with the Lenoir City Connie Mack team last Saturday night.
 In the first game of a two game match-up the home standing Lenoir City scored a 12-0 triumph on six hits and six Loudon errors.
 Joey Cunningham set Loudon down on three hits and was backed by Mike McConkey's three run home run and four RBI's for the game.
 Mike McCall was the losing pitcher for Loudon. The lefty gave up six hits and walked three.
 In the second game the Loudon Indians tallied the deciding run in the seventh inning to squeeze by the Lenoir City nine 7-6.
 Tom Brown was the winning pitcher out dueling Jimmy Smith.
 The deciding run came as Bob Brown walked for Loudon

Swim And Stay Fit Red Cross Activity

Since 1914 the American Red Cross has been engaged in a program of water safety designed to save lives.
 Swimming has long been recognized as one of the best activities for building and maintaining strength and fitness. In view of the continuing interest in physical fitness, it is appropriate for the American Red Cross to include in its water safety program the Swim and Stay Fit.
 Swim and Stay Fit is a planned activity to encourage people to swim regularly and frequently until 50 or more miles are reached. It should be clear that this is not a marathon, not a race, not competitive, not an endurance contest. It's goal is to improve the physical fitness of the swimmer.
 The values of swimming are numerous. It can benefit the mind as well as the body. Swimming improves circulation, control of body movements, promotes deeper breathing, strengthens abdominal muscles, develops organic strength and vigor, increases movement in joints and releases tensions. This program is not reserved for a select few with superior swimming ability, but also for those with lesser swimming ability, who would like to swim and gain strength and stay fit.
 At each visit to the pool, the swimmer must swim 440 yards. This does not have to be

Pirates Blast A's In Minor League Baseball

In the Saturday morning Minor League Baseball contest at Legion Field the Pirates slugged past the Athletics 12-6.
 Tim Russell had three hits and Randy Arp and Tom Lennox (two each) set the tempo for the Pirates.
 James Keer and Randy Scarborough had two hits each for the A's.
 Micky Snyder, the first girl to play in the Loudon Recreation Baseball Program, had a single for the losing Athletics.
 Steve Ward powered a triple and two home runs as the Orioles beat the Yankees 8-5. Ward has now hammered out four home runs in three games to date.
 Troy Kiser and Andy Woods both scored two runs for the Yankees.

Yankees, Indians Are BR Victors

The Co-op Yankees and the Wattenbarger Indians were victorious in last week's Babe Ruth baseball action.
 The Yankees handed the Stop-and-Shop Athletics an 18-9 loss. The A's made 13 errors in the game that saw the Yankees send 12 men to the plate in the fifth inning. The eight runs and then added six more in the seventh.
 Steve Dean was the winning pitcher but had to have relief help from Dave Black as the Athletics scored six times in the bottom of the seventh inning. Gary Brown's grand slam home run was the big blow of the night for the A's.
 Joe Watson suffered the pitching loss, giving up eight hits and nine base on balls.

Yankees, Indians Are BR Victors

Conway Dukes led the Yanks with three hits and four runs scored.
 In the second game the Wattenbarger Indians scored eight runs but failed to register a hit. Conway Tack of the Bank of Loudon City Brewers or his relief help Tim Brewer scored three runs in the seventh.
 The Indians however used seven Brewer errors and 12 walks to account for their runs. Freddie Starrist stole three bases and scored three runs to aid the victorious Indians.
 Sam Theard was the winning pitcher, limiting the Brewers to just three hits. The Indians won the game with a five run uprising in the sixth inning.

Last Week For Tennis Sign-Up

The Loudon Recreation Department doubles tennis tournament set for June 30 through July 5 has added a breaking point for two divisions in the advanced, intermediate and beginners class. This is important to state on the entry form as to whether the dual is requesting Class A or Class B competition.

AGENT'S FEE INCREASED
 On May 28 Governor Ray Blanton signed into law a bill which will increase license agent's fees to 30 cents per license.
 This does away with the percentage method of figuring this fee which ranges from 10 to 25 cents depending upon the license sold. This 30 cent license agent's fee will be charged on all licenses and permits beginning July 1, 1975. This fee will be in addition to the cost of the license or permit. For instance, a person buying a combination license will pay $7.50 for the license plus a 30 cent agent fee for a total of $7.80.

VFW Giants Take Dixie Youth Lead

The Loudon VFW Giants have moved on top in the Dixie Youth Baseball Standings after wearing down the Union Carbide Reds Monday night 14-9.

Bruce Arden was the winning pitcher for the Giants and gave up but three hits. Most of the runs scored were the result of eight fielding errors by the Reds.

Tommy Powers was hung with the pitching loss for the Reds, but was most effective at bat, collecting all three of the Reds base hits.

Zell Hawkins had a triple and two singles to pace the Giants. The young centerfielder also was commended on a "major league" throw to third base to nail a base runner.

The Giants opened the game with five runs and tallied five more in the fifth inning to gain the victory. The Giants had nine hits and the Reds helped the cause with 11 errors.

The loss left the Reds with a 2-3 season record.

In the second game of the night the Union Carbide Pirates pounded out 16 base hits and the South Chair Company Phillies made 11 errors as the Pirates won handily 18-0.

Winning pitcher Rondall Brannan pitched three innings for the Pirates and struck out eight of the first nine men he faced.

The Phillies were minus five regulars and the Pirates took full advantage with six runs in the second inning and eight more in the fourth.

Rondall Brannan led the pirate hitting with six runs batted in, two doubles and a home run that completely cleared the fence. Brannan is the first Dixie Youth player in Loudon to hit the ball out of the park.

Curt Wayman and Tommy Russell also had inside the park round-trippers, for the Pirates. Neal Niles was the best for the Phillies with two hits and two runs scored.

Watson Ands Lawson Back Atop Golf Standings

The hectic American Division of the Loudon City Golf League has taken another shake up in the standings. Just as John Cobb and Richard Archer sealed in the driver's seat the dust ran into a bye round for the week and become the challenger. Cobb and Archer have tumbled to second place in the standings with 184 team points to date.

Monty Lawson and Gordo Watson who dropped as low as third in recent weeks, have battled back to regain the division lead with 195 team points to date.

John Lennox and Buck Kirkland turned in a low net team score of 71 to increase their team totals to 181 points and a tie for second place. Lennox and Kirkland have made the greatest jump in the standings over the last month and may very well be the team to beat by the latter part of July.

Ed Swenson and Gerald Cole also carded an overall 71 to share in the low net team play and have now stepped into the third place slot.

Butch Early and Coye Blankenship's round of 71 made the low net team honor a three-way affair. Blankenship moved into fourth place with 169 team points and are not hardly in contention for the lead at this time with 169 team points.

Harold Grimes was the low individual medalist for the American Division with a smooth round of 32.

Jack Ferguson and Glen McNabb are becoming as regular as a well precisioned clock keeping a consistent pace over the pack in the National Division. Ferguson and McNabb have become so used to holding the division lead, currently have 209 team points, that the true race may result in what team finishes in the runner-up position.

Billy Chambers and Junior Mills have been the closest challenger over the weeks and now they find themselves slowly losing ground on the pace setting team. Behind by 15 points, Chambers and Mills are behind by 30 team points this week with 189 total.

Paul Brakehill and Inky Swiney are in third place and point over Larry Lane and Tom Lambert.

Earl Millaps and Jim Huff set the team standards last week in the National Division with a combined score of 69.

Jack Kincaid and Jim Huff tied for the medalist honors with individual rounds of 34.

Ricky Moore Is Jr. Golf Champ

Ricky Moore of Lenoir City and Chris Griffin of Harrison won low medal honors Tuesday as they led their divisions at the Jackson Golf and Country Club July 7-8. Thirteen made the cut in the upper age bracket, 10 in the younger group.

Young Moore beat a pair of Bearden High golf stars, Steve Thompson and Bobby Tipton, in an extra hole playoff after the three had tied for low score in the 15-17 age group with two-over-par 76.

Young Griffin shot a 77 to win out by two shots over Tim Heidman of Farragut in the 12-14 age division.

In all, 23 players qualified for spots in the state meet at the Jackson Golf and Country Club July 7-8. Thirteen made the cut in the upper age bracket, 10 in the younger group.

Moore had to go three extra holes to shake off his rivals for the medal. All three players parred the first playoff hole. Tipton dropped out with a bogey at No. 3, and Thompson bogged No. 3, leaving Moore, who parred them all, as the medalist.

There was also a playoff for the last two qualifying spots in the older age division. Ben Harris and Scott Dreyer won out over Fred Parsons in that one after all three had fired 8s over the regulation distance. Parsons drew the first alternate spot.

15-17 DIVISION

71 — Ricky Moore (Lenoir City), Steve Thompson (Harrison), Bobby Tipton (Bearden). Moore won medalist.

72 — Sam Pavitt (Knoxville).

73 — Phil Smith (Farragut), David Bousin (Alcoa).

74 — Ted Meyer (Kingsport), John Set (Knoxville).

75 — Mike Bartholomew (Harrison), John Greer (Knoxville), Glenn Smith (Knoxville).

Make your savings plan work hard for you. At Hamilton Bank, you can earn high rates. And at Hamilton Bank, you'll find a variety of plans—one that makes sense for you. Look over the plans below. Decide how much you can save and for how long. Then save with the Hamiltons. It's one way to know you're getting the most for the money you save. And remember, Hamilton Bank is a lot more than just a place to save your money. We'll work with you on solving your financial problems. We'll show you ways to save time and money. You've got a friend and neighbor at Hamilton.

A Regular Savings Account is for you if you need to make frequent deposits and withdrawals.

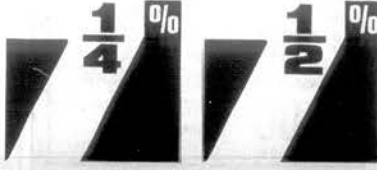

A Golden Savings Account earns you more money than a Regular Account. It's for you if you plan to leave your money on deposit for ninety days.

A Big Six Account earns even higher interest. If you can leave money with us for twelve months, you'll really make it work for you.

A Super Six Account is for people who can wait thirty months to withdraw their money. It earns one-half of a percent more than the Big Six Account... 6-1/2% a year!

A Seven Plus Account earns seven and one-quarter percent—a nice reward if you can wait for forty-eight months. Start with $1,000 and watch your money grow!

The Seven and One-Half Percent Account earns you the highest interest rate allowed by law. It takes $1,000 to start and seventy-two months to mature.*

age sat and played on the thing through the many passing years.

Our other picture is of two Loudon boys playing baseball. Just who the ump is behind the plate, we do not know. But we are sure he is well known to many of the Good Old Days crowd.

Quite possibly, many of our new people in the Loudon area will not find this old picture group of much interest but to those from the Good Old Days, these people were a part of life in this era of Loudon.

We were talking to King Black the other day. He was talking about when he first came to Loudon to live and how the First Baptist Church building and grounds had changed with the passing of time. One thing he mentioned was the big ditch that ran beside the church. Of course, it is still there today but is concrete and covered in part by the church building. We were talking about the old house that stood where the church parking lot is now. At that time it was down in a hole and sat well below the level of the highway. I don't recall now, but he told me who owned this place years ago. The last family I can recall living there was the Hicks family. I am sure there were others. It sure was a great improvement to have this area leveled off as it is now. I guess this bank and the lower level where the house sat was caused by the building of the Highway 11. I could be wrong on this, I really can't recall.

A couple of weeks ago we ran a group picture which was loaned to us by Shad Haskins and we thought that other than Shad, Pee Wee, Shad's brother was in the picture. Well, we have had some comments on this and some one thought the late Harry Summers was in the group. We thought possibly this might have been a church or family group, but it could have been a family reunion. One other comment we had was that the man with the beard might have been Mr. Cousins, who is now deceased. We believe Mr. Cousins was a larger man than this but we could be wrong.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Divorce Rate Here Below National Average

How high is the divorce rate in Loudon County compared with that in other communities? How many local residents are divorced? How many have remarried after being divorced?

For the great majority of men and women in the local area marriage is a once-in-a-lifetime undertaking. For others, who start out with equally high hopes, their marriages end up on the rocks.

In general, the divorce rate has been on the rise for a number of years and is still mounting. This is indicated in the latest surveys by the Department of Commerce, the National Center for Health Statistics and others.

In Loudon County, it appears, the number of marital splits is on the low side. There are fewer divorces and separations, in proportion to population, than in most parts of the United States.

According to the latest tabulations, some 41 out of every 1,000 local residents over the age of 14 are either divorced or separated from their spouses.

The comparable national average is 53 per 1,000. In the East South Central States the rate is 39 and, in the State of Tennessee, 52. During 1974, the figures show there were approximately 970,000 divorces in the United States. That was 37,000 more than in 1973.

On the other hand, the number of marriages that took place in the year, since 1968, in fact, that a drop was recorded.

The decline, at a time when the population is larger than normal, is attributed to prevailing economic conditions. Many young people have postponed their marital plans.

Because of the decrease in marriages and the increase in divorces, there was 1 divorce in the year for every 2.3 marriages.

In Loudon County, according to the most recent figures, there are some 770 men and women who are divorced or separated.

Many others, who were once in the divorced column, have since remarried. In general, it has been found, there are about 2.5 such persons for every one who is currently divorced.

On that basis, it is estimated that there are about 1,930 local residents in that category.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Loudon County citizens: I would like to take this opportunity to publicly express my sincere thanks to everyone in Loudon and the surrounding communities for helping to make my student teaching experience one of the most rewarding events in my life. The numerous kind deeds you performed, and the friendship I made, will long be cherished by me.

I do plan to visit Loudon again soon. How can I stay away from such a lovely place that became my second home? Sincerely, Jane Ann Bradley

This week we are using the last of the group of pictures which came to us from Shad Haskins. These have created a lot of interest among our readers and we are very grateful to our good friend for thinking of us in this respect. All of us who grew up in Loudon in the 20's and 30's knew the Haskins family and possibly were more acquainted with Shad and Pee Wee than other members of their family.

There are two of these pictures. The first one we want to mention was made in front of the Court House, possibly in the middle or late 20's. We can only identify a part of the group. We recognize Roy Miller and Tim Wait. The others we don't know. The group was atop the old cannon which used to be on the large concrete slab on the Courthouse lawn. The cannon was removed during World War II and used as scrap metal in the war effort. I hated to see it removed, but, I guess, it served a better cause. Anyway, many of the kids my

Paul Aydelott Named Loudon County Soil Conservationist

Paul Aydelott is the newly appointed District Conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Loudon County Soil Conservation District, according to Clarence M. Richards, Area Conservator for Soil Conservation Service, USDA. Aydelott, a career worker, started with the Soil Conservation Service in 1968 as a college student trainee. He is a native of Centerville, Tennessee, and has worked with SCS in several field offices in Tennessee, including Lawrenceburg, Waverly, Gallatin and most recently in Memphis. He graduated from Middle Tennessee State University at Murfreesboro with a B.S.

degree in Plant and Soil Science in 1969, and from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, Illinois, with an M.S. degree in 1973. Aydelott served with the U.S. Army in Germany for two years. He is a member of the Soil Conservation Society of America and the honorary fraternity Delta Tau Alpha. He has received several other honors and awards.

Aydelott replaces Thelbert J. Hicks who is now working as a Resource Conservationist from the Knoxville Area Office of the Soil Conservation Service.

The new location of the recently moved SCS local office is on the second floor of the Bacon Building (old hospital) next to the office of the Agricultural Extension Service.

Assisting Aydelott in the work here is Roy M. Brooks, Jr., Soil Conservation Technician for SCS. Brooks has worked here for several years.

TVA Starts Mosquito Control Program

TVA has begun its annual fluctuations of water levels in seven Tennessee River main stream lakes to control lake-breeding mosquitoes. Water levels will be raised and lowered about one foot each week until early fall to disrupt mosquito breeding in Pickwick Landing, Wilson, Wheeler, Gutentags, Nickajack, Chickamauga, and Watts Bar Lakes.

On some reservoirs, water level fluctuations do not provide satisfactory control. For example, Kentucky Lake is too large for this type of operation to be practical, so helicopters are used periodically to spray mosquito breeding areas with Abate insecticide. Abate is a selective compound that is highly effective for mosquito control, but has very low toxicity to mammals and water organisms.

The planned fluctuations on main stream lakes are part of a yearly cycle of TVA water level management to control lake-breeding mosquitoes, particularly the malarial carrying species. This disease once was common along parts of the Tennessee River, but there has not been a confirmed case of locally contracted malaria in the region since 1948.

However, unusually heavy spring rains and resulting floods have brought out other species of mosquitoes that have created a nuisance in some areas of the region.

These are floodwater mosquitoes, which breed in low-lying grassy or wooded areas that flood occasionally, or in any small depression that can catch and hold water temporarily.

Control measures to reduce the numbers of floodwater mosquitoes require year-round cooperative work by local mosquito control organizations and TVA. TVA cooperates with cities and towns to help them establish mosquito abatement programs through technical advice and the demonstration of effective control techniques.

Communities wishing to establish mosquito control programs can obtain technical help through public health agencies and TVA's Water Quality and Ecology Branch at Muscle Shoals, Alabama.

TEA Field Rep. Named
A Sevier County educator has been selected by the Tennessee Education Association as a field representative for several East Tennessee counties.

Melvin Luttrell, a Title I federal program staff member with the Sevier County Board of Education, will join the TEA staff Aug. 1 as a Uniserv representative for Monroe, Roane, Loudon, Blount, Meigs, McMinn, and Polk counties.

The Uniserv program, with partial funding by the National Education Association, provides TEA members at the local level with a trained staff person to improve the service program for local teachers. The TEA field districts are being reorganized and expanded from eight to twelve, with each representative having a smaller number of members to serve.

Luttrell has been an active association leader in Sevier County, serving as president of his local education association in 1972-74. At the state level he has been a delegate to four TEA Representative Assemblies and served as chairman of the election committee in 1973.

He is a graduate of East Tennessee State University and has done graduate work at the University of Tennessee. He is married and is the father of two children. He and his family will be moving from Sevier County into the new Uniserv district within the next few weeks.

Pennys Believes In Loudon County... We Hope You Continue To Believe In Pennys!

Here is a summary of the status of major legislation before the Tennessee General Assembly at the close of the session.

ELECTION LAWS. Bills to provide for uniform statewide ballots and for postcard registration of voters have been signed into law by Governor Ray Blanton.

A bill to reconstitute the state election commission giving the majority party in the General Assembly a majority of the commission's seats was signed but found to be defective. Additional legislation in this area passed the Senate amended to take effect in 1977, but was referred to the House Calendar Committee from the floor. Similar legislation affecting all county election commissions was reset on the House calendar for January 1978, referred to Senate Calendar Committee.

Legislation to repeal the presidential primary statute was withdrawn, while a bill to amend the presidential primary and selection of convention delegate procedures was referred to Calendar Committee in the House and never moved out of the Senate State and Local Government Committee. Bills to require voter registration by party and party levers on all voting machines never moved from House and Senate State and Local Government Committees. Legislation to redraw the boundaries of the 8th, 7th, and 8th Congressional Districts passed House 16-23, was rejected by Senate 14-17. A run-off election law passed the House 39-31, was referred to Senate Finance, Ways and Means Committee from the floor.

ETHICS LEGISLATION. Two pieces of legislation providing for lobbyist registration and disclosure and campaign financial disclosure have been signed into law. A conference committee has been appointed to work out differences of opinion between House and Senate on a bill to prohibit certain practices as conflicts of interest by public officials and to provide for financial disclosure by these officials.

COMMERCE AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS. Governor Blanton has signed into law bills repealing the fair trade statutes on liquor and brand name items. The attorney general's consumer protection legislation passed the House as amended 47-7. The administration's consumer protection bill stalled in House Labor and Consumer Affairs Committee. A revision of the state's anti-trust laws was withdrawn from the House. All of these bills failed to be reported by Senate Commerce and Labor Committee.

ENERGY AND EN-

VIROENVMENT. A bill giving extraordinary powers to the Governor in an energy emergency has been signed into law. Legislation to create a state energy office to coordinate allocation and conservation programs has passed both houses in the same form.

A bill to require retailers to provide energy consumption information of appliances to consumers failed to gain a constitutional majority in the House, was stalled in Senate Commerce and Labor Committee. Energy facility siting legislation was withdrawn from the Senate.

TAXATION AND APPROPRIATIONS. The House and Senate have agreed on amendments to the appropriations bill cutting some $40 million out of the state budget and have sent the bill to the Governor. Legislation to maintain the sales tax rate at 2 1/2 percent for another year has been signed into law.

Highway, educational facilities, and public and mental health facilities bond bills have been signed by the Governor. A bill to increase the sales tax to 4 percent was withdrawn from the House. The House adopted a conference committee report on the severance tax, but the report was not moved in the Senate. Legislation to extend the sales tax to commercial leases was referred to House Calendar Committee, never moved from Senate Finance, Ways and Means Committee. A bill to exempt the elderly from sales tax on prescription drugs passed House 66-4, and one to exempt elderly with incomes less than $4800 from income tax on investment income was reset on House calendar for January 1976. Both of these measures failed to be reported by Senate Finance, Ways and Means Committee.

CRIMINAL LAW. A bill to repeal capital punishment was rejected by House and Senate Judiciary Committees. Legislation to increase penalties for drunken driving passed Senate as amended 7-1, but failed to be reported by House Judiciary Committee. Both Judiciary Committees will take up the revision of the criminal code and criminal procedure next year.

LABOR. Bills raising unemployment and workmen's compensation benefits have been signed by the Governor. A state minimum wage act stalled in House Labor and Consumer Affairs and Senate Commerce and Labor Committees. State and local public employees unionization bills were referred to House Calendar Committee, and reset on Senate calendar for next January after reference to Finance, Ways and Means Committee. WELFARE, HEALTH, EDUCATION. A bill renaming the Department of Public Welfare the Department of Human Services has been signed by the Governor. Legislation establishing a medical malpractice review board and providing for a joint underwriting pool for medical malpractice insurance has also been signed into law.

Licensing of social workers legislation was referred to House Calendar Committee after failing twice in the Senate. A bill to abolish and reconstitute the State Board of Education passed the House 57-35, failed to move from Senate Education Committee.

STATE GOVERNMENT. A major revision of the state retirement system has been enacted. Legislation to suspend cost of living raises for certain state officials for the upcoming fiscal year has passed both houses and sent to Governor for signature. A bill reestablishing the commission to determine the prevailing wage to be paid on all state construction projects has become law without the Governor's signature.

A bill creating a separate state department of tourist development passed House 87-0, but was rejected by Senate. Revision of contractors licensing board and requirements was referred to House Calendar Committee, stalled in Senate Commerce and Labor Committee.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY

(C) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

BY M. LEE SMITH

By any yard stick the new completed session of the General Assembly was a failure for Governor Ray Blanton and his new administration.

The General Assembly has moved rapidly in recent years toward the more conservative and business oriented view held by a majority of the General Assembly. In the first analysis it was a coalition of Republicans and conservative Democrats which defeated most of the Blanton proposals.

With these problems Governor Blanton succeeded on major issues only in repealing fair trade laws on liquor and brand name products and in thwarting attempts to increase the state sales tax.

Blanton failed in his efforts to repeal fair trade laws on beer, cigarettes and milk; levy a severance tax and extend the sales tax to commercial leases; establish a consumer protection bureau; require voter registration by party and a return to the party lever; increase truck weight limits; obtain tax relief for the elderly; prevent tax relief for Cook Industries of Memphis; and provide for recognition of public employee labor unions.

Many of these issues undoubtedly will be raised again in the second session beginning in January. Blanton has pledged a grass roots effort through his county patronage committees to persuade Democratic legislators to the Blanton point of view. Whether this approach will work remains to be seen.

With many volatile issues still pending before the General Assembly, clashes in the year between the legislature and the Democratic Governor may be mild by comparison with that which is yet to come in 1976.

When the Loudon County Purchasing Committee refused to approve other than the low bid for a road grader for First and Fourth District Road Commissioner Erik Millsaps last week, the Commissioner said he would not authorize the purchase of the equipment.

A week earlier the Purchasing Commission opened bids on the grader and the low bid was on a Galion machine. Commissioner Millsaps wanted to purchase the Caterpillar machine which was bid about $5,000 higher. After the Commission voted 5-0 to approve the low bid Millsaps said he would not order the equipment.

Squires R. P. Hamilton, Commission chairman, along with Squires Curtis Williams and Roy R. Hamilton, voted to approve the low bid. Squires J. J. Blair and James Harrook voted in favor of the Commissioner's wishes. Hamilton said it had always been the policy of the Commission to accept the lowest and best bid despite the wishes of the department or personalities involved.

In other action Morgan Potable Buildings was the apparent low bidder for three portable classrooms for Eaton School. The bid was for the firm was $43,400. Two other firms bids $52,000 and $52,490 on the units.

Tennessee Valley Culvert was the lowest of five bidders on furnishing metal culvert pipe to the county for the next year. The bids were based on a percentage discount and quantity delivery discount.

The Loudon County Herald was low bidder on the county's office supply and printing needs for the 1975-76 fiscal year. The Herald's successful bid was $2,933.43.

He was born near Ebenezer in Knox County (now Concord, Tennessee) on August 21, 1834 and later moved to Loudon, the son of William Harrison and Martha Lucy Harrison. However, both his marriage to Sarah Anne Clarke of Loudon and the subsequent marriage of their daughter Virginia to Dr. William Henry Harrison established a kinship with the Loudon Harrisons. He and his wife were the parents of five children but only the daughter and one son reached maturity. The son, Charles Sumner Harrison, owned and operated the Sumner Hotel and Annex in Loudon during the early nineteenth century. Later descendants of D.F. Harrison included six great grandchildren but only the daughter and one son reached maturity. The son, Charles Sumner Harrison, owned and operated the Sumner Hotel and Annex in Loudon during the early nineteenth century. Later descendants of D.F. WHAT IS IT?—No it is not a spider web or some type of modern painting. It is an inside, bottom to top picture of the radio communications tower at the Justice Center. Construction of the tower was completed last week. Technicians are now preparing to build the new high frequency console and transmitter at the facility. The tower is 240 feet high.

Median Age Here Put At 31.5 Years

How many of the important events of modern times have taken place within the lifetime of present residents of Loudon County?

What proportion of the local population goes back far enough in time to D-Day in 1944, when the Allies crossed the English Channel and reared in Loudon? They are Dr. W.B. Harrison, Mrs. Ben J. Simpson, William H. Jones, Mrs. John W. Simpson, all of Loudon and Mrs. Oscar H. Tedford, Jr. of Concord. The late James Oscar Harrison of Loudon was also a great grandchild.

Excerpts from letters written to Mr. Harrison at the House of Representatives in Nashville by his good friend William H. Browning in Loudon during May and June of 1870 relating to the establishment of the new county and other matters will appear in later issues of the Herald.

A new generation, to whom many of these happenings are of purely historical interest and not part of their personal memories, has sprung up in Loudon County.

Today, the figures show, there are more of these young people around, in proportion to the total population, than in the past.

The explanation is that in the years just after World War II, when the birth rate zoomed upward, babies were arriving on the scene in record numbers.

As a result, despite the fact that the birth rate has dropped considerably in the last few years, more than half the population of the United States is under age 30 at the present time.

Numerically, those in the 10 to 15 age group comprise the largest five-year segment in the country. About 10 percent of all Americans are in that bracket.

In Loudon County, the figures show, the median age of the population is 31.5, which means that there are as many local people below that age as there are above it.

Elsewhere in the United States the median age is now 28.1 and, in the State of Tennessee, approximately 28.0.

Julian Ends Army Course

Army Private Paul D. Julian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Julian, Route 1, Loudon, completed nine weeks of advanced individual training at the U.S. Army Infantry Training Center, Ft. Polk, La.

He received general training as a light weapons infantryman and as a mortar and recoilless rifle crewman, in addition to specialized weapons instruction.

He also was taught the proper use of high explosives and the placement, detection and disarming of mines.

Teamwork was emphasized while he learned to work as a member of a rifle squad, mortar squad or direct fire section.

THE BICENTENNIAL IS HERE AND NOW!

A series of periodic articles prepared by The Fort Loudoun Chapter of the Daughters of American Colonists

It was David Fleming Harrison of Loudon who was serving in the Tennessee House of Representatives representing Keoke County during the 36th General Assembly in 1869-71. It was an eventful time for those of us who call ourselves Loudon Cousins for it was during that period, in June 1870, that Loudon County came into being, one hundred and five years ago.

In 1877 he served as Justice of the Peace in Loudon County and Commissioner of Public Schools for the First Civil District of Loudon County. He was also sometime editor of Loudon Star, Mayor of Loudon, and in 1880 was Worshipful Master of the Loudon Masonic Lodge. He was a member and on the Board of Trustees of the First M.E. Church of Loudon whose church history states that he and his family were among the early pioneers of Methodism in this community and it was "due to the untiring efforts of D.F. Harrison that the brick building of hand-made bricks was erected" in 1874-1875.

D.F. Harrison was not of the John or James Harrison family—the first Harrisons, two brothers, who settled Harrison Bend near Loudon in Today we would describe Mr. Harrison as a civic and religious leader. In addition to being the duly elected Member of the House of Representatives in 1869-71, a Republican and a Conservative, he also served in the Tennessee State Senate, 40th General Assembly, when he was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the RESIGNATION of Henry Alexander Chambers, being seated December 8, 1877 and served to the end of the term, January 5, 1879, representing the counties of Loudon,

LET'S RESEAT CHAIRS

By Bonnie F. Shesley Assistant Extension Agent

Many valuable chair and seats have been discarded because of worn-out seats. These could have been easily restored. The art of weaving seats in chairs is an interesting craft. It can save you money and make these furnishings more attractive and useful. The cost of material and the time it takes to reweave the design is your only expense.

Miss Phyllis Inman, Agriculture Extension Service Craft Specialist will be in Loudon County August 19-21 for a special interest workshop on chair caning techniques. Twenty to twenty-five people will be able to participate.

If you would like to learn to cane, please call the Agriculture Extension Service at 438-2671 and register. You will then receive a list of supplies you will need for the workshop. A chair or stool can be caned at this workshop.

Brown Reunion September 7

The descendants of Bill and Annie Brown of Loudon will have an all-day reunion Sunday, September 7 at Union Carhide Park. All relatives are invited to attend.

LOUDON, TENN.

RESCUE SQUADMAN Ron McCowan and diver, Jess Sizer look inside a Volkswagen after the car was recovered from 40 foot deep water in a rock quarry at Hope Gap Wednesday night. It had been feared that someone was in the car when it plunged off a 70 foot cliff into the deep quarry water.

Diver, Squad Recover Car

With the help of a skin diver, the Loudon County Rescue Squad fished a 1974 Volkswagen out of a rock quarry at Hope Gap last Wednesday night thinking that one or two people might be trapped inside the vehicle. County Deputy Allen Clemmer said he was dispatched to the area about 6:50 p.m. after a Mrs. Thomas Shelton called and said that some people had pushed a car into the quarry. Clemmer said when he arrived bubbles were still coming from the 40 foot deep water where the car had plunged from a 70 foot cliff. Others at the scene told Clemmer that five young men had arrived at the quarry in the car and drove it to the top of the quarry. Later the car went into the water. Three of the boys came back to Melton Hill Lake, swam across and left in another Volkswagen. With this information the Rescue Squad was called to try and locate and recover the car. Clemmer and TVA Safety Officer Jimmy Howard, found several beer cans, a mirror and burn rim from the car near the quarry ledge. The Squad called in Jess Sizer of Philadelphia, a former Navy Frogman, to locate the car and secure a line to it, allowing a wrecker crew to bring the car out of the water. No one was found in the car. The vehicle was identified by manufacturers identification numbers and was found to belong to a man in Knoxville. Attempts to locate the owner were unsuccessful and there was no report of the car being stolen.

MAREMONT WORKER KILLED—Thomas E. Sexton, 35, Ten Mile, identified as an employee of the Maremont Corporation was one of three persons killed in a car-truck accident on I-40 near Hartman about 2:30 p.m. Monday. According to eye-witness accounts, Sexton's car (pictured above) was headed East in the Westbound lane of the highway when it struck a truck headon. A Kentucky man and his son burned to death in the truck following the collision sources said.

School Bonds On Agenda

A request from the County School Board for a bond issue to construct several new buildings and renovate other schools, the adoption of the 1975-76 county budget and tax rate, and the appointment of three new members to the County School Board head the July agenda of County Court. The session will be held at 9 a.m. Monday, July 7, in the main courtroom at the courthouse. The item on the agenda concerning school board members could bring two-fold action. The replacements for Jim Bailey, Clell Miller and Lester Thomas are expected to be made, and there is a strong indication that the county may set in motion action that would have the school board elected by the popular election in the future. This is a move that has had public support in the past and has recently gained support within the membership of county court.

The complete court agenda as released by County Judge William H. Russell is as follows:

St. Luke's Springs From Loser's Bracket To Win Second Annual Fort Loudoun Classic

St. Luke of Chattanooga, the defending State Church League Champions and fourth place finishers in the World Softball Tournament last summer, is the new Fort Loudoun Classic Invitational King.

The Chattanooga based team advanced to the winner's bracket finals opposite tournament runner-up Hamilton Bank of Oak Ridge by Saturday night.

On Sunday the Hamilton Bank of Oak Ridge romped to a 17-3 win and thus dropped St. Luke to a loser's bracket encounter with the Bank of Williamsburg, Ky.

These two teams had matched talent in the winner's bracket semi-finals with the Bank of Williamsburg carrying a 117 lead into the bottom of the seventh inning. St. Luke rallied and trailed by a 11-10 score and two outs when a routine game ending fly ball was dropped and two runs came across the plate for St. Luke and a 12-11 win.

In their second encounter St. Luke did not allow the Kentucky team much of a chance. The Chattanooga's blasted 21 hits and scored a convincing 26-6 decision.

St. Luke, gaining the right to again face the Hamilton Bank of Oak Ridge, surprised the Anderson County team if not the entire tournament crowd by posting back to back 14-5 and 18-11 wins to capture the second annual Fort Loudoun Classic. St. Luke hammered out seven home runs in the title game.

The Oak Ridge Hamilton Bank had won twice over the St. Luke team already this summer in tournaments other than the Fort Loudoun Classic.

The tournament, the best assembled group of softball talent to ever perform on the soils of Loudoun County in a softball gala of its type, certainly has the makings of one of the top softball attractions in the Southeast.

A run down of the three day tournament play was as such: Beverly lost past West End 10-6 to open the "Classic." Beverly was led by David Edgerton's home run and Rick Bayles' two singles. West End's Larry Howard and Larry Malone each had three hits.

Union Valley, who finished fourth in the tournament, lost its first game of the Classic to the Athletic House 7-6. Union Valley then went on a tear that covered five games and into the finals of the loser bracket. Amvets of Johnson City stopped the Loudoun Merchants 12-4. Amvets was led by Del Garland and Steve Meyer with three hits. Keith Roland, Jerry Russell, and Ronnie Starratt all had two hits for the Merchants.

WACO of Louisville, Ky. made their first appearance by defeating Beverly 9-5. Ronnie Barber homered in the win for WACO.

O'Kain Insurance out of Oak Ridge nipped WACO 10-9. Mike Payne, Leslie Fox and Jim Fox had two hits each for the winners. Paul Genardi hit a home run for WACO.

The Hamilton Bank of Oak Ridge etched their Anderson County comrades O'Kain 13-7. McGee, Harvey, and Hawkins all had three hits for the Bankers. Harvey had two home runs, McGee, Hawkins and Harold Conners one each.

The two Kentucky teams ended Union Valley's three day run with a 12-11 win Saturday night with the Bank of Williamsburg, Ky. leading 11-10 in the seventh.

St. Luke renewed its acquaintance with Eaton by defeating the Lenoir Citizens 11-2. Mike Wheeler's three hits set the tempo for the Saints. Eaton got only four hits in the game.

Eaton eliminated Amvets 9-8 on the hitting of Junior Collins, only to get down to Union Valley 6-5 on a seventh inning comeback. Tommy Williams and Kent Rose sparked the win for Union Valley. Roy Howard and Kenny Breeden pounded a pair of hits each for the losers.

Amvets eliminated the Loudoun Merchants from the tournament, playing them for a second time and winning 13-6. R.L. Branan's two hits was top for the Merchants.

Central Methodist, last year's Fort Loudoun Classic champion, caught St. Luke as its first opponent and the Chattanoogaans took its first giant step at taking home this summer's hardware. The Saints slipped by 9-6.

Central Methodist salvaged a 2-1 win over the Bank of Loudoun County Yency Hampton's two hits was tops in the game.

Central Methodist then bowed out of the event by a damaging error in the bottom of the seventh as WACO remained active on a 12-11 score.

Other tournament scores had the Bank of Williamsburg, Ky. leading 11-10 in the seventh.

QB Club Horse Show Friday Nite

The Loudoun Quarterback Club's annual Fourth of July Horse Show appears ready to event its best show ever come Friday night. A total of 18 classes make up this year's event with $1500 in prize money at stake.

And to add that touch of extra to the show will be walking horse champion, "The Ring Master" owned by Jack Hinds of Knoxville going for the right to keep the Charles Bacon Walking Horse Champion Trophy.

To win the right for complete ownership of the grand trophy a horse must win the event three times in a row. This will be "The Ring Master's" third effort, having taken the trophy back to Knoxville in 1972 and 1974.

"Mr. Hobbs" of the Double-D Stables in Sweetwater will be after his second trophy in the Backing Class. This grand trophy is in memory of Mr. Wiley Wampler.

Show time is 7 p.m. at Loudoun's Legion Field with the honorable C.A. Bobo of Shelbyville the Judge for this year's event.

Roy Blescoe, Philadelphia Community will again be the Ring Master and Ross Wilkerson of Lenoir City the Master of Ceremonies.

Connie Getsay of Manchester will be the horse show organist.

Atomic 100 To Roll Thursday Night

The Independence 100 late model sportman race is on tap Thursday night at Atomic Speedway and the wildest chase in the six year history of the track is predicted.

Drivers from a four-state area will be trying to halt the record spree of Church Hill's Bill Morton who swept the event in June - winning each of the four weekly events. Morton and his Camaro enter the 100-lap run riding a record four-race win streak. The veteran driver also shattered the track qualifying standard last Saturday night by turning a fast lap in 13.73 seconds (174.524 miles per hour).

The Independence 100 launches a three-race series which will carry a $300 bonus for the driver compiling the best overall record. The Freecracker 100 Friday night at Knoxville Raceway and Atomic's weekly show Saturday night complete the bonus series.

The racing gets under way at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $5 (reserved) and $4.50 (general admission). Top prize for the 100 is $1,000, but there's a shot at more money.

Atomic owner Bob Martin has put up a $100 bonus on Morton. C&C Trucking of Clinton, Tenn., will pay a $200 bonus for any Ford driver setting the pace in time trials.

Two hot Ford drivers from Georgia are already in the field. They are Charles Hughes and Biddle Ridley. Hughes gained a victory at the speedway earlier this year to break a two-year hold by General Motors products.

Hughes and fellow Georgia drivers Doug Kenner and Leon Brindle are among the top threats to snap Morton's spree.

Besides the 100-lapper, which will be limited to the fastest 22 cars, there'll be a 25-lap semi-feature and Class B event.

East Tennessee Standouts to run include H. E. Vineyard, Toole Estes, the Corum brothers - Bill and Melvin, Ken Phillips, Herman Goodard, Gary Duggan and several from the Chattanooga area.

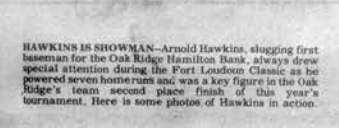

HAWKINS IS SHOWMAN - Arnold Hawkins, slugging first baseman for the Oak Ridge Hamilton Bank, always drew special attention during the Fort Loudoun Classic as he powered seven home runs and was a key figure in the Oak Ridge team's second place finish of this year's tournament. Here is some photos of Hawkins in action.

St. Luke's Players Familiar With Loudoun

St. Luke of Chattanooga, winner of this year's Fort Loudoun Softball Classic this past weekend, had its own special Loudoun booster club. Two of the St. Luke players are the grandsons-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Milapps of Yale Street in Loudoun.

Mike Wheeler, shortstop, and Ken Davis, centerfielder, make family visits to Loudoun.

Jim Starling, St. Luke's leftfielder, is the son of Mrs. Edna Thorburg Starling who is foremost of Loudoun.

Miss Lynn McIntosh and her fiancée, Mickey Hubinette, the Classic's Most Valuable Player and Home Run King were guests of the Milapps family for the tournament weekend.

Women To Form Tennis League

A Women's Tennis League is to be organized in Loudoun. The league, open to all women, beginners through advanced, will play Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights on the South courts at the city park.

The league sessions will be from 7 to 9 p.m. on the three nights. All women interested are invited to attend the first session at the courts on Monday, July 7.

Lenoir City Dixie Youth Teams Defeat Loudon

The Lenoir City Dixie Youth Baseball League sent two teams to Loudon Thursday night for an exhibition encounter with the Loudon VFW Giants and the Union Carbide Reds.

In the first game the Lenoir City Smokies prevailed 9-6 over the Giants. The Smokies jumped ahead quickly with a five run second inning.

The Giants rallied to tie the score in the bottom of the fifth inning at 6-6 on home runs by Kerry Braathover and Richard Sampson.

The Smokies answered back with a three run sixth inning to win the game.

Jeff Atkins paced the win for Lenoir City's Smokies with two hits, while Bryan Williams was the winning pitcher.

Bruce Arden pitched for the Giants and was given batting support by Richard Sampson's two home runs and Kerry Braathover's long blast and a single.

In the night cap the Lenoir City Red Sox posted a 13-8 decision on the Loudon Reds. Winning pitcher Randy McCulloch was staked to a 12-4 lead in the first three innings of play.

The Reds scored four times in the fourth inning and had the bases loaded with only one out in the fifth frame but the Red Sox escaped the jam with a double play.

Randy McCulloch led the Sox with two home runs and three runs scored.

Tommy Howers led the Reds with a home run and three runs batted in.

Tony Lemex had two hits and scored three times also in the Reds' batting efforts.

Barry Cooper was the losing pitcher for the Reds.

VFW Giants Take Two Game Lead In DY Play

The VFW Giants have taken a two game lead in the Loudon Dixie Youth Baseball standings. The Giants won by a 9-1 count over the Smith Chair Company Phillies Monday night.

The Phillies, going down for the third straight time, managed but two hits off of Bruce Arden and reliever Mark Byens.

Zell Hawkins had a three run home run and scored three runs himself to pace the win, while Tracey Harris collected two hits for the Giants.

Losing pitcher Jeff Woods gave up four runs to the Giants in the third and four more in the fifth inning.

The Union Carbide Pirates, tipped the Union Carbide Reds 6-3 in a game that went two extra innings. The game was all even at 4-4 after six frames.

The Reds took a 4-4 lead in the top of the eighth, but the Pirates came back with a pair of runs to win in their half of the inning.

Jimmy Russell was the hero of the night for the Pirates delivering the winning hit that scored two Pirate runs in the eighth.

Tommy and Jimmy Russell both had three hits to lead the Pirates.

The Reds had only two hits but a number of walks and errors kept them in the game.

Losing pitcher Barry Cooper registered a total of 16 strikeouts.

Jimmy Russell was credited with the mound victory for the Pirates.

Be Careful Merchants Cling To Softball Lead

BY REX COLLIER

July 4th marks the beginning of a popular holiday known as Boaters. Boaters everywhere will travel to the nearest lake for three days of boating activities.

Personnel of the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency urges everyone that will be on the lakes and rivers this weekend to be extra careful and extra courteous. Have a safe and enjoyable weekend.

The Loudon Recreation Men's Softball League took a break in the schedule last Thursday as the Fort Loudoun Classic was in progress.

Tuesday night games saw the Loudon Merchants keep their half game league lead over the Bank of Loudon County as each won contests.

The Merchants got off to an 8-1 advantage over the Hamilton Bank of Loudon, only for the game to carry into extra innings with the Merchants pulling it out of the 9-8.

The Hamilton Bank battled back with two runs in the second inning and five more in the fourth.

R.L. Branarn scored the winning run for the Merchants in the eighth inning. The Hamilton Bank loaded the bases in their half of the eighth only to have the Merchants turn a game ending double play.

Stretch Roland and Harold Patterson led the Merchants with three hits each. Ted Stizler had three bingles for the Hamilton Bank.

The Bank of Loudon County scored six runs in the third inning and then had to stave off a seventh inning rally by Union Carbide for a 6-3 victory. Yancy Hampton had three doubles and Jack Nichols two doubles to lead the Bank of Loudon County. Dick Ryan's three run home run in the top of the seventh inning was the big hit for Union Carbide.

Pond Creek Mill also stayed with an 11-5 triumph over winless Maremont. Pond Creek led 6-0 after two innings and were never threatened. Red Walker and Jim Brown each had three hits for Pond Creek. Gary Hudson was best for Maremont with two safeties.

In the final game of the night the Hamilton Bank exploded for a 16-0 rout of Maremont.

Maremont held a brief 3-1 lead in the first inning but an eight run third inning by the Hamilton team gave them the upper hand.

Rick Taylor led Maremont with a home run and a single. Arnold Brookshire had three hits and scored three times while teammate Danny Russell had three hits, including a home run and tripe in leading the Bank attack.

LEGION FIELD—Legion Field in its most beautiful splendor of neatness and manicured surroundings caged some of the best softball talent to be found in the Southeast this past week end. The Loudon Recreation Department's field maintenance crew are to be commended for having the field and stands in such excellent condition.

NEW FIELD—The ball field adjacent the High School was also used in the Fort Loudoun Classic and was in excellent condition for each and every game played on it.

Lennox And Kirkland Taking Aim On City Golf Lead

Monty Lawson and Gordie Watson have been in the driver's seat of the American Division of Loudon City Golf League for only two weeks and already they are getting a strong challenge. Lawson and Watson have 220 points to date and have swagged the division lead on periodically with John Cobb and Richard Archer. But Cobb and Archer have now dropped to third place with 198 team points.

The new challenge is coming from the direction of John Lennox and Buck Kirkland with 203 team points. Lennox and Kirkland have never been on top this summer, but have made possibly the largest climb of any team competing in the entire league this season.

David Hamil was the low medalist last week with a score of 32. Hamil and partner Donnie Lambert continued for a 68 to also win team honors.

In the National Division it's all Jack Ferguson and Glen McNabb with a division leading 231 team points to date. Meanwhile the National Division positions of two through six are only separated by one team point.

Larry Lane and Tom Lambert, division runners-up won the low team honors last week with a combined 67. Lambert was also the low individual medalist with a scizzing 29.

Budget Meeting Receives No Comment

Although there were about 30 people in the courtroom when Judge William Russell opened the Public Hearing on the County's 1975-76 budget, not one person made any comment or asked any questions about the proposed budget.

After explaining that the hearing was for a public airing of the budget, but receiving no questions, Judge Russell adjourned the three-minute session.

Budget Committee member L. D. Conner commented, "I believe everybody is happy. Judge."

The budget document, as presented at the hearing, is not yet complete. The budget is fairly firm in the areas of the General Fund and Bond Debt Fund, but with the proposed $4.11 tax rate the school fund would show nearly a half million dollar deficit.

Further work on the budget and a definite recommendation on a tax rate is expected soon, but possibly not in time for the July meeting.

In Memory

already said they would approve the school if the repairs were made, and that with the July 4th weekend coming up, the Squires were using this to put the matter off another month which would mean the school would open in August in the same condition it was in at the end of the last school term.

Watkins And Julian Moving In Carbide Golf

Spencer Watkins and Henry Julian are on their way up in more bad news at the meeting when it was told that the state had legislated raises for several county officials over which the court has no option but to approve them.

These include increasing the County Judge's salary from $41,000 to $53,950.97; Property Assessor from $33,172.00 up to $43,809.62; General Sessions Judge from $16,000 to $22,400.00; sheriff from $13,282.50 to $15,809.62.

Suppl. Hearles told the Committee that the $100,000 would take care of the needs at four of the schools, but he still was not sure if the state would approve the system, because problems in other schools the state is demanding be corrected.

Squire Conner said the State should see that we are showing good faith and will do everything we can when we can.

the Union Carbide Golf standings. Julian carded a round of 31 for individual low medalist last week and teammate Watkins combined scores for their team to also capture the low team score. Their overall efforts gave them 24 team points and a total of 123 and one-third team points for the season. Julian and Watkins jumped from eighth position in fourth, Ralph Schrimsher and J.J. Watkins still set the league pace with 159 and two-thirds team points while Eldon White and Dick Rosenbaum barely held second place with 135 team points.

Still making silent advancement are Dick Huff and Arthur Hamil with 134 team points after last week's play.

Receive Over
$653,967

A savings plan payout of $653,967.32 was made Monday to 417 employees of the Loudon plant of the Films-Packaging Division of Union Carbide Corporation.

Every two years, participants in the savings plan receive the money they have saved, plus interest. Nationwide, this year the payout to some 52,600 participating Union Carbide employees totals over $11 million—$83.5 million in savings, $17.5 million in Company contributions, and $10 million in earned interest. Under the savings plan, employees may authorize payroll deductions of up to 7 1/2 per cent of their earnings and Union Carbide will contribute 10, 20, or 30 percent of this amount, depending on whether the employee has been working for the Company for one, two, or three or more years. The next payout under the plan will be made on June 30, 1977.

Roane State

Registration Set

Returning Roane State students will be able to avoid a hectic registration this Fall. Beginning July 14, returning students may register or pre-register for Fall quarter.

"We are encouraging early registration for everyone who will take advantage of it," said Mrs. Louise Greene, Director of Admissions and Records. "For the first time, students will be able to complete the registration process and pay their fees before registration day. Consequently, students will not have to return until classes begin."

SVB Bid Is Accepted

The Board of Directors of the Tellico Area Services System has selected the Sweetwater Valley Bank's proposal for interim financing to be supplied to TASS.

The Sweetwater Valley Bank has agreed to provide approximately $500,000 in interim financing funds as needed from a period of January through August at an annual rate of 5.4875 percent. As has been agreed by the TASS Board, the construction accounts for the System will be established in the Sweetwater Valley Bank, as successful bidder on the interim financing.

All eight banks in Loudon and Monroe Counties, where the system will be located, were given an opportunity to bid for the interim financing.

This year the Fourth of July will take on a greater meaning with the Centennial of our Country coming closer. Of course, all of us are fully aware that our country is great because someone or the individual was willing to give of themselves, meaning that it took more than wealth. It took individualism. One of the greatest examples of this is our young men who have served our country, some who made the supreme sacrifice. It is to them that our column this week is dedicated, all of those serving, those who have served and to those who made their greatest contribution, their life.

Louis D. Gee. We are always glad to have service pictures and we would appreciate any of you who would let us use them in the Good Old Days.

It is an honor to recognize our many servicemen, who have given portions or all of their lives in order that our great country would maintain its rich independence. Next week we have a couple of interesting pictures about events in our town Loudon and these point out the role that our people and their efforts have had in shaping our community in its early years. Much of the benefits we enjoy today we are unaware of the hard work and tireless efforts that go into making a community a safe and livable place.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Roy Bledsoe Named To FHA Board

State Director Paul M. Koger announced today the appointment of Roy H. Bledsoe as a member of the Loudon Farmers Home Administration County Committee.

Mr. Bledsoe was appointed for a three year term and succeeds Cornelius L. Messler whose term expired June 30, 1975. The other member of the Committee is William K. Bright.

This Committee has the responsibility for approving the eligibility of all applicants for FmHA assistance for Loudon County. They also serve in an advisory capacity to the County Supervisor on all phases of the FmHA program. William L. Mason is the County Supervisor in charge of the office.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY

BY M. LEE SMITH

G.L. 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

On February 20 of this year strip mine operators paid $500 apiece to attend a fund raising reception hosted by Knoxville businessman Fred R. Langley. According to a source associated with the industry, the mine operators who attended this event were given the opportunity to discuss with Gov. Ray Blanton problems of concern to the industry.

The $500 contributions were for the purpose of defraying Gov. Blanton's campaign debt and were in addition to substantial sums contributed by coal operators to the Blanton campaign last year.

At that February discussion the foremost concern of the strip mining industry was a regulation of the Department of Conservation adopted in June of 1974 and providing that effective July 1 of this year the distance strip miners could push mining overburden down the outcrop from the seam base would be reduced from 125 to 50 feet.

The reasons for shortening the distance were to curtail slides and by disturbing less ground to increase the likelihood that revegetation will occur.

Strip mine operators were opposed to the 50 foot limit, contending that shortening the permissible overburden distance would require them to purchase very expensive and difficult to obtain haulback trucks and other equipment.

The strip miners felt so strongly about this issue that during the legislative session the industry soft peddled its opposition to Gov. Blanton's proposed severance tax until after the Blanton administration announced an alteration of the 50 foot requirement.

In fact, there were rumors at the capitol that a deal had been struck with the strip miners accepting the severance tax and the Blanton administration agreeing to change the regulation. Those rumors were false as evidenced by strong opposition to the severance tax after the regulation change.

Notice of the regulation change was mailed to interested parties on May 15 by the Conservation Department along with eleven other alternations, some of which will strengthen strip mining regulation but most of which will not.

Conservation Commissioner B. R. "Buck" Allison, a capable department head, directed that the overburden distance be maintained at the 125 foot distance but provided that the overburden area be graded and properly managed to improve the possibility of revegetation.

Allison attempted to implement the regulation changes without a public hearing apparently required by law. When criticized by environmental groups Allison agreed to conduct the hearing which was held last week.

During the hearing Allison received criticism from both environmental groups and the mining industry. The environmentalists were strongly opposed to maintaining the overburden distance limit at 125 feet and to other changes. Strip miners objected to grading and managing requirements for the overburden area.

Allison now has the regulation changes under advisement. Whether the Blanton administration would permit a shortening of the overburden distance to 50 feet even if Commissioner Allison in his professional judgment believes that there is no doubt that should be done is doubtful.

Significantly there is no evidence linking the Allison decision to the earlier meeting between Blanton and the strip miners which the miners paid $500 to attend.

But the facts are that the strip miners wanted the 50 foot limit changed; they paid money in order to present their case; and the limit was subsequently altered.

While no one can argue a cause and effect relationship, the opportunity for the strip mine industry to buy access to the Governor is an objectionable practice which should not be tolerated. The subsequent decision to amend the regulation created at the very least an appearance of impropriety which should be avoided.

Transfer Station Closed July 4

The Loudon County Transfer Station will be closed Friday, July 4th. No private delivery to the station will be accepted.

Pvt. Elkins Marine Grad

Marine Private Kenneth H. Elkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elkins of Route 3, Lenoir City, was graduated from the Basic Safety Equipment Course, Aviation Structural Mechanic School, at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Millington.

The eight-week course includes instruction on the maintenance and repair of aircraft ejection seats, air conditioning units, fire extinguishing systems and life raft release mechanisms.

A 1974 graduate of Lenoir City High School, he joined the Marines in September 1974.

Planners Adopt Land Use Analysis And Plan

The Loudon County Regional Planning Commission recently adopted a revised county land use plan which will serve as a guide for the physical growth and development of Loudon County over the next 15 years.

The report, titled 1970 Loudon County Land Use Plan, was prepared by the planning commission with assistance from the Tennessee State Planning Office (TSPO) in Knoxville and will be used later this year as a basis for revising the county's existing zoning resolution. Information provided in the plan will also be used to guide local planning commissions and governing bodies in making land use decisions.

Copies of the report will be available to the public by August, according to TSPO.

Garbage Pickup Early Friday

City of Loudon residents who have garbage pick up on Friday are urged to place their trash beside the city street on Thursday night because the city sanitation trucks will run their routes very early Friday due to the holiday.

Some Indian tribes believe that the earth is supported by an old woman. She creates earthquakes when she is hungry.

Principal Planner, Steve Campbell. Preparation of the Loudon County land use analysis and plan was financed in part with a U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development planning grant.

Campbell explained that "the plan provides valuable information concerning the county's existing land uses and offers estimates of future land use needs in Loudon County based on current and projected population and economic data. It also provides information which will be helpful in determining the most desirable locations for future agricultural, residential, commercial, and industrial development within the county. Information is also provided in the plan concerning the future placement of additional public utilities and community and transportation facilities."

"Natural factors such as soils, hydrology, geology, and climate as well as man-made factors including existing roadways and utility services are analyzed in the plan to help determine what areas of the county are best suited for sustaining the different land uses," he said.

He continued that "the primary thrust of the report is to provide the basis for making decisions as to where various land use developments should take place in the county and at what density they should occur."

At a recent meeting of the Loudon County Quarterly Court, Campbell announced that meetings would be held in several locations throughout the county for the purpose of holding public discussions regarding the new land use plan. "These discussions are necessary to involve the public in the land use planning process," he said.

Burnette Wins Scholarship At Private Enterprise Seminar

Loudon High School student Kim Burnette, who along with six other Loudon High students attended a seminar on the American Private Enterprise System at the University of Tennessee-Knoxville, won a $225 scholarship to the college of his choice for placing third in tests given over the seminar subjects. The seminar was an advanced study of a local seminar held during the school term earlier this year.

Hamilton Hurt In Car Wreck

Danny Hamilton, 21, of Loudon, received, head, face and mouth injuries about 1:30 a.m. Saturday, when his car left highway 11 near Dixie Lee Junction and struck a utility pole.

The accident occurred in Knox County as Hamilton was traveling South. He said that a coil spring on his car broke causing the vehicle to go out of control, cross the highway and strike the pole.

He underwent dental surgery at Park West Hospital Monday and was released Tuesday. His car was demolished in the accident.

According to Jim Pope, the adult leader who accompanied the students to Knoxville, the study was conducted June 23-25, on the campus at U-T in cooperation with the University's College of Agriculture. The more than 100 students who attended earned the right to do so after having participated in the Loudon American Private Enterprise Program.

The recent Tennessee seminar marks the second year the program has been conducted by Production Credit Associations throughout Indiana, Ohio and Tennessee. Pope pointed out that other businessmen in the area participated in the local program as discussion leaders and financial supporters.

While at the Seminar, each student was assigned to a simulated board of directors for a cooperative or corporation. Various problems were presented to the boards and decisions had to be reached. Different exercises were also conducted on the individual basis to test each student's understanding of the many phases of the American Private Enterprise System. Scholarships and cash awards were presented based on results of the various exercises. The cash awards ranged from $1 to $5. Each student from Loudon won one or more of these prizes.

Eight Scholarships were awarded based on overall tests results, participation, and financial supporters.

UNLESS YOU'RE EXPECTING PENGUINS...

Set the thermostat for cooling your home at 80 degrees or above. (This simple step will save more money and electricity than you can imagine.)

Other tips are remember to clean the filter, pull the drapes, wear light clothing, and keep all outside doors and windows closed when using your air conditioner. Be sure your home is well insulated to conserve the "cool" you have and keep your home comfortable this summer while saving.

Sewing Class

Offered By RS

If the summer is getting long - enroll for a class at Reane State that will get you out of the rut - and inspire you to sew some new clothes either for late summer or fall.

Starting on July 14 and running for five weeks, Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 1-3 p.m. will be scheduled for this class. Teenagers out of school for the summer will especially enjoy this class, and adults who have the need to know the latest in simplified sewing techniques will benefit also.

Enrollment will be at the Admissions Office of the college on the first day of class, but to insure yourself a place it is advised that you call 354-3000 and ask to have your name placed on the class roll. For further information you may call the instructor, Dorothy Skinner, at 274-6884. Cost of the course is $18, and the size of the class will be limited on a first-come basis.

to buy, at par plus accrued interest at a five percent (5) interest rate, any maturities of these bonds for which no other bid is received at an equally favorable net interest cost.

Additional information and a copy of the Official Notice of Sale, may be obtained from the Office of the County Court Clerk in Loudon, Tennessee, by Edward Alexander, County Court Clerk (116-7-3)

Backs Claim Mistreatment By Deputies

A delegation of black men appeared before Loudon County Court Monday morning to protest what they called ill treatment and harassment by members of the Loudon County Sheriff's W. A. Goley, Highland Avenue, Lenoir City, said that the Sheriff's Department has "been treating the black people like dogs. We're tired of it and want something done."

Goley said that on July 4th officers searched his house after serving a warrant on his mother. "I get lots of complaints about the Sheriff's men and would like for the Merit Board to investigate," Goley stated.

He singled out Deputy Voyd Carruth and Chief Deputy Luke Bright for most of his remarks. He said that Carruth beat up a 14-year old black boy on the night of the 4th, threw a woman into the back of a patrol car and took a swing at his 12-year old boy. "If he had hit my boy one of us wouldn't be here today," Goley stated. "Carruth said he had signed, written his trigger finger," Goley claimed.

Chief Deputy Bright took the floor and said that Goley's problem was that Sheriff G. Russell and he had refused to take pay-offs from Goley which would let him sell whiskey and operate two establishments selling beer off of one license. "He offered to buy me a new car if we would let him operate," Bright said. Squire J. D. Connor said he thought that the Merit Board should look into it. Merit Board member J. J. Blair, said the Merit Board has no authority in the internal operations of the sheriff's department.

Bright suggested that the blacks go to the FBI, who would investigate FBI charges against a law enforcement group.

Another black, James William Howard claimed that Carruth stopped him one night while he was walking his dog and threw a shotgun on him. "When I asked him what it was all about he said, 'I'll shoot you and your G-D—dog too.'"

Goley said that he was in Bright's office one day and Bright said "Get your G-D—A—out of my office." Bright fired back that he had never used the Lord's name in vain and Goley was a liar.

A report filed by Carruth and deputy Ira Teeters said that while Carruth was putting someone in the car after an arrest, others started yelling and cursing him and while Carruth was being diverted someone let the arrested people out of the cruiser.

It was after this that Carruth arrested five people at the scene.

Those arrested and the charges according to jail records are Thelma Love, drunk and disorderly; John Rufus Goley, drunk and disorderly; William Anthony Goley, assault; Wm. Hugh Goley, drunk and disorderly; and James Michael Love, disorderly conduct and assault.

Squire J. G. Hudson, Chairman Pro-Tem of the county court, chairing the meeting in the absence of Judge William Russell closed the discussion after informing the blacks they would have to take their complaints to another court or the FBI because jurisdiction over the Sheriff's Department was out of the realm of responsibility of the County Court.

Cardwell, Carter, McCarroll Appointed To School Board

MR. CARDWELL

MR. MCCARROLL

In an abbreviated session of Court Monday three new members to the county board of education were appointed and approval for borrowing $100,000 to make emergency repairs to several county schools was approved.

Squire J. G. Hudson, Chairman Pro-Tem of the court, presided in the absence of Judge William Russell who was out of town on business. The court recessed after the two school related actions until 7 p.m. Monday, July 21st at which time they will set the tax rate, adopt a budget and consider the remaining items on the agenda.

The new school board members are Jim Cardwell and Robert Carter of Loudon and William D. McCarroll of Loudon. They replace Clell Miller, Lester Thomas and Jim Bailey, all of whom resigned recently after serving on the board for 20 years.

Cardwell, 46, was nominated by Squire J. J. Blair and will fill out the remainder of the term of Mr. Miller. Cardwell is Assistant Director of the Union Carbide Films-Packaging Division plant at Loudon where he has been employed for 18 years. He is a graduate of Lenoir City High School and received a Bachelor's degree from Carson-Newman in 1963 and taught in Loudon County Schools for four years before going to Union Carbide. Cardwell is married to the former Jean Bergerentz. They reside on Barber Lane in Loudon. The couple has three children, Nancy, 15, a sophomore at ETSU, Carter, 16, a junior at Loudon High, and John 13 in the eighth grade at Loudon Junior High. He is an Army veteran of the Korean War, member of the American Legion and VFW and is a Shriner. His hobbies are fishing and golf.

Carter, 39, is a partner in Carter Lumber and Builder Supply in Loudon. He resides in Greenacres Subdivision with his wife, Gail, and two children Debbie and Bryan. He is a 1954 graduate of Loudon High and attended Tennessee Wesleyan College. He served for two years in the U.S. Army, and is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, the family business since 1960. Carter is a member of the United Methodist Church, serves on the finance committee; is a member of Philadelphia Masonic Lodge #425, a Shriner, Director of the Hamilton National Bank-Loudon and member of the Loudon Lions Club. He is an antique car buff and secretary of the Smokey Mountain Antique Car Club. Carter was nominated by Squire Roy Hledsoe.

Mr. McCarroll, an employee of the Charles H. Bacon Company in Lenoir City, a supervisor, was nominated by Curtis Williams, Merit Board member. Mr. McCarroll, his wife, Norma Jean, and son David, reside on Finley Drive in Lenoir City. The couple has one married daughter, Kay Frances Watson who lives in Knoxville, and lost one son, Johnny, in the Vietnam war. McCarroll is a World War II veteran and is a member of Bell Avenue Baptist Church. He has been a member of the Lenoir City Lions Club since 1954. He was born in Harrison and raised in Lenoir City. He is a Lenoir City High School graduate.

Consolidation Committee Awaits City Action

The joint Loudon County-Lenoir City Committee to study and make recommendations on school consolidations decided last Thursday night in their first meeting that they were "the cart before the horse."

After a 90 minute session, taken up mostly by discussion dominated by Lenoir City School Board member Bob Cusick, who is not a member of the committee it was decided that the committee would hold no further meetings until some decision on consolidation was made by Lenoir City. The motion was made by Squire J. P. Hamilton and seconded by County Board member J. B. Hagler. All members of the committee present voted in favor of the motion. Although he is not on the committee Cusick voted no.

The 10 member committee is composed of members of Loudon County Court, the County Board of Education, Lenoir City Council and City School Board members. Seven of the 10 members were present.

Some members of the committee said after the meeting that the only sensible thing to be done was to have a referendum whether or not they want to consolidate their schools with those of the county.

The discussions were seen by one member as doing more to get a referendum than to find a way to find any solutions for consolidation. "It was an orderly joining of the two school systems."

Committee Chairman Ted Wampler told the group that no members had given him any items to form an agenda from, but that he had asked Sammie Sue Amos, President of the Lenoir City Teachers Association, to outline some of the things that concerned Lenoir City teachers about consolidation.

The 11 point list of concerns are as follows:

- 1-Tenure
- 2-Teacher-pupil ratio
- 3-Pupil expenditure
- 4-Salary differences
- 5-Libraries-City has one in each school with full-time librarian
- 6-Music program or any other programs
- 7-How will administration be added in or used?
- 8-City has 4-4-4 program and City has 4-4-4 program and City has 4-4-4 program and City has 4-4-4 program
- 9-School nurse
- 10-School secretaries
- 11-Like to see elected school board and appointed superintendent

Wampler said that most of the questions of the teachers would be handled by state law. He said the best and highest quality points of each system must be maintained throughout the consolidated system. That under consolidation a school cannot be degraded. It must maintain its present standards or be improved.

One member Gene Hamby first mentioned the question of which comes first, the referendum or the vote, but he said he understood the position of the Lenoir City teachers.

Cusick said that to pass a referendum "we must make some people happy. You have to guarantee the people of Lenoir City their schools will be upgraded by consolidation."

New Council Installed . . .

Loudon Bridge Scheduled For Major Facelift

Four incumbents and one new member to Loudon's elected city government body took their oaths of office Monday night from Loudon County Magistrate and Philadelphia Mayor Roy Hledsoe as they begin two year terms as the first Mayor-Council government under newly revised city charter.

Kenneth Cotton Thomas, a councilman, is the only new face in the group. Others taking office were incumbent Mayor Eugene Lambert, Council members Aileen Richesin, Joe Carter and Bernie Ray (Inky) Swiney.

The brief ceremony took place at 7 p.m. in the Utilities Building director's room.

Retiring councilman Doug Lyle was presented a plaque by Mayor Lambert for his two years service on the Council. Lyle did not seek re-election in June.

Following the ceremony the Commission held a private session. City Manager Gary Henaley introduced Hugh Carpenter of the State Department of Transportation who answered questions concerning state highway plans in the Loudon area. He said that starting probably in early 1976, after Sugar-Inch connector is completed, a major repair and maintenance project will begin on the River Bridge on U.S. 11 at Loudon.

Traffic across the bridge may be restricted by the project, Carpenter said. A contract will be let for the work. Only one lane may be possible at times due to work on the deck and expansion joints. Other work will include the following:

- 1-Tenure
- 2-Teacher-pupil ratio
- 3-Pupil expenditure
- 4-Salary differences

Loudon's CDA Grant Disapproved

The city of Loudon's application for a $500,000 grant under the new Federal Community Development Act has been turned down, City Manager Gary Hensley told the council Monday night.

Hensley said that last minute changes in the rating system by the federal agency cost the city the funds. The noise of disapproval said that the Loudon application rated high and suggest it be resubmitted. A new program comes out later this year.

Sarah Stewart Weds Doug Ballard

Miss Sarah Jayne Stewart and Douglas Lee Ballard were united in marriage on June 21 at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Lenoir City. Rev. Charles Redmond performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with ivy laden candelabras with pink burning tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart, Robinson Drive, Loudon. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. William Ballard, Ferry Street, Loudon.

Nuptial music was presented by Jere Adams, organist, Cindy Kaulin, pianist and Sharon Webb, soloist, all of Lenoir City. Special selections were "Wedding Prayer" and "Bless This House".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza with a high neckline of heavy silk and brocade over Brussels lace. A full length train centered with a brocade camelot cap held the floor length mantilla with brocade matching the dress. She carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses, white roses, and white daisies in ivory with white streamers tied in love knots.

Miss Donna Hies of Smyrna was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sandy Lewis of Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Doug Duncan of Oliver Springs and Miss Harriet Stratton of Knoxville. Flower girl was Miss Heather Blankenship. The maid of honor was attired in a pink floor length gown with a floral long sleeved bolero jacket. Bridesmaids wore lavender gowns with floral bolero jackets. They carried posies of pink, white and lavender daisies.

William Ballard, father of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Jim and Sam Stewart, brothers of the bride, and Wayne Poole of Loudon. Master John Redmond was ringbearer.

Following the ceremony, reception was given by the bride's parents in Webb Memorial Hall at the church. Those assisting Mrs. Joe N. Lee, Miss Kommy Smith and Miss Kim Adams, all of Lenoir City, Miss Dianne Handley of Kingston and Miss Sandy Moody and Miss Karan Frank of Smyrna. Attending the rice bag table were Miss Tammy Brown and Master John Redmond. Miss Suzanne Burnett kept the Bride's Book.

Following a wedding trip to Cone Lake State Park, the couple will be at home on River Road, Loudon.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moody and Sandy, Dr. and Mrs. Morris Prady and Karan, all of Smyrna; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lane, all of Kingsport; Frances and Norrene Bogart of Knoxville; Mrs. Walter Humphreys, Misses Brenda and Sara Humphreys, all of Sweetwater; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marrow of Oak Ridge; Mrs. Roy Ayers and children of Ten Mile; Mrs. Jesse Lawson and children of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beck, Perkie, Burl and Bill of Nashville; and E. T. Vineyard of Temple, Texas.

Linda Price Is Engaged

The engagement of Miss Linda Price to Ted Ray Sizlar is announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Curtis Clough, 304 Poplar Street, Loudon. Mr. Sizlar is the son of Mrs. Frankie McLowen, 916 Summer Street, Loudon, and Charles F. Sizlar, Water Valley, Miss.

The bride-to-be, a graduate of Loudon High School in 1973, is presently employed by West End Branch, Hamilton National Bank of Loudon.

The groom-to-be is also a Loudon High School graduate and graduated from East Tennessee State University in 1972. He is presently employed by Knoxville Community Development Corporation.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, July 26 at 8 p.m. at Blairland Baptist Church, Loudon. All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Mrs. Ed McLowen were Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Lexington, Ky. and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Moore of Grant, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goalen of Morrow, Ga. visited Mrs. Goalen's sister, Mrs. Luther Russell, II over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dutton and sons, John and Craig of Johnson City, visited over the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dutton.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Jenkins of Lenoir City visited Sunday with Terry's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Presley and family.

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs. Britton Nicholson over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Nicholson of Bloomfield, Ind.; Mrs. Harlan Jenkins, Jeff and Penny of Loudon; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blankenship and Christy, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin, Patti and Linda and Mrs. Kathryn Jaymes, all of Sweetwater.

Kirkland-Scott Vows Exchanged

Miss Patricia Gail Kirkland and Luther James Scott, Jr. exchanged wedding vows in ceremonies held Saturday, June 14 at 7 p.m. at Corinth Baptist Church. Rev. H.L. Davis performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Kirkland, Route 2, Loudon. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Luther James Scott, Sr., also of Route 2, Loudon.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Pat Foster, organist. Special selections were "If 'Colour' My World," "We've Only Just Begun" and "My Cup Runneth Over".

The church altar was decorated with a brass heart shaped candelabra accented with an arrangement of white shasta daisies and pink sweetheart roses with baby's breath. Two seven branched candelabra, a spiral candelaabra and tree-shaped brass candelabras holding pink lighted candles were used with a brass profile kneeling bench.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin princess line gown with long fitted organza sleeves with a detachable chapel length train. The bodice, high crown collar and the border of the dress was trimmed with re-embroidered lace. She chose a chapel length veil of white illusion edged with almon lace and lace appliques. She carried a bouquet of a white yellow threated cattilove orchid, pink sweetheart roses, white chrysanthamums, and baby's breath with long white streamers with pink sweetheart rose buds tied in love knots.

Mrs. Rhonda Combs, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Selena Cannon, Mrs. Angi Henderson and Mrs. Jane Akens. Flower girl was Miss Mary Jenkins, niece of the groom. They wore pink floor length polyester gowns accented with ruby stitching. They wore matching pink picture hats and carried white fireaide baskets of spring pastel colored flowers of roses, daisies, statice, carnations, corn flowers and baby's breath.

Jerry Scott, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Johnny Colvin, Billy Collins and Bonnie Lemons.

A reception was given by the bride's parents following the ceremony. Those assisting were Misses Beth Geurde, Larah McCall, Nancy Purdy and Melanie Horton. Miss Vivian Harris kept the bride's book.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue floor length gown with a matching jacket with a corsage of royal bouquet orchids. The mother of the groom wore a long gown of white with navy blue stitching and a navy blue jacket. Her corsage was royal bouquet orchids.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, the couple are at home on Vonore Road Loudon.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lindsey and Patrick of Dallas, Ga.; Mrs. Mildred Armstrong; Mrs. Julia Ray, Miss Peggy Ray, all of Maryville and Julie and Andy Pace of Indiana.

Don't Be Mised By Room Rates

Medicaid room rates in Tennessee nursing homes are set by the Comptroller of the State of Tennessee. The rates are determined by the cost of construction, staffing and services provided. Therefore the room rate is an indicator of what the patient gets for his money. Usually the higher the rate the better the facility - the better the service and less costs added for extras.

Therefore a patient in a $15 a day room in a nursing home will likely receive less for his money than a patient in a $20 home and is more likely to be billed for extras which are added to the patient's part of the bill.

Medicaid will pay up to $17.00 a day toward room rates but will pay nothing toward extras. Therefore extras added must be paid entirely by the patient. When these services and supplies are included in the room, Medicaid pays their part.

For example: suppose a patient is receiving $150.00 monthly from Social Security and is eligible for Medicaid: he will be allowed to keep $25.00 each month for personal expenses leaving $125.00 out of his check to apply to his nursing home bill - this multiplied by 12 months and divided by 365 days totals $4.11 a day he will pay toward his bill regardless of the room rate of the home he enters.

In a home costing $15.00 per day he pays $4.11 and Medicaid pays $10.89 He is billed for a $30 day month $123.30 plus extras.

In our home costing $20.00 per day he pays $4.11 and Medicaid pays $15.89. He is billed for a 30 day month $123.30 which includes all services and supplies.

In both homes Medicaid will pay for most drugs and the patient is billed for only the few drugs not covered by Medicaid.

In both homes physician charges are a private arrangement between physician and patient.

Care Inn operates on the total bill concept and includes laundry, medical supplies and extras in the room rate. We believe that we can show you how you can stay in our home at no more or even less expense than in a home with lower rates.

The same rates apply to private pay patients, however Medicaid does not pay in these cases.

If you or a member of your family is in need of nursing home care or want to move closer to home, please contact us for information on rates and services.

Mr. Perkins was promoted from assistant extension agent to associate extension agent for Loudon County.

Huskey-Russell Vows Friday

Miss Susan Huskey and Danny Russell will exchange wedding vows Friday, July 11 at 4 p.m. at Philadelphia First Baptist Church. All friends and relatives are invited to the wedding and reception.

Cannon Wins CN Scholarship

A scholarship to Carson-Newman College has been awarded to Steve Cannon of Loudon.

Carson-Newman College is a four-year, co-educational, liberal arts college owned by the Tennessee Baptist Convention. CN is small enough to think each student is important, yet large enough to offer 23 different majors from the liberal arts and pre-professional areas.

Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cannon, Route 2, Loudon, and was a 1975 graduate of Loudon High School.

James Lester Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Cross, Loudon, celebrated his second birthday, July 7. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cross and Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, all of Loudon.

Robert Dewey Fagg celebrated his first birthday July 2. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Fagg, Route 2, Loudon. Grandparents are Mrs. Garland Fagg of Loudon and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Coley of Lenoir City. Great-grandmother is Mrs. Foutte Copenhaver of Lenoir City.

Arwood In Training Event

Army Staff Sergeant Clarence D. Arwood Sr., whose parents live on Route 2, Lenoir City, is participating in a 30-day field training exercise on the island of Hawaii. The training includes live fire exercises and simulated combat.

He is a squad leader in the 25th Infantry Division at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii.

A Regular Savings Account is for you if you need to make frequent deposits and withdrawals.

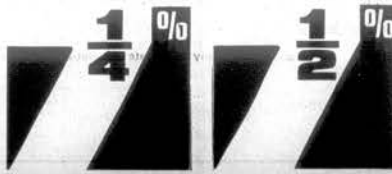

A Golden Savings Account earns you more money than a Regular Account. It's for you if you can plan to leave your money on deposit for ninety days.

A Big Six Account earns even higher interest. If you can leave money with us for twelve months, you'll really make it work for you.

A Super Six Account is for people who can wait thirty months to withdraw their money. It earns one-half of a percent more than the Big Six Account... 6-1/2% a year!

A Seven Plus Account earns seven and one-quarter percent — a nice reward if you can wait for forty-eight months. Start with $1,000 and watch your money grow.*

The Seven and One-Half Percent Account earns you the highest interest rate allowed by law. It takes $1,000 to start and seventy-two months to mature.*

Women's Fort Loudoun Classic Starts Fri.

The First Annual Fort Loudoun Softball Classic for Women is planned for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday by the Loudoun Recreation Department.

The Women's Classic, following the guide lines of the most recent Fort Loudoun Classic for Men, will be under the direction of Mr. Fred Wade with Bill Birkholz, Loudoun Athletic Director serving as his chief aid.

At press time Wednesday only 11 teams had been assured for the tournament and no official brackets drawn up. However Mr. Birkholz did inform The Herald Sports Department that one of the teams entered was the "Zodiac's" from Knoxville.

The "Zodiac's" are the defending 1974 Tennessee State Champions.

Loudon Summer Band Program To Start

The Loudon Area Summer Band Program will begin Tuesday, July 8 in the Loudon High School Band Room.

Students entering the sixth grade in the Fall and students who may be entering another grade, but who have only played for one year, will meet from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Students entering the seventh or eighth grades in the Fall will meet from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.

High school students, including incoming ninth graders, will meet from 11 a.m. to 12 noon.

All Color Guard members, including flags and rifles, will meet each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 12 noon to 2 p.m., beginning Wednesday, July 9. This is required for flags and rifles unless an individual goes on vacation, or has an unchangeable job commitment.

These circumstances should be discussed with the director, Mr. John Culvahouse.

The Summer Band Program will meet each week-day through Friday, August 8.

Reds, Pirates Gain Dixie Triumphs

The Dixie Youth Baseball team sponsored by Union Carbide, the Reds and Pirates, both recorded wins in Monday night league action.

The Reds earned by Smith Chair Company Phillies 10-6. The Reds got off to a six run lead at the end of two innings, but the Phillies closed the difference to 7-4 in the fourth. A three run spurt by the Reds in the fifth put the game on ice.

Tommy Bowers was the winning pitcher, striking out seven in the four innings he worked.

Travis Kiser suffered the setback.

Walter Henry had two hits for the winning Reds. (Travis Kiser unloaded a home run and single and Joe Millsap aced for two triples to carry the hitting of the Phillies. The Pirates edged the league leading VFW Giants 8-6. The Pirates decided the game with a four run outburst in the fourth inning. The big factor coming on a single into centerfield by Rondall Branan on an attempted intentional walk. One of the pitches came too close to the plate and Branan reached out and slapped the hit.

Branan was the winning pitcher, striking out 12. He also had three hits for the night. (Tommy Russel) added two safeties for the Pirates.

Bruce Arden was the losing pitcher, getting a pair of hits from Zell Hawkins (two triples) in the batting department.

Bank Of Loudon County Is New Softball Leader

Maremont and Union Carbide, both winners through last week's softball standings, have captured triumphs.

Maremont decked Union Carbide 11-5 to break into the "winners" circle on Tuesday night. Maremont took a first inning 4-0 lead only to be tied 4-4 after two innings. A three-run third inning gave Maremont the push they needed and continued on from nevertheless the Union Carbide cellar-dwellers were not to be denied. On Monday

Brookshire raced home with the deciding run in the eighth following a single and three base error.

The Merchants losing only their third league game and third one run defeat at that, had to rally in the fifth inning for two runs to knot the score at 5-5.

Ricky Dixon led Union Carbide with two hits, while the Merchants received a pair of singles from Rick Alexander, Ronnie Starritt, and J.C. Moninger.

The Bank of Loudon County has moved into first place in the standings with two wins during the week.

The Bankers advanced into a three way first place tie on Tuesday night by slopping the Loudon Merchants 8-7 on Yancy Hampton's lead off single and advancement to third on an error. An intentional walk to Jack Nichols was in vain as Bill Thompson drove a fly ball to left field that was dropped allowing Hampton to score.

The Merchants led 2-0 through two innings only to fall behind 3-2 at the end of three frames. A three run fourth regained the Merchants the lead, but a four run fifth placed the Bank of Loudon County ahead for the second time. Finally the seventh inning revealed the thrilling results:

Yancy Hampton (three hits) led Gary Lorenz (two hits) was the big sticks for the winners. Donnie Darnell, Jerry Russell, Ronnie Starritt, and Dewayne Plemons all had a pair of hits for the Merchants.

The Bank of Loudon County took over the standings Monday night by whipping Pond Creek Mill 18-5. This game is under protest however by Pond Creek on the grounds the Bankers had players in the game out of uniform. This protest will be decided before the local Sub-District Tournament gets underway at Lenoir City on the grounds the Bankers had players in the game out of uniform. ### Loudon City Golf League Concludes Half Season

The American Division is in more of a scramble with several teams jockeying in and out of the number one slot. Monty Lawson and Gordo Watson have been the most impressive team in recent weeks and currently hold the American Division lead with 226 team points.

John Lettens and Buck Kirkland, not to be counted out, are in second place with 223 team points. Lennox and Kirkland have never been on top during this summer's league play.

John Cobb and Richard Archer have shared the top position, but are now down to fourth place with 215 team points. Butch Early and Coye Blankenship are holding third place with 216 team points.

Monty Lawson has a fairly comfortable lead in the individual play for points in the American Division with 126 points.

Buck Kirkland is the division challenger with 112 points.

Lawson and Ted Lomax tied for individual low medalist honors last week with 33's.

Lawson and Gordo Watson was the team low set standouts with a combined 71 to prompt their hold on the division lead.

The Hamilton Bank remained in the thick of the league race with a 62 win over Maremont on Monday night. The Hamilton outfit rolled up a 6-1 lead and were in control the rest of the way.

Danny Russell's two-run double and Harold Brookshire's two hits set the tempo for the Hamilton Bank. Mike Meminger and William Humphrey led Maremont with two hits each.

"Yankees Tired" Following Recent Minor League Action

The Saturday morning Minor League baseball play had its high and lows this past weekend when the Yankees exploded for a 30-2 trouncing of the Pirates.

The Yankees had an unbelievable 30 hits and jumped to a 9-0 first inning lead. The game "clinch" came in the fourth inning when the Yankees scored 12 runs before the Pirates could retire the side.

The Yankees, whose players were not all present, had to pick-up Steve Ward of the Orioles to have enough players for the game.

Nevertheless, the Yankees seemed to be adequate for the challenge. Tim Kirkland was the batting star with a single and four consecutive home runs, two in one inning.

Bruce Giles hit two home runs, two doubles and a single.

Arnold Hickman slammed a home run, two doubles and a single. Ray Mills hit for the circuit in the game, hammering a home run, triple, double and single.

Troy Kiser hit a home run and a single. Harry Wetherton added two doubles and two singles. Steve Ward topped the hitting performance off with his sixth and seventh home runs of the season and added a single.

The Pirates scored their two runs in the last inning on a two run home run by Handy Arp.

In an early morning contest the Orioles pounced on the Athletics by a count of 13 to 5.

The Orioles struck for seven runs in the third inning, ignited by Steve Ward's fifth home run of the season in Minor League play.

Jeff Gray hit a home run for the Athletics.

Pirates Rip Lenoir City Angels

The Loudon Dixie Youth Pirates rode the one-hit pitching of Curt Wayman and relief man Randall Hiramani to a 6-1 victory over the Lenoir City Angels 6-2 Thursday night.

Wayman faced only 13 batters through four innings but had to be relieved by Hiramani in the fifth as he started to tire. The game was a no hit effort until David Hudson drilled a single off

Bank Of Loudon County Brewers Win Pair Of Babe Ruth Games

The Loudon Babe Ruth Baseball League had games on Wednesday and Saturday last week.

On Wednesday night the Bank of Loudon County Brewers handed Lenoir City an 8-1 defeat at Loudon.

Winning pitcher Tim Denton tossed a five hitter and struck out nine for the Brewers.

The Brewers jumped to a 6-0 lead on losing hurler Tony Weaver by the end of three frames and were never seriously challenged.

Conway Tuck, Ben Fields, and Kevin Bailes each scored two runs for the winners.

Lenoir City bounced back to gain a split in a second game which involved the Stop-n-Shop Athletics. Lenoir City won 13-6.

Dear Rowe was the losing pitcher for the Athletics.

John Underwood gained credit for Lenoir City's win.

The Athletics held a brief 4-0 first inning lead, but a run in the second inning erased the deficit and the visitors were never headed.

Eddie Spires with a three run home run and Kreg Smith's two singles paced Lenoir City. The Athletics had just four hits in the contest.

Saturday night regular season play resumed with the Bank of Loudon County Brewers posting a 12-1 win over the Co-op Yankees.

Conway Tuck led the Brewers with a sparkling hit and 10 strikeout performances. He also pounded out a couple of hits to spark the Brewers.

Van Rutledge contributed two singles.

Conway Dukes was the losing pitcher, yielding three runs in the first and third innings.

The highlight game of the week was between the Watnberger Indians and the Stop-n-Shop Athletics. The Indians prevailed in a thriller 10-9.

The Indians led by 10-5 going into the seventh inning, but with two outs and two strikes on the batter the catcher dropped the ball on a called third strike and the batter managed to reach first base safely.

Non-Hunters Taxed For Wildlife

Who should pay for wildlife habitat? Just the sportsmen? Should bird watchers, photographers, hikers, campers and other non-hunting outdoorsmen share the cost? How should wildlife money be spent? Only on game species of interest to the sportsman? Should the money be spent on animals with only ecological and esthetic qualities?

These questions have plagued conservationists since the early 1900's. Two landmark laws, The Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration (Putnam-Toberson) Act of 1937 and The Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration (Dingell-Johnson) Act of 1956, put most of the financial burden on hunters and fishermen.

These acts provide a manufacturer's excise tax of 10 percent on sporting arms and ammunition, and certain types of fishing tackle.

With the revenues from these taxes, the Federal Government has provided over $600-million dollars in state wildlife resources agencies. More than $100-million of this has been spent acquiring 1.5 million acres of land and water for wildlife habitat.

An additional $200-million a year is paid by the estimated 2 million sportsmen in the United States for hunting and fishing licenses.

These funds have traditionally been spent on programs designed for the people who provide it — the sportsmen.

According to the National Wildlife Federation, two federal agencies are taking a new look at this system of taxes and expenditures. The council on environmental quality, which makes policy recommendations to the president, and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, which administers wildlife policy for the Interior Department, are studying a proposal to tax non-hunting and non-fishing users of public wildlife lands and to spend more money protecting non-game species (i.e., animals that are not hunted or caught).

The proposal is contained in a not-yet-published report prepared for the two agencies by the Wildlife Management Institute, a private, non-profit conservation organization.

According to this report state and federal recreation lands have experienced a marked increase in use by "non-consumptive users" in recent years with more than 12-million just observing and photographing wildlife.

A key recommendation of this report calls for funding on-game wildlife habitat programs with a federal manufacturer's tax on up to 10 percent on recreational vehicles, tents, sleeping bags, lanterns, snow skis, winter gear, scuba diving equipment, bicycles, cameras, film and other photographic equipment.

Other suggested excise tax sources include: strip mining royalty fees, zoo admissions, non-returable bottles, building permits, recreational stamps in the absence of hunters or anglers, a surcharge on timber sales on public lands, and a one-dollar lock-off on federal and state income taxes.

Nearly $150-million annually could be raised by such a tax which could easily fund a recommended $40-million federal matching grant-in-aid non-game wildlife habitat program with the states.

While believing that some sportsmen's money should be used for non-game work, the WMI Report notes that "...all members of society, not solely hunters and anglers, are the beneficiaries of non-game programs. Hence, a broader program of society must share in the costs."

Fishing Report . . .

WATAUGA—The lake is clear and falling with the temperature of 80 degrees. Largemouth-smallmouth bass and walleye are poor. Striped bass, crappie and catfish are fair on plugs, night crawlers and minnows. Fishing is better at night.

LOWER CHEROKEE—Largemouth bass are poor with few being taken at night on plastic worms and other deep running plugs. Catfish are fair on worms. Catfish are using natural bait. Rockfish are excellent when fishing at night on minnows fishing deep and also good on large minnows. Several in the 12 to 18 pound being caught.

UPPER CHEROKEE—Largemouth bass are fair while fishing early and late and at night with deep running plugs and artificial worms. Smallmouth bass are fair at night when fishing deep off deep rocky shorelines. While bass are night using minnows. Crappie are poor.

very little activity. Sunfish are good on natural bait. Rock hybrid are fair early morning and late afternoon on large bucktail flies and minnows. The lake is clear and falling. That portion from Cloud Creek to John Sevier is murky.

UPPER LOUDON—Bass and crappie are poor. Bluegill and catfish are good on crickets and worms, also cutbait, night crawlers and shad minnows. Stripes are fair under lights at night using minnows.

LOWER NORRIS—Few white bass are being caught under lights at night. Bluegill are good still fishing with crickets and worms, and casting small popping bugs. Rockfish are fair when casting the breaks fishing early and late using medium running lures. The lake is clear and falling.

NORRIS TAILWATER—Rainbow trout are good on corn and worms, but fly fishermen are having good success also. Best fishing early when water off and late in the evening.

Bridge Scheduled For Facelift

The Spring of 1976 and I can't see us getting all this work done in one calendar season," Carpenter commented.

Carpenter said there might be times when the bridge will be closed completely, but he expected this would be minimal and at times of the day when traffic was light. He did say that with one lane closed during parts of the work many people might elect to use the interstate when traveling between Loudon and Loudon City. He said work on the bridge had been delayed until the interstate was completed and Sugarhill was closed because of this.

Carpenter indicated that a crew of engineers will study problems of traffic flow at the new city park development on U.S. 11 and determine if turn lanes can be installed on available rights of way. The City is considering extending sidewalks as far as the parking entrance road if this is done.

The state, during the Dunn administration, offered up to $100,000 in matching funds to repair or replace the bridge. Cost estimates to replace the structure run up to $400,000 which is beyond the financial means of the city Mayor Lambert said.

Carpenter suggested the city seek relief through federal legislators or perhaps a private act in the state legislature. He would not speculate on the legal position of the city in a possible court action against the state over the lack of notification and agreement when the state abandoned the highway.

Committee Awaits City Action

before we spend all this time of making decisions and proposals if we make them and they don't want consolidation, then we are wasting our time."

Cusick kept repeating his points about the "standards" of the Loudon City Schools. Finally Hagler said he was not so sure that Loudon City's schools were so superior to those of the county, and that perhaps there was a lack of knowledge of the opposing systems.

Hodney Eugene Sampson celebrated his eighth birthday, Friday, June 27 with a camp-out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rogers in Park Creek Community. His guests were Charles Smith, Andy Milgaps and Randall Sampson. Hodney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Webb of Philadelphia and Richard Sampson of Loudon. HIGHLAND PARK HOME BURNS—Only a portion of the brick walls and the charred remains of the Bill Issac's family home remained Monday morning when this picture was taken. Friday night a blaze in the basement of the house was extinguished by the Loudon County Rescue Squad. The family was out of town on a Wagon Train ride at the time. About 2:22 a.m. Monday the Squad fire fighters were called back to the house, located at Highland Park. This time the structure was destroyed. The family had been staying in a motel and was not at home. The cause of the fires was not determined. The home and all its contents were a total loss.

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS
Several people have asked that we write some about Riverview Baptist Church which started as a Mission Church of Loudon First Baptist many years ago. Today, the church has a modern building with modern furniture and heating and air conditioning. I don't know exactly when they celebrate their birthday, but we recall February from somewhere in our memory.
At the time this Mission was started, Rev. Paul Hall who is now with the Tennessee Baptist Convention, was pastor of Loudon First Baptist.

One of our pictures this week shows him manning a shovel in ground breaking ceremonies at the location of the church building. The other men in the picture are the late John Hooker and Rev. Lloyd Davis, the church's first pastor. He served the church for several years before his retirement.

Our other picture is a group of three pictures. One at the house in which the Mission was first started on Main Street. A group of members marching to new building and the bottom picture shows the basement portion of the building which was used for their first meeting place.

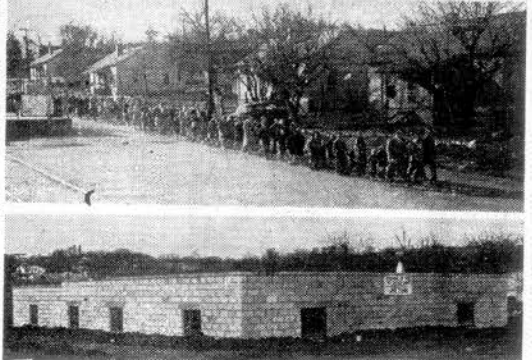

There were several people active in the start of this successful Baptist church. We won't mention them for fear of omitting someone.

We noticed the other day that someone had a tent set up on Steeple Street and was having a tent meeting. We thought of the years past when just about every summer someone would hold a tent revival. One of the places popular for setting a tent was the Reservoir Hill. In those days, there were very few houses in this part of town and thus made an ideal place to put up a tent. I can't recall who the preacher was but one summer a tent meeting was in progress and on a hot summer night it came a terrible wind storm and blew the tent away while the services were being held. No one was hurt seriously, but a lot of damage was done to the tent. Another place where revivals were held was the place known as the Pole Yard, down near the river.

In thinking about old time meetings held in the summers of long ago in our area, we were driving out in the country and passed the area where Preacher Wright held the old time Brush Harbor meetings years ago. About all the visible signs are gone, but we are quite sure many of our readers recall this from many years ago. I suppose Preacher Wright is now deceased. I haven't heard anything about him in many years.

We would like to have any pictures of Civil War soldiers our readers might have. We are planning something in conjunction with the coming Bi-Centennial of our country. We know there are possibly some around but we don't know who to ask. We would appreciate your help.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

July 18 Final ASC Deadline

The final date for farm operators to enroll in the 1975 Agricultural Conservation Program will be July 18, according to Martha Blair, County Executive Director of the Loudon County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).
"There are some differences between the ACP and the 1974 conservation program," Miss Blair said. "Important objectives of the program this year are that the needed conservation must be beyond that which the farmer would accomplish without cost-share assistance and practices must provide enduring benefits."
"With the limited allocation to Loudon County, ACP cost-share assistance will help correct some conservation problems in the area and we will endeavor to see that the tax dollar is well spent," Miss Blair added.
Interested producers should see that a request is filed before the final date.

GREER'S LOUDON

GOOD FUN—These people with their cow and donkey had just as much fun as anyone at the Loudon parade.

MARK GIBSON was one of many young men who attempted to climb the greasy pole at the Loudon Carnival Friday to retrieve a $20 bill pinned at the top. Before the day was over the pole had been conquered.

GOOD GUESS—Lion Bill House was in charge of the weight guessing game at the Loudon Carnival. If he missed by more than five pounds the entrant won a prize. He didn't miss often.

THE LIBERTY BELL was the featured item along with a number of Loudon area youngsters on the International Association of Machinists Union float in the July 4th parade.

MR. AND MRS. HERMAN CHAMBERLAIN

FROM THE GOOD OLD DAYS—A group from the Loudon County Association of Retired Persons loaded in an antique Ford truck, with their churn, spinning wheel and baby buggy for a ride in the Greenback Parade Friday.

GOOD CROWD—Part of the crowd that lined the sidewalks in downtown Loudon are shown as the Parade passes the area Friday.

CLIMB ON THE WAGON—Dexter Ryerley stopped his wagon several times during the Greenback July 4th parade to let more children climb on the ride in the parade.

ALWAYS A HIT—The decorated bicycles are always a big attraction at the Loudon July 4th Parade. Some of the more than 100 bikes in the competition are shown dressed for the occasion.

Business With His Father-In-Law...

□ Her main fame in history came from the day she threw herself across the barred head of Captain John Smith and prevented her father, the mighty Indian ruler, Powhatan, from bashing his brains out.

But Pocahontas was to have a larger, if less publicized, role in the development of America. After Smith returned to England, the Indian maid married a young settler named John Rolfe. Powhatan took his son-in-law into the business and had him taught the Indian secrets of growing tobacco. Rolfe improved the tobacco strain by importing milder seeds from the West Indies. Suddenly, Virginia tobacco was the rage of the European markets. The rush to grow the golden leaf brought settlers by the thousands, pushed back the wilderness and hastened the development of Virginia and the American Colonies.

Pocahontas and Powhatan? They were sculpted in wood and placed in front of thousands of tobacco shops.

IS YOUR ATTIC LIKE AN OVEN?

Air trapped in your attic can get as hot as 140 degrees and add unwanted heat to your entire house. Your air conditioner then has to work extra hard to keep you cool.

You can cut down on attic heat by installing at least six inches of insulation in the ceiling, plus gable and eave vents to let out the hot air and draw in the cooler air. An attic ventilating fan will speed up the air exchange.

Make your home more comfortable and save on cooling costs by getting rid of hot air trapped in your attic.

found one lacking to constitute a Quorum, two were represented by proxy (Mitchell Rose and James Matthews) but it was ruled that proxies could not take oath. Jones sent a letter stating his inability to attend as Chancery matters necessitated his absence at Madisonville. J.D. Turner is confined to his bed by sickness. On Tuesday we met again and counting noses gave a Quorum and one to spare. The Commissioners present being Wm. Y. Huff, Chairman, W.E. Hope, Mitchell Rose, James Matthews, P.R. Hackney, J.W. Robinson. On being sworn into office they immediately set to work with the following results: 3 election precincts were designated in Blount, 3 in Monroe and 6 in Roane. Clerks, Judges and Officers of Election appointed to each and authority given to the officers for holding said Election in their respective places on Saturday the 18th day of June. The Officer holding such Election to bring returns to Wm. Y. Huff Chairman of Board on Monday after the Election when the Board will meet again and if the New County is established will proceed to form it into districts. It was very late yesterday and I could not give you any news at all time hence my not writing sooner. Your express package turned up all right and I distributed them as judiciously as I could giving Col. Hope quite a number to distribute in his section. The posters I filled out myself with the exception of the Loudon undertook to do, and acted according to your pencil note in regard to margin filling them up with Loudon June 7, 1975. All was in readiness for the 18th.

THE BICENTENNIAL IS HERE AND NOW!
A series of periodic articles prepared by The Fort Loudoun Chapter of the Daughters of American Colonists

This is the third in a series of articles relating to events in Loudon County during May and June of 1876. The Legislature continued in session in Nashville and David Fleming Harrison of Loudon was in the House of Representatives representing Roane County. His efforts in behalf of the creation of the new county had been fruitless but a June 18th election had to be called for the required direct vote of the people involved from the counties of Blount, Monroe and Roane; the name of the county was still hanging fire-Christiana was being applauded by some and frowned upon by others who were showing an increasing preference for the name to be changed to Loudon County; and, too, all arrangements had not been taken care of for the Lodge's "Celebration" on the 24th of June. These were among the things requiring attention at home and Mr. Harrison was many miles from the scene. His good friend William H. Browning in Loudon continued to look after matters on the home front and through an exchange of letters things were moving along. The commissioners representing the counties involved, being contacted by Mr. Browning to meet on the 6th of June and make plans for the election on the 18th.

a good meeting of the Board. I think everything looks lovely. "Now a few words in regard to our Celebration." Apparently the earlier housing problem was being resolved as Mr. Browning's thoughts now turned to food for the estimated 1000 guests expected at the celebration. "I leave proposals were made to (name withheld) to provide the dinner of fifty cents per head the Lodge undertaking to guarantee as many as 300 head or 150 dollars. He seemed to accept the proposal but backed out yesterday and in lieu thereof substituted the following: very moderate proposition. He would give us the use of his Dining Room on that day for fifty dollars. O Modesty no fear you are becoming extinct while you have such an able representative as (name withheld). To think of charging fifty dollars for an empty room. We are to have a called meeting tomorrow night to take some final action in the case and I think that our best plan would be to set dinner in the school rooms, and I also think that we could get a caterer from Knoxville who would be willing to get up a first class dinner at about fifty cents per head. The trouble of voluntary contributions is that parties who donate if only 25 cents worth expect tickets for a dozen which will not answer our purpose at least not in this case. I wish you would suggest something. I will write you again on Tuesday giving you all particulars of everything." By now, too, a potential candidate for one of the county offices had appeared on the local political horizon and his appearance was noted by Mr. Harrison. "I hear (name withheld) is very zealous in favor of the New County and he only opposed it you know just because he thought the County wasn't ready for such a measure you know and stands willing to sacrifice his time and talents in behalf of the New County. So you must not be surprised to find (name withheld) offering himself as a Martyr to the people at our coming election."

to give Mr. Harrison "particulars of everything" on Tuesday as promised the meeting on Monday did not come off exactly as planned. There were conflicts in those days too and the particulars were delayed until Wednesday June 9th. "I expect you are impatient to hear from me in regard to the action of Commissioners Monday the appointed day. We had a meeting but on counting noses

CAPITOL COMMENTARY BY M. LEE SMITH

(C) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

With the beginning of the new fiscal year one rip-off of Tennessee taxpayers by some state and county officials has ended and another may soon begin.

The now concluded rip-off involved loopholes in the state retirement system which permitted state and county officials to receive unwarranted pension benefits. Major abuses have now been corrected as a result of legislation which became effective July 1.

Between the time of enactment and the July 1 effective date, 110 magistrates, 5, 2 lots.

and other county officials resigned their positions to take advantage of the loophole permitting a county official, regardless of salary, to receive a pension of $7 per month for every year of service.

Included among those availing themselves of this provision were Henry C. Foster, Magistrate, Clet Miller, School Board Member, James Bailey, School Board Member, and Lester Thomas, School Board Member, of Loudon County.

The other rip-off which will likely occur involves the salary of major state and county officials. This year these officials may receive cost of living pay increases ranging from 11 to 12.4 per cent. Increases of this magnitude will likely be paid despite substantial salary increases for these officials the last two or three years.

The General Assembly sought to curtail salary adjustments for both state and county officials by passage of legislation limiting increases this year to 2.5 percent. The limitation was to apply to county officials in each county provided the limitation was ratified by two thirds vote of the county court.

Unfortunately Gov. Ray Blanton vetoed this enactment based on an advisory opinion of the Attorney General. The opinion concluded that under the Constitution existing statutory cost of living salary adjustments for judges, legislators and the governor could not be rescinded during their terms of office. Most believe that issue to be at least arguable either way from a legal standpoint.

An amendment to the General Appropriations Act intended to accomplish the same purpose did become law. But there are technical problems with that amendment which may result in its being declared invalid. In vetoing the act Gov. Blanton said state funds are not available to permit the payment of salary increases to state officials in excess of 2.5 percent, and for this reason increases will be limited to this amount.

Blanton's intended limitation by executive decision is inconsistent with the reasoning expressed in his veto message. If as Blanton contended, the act limiting salary increases was unconstitutional for legislators, judges and the governor, any executive decision to withhold less than the full increase would also be unconstitutional.

A 2.5 percent limitation on salary increases for county officials was also included in the vetoed act. Since the state does not pay the salary of county officials, Blanton could in no way limit their salary increases by executive decision. Existing state law apparently mandates counties to provide the increases.

The situation is no doubt thoroughly confusing to those not familiar with the inner workings of state government. It is a safe bet though that the governor, legislators, members of the governor's cabinet, judges, county officials, and others will receive this year salary increases ranging from 11 to 12.4 percent.

This will occur despite tight budgets and a salary increase limitation for teachers and rank and file state employees of 2.5 percent.

It is a rip-off.

LC Wants More Consolidation Discussions

Consolidation of the Loudon County Schools into the County system was a major topic of discussion at the Loudon City Council meeting Monday night.

The outcome was a recommendation that Mayor Joe Grayson contact Judge William Russell and try to get another meeting of the joint County-City committee appointed in June to study the matter. The committee held one meeting after its formation and adjourned on a motion that it not meet again until Loudon City decides definitely on consolidation.

The reason for the meeting now being sought is to get the committee to work with the State Department of Education, the East Tennessee Education Association or some independent group on the legal aspects of consolidation, what direction a local study should take and the things to consider.

Many persons expected a call for a referendum on consolidation to come from the meeting, but it did not materialize. Several members expressed a desire to make a final determination, but there was no motion for a vote of the people.

Bridge Death Lawsuits To Open Circuit Court

One of the smallest Circuit Court dockets of jury trials is scheduled to begin Monday before Circuit Judge Willard Kittrell. The session will run through August 14, with a one week recess in the middle of the term.

The first case is scheduled for two days and involves a double death claim and personal injury claim. The cases resulted from an accident that occurred during the construction of the 175 bridge across the Tennessee River that claimed the lives of two brothers and injured a third man.

The two widows are suing for $500,000 each in the deaths of their husbands.

The case has Willie Mae Hattley, administratrix of the Estate of Avery Allen Hattley, deceased; and Wilma S. Hattley, administratrix of the Estate of Avery Allen Hattley, deceased, as Steel Service Company, Inc., Simples Concrete Manufacturing Corporation, Inc.; Simples Concrete Forms, Inc.; Form Builders, Inc.; Wendell Willard, Agent; Form Builders, Inc.; J. The same defendants are facing action by the third party, Garland C. Harper, for several charges were placed against a man and woman who Loudon City and County officers stopped in Loudon Wednesday night on suspicion of possession of drugs.

County officers had received a tip that a black and white 1970 Cadillac was in the area and contained a quantity of illegal drugs. The car was seen in Monroe County about 9 p.m. but eluded officers. It was next seen at a restaurant in Loudon where the car was stopped and checked by city officers Ken Johnson and John Mills. Occupants of the car said they were on the way to Loudon County Memorial Hospital and the city officers released the vehicle and occupants.

Shortly afterward the city officers along with County Chief Deputy Lake Bright stopped the car as it left the hospital emergency room parking area.

Charlotte McKee and James W. Palmer were arrested at the scene after officers found a quantity of pills, two guns and a quantity of checks and credit cards which were reportedly stolen from a Loudon resident.

They were charged with possession of legend drugs, possession of stolen credit cards and carrying a pistol with intent to go armed. Miss McKee was later charged with destruction of county property after damage to contents of her jail cell were discovered. She was released under $3750 bond and Palmer under $500 bond.

MRS. RETA WEAR holds a jar containing two of the brown bats that occupy the attic of her house and forced the woman to move out of the home at Greenback. An attempt to scare the bats away Monday night ended up with the bats getting drunk from fumes making them unable to fly.

A COUPLE OF DRUNK RATS ventured out of the attic for the photographer, but the hundreds of others who have made nightly flights from the house stayed inside.

TVA STARTS HIGHWAY 72 RELOCATION—The Tennessee Valley Authority started work on relocating State Highway 72 in the Fork Creek Area. The highway is being relocated due to the Tellico Dam and Lake project. TVA is building the roadway and the State Highway Department will construct the bridges on the highway. The photo above was taken just off Fork Creek Road near the Charles Harrison farm. The highway is due for completion before January 1977 when TVA plans to start filling the new Tellico Lake.

Highway 72 Relocation Starts . . . Tellico Canal Bridge Bids Set

Bids on the bridge that will span the diversion canal between the two lakes, will be taken on August 8 by the Tennessee Department of Transportation, Commissioner Eddie Shaw announced this week.

The bridge will be located on Highway 95 East of the present Fort Loudon Dam and North of Tellico Dam. The six-tenths mile project including approaches is expected to cost $3,741,000 and take 300 working days to complete. The bridge is scheduled for completion before TVA starts filling Tellico Lake in January, 1977.

THE ROBERT JONES home on Mason Lane, Loudon, was damaged by fire, smoke and water Saturday night. Loudon firemen are shown extinguishing the blaze which was confined to the kitchen of the modern home. Jones is employed by Maremont. The family was not at home at the time of the fire which was discovered by a neighbor. Firemen think the blaze started from electric range.

Eviction Efforts Fail . . . Bats Drive Greenback Woman From Home

An attic full of bats literally drove Mrs. Reta Wear from her home at Greenback, Greenback businessman Jack Lett said he estimated the Brown Bat population in the woman's house to be upwards of 2000. A neighbor claims to have counted 600 about dusk fly out around the metal roof shingles and the save of the house.

Mrs. Wear, aunt to Loudon County Register of Deeds Ralph Wear, purchased the house in March and said she learned later that bats had been keeping house in the attic for about five years.

She started remodeling the house and soon moved in, but thoughts of thousands of bats being just a few feet over her head at night, and remembering scenes from horror movies just became too much for the woman and she moved out.

Several attempts to run the bats off have failed, although the population seems to have dropped some. The University of Tennessee thought the little flying mammals might be the endangered species known as Indiana Bats and it would be unlawful to kill them. It was later learned they were Brown Bats.

Board Elects Wampler . . . Commissioner Not Happy With School Progress

Ted Wampler, a member of the Loudon County Board of Education for five years, was elected Chairman of the seven member board last Thursday night. J. B. Hagler was elected Vice Chairman. Three new members of the board attended their first meetings. They are Jim Cardwell, Bob Carter and W.D. McCarroll. The trio was appointed last week by County Court to replace three members who resigned recently.

Although there was a rather short agenda the board spent almost 90 minutes discussing the school building program and a meeting that Superintendent Edward Headlee and board member Hagler had last week with State Commissioner of Education Sam Ingram.

Headlee said that he found the Commissioner to hold the same position he did last April when he threatened to cut off the funds unless the county court authorized sufficient funds to correct a long list of deficiencies in the county buildings across the county prior to school opening this fall (Aug. 18).

Headlee said he told Commissioner Ingram that the board was satisfied with the building program it had presented the court, but that the court was reluctant to authorize bonds without a definite price estimate and a schedule of priorities to spread the program over a period of years.

The Commissioner reportedly told Headlee and Hagler that he was satisfied with the actions of the Board in having the county survey made and the recommendations to the court and he was expecting the court to live up to their promise to consider the building program. He said he would like to see the court to live up to their promise to consider the building program. He said he would like to see the court to live up to their promise to consider the building program.

Headlee said he thought the priority route was over-worked, but felt a program could be devised without the use of priorities which would meet with court approval. He said he would like to see the court to live up to their promise to consider the building program. He said he would like to see the court to live up to their promise to consider the building program.

Wampler suggested that the school board members talk with their spouses individually, exchange ideas and with his information he felt a proposal would be drafted to the court which would be approved.

The board ordered Superintendent Headlee to take the list of improvements sought by the Glendale parents at that school against the structural problems the state found in the building when it condemned it to be sure the work scheduled for there in the next few weeks would meet state demands. It was recommended that the school be closed for the ceiling level be left off if necessary to get the needed work done within the $25,000 approved by the court.

Four new teachers were hired by the board at the meeting, but one had to promise to get a haircut before reporting to work at Seekoe School.

The teachers are Nancy F. Vann, special education under the 250 program; Edward Mazanek, elementary math at Seekoe and Philadelphia; Imogene Puckett, who has taught a number of years in the system, being elevated to Principal of Davis School; Mrs. Ben Parkhurst, title I instructor at Philadelphia; Seekoe Principal Geraldine Boone asked that the board suggest to Mr. Mazanek that his shoulder length, blonde hair be cut before he reported to the classroom. Mrs. Boone said she had suspended boys with hair shorter than Mazanek's. He readily agreed to have his haircut cut.

HOSES FROM EXHAUSTS of trucks parked outside the Wear home are shown being placed in the attic in an attempt to run out bats that have lived there for years. The bats just got drunk and very few were able to fly.

BAT NAP TIME—A few of the estimated 200 brown bats in the attic of the Reta Wear home at Greenback are shown in this picture before an attempt was made Monday night to move the pests out.

Entrance was made by breaking the glass out of a basement door.

Cannon-Colvin Nuptials Said

Wedding vows were exchanged between Miss Selena Marie Cannon and Johnny King Colvin on Saturday, June 28, in the First Baptist Church of Loudon. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cannon and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Cassidy all of Loudon, and Mr. Aaron H. Colvin of Tellico Plains.

The evening ceremony was performed by Rev. Milton W. Bodlien before an altar decorated with groupings of tree candelabra garlands and with sprays of fern and palm and bearing white burning tapers. A program of wedding music, including some favorite hymns of the couple, was presented by Mrs. Ernest D. Black, pianist, and Mrs. Thomas A. Matlock, organist. Mrs. Darrell K. George, soloist sang "The Greatest of These is Love" and concluded the ceremony with "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of boeskin satin with organza overlay applied with hand clipped Chantilly lace. The English illusion veil was bordered and applied with the same lace. The gown and veil were all handmade by the bride's mother. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white two-inch roses, Stephanotis, white Gypsophila and coral Tulle. Her hair was styled in leather-leaf fern, and with it a lace handkerchief which had belonged to her paternal grandmother, the late Mrs. Marie Cannon. Her jewelry was a diamond pendant, gift of her father, and very earrings belonging to her paternal great aunt, Mrs. Laura Goodman.

Gowns of floral voile in shades of blue and coral on a background of beige with blue picture has banded in the material of the dresses were worn by the bride's attendants. Miss Rita Cannon of Cleveland was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Karen Bledsoe, Beth George, Nancy Purdy and Mrs. Jimmy Kool all of Loudon, and Miss Rhonda Goodman of Gastonia, North Carolina. The bride carried Colonial bouquets of coral Talisman roses. Paula Arden, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. Christy and Hope Russell, cousins of the bride, gave out scrolls and rice-filled satin roses.

Tim Guider of Loudon was the groom's best man. Groomsman were Steve Colvin of Smyrna, Georgia, Doug Colvin and Robert Colvin of Loudon, and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Dancigers of Richmond, Va., and Mr. Danciger's sister, Mrs. Anna Ignata of New York.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Woodard over the weekend were Mrs. Betty Green and daughter, Betty Lynn Sumrutt. Howard Henson of Mt. Pleasant and Eugene Bright of California.

Mrs. John G. Clarkson, Jr., of Kingston, Jamaica, was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laffer last week. Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shubert were their son and family Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hugh Green, Susie and Hugh of Fairburn, Ga.

We'd like to see lower prices, too...

for food, for clothing, for housing, for fuel.

We wish TVA didn't have to pay several times what it used to pay for coal to make electricity.

We wish interest rates weren't so high. And we wish we didn't have to pay higher prices for the hardware we use—for poles, for transformers, for electric cable, for crossarms, and on and on.

We wish we could supply your power at the same price we used to be able to.

But wishing won't make it so.

Canning, Freezer Tips

By Bonnie F. Sheeley, Assistant Extension Agent

RIGHT EQUIPMENT. DIRECTIONS NEEDED FOR HOME CANNING.

If you have never canned food you will need help, call or write me, your Agricultural Extension Home Economist. Canning is not difficult, but you need reliable directions and the right equipment to succeed.

Use a boiling waterbath canner to can pickles and most fruits, vegetables and meats. It is deep enough so the water is well over the tops of jars, and has space to boil freely. You will also need a rack to hold jars off the bottom of the container.

If canning vegetables, you will need a pressure canner. To process these low-acid foods requires a 240 degree F. temperature, that is, higher than that of boiling water.

When canning is done in a waterbath, the temperature reaches boiling point (212 degree F.) which is suitable for high-acid foods but not for low-acid foods. The higher temperature is needed to destroy certain spores that grow in low-acid foods.

Place jars of vegetables in the pressure canner following manufacturer's directions for preparing and closing the canner. Allow air to escape and then heat to 10 pounds pressure. Maintain this temperature for recommended length of time for vegetables. To determine correct temperature and processing time, use a reliable canning guide from USDA, county Extension Office, or a reputable canning company. Call 458-2671 for a copy of a canning guide.

If you are concerned about the cost of equipment, you may wish to invest in only the pressure canner. The pressure canner, if deep enough, may also be used as a waterbath canner. Cover the pressure canner but do not fasten. Be sure to have the petcock wide open so steam escapes and no pressure is built up inside.

If using recommended procedures seems bothersome, keep in mind that they are not difficult to master and that you want a safe product.

Bonnie Talk

BONNIE SHEELEY, Assistant Extension Agent, Agricultural Extension Service, The University of Tennessee

Slow-cookers available on the current market vary in design and quality. People who plan to buy or already own a slow-cooker should pay extra attention to which low setting is used. Some manufacturers extend the low-heat range of their slow-cooker to add versatility.

But some slow-cookers have a temperature setting below 145 degrees, and if used improperly, may allow bacteria capable of causing food-borne illnesses to grow and survive. Temperatures ranging from 90 to 140 degrees and may survive in temperatures above 140 degrees.

The rule of thumb for preventing food-borne illnesses in high-protein, low-acid foods is: Food should not remain in the danger zone 90 to 120 degrees for more than two hours. Food should not remain in the 10 to 140 degree range for longer than four hours. The two and four hour periods include preparation, room temperature storage and cooking time.

For safety, it is suggested that such foods as seafood and milk should be added during the last few minutes of the cooking time. Also, from a safety standpoint, dishes with an acidic tomato base rank as less critical than protein foods.

In a laboratory test, the temperature at the edge of one slow-cooker reached 120 degrees in 20 minutes. But one hour and 15 minutes were required to reach 140 degrees in the center. In another test, using a slow-cooker, a three- and one-half pound chuck roast reached 120 degrees in the outside one-inch in two hours, but it took four and one-half hours to reach 140 degrees in the center.

At recent National Extension Safety Conference, research reports indicated that food prepared in slow-cookers should be heated until it reaches a safe temperature within the recommended time limit. If the slow-cooker is turned to a high setting until safe temperature of the food is reached, then turned to a lower setting, this should heat the food to the desired temperature more quickly.

1976 Budget
The budget for operating the Loudon County School System has been placed in final form for consideration by the budget committee of County Court. The meeting to consider the budget will be Friday, July 18, 1975 at 7:00 p.m. in the office of the Director of Central Accounts. Those of us in the school system sincerely hope that the budget can be approved as it now stands. To further reduce it will mean offering the children less than they had this past year. We know that we cannot offer them what they truly deserve, but we hope and pray that we can be granted the funds to maintain an average educational opportunity for all.

Community Education
The Loudon County School System will be involved in a program of community education beginning this fall. Courses will be offered for "tomorrow."

The board rescinded previous action in voting to participate in a one year trial basis in a county-wide maintenance program. The action came after Superintendent Headlee said he had revised the costs of the program to bring the school share of the program under what the system had proposed to spend on maintenance. He said that County Judge William Russell had agreed to the proposal which cut $6,000 from the school share bringing their portion to $66,000 for the fiscal year.

The program calls for a director of Purchasing and Maintenance, who would be county purchasing agent Arnold Jenkins, of which the schools would pay 30 percent of the salary. A committee with 75 percent of its salary to come from the school budget and seven team members with the schools picking up 75 percent of their salaries. Headlee said he based the salary percentages on the amount of time he figured each would spend on school maintenance in construction with the number of buildings maintained by the schools.

Flies Cause Eye Problems With Cattle

By: Charles F. McCall Extension Leader Face flies and related eye problems are much more of a problem with Loudon County cattle now than in recent years.

Flies feed around the moisture and mucus secretions from the eyes and nose, and contribute to pinkiey and other eye irritations. Environmental factors probably account for both the earlier appearance of the flies and the increased numbers.

Too many dust bags and backrubbers are not used properly and create every two weeks. Diesel fuel is most frequently used as the insecticide carrier for backrubbers.

Waggoner's Zodiacs Of Knoxville Roll Unbeaten In Fort Loudoun Classic

Waggoner's Zodiacs, Women's defending Tennessee State Softball Champions of Knoxville, won the first Women's Fort Loudoun Softball Classic this past weekend. The Knoxville girls romped through the weekend festivities of softball competition without suffering a single loss. The Zodiacs relied on a stout defense and reserve bench strength in the early rounds of the tournament, but finally exploded for big offensive games down the stretch run. The "Champs" wrapped up the Classic in style with a 10-0 triumph over Lakeview American on Sunday afternoon.

Linda Russell, flame throwing shortstop for the Zodiacs was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Nancy Bowman, former Lenoir City and University of Tennessee standout girl basketball performer, patrolled the Zodiacs' shortfield duties and had three clutch hits in Sunday's final. This is Miss Bowman's fourth season with the Zodiac team and she was recognized as the Knoxville Royals.

In the first game of the tournament, Hamilton Bank of Lenoir City was defeated by Lakeview American by the score of 13-4. Marietta Blackburn got a pair of hits for the losers while Linda Marcus and Peggy Ballard each had 3 hits a piece for the winners.

In the game that followed, the Knoxville Kittens romped over Busch Steel of Lenoir City 2-0. The Kittens pitched on 16 hits including 2 home runs.

The third game of the night saw Sterling IGA of Maryville take by the Bank of Loudoun County by the score of 9-2. Joan Valentine and Mary Maples had 3 hits for the winners as did Diana Wolfe for the losers.

The final game on Friday night was a thriller. The Zodiacs defeated Reeder Roadrunners 3 to 2 in the last inning on a hit by Dee Hughes who went 2 for 4 for the night. Four of the Roadrunners had 2 hits apiece.

On Saturday, the Dr. Pepper Bombers of Flat Lick, Kentucky, were almost shut out with a 4 to 1 loss to Lakeview American in which Lakeview out hit the Bombers 10 to 2. Kathy Merrill had 2 of the hits for Lakeview.

In the 10 a.m. game All-American Athletic of Knoxville squeaked by the Knoxville Kittens by the score of 3 to 2 collecting two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning with Becky Cross (2 for 3) driving in the winning run.

Sterling IGA defeated Chrysler Credit 6 to 2 with a 10 hit attack led by Edna Dixon (3 for 4), Sherry Dean, Aquilla Henley, and Sylvia Hawkins scored the 3 runs for Chrysler Credit.

In the fourth game of the day the Zodiacs slipped by Solway Hardware 2 to 1 behind the hitting of Linda Edwards and Beverly Riddell. Diane Balton had 3 hits for Solway.

The next 6 games were in the losers bracket where Hamilton Bank beat Bank of Loudoun County 12 to 6, the Roadrunners defeated Busch Steel 5-2, Dr. Pepper Bombers topped Chrysler Credit 8 to 2, Knoxville Kittens put out Solway Hardware 15 to 6, and 7 errors. American Athletic defeated the Roadrunners 7 to 1 in a game with 11 errors. Trula Kerns was 2 for 4 for the winners and the Roadrunners had 3 girls with 2 hits a piece.

The last game of the night saw Sterling IGA put the Knoxville Kittens out of the tournament by the score of 8 to 0. Sterling scored on 10 hits in the final 10-0 after mustering but 6 hits. Linda Caldwell and Nancy Bowman each had 3 hits for the Zodiacs.

Lakeview American was finally put into the losers bracket by the Zodiacs 4 to 2 where they beat All American Athletic 5 to 3 to pit themselves against the Zodiacs again in the final.

Lakeview fell to the Zodiacs in the final 10-0 after mustering but 6 hits. Linda Caldwell and Nancy Bowman each had 3 hits for the Zodiacs.

Lakeview American was finally put into the losers bracket by the Zodiacs 4 to 2 where they beat All American Athletic 5 to 3 to pit themselves against the Zodiacs again in the final.

City Golf Leaders Enjoy 25-Point Leads

Monty Lawson and Gordie Watson appear out in front with a comfortable lead as the stage of the American Division of Loudoun City Golf League Standings. Watson & Lawson have a 25 point lead over John Cobb and Richard Archer.

Butch Early and Coye Blankenship are 40 points off the pace in third place, while Buck Kirkland and John Lemert, hot golfers in recent weeks had a week off in the league competition and are in fourth position with 225 team points thus far.

Larry Lane and Tom Lambert have jumped into a second place tie with 240 points and Jeky Swiney and Paul Brakebill are just a point behind that with 238.

Dick Ryan and Ted Ryan fired a team round of 72 for the division low team score last week.

Jeky Swiney was the low individual in the National Division with a 37 score card.

LC-Loudon Sub-District III Softball Tourney Begins Tonight

The Loudon-Lenoir City Sub-District III softball tournament will start Thursday night (tonight) at Lenoir City's Civilian Field.

Fourteen teams are cast in the double elimination playdown with Lenoir City's Eaton Corporation representing the number one team expected to challenge for the tournament title.

Eaton has lost only once in its eight team league series, and that a set back by Lenoir City's fourth place team Walden's. The defeat was the first in four regular league seasons for an Eaton team.

The Loudon entries, six are not officially set in the tournament slots as printed in The Herald this week. Loudon Recreation Director was to have a league night of play on Wednesday in an effort to separate the closeness of the Loudon standings.

But as of this writing the Bank of Loudon County will get the Loudon bye as the top team having lost but twice in league battles.

The top four teams finishing in the Sub-District on Sunday will advance to Athens and the District tourney.

Mr. Earl Fox is in charge of the Lenoir City-Loudon Sub-District event and has set nightly admission prices at 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students.

Monday would conclude the tournament should rain interfere with the schedule.

Bank Of Loudon County Wins 10th League Game

The Bank of Loudon County continued its hot pace in the Loudon Recreation Softball League last Tuesday night dumping Maremont 17-5.

The Bankers were ahead 9-2 after two frames and the game was never in doubt.

Yancy Hampton, Lonnie Hawkins, and Gary Loren all had three hits for the Bank of Loudon County.

Tony Stamey and Greg Wilkerson had three hits to lead Maremont.

Pond Creek, losing a protest of a game played with the Bank of Loudon County last week, lost a tough one to the challenging Loudon Merchants 11-7.

The Merchants held a 4-0 lead going into the sixth inning when Pond Creek came up with five runs and a 5-4 lead.

The Merchants then came back with seven runs in their half of the sixth to put the game on ice.

Pond Creek tallied twice in a determined seventh but the rally fell short.

Jerry Russell had three hits for the Merchants including a home run.

Red Waller, Jim Brown, Peno Campbell, and Frank Henson all had two hits each for the Pond Creek team.

The Hamilton Bank of Loudon also kept its league hopes alive with a 13-2 clipping of Union Carbide.

Union Carbide led briefly 1-0 but the Hamilton team eased out to a 3-1 edge and continued to increase the lead from the fifth inning on.

Jim Curtis had four hits, Danny Russell three hits, and Buck Kirkland two home runs in setting the batting pace for

Dixie Youth Threesome Share First Place

The Union Carbide Pirates of the Loudon Dixie Youth League won its fourth straight game of the season Monday night. The victory moved the Pirates into a three way team deadlock for the league lead.

Tommy Russell got the Pirates off to a 1-0 lead in the first inning with a home run.

The slumping Phillies then jumped to a 4-1 advantage in the second inning as Tony Julian's home run proved to be a key hit.

The Pirates knotted the score at 4-4 in the third and added three scores in the fourth and one in the fifth in racing to an 8-5 win.

Randall Braanam got credit for the pitching win a three inning effort of two hits and eight strikeouts. Jimmy Russell relieved Braanam and yielded but a single and walked seven, five out of the last six batters he faced.

Travis Kiser was the losing hurter, striking out nine.

The loss was the Smith Chair Company's fifth in a row.

Tommy Russell set the tempo for the Pirates with three hits of the four pounded out by the Pirates.

In the second game of the night the Union Carbide Reds got off to a fast 7-1 lead over the VPW Giants and were never headed in gaining a 9-4 decision.

Tommy Bowers had a grand slam home run for the Reds in support of winning pitcher Barry Cooper's three hit pitching. Cooper fanned 11. Bruce Arden was tagged with the pitching loss.

Mark Rivers and Chris McQuarry had home runs for the Giants.

Inflation has finally reached the judicial system. Court costs in Loudon County has gone up to $32.25 effective July 15, 1975. This cost is tacked on to any fine that might be imposed for violation of a law.

As an example, the fine for fishing without a license is $10 plus the cost of $22.25 to total $32.25, as opposed to $7.50 for a hunting and fishing license.

Squires Expected To Set Tax Rate Monday Night

Loudon County Quarterly Court will hopefully complete its July session Monday night in a meeting starting at 7 p.m. The court recessed last week after considering only a few items on the regular monthly agenda.

The fiscal 1975-76 budget and property tax rate will probably get most of the attention of the squires. At this writing the tax rate required to fund the proposed budget would have to be $3.85 compared with the $3.86 rate of last year, but the Court Budget Committee will take one more crack at lowering the proposed county spending in a meeting set for this Friday night.

Tuesday afternoon the Court

Purchasing Committee composed of all the court members who are out on the budget committee, got a review of the budget from Budget Director James Custard, Judge William Russell, and Superintendent of Education Edward Headlee.

It is Headlee's budget that calls for all the tax increase. The school budget would command a $4.37 slice of the rate with the Bond Debt and General Fund budgets totaling $1.05 of the total rate.

One major portion of the school request is to replace school fund surplus the county court used this past year for operations instead of raising taxes last year. This alone calls for 55 cents increase in the tax rate and would add no new programs or spending in the education department.

Headlee said the school board is seeking $500,000 in new county funds to add to the programs and generally upgrade the educational offerings to the county students.

Bird Season

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission meeting in regular session in Nashville on June 11 and 12 (relatively set seasons on Dove, Woodcock, Wilson Snipe and Teal. These seasons were set in anticipation of the Federal guidelines. If these guidelines, which will be received in early July, differ drastically from last years the following seasons may be altered.

Dove season will be split into three segments, September 1-30, October 1-15, and December 20-January 12, 1976. The bag limit is 17 and hunting hours will run from noon until sunset.

Woodcock may be hunted from September 22-November 30 with a daily bag limit of 5. Hunting hours will be from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset.

Wilson Snipe season runs from December 25-February 27, 1976. The daily bag limit is 8 and hunting hours are the same as for Woodcock.

Bluewing, Greenwing and Cinnamon Teal will be legal from September 20-28. The daily bag limit is 4. Hunting hours will be from one hour after sunrise until one hour before sunset. These hours should provide enough daylight to enable hunters to distinguish between Teal and Wood Ducks.

Atomic Big Weekend

Another big weekend of late model sportsman racing is coming up at Atomic Speedway.

A pair of 36-lap feature events are on tap at the three-mile facility. The first one is set for Thursday night and all proceeds go to the East Tennessee Cerebral Palsy Chapter. The second is Saturday night.

It marks the second time in three weeks in which the popular track for both fans and drivers has been the site of two races in a three-day span.

Top drivers from throughout East Tennessee are expected for both events. Thursday's program also will be spiced with the presence of a couple of NASCAR Grand National drivers who will meet with fans and be available for autographs.

The schedule both nights starts at 8:30. Besides the 36-lap main event there also will be a 20-lap semi-feature, heats, time trials and a 20-lap race for Class B drivers.

Melvin Corum of Maynardville tries for a second straight win Thursday after notching a car-length win over Knoxville's Buddy Rogers in last week's feature.

A pair of Blount County drivers—J. Kerr of Rockford and Johnny Gibson of Maryville—have become the top performers in recent weeks in the Class B division. Tickets for both races this week will be $3.50 and $7. Children under 12 years are admitted free.

SIX POUND BASS—P.C. LaRue of Loudon is shown with a six pound large mouth bass he caught on a hot spot plug with ultra light tackle while fishing Watts Bar near Loudon Thursday.

Tax Proposals Could Stop Borax Plans For Loudon

U.S. BORAX announced last week the discovery of several potentially economic fluorapatite deposits in McMinn, Monroe and Loudon Counties in the Sweetwater mineral district of eastern Tennessee, where drilling and metallurgical work have been under way since late 1973. BORAX has disclosed that core drilling has encountered substantial tonnage of fluorapatite mineralization in zones 10' to 160' thick with grades varying from 15 percent to 35 percent

CaF<sub>2</sub>. There are, in addition, to these fluorapatite zones, substantial tonnages of potentially economic barite mineralization. Metallurgical tests have shown that the material responds to simple beneficiation methods. Increased exploration and evaluation for underground mine development is now under way from the U.S. BORAX Knoxville exploration office. Close attention is being given to the possible adverse effects of recently proposed legislation to eliminate Federal tariffs and institute a local severance tax. Fluorapatite is critical to the domestic chemical and steel industries and barite is used as an addivitive in oil well drilling muds and is currently in short supply in the eastern United States. U.S. BORAX is a member of the RTZ Group.

Food Sales Hit $13,726,000

Retail business in Loudon County was a higher level in the past year than was expected, the final tabulations show.

The sales volume compiled by local stores indicates that local residents have been coping with the recession more successfully than have people in many parts of the country.

However, although a sizeable amount was spent locally for food, clothing, home furnishings and other goods and services, buying was at a more restrained pace than it would have been if economic conditions had been normal. As in other communities, people cut back temporarily on some of their discretionary spending. Most severely hit, as a result, were the markets for automobiles and new homes.

The facts and figures on the local spending picture are brought out in the annual survey of markets conducted by the Standard Rate and Data Service. It shows how consumers in each area of the nation spent their money, and for what. In Loudon County, a large portion of it went for food. Approximately 27 cents out of every dollar spent in retail stores was for food and, in the East, this compares with the previous year's 24 cents.

What is produced, for supermarkets, grocery stores, meat markets, bakeries and other food outlets was a sales volume of $13,726,000. This compares with the previous year's $11,886,000.

Not included is the amount spent for food consumed in restaurants and in other eating and drinking places. If the expenditure for take-home food were uniformly divided among the local population it would be equivalent to $1,615 per household.

The volume of business done by other retail establishments shows that most of them stood up quite well, despite the recession.

Sales of cars and other automotive equipment and supplies amounted to $11,823,000, compared with the prior year's $12,634,000.

General merchandise stores recorded a total of $2,667,000 in the year. In 1973, it was $2,385,000.

Those selling shoes, hats, clothing and other wearing apparel grossed $2,431,000, as against the previous $2,147,000.

Furniture and home furnishings stores accounted for $2,844,000, their former total was $2,404,000.

THIS 1975 MODEL CAR was found abandoned on I-75 near Loudon Monday night. Deputy Voyd Carruth said the Michigan car apparently struck a guard rail and was abandoned in the median although the car was damaged. The occupants left nothing in the car. Authorities were checking to determine if the car had been stolen.

PEA PATCH HARVEST—Sheriff Guy Russell and Deputy Floyd Kiser look at a small quantity of mature marijuana plants that Kiser confiscated from a secluded area near China last week. The plants had been under observation for some time but no one was arrested when the pot was confiscated.

DEPUTY VOYD CARRUTH displays about 15 marijuana plants that were discovered on a farm in the Hines Valley section near Lenoir City Monday afternoon. Carruth and Sheriff Guy Russell confiscated the plants but no one was near the "garden" at the time.

Rainfall 6.5 Inches Above Normal For Year

Rainfall across the Tennessee Valley averaged 59.1 inches for the fiscal year ended June 30, about 6.5 inches above normal.

Over the past 36 months, the Valley has received about 36 inches of excess rainfall, including the record fiscal year total of 70.5 inches set in 1972-73. This is the wettest three consecutive fiscal years of record.

March was the wettest month of the past fiscal year, with Valley rainfall averaging 12.1 inches, the highest monthly total in 36 years of record. October was the driest, with 1.8 inches of rain.

The TVA system of reservoirs regulated two floods on the Tennessee River during March, reducing flood crests at Chattanooga to non-damaging levels and averting an estimated $26 million in flood damages at the city.

TVA's Tims Ford Dam also reduced a March flood crest on the Elk River at Fayetteville in middle Tennessee, sparing that city an estimated $500,000 in flood damages.

Hydroelectric generation from the 48 TVA Corps of Engineers, and ALCOA dams supplying power to the TVA system totaled 23 billion kilowatthours, the third highest fiscal year hydroelectric generation in TVA history and about 5 billion kilowatthours above normal. This excess water power production saved TVA the equivalent of about 2.3 million tons of coal, during a year when the cost of most new coal purchases was $20 to $30 a ton.

Although most of the year was wet, it ended with dry weather. June rainfall across the Valley averaged 3.7 inches, well below the normal 4.3 inches. The highest June total was 7.6 inches at Hackleburg in northwest Alabama. The lowest was .75 inch at Waynesboro, Tennessee.

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to thank all our friends and neighbors for the food, flowers, and sympathy shown to us during the loss of our loved one, Fred McKinley Williams. Your kindness is deeply appreciated.
The family of Fred McKinley Williams. 7-17-17c.

In Memory

In loving memory of mother, Lillian Mae Oliver, who died one year ago, July 16, 1974.

We did not know the pain you bore, we did not see you die. We only know you left us and never said good-bye. As we stand by your grave and place flowers with care, we almost hear you say I know you are there. When days are dark and lonely and everything seems to go wrong, we seem to hear you whisper, cheer up and go on. Each time we look at your picture, mother, you seem to smile and say, don't grieve, I'm only sleeping, we will be together again some day.

Missed by daughters and sons and husband, Lottie Oliver.

Bill Latham's Lamb Is State Grand Champion

By: Roger L. Perkins
Associate Extension Agent
Bill Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Latham, Eatons Community, showed the Grand Champion Market Lamb at the 1975 Tennessee Junior Livestock Exposition at the State Fairgrounds in Nashville. Bill's lamb "Rosebud" was a Hampshire weighing 100 pounds. Bill, Missy Green, Eatons Community and Jerome Pope, Dry Valley Community received their lambs from their home flock. Each 4-H'er had two lambs they were planning to show. The 4-H'ers had five weeks to get their lambs ready to show July 15. For Bill, Missy and Jerome it is the first time they have raised lambs. They not only learned about feeding lambs, but also learned about handling, trimming, and blocking lambs for show. Mrs. Hiram Kitchens, Diane and Mike proved to be a very valuable asset to the other three 4-H'ers and their parents. The Kitchens have worked with sheep for a number of years prior to coming to Loudon County. This year's lamb show had a total of 336 lambs shown by 175 boys and girls from across the state. This was 100 lambs more than the previous year. Loudon Farmers Co-op awarded each 4-H'er with 100 pounds of feed at the start of their project and Production Credit Association assisted with support buying at the age of the lambs in Nashville.

Loudon FFA Returns From Summer Camp

Officers of the Loudon Chapter of Future Farmers of America and their advisor David Lynn, spent last week, July 14-19 at Camp Clements near Doyle. Those attending were Jeff Nichols, president; Steve Harrison, vice president; Mitch Anderson, second vice president; Tim Watson, treasurer; Doug Surratt, Reporter; Ricky Bettis, Sentinel; and Mike Gray, Chaplain.

While at Camp, the boys attended leadership training classes, lectures, and panel discussions. Each officer was responsible for his own sleeping quarters and were graded daily on neatness. The Loudon Chapter received a perfect score of 400. During the afternoons, they competed in all types of athletics. The evenings were spent in assemblies with special guest speakers.

All officers received leadership certificates for 100 per cent participation in all activities. Jeff Nichols and Ricky Bettis were selected as outstanding leaders of the camp and Jeff Nichols was selected as Most Athletic.

Practice Begins Aug. 1

Loudon Football Schedule Nears Completion

By Danny Gibson
Sports Editor

The start of school is still some four weeks away but prospective 1975 prep football players are starting to get acquainted with the summer vacation in its last furling of the home stretch. Official starting date for the football practice for TSSAA schools is August 1.

The TSSAA has moved the high school starting date for practice and regular season starting date up a week over past seasons. A team without an August 29th season opener opponent has to start practice on August 7th to begin fall practice.

Loudon had but seven games up until two weeks ago when Redskin officials were able to "buy" a home game with Knoxville Young, the Yellow Jackets, AA rating, will consolidate with Knoxville South High School next year to form a triple-A school. This establishing a repeat for the 1974 campaign and has even a bubble of air has been piped into the football to revive them from spring practice.

With eight games, Knoxville Young agreed to a home game for contract. The first game is set for September 6, there. So far, Loudon has secured nine games, a relief of its own, but no sure opponent for August 29 and only four home games on tap.

The lack of home contests and Knoxville Young's small window of opportunity for its team showing and 100 or so fans they might bring does not look for one of Loudon's most profitable seasons at the gate. But that's show biz. It used to be every body wanted a shot at the best, now its protect what you have with as many soft ventures as can be arranged or get all of the receipts that can be bargained. Yet, when a team has to put together a schedule with season regulars dropping out it can prove a problem.

For the life of this writer I can not see the reasoning behind Cleveland dropping the Redskins other than not wanting to face the sold football representative that has been the custom of Red Hatfield and Loudon football through the years. Cleveland replaces Loudon with inferior AA opponents while Loudon must go to the triple-A rank in search of filling a schedule.

Or when no double-A team has interest in adding the Redskins to their schedule without demands for an outlandish contract it makes things tough.

Church Hill is "talking" with Loudon for a possible season opening game. The game details as for agreeing to a contract will be decided this week at the TSSAA Coaches Clinic and All Star games in Murfreesboro.

Coach Hatfield and Coach Jim Gibson left for a clinic with plans to bring back 10th grade. "We feel a game is possible, its just that a home game is needed and for the home opener," stated Hatfield. "Other wise it would be the last of September before playing before the home fans. Early losses could put us out of mid-season play-off contention and would hurt our gate even worse."

"We figure to have a August 29 game and that means fall practice starts August 1," assured Hatfield. "Physical examination slips will be ready for pick-up by the prospective players in the dressing room Thursday afternoon between 4 and 5 p.m. The first squad meeting and practice will be Friday Aug. 1 at 4 p.m." continued Coach Hatfield.

A tentative look at the 1975 season looks as such:

Eaton Corporation Wins Lenoir City Sub-District; Loudon Merchants Are Third

The Bank of Loudon County will be absent from the District III Men's Open Softball Tournament this year for the first time in several years.

The Bankers surprisingly passed up the Sub-District III meet last weekend in Lenoir City as Walden's and Ready Mlix each gained forfeit wins due to the no show appearance.

Eaton Corporation breezed almost unchallenged through the tournament without a loss in claiming the top team distinction. Eaton, Lenoir City League champs with a 13-1 slate, will be joined by sub-district runner-up Lenoir City Merchants, the Loudon Merchants and Ready Mlix in next week's district tournament at Athens.

Fourth place finisher Ready Mlix was the never say die team of the tournament. The Lenoir City league runner-up lost its first game to Loudon's Pond Creek 11-3 but regrouped to win four of its next five contests, losing to the Loudon Merchants in the semifinals of the loser's bracket.

The Loudon Merchants was the bright spot for the Loudon six team entries. The Merchants of Coach Earl Russell got off to a 6-4 win over Matlock and carried high regard for Eaton to a 13-1 difference in the semifinals of the winner's bracket. Bobby Russell and Ronnie Sarrett had nine hits in a 24 hit assault of the Eaton team. Eaton had 17 hits and was forced to go an extra inning to squeeze out the win. Ike (Odel's) single and Gerald McConkey's double provided the scoring difference in the eighth inning.

The Lenoir City Merchants emerged from the lower bracket of the tournament disposing of Kemmer's, Pond Creek, Hamilton Bank of Loudon before running into a Eaton road block twice.

The Pirates scored eight times in the first inning of Saturday morning's Loudon Minor League action in blistering the Orioles 12-6. Doyle Jacobs, Kevin Cannon, and Ricky Arp all had three hits each for the winning Pirates. Joseph Niles and Ray Mills collected three hits each for the Orioles.

The Yankees rode the home run hitting of Tim Kirkland and a pair of binges each by Arnold Hickman and Troy Kiser in staving off the Athletics 9-5.

The game led by a 8-4 margin after two innings but James Webb sparked the Giants with a two run triple. The Giants trailed by a score of 14-3 after four innings only to rally in the fifth and sixth for 12 runs with the tying run of the game at the plate in the last of the sixth.

A three run fifth inning for the Pirates proved instrumental in deciding the game.

The Union Carbide Pirates will now face the Smith Chair Company Phillies for the Dixie Youth Tournament

Championship. This final game will be reported in next week's Loudon Herald since it was played after the press deadline for this week's sports news.

SMITH CHAIR COMPANY PHILLIES-The Smith Chair Company Phillies have come to life in the Loudon Recreation Dixie Youth Tournament after finishing last in the league regular season. ### Hamilton Bank Gets Wins Tournament Bye

The Hamilton Bank of Loudon surprisingly was seeded the top Sub-District III berth from the Loudon Recreation Softball League. The Hamilton team was a 12-1 verdict over Pond-Creek on Wednesday night while the league leading Bank of Loudon County forfeited their meeting with the Loudon Merchants.

The Hamilton win gave them a 11-3 league mark.

The Bank of Loudon County, who also failed to appear in the Sub-District III event has a 1-4 slate. The Loudon Merchants are a half game off the pace with a 1-5 season effort to date.

Maremont was also awarded a forfeit win over Union Carbide in the rescheduled Wednesday night line-up of softball play.

Union Carbide Golf Title To Be Decided In Final Week

With two weeks left in the regular season league play of the Union Carbide Golf League, it would appear a new team champion will be crowned this summer.

Charles Helms and Jack Delaney carried away team honors last year, but just haven't been able to put things together this summer.

Nevertheless it will be Helms and Delaney who decides the league title. Helms and Delaney will be crowned this summer.

Schrimsher and Watkins must play Helms and Helms in their summer final outing and that should determine the title.

Huff and Hamill have not won the league championship in three years.

Bob Dravecky and Carlos Evans each turned in 38's for low individual honors last week.

Nal Campbell and Carlos Evans and Ray Birkholz and Chuck Moore tied for the low team marks with 68's.

Greenback Co-op Gains Finals Of Philadelphia Sub-District Tourney

The Greenback Co-op stood alone as the only unbeaten softball team in the Philadelphia-Vonore Sub-District III Tournament at Philadelphia through Monday night's action.

The Co-op had made it look easy up through Monday night. The Greenback powerhouse, which won the tournament last year, pounced on High School '06, the VFW 16-5, and shocked Philadelphia's top team entry Sunnyside 23-3.

The Vonore Bank, who was seeded by a half game over the Co-op, could not keep pace in Monday night's winner's bracket finals. After taking a brief 6-2 lead over the Co-op, the bottom fell out and the hard charging Greenback team won 21-6 in five innings.

Both teams were assured of District III berths at Athens and will be joined by Midway of Vonore, a scrappy team of young players, and Philadelphia's Sunnyside.

Sunnyside opened their play with a 14-5 win over Luttrell and was cruising when the Co-op unloaded a 23-3 bomb shell. Sunnyside came back with a solid effort to eliminate Luttrell 22-1 and was set challenge for the sub-district crown on Tuesday.

SAFE AT THIRD—Vonore Bank shortstop Vic Kirkland is waved safe at third base as Greenback third sacker Kenny Evans applies a tag in the finals of the winner's bracket of the Philadelphia-Vonore Sub-District Softball Tournament.

CAN STILL DO THE JOB—Bill Thompson, long time baseball standout from Philadelphia, shows he has still got the touch in making the stretch for a put out of Mike Brackett of Luttrell. Thompson, who plays for Sunnyside, also had two singles and a home run in this particular contest.

HIT FOR SNAKE—Robert "Snake" Watson ties into a double as the Sunnyside softball team eliminated Luttrell from the Sub-District III play with a 22-1 decision Monday night.

HOME RUN GREETING—Bob Sawdors of Greenback Co-op gets a team welcome after rapping a tremendous home run over the centerfield fence at Philadelphia Monday night in Sub-District III softball play.

Twins Are Tiny Boys Champs

The Twins of the Loudon City Tiny Boys Baseball League has concluded a successful season. The Twins with a 11-2 regular season record, proved their play was no fluke as they captured the Tiny Boys Tournament to top off their summer.

second baseman Dwayne Johnson were most instrumental in the Twins success. Crass hurled three no-hitters in a row during the season and gave up a pair of doubles in pitching the Twins past the Astros 4-1 for their 13th victory. Crass struckout 14, in closing his team to the title. The Twins edged by the White Sox 2-0 in the opening round on Crass's two run homer in the eighth inning to break up a scoreless pitching duel between the Twins Doug Dunlap and losing pitcher Johnny McCurry.

Co-op Yankees Rout Vonore 26-0

The Loudon Co-op Yankees captured a five inning, 26-0 Babe Ruth game over Vonore last Friday night at Loudon. The Vonore team made 12 errors in open gates for the Yankees.

The Moore was the winning pitcher, firing a no-hitter. Moore struck 11 in a row at one stretch of the game and struck out nine in the five inning affair. Casey Dukes had a home run, two doubles and a single in driving home four runs for the Yankees.

Ken Phillips Breaks Ice At Atomic

Things are finally beginning to fall into place for late model sportsman driver Ken Phillips, the Loudon, Tenn. veteran who says the first half of the 1975 season was the most frustrating of his career.

Phillips drove his Camaro to victory in last week's 40 lap feature at Atomic Speedway—his first checkered flag of the year at the dirt oval.

Until the win, Phillips had been plagued by hard luck while experimenting with new equipment in past seasons. Ken has produced one of the best records at the track.

Phillips victory marked the ninth different driver to triumph in feature action. To date, Bill Morton of Church Hill and H.E. Vineyard of Knoxville have dominated.

coming election" so he was probably more entertained than surprised to find as he read more of Mr. Browning's letter of June 9 that (name withheld) "is very busy and defining his position and signifying his willingness to serve his Country as (name of office withheld) of the New County. I see he button holes every farmer that comes to town and is going into the interest in the county and community from a position somewhat removed from the limelight."

baseless fabric of a dream (Shakespeare). His final decision is not known—surely Mr. Browning worked very hard toward the amendment of the new county and certainly his letters reveal qualifications surpassing even the one set forth by Mr. Rose. It is a happier thought to believe that he chose not to run, preferring instead to continue to work in the interest of the county and community from a position somewhat removed from the limelight."

Having, come to the business at hand it is easy to imagine the Commissioners in a hurry to adjourn, staying on to give their views on the outcome of the election, probably discussing the political, geographic and governmental changes the new county would bring about.

And another likely candidate had thrown his hat in the ring. As to whether or not he met the qualifications specified by Mr. Rose we are left to wonder—Mr. Browning only wrote, (name withheld) "has also signified his willingness to accept the office of..."

The people spoke on June 18, 1776 and the new county became an established fact—the possibility of remaining "the baseless fabric of a dream" was no more. It is not known how close Mr. Matthews' projecting came to the actual count but it was the will of the people that a new County—Christiana—be established out of fractions of Roane, Monroe and Blount Counties around the town of Loudon. Now all that remained to be decided was whether it would keep the name of Christiana or the name would be changed to Loudon.

Harrison came to Loudon to cast his vote for the new county and to address the voters, apparently returning shortly thereafter to Nashville on June 21 another contingent from Loudon wrote, "Since conversing with you on the subject of the New County and its name I have conversed with several persons as to the name you suggested and it meets with very little objection. I feel justified that no objections would be urged. I would have gotten up a petition to that effect but I found some had been circulated before for new name to be Loudon County. If I am not mistaken you only promised to have the change of name if the people desired it in your address to the voters of New County and not to any particular name. It occurs to me you are entirely at liberty to change the name to suit yourself. The name you spoke of will suit every one unless it be some who desire to run in the matter. I do think the county name and county should have different names. I think it would be better.

But I promise you to be satisfied with whatever you do about it. I will close by saying the people generally have no objection for Loudon in my opinion as a name and for you to do just as you like about the matter."

D. F. Harrison I take occasion to state that Mr. Harrison handed to me the amendment to present to the Senate changing the name of the New County from Christiana to Loudon.

It is regrettable that there are no letters reporting the outcome of the Lodge's celebration but considering all the time and effort that went into the planning, and since everything else came up for that year for Mr. Harrison and Mr. Browning it seems safe to assume that it too, in the words of Mr. Browning, "came to a successful termination."

Three of the men we have come to know through Mr. Browning's letters continued to be active in the management of county affairs. According to the Loudon County Centennial issue of the Herald an election of county officers was ordered and held on August 5, 1870 and Francis Beale was elected Recorder of Deeds; S. Lane, Trustee; Mitchell Rose, Clerk and Master; and M. H. Taliferro, County Court Clerk. Among Justices of the Peace serving in 1870 was William Huff as first chairman were: M. Robinson, A. J. Fout, D. F. Harrison, L. C. Grant, John Campbell, M. D. S. Burnette, J. W. Griffiths, J. C. Conner, W. N. Johnson, and W. L. Greer.

Loudon County has been in existence far five years beyond its Centennial and all through its years there have been those within its boundaries who have made fine contributions to the life of their community, their county and their country. Everyone today has the same opportunity—to contribute in his own way—good what better time to start than now—the year of the celebration of our nation's Bicentennial.

Both cities are participating in a similar manner. The slide presentation would be used in industrial efforts and by others to boost the county. Charles Newbold of Lenoir City has been contracted to produce the presentation which will include hundreds of color slides, sound and dramatic effects. The production will be some 25 minutes in length and can be broken into segments if needed.
 Squire Boyd Duckworth said that he had been told that prior to the July 7 meeting that no action would be taken on the election of school board members and he felt that the fourth district was not represented on the school board by the appointments of the board. He said this would take a lot of pressure off the court and give the people a direct voice in the selection process.

Lefty Frizzell, Country Music Star Dies

Lefty Frizzell, 47, a veteran performer in country music, died unexpectedly Saturday night at Memorial Hospital in Nashville after suffering a stroke.

Frizzell, who was born William Grville Frizzell on March 31, 1928 in Corsicana, Texas, was considered an "old school" performer and was widely known.
He began writing hits in 1950 and one of his most famous was "You've Got the Money, I've Got the Time". Also popular was the flip side of the record, "Love You a Thousand Ways".
Frizzell never resided in this area but was a favorite of country music fans here.

He was admitted to the hospital on Saturday morning and died later in the evening. A severe cerebral hemorrhage came on suddenly, a medical spokesman was quoted as saying, but Frizzell had a history of hypertension.

Frizzell was the son of an oil worker and acquired his nickname of "Lefty" as a teenage boxer after scoring a knockout in Golden Gloves amateur boxing tournament.
Frizzell played in honky-tonks in West Texas and New Mexico during the 1940s and then record producer Don Law signed him when he was 20 years old. Frizzell was in a bar at Big Springs, Texas at $40 per week.

He came to the country music capital of Nashville and recorded his first record, "If You've Got The Money, I've Got The Time" in 1950. Frizzell said he didn't think it good enough.

City, seven grandchildren.

Survivors: wife, Mrs. Kate Stalcup, Lenoir, Mrs. Gannille Wallace, Ft. Paso, Texas; brothers, L.B. Curtis and L.L. Curtis, Loudon; half brother, Floyd Curtis, Loudon; half-sister, Mrs. Pauline Darbelle, of Memphis.
Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 23, at Travisville, Lenoir City Cemetery, Elder Charles Taylor officiated. Clerk's, Lenoir City, in charge.

Farm Safety Proclaimed This Week

The week of July 25-31 has been proclaimed as National Farm Safety Week by President Gerald R. Ford under the banner, "Planning Prevents Accidents". In keeping with the Presidents concern for the safety of rural people, the week of July 25-31 is Agriculture is renewing its year-round program of education and information on farm and home safety.

"Farm Safety Week" this year gives us an excellent opportunity to point out ways of eliminating safety hazards by pre-planning for safer practices on each individual farm." John Hutton, Chairman of the Loudon County ASC County Committee said, "It is important that all farm workers assist in this effort," he added.

Began during World War II Farm Safety Week opened an attack on rural accidents that cut into crucial agricultural production and spearheaded a concerted effort in American farm communities to reduce accidents and resultant losses, injuries and deaths. "The accident prevention fight has continued over two decades," Hutton said, "and safety emphasis is no less important in today's critical economy than it was in the days of the war."

"Each year, too many farm workers are killed or seriously injured in preventable accidents," Mr. Hutton said, "and planning in advance for a safe farm environment can help save the lives and health of these workers."

Youth Drowns Near Tellico

A Concord youth, Glen Hart, age 15, drowned while swimming near Bald Creek Falls near Tellico Saturday, July 19.

He was a junior at Karnes High School and a member of Unity Baptist Church.

Survivors include: parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hart, Concord; sister, Jean, at home; brothers, Lt. Tony of New York, Sgt. Gary of N.C., Bobby, Timmy and Joe, at home; grandmother, Mrs. Callie Lovelace, Lenoir City; sister, Peggy Viles, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, July 22, at Chick's Chapel, Rev. Hugh Ogle and Rev. John Ogle officiated. Burial in Hickory Creek Cemetery, Chick's, Lenoir City, in charge.

YOUTH POWER AT WORK—Nelson Turner, Loudon First Baptist Minister of Youth and Music is shown with the Youth Power group of the church on a cleanup project along area roads last week. During the summer the group has mowed lawns, cleaned windows, babysat, and other things to help other church members and the community.

One of the things that Loudon had for many many years was the Bacon Creamery. It served the needs of the people of Loudon when no other source for milk and ice cream was available on the local level. I guess when you think of the Bacon Creamery you think of W. C. Patton, who managed this business for many years. It would be impossible for me to name all of those who worked here through the years. We will mention some of them, not because we are just picking out names, but more because of the era and jobs they held.

The late Wayne Curtis, I believe was the first route man and he possibly will be remembered because of the buttermilk he sold by the nickle and dime worth. For many, this was a must during cream production run. The man at the controls is Kefauver, who worked at the creamery in later years.

Our other picture was made in 1965 but don't let that throw you. The old fire engine in the picture is a very important link in the City of Loudon history. It was the first fire truck Loudon ever had and the stories about its many years of service would offer the background for a story of excitement hard to match anywhere. It was the aftermath of a tragic fire in our town in the 20's. "Mike" as it was named, was piloted to many a major fire in our area. Many of its drivers are now deceased. But its role and colorful part of our town's history lives on in the memory of the two men seated on the truck. Charles Varner, who served well as Loudon's fire chief and is to be commended for his many years of dedicated work with the department and the other man, Boss Wallace, is the oldest surviving Loudon fireman. Boss is now retired but still a fireman at heart. The old truck "Mike" is still owned by the City of Loudon. We hope they continue to keep it. Along with it, some of the historic color as related by these two men, should be recorded and kept for future citizens of our town and as part of our city's history.

Last week's pictures of Hickory Creek, if it brought us many comments. We are grateful to those who took the time to contact us and let us know what it meant to them. Our sincere thanks to you.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Loudon County Superintendent of Education announced he hopes to see a Community Education Program groups start to develop into a program enrichment, high school level course make full use of educational facilities in Loudon County.

Headlee, using the County Citizens Committee of Education, as a source, brought the program to the attention of the Appalachian Community Education Council. He explained the potential of the program.

Headlee told the Committee, headed by County Herald Editor, he hopes to see a Community Education Program in Loudon County. Both Roane State have offered education programs on a limited basis.

"Community Education" said Headlee, "is a concept which stresses a role for public education in providing a dynamic complement to educational programs. Education is a greater part of the total education program by comprehensive, a

Building Inspector On Court Agenda

A discussion of the office of County Building Inspector appears to be the key item on the County Court Agenda. The magistrates will meet for their monthly session at 7 p.m. Monday in the main courtroom at the courthouse.

The Building Inspector's budget was cut back to the level it was two years ago during the recent budget process, making the post a part-time position. Immediately afterwards current Inspector Barry Neal resigned.

A move to restrict the operation of the building inspection was led by Squire Roy Duckworth and a vote to restore the budget to its present level failed in the court session last week by one vote.

Squire I. D. Conner, a member of the County Planning Commission, and State Planner Steve Campbell both said the cuts would severely handicap the planning program of the county and cost the county eligibility a number of federally funded programs.

Community Education Program Greatly Expanded

Loudon County Superintendent of Education Edward Headlee announced this week he hopes to see a Community Education Program for all age groups start this fall and develop into a program of enrichment, high school and college level courses that will make full use of the educational facilities of Loudon County.

Headlee, using the Loudon County Citizens Advisory Committee of Education and Culture, as a sounding board, brought the program director, Bob Holsapple, of the Southern Appalachian Center for Community Education, to explain the potential of the program.

Headlee told the Education Committee, headed by Loudon County Herald Editor Larry Cate, he hopes to see Southern Appalachian develop a strong local program with continued support from Roane State Community College and the University of Tennessee.

Both Roane State and U-T have offered continuing education programs in the county on a limited basis for several years.

"Community Education," Holsapple said, "is a concept which stresses an individual role for public education and provides a dynamic way to complement existing educational programs. Community Education encourages a greater awareness of the total educational program by creating a comprehensive, and coordinated delivery system for providing educational, recreational, social and cultural services for all the people in the county."

At present Holsapple, director of Southern Appalachian, is establishing a program in the Alcoa area and will be working with Loudon County through the Little Tennessee Valley Educational Cooperative.

Other members of the Advisory Committee on Education who were present, Sylvia Sproul, Gladys Mann, Marianne Bailey, Judy McGill, Leonard Liles, Jean Myers and Nancy Fann, participated in a two hour discussion of the program and suggested a number of enrichment courses that may be offered in the first quarter which is scheduled to begin at Loudon High School during the second week of September.

Some of the enrichment courses (courses taken for personal pleasure or knowledge) will be photography and photo printing, furniture repair and refinishing, use of appliances, repair, slimmers, ceramics, oil painting and art, community band, basic sewing, canning, vegetable gardening, guitar and freestyle, parent and child fitness, typewriting, dressmaking, and small business machines and methods.

These subjects were selected from forms which will eventually be offered depending on the interest and

Lawmakers Rank High

Loudon County's two state representatives and state senator had exceptionally high ranking in the annual poll of voters.

Representative Eugene Davidson (D-Robertson) had the highest voting percentage in the House (86 percent) while Senators Fred Berry (R-Knoxville) and Raymond Shadley (R-Crossville) ranked first in the Senate (95 percent).

Representative Harold Stenshagen (R-Memphis) had the worst House percentage (52 percent) and Senator Ed Block (D-Memphis) had the worst Senate percentage (59 percent).

Fire Deficiencies Add To County School Woes

Last week a list of about 60 deficiencies in school buildings and programs in Loudon County was published. Those deficiencies were found by the State Department of Education in a survey of Loudon County schools where Loudon County does not meet the minimum standards in buildings, libraries and etc.

The State Fire Inspectors have also produced a list of 64 deficiencies they have found in the county school buildings and have given mandates over a period of two years that corrections must be made.

The fire deficiencies and their schedule of correction as directed by the Fire Inspectors are as follows:

Budget Shuffling Saves Some School Programs

With some shuffling, anticipation of additional funds and cutting other budget items the Loudon County Board of Education managed to salvage some of the programs it feared were lost when county court cut their budget appropriation back to near the level it was last year.

In special session Thursday night the board placed $51,000 in the anticipated revenue section of the budget hoping to receive that amount from the federally impacted (ETV program) fund this next year. The money was not placed in the budget originally because Superintendent Headlee said that the future of the program was not certain. Friday, when money was cut from the following action Thursday night, Headlee said he learned that President Ford vetoed the bill and asked Congress to resubmit another package to him with substantial cuts.

The county plans to use the money to fund three of the extra teaching positions that have been sought. This will take about $26,000. The teaching positions will be floating elementary math instructor for Philadelphia and Steeple Schools to allow the principals there to have a half day to devote to administrative duties; one will be a special education instructor for Davis, Krowder and Loudon Junior High; and the third a math instructor for Loudon High school.

Headlee said that the three other new positions he had sought were included in the budget proposal that was approved by court.

Also kept alive was the county-wide maintenance team. Headlee said that money was cut from the system utility budget and other smaller line items such as travel, board pay and etc. to find about $27,000 new dollars to pay the schools portion of the new maintenance team.

Another $7,600 in anticipated ETV funds was placed in the budget for the purchase of library books for school libraries. Headlee had originally placed $19,000 which represents $5 per child in the budget for new books, this has not been cut to $2 per child.

Board member Jim Cardwell indicated that something be put in the budget for library books after remarking that there was not a school library in the county which met state minimum standards. "We have to start with something even if it is a drop in the bucket," Cardwell stated. The state will match local dollars spent for library improvements.

Supt. Headlee said that with help from the County Judge a grant application is being prepared to fund positions of a clerk-typist for the Superintendent's office.

With cuts made in other areas of the budget the highly successful reading program for students in the first three elementary grades will be salvaged.

Headlee said if the federal funds were not available will face a problem: He said they could dip into the surplus as promised that those funds will be available.

The Superintendent said he also hopes to have enough federal money left to give the teachers a $100 bonus at the end of the year since their local pay raise was slashed in order to keep some of the new positions and programs.

The county has received word that the state education transportation supervisor will personally conduct a study of the student transportation systems in the county. The board directed that the study include a complete re-routing of the bus routes and other suggestions that would bring Loudon County spending for student busing in line with the rest of the state. It was recently pointed out in the U-T survey that Loudon County was paying almost twice as much for student transportation than the rest of the state.

Man Charged In Grocery Robbery

A Loudon City man, Richard Wright, 21, has been charged with robbery in connection with an incident last Monday night when $200 was taken from the owner of Eaton Food Market owner Bill Thacker.

Wright was arrested at 12:10 on July 21 on a public drunkenness charge and was being held in jail at the Loudon County Justice Center when money found in his halfdozen taken from Thacker by two men with paper bags over their heads as he closed his store about 23 hours earlier. Wright reportedly had $316 on him when arrested.

Sheriff Guy Russell said that the investigation was being handled by himself and FBI Agent Leon Miller and he hopes further evidence uncovered in the investigation will result in at least one more arrest in the case.

Wright is being held under $15,000 bond. He was fined $10 and costs for the public drunkenness charge. Wright and Hubby Brown were charged with Public Drunkenness and a third man, David Turner with possession of marijuana when they were arrested by deputies Floyd Kiser and Frank McKezie at a service station on Highway 92. Turner was fined $50 and costs and given six months in jail with all 90 days in the jail term suspended.

Community Education Program Greatly Expanded

development of the program. The courses are very minimal because the Community Education program uses the facilities and resources available through the local school system.

Loudon High School is being used for the first Community Education Center, but if enrollment in some of the courses is sufficient classes will be held in other community centers such as Greenback, Philadelphia and Loudon City. Headlee said eventually he would like to see Community Education Centers all over Loudon County.

A full range of courses will be planned for high school credit. These will be for persons who have a few credits graduating and can obtain a regular high school diploma by completing courses in the community education center. There will also be an Adult Basic Education Program which prepares students to take the GED test.

College credit classes will be open to high school seniors and adults who have a GED or high school diploma. These courses will be scheduled according to interest and availability of instructors through both the University of Tennessee and Roane State Community College.

Southern Appalachian writes and programs are under the direction of the Regional Governing Council for Community Education established by the Extended Services Division of Highland County. Working through local advisory committees, the Regional Center facilitates educational programs and assists the community in the realization of its creative potential through the concept of "full plant utilization."

Holsapple said the five primary objectives of the Community Education Program is as follows:

1-Help participants achieve a higher degree of happiness and meaning in life.

2-Help participants to better understand and develop talents and interests.

3-Help participants recognize and appreciate the need for lifelong learning experiences.

4-To provide conditions and opportunities for participants to develop culturally and physically.

5-To provide opportunities for participants to pursue leisure activities with increased satisfaction.

Committee chairman Cate said the beauty of the Community Education program is that school plants and curriculum materials have already been paid for by the school system, but are not being fully utilized, thus the program can be supported with nominal fees with no outlay of funds by the taxpayers. The Regional Center provides staffing, coordination and implementation of the program. Cate said that many times he has heard that school buildings are being wasted by being closed in the evening hours, weekends and in the summer. "With a fully developed Community Education Program we can expect to see the school doors open many more hours with citizens from three to 90 learning and enjoying themselves."

In the next few weeks there will be considerable publicity and advertising on the courses and programs of the Community Education program. Headlee said he is hopeful that several hundred persons will enroll in the program, which Holsapple has a potential of about 1,000 participants in Loudon County.

"I hope through Community Education we can bring a comprehensive education program for all ages that would not be possible through our regular secondary programs," Headlee stated.

CITIZENS ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND CULTURE met Friday night at the Justice Center. The meeting was held to plan for a complete Community Education program for Loudon County hopefully to start this fall.

Karen McKinney Bride Of James Price

Karen Lee McKinney and James Lynn Price were united in marriage Saturday, July 26, at 7 o'clock p.m. at Central United Methodist Church.

The Rev. William Balch of Knoxville and the Rev. Dr. William J. Elzey of Burlington, N. C., uncle of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Price. Mr. McKinney is editor and publisher of the Lenoir City News. Mr. Price is a security officer at Union Carbide in Oak Ridge and Mrs. Price is a Loudon County public health nurse.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. McKinney and of Mrs. R. C. Elzey of Lenoir City.

The church sanctuary was decorated with burning tapers held in spruce, tree, and seven-branch candelabra, entwined with huckleberry greenery. An arrangement of white tag mums, apricot-colored carnations and babies' breath was used on the altar. Each window was accented with a burning candle and greenery with single brass and candelabra with greenery.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Steve Clark of Chattanooga, organist, including "Concerto in B Minor" by Wabner; Choral Partita: "What God Ordains is Always Good," and "Fantasia in D Minor," both by Pachelbel. Accompanied by Mr. Clark, Janet McKinney, sister of the bride, played an oboe solo, "Sonata in G Minor" by Handel, and Gene McKinney, uncle of the bride, and Mrs. Doris Prater, sang a vocal duet, "Love Divine, all Loves Excelling," by Stainer. For the procession, the "Trumpet Tune in C Major" by Johann Sebastian Bach was joined by his brother, Warren Clark, as trumpeter. At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Prater sang "Wedding Prayer" by Williams, and the organ recessional was "Psalm 121" by Marcello.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory polyester sheer with high neckline, bishop sleeves and full skirt flowing into a chapel-length train. The bodice and sleeves were accented with pin-tucking and lace. The gown edged the hemline of the gown and train, and a Julie cap of matching lace held a train.

length, lace-edged mantilla and short blusher. She wore diamond earrings, a gift from her mother, and a pearl necklace, which was the wedding gift from her father to her mother and was worn at the time of their marriage. Her colonial bouquet was of white stock, white sweet heart roses and babies' breath, with ivory streamers, atop a white Bible, which also was carried by her mother in her wedding. Janet McKinney served her sister as maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mosyeen Fason of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Kaye Sharp of Cleveland, Katy Estabrook and Mrs. Nancy Finkel, both of Knoxville.

Bridesmaids' gowns were apricot-colored poly knit with neck, double-capelet sleeves, shirred front and German rosette at the bodice. Three small rosettes of ivory and apricot were used for accents in the hair, and they carried nosegays of white and apricot picote carnations and babies' breath. Each wore a gold necklace and bracelet, a gift from the bride.

Serving as best man was Johnny Price, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Danny Peyton of Jacksonville, Fla.; Richard Pope of Gainesville, Fla.; David Pope of Clarkston, Ga. and Wesley James of Lenoir City. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McKinney wore a long gown of soft yellow of accented-pleated chiffon. Mrs. Price wore a long, polyester knit jacket-gown in light blue. Sarah Lingle of Brookville, Fla. kept the guest registry. A reception was given in the church fellowship hall. Assisting with serving were Ruth Ann Wampler, Mrs. Nancy Vann, both of Lenoir

City; Patti Moore and Nancy McKinney, cousins of the bride, both of Concord; and Mrs. Sarah McNabb, cousin of the bride, and Kathy Anderson, both of Knoxville.

A long table, covered with an apricot-colored cloth overlaid with lace, was centered with an ivory, three-tiered bride's cake, decorated with coral rose buds, white picote carnations and babies' breath on top and between layers. Three-pronged silver candelabra were accented with ivory phalaenopsis orchids and coral rose buds. A lace-draped round table held the chocolate groom's cake, accented with green grapes. Guests were served punch, nuts, and nuts, along with cake, from silver appointments.

The round, lace-covered bride and groom's table was set with silver goblets and an arrangement of coral rose buds, white picote carnations and babies' breath.

Members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests were entertained with a champagne party at Fox Den Country Club following the reception.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Price wore a poly knit dress of beige and pink with pink flowers. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses.

Following a wedding trip to Panama City, Fla., the newlyweds will make their home at 200 S.W. 34th St., Gainesville, Fla., where Mr. Price is a sales representative with Reserve Life Insurance Co. and Mrs. Price is a speech clinician with the Marion County Schools in Ocala, Fla.

The bride has a B. S. degree in Special Education from the University of Tennessee; and the groom has a B. S. degree in Public Relations from the University of Florida, Gainesville. Several entertained for the couple during the week preceding the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Cardwell, Jr. gave a dinner party in their honor. A patio dinner honored the couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Penny Watson in Loudon. Other hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Watson of Loudon and Mrs. E. H. Babb of Englewood, all relatives of the groom.

Vicki Lynn Malone Married

Patten Chapel on the campus of the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga was the setting for the recent wedding of Miss Vicki Lynn Malone and Kurt Stagmair. Rev. Frederick Z. Woodward officiated at the afternoon ceremony. Miss Gayle Wilburn, organist, presented the nuptial music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Malone. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Joseph Jaynes of Philadelphia. Mrs. Peggy Steele Stagmair of Signal Mountain is the mother of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white gown of satin and peau de soie accented with a candlelight lace bodice and lace ruffles on the fitted sleeves. She wore a lace-edged mantilla and carried a nosegay of roses, daisies and baby's breath.

Mrs. David Howard served as Matron of Honor. Best Man was Michael Glass of Atlanta, Ga. Groomsmen were Richard Waters and Tony Brock.

A reception was held in the dining room of the Patten House. Miss Teresa Hutsell kept the bride's book and Misses Nancy Thompson and Lynne Geren assisted with serving.

After a wedding trip to St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, the couple are making their home in Signal Mountain.

She carried a bouquet of white roses, magnolia leaves and fern.

Mrs. Aurelius C. Norris Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas L. David of Decatur, Ala.; Mrs. David W. Huffman of Uburn, Ala.; Miss Debra Fields of Hartwell, Ala.; Miss Susan Rose Clark, cousin of the bride of Sargolinsville; Miss Melissa Rogers of Mooreburg and Mrs. James K. Hill of Morristown. They wore a fine high necked gown of mint green crepe. The long, mutton sleeves and bodice featured insets of chantilly lace. They carried nosegays of violet cornflowers, baby's breath and English ivy.

Emmett D. Ferguson, father of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were James D. Ferguson and Barry T. Ferguson, brothers of the groom; Aurelius C. Norris Jr., brother of the bride; Paul C. and James H. Clark, cousins of the bride and John W. Sherman of Decatur, Ala.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The serving tables were accented with yellow satin and lace overlays. The silver candelabra were centered with arrangements of yellow roses. The bride's four-tiered cake of white was served by her aunts, Mrs. Adair Clarke of Lenoir City and Mrs. Charles Clark, Jr. of Ala. The bridegroom's chocolate cake, frosted in yellow and decorated with green apples and grapes was served by Mrs. Keith Harrison and Mrs. Bill McMan, aunts of the bride. Mrs. Bill Norris, Mrs. William E. Clark and Mrs. Paul C. Clark presided at the silver punch bowl. Miss Mary Lou Williams, Oak Ridge, Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Raymond Collins of Lenoir City served the assortment of finger foods. Miss Donna Agee of Decatur, Ala. kept the bride's book.

The bride attended Walkers State Community College, John C. Calhoun, Junior College where she received an associates degree in mental health technology. She is presently attending Athens College and is employed as a kindergarten teacher at Learning Land Pre-School and Kindergarten.

The groom attended John C. Calhoun Jr. College in Decatur, Ala. and is also at Athens College in Athens, Ala. He is employed by Amaco Chemical in Decatur.

God's Squad Back From Concert Tour

God's Squad, the Senior High Youth Choir, from the First Baptist Church has returned home after a five-day tour of North Carolina where they presented a series of musical concerts and spent a day at Carolwinds one of the major amusement and entertainment parks in the south.

The 25 member choir and five adult tour assistants left Loudon Friday morning for Fayetteville, North Carolina, with a letter from Mayor Eugene Lambert proclaiming the group as Ambassadors of Good Will from Loudon.

Friday night they presented their first concert entitled "Lightshine" at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. Friday night the group spent the night at the homes of Pleasant Grove members and were furnished meals by the church and hosts.

Saturday after a rehearsal at Pleasant Grove they met with youth from Bonnie Doone Baptist in Fayetteville for a tour of Fort Bragg and Pope Air Force Base. The Bonnie Doone hosts they treated the Loudon choir to a swimming party and picnic supper.

After a night in the homes of their hosts the choir conducted the Sunday Worship Service at Bonnie Doone.

After dinner they left for Piney Grove Baptist in Swansboro, N.C. for a concert there Sunday night. After the Concert they were treated to fellowship on the beach and spent the night in church homes again.

Monday morning they left Piney Grove for Carolwinds at Charlotte, N.C. After a full day at Carolwinds they spent the night in a local motel. Tuesday morning began the trip home for the group.

Nelson W. Turner Jr. directed the group as Minister of Music and Youth of First Baptist. Accompanist for the choir was Mike Hodge.

God's Squad will present the musical Lightshine at the First Baptist in Loudon Sunday, August 10, at 7:30. The public is invited.

The choir made the trip in the church bus and had worked at car washes and other projects for a year to raise money for the tour.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor
At the recent County Court meeting last Monday night (July 21), I was perturbed, perplexed, and most of all put out with the court's decision to cut the 1975-76 school budget.

Let's face it, the educational system in Loudon County is grown stagnant. Loudon County teachers now have the ignominious honor of being the lowest paid teachers in the state of Tennessee. The state's minimum salary for teachers is $7200. Loudon County's base pay is $7450. The county has not given the teachers a pay raise in the last 3 years.

Meanwhile, inflation, that arch enemy of today's working man, has grown to a staggering 30 percent.

How long is it going to take the County Court to wake up and realize the incredible damage that has fallen into our libraries?

Two Attend AIC Session

Representing Loudon County youth at the American Institute of Cooperation on the campus of Michigan State University during the week of July 28-August 1, were Dale Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison of Route 3, Loudon, and Steve Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison of Route 4, Loudon. Dale attends Lenoir City High School where his P.F.A. advisor is Mr. Dixie Miller and Steve attends Loudon High where his advisor is Mr. David Lynn.

Each boy was selected to attend because of achievement in education and leadership which they have exhibited in their own schools and communities. This year's theme was Cooperation Catalyst for Action.

The youth scholar Program provides opportunities for young people with varying backgrounds and interests to become more familiar with the American competitive business system, with emphasis placed on cooperative corporations.

The Institute also provides an opportunity for cooperative personnel, agricultural leaders, educators, and youth to exchange and discuss varying ideas and interests.

But in the meantime, many are a disgrace, our once admirable reading program has now been junked and probably one of the finest high school math teachers is going to look elsewhere for a job.

And those teachers who went on to school, and put in much time and money to order to improve their teaching techniques and earn more hours for a small bonus have now realized that their time and efforts were for naught. The fifty dollar raise and the six-step scale has too, been eradicated.

Not only the County Court, but the people of Loudon County and the people of school-aged children are going to have to realize that quality education costs money. But then, it's a reciprocal agreement; the county, in time reaps the benefits. In order to have quality leaders, you start with quality teachers.

Laying all of the blame on the County Court, however, would probably be a mistake. It would seem that every parent who sends a child to school in Loudon County would be terribly upset, yet one can sense a mood of apathy on the people's part. In the words of Poet, "We have met the enemy, and he is us".

Loudon County, right now, has the best qualified teachers. But unfortunately, that trend can, and probably will change. The best teachers are looking and finding better jobs elsewhere.

I cannot help but looking back to the budget meeting last Friday night (July 18) when Mr. Earl Thomas, principal of Highland Park School, inquired about the low teacher's salaries. One of the squires retorted that he should have known that he was not going to make anything when he started teaching and should have thought about that then!

If this type of myopic attitude pervades among all of our squires then our educational system is in deep, deep trouble. It would seem that teachers are looked upon as nothing more than State or county baby-sitters. This is not what education is all about!

Headline: Headline deserves to have our backing. He has been confronted with a difficult, frustrating job, and all parents, teachers, and students should support him to the hilt.

disillusioned, dissatisfied, and underpaid teachers prepare to go into the 75-76 school year with the tools and supplies so desperately needed by the young people of Loudon County, they are sincerely interested in education, as well as the rest of the county progress.

JOHN NAPIER
Vice President Loudon County Teachers Assoc.

Dear Editor,
Once again, as usual, the Loudon County Schools have come out on the short end of the budget. For 3 consecutive years Loudon's teachers have not received a pay raise while the budget has increased steadily. Once again, the schools have been cut short in maintenance funds and in supplies for the schools.

Additional teaching positions (which are needed badly) and many new programs will have to be cancelled. Yet, in the past few years the County Court has given in to finance such ridiculous projects as the Sugar Land access to I-75.

The trouble in this county? Our main problem is too many squires who are interested in...

Loudon County School Superintendent

Budget
Although the schools are faced with an increase in funding of only some $34,000 for the coming year the Board of Education approved an increase in additional revenue from Public Law 974 (Impacted Area Funds) in order to add additional teachers to improve our system. The Reading Program has been retained by adjusting funds within the budget. The only salary increase to teachers are $150.00 across-the-board from the State and any index increase due to additional teaching experience or a higher degree attained.

The County Court has publicly stated that he is actively seeking new sources of revenue for schools and hope to have additional funds available by the first of 1976. Without this new money it will be very difficult to complete the coming school year in telephones, lights, gas, and other necessities are expected to increase in price in the next several months. Let us all support the County Court in their efforts to identify new money to be used specifically for the schools. I know that the County Court would be very glad to hear a word of support and confidence voiced by a citizen of Loudon County.

Dr. Ernest Farmer of the State Department of Education is currently making plans to check the routes of all Loudon County buses and recommended changes where practical. The Board of Education has requested a complete bus route survey and suggestions for re-routing. This survey is scheduled to begin about the opening of school.

School Dates
Loudon County Schools will hold registration on August 20, with the first full day of classes to be held on Thursday, August 21. Teachers will begin their in-service training on Monday, August 18.

Use The Least Electricity To Keep Food Frozen

Here's how. Keep your freezer at zero. A lower temperature wastes electricity. A higher one shortens the length of time food can be kept safely. Without packing, keep the freezer full; this way the food itself helps to maintain a constantly cold temperature. Label and date all food. Then you can find a package quicker, with a minimum loss of cold air. And, finally, to help your freezer work easier, clean the condenser coils at least once a year.

Philadelphia Invitational To Start Aug. 11

The fourth annual Philadelphia Community Club Softball Invitational Tournament dates have been set for Aug. 11-16. The double elimination tournament will be under the direction of Doyle Arp. "We already have a 16-man team field with only the brackets to be drawn out," relates Mr. Arp.

Eaton Corporation, Lenoir City League champ and the Lenoir City-London Sub-District III Champion, won the first Philadelphia Invitational and has successfully defended their title each year since.

Trophies will be awarded to the top four finishing teams with a trophy going to the team with the highest batting average for the tournament.

Trophies will also be given to the individual home run king, individual batting leader (average) and a golden glove player.

Fishing Report

MELTON HILL-Large-mouth bass fishing is fair on jigs, plugs and minnows. Bluegill is good on worms, flies and popping bugs.

UPPER LOUDON-Strip bass fishing is fair at night under lights using minnows. Bluegill fishing is good on crickets and red worms. Catfish is fair using cutbait and shad minnows.

PHILADELPHIA INVITATIONAL TROPHIES-The Philadelphia Community Club has about wrapped up its 16-team field of softball teams for the fourth annual Philadelphia Invitational. Pictured with the array of trophies to be given away to the top finishing teams and standout individuals are Hamilton Bank, Philadelphia Branch, teller Charlotte Queen and Tournament Director Doyle Arp. The trophies will be on display at the Philadelphia Branch of the Hamilton Bank until the tournament.

Loudon Football Opener Still Questionable

by Danny Gibson, Sports Editor

The high school grid scene kicks off with 1975 fall practice workouts Friday. Two of the three Loudon County prep teams are scheduled for opening day practice sessions.

The start of fall practice and the groundswell for the fast approaching football season would appear to be worry enough for most coaches at this stage, but not so at the Loudon Redskin camp.

Coach Bert Ratledge and Loudon-Principal Jim Gibson are back in town after a three day visit to Murfreesboro and the annual TSSAA Coaches' School. The Redskins have had a ton of news in filling a 10 game regular season football schedule since capturing last year's AA State Championship with an impressive 12-0 slate, 9-0 in regular season.

no longer interested in keeping up the home and home regular season meeting. Thus at one time in "late summer Loudon was faced with a six game schedule and the outlook was honestly dim with Loudon Coach Bert Ratledge making the statement that it appeared he would have plenty of free Friday nights to scout opponents. Since then Loudon has "bought" a home game, "bogged" into a contract with still another new foe, and just happened to "pick-up" a home and home assignment with Region III double-A power Goodlettsville.

With nine games listed, Church Hill, Region I power was suggested by TSSAA officials, who are trying to help the Redskins fill their Friday nights, as an opening opponent. Loudon attempted to arrange the game for August 29. But Church Hill Coach J. W. Sallee was not so eager for the challenge.

its prize front liner being a 6-6, 239 pounder. Accompanying that young man will be a 185 pound center, a tackle around 215, and a pair of guards at 220 and one at 190. The backfield is said to be average. Nevertheless the majority of the team are returning lettermen, some year's are just tough all over!!

Loudon with 17 departed seniors absent from this year's ranks has asked the TSSAA to forward "all known teams with 'AA' or 'AAA' status with a August 29 open date to be mailed to them immediately.

We need a game, a home game preferably," spoke Coach Jim Gibson to Gil Gordon, TSSAA Executive Secretary, over the telephone Monday.

Loudon has consulted Oak Ridge, Knoxville Rule, Cleveland, Maryville Everet, several Chattanooga schools and Knoxville schools and now desire a game with the Redskins in the immediate future, hanging up with the now familiar reply of "don't call us, we'll call you good luck coach!!". And it may just be a stroke of luck if Loudon is to find a August 29 opponent, home or away.

Coach Ratledge has even considered seeking a game with an out of state foe if they would come to Loudon this fall. "They would have to be within reasonable driving distance," stated Ratledge. "But we would talk with and consider about anybody." "I would stand in line to sign up a team that has lost 17 seniors, all but one starting offensive lineman, and three of its four backfield starters," barked an apparent dissatisfied Principal Jim Gibson. "Why, we could be almost single A with a tight head count of student enrollment, but we enjoy the 'AA' challenge and competition, a team has to win and one has to lose, our team figures to have its share of losses to mitigate its performance."

Sounds good to me, a turkey seeking to be plucked on the first hunt of the season. First caller gets an added bonus of a bag of free popcorn following the game. Say the player with the dirtiest uniform gets an extra "at the door" for the benefits like that how could a team lose?

Grid Practice To Start

Loudon County secondary schools schedules for the start of fall football practice, which officially begins Friday, Aug. 1 and TSSAA rules permitting organized practice sessions are set as such.

Loudon footballers can pick-up their physical examination cards at the Loudon dressing room any time between 4 and 5:30 p.m. today (Thursday). School managers will be in charge. Equipment hand out and first practice session with instructions for the remainder of the summer vacation practice schedule will begin at 8 a.m. Friday.

Tennis Championships In September

The Loudon County Tennis Championships will be held starting September 8 at the tennis courts at the New Loudon City Park. The Tournament will be singles only and will include the following divisions: Mens beginners, intermediates, Advanced, and 18 and under. Womens beginners, intermediates, advanced, and 18 and under.

Players must live inside Loudon County. Entry fee is $3.00 and must accompany the entry form. Entries must be received by noon Saturday, August 30, 1975. Playing dates and times are final and may not be change except due to weather. Turn in entry forms at City Hall in Loudon.

Public Notice

Loudon County Quarterly Court at its regular meeting, Aug. 4, 1975 at 7 p.m. will consider an initial resolution authorizing the issuance of 5500,000 water revenue and tax bonds, payable from water revenue and taxes if necessary to finance a part of a joint project with Monroe County, (Tellico Area Service System).

Hunting & Fishing News

By Rex Collier
Tennessee Wildlife Resources
Phone 458-6569

During 1974, Tennessee stood 12th in the nation in the number of boating fatalities, 10th in the number of registered boats, 38th in the number of reported accidents and 27th in the number of vessels involved in accidents.

There were 61 boating accidents in Tennessee last year involving 71 vessels. These accidents resulted in 27 deaths, 13 injuries and $36,700 worth of property damage. Twenty of the 71 boats collided with other vessels, 13 capsized and individuals on 11 others fell overboard.

Nationwide most fatal accidents occurred in calm water, clear weather and when visibility was good. Tennessee law requires the operator of a vessel involved in an accident to give all possible assistance to those persons affected by the accident so as to minimize any danger caused by the accident. He must also give his name, address and boat identifying information to any persons injured or suffering property damage.

If the accident results in the death or disappearance of any person, a full description of the accident is to be filed with the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency within 48 hours. If injury or property damage in excess of $100 occurs, this report is required to be filed within five days.

Let's all make boating a pleasure and practice boat safety everytime we're in a boat. It can save a lot of time, money, and grief for everyone.

Keep a good lookout for other boats, swimmers, skiers, obstructions and hazards. Many serious accidents have occurred because of the lack of a proper lookout.

Greenback Co-op Powers Through Philadelphia Sub-District

The Greenback Co-op pulled to its second straight Sub-District III softball title at Philadelphia last Tuesday night without ever sustaining a defeat.

The Co-op in a rematch of Monday night's game with the Vonore Bank equaled their previous showing downing their rival 2-0.

had four hits while Bob Sowers and Ron Evans blasted home runs. Mike Evans had a double, triple and Kyle Shepherd added a double to the Greenback attack.

Hank Ingram was 3-for-4 for the Vonore team.

Sunnyside captured third place over Midway of Vonore 2-0.

Robert Bettis had a home run, triple and single and Merv Sarger had three singles and a home run to set the scorching tempo.

Randall Cooper got Midway's only hit of the game.

The Vonore Bank stopped Sunnyside 13-10 with a spirited six run seventh inning.

PHISHING REPORT

LOWER CHEROKEE-Largemouth and smallmouth bass is fair at night on deep running plugs while fishing off points. Bluegill is fair on worms and other natural bait. Catfish is fair on natural bait.

GREENBACK CO-OP-The Greenback Co-op softball team of the Vonore League captured the Philadelphia Sub-District III Tournament Championship last Tuesday night. The Greenback power went undefeated in winning their second straight sub-district title. ## Volunteers Staff New Clinic-Office Planned Parenthood Association of the Southern Mountains has recently opened its Lenoir City satellite clinic. The facility, located at 40 W. Broadway, affords space for the family planning clinic which is held there every fourth Tuesday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. The clinic office is staffed solely by volunteers except on clinic days and is unique in this respect. The volunteers give out literature and certain birth control methods, answer questions, make clinic appointments and make referrals for problem pregnancy, speakers for groups and other health problems. There is a need for volunteers now so that the office may be kept open each day. Every person who works for FPASM, whether staff or volunteer, receives orientation training in areas related to family planning.

Planned Parenthood Association of the Southern Mountains, Inc. is a private, non-profit health agency. Its goal is to provide the knowledge and the resources necessary for each individual to plan and space the number of children she/he wishes to have. Information and services are available to anyone regardless of age, sex, marital status or income. All information is kept completely confidential.

Since the Lenoir City facility has been open, the responses of Loudon Countians has been encouraging. Office volunteers were contacted by 73 persons in only the first two months. The number continues to grow as awareness of the open facility increases.

What can volunteers do? Aiding in patient flow and Marine Sergeant Jackie Horness, of 905 W. Broadway, Lenoir City, Tenn., has reported for duty with the 3d Marine Division on Okinawa. A former student of Lenoir City High School, he joined the Marine Corps in November 1971.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD volunteer Ann Bean is shown answering one of the many phone calls for information received by the agency each month at its new headquarters in Lenoir City.

Bolt Reunion On August 3

The annual Bolt Reunion will be held Sunday, August 3 at Loudon Lion's Municipal Park. All descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bolt, Sr. are invited to attend. Union Carbide's Position - - -

Vote "No" On August 6 & 7

Vote "Out" The Union

Once again the National Labor Relations Board will conduct an election at Union Carbide's Loudon, Tennessee plant. Unlike the other elections when our employees were asked if they wanted to vote "IN" a union, this time they will be asked if they want to vote "OUT" the union. Since the company, its employees, their families and the Loudon community have a big stake in the outcome of the election, we want to state our position in no uncertain terms.

The plant has not become a better place to work during the 15 months that the I.A.M. union has had representation rights for employees. We feel a closer, more pleasant, effective and efficient working environment existed during the 17 years prior to the presence of the union. It is our belief that over a period of time this better climate can be restored if the union is voted "OUT".

We do not look upon the violent 49-day strike last year, nor the threat of other such disasters in the future, as being in the best interests of the company, our employees, their families or the community. Over $375,000.00 in wages were lost, some physical harm, much mental anguish and thousands of dollars of property damage was experienced, family ties and friendships were strained and the economic health of the Loudon plant was dealt a serious blow. Voting the union "OUT" will not repair past damages, but would protect all of us against such ill-effects in the future.

On August 6 and 7, it will be up to our employees to decide whether to keep or vote "OUT" the union and this is as it should be. By secret ballot, where no one else will know how they voted, each employee will have the chance to vote according to his or her conscience and best interest. It doesn't matter whether they have been a member of the union or not. They will be free to vote as they see fit. In the past many had to take someone else's word for what it would be like to work in a "union" plant. This time they will have had 15 months of first hand experience and will have full knowledge of what union certification has or has not meant to them. The union will be measured by its record rather than its promises. We can only hope that every employee will vote because the consequences are far too important to leave to someone else. Therefore, the company has urged its employees to vote "No" and vote "Out" the union on August 6 & 7.

Union Carbide Corporation
Film Packaging Division
Loudon, Tennessee

There are rumors if the union is voted "OUT" the company will fire or take other action against those who were known to be supporters of the union. We want to declare publicly to our employees and the community that there is absolutely no foundation for such irresponsible rumors. Not only is it the law that there shall be no retaliation against an employee for union activity, but it is also the way Union Carbide operates.

Fellow Employees Of Union Carbide - Loudon:

Here are the reasons we petitioned the National Labor Relations Board for a decertification election. They are also reasons why you should vote out the IAM on August 6 and 7.

FIRST - A union that can't control its hotheads isn't likely to be very effective at the bargaining table.

SECOND - A union with only two weapons--violence and strikes--is more likely to drive Union Carbide to close up and go elsewhere than to win advantages for the membership.

THIRD - The union after campaigning on a platform of higher income and more security for employees, took us out on a strike that cost us 49 days' pay. Now a year later, there's talk of another strike. That's not security.

FOURTH - The constant pressure and harrassment of those of us who weren't part of the union made us mad. We don't like being pushed around and neither should you.

FIFTH - We think Union Carbide has done a good job through the years, and we don't like to see it made a scapegoat for the IAM's power grab in East Tennessee.

SIXTH - Think for yourselves for a change. We believe we should appreciate having a good job with all the unemployment we have in our country today.

If you agree with us---and you may have some reasons of your own--- vote "no union" on August 6 and 7.

Blast Leaves Struck Plant Without Power

Investigators Have Few Leads

SHOTGUN BLAST HITS HOME—A shotgun blast, believed fired from a passing car around 2:20 a.m. Sunday shattered the front windows in the home of Union Carbide Films-Packaging Personnel Manager Jack Modglin. The home is located on Pine Crest Circle near Lenoir City. Mrs. Modglin and her sister were in bed at the time the shots entered the living room and were not injured. The top photo shows Modglin and Deputy Lucian Kent outside inspecting the damage.

Violence Flares Anew At Carbide, Talks Fail

A number of incidents of violence have added to an already tense atmosphere surrounding the Union Carbide Films-Packaging strike since federal mediators last Thursday with parent success.

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

We always enjoy the many school pictures we have owned to us for the Good Old Days. They always create a world of interest among our readers, possibly because they contain a good cross-section of our people. All age groups are usually in these varied old pictures.

The one we are using this week was made at the now closed and torn down Jackson School. For many years this school was the hub of activity in the Jackson community, and without it, much has changed. Changes brought people would like to see the City of Loudon keep this old fire truck and maybe put it on display someplace in town. I don't know where it would be possible to display it or not, but I, as one would like to see the City retain ownership. It possibly represents a larger portion of Loudon's incorporate history than any one thing we can think of.

I thought maybe when I had the time I would talk to Loudon's City Manager, Gary Hensley, and ask if he had ever come up and if so, what were the decision. We may be able to report on this at a later date. Maybe something can be worked out in connection with our Bicentennial.

Speaking of our 200 year celebration, the Loudon area had always been big on farming and something to point this out would be interesting. Mr. Weaver down in the Paint Rock area has a backyard museum of old time farm machinery. This would make a very interesting display if Loudon had it to use as part of the festivities. We plan on a visit to Mr. Weaver's as soon as possible to get some pictures. We have heard a lot about his unusual collection, which has spanned several years of searching. We understand it contains a very unique collection of farm equipment spanning over 100 years.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

581 Arrested In 4 Months

During the first four months of operations of the Loudon County Justice Center jail records show that 581 persons have been booked for various charges. Sheriff Guy Russell also reported that new photography and finger print equipment has been installed and all persons arrested are now photographed and fingerprinted.

our other picture this week is of a group of the Jett Family. When the picture was made, we don't know. This picture was in a group of pictures loaned to us by the Jett family and were part of a collection of their mother, the late Mrs. Jett, who was a well known Loudon woman. We are grateful to them for the loan of this group of interesting picture from this area.

We ran the picture of Loudon's old fire truck "mule" and had many comments about it. Many

Because this is a specialized publication, some items may not have to check all warehouses illustrated. However, most items can be ordered by the participating warehouse-dealer from our Atlanta, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Portland, or Minneapolis distribution centers, where over 23,000 items are available. Also, since this circular was prepared several months in advance of the actual sale period, all of the items advertised may not be immediately available on demand, may not be available at the price advertised, or may not be available at all. This is due either to sales above anticipated demand, or to other circumstances beyond our control. We and our warehouse avoid such situations; however, we have no control over our manufacturer's delivery problems. Advance planning and self-own buying, combined with over 4000 hardware stores, make lowest values possible. Prices are based on observation of current markets and are subject to change without notice. This advertisement is distributed by dealers who own their own stores and set their own prices. # Judge Tells Squires . . . New Revenue Sources Found, Looking For More

Loudon County Judge William Russell reported to County Court Monday night that a series of meetings with

Man Found Dead In Car, Is Accidental

The death of a Loudon man found dead sitting in his car has been ruled accidental carbon monoxide poisoning. The victim was identified as James Arthur Vanhooser, 24, an employee of the Don P. Smith Chair Company.

Sheriff Guy Russell said that Vanhooser's car was sitting in the driveway of his half-brother's home (Ernest Pennington) on River Road near Loudon about 10:10 a.m. Saturday by Pennington's children who were playing in the yard.

The youngsters thinking the man was asleep tried to wake him up. When efforts failed they notified Mrs. Pennington. She called the Sheriff's office and the ambulance service. County Coroner Dr. W. B. Harrison estimated the man had been dead since about 6 a.m. Sheriff Russell said the man apparently fell asleep in the car without turning the engine off.

The victim was a veteran of the Vietnam War. The body was shipped to Jonesboro, Ark., for funeral services and burial. Survivors were listed as a son, Jimmy; father, J. H. Vanhooser; sisters, Jacqueline Vanhooser, Eva Escobedo, Evelyn Evers and the wife, and the half-brother of Loudon.

UC Votes On Decertification

Hourly employees of Loudon's Union Carbide employees are voting Wednesday and Thursday of this week on whether or not they want to keep collective bargaining rights with the company through representation of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers union.

The union organized in May of 1974, struck the plant last August for seven weeks, before the first wage contract under the union was signed.

Non-union employees of the company recently received enough support to call for the National Labor Relations Board to hold a decertification election. The vote will be conducted by the NLRB from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. Wednesday, August 6 and from 11 p.m. Wednesday to 1 a.m. Thursday.

There are 428 hourly workers eligible to vote. A letter recently sent to Carbide employees by the union reportedly claims 278 members. The 1974 election saw the union forces win a 181 to 173 vote.

state officials by County Administrative Assistant Randy McGill, Superintendent of Schools Edward Headlee and Budget Director June Custead had already produced enough ideas to earn the county an extra $100,000 per year in additional revenue.

The County Court when it adopted the current budget and tax rate ordered new sources of revenue be found to help finance the needs of the county schools. Judge Russell said the sources which came from the meetings are already in existence and mainly come from more efficient use and control of county funds. One method is to have all county departments report their financial status each quarter to allow for better investment of funds.

Russell stated that other contacts are being made for possible revenue sources including private legislation if necessary. Judge Russell's comments came after Squire J. J. Blair said a legislative committee should be appointed to start work on the fund raising issue and any private acts the county might be considering for the January session of the state legislature.

Russell made the report and Squire Blair withdrew his suggestion that a formal committee be formed. An attempt to restore the office of County Building Inspector to full-time status or at least get someone appointed to the position, stalled after an apparent stand-off on the issue and was to be placed back on the agenda next month.

The discussion on the matter concerned not only nominations for the position but the size of the budget. A move led by Squire Boyd backwrote the 1973 level, which in effect reduced the position to a part-time job paying $6,700 a year. The full-time salary proposed for the current year was $10,000.

The names of Jack Henry, Ralph Ehlken and Charlie Watkins were placed in nomination, but Watkins withdrew after stating he did not want the position if it required any full-time work. Judge Russell said it was his opinion that a full-time inspector was needed because the job was much more complex and demanding than just issuing building permits and making inspections.

State Planner Steve Campbell told the court that an inspector is not required but if the county plans to continue participating in a number of federal programs such as the Federal Food Hazard Assistance program, they would need to maintain the position at a full-time level.

He also pointed out the number of reports the inspector makes to state and federal agencies which make money available to the county based on the reports and the volume of work the inspector does in assisting the planning commission, the county road inspector and other departments.

City Optimistic About Industry Park Funding

Loudon Mayor Eugene Lambert this week announced that meetings recently held in Nashville indicate that the city will be able to obtain funds to purchase and develop the W.D. Williamson farm (281 acres) into a major industrial park for the city. The farm is located just east of Loudon on the Tennessee River.

"Acquisition of this property for industrial purposes has been talked about for 20 years and finally it appears with available grants and loans it will be accomplished," Mayor Lambert said.

Lambert said that City Manager Gary Hensley met recently with representatives of the Appalachian Regional Commission in Nashville and when a grant application is filed in September it will receive priority attention as the project is looked on in "very favorable terms" by the ARCC. In addition the City expects to borrow up to $400,000 from the Farmers Home Administration on a 40 year, five percent interest loan. ARCC offers grants as high as 70 percent for projects such as industrial parks.

Mayor Lambert and Manager Hensley have been discussing the purchase of the property with the Williamson family and these talks are favorable. The Loudon Planning Commission will be asked this week to start an immediate study of the industrial site for annexation and rezoning, Lambert said.

Questioned about the area to be annexed with the park Lambert said a recent study of the area indicated it was not feasible to annex the entire residential and commercial area east of the river, however if the Williamson farm is annexed the city would almost have an annex property along the river from U.S. 11 to the proposed industrial park. Concerning compatibility of the property as an industrial site with the residential development north of the Williamson farm the mayor said in all probability design of the industrial park can be handled in a manner to have two complement each other.

"This site is one of the few of its caliber on the Tennessee river between Knoxville and Chattanooga, and because of this the City is excited about the prospects of locating industrial plants on the site," the mayor stated.

Initial development on the site could be ready by late summer next year, but total development of access roads, rail, and utilities could be an expanding program over the next five years.

The property is considered unique for industrial potential in that it has major transportation access of rail, interstate highway and the river for barge traffic. Because of the deep river channel and deep areas on the river bank the entire facility can be served with barge facilities. The park most likely will be a two level affair, Hensley stated. The lower level will be for water related industry or firms requiring barge transportation and on the upper level will be industry not requiring water transportation.

The mayor said the city has a good start toward securing the land grants and loans but there are still many loose ends. These include getting access across other property owners to reach the land with rail, access road and utilities. City representatives are expected to meet with Union Carbide officials this week to discuss whether the rail will be extended from the Carbide pier or be brought in by an alternate route.

Was Vacationing In Florida Cotton Easter Drowns

Ronald L. (Cotton) Easter, 32, owner of Cotton Easter Ford in Loudon City, drowned while swimming in the Gulf of Mexico at Panama City, Fla., Tuesday afternoon. Easter, his wife and three sons had been in Panama City, where they maintain a vacation home, since Sunday.

MR. EASTER

Details of the accident were sketchy. The drowning apparently occurred in mid-afternoon with the body being recovered quickly. Mrs. Easter notified Clerk Funeral Home of the death of her husband about 4 p.m. The body was to be returned to Cleeks in Loudon City Wednesday afternoon by private plane. Funeral arrangements were to be completed after the body and family arrived home.

In the past few years Mr. Easter became the sole owner of the Loudon City Ford dealership, following the retirement of his former partner Gilman Purdy. Easter built and opened a modern new building for the dealership on Highway 95 last year.

A native of Loudon, Mr. Easter is a 1941 graduate of Loudon High School, where he was a standout football player. His father, the late Charlie Easter, operated a barber shop in Loudon for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara Blal Easter, three sons, Ron, Roe and Blair, all at home; sisters, Mrs. Una Black of Chattanooga, and Mrs. John O'is of New Jersey; stepmother, Mrs. Charles (Dodie) Easter of Loudon City.

Mr. Easter had long been active in civic, community and church affairs. He was a member of the Loudon County Committee of 100, Trinity United Methodist Church, director Hamilton National Bank of Loudon City, member of the Loudon City Rotary Club, Fort Loudon Industrial Development Company, Tennessee Mason Lodge 204, Loudon Chapter 138, Tipton-Greer Council 112, Member Courier Loan No. 9, Knoxville Scottish Rite Lodge, Shriner, member of Kerblan Temple and the Jesters Club.

AT DYNAMITED STORE-Loudon County Deputy Voyd Carruth and State Fire Marshall Marion Wampler look for clues as store owner, Arnold Nelson watches. The Nelson store at Erie was heavily damaged by a dynamite blast about 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

Dynamite Blast Rips Erie Store

A dynamite explosion ripped through the Erie grocery store, owned by Martin and Arnold Nelson about 9:35 p.m. Sunday causing heavy damage to the store and contents.

State Fire Marshal Marion Wampler and County Deputy Voyd Carruth investigated but said there was little evidence that would lead to the persons for the blast.

Store co-owner Arnold Nelson, who lives near the store said he heard the blast and thought something that exploded and caught fire. He said smoke was coming out of the shattered windows but once inside he found there was no fire.

Officer Wampler said it appeared that some one threw a fused dynamite stick into the store after breaking a display window. He stated the dynamite apparently exploded behind the potato chip rack as would be expected if it took the full force of the explosion.

The complaint, filed in Circuit Court Monday of this week, says Carruth's reputation has been injured and damaged, has suffered great humiliation, ridicule and embarrassment before his friends, neighbors and fellow law enforcement officers. The suit says Carruth claims the "malicious acts of slander" have caused him to be subjected to an intensive personal investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, causing him to hire local counsel, and costing him opportunities at higher employment at higher pay.

Several neighbors heard the blast. One was sitting on the

Deputy Files $100,000 Slander Lawsuit

Loudon County Sheriff's Deputy Voyd Carruth has filed a $100,000 slander lawsuit against Loudon City, black who made several statements about him in a County Court meeting on July 7.

The complaint, filed in Circuit Court Monday of this week, says Carruth's reputation has been injured and damaged, has suffered great humiliation, ridicule and embarrassment before his friends, neighbors and fellow law enforcement officers. The suit says Carruth claims the "malicious acts of slander" have caused him to be subjected to an intensive personal investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, causing him to hire local counsel, and costing him opportunities at higher employment at higher pay.

Prison Escapee Caught Here

Loudon County and Loudon City officers Tuesday morning captured a Loudon City man who had escaped from the State Prison about three months ago. Chief Deputy Sheriff Lake Bright said Billy Joe Littleton, who was serving a three year sentence for burglary, was found asleep in a mobile home behind his grandmother's home on Browder Hollow Road.

Participating in the capture were deputy Voyd Carruth and Loudon City officers Bill Givler and Verlin Littlefield. Littleton did not resist. He is being held at the Justice Center pending transfer back to the state prison.

GLENDALE RENOVATION UNDERWAY-A workman is shown taking down the old lighting in a hallway at Glendale School. A $25,000 renovation project is now underway at the school to bring it to safe standards for use.

AUDITORIUM NO MORE-County Schools maintenance people are shown removing the seats from the Philadelphia School Auditorium. Contractor R.G. Sherrill will convert the 400 seat auditorium into three classrooms to ease overcrowded conditions at the school. The work is scheduled for completion by August 21.

COACH SHEILA AT WORK—Loudon's first woman Little League baseball coach, Sheila Birkholz, demonstrates batting techniques to one of her players, Jackie Randolph.

Looking on are Chris Stevens, Richard Williams and Angie Randolph, all members of "The A's".

"Having Fun Is Most Important" ...

Philosophy Of Gal Coach

By Kaye Lindsey

Women's Lib has truly come to Loudon's Little League baseball program. Not only was their coach a lady, there were also two young ladies on the team.

Sheila Birkholz, wife of City Recreation Director, Bill Birkholz, found herself drafted into coaching when Mr. Birkholz couldn't find enough men volunteers.

After the initial shock, timidity and shakiness moments were over. Mrs. Birkholz set out to become the first "Lady Coach" in Loudon. Her team, "The A's," are boys and girls, ages 7-10.

The fact that she was a woman didn't matter to her players. Although she had assistance for practice sessions from her father, Charles Coach and a team member's father, Ben Williams, her players always turned to her as their coach.

She was never harassed by the men coaches in the league and it seemed the parents liked the lady coach too. Mrs. Birkholz said that probably the reason she found the coaching job easy, once she got started, was because she liked to work with that age group of children. Being a second grade teacher last year at Davis Elementary School helped her to cope with that age group.

She said she tried never to put her players under any pressure. Although she was firm with them and wanted her team to be winners, she feels the most important thing is for the child to enjoy the sport and have fun. She tried to stress the point of wanting to win, but being a good sport if you lose. She pointed out that coaching this age group was easier because they didn't lose their temper or get mad if things didn't go their way.

When talking about her "little libbers," Mrs. Birkholz said "they turned out to be just as good as the boys." The girls were accepted by the boys as part of the team just as their coach was. Mrs. Birkholz said she felt the girls should be allowed to play ball so that they would have the chance to become good athletes the same as boys.

Although her team only won their first game, Mrs. Birkholz says she would coach again. She said she wanted her team to win every game and the fact they only won one game hurt a little bit, but knowing that she had her part in helping it kids learn good sportsmanship and enjoy the game was what really made her summer coaching job so much fun.

Members of "The A's" team include: Angie Randolph,

Beeler-Massie Vows Pledged

Miss Sandra Ellen Beeler and Ira Evan Massie, II exchanged wedding vows on Saturday, July 12 at Niles Ferry Baptist Church in Greenback. The afternoon ceremony was performed by Rev. R. M. Everett.

The ceremony took place before an altar decorated with an arch of greenery silhouetted by two cherub flower arrangements, two candelabra and a profuse prayer bench. Highlighting the ceremony was the lighting of the Ruth candle.

Nuptial music was presented by Carol Hammon, organist and vocalist, David Earl Conrad, of Kentucky and Ella Adams of Houston, Texas. Special selections were "Follow Me", "Wedding Song", "Lord's Prayer" and "More".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas E. Beeler, Jr. Route 2, Greenback.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Massie of Lexington, Ky.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of satin organza styled with high neckline, fitted bodice, lantern sleeves and chapel train. The gown was accented with Alencon lace appliques and Venise lace. The three tiered finger tip veil was edged with Alencon lace.

She carried a cascade of pink roses, and babies'-breath centered with a rose corsage.

Miss Sue Blessing of Weber City, Va. was Maid of Honor. Matron of honor was Mrs. Ella Adams of Houston, Texas. Bridesmaids were Brenda Beeler of Greenback and Thaire Massie of Lexington, Ky. Christina K. Beeler, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

They wore floor length gowns of light pink sheer polyester with multi-colored floral designs and carried bouquets of multi-colored pom mums.

Dana Edmondson of Lexington was best man. Groomsmen were Kevin Massie, brother of the groom, Barry Massie of Dayton, Ohio and David Beeler, brother of the bride. A reception was given by the bride's parents at the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. Those assisting with serving were Connie Bass, Bobbie Rucker, Karen McNeilly, Rhonda Brown, and Sue Bass.

After a wedding trip to Cove Lake, the couple are making their home at Sutherland Avenue, Knoxville.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Massie of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edmondson and Greg of Lexington, Mrs. Amos Robey and Mr. and Mrs. Win. Massie of Dayton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Phillips, of Hazard, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Leo Drake of Alexandria, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sleeper of Morehead, Ky. and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hughes of Hebron, Ky.

The groom is a graduate of Morehead State University in Kentucky with a BA degree in teaching and communication, and is presently a graduate student at the University of Tennessee.

Travis Oran celebrated his first birthday Sunday, August 3. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melton Oran (Latithia Crisp), Route 3, Sweetwater. Grandparents are Rev. and Mrs. J.B. Crisp, formerly of Loudon, now living in Evansville and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Oran of Sweetwater. Travis has four great-grandmothers, Mrs. Dora Brown, Mrs. Nettie Hodge and Mrs. Hannah Crisp of Loudon and Mrs. Kitty Oran of Sweetwater.

Julie Iddins, Sandra Shell Are Teen Board Presentees

Two Loudon High School students have been invited to be one of the Presentees at the Fifteenth Annual Teen Board Presentation Dance Saturday, August 23 at the Civic Coliseum in Knoxville.

Miss Julie Iddins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Iddins, Loudon, has been selected as the Teen Board Presentee from Loudon. She will be escorted by Ernie Denny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Denny of Loudon.

Miss Sandra Shell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shell of Philadelphia, is the Teen Board Presentee from Philadelphia. Her escort will be Bart Iddins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Iddins of Loudon.

Julie will be a senior at Loudon High School this fall. While at Loudon High she has been a majorette for three years, member of the Rockin Band and a member of the National Honor Society. She is a member of the First Baptist Church of Loudon.

Sandra, who will be a senior at Loudon High School this fall, has held several honors during her years in high school. She is a member of the Loudon High Band and has been drum majorette for two years. She was a delegate to Girls State at Middle Tennessee State University in June. She was elected Miss

MISS IDDINS

MISS SHELL

Sophomore, inducted into the National Honor Society, held an office in the F.H.A. sub-district and local chapter and was elected the F.F.A. Sweetheart of the local chapter and represented them in the sub-district contest. She is a member of the First Baptist Church of Philadelphia.

The Teen Board of Knoxville is a private, non-profit organization, solely for teenagers with adult help. Its purpose is to get the teenagers to work and take the lead in civic and welfare projects and to lift their social and moral life to higher standards. Last year over 12,000 hours were given to civic and welfare projects and $150,000 collected for charitable organizations.

The Presentation Dance is a reward for those local girls and boys who have completed their hours of service. Although it is the outstanding social event of the year, it is not just a dance or a social debut for teenagers but adults alike enjoy the same social occasion. The Teen Board of Knoxville rewards with the dance but its purpose is to build leaders for the future.

Greenback Personals

MRS. S. B. McCOLLUM

Among the one thousand persons attending the Smoky Mountain Passion play last Friday evening were sixty nine persons from the Greenback area. They were carried to Townsend by two buses, one sponsored by the Greenback Community Club and the second bus sponsored by the Greenback Merchants and Farmers Bank. Among the special guests were Mrs. C.B. Haggard and daughter, Miss Wendy and four young ladies, all of Saudi Arabia. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eich and Miss Marjorie Curran with nine Senior High young people from the First Presbyterian church of Galston, Ohio have been guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Robt. Temple in Maryville and attended the Passion play in Townsend Friday evening. They also accompanied their former pastor, The Rev. Robt. Temple to Greenback First Presbyterian Church for the worship service Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hammonree with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hammonree of Maryville are at home from a two weeks visit with the Edwin Hammonrees, daughter, Mrs. Ingram and Dr. John Ingram III in Missot. North. They visited Mrs. Edwin Hammonree, who they went into Canada and spent a while in Winnipeg. Also they visited Mr. and Mrs. John McDermott in North Platte, Nebraska and spent a while in eleven states on their tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Pressnell have as guests, Mrs. Pressnell's sister, Mrs. C.B. Haggard and daughters, Misses Wendy and Robin Haggard and four young Arabians girls, all of Saudi Arabia. They have been enjoying East Tennessee scenic places and attended the Smoky Mountain Passion Play near Townsend Friday evening. Miss Robin Haggard recently underwent surgery on a broken hand which she suffered in the plane wreck some time ago when her cousin, Miss Bonnie Pressnell lost her life.

Mr. and Mrs. K.O. Hanes of Lenoir, Va. were guests last week of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hackney, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hammonree of Chattanooga spent Saturday with his mother, Mrs. John E. Hammonree.

Messrs. Elbert and Farrell Pippis spent last weekend in Norfolk, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCollum Jr. Misses Cynthia and Rebecca with Mrs. S.B. McCollum spent the weekend with relatives in Bryson City, N.C. and attended the English-Underwood wedding in the United Methodist Church.

Miss Wanda Hammonree of Knoxville; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hood of Morristown spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hammonree. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hackney of Kingsport were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hackney. Mr. Horace Glaze of Sweetwater was the guest Saturday of his cousin Miss Helen Kerr. Mrs. Earl Hackney is at home from several days treatment in the Blount Memorial Hospital and is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Helen Everett of Maryville visited Wednesday with Miss Helen Kerr and Mrs. S.B. McCollum.

Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Anderson visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G.M. Wear; Mrs. J.B. Anderson and Mrs. I.E. Ashcraft in Maryville.

The Greenback Senior Fellowship Club will meet Friday Aug. 24 at 11 a.m. in the First Presbyterian Church and a covered dish luncheon will be served. President of the Club is the Rev. Claude Grace, who will preside and the speaker at the devotion hour will be the Rev. Robt. Temple. All interested friends are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brookshire and Connie of Knoxville were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Amos McCarter.

Captain and Mrs. John Carpenter with three little girls are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Carpenter and will spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Truett in Johnson City.

Atty. and Mrs. Archie R. Carpenter and Rachel of Knoxville; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carpenter, with little Misses Robin and Dawn Tippens of Maryville with Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Carpenter and guests the Captain John Carpenter and family enjoyed a family picnic dinner Saturday at Historic Ft. Loudon.

Arp Reunion Sunday At Paul Arp's

The annual Arp Reunion will be held Sunday, August 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul K. Arp, Fork Creek Road, Loudon. The all day event will feature a covered dish luncheon at noon. All relatives of the Arp family are urged to attend.

Church Of God Homecoming This Sunday

Homecoming services will be held Sunday, August 19 at Loudon Church of God. Morning speaker will be Earl Lane with special singing in the afternoon. A covered dish luncheon will be served. Everyone is invited to attend.

Camp Meeting At Unita Scheduled

The Annual Camp Meeting of Free Holiness Church at Unita Campground will be held August 7 through August 17. The campground is located three miles from Friendsville on Unita Road. Three services will be held daily, 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Rev. C.O. Swicegood, pastor, extends a cordial invitation to everyone.

Silvey-White Vows Said

Miss Debbie Silvey and Archie Wayne White were married Sunday, July 13 at 4 p.m. at New Providence Baptist Church. Rev. Otis Campbell, pastor of the church, officiated the exchange of the vows.

Miss Silvey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Silvey, Box Street, Lenoir City. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Archie White of New Providence Community.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length dress of off white voile with long bell sleeves. White lace was interwoven in the sleeves and full skirt. Her veil fell into a long length train. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations centered with a white orchid. She wore an antique wedding ring that belonged to her great grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Silvey and is now owned by her grandmother Mrs. Pearl Silvey.

Following the wedding, a reception was given at Sig's restaurant. The serving table was overlaid with a white lace table cloth with a blue underliner and was accented with a silver candelabra which held blue and white vases and an arrangement of flowers. The wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Alice Lee, carried out the blue and white colors with blue wedding bells accented the cake. Assisting with serving were Mrs. Karen Justice and Miss Kathy Hicks. After a trip to Gatlinburg Mr. and Mrs. White returned to the home of her parents, where the bride will reside for a few months before joining her husband at Fort Hood Texas, where he is stationed with the U.S. Army.

MULTI-LEVEL IS NARROW FOR SMALL LOT AND COMPACT FOR ECONOMICAL CONSTRUCTION

CONTEMPORARY IN EVERY RESPECT

There are four large bedrooms on the upper level and all are generously provided with closet space, bath access and wall space for furniture placement. The master bedroom includes impressive sloped ceiling and a luxurious private bath with separate shower and tub dressing room and two large closets.

The main level encompasses a separated living room and dining room along with separate entrance foyer, breakfast room and luxury kitchen. The kitchen includes all built-in appliances, excess counter-top and cabinet space. The open rail to family room on lower level is between breakfast room and off-center center split stair is central from hall. The number of steps to bedroom area exceeds steps to spacious family room. The family room includes impressive fireplace, outside access and direct access to half bath, double garage under and laundry facilities.

The exterior style is contemporary, enhanced by vertical siding, stone face and shed roof with clear story windows.

The plan is Number 862 S.L. It includes a total of 2,568 square feet of livable area. For further information write W. D. Farmer, P.O. Box 49463, Atlanta, Ga. 30322.

AT 90th BIRTHDAY—James A. Berry is congratulated by John Greer on his 90th birthday. Berry, born on June 28, 1885 in Laurel Bluff in Roane County, has been employed at Greer's warehouse since 1942. He still is active in maintaining the grounds around the company's warehouse buildings. The photo was taken at a party given for Mr. Berry at Greer's last Tuesday. Berry's wife, Pearl Elizabeth Brackett, born in 1891 died in September of 1972. He has five children, Hazel Walden, Loudon, Paul Berry, Loudon, Delma Lee Berry, deceased, Herbert Berry, deceased and Mattie Sue Bailey of Loudon. Like his father who was killed in a coal mine accident, Berry was a coal miner for a number of years and was considered an expert in explosives. He resides at 303 Church Street.

550 DELEGATES EXPECTED FOR 4-H ROUNDUP

Some 550 Four-H Club delegates and leaders from across the state are expected to attend the 52nd Tennessee 4-H Roundup at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville Aug. 4-8.

Roundup is held each year to help 4-H members become better acquainted with their state university and the career opportunities it offers, become more familiar with new research and principles in their field of interest, receive recognition for outstanding project work and leadership accomplishments, and make friends.

Four 4-H'ers from Loudon County will be attending. Sydney Elam and Nancy Trout will be entering project competition in Dress Revue and Photography. Teresa Goddard and Diane Kitchens will also be attending as delegates to Roundup.

The theme for this year's Roundup is "4-H Leading With Responsibility." Concerns highlighted of the week-long session include the opening program on Monday, demonstration competition and the Awards Banquet on Tuesday, a trip to the Smokies for sightseeing and play on Wednesday, and Share-The-Fun on Thursday. The election of new Council members and the new president, as well as the presentation of numerous awards, also highlight the week's festivities.

University of Tennessee President Edward J. Bell is scheduled to speak to the delegates at the Monday evening or Thursday morning General Assembly.

Registration for Roundup begins at 1 p.m. Monday at Morrill Hall on the U.T. Campus.

TOMATOES FRESH FROM SUMMER VINES

A garden ornament has become one of America's most popular and versatile vegetables. Tomatoes were once heralded as beautiful but not edible. Although the tomato is American in origin, it traveled around the world before it was appreciated as a food. The Indians in the Andes of South America are believed to have been the first to cultivate tomatoes. Even through European voyagers they seem to have world-wide importance.

Tomatoes offer a significant contribution of vitamins C and provide generous amounts of vitamin A but are low in calories. To get the most good from tomatoes, eat them fresh and raw, but remember they hold a large share of their vitamins even when cooked or canned.

Tomatoes can be frozen successfully. It's true, fresh ripe tomatoes don't freeze well raw. However, tomatoes can be frozen, if you have a good supply of tomatoes and space in your freezer, by all means freeze them—stewed or as juice. Follow these directions from food specialists at the U.S. Department of Agriculture:

For Juice—Wash, sort and trim vine-ripened tomatoes. Cut in quarters or eighths, and simmer 7-5 to 10 minutes. Press through a sieve. Season with 1 teaspoon salt to each quart of juice. Cool. Pour into freezer containers with wide top opening, allowing 1-inch space at top of each quart. Seal, label and freeze.

Stewed Tomatoes—Remove stem ends, peel and quarter ripe tomatoes. Cover and cook until tender (10 to 20 minutes). Place in containing tomatoes in cold water to cool. Pack into wide-topped freezer containers, leaving 1-inch head space per quart, 1/2 inch per pint. Seal, label and freeze.

Although tomatoes provide easy-to-serve good eating when served raw, they also are excellent when prepared in a wide variety of dishes.

Over 65 Growth Boom To County

Loudon County's over-65 population is growing in importance—numerically, economically and politically. The latest figures show that this age group has been one of the fastest growing and that its influence at the polls and in the market place has been increasing proportionately. About 1 out of every 3 persons, locally, is now 65 or older.

Nationally, there are now more than 22 million men and women in that age bracket. They represent 10 percent of the total population. In Loudon County they represent 10.6 percent. For many of them, income is the No. 1 problem. Inflation during the past few years has made it difficult for people on small fixed incomes to make both ends meet. All in all, about 17 percent of those over 65 cannot get along without public assistance according to the Department of Commerce. The bulk on the other hand, are managing satisfactorily on their own. Many of them have income from one or more sources—social security, pensions, interest, dividends, annuities and, frequently, from wages. About 1 out of every 5 are in the labor force. Their earnings account for a third of all the income of older people.

In Loudon County, the latest government figures show, 17.4 percent of the men over 65 and 8.8 percent of the women are in the labor force. Most of them hold part-time jobs. According to the median income category is only around $6,300, it adds up to an impressive $70 billion or so in the aggregate. That is money that gets spent promptly, for food, housing, household operations, medicines, clothing and the like.

The size of this spending power has led industrial firms to cater to their special tastes and wants, devising products to suit them.

Politically, too, their influence has become strong, not only because of their number, but because most of them go to the polls on election day. About 70 percent of the oldest voters, a far greater proportion than in other groups.

They have been raising their voices in Washington, lately, seeking a better national health program and the right to earn more than $2,520 a year without loss of social security benefits.

Several Breakins, Thefts Reported

After several weeks of almost no activity in breakins, larceny and thefts, several such incidents were investigated by County Deputies over the past week.

A 14 ft. boat trailer, owned by Larry Brown, Rt. 3, Loudon was taken from Russell Ferry Landing at Lenoir City Saturday while Brown was fishing. Deputy Larry Proaps said.

A coin collection valued at $25 was taken from the residence of Joe Bradford, Town Creek Road in Lenoir City, Sunday, Deputy Floyd

Kiser reported. The coins included a number of Canadian coins, $10 in Eisenhower silver dollars, and other coins. Entrance to the house was made by prying open a sliding glass door at the rear of the house.

W.G. Dykes reported that while he left his car at Gene Howell's garage at Lenoir City Saturday, his billfold containing $180 disappeared from the car. Deputy Lucian Kent said the wallet also contained a union card and several other personal papers.

Bigger College Bills Face Parents

For young men and young women in Loudon County who want to go to college this year, getting enrolled will not be as difficult as in other years. With registrations running below normal at many colleges, there is ample room for them.

The big problem, for the prospective students and their parents, is how to pay for it.

Since last year, tuition costs have gone up considerably. So has the cost of room and board. Colleges have been forced to raise their rates in order to meet the higher cost of fuel, food, labor and materials.

According to a nationwide survey, 2,400 colleges and universities, conducted by the College Entrance Examination Board, students will have bills that are 6 to 8 percent above last year's.

Those attending four-year private colleges will be paying an average of $4,391, or $252 more than before. At four-year public colleges it will average $2,679, which is $279 more. Sizeable increases are also noted at two-year colleges, especially public ones.

Based upon the low rate schedules and the number of local residents expected to attend, Loudon County parents will be shouldering a $2,333,000 load for the coming academic year.

That will cover tuition, fees, room and board, books, transportation and miscellaneous expenses.

A partial offset to the rise in college costs is the financial aid being made available to students. More scholarships, grants, loans and job programs than ever before are being offered.

Over $87 million in such student aid programs has been awarded for the coming academic year by the U.S. Office of Education, $15.3 million of it in the State of Tennessee, reports the Commerce Clearing House.

It is estimated that Loudon County's college-bound contingent will number about 660 this year.

The $2,333,000 cost that local parents will be bearing is calculated on the assumption that half of the students will be going to public colleges and half to private ones.

Food Stamp Office Has New Location

The Loudon County Food Stamp office has moved to the old Health Department quarters at 600 Atlantic Avenue.

Loudon Countians Read Fewer Library Books, Report Indicates

Loudon Countians are reading fewer books, or so indicates the annual report of the Fort Loudon Regional Library. In the fiscal year ended June 30 the three city libraries and five book stations in the county loaned 37,278 books compared with 40,653 in the year 1970-71. The current figures 1.5 books per capita read during the year from the local libraries.

At the present time there are 14,483 books on deposit in the libraries of the county. A comparative figure of the three main libraries is as follows:

General L.D. Tyson Library, Lenoir City loaned 16,779 books in the last year compared with 17,975 in 70-71. Greenback showed the best increase. There 8,279 books were read last year an increase from 5,875 from the compared year. Loudon on the other hand had the biggest drop. Some 9,145 books were loaned last year, compared with 14,655 in the previous time period.

A look at the bookmobile stations shows 196 books were circulated from the new Fort Hills station; 434 from Hines Valley, a slight increase; a healthy increase from 712 to 1,191 at Jackson; 976 at New Providence; and a drop from 568 to 261 at Philadelphia. Members of the Loudon County Library board are Mrs. Graham Cooper, chairman, Mrs. M.C. Anderson, Walter Hodge, Tom Matlock, Mrs. Aubrey Murr, Mrs. L.C. Roberts and Donald Perkey. Regional Board members are Mrs. Earl Alexander and Mrs. L.C. Roberts.

Librarians are Mrs. George Mincy, Gen. L.D. Tyson Public Library, Lenoir City;

Mrs. Adn McCarter, Greenback Public Library; and Mrs. Billie Mead, Loudon Public Library.

Bookmobile Station custodians are Mrs. Sue Brewer, Fort Hills, Loudon Housing Project; Mrs. T.J. Smith, Hines Valley, home; Mrs. J.A. Dutton, Jackson's Dutton Grocery; Mrs. Helen Henry, New Providence Community Center; Mrs. Brenda Lynn, Philadelphia, Branda's Beauty Shop.

55 Report For First Loudon Grid Practice

By Danny Gibson
Sports Editor

The Tennessee high school prep grid preparation for fall got underway Friday for most teams across the state.

The Loudon Redskins were set by coaches Bert Ratledge and Jim Gibson with a full opening day agenda to save the defending double-A champs getting down to some live hitting by the end of first day drills.

"We have around 55 out and should keep that number pretty close I guess," related head coach Ratledge. "We are missing a couple of linemen that figure high in our plans from spring drills. One I think is late getting home from a vacation in Florida and one is expected in a couple of weeks following a recovery period for a foot operation."

Coach Ratledge said his team was in rather good overall condition and the first day hitting was due to this. "I was kinda interested in who would be breathing hard. We'll get down to some actual testing later next week," commented Ratledge.

Loudon, still seeking a 10th regular season game almost made a hook-up with Cloudland but the battle plans were talked on at the last second. "I am going to give Church Hill another call sometime this week," stated Loudon coach and Principal Jim Gibson.

The Redskins are practicing but once a day with a tentative fall scrimmage on the line for Friday with Oak Ridge and maybe McMinn County.

Coach Bert Ratledge did not comment on the scrimmage. "We plan a workout with Knoxville Holston (AAA) and McMinn County (AAA). They are actually carry over scrimmages that were not played in the spring. Bad weather prevented us from ever getting to work on a live scrimmage in the spring," reminded Coach Ratledge.

The Loudon boys entering the freshman ranks are to meet Monday, August 11 at 1 p.m. at the Redskins dressing room for practice equipment and instruction.

Pool To Host School Party

As a means of saying "Thanks For The Good Year" the Loudon Municipal Swimming Pool is having a Back To School Party on Monday, August 18, and the admission that day will be FREE, pool manager Brenda Crabtree said.

The pool will remain open on its regular schedule until the 18th. Following that will be two more weekends of swimming. The pool will be open Saturday and Sunday, August 23, and 24, and Saturday, Sunday and Monday, August 30, 31 and Sept. 1.

The pool manager said the pool will be available for private parties throughout the month of August. Detailed information may be obtained by calling the pool office or the Recreation Department office.

Carter Lumber Panthers To Go Week Without Pads

Is Sr. Babe Ruth Champs

The Carter Lumber Company Braves won the Loudon Recreation Senior Babe Ruth Baseball season ending tournament last Saturday. The Braves captured the title with a rousing and actually surprising first round triumph over the Lenoir City Connie Mack and Senior Babe Ruth entry that performs in the Maryville-Eagleton Connie Mack District by a score of 4-0. Motivated by the prestigious win the Braves rode the pitching of Danny Isbill and the towering three home run of Greg Watson to a 3-1 championship decision of combat," spoke Coach Blackburn. "We will be in shorts for this first week. Then we plan to go a week of twice a day drills. The morning session will begin at 8:30 without pads. Our 2:30 or 3 p.m. get together won't be so light. Yes, that means pads and full double. In the Braves victory over Lenoir City, Danny Isbill started on the mound for the Braves but had to be relieved by Rick McCrary. McCrary got credit for the win as the Braves came from a 3-2 deficit in the top of the fifth inning with five runs, sending 11 men to the plate against Lenoir City losing pitcher Bobby Smith. Mike McCall had three hits and Greg Watson a pair of

WORKING THE KINKS OUT—The Loudon Redskins had a turnout of some 56 football candidates for fall football duties as the Redskins opened camp on Friday.

Huff And Hamil Carbide Champion

The Union Carbide regular season golf league play has come to an end with Dick Huff and Arthur Hamil claiming the summer championship. Huff and Hamil battled their way from far down in the pack to gain the lead only one week prior to the conclusion of the league season.

Huff and Hamil, Schrimsher and Watkins concluded play with 39 total team points as compared to the champions 216 team points. The toughest acceptance was for Schrimsher and Watkins, who had led the league standing for over 10 weeks to yield to Huff and Hamil in the stretch run. LARRY FLACK and Bob

Dravecky finished third in the standings with 197 team points, while Eldon White and Dick Rosenbaum were nine points behind that with 189 and fourth position. Larry Flack, who notched the lowest individual low net showing for any one week's play with a 30, also closed out the summer as the low net individual with round of 36

Rain Spoils Greenback First Meeting

PRACTICE RAINED OUT—Greenback Football Coach Keith Bailey addresses his football team for the fall Monday evening as a down pour of rain forced the cancellation of the Cherokees first day of workouts. Some 28 fall prospects were on hand for the meeting.

Coach Keith Bailey and his Cherokee assistants Jerry Masingo and Ronnie Hudson met with 28 first day arrivals at Greenback on Monday evening.

Rain spoiled the Cherokees first day, with Coach Bailey roughly giving his team a run down of what was to be expected for the fall campaign.

The Cherokees are expected to journey to Tellico for a return of a spring scrimmage in the near future. "We will probably wait a week or so before setting it up," informed Coach Bailey.

Absent from the Cherokee ranks was spring practice leader and fall hopeful Sandy Graham. It was unofficial as to his absence. Also the Cherokees were told of spring defensive starter Robert Davis' decision to quit school. Neither absence seemed to be greeted by the Greenback coaches with any pleasantness.

The Cherokees will have picture day for their squad Friday, August 15th. Greenback will follow-up with a fourth quarter Blount

Philadelphia Softball Tourney To Start Monday

The Fourth Annual Philadelphia Community Club Softball Invitational Tournament will get under way Monday night with five games scheduled. The double elimination affair will run through Saturday, August 16.

Doyle Arp is the tournament director this year. "We expect this to be the best of any of our past tournaments," stated Mr. Arp.

Of the 14-team field, featuring teams from Loudon, Lenoir City, Philadelphia, Vonore, Greenback, Kingston, Athens, and Knoxville, at least 11 have all won high finishes in area tournaments during the summer.

The admission for each nightly session of the tournament will be 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for kids age 6-12.

Assisting Mr. Arp in the running of the Philadelphia Invitational will be club members Frank McKinsey, Eddie Brewster, and Bill Gage in charge of gate admissions. Kenneth Hamilton will keep the hamburgers and hot dogs dishing off the grill in the concession stand. Andy Hill and Ralph Hamilton will be looking after the field, while Joe Williams will serve as tournament score keeper.

Trophies are to be given to the top four teams and to the team with the highest team batting mark. Also individual trophies will be presented to the home run king, highest batting average individual, and to the golden glove standout.

Lenoir City To Have 7 & 8 Grade Football

The Lenoir City school board approved a move to field a 7th and 8th grade football team this fall. The board action opened the door for what chief spokesman Henry Blackburn, Lenoir City High School football coach, says will be a definite factor in reconstructing the Lenoir City football program.

The 7th and 8th grade team will be coached by Middle School coach Bill Satterfield. Not only will the team be made up of boys from Middle School but from boys at Browder, Eaton Cross roads, Highland Park, and presumably Glendale.

Coach Satterfield, who's brother Larry is a former University of Tennessee volunteer and a rookie lineman for the Oakland Raiders at this time, reminds all interested boys of the Lenoir City area that there is no "Now whatsoever" weight limit to play on this team.

This Lenoir City football program will begin a ground up operation. The Panthertron already has the youth football program for Pee-wee ages. An eight game schedule is being lined up at this time with a squad meeting set for Lenoir City Civitan Field at 4:30 Friday.

Chrysler Credit Advances To State

The Chrysler Credit Women's Softball team, composed of girls from Loudon and Lenoir City, swept past the Cleveland Mastrettes 4-6, Sunday to claim the District III title and the right to play in the State AA event this weekend in Nashville.

Sylvia Hawkins was the standout in the offensive department with four home runs. Marietta Blackburn, Marilyn Smith, Cindy Ledbetter and Bonnie Wear were the pacers in the defensive phase of the tournament.

The winners opened the series with an 8-4 decision over Decatur and followed with decisions over Elm Hill, 12-3, Dayton, 12-11, in extra innings, Sweetwater, 12-10, Crowah, 9-2, and the Mastrettes, 6-4.

Chrysler Credit is the first Loudon County entry to ever win the District title and play in the state AA meet.

City Golf Tournament Three Flights

The Loudon City Golf League has announced the planning of a season ending individual 18-hole golf tournament.

League President Ted Lomax stated last week that the two league division winners would meet in a league championship deciding playoff. Also to wrap up the summer an individual tournament of 18-holes would be played by all the league members and alternates.

The tournament field will be divided into three flights with a two week period in five holes a week being played to derive the winner of each flight.

Prizes are to be awarded to the top five places in each flight. The annual City Golf League cocktail will be held Thursday, August 29 at the Lions' Club Park. All awards and team honors will be presented then.

All City Golf League members are urged to get their nomination for the "Best Sportsperson" in to Ted Lomax by no later date than August 11.

The Loudon City Golf League Tournament will be played at Madisonville Golf Course where the league matches are also held. The tournament flights are as follows:

Water Ski Tournament Maresmont Aids Eaton Park

For the first time in a decade, tournament water skiing will return to the immediate area. This weekend some 25 to 100 "hotdog" and novice water skiers will be taking part in the UT Ski Club and Aqua-Knox Ski Club Tournament on Fort Loudoun Lake.

The two day event will feature an all day salon event on Saturday, starting at 8 p.m. and lasting until dark. On Sunday trick skiing and ramp jumping will be on the agenda. Entry fees are set at $8 for one event, $9 for two events, and $10 for all three.

Tournament registration will begin at 7 a.m. on Saturday morning.

There will be nine divisions to compete in. Broken down for boys and girls: Junior Division - ages 12 and under, Boys and Girls 13-16, Senior Men and Women ages 20 and older for women and 25 and older for men, and a Women's Division for 17-29. The men's division will be in two classes, 17-24 and 25-34.

All that will be needed is a person's ski or skis and his or her life vest. The tournament is being presented as a Novice Ski Tournament with entries coming from Florida, Alabama, Kentucky, Georgia, North Carolina, and of course Tennessee and the East Tennessee area.

The last such tournament of this nature was held in Kingston back in the early 1960's. For any more information anyone may contact the chief judge, Mr. Art Price (966-5969).

MAREMONT AIDS COUNTY PARK—Maremont Operations Manager Bill Dean presents Eaton Ruritan Club finance chairman Henry Morton (left) with a check for $1,000 from the Maremont Corporation to aid in the construction of a picnic shelter at the Eaton Ruritan Park. At right Ruritan President J. Will Jones looks on. The Eaton Ruritan Park is a county park with development spearheaded by the Ruritan Club. The 7.3 acre park is nearing 75 percent completion. The total development cost is estimated at $75,000.

BOB HARMON (right), Assistant Area 33 Supervisor for the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency, was recently presented with an award for 10 years service with the TWRA. Bob began working for the TWRA (then the Game and Fish Commission) July 1, 1964 in Shelby County. He was later transferred to Loudon County in 1966 and then to Roane County in 1974. Bob was born and raised in Harriman, and he presently lives in Kingston. Presenting Bob with his award is Reid Tatum (left) Region III Manager for TWRA.

ED WHITT OF LOUDON, Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency assistant area 41 supervisor, was recently presented a 25 year service pin and certificate of appreciation by Regional Manager Harold Hurst.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY BY M. LEE SMITH

(c) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

At the start of this year the state Governor Winfield Dunn was near the end of his term as Governor of Georgia. He suffered one defeat after another in the General Assembly, Candidates in the Republican primary for Governor was defeated by a decisive vote.

ELM HILL Meats

Ask For Famous Wampler's Sausage

Governor privately cultivated his support while publicly criticizing his stands on the Johnson City medical school and the Merrittown correction center.

For most of the year a Republican President whom Dunn had supported was beset with scandal. And finally, the Republican nominee for Governor was defeated by a decisive vote.

Seven months later Dunn is relaxed and at work for himself in a richly decorated Nashville office on the 26th floor of the First American Center. Dunn is affiliated with Hospital Corporation of America, a prospering hospital development and management company. He spends about two thirds of his working hours in this endeavor.

The former Governor also is associated with Commerce Union Bank, GTE Information Systems, and one or two other lesser activities.

He has a comfortable income and an active business life. But he is not going at the frantic pace he maintained while serving as Governor. In fact, he has turned down several opportunities for additional income, including invitations to serve on several banks' boards of directors. Dunn and his family have recently moved into a stylish townhouse on the west side of Nashville. They are, of course, without the large battery of cooks, servants, and security officers furnished by the state at the Executive Residence.

How have they found it? "I have discovered I can still mop floors, carry out garbage, and push grocery baskets," Dunn says. "I am still a little self-conscious when I go into a public place by myself and people

OBITUARIES

MRS. McNABB
Mrs. Reba Elizabeth McNabb, age 57, of 706 Perry Street, Loudon, died Sunday, August 3, at Loudon County Memorial Hospital.

Survivors: husband, Woodrow McNabb; son, Keith; three grandchildren, Beverly, Beth and Brad; two sisters, Mrs. John (Margaret) Neeragard, recognize me."

Dunn also says, "It has been a happy transition, but I would be foolish to say we do not miss the conveniences I have not missed the sense of power or being the center of attention."

On reflection what was the most pleasing development during his term? "The state's economic growth resulting from a healthy economic climate. While my administration did not create that climate, I think we contributed to it."

What is his biggest disappointment about his term? "The inability to stabilize some of the things I felt worthwhile in government. I refer specifically to our economic development and regional correction facility programs."

Will he run for Governor again? "My natural inclination is to want to run for Governor. I try now not to think about it. But people won't let me forget it."

He is now content and relatively secure financially. Despite this fact and the tough year he experienced in 1974, most believe he will follow his inclination and once again seek the state's highest office.

operating the ambulance service. The $32,000 is the amount the hospital Administrator Guy Hamilton said was needed by January 31 to offset pay raises the hospital board had approved February of personnel there in anticipation of getting payment from the county. The court also said it would pay the additional $19,000 sometime later, when more Federal Revenue Sharing funds were available.

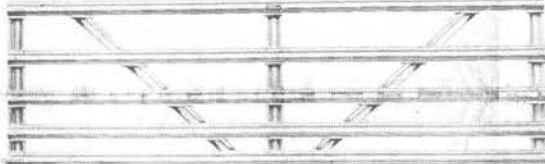

The September meeting of county court will be held on Monday, September 8, at 9 a.m. The meeting was changed because the scheduled meeting date fell on Labor Day.

After arguing over a few thousand dollars the squares' net approval of $50,000 in water revenue bonds, backed by county property, for the Justice Area Service System, without as much as a question.

Approval was given to authorizing payment of $22,000 in Federal Revenue Sharing funds to the Loudon County Memorial Hospital by January 31 as a partial payment on the $51,000 deficit the hospital incurred while

One of our pictures this week is similar to some we have used in the past. That is, it was taken at the same event, but in the ones we have used in the past, as well as this one, the people carry from year to year. This picture was made at the Bacon Hosiery Mill Christmas party. I don't think they have this party anymore. We recognize a lot of the faces but can't put names with all of them. Some we can recall are: Walter Shuberl, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Colley, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shauer, Marie Vanibus, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wolfe, and Dot Dutton. Many others we are in doubt about. Some we think we know but we are not sure. I guess when you start looking at the pictures with so many people, it is always hard to pick people out and identify them.

Our other picture is a school group we think we don't know the name, date or place. Someone gave us this picture a long time ago and possibly gave us some information about it. But, if so, we have misplaced it. Some of the faces look familiar, but we wouldn't dare risk a guess as to the real identity of them. Maybe some of our readers can help us with this one. Usually when we ask for help on our pictures someone always takes the time to help us solve the mystery. This we appreciate very much.

We used the old Jackson School picture last week and got some comments in it just will possibly hear from others. We feel close to this section of our area like many other sections. It is a part of our geographic base. All the old schools now closed as well as some others still around have a place in the memories of myself, as well as others. It has been some time since we have been out in the Jackson area. We are told that it is fast changing with many of the buildings and other things gone or changed beyond recognition. Stores, schools, churches and other things, regardless of what covers to replace them, will never have the meaning as many people as did the old things.

Aging Council Meets August 13

The Loudon County Council on Aging will meet on August 13 at 1:30 p.m. in the Conference room of the Loudon City Merchants and Farmers Bank. Any agency, group, or organization having an one of their major purposes services to the aging is eligible for membership on the council. In order to justify representation on the council, a letter of intent must be sent to the president of the council, Mr. Howard E. Nelson, or to the Loudon County Office on Aging. In order to vote on the actions to be taken by the council, an organization must have elected a representative to attend the council meetings. It is suggested that an alternate person be elected as well so that he or she can vote as the absence of the first representative. The Council serves as a clearinghouse for programs, activities and services which are available, or planned, for senior citizens in our county. According to 1973 Census statistics there are approximately 3,000 persons over 65 in Loudon County, 15 percent of our population, and this percentage is on the increase. The Executive Committee of the council will meet at 12:30 on Aug. 13 at the bank, one hour prior to the council meeting. All meetings of the council and its committees are open to any interested person. For additional information please contact the Loudon County Office on Aging at 458-4436.

State Withholds County Education Funds, Decision On School Opening Due Thursday

A decision on whether or not Loudon County Schools will open as scheduled next Wednesday (August 20) will probably be made by the Loudon County Board of Education Thursday in a meeting set for the Superintendent's office at 7:30 p.m.

Edward Headlee was notified by phone Tuesday morning that State Commissioner of Education Dr. Sam Ingram had ordered that state funds, which make up about half of the local school budget, be withheld until certain improvements are made in the county schools. Headlee was expecting a letter giving formal notification of the state action no later than today (Thursday). Headlee said he was told by officials in the state district office in Knoxville that the Commission was demanding the school board develop an immediate program to correct a number of deficiencies plus a long range plan for upgrading the physical school plants. This then must be approved by the school board and funding provided by the court before the commissioner will certify the county school system to receive funds under the state minimum program.

Supt. Headlee said Tuesday, just prior to press time, that he will present the problem to the school board Thursday night. He said they can either decide to open schools without state funds, using local money that is scheduled to match the state funds throughout the year, or they can decide to just not open school next Wednesday. Headlee said he was hopeful something could be worked out to open schools on schedule, but it would have to be determined if there was sufficient funds in the bank to meet the first payroll. The first state equalizing check was due Friday.

After a hurried meeting between Headlee and County Judge William Russell Tuesday morning they said everything will be done to work out the problem in time not to disrupt the orderly flow of funds which would prevent schools from opening.

Headlee and Judge Russell made a series of phone calls to Nashville but were unable to talk to anyone on the Commissioner's Nashville staff.

Judge Russell did talk to an official in the district office at Knoxville and was told that would be possible for the school board to sit down and work out the problem with the state and fire inspectors, to determine some immediate emergency measures which would solve some of the more serious problems which have been building up over the years and despite state threats have been left unattended to.

Details of the drowning death of Lenoir City Ford dealer Ronald L. Coffey, 52, who died last week after his family returned to Lenoir City with the body of the 52 year old victim. Easter, his wife, Barbara, and sons, Ron, 13, and Boy Scout, swam out to his father and managed to bring him to shore, but doing so both were hit by waves.

Stolen Fishing Boats Found Minus Outboards

Two fishing boats stolen on Poplar Springs Road Thursday but the motors were missing. On Thursday W.J. Harrison reported that someone had stolen a tractor battery, cables, radiator cap and some small tools from an island in the Tennessee River near the Brounert bridge at Loudon.

Tellico Canal Bridge Bid Let

Bids for two state highway projects in Loudon County have come in under the money and apparently will be put to contract later this month. The projects are for a $47 million package advertised for bid opening August 20.

Subdivision Developer To Fight Industry Park Plan

Loudon's City Council is expected to take the first step toward acquiring the 285-acre W.D. Williamson Farm on Blair Bend Monday night. A first reading on a resolution to condemn the property for industrial purposes is expected at the meeting, barring any unforeseen problems that may be in the engineering reports on the property that are due at that meeting also.

IAM Prevails In Carbide Vote

Members of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers Union at the Carbide Films Packaging plant in Loudon soundly defeated an attempt last week to decertify the union representation at the plant. Hourly employees at the plant voted Wednesday and Thursday on a proposal to decertify representation by the union after a petition of non-union employees was accepted by the National Labor Relations Board.

TASS Slates Groundbreaking

Deborah Ingram Becomes Bride

Miss Deborah Anne Ingram became the bride of John Michael Raper on August 9 at 8 o'clock in the evening at Central United Methodist Church, before an altar flanked by white columns with white urns of greenery and baskets of white and yellow mums.

The bride is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Thomas F. Ingram. Mr. Ingram is Loudon County General Sessions Judge, and Mrs. Ingram is an Eligibility Specialist with the Department of Human Services of Loudon County. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Ford Shell of Athens.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Raper of Athens. Mr. Raper is owner of Athens Poultry and Egg Co. Mrs. Mabel Westbrook, organist, presented a program of nuptial music, including the Professional from "Water Music," by Handel; "My Heart Ever Faithful," and "Arioso," by Bach; "One Hand, One Heart," by Herdstein; "Walk Hand in Hand," by Cowell; Meditation from "Flute," by Massenet; "O Promise Me," by DeBorja; "O Perfect Love," by Barby; "Love Theme from 'Roméo and Juliet,'" by Rota; "Trumpet Voluntary," by Purcell; "Bridal Chorus from 'Lohengrin,'" by Wagner; Wedding March from "Midsummer Night's Dream," by Mendelssohn; Vocal selections by Mrs. Doris Prater including "Whither Thou Goest," "The Lord's Prayer," by Joliette, and "We've Only Just Begun," by Nichols.

The doubling ceremony, performed by the Rev. Fred Woodson, was lighted by burning white candles. Arched candelabra in increasing heights on each side of the altar. An arrangement of yellow and white mums and greenery, to mark the family, and the church windows were marked with burning tapers and magnolia leaves. Given in marriage by her gowned in blue chiffon with which she wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride which was decorated throughout with flowers similar to those used in the wedding.

The four-tiered wedding cake rested on a table covered with a white lace cloth held at each end with yellow sweetheart roses. The top layer was decorated with yellow sweetheart roses, shasta daisies and babies' breath. Flower-decked silver candelabra held burning tapers.

The groom's cake was a four-tiered chocolate, topped with a red and gold crown.

A table was arranged on the screened in porch of the Ingram home, laden with hors d'oeuvres, centered with a melon basket filled with melon balls.

Serving at the reception were Mrs. John P. Ely; Mrs. Randy Vernon and Mrs. Jim Morris, all of Athens, and Miss Valois Shea and Miss Suzanne Evans, both of Lenoir City.

After a wedding trip, the couple will live in Athens where the groom is associated with his father in business.

Prior to the wedding, Mrs. Raper was entertained on several occasions.

A luncheon at UT Faculty Club, Knoxville, was given by Mrs. Herbert Ingram and Mrs. H. C. Coker, both of Knoxville, and Mrs. Robert Delaney, Kingston.

A luncheon was given at the Grandery in Knoxville by Mrs. Jessie Hildebrand, Loudon, and Mrs. Willie Foster, Lenoir City.

Miss Claire Whitfield of Nashville, maid-of-honor, bridesmaids were Miss Stridgett Murray, Athens; Mrs. Bill Bradberry, Atlanta; Miss Yvonne Raper of Athens; sister of the groom, and Miss Mary Jane Prater, junior bridesmaid, of Concord.

They wore gowns of green organza, with the bodies accented with a self ruffle at the neckline and skirts of green and white organza plaid.

They carried arm bouquets of a variety of colors of shasta daisies, mums, sweetheart roses and babies' breath.

Lucky, Best of Athens was best man. Ushers were Monte Raper, brother of the groom of Athens; James Morris of Athens, and Donald Pardue of Lenoir City. Tom Ingram, the bride's brother, was junior usher.

Mrs. Don Pardue kept the bride's book, and the wedding was directed by Mrs. Louis Holton.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ingram chose a gown of peach, accented with white chiffon and carried a white orchid.

The groom's mother was

Tonya Scarbrough Wins Queen Of Queens Title

Bride-Elect
Laura Booth
Is Honored

Miss Laura Booth, bride-elect of David Collins was honored on Saturday, August 9 on two different occasions.

Mrs. Hank Bertelkamp, Knoxville, Mrs. Don P. Smith and Mrs. Jack Leffer of Knoxville, entertained with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bertelkamp, Yelwoods Drive.

Miss Laura Booth, bride-elect of David Collins was honored on Saturday, August 9 on two different occasions.

The girls modeled in sportswear and party dresses. They were judged on appearance, showmanship, poise, and grooming. A Queen was crowned in each age division and each Queen modeled in her party dress again to compete for the Queen of Queens.

Tonya is eleven years old and a seventh grade student at Loudon Junior High School. She is a member of the Jr. High Band in which she plays the flute. She is also a member of Claudette Kiley Sisk where she has received most of her training. She began twirling at the age of three and has received many trophies in twirling as well as in beauty pageants. She received third runner up in the World Most Beautiful Majorette Pageant held in Louisville, Ky., December 1974. She received a three foot trophy, crown, banner and flowers for her Jr. Miss title in Maryville plus a four foot trophy, crown, banner and a nosegay for being crowned Queen of Queens. She was sponsored by the Loudon Branch Bank of Loudon County in the Miss Shamrock pageant which made it possible for her to compete in the Kentucky Pageant and the pageant August 2 in Maryville.

Tonya is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Scarbrough of Loudon and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Littleton of Loudon and Mrs. Richard Scarbrough of Lenoir City.

The harder your air conditioner has to work to cool your home, the more kilowatt-hours of electricity you'll be using, and the more you'll be paying.

You can enjoy the comfort of air conditioning for less energy and less money if you follow these suggestions.

- 1 Insulate your house—ceilings, floors, and walls, if possible.
- 2 Install storm doors and windows.
- 3 Vent your clothes dryer to the outside.
- 4 Cook, wash, and dry in the cooler hours.
- 5 Use a high-efficiency air conditioner—one with an EER rating of 8 or higher.
- 6 And, finally, never let your air conditioner's filter get overly dirty. Clean or replace it every 30 days.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor Loudon County Herald

Now that the County Court has established a higher tax rate for next year and a patric increase has been given Superintendent Headlee for his attempt to run the schools, some may sit back, content with the notion that progress is being made. Yes, I say, progress is being made—that is if you consider going in reverse as being progress.

The simple fact is that Loudon County is so far behind that anything less than a total, determined effort by everyone involved will result in a setback toward our goal in providing a quality education for all Loudon County students.

A few encouraging efforts have been made. The $100,000 borrowed to improve Philadelphia and Glendale is a noble gesture. But this is a far cry from being enough, and anyone who believes it is sufficient does not possess the full grasp of the situation.

A number of disarming facts can be ignored no longer. Witness that not one dime of county funds has ever been spent to purchase a library book for our schools. Think about it... not one dime. In the Junior High, for instance, the students themselves have to buy magazines in order to obtain the necessary funds to get the books they need.

It is desperately want and need. Fortunately for some other schools, dedicated parents and organizations have worked diligently to provide the materials needed that have been denied them. This should be unthinkable. But because of present circumstances, it is altogether necessary in order to provide enough materials for student instruction.

And now, the school teachers' pay. I remind everyone that the county has not given a raise for the past three years. Oh, sure, the state gave them one, but I ask: do you honestly believe that 75 cents a day is going to meet the expenses of next year at 10 percent inflation? Teachers are consumers, too. They have taxes to pay, groceries and clothing to buy, and most have children to raise. But, don't give the reason, "You know what you were getting into when you took it." That is the most unfounded excuse that has ever been offered. One has to possess other interests besides the desire to make a living in order to be a teacher.

Patience, dedication are of the utmost criteria in meeting a good teacher's qualifications. Loudon County must offer adequate compensation so that she, too, will be able to attract the best of teachers. Unfortunately, the better trained, qualified teachers are either looking for more lucrative positions elsewhere or are abandoning the profession altogether. This is tragic.

So, it comes to this—How good an educator do we want to offer in Loudon County? I say we want better than what we are now getting. The task is formidable, but not un conquerable. Let's get busy.

Paul Bivens

Dear Editor: In the past months, I have been reading letters to the editor and talking to individuals who have observed that the citizens have been very interested in our public buildings in State and Federal Government. Those people in the elected offices were voted in and when election time comes again we will be given a chance to vote them back in or out.

The people have no choice in deciding upon who we want to represent our children and our tax dollars on the School Board. I strongly believe if the members of the School Board were elected rather than appointed by a few fat cats that control the money, I think that our children could be served better and our tax dollars spent more wisely if the members were elected then the people would have a chance to elect representatives.

Recently there were three new members appointed to the School Board. Bob Carter of Carter Lumber Company was one. It is a rumor that the reason he was offered the position on the School Board is that he can be controlled by the Fat Cats. I have known him and have done business with him for years. I have observed a change in him since the appointment and I have reason to believe that there is some truth to the rumor.

In my opinion he has made all the money he thinks he needs and no longer needs the support of the little man that made him rich. I personally do not do any more business with him until he becomes a leader instead of a follower. And I urge the voters to do the same.

James Howard Gibson, Grove St., Loudon.

National Campground To Open 103rd Session Friday

The 103rd annual National Campground meeting will be held Aug. 14-15 with the Rev. Harold King of Friends Church, Friendsville, holding the services.

The National Campground, designated in 1972 as a national historical site, is located off Highway 95 between Lenoir City and Greeneback.

The meeting shed was constructed of hand-hewn posts and rafters held together with wooden pegs in 1873-74 after "a few well-disposed Christian men" resolved that "the first duty of man is justly due our Heavenly Father."

For the more than a century of its uninterrupted annual meetings, the services have been non-denominational and have featured such preachers as the Rev. George F. Moody, the Rev. J. L. Helton, the Rev. McCoy Franklin, the Rev. Horace Lillard, the Rev. John Trumpp and the famous "Blacksmith Preacher," the Rev. Tom Sexton. Church groups wishing to take part in the services during the period are requested to write or call Mrs. H. C. Greenway, Lenoir City, Rt. 3.

Serving as song leader this year will be Ronald "Tom" Greene, music director of Immanuel Baptist Church, Marganton, Road, Marysville.

His wife, the former Vickie Phillips, and Margaret Williams will alternate as pianists.

Mr. Greene has served as music director at Friendsville First Baptist and at Salem Baptist Church before coming to his present service. Mr. and Mrs. Greene are also youth directors at Immanuel and he will be serving as a deacon starting in October.

Services will be held nightly at 7:15. There also will be a 2 p.m. service on Sunday, Aug. 17, and on Sunday, Aug. 24, designated as Homecoming Sunday, services will be at 11 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Plans call for a basket lunch at noon.

Children's services are planned each night. Announcement was made this week of special music planned for each night, as follows:

- Aug. 15, Greenback Baptist Church, 16:00
- Aug. 16, Morganton Baptist Church, 16:00
- Aug. 17, 7:30, Loudon Cumberland Presbyterian Church, 16:00
- Aug. 18, Beal's Chapel Baptist Church, 16:00
- Aug. 19, New Providence Baptist Church, 16:00
- Aug. 20, Friendsville United Methodist Church, 16:00
- Aug. 21, Friendsville Friends Church, 16:00
- Aug. 22, Friendsville Baptist Church, 16:00
- Aug. 23, Hickory Valley Baptist Church, 16:00
- Aug. 24, 2 p.m., New Macedonia Quartet; 7:30, Meadow United Methodist Church, 16:00

Big Outlay For Home Improvements

Homeowners in Loudon County are spending a record amount these days on the maintenance and improvement of their properties.

Because economic conditions have put new homes on the market, most families, the trend has been to do the next best thing—put more money into sprucing up their present dwellings.

In the past year alone, their outlays for alterations, additions, repairs and replacements came to an estimated $23,000,000, figures indicate.

The estimate is based upon a sampling survey of dwellings in all sections of the county, conducted by the Department of Commerce and upon data from other sources.

The figures show that the average expenditure for residential improvements in Loudon County last year came to about $38 per housing unit, as against $20 the year before. Elsewhere in the United States it was $40 per unit.

Those were the averages. If individual cases, the outlay ranged considerably above and below that amount. The reason is that most homeowners go in for major improvements and repairs in one year and then may do little or nothing along that line for a year or two thereafter.

Nationally, the Commerce Department reports, a record $2.1 billion went for home improvements in 1974. That was 14 percent more than in the previous year.

Over $1.6 billion of it was spent for construction improvements, such as alterations, replacements and additions. The other $8.5 billion was for maintenance and general repairs with nearly half of it going for painting and decorating. The rest went for plumbing, roofing, heating, air conditioning equipment and miscellaneous.

Of the $2,323,000 that was spent in Loudon County in the year, about $1,724,000 was for alterations and additions and approximately $1,149,000 for repairs and maintenance; it is estimated, based upon the overall breakdown.

Many of these jobs are being tackled by the homeowners themselves. They are aided by the current availability of readily install units and equipment.

Hampton In Youth Program

A student from Loudon is working this summer under the Youth Opportunity Program at the Oak Ridge

COUNTY SERVICE CENTER—The area of the Loudon County Memorial Hospital and the old Bacon Hospital, now known as the Bacon Building, is becoming the center of county health and service agencies. The map shows the location of the hospital, Bacon Building and the new Senior Citizens Center in relation with the courthouse and downtown area of Loudon. County Judge William Russell said he was surprised at the number of county residents that did not know where these facilities were and asked that a map of their location be published. Among the offices now located in the Bacon Building are the offices of doctors Elsie Tomkinson, Peter Stimpson and James Rodgers, County Health Department, Farmers Home Administration, Social Security, Overlook Mental Health Clinic, Soil Conservation Service, County Extension (Cura) and the County Health and classroom area of the Nurses Training Program.

Stafford Says "No Fix"

Local legislator Benny Stafford, Nashville, last week for hearings to publicize Blanton administration hiring, said he was surprised to find himself a center of public attention. According to a Nashville television newsmagazine report, Stafford's secretary rushed to place an "emergency" phone call from the press area of the hearing room. The call allegedly went to a member of the Tennessee Highway Patrol stationed in Knoxville.

The party reached, the secretary motioned Stafford from his seat on the hearing panel to the telephone, the reporter said.

National Laboratory. The laboratory is operated by Union Carbide Corporation's Nuclear Division for the U. S. Energy Research and Development Administration. Gary A. Hampton is working in the plant and equipment division. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawkins of 618 Cedar Street, Loudon.

This is the tenth year that Union Carbide's Nuclear Division has participated in the Youth Opportunity Program at the Oak Ridge

While a four-member Republican task force evinced righteous indignation at administration employment practices, Stafford attempted to fix a traffic ticket. Meanwhile, the reporter, sitting next to the phone, proceeded to take notes on the incident.

According to the reporter's account, the Lenoir City representative later called him to say "you didn't hear me say to fix that ticket." The highway patrolman involved could not be reached for comment. But the reporter did hear from Safety Department Public Information Officer Jim Henderson. Henderson said the officer had not originated with him. Stafford later denied the television account was valid.

New Communications System Now In Use At Justice Center

One of the major improvements to law enforcement that was to come to Loudon County with the completion of the million dollar Loudon County Justice Center has finally arrived.

For the past few weeks and continuing for another week will be the installation of the $94,000 radio communications system. Like the rest of the project the benefits will be shared by the sheriff's department, the city police departments in Loudon, Lenoir City, Greeneback and Philadelphia.

The command post of the RCA Communications System commands direct attention when a person enters the dispatching room at the Justice Center. The beautiful blue console is dotted with lighted buttons, switches and meters, easily pointing out its complexity and versatility. Just across the room is a back-up console in case of a malfunction in the master unit and also allowing the Center's records clerk to dispatch or answer calls when the duty dispatcher is necessarily away from the console.

The twin consoles have six channel capacity on the lower, middle and high frequency bands. For years the county and cities have operated on the low band or well known 37.26 mks frequency. Now all the cars are on the high frequency band, which in itself will be a benefit to the departments. In the past, the departments have been plagued with privately owned monitors, some owned by persons active in breaking the laws who used the monitors to keep tabs on police activity and patrol locations. Needless to say the new frequencies are being kept quiet.

The first frequency is the main working channel for all County and Cities working units. The second is an inter-city frequency which carries car communications, such as surveillance. The third channel is termed the mutual aid channel and enables communications with other stations via radio and telephone patch. Using the radio or telephone patch a car on a different frequency, say one on the old low band and one on the new high frequency can be "patched" through the master console. Also an officer in the car can receive "necessary" telephone calls through use of the "patch". There are 17 new mobile units which are now being installed in all the city and county vehicles.

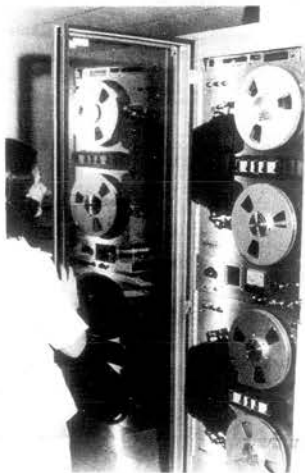

The other frequencies are a repeater channel used to boost the range of the 11 walkie talkies, three by the county and four each for the two major cities, and for the ambulance service plus the old 37.26 frequency. Citizens are also cautioned about the language they use when calling the Justice Center. There is a large recorder system being installed which automatically tapes all transmissions flowing through the communications console and also all incoming and outgoing telephone calls.

The master console has a "status board" operated manually by the dispatcher which indicates which cars are on duty and whether they are in or out of service or off duty.

In the offices of each of the police chiefs, the sheriff, the jailers office and the ambulance office and department head office are telephone-type radio phones which give the offices direct communications with their vehicles in the field.

Allen Brezeale of Lenoir City, for years one of the areas best radio technicians, has, with direction of RCA technicians, installed all the mobile units and set up the consoles. Brezeale will also be responsible for maintaining the complex system.

Chief Communications Department Dispatcher Casey Lenex said that all the dispatchers will be given thorough training in the use and versatility of the system.

She said if a communications system can improve effective law enforcement, Loudon County has the system that should do it.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY BY M. LEE SMITH

(c) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

If you are an architect and want a contract for a state construction project, in order to improve your chances of getting a job, you can:

- Contribute heavily to a winning gubernatorial candidate or political party; or
- If you cannot pick the winner, contribute heavily to both major candidates or parties; or —cultivate contacts with persons in key positions in the various departments of state government.

No architectural contract can be awarded without the approval of the State Building Commission (SBC) which acts on several million dollars worth of such state business each year.

While architectural firms are designated as qualified by the State Architect before contracts are approved by the SBC, many Tennessee firms which are qualified rarely, if ever, receive state jobs. It is generally accepted in state government and architectural circles that being qualified is not always enough to be selected.

The system of architect selection reached a low point during the first two years of the Dunn administration. From all evidence the causes of this were partisan struggles between the Republican administration and the Democratic controlled SBC.

These problems were augmented by the antics of then Speaker of the House James McKinney. Three architectural firms alleged they were kept from receiving state business at that time because of political differences with McKinney. These architects state they were given indications such problems could be solved by contributions to McKinney's campaign or other consideration.

When Ned R. McWhorter replaced McKinney in 1972 as Speaker and member of the commission, the situation improved somewhat. Architect selection was expedited by a system which, if not more commendable, was at least more orderly and less prone to blatant abuse.

This system essentially involved a resolution of differences before SBC meetings between Republican Commissioner of Finance and Administration Ted Welch and Harlan Mathes representing the Comptroller and Democratic Party interests.

Normally, the commission approved any architect agreed upon by Welch and Mathes. The agreements were no more or less than a continuing series of political trade-offs. Democrat, Republican, and mutually acceptable architects shared state business.

Under the new Democratic administration this system of working out differences before meetings is still in effect. It has produced some improvement in state architect selection, at least in terms of the number of firms getting state jobs and of the selection of firms located near a project site.

But the problem of state architectural contracts being awarded predominantly to those architects who contribute heavily to political campaigns continues. For example, last year Knoxville architect Joe Goodstein contributed $2,500 to Governor Henry Blanton's campaign.

Goodstein also made a contribution to Blanton's opponent Lamar Alexander. Last Friday Goodstein's firm was awarded a contract to prepare a new armory in Maryville.

Campaign finance disclosure records indicate that different members of architectural firms made contributions to both parties in a number of cases. An extraordinarily high percentage of architects made substantial political contributions.

Despite the current situation few architects admit problems exist. Fewer still want the situation changed. Those who do are generally those who have been professionally or monetarily hurt by it.

The State Building Commission should establish a better system. The City of Memphis, for example, uses all qualified and interested architects on a rotation basis with a professional city of official determining qualifications. The Memphis system works well. As one architect said, "I could give all the money I wanted to Wyeth Chandler's mayoral campaign and I wouldn't get any additional architectural business."

That is as it should be. (c) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

Only Two Jury Trails Held In Circuit Court

Circuit Court Judge Willard Kittrell will hear about a dozen non jury cases Friday to close the current session of Circuit Court. Court Clerk Billy Joe Akins said the present session has had only two cases tried by juries with most cases being settled out of court or continued until later terms.

A jury awarded a total of $8,900 in medical payments and damages to Mark Lewis Robinson and Thomas Michael Robinson in suits brought by their father, D.L. Robinson against Nancy L. and Harold McNabb. The suit resulted from a motorcycle and car accident.

A jury dismissed a truck-auto accident case after finding both the complainant and defendants were at fault. The suit was brought by Robert Jace Lenex and Lorene Elizabeth Lenex against Freddie G. McCrary and the City of Loudon.

Cases set for trial during the week that were settled were

Earl T. McLemore and wife vs Interstate Contract Carrier Corp. and Robert H. Bryson auto accident; Judith Lee and Charles J. Lee and James E. Johnson vs. James E. Johnson auto accident; Daniel M. Harris and Robbie A. Harris vs. Mid-South Division of Vulcan Materials Company, explosion; Fred Allen Jr. vs Charlie Mix and Dutton Trucking Company, Inc., truck-auto accident. Cases continued are June Martin and Arnold Martin vs Robert H. Nelson, auto-accident; two cases involving Minnie T. Sharp and C.F. Sharp separately vs H.R. Food Distributors, Inc., U.S. Chemical Corporation of Wisconsin, Inc., and Hobart Corporation, product liability. A nonjury case where former Deputy Kenneth Brown was seeking a writ of certiorari against the Loudon County Merit System Board, Curtis Williams, J.J. Blair and Reeves Paul Hamilton. Cases set for trial during the week that were settled were

Last year we brought you $302,670,000 worth of carpeting. You've got a lot riding on us.

We shipped a lot of carpeting in 1974. We estimate that the manufacturers' value for the carpeting shipped amounted to $302,670,000.

Economy is the biggest reason carpeting companies and so many others choose rail. Consider these figures for the thousands of things shipped by rail each year. The average cost per-ton-mile by truck is three times as much as by rail. Air shipping is forty times the price.

And the fuel crunch has made railroad efficiency more than just a matter of dollars and cents. It's a matter of delivering the goods with the smallest possible use of fuel.

When you put all this together with the reliability of rail shipping you have a good idea why there's so much riding on us. And why you need Southern.

So next time you step on the deep pile of your living room carpet, remember it probably came to you on the floor of a boxcar.

McMinn, Oak Ridge Test 'Skins

Loudon Football Coaches Pleased With Opening Week Of Grid Practice

The Loudon Redskins journeyed to the McMinn County Landfill Recreation Park Friday morning for a three way football scrimmage with the McMinn Cherokee and the Oak Ridge Wildcats. Both scrimmage foes are preseason picks to be two of East Tennessee's better "AAA" teams.

The two-and-one-half hour workout saw Loudon prevail over the Cherokees by a 3-2 count and settle for a scoreless deadlock against the Wildcats.

The live scrimmage, minus punts, kick-offs, and enforced penalties, came after just four working days of fall practice and left a lot to be desired before the Redskins will raise the curtain on their regular season, September 5.

Loudon head coach Bert Rattledge used a bevy of backs in rolling up an unofficial 251 yards of offense and three touchdowns. McMinn and Oak Ridge shared in 272 yards of unofficial total offense against the Redskins defense.

"I am pleased with the showing we made in the preseason game," commented Coach Rattledge as he strolled to the bus for a return trip to Loudon. "We did better than I was expecting. We did not do any special stuff. The main reason for coming was just to get the opportunity of blocking and tackling somebody other than ourselves. Both teams McMinn and (OR) played aggressively and that's good for our inexperienced players. We have plenty to keep us busy in the next few weeks of practice."

Coach Jim Gibson, who handles much of the defense and line duties was satisfied with his forces. "We are going to be inexperienced even though we still have some size left from last season. We are missing two linemen that are expected to play a lot. Steve Lyle, 220 pound junior, and Gary Brown, 250 pound sophomore, are not on the sidelines with injuries and won't be ready for a week or two. Our hitting was good, we just have to work on learning the assignments and performing them with consistency. Neither the offense or defensive crews were without mistakes. I'll make an effort for the first week and give them all credit for a team job."

The Redskins opened the season with the ball at their own 30 and McMinn County on offense. Carter Cardwell and Greg Deatridge shared quarterback duties with five defensive backs splitting one another for ball tending chores.

The day's activities saw: Carter Cardwell keep the ball on five downs for 13 yards. Greg Deatridge legged the pigskin 65 yards on five tries, and a touchdown.

Marlon Brown powered his way for 26 yards on five carries.

Rick Melton darted for 47 yards on six opportunities and a touchdown.

Dickie Colvin lumbered for 31 yards on six offensive attempts.

Porty Campbell added 17 yards on four carries.

Freddie Starrtt tackled on a 30 yard touchdown and 53 yards for the day in four carries by the offense.

Loudon did not complete a pass, as neither quarterback look very sharp in preparing to pass. Also the offensive line gave little protection for signaling out secondary receivers.

side steps and cuts of smoke from a camp fire disappearing into the wind.

Carter Cardwell executed the option well and is not afraid to lower his head and pick up the extra yard.

Loudon's offensive line needs more work as "team blocking and execution" which is to be expected.

The defense had its vulnerable moments up the middle, a place not expected to be weak at all this season.

The Redskins pass defense was spotty with some stand-out picks being dished out. The defensive unit as a team would have to be graded high for the day, big "head-hunter" steps by Nam Theapp, Marlon Brown, Tim Murrell, Jeff Nicholas, Junior, Rolan Bumper Webster, David Black, Mark Moore, and Steve Hill gave the Loudon coaches pleasant thoughts toward the season actual start.

McMinn County picked off a Cardwell pass at the 40 and were across the double stripe in seven plays. The Cherokee claimed a Rick Melton fumble at the 39 and in six plays had a 2-0 TD advantage.

Deatridge's touchdown seemed to change the Loudon form of play and the scrimmage tempo. Marlon Brown came up with a fumble recovery. Brown and Freddie Starrtt teamed to seal the ball away once more on defense.

The Redskins defense allowed the Cherokees only one brief moment across the 50 and that on a pass, for the remainder of the scrimmage. The pass maneuver, off a well executed route and plenty of protection, ended up in a short yardage. Loudon was denied a TD on the Wildcats as a fourth down pass from the 25 was knocked down before reaching the hands of an open Tim Kiser.

Loudon's last score came on an 80 yard march against the McMinn County defense. Campbell and Freddie Starrtt were the offensive wheels of the scoring effort.

Although not publicized the morning scrimmage drew a shirt sleeve crowd of McMinn, Loudon and OR fans and parents. The University of Tennessee, East Tennessee State and Tennessee Tech College coaches paced the sidelines with note books in hand.

The Redskins used approximately 31 of its 55 players on the fall roster in the workout.

leather popping collision with defensive back David Black. The sophomore stinker caused a fumble and Mike Lambert was on the ball instantly.

A break in the action, with McMinn and Oak Ridge testing each other, set the stage for Loudon and the Wildcats to tangle. Loudon found difficulty in defending a halfback pass, having not worked on the play before Friday.

An alert Rick Melton halted the Wildcats after one first down as he came up with the ball after making a run down tackle at mid-field.

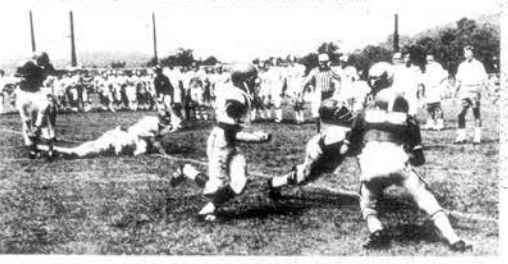

The next Wildcat drive had to be over hauled at the Loudon 30 with Marlon Brown taking the lead in throwing the Oak Ridge ball carrier for a loss on fourth down and very MELTON PREPARES FOR PITCH—Loudon senior running back Rick Melton awaits a pitch from Greg Deatridge as he picks up speed for a touchdown off the blocking of Marlon Brown, John Sweet and Kerry Starrtt ahead of the play.

TOUCHDOWN BOUND—Greg Deatridge brought the observers to their feet Friday morning as he scampers off on a 62 yard touchdown romp against McMinn County. Directly behind him is Loudon lineman Junior Holand.

TAMES WILDCATS—Loudon's Marlon Brown knifes through the Oak Ridge blocking ranks to pull a Wildcat ball carrier for a five yard loss and the halt of a potential scoring drive in Loudon's three way football scrimmage with McMinn County and OR Friday morning.

BACK IN THE ## GOOD OLD DAYS

One of our pictures we are using this week is one we have had for quite a long time. It had gotten misplaced in our files and we had overlooked it for some time. We always try to use pictures that people send us. We can't always project the value of them because we don't always know the people or facts behind the picture. Anyway, as a courtesy to a Mrs. Selvidge, who lives in Georgia, and was a Loudon native, sent this picture of her son and a couple of his prized dogs. We have had some pictures sent to us and we are trying to work them in when

Baker Speaks To Local Leaders At Luncheon

Tennessee's senior United States Senator, Howard H. Baker Jr., spoke before some 75 Loudon Countyans Monday at a noon luncheon at the Twin Lanterns Restaurant. Baker said he had the county Republican leadership to call the luncheon to give him an opportunity "to get the feeling of the people here at home." The Senate and House of Representatives are both in summer recess giving the lawmakers a chance to "touch home base," as Baker put it. Senator Baker spoke briefly about the current CIA investigation, foreign relations, TVA, general revenue sharing and nuclear energy.

He is a member of the Senate committee on Foreign Relations, Public Works and the special committee investigating charges of misuse of powers by the Central Intelligence Agency.

possible. We are always grateful for those who think of the Good Old Days when they come across pictures in their collection and send them to us for the Good Old Days.

Our other picture has a lot of meaning to me. It is a picture of my grandmother, who was well known in Loudon. She has been deceased for many years. Her home for many years was located on Cedar Street, next door to the late Noah Purdy, Sr. home. We are sure many of our readers will remember her. She was Liza Jacobs and the baby in her arms is one of her grandchildren.

This lady meant a lot to me when I was growing up as she did to many of the boys and girls of this section of our town. With the talk about gasoline shortages and the turn to small cars, our thoughts go back some number of years to the time we recall when the trend was in part toward small cars (which didn't last too long). There was the Beacon, the Continental, the Austin and some others which were not the shortage of gas, but the shortage of money. This was during the depression years and the highways were almost empty of automobiles.

In thinking about cars out of the past, I guess one of the most unusual cars to come along in those years was the Rockney, which we believe was built by Studebaker. Anyway, there was one in Loudon which I believe was the only one near here. It was owned by Clifford Hughes and I am sure Cliff will vouch for the fact that it was a tough car. It really put it through the mill and it seemed to hold up real well. Cliff might have a picture of this old car that he would loan us so our readers could see what it looked like. Maybe some of our readers have other pictures of small cars of yesteryear. If so, we would be glad to use them in the Good Old Days effort.

We have a picture we are going to use next week which will bring back memories to many of those from the Good Old Days. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Concerning the CIA Baker said the agency and its lawful function of intelligence gathering must be maintained and must come out of the hearings and reports that follow. Sound and with credibility. He said if the CIA has acted outside its lawful powers corrections must be made, but this country must maintain a strong intelligence position in the world.

The Senator feels that the Mid-East situation can be resolved through diplomatic channels and the United States needs to maintain good relations with all the countries involved. The Mid-East, he says, is vital to the future relations of the U. S. and U.S.R.

In questioning later Senator Baker said that the United States should do whatever it can to maintain its military and intelligence bases in Turkey, that they possibly are the most strategic facilities this country has in the world. "The Tennessee Valley Authority is and always will be a good asset to the nation and this region," Baker stated. He said that TVA is now under more public pressure than ever before, and more questions about its powers and responsibilities are being asked. He said answers to these questions will come and he will continue to support the basic concept of the agency and work to maintain it because it is and has been good for this region. Baker said he is confident that Federal Revenue Sharing, scheduled to end later this year, will be continued. He said there are many people in Washington who oppose it, but he feels that a majority think as he does, and it will be extended for several more years.

The Senator said that a tax sharing program was the first piece of legislation he introduced when he went to Washington in 1967 and the present Revenue Sharing is the concept he had in mind at that time. He stated that Revenue Sharing has in many cases kept local governments from suffering bankruptcy and allowed them to offer services to their citizens that would have never been available without revenue sharing.

"Oak Ridge and the East Tennessee area around it are the historical birthplace of the atomic and nuclear energy movement in this nation. With the development that has taken place since World War II and the plans now for the Fast Liquid Breeder this area will be the place all the world will come and see," the senator said.

Baker stated that the Breeder Reactor is absolutely essential to the nation in its quest to become self sufficient in providing energy for itself and he believes it will be a reality despite considerable opposition that has developed.

Red Cross Sets Annual Meeting

Rezoning

Way F...

Following a brief hearing Loudon City Monday night rezoned a section of property on Mulberry Street in West from Professional to commercial. It is under a Conventional Food operators of 48 food plans to build a grocery on the location.

Lloyd Kirkland, owner of the property, said an adjoining piece of property was concerned adequate parking on the rezoned property was obtained by the firm to adequate parking at the location.

He was also promised representative of the firm the company would participate in the costs of the sidewalk in front of Kirkland property to prohibit parking in front of property.

City Manager Gary E. reported that the engineering reports on the proposed industrial park development Blair Bend were completed, but he promised they would be for an adjourned meeting council on Monday, 25 at 7:30 p.m.

Hensley also reported city attorney Arthur was still gathering information and changes in zoning agreements with a firm was attempting to bring television to Loudon.

A first reading of a small section of property along Robertson Drive was approved. annexation includes a which has been purchased by City Commissioner Thomas Hays.

Commissioner Reverses Action . . .

. . . State To Help With Priorities

State Gives Back School Funds

On page 9 of this issue of THE HERALD are a series of articles dealing with meetings held during the past week concerning the action taken by State Commissioner of Education Sam Ingram in cutting off state funds to Loudon County Schools because state demands that a list of deficiencies in the schools had not been removed or action taken to satisfy the Commissioner that progress was being made on the problem. The articles were written before the Commissioner met with local officials and granted more time to meet state demands and before he withdrew his earlier action to withhold the state funds. The articles are being published as written because they deal with the problem as it existed at that time and reflect mood of the school board, county officials and the teachers at the time of the meetings.

A meeting between Loudon County officials and State Commissioner of Education Sam Ingram in Nashville Monday afternoon resulted in the Commissioner withdrawing his action of last week in withholding state funds to the Loudon County school system.

County Judge William Russell, School Superintendent Edward Headlee, School Board Chairman Ted Wampler and board members J. B. Hagler and Leonard Liles were present at the meeting.

It is understood that when the meeting began in the Commissioner's office that the letter that the county had been told was coming concerning the funds cut because of a lack of action on correcting deficiencies in school facilities was still on Ingram's desk.

Dr. Ingram said he had approved the schools last spring based on what the court had asked the school board to work up a priority schedule for the program, but in the meantime the court had approved $100,000 in emergency funding to help correct as many conditions as possible. At this point the commissioner asked if the Judge were suggesting that the state should give more time to develop a plan from the survey recommendations. Judge Russell said the court was reluctant to approve funding in such large amounts without priorities and having some realistic and factual cost estimates from the school board on the total program.

Ingram, apparently being very frank and candid throughout the meeting, said "you seem to think I am making you move too quickly." There were nods of agreement from the Loudon County officials. "But you feel you are progressing as rapidly as possible," Ingram added. The response was the county was doing the best it could.

Dr. Ingram said his staff felt the county was dragging its feet, but he and the staff might not be aware of all local conditions, but personally felt he could give the county another month he could be assured the state would put the school board in the position of taking an action which would run best interest of the student."

Dr. Ingram stated, "but the Commissioner said he would not send the letter which had resulted in the county not receiving its first payment of state education funds last week, but would give the county a reasonable amount of time to develop and start work on an improvement program."

Upon returning to Loudon County, Commissioner Ingram to an exceptionally nice person, and he is most grateful that the Commissioner has extended full cooperation in trying to assist the county in solving the educational problems and has made it possible for the schools to begin without the threat of interruption due to a lack of funds.

"I feel now that it is generally understood by all representatives of the county what steps the county must take in order for the building program to be put into acceptable form," Headlee said.

Headlee said he hopes to call a Board meeting sometime next week to allow the board to sit down with the assistance of representatives of the Commissioner and start developing a list of priorities from the deficiency list and prepare a program for the court. The Superintendent said he hopes that an initial priority list can be ready for the court, along with the long range plan, at its Sept. 2 meeting. He said he hoped there will be an architect to work up cost estimates on each step of the program.

Canine Postman, Ringo, Dies On Job

The most faithful member of the Loudon Post Office "staff" died Tuesday as he reported for work at the backdoor of the post office. Ringo faithfully reported to work daily for 15 years. He died on the Post Office's back entrance last Tuesday.

Many people on the mail routes knew Ringo as well as they did the postman himself and the dog got just as many Christmas cookie treats as the carrier.

Several years ago the post office obtained motor vehicles for the city routes. For a while Ringo was puzzled and wandered around the city route trying to figure out why the postman wasn't where he was supposed to be, but later he just "got in gear" and despite getting old managed to keep up with the post office vehicles in the city areas.

The staff at the Post Office was just as saddened by Ringo's death as they would one of the regular employees. Ringo was given a burial in a pine grove off Vonore Road the afternoon of his death.

Rezoning Clears Way For Store

Following a brief public hearing Loudon City Council Monday night rezoned a section of property on Mulberry Street in West End from Professional to Commercial. It is understood that Convenient Food Mart, operators of 459 food stores plans to build a grocery store on the location.

Lloyd Kirkland, owner of an adjoining piece of property was concerned about adequate parking on the site. It was explained that additional property was being obtained by the firm to provide adequate parking at the store. He was also promised by a representative of the firm that the company would participate in the costs of raising the sidewalk in front of the Kirkland property to help prohibit parking in front of his property.

City Manager Gary Henley reported that the engineering reports on the proposed industrial park development at Blair Bend were not yet completed. He promised they would be ready for an adjourned meeting of the council on Monday, August 25 at 7:30 p.m.

Henley also reported that city attorney Arthur Fowler was still gathering information and making changes in technical agreements with a firm that was attempting to bring cable television to Loudon.

A first reading on an annexation of a small section of property along Hobbs Drive was approved. The annexation includes a house which has been purchased by City Councilman Cotton Thomas. Thomas reported at the meeting.

Child Bitten, Cat Sought

Loudon County Health Department officials have asked for help from residents of the Robertson Springs Road area of Loudon in locating a large grey cat that bit Missy Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes, late Monday afternoon.

The child is currently confined to Loudon County Memorial Hospital and may face the painful anti-rabies shots unless the cat can be found and observed to determine if it was rabid. Anyone who may be able to help locate the animal should contact Bob Proops at the Loudon County Health Department.

New Tractor Stolen Here

A $9,000 1975 Ford 4000 Diesel tractor was stolen over the past weekend from the sales lot of Ford Loudon Ford Tractor Company on U.S. 11 in West End Loudon.

It is believed the tractor was loaded onto a truck for transport from the scene.

LOUDON COUNTY TEACHERS listen to a Tennessee Education Association official at their initial meeting of the 1975-76 school year Monday at Loudon High School. The teachers spent most of the time discussing whether or not to report to work because of action by the Commissioner of Education withholding state funds to local schools. Later in the day a meeting of local leaders in Nashville with the Commissioner resulted in funds being restored.

Richard Massey Shot By Ex-Wife

The ex-wife of a Loudon man, Richard Massey, was charged with felonious assault by county officers Sunday morning after she allegedly shot him on the front porch of the victim's grandmother's home on Main Street in Loudon.

Wanda Massey was later released under $2,000 bond and her ex-husband underwent surgery at Park West Hospital in Knoxville for a 22-caliber wound in the lower stomach. Deputy Larry Proops said he did not have the keys to his ex-wife's car. She said he hit her and then she shot him.

When Proops arrived at the home he said Massey was lying on the porch. Massey was taken to Park West and Mrs. Massey was taken to the Justice Center. She later took a peace warrant for Richard's brother, Bobby, stating he had threatened her. He was arrested at the Leo Massey residence later Sunday morning.

Shortly after 6 a.m. Sunday the Loudon Fire Department was called to the shooting scene to extinguish a fire that damaged the car of Wanda Massey. No cause of the fire was determined.

Relatives said later Sunday that Richard underwent successful surgery, but may have suffered permanent damage that may leave him crippled. It was said it would be several days before the extent of the damage would be known.

AT SHOOTING SCENE—Loudon County Deputy Larry Proops and juvenile officer Joe Sims (right) talk with Bobby Massey about the shooting of his brother, Richard, that occurred on the porch they are standing on early Sunday. The victim's ex-wife, Wanda Massey has been charged.

Bob Carter Resigns From School Board

Robert M. (Bob) Carter, one of three new members of the Loudon County Board of Education, has resigned after serving six weeks on the board. Carter said his decision came after long discussions with the County Purchasing Agent, Arnold Jenkins, that since Carter was serving on the school board, making his firm ineligible to sell building materials to the county, was costing the county much inconvenience and much money by having to purchase materials outside the county.

Carter in a partner with his father in Carter Lumber and Builders Supply at Loudon.

Mr. Carter in his letter said since it was not proper for his firm to continue to receive county business, he would resign because he wanted to maintain the business relationship with the county, and felt it unfair for his position on the board to cost the county more money by forcing the county to purchase materials out of the county.

Carter stated that he had really wanted to serve on the school board, but had not figured out the causes of his hardship on the purchasing system of the county or that he would lose county business other than the school departments.

It is expected that the County Court will elect Carter's replacement at its September 2 meeting.

School Bus Owners Seek Escalator Pay

Two members of the County School Board, Leonard Liles and Jim Cardwell, were appointed by chairman Ted Wampler to meet with school bus owners to work out an agreement on gas mileage payments in accordance to an escalator clause in bus owners contracts.

But owner W.B. Costner of Loudoun, acting as spokesman for the group, said that the county did not pay the bus operators for the increased gasoline prices during the past school year that saw gas go up a total of nine cents from August to May.

School Board Vice Chairman J.B. Hagler told the bus drivers he realized the board hadn't acted on the escalator because the school survey taken in the spring pointed out that the county was paying about 30 percent more per child than any other system in the state for transportation. He said that the board is bound by the escalator clause and will have to pay according to the contract.

Chairman Wampler asked why the bus owners had not been to the board with the problem earlier and suggested they maintain a line of communications through a committee of two board members and two bus owners. The group is now to work out some arrangement of keeping up with the escalator clause on gas prices during the coming year.

Some mention was made about the coming survey by the state department of education of the county school bus routes. Costner mentioned he had read where the board was unhappy about paying the bus drivers for mileage from home to where they made their first pickup. He said it was unfair for the bus drivers to bear the expenses of operating the bus empty if he had to drive 10 to 15 miles to the start of his route.

A new reduced rate has been added to the school lunch program. In the past students have either paid full price for their lunch or received free lunches depending on their family income position.

School Lunch Supervisor Ruth Tideman said that the state is leaning toward a new step allowing certain income groups to make a partial payment for school lunch. The difference in the partial payment and full payment is then made up by the state depending on the amount of the partial payment.

With an income of $4,206 is eligible for free lunch. Under the new program a family of four with income between the minimum and up to $8,720 can receive school lunch for a reduced price. The price would either be 10 cents or 20 cents per lunch. The state would then pay 44 cents or 33 cents depending on which rate was adopted.

The board adopted the new reduced rate which will go into effect this week when the school cafeteria opens. A schedule of the rates is published elsewhere.

Several teaching transfers and the hiring of a number of new teachers was approved by the board. They are Jean Broda, Davis, a transfer from Title I at Eaton; Phillip Bettis, Loudoun Junior High, transfer from Loudoun High; Rufus Watson, Loudoun Junior High eighth grade; Nancy Headless, Eaton, second grade; Sara H. Ford, Loudoun Elementary kindergarten; James D. Hamilton, Loudoun High, science; James Burgess, Highland Park, 6, 7, 8 science; Shirley Kane, Steeles, Title I; Dava Raulston, Loudoun Elementary, Title I; Sondra Davis, Title I; Burkett Williams, Loudoun High, transfer from Eaton; Dennis Astor, county wide speech therapist.

Leaves of absence for Ed Waller, Loudoun Junior High for one year; and Mary Nelle Cloetz, Eaton Elementary for one half year, were approved by the board.

Several minor amendments were approved to policy documents governing custodians and cafeteria employees.

Upon receiving a letter from the Greenback City Recreation Department offering to furnish all equipment necessary for a high school baseball program at Greenback the board approved the program for 1976.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY BY M. LEE SMITH

(c) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

Last week Gov. Ray Blanton said he would "absolutely ignore" a law enacted this year by the General Assembly over his gubernatorial veto. Predictably that brought an angry response from members of the General Assembly. Not one member of the legislature defended the Governor's decision to ignore a duly enacted state statute.

The law in question is an amendment to the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act. It requires executive departments of state government to obtain approval of new rules and regulations from legislative committees before they are put into effect.

When the General Assembly enacts a law, it is customary to give the executive department which will administer it the authority to issue rules and regulations. Many legislators believe executive branch departments have distorted or gone beyond the authority of the General Assembly in issuing regulations in the enforcement of laws. This feeling led to the requirement that rules and regulations be submitted to legislative committees.

Blanton vetoed the act when passed earlier this year, taking the view the General Assembly was intruding on the authority of the executive branch of state government. The legislature promptly overrode the veto.

The governor said last week the law was in violation of the separation of powers concept and in violation of the state constitution. For this reason he said he would ignore the law. The governor is probably right when he says requiring executive departments to submit rules and regulations to legislative committees for approval is an unwarranted intrusion into the administrative branch of state government. At the very least, this process will substantially impede the orderly and efficient enforcement of laws by executive departments.

But there are several problems with the chief executive of the state saying he will "absolutely ignore" a law with which he disagrees even when, as here, there is legitimate basis for that disagreement.

The governor does nothing to enhance respect for our system of law when he ignores a law with which he disagrees. The chief executive is sworn to uphold all laws, including those with which he disagrees.

It is an elementary principle that all laws of the state are held otherwise by a court. Gov. Blanton believes a law to be unconstitutional, there are procedures by which that law may be judicially tested.

The governor's statement also is difficult to understand from a political standpoint. Earlier this year Blanton waged numerous battles with

A New Cracker Barrel Old Country Store Opens at Sweetwater.

Hello Folks:

We've just opened our newest "Cracker Barrel Old Country Store" and it's located just off 175 at State Highway 68 interchange, the Sweetwater exit.

Guess it sounds a little funny, a "new" old country store. Well, we call it an old country store, but we sure don't have in mind trying to fool anybody—especially a lot of you folks who remember what the real old country store was like. Truth of the matter is, a number of us who started this little business remember some of what it was like—the real old country store. And seeing as how it just brings back pleasant and warm memories of the past, we just plain old miss it. We felt that the slower times of the past didn't do so bad by us and our folks and surely couldn't hurt the young ones coming along to kind of brush up against it a little.

Anyhow, we've built it to resemble an old store (David Hall saw to that), and we put a restaurant in it that serves what a lot of us used to eat everyday—beans, greens, cornbread, and the likes. We serve gravy at breakfast time and make our own biscuits right from scratch.

We've decorated the store with a lot of the old artifacts of the past—from the real old stores—advertising signs, pictures and the like and some old railroad related items most of you folks would remember. We have some antiques for sale and our shop offers gifts that are mostly reproductions of the things that our grandfolds used.

We've done the best we could by the things we remember, modernized some by our government health regulations.

We'd appreciate your paying us a visit when you get time. We'll feed you—nothing fancy—and we'll wait on you—as best we can—or you can just browse around or sit by the fire—it's a real one.

Anyhow—if you enjoy your visit at our "New" Cracker Barrel Old Country Store as much as we enjoyed setting it up—then, we think you're in for a treat.

Sincerely,
Ray Blanton

Brown Scores Twice In Loudon Mediocre Scrimmage Performance

The Loudon Redskin football coaches sort of vented their frustration for another football scrimmage last week when they entertained Knoxville Holston and Knoxville Farragut in a three day workout at old Loudon High School on Thursday afternoon.

The afternoon of combat was the second such scrimmage for the Redskins in five days and all have been opposite "AAA" (as expected to be high in the East Tennessee prep rankings come fall).

Loudon battled to a 2-2 tie with Holston and edged Farragut 14 before working on several offensive and defensive situations from inside the 20 with the Admirals.

Loudon coaches (Bert Ratledge, Jim Gibson, and Gordo Watson) expressed the fact that the Redskins possibly did not play as keen as they did on an overall basis in their first fall testing at McMinn County Friday a week ago.

"The worst thing to happen is for us to peak too early with a cluster of scrimmages," remarked Coach Ratledge. "But our line needs to block and tackle somebody other than themselves in gaining the needed experience for fall. We used more players this time with everyone seeing some playing time. We saw some good things and there was some definite lacking in a few phases of our play that hopefully will come around by September," continued Ratledge in answer to various questions concerning the scrimmage.

Loudon is not expected to scrimmage again before experiencing the real thing on September 5 at Knoxville Powell. "One more final touch (another scrimmage) would not hurt toward the last of August since we don't have a game on the 29th," admitted Ratledge. "I don't have anybody in mind though as of now."

The Redskins still alternated quarterbacks for the scrimmage and had seven backs to share in 274 yards of rushing offense for the actual battle portions of the scrimmage.

With the stable of Loudon running backs presently the least of the Red Men still have little if any effective passing game. It is difficult to evaluate prospective receivers if the ball is not getting to them.

The line is making an uphill climb to improve on timing, technique, and fundamental skills on both offense and defense. Steve Lyle has joined the team after a week of being sidelined with an injury. Big Gary Brown is still a week away at the best from making his fall appearance. Meanwhile Jeff Nichols, Brian Curtis, Junior Rowland, Sam Thearp, Steve Hill, and Zack Spoon are anchoring the serious work in the trenches.

The Loudon defense is not ready to be unveiled for actual duty. At least at this time Coach Jim Gibson's crew are not the head hunters they were when comparing the present job showing with that of last year's state championship unit. Loudon tested its kicking game Thursday with Freddie Starritt and Mike Brookshire grunting about even in the punting job left vacant by the graduation of "punter extraordinaire" Sam Lyle. "These boys don't have Sam's (Lyle) size and leg strength at their present age but they should be adequate as they get more practice and experience," assured Ratledge. Marlon Brown has stepped into the field goal and kickoff job left open by the graduation of Kenny Skinner and Donnie Thearp respectively.

Loudon and Holston met first Thursday with Loudon setting up shop on their own 30. Three plays gained three yards and Freddie Starritt made his punting debut under fire for 18 yards.

Holston engineered a nine play drive to pay dirt on their first offensive possession. Jim Brown and Steve Harrison had bright moments for the defense. A 22 yard pass completion was the big play of the drive.

Loudon jumped back into the swing of things as Deathridge and Cardwell piloted the Redskins on a 13 play touchdown drive. Marlon Brown powered his way across the double stripe from the one yard line.

Greg Deathridge, Dickie Colvin, Carter Cardwell, Marlon Brown, Rick Melton, and Freddie Starritt danced in and out of the Loudon backfield in producing the real estate.

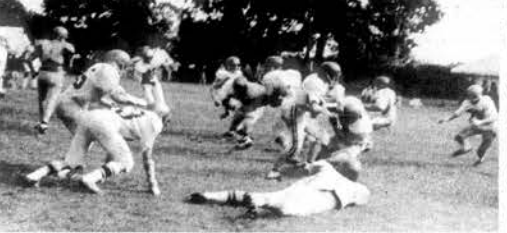

Holston scored its second TD on a 36 yard screen pass while Loudon countered on a 40 yard run run by Greg Deathridge.

Knoxville Farragut stepped into the battle with a mid-field offense against the Loudon defense and kept the ball for 12 plays before the Loudon defense balked at the two yard line for three straight plays. Tim Murrell and Jim Brown guarded the franks with sweeping killing tackles to prevent touchdowns.

Loudon powered its way out of a hole as Colvin got loose for 31 yards. The Redskins were finally halted on downs at the Admiral 21.

Farragut was forced into a punting situation as Loudon's defense was unyielding at every possible avenue. A rested Holston offense returned to the field at the 30 yard line and drove to the Loudon 25 before giving the ball away on downs. David Black shored up the Loudon defense as the Warriors hit on runs of 16 and 21 yards before the Redskins made adjustments.

Loudon crossed the mid field line and down to the Holston 35 as Carter Cardwell rambled for a 18 yard gain.

Loudon and Farragut concluded the scrimmage with Loudon moving 60 yards for the only score. Marlon Brown high stepped his way into the end zone from the seven yard line. Mark Moore, sophomore, was instrumental in the Loudon drive. The hard playing Moore expected to be limited to defense mostly this fall, has stepped into the offensive picture as well since Loudon lost senior running back Porky Campbell for at least six to eight weeks with a knee injury. The mishap occurred in Loudon's first of the week practice session.

Jack Hodge Sets Tempo In Golf Tourney

The Loudon City Golf League 18-hole Individual Tournament is at its half way point with Jack Hodge, Ted Lomax and Coye Blankenship leading their respective flights.

Jack Hodge had a first round 35 to take a one stroke lead over six first flight contenders that carded 36's. Four finished the first round with 37's in the first flight and thus leaves the upper division scramble for the title very much up for grabs.

Ted Lomax shot a net low 32 to set the first week's tempo in the second flight by three strokes over Harrison Henry, who has a 35. Tom Lambert (36) and Gerald Cole (37) are still hoping for a better second round in challenging Lomax for the lead.

Coye Blankenship's 36 has him out front of the field in the third flight by three strokes. Jack Kincaid is second with a 39 and Ed Swenson and Don Kincaid each hold 41's for the first week of nine hole play.

The second round will be played at Madisonville this week with the tournament winners, league awards and individual trophies being recognized at an annual City Golf cookout on August 28 at the Lions Club Park.

Ferguson And McNabb Win City Golf Championship

Jack Ferguson and Glen McNabb, who dominated golf play in the National Division of the Loudon City Golf League for the most part of the summer, captured the overall City Golf Championship Saturday.

Ferguson and McNabb had 381 team points to win their division over runner-up Larry Lane and Tom Lambert with 338 team credits.

On Saturday the National Division winners met Monty Lawson and Gordo Watson, winners of the Loudon City Golf League's American Division with 328 team points, in a league championship 18-hole match.

Ferguson and McNabb won the league championship by a playoff score of 51-29.

Larry and Lynn Millsaps were the defending league champs, having won the title for two consecutive summers. They did not participate in the league this summer. Individual net scores for the championship round were:

Jack Ferguson	38-38	77
Glen McNabb	38-40	78
Gordo Watson	41-40	81
Monty Lawson	40-43	83

Ferguson and McNabb will be presented the City League Team Championship Trophy at a league cookout on August 28 at the Lions Club Park.

LC Defense Sparkles As Panthers Rough-Up Eagles

TRIES TO TURN CORNER—Lenoir City sophomore Jackie Ryan tries to make it to the corner on this run as the Panthers bottled Knoxville Gibbs in a scrimmage game.

The Lenoir City Panthers got a hearty stamp of approval from head football coach Henry Blackburn last Thursday evening as the Panthers "man handled" Knoxville Gibbs 3-1.

The Panthers and Eagles used a 10 down offensive series with no penalties being enforced.

Lenoir City opened the humid afternoon with a popping defensive effort and closed with an equal enthusiastic tackling assault.

"This is the hardest I've seen us hit since 1972," admitted a pleased Coach Blackburn. "These boys are working."

The Panthers broke the ice early with Walt Thaxton sliding to the outside for a 60 yard punt and touchdown.

Gibbs' plugged right back to the Lenoir City 25, but the defensive sticking of linebackers Steve Porter and Danny Hall expired the Eagles of offensive down.

The Panthers took the ball back to the Gibbs 25 as Thaxton, Doyle Varner, and Jackie Ryan carried the football.

The Panther defense really

THAXTON ROUGH ON EAGLE DEFENSE—Lenoir City running back Walt Thaxton displayed a glimpse of what could be a standout fall for himself and the Panther football team last Thursday in a pre-season scrimmage at Knoxville Gibbs. The power running junior had over 150 yards in rushing and a touchdown in sparking the Panther offense. Here he gets excellent upfield blocking for a 30 yard effort.

got involved and active in the scrimmage on the next 10 defensive efforts. Phil Reed, Terry Housley, Jeff Stamps, and Kenny McNabb patrolled the trenches like mid-season veterans. Steve Porter was all over the field making tackles and recovered a fumble.

Gibbs managed but 20 yards in the series.

Lenoir City added its second touchdown on the ensuing series with Ryan starting things on a five yard burst.

Thaxton tacked on 30 yards and Varner 20 with some individual effort. On the 10th play Benny Goley hooked up with Steve Arnold for 10 yards and a touchdown.

Gibbs made its best offensive showing in yards gained with a march to the Panther one foot line. Walt Thaxton led the defense with a fumble recovery and three tackles during the Gibbs attack.

Danny Hall got untracked for a 50 yard gain and the Panthers turned the inspired effort into a ninth play TD as Hall bulled in from the one yard line.

Gibbs lone varsity score came on Lenoir City's 10th down "going for broke" pass to wingback Clifford Brown. The pass from the LC 30 was slightly under thrown and picked off for a 60 yard return and Gibbs touchdown.

Gibbs final offensive thrust was stopped as Tony Williamson, Herbert Sartin, Rob Keener and Phil Reed, who claimed a fumble recovery applied the crunch to the Eagle ball carriers.

The Panther Junior Varsity had to settle for a 11 tie as Steve Arnold sneaked over from the one yard line. Arnold ran the second offense at quarterback.

Lenoir City had no apparent injuries from their workout and despite lack of depth the Panthers were rather fresh and in great spirit at the end.

Coach Blackburn used an array of backfield combinations and substituted at will on defense in keeping active personnel in the trenches.

"I can't say enough as to our attitude in playing defense and our offensive blocking was crisp and down field assignments carried out well. We just played darn well and the team is to be commended," stated Blackburn.

"We won't be satisfied as we can still improve a lot, but they are on the right path as a team."

TOUCHDOWN—Lenoir City receiver Steve Arnold prepares to cradle this Benny Goley pass for a Panther touchdown as the Lenoir City gridders hammered out an impressive 3-1 scrimmage Knoxville Gibbs.

Lenoir City had some 300 yards on offense with Thaxton getting half the real estate and Danny Hall collecting close to 100 yards. The Panther defense held the Eagles to less than 100 yards on 40 varsity offensive snaps. The Panthers are scheduled to scrimmage Morristown West Aug. 27, before traveling to McMinn Central to open the season on Sept. 5.

Cherokees Tune-Up On Tellico For Friday Night Jamboree Test

HAWKINS SNARES PASS—Greenback receiver Harold Hawkins catches a pass as the Cherokees moved the ball into Tellico territory Tuesday afternoon in a football scrimmage.

CHEROKEE IRON HORSE—Greenback fullback Bobby Smith directs the blocking down field as he powers out of Tellico would be tacklers Tuesday for a sizable gain. The senior stalwart was the game's top rushing leader.

The Greenback Cherokees tuned up for their fifth quarter Blount County Football Jamboree preview this Friday night at Maryville College Field Tuesday afternoon.

The Cherokees journeyed to Tellico Plains and Bearland for a two hour scrimmage. Greenback's first offense posted two touchdowns while the second team added a TD. All three scoring maneuvers came on passes.

The Greenback defense was impressive halting the Bears most serious scoring threat at the two yard line.

Both teams used a 10-play offensive series during the scrimmage with out punts or kick-offs. No penalties were enforced.

Greenback got the first offensive opportunity at its 30 and moved 30 yards before running out of down.

Tellico unleashed its offense early and drove to the two yard line before having to give back the pig skin. 29 yard pass was the long play of the series.

Greenback followed the running of fullback Bobby Smith in taking the ball to the four yard line of the Bears on their second offensive series. Smith ran by and over tacklers for a 50 yard sprint on second down. Randy Evans and Smith continued to get the running call as Greenback stayed on the ground for the 10 plays.

GOING TO ATLANTA—The Carter Lumber Company Braves, managed by Mr. G. W. Henley, are going to see the Atlanta Braves play baseball Sept. 6 and 7. The Carter Lumber Company Sr. Babe Ruth team captured the Loudon Recreation Lumber Championship by posting a 13-2 season mark. The Braves made up for their lone two losses in the season ending tournament by downing Lenoir City's Connie Mack team (the team to defeat them twice) and the Loudon Indians for the crown. Pictured on the Carter Lumber Company sponsored team is left to right Ricky McCrary, Ricky Parley, Danny Moore, Danny Russell, Coach Henley, Sam Stewart, Doug Kincaid, Mike McCall and Danny Isbell. Not pictured were Butch Brown, Jackie Jones, Wendell Davis, Mike Lambert, David Grisson, Gary Watson, Steve McCollister, and Gary Gibson.

Cherokees Tune-Up On Tellico For Friday Night Jamboree On Maryville College Field

Dotson connected with Glen Quillen on a 60 yard pass and run. Tellico's second unit was contained over a 30 yard span. Greenback's first unit settled down to business following a rest and with

Smith busting the line and Roddy Kizer dashing and darting on roll out plays to the outside moved the ball to the 28. On the 10th down Kizer fired a end zone strike to Danny Dotson for six points and a 2-0 score. Defensive and Stanley Breezele knifed in to steal to power sweeps and Steve Linginfelter, Rick Russell, Tony Chambers, Roger Hampton, Frank Mitchell, Jimmy, Brooks, and Bobby

Smith smothered the Tellico offense up the middle as they lost four yard in 10 plays. Greenback moved to its passing game for the final offensive series of the day. The Cherokees 1-2 combination of Kizer to Harold Hawkins proved to still be a strong plus in the Greenback offensive play book as the senior receiver plucked a Kizer aerial and raced down the sidelines for a 65 yard touchdown on seventh down. Tellico made 10 more of ensive tries in hopes of generating final thrust but the Greenback defense was on the scene with three and four tacklers to halt the efforts. "It was a good season," declared Greenback Coach Keith Bailey. "I think we played well for this stage of the season. We did not try to do anything fancy. Roddy (Kizer) controlled the offense well. Smith is going to be a help and our defense was better than they have shown in practice."

Greenback is not expected to scrimmage anymore since it has a jamboree encounter on Friday. Scrimmage sidelines saw both Roddy Kizer and Mike Smith intercepting Tellico passes. There was no fumble. Lynn Rucker got his ankle stepped on in the second play of the game and had to give up the scrimmage in the late going as swelling was apparent to the ankle. Tom Fader had a commendable effort at tackle.

Athens Merchants, Sunnyside Remain Alive In Philadelphia Tourney

The unbeaten Athens Merchants and one defeated Sunnyside were scheduled to meet in the finals of the Philadelphia Community Club Invitational Softball Tournament on Tuesday night. The finals of the week long event were raised out on Saturday night and rescheduled. In events of the fourth annual Philadelphia Community Club sponsored tourney, three time defending champion Eaton Corporation of Lenoir City was dealt an eliminating double setback on Saturday. Sunnyside rose to the occasion with a 10-7 triumph at Jerry Riser went 3 for 3 and walked to pace the win. Gary Chambers hit a two run homer for Eaton. The Loudon Merchants, who finished fourth in the tourney, followed up with a 6-1 elimination victory as Dennis Darnell and Jerry Russell collected a pair of hits. Junior Collins home run was the lone Eaton tally. The Athens Merchants scored two runs on Richard Harrell's home run to nip Sunnyside 12-10 in the late innings and keep an unblemished mark in the winner's bracket.

Sunnyside cut down Fairview of Decatur 9-4 with Gary Landers getting two hits to win the loser's bracket. Fairview had eliminated the Loudon Merchants 7-3. Fairview third baseman Ricky Livora was holding fast to the individual batting mark of .466 with a 12 for 18 showing. Lacy Landers, Sunnyside shortstop went into the Tuesday night finals with a .667 mark, 9 for 14. Yancy Hampton's three home runs was the leader in home runs as the finals were yet to be played.

Loudon Little League Football Teams Play In Jamboree

The Loudon Quarterback Club's Pee Wee Football season got underway Saturday with an all day jamboree at Lenoir City. Thirty little league teams representing nine towns of the immediate area each played a half of a game in previewing the upcoming football campaign for fall. The jamboree got underway at 9 a.m. and was concluded by 8 p.m. The youngest age group of teams played their games Saturday morning. The Loudon Grasscutters rolled to a 20-0 win over Kingston as Reggie Brown scored two touchdowns. The Loudon City Grasshoppers tipped Sweetwater 40-0 as Johnny Frost tallied the lone six pointer. The Lenoir City Grasscutters dropped their initial half showing against Claxton by a 6-0 count. In the Pee Wee mid-day contests Loudon's Mustangs hung a 20-0 loss on Claxton.

The Lenoir City Pee Wees battled Jacksboro to a scoreless deadlock. In the evening match-ups of the Midget division for the older and heavier boys, the Loudon Indians were tied by Harrison 6-6 and the Lenoir City Midgets concluded the jamboree by pounding Kingston 16-0.

Free-Reduced Price Lunch Policy Told

The Loudon County Board of Education today announced its policy for free and reduced-price meals and free milk, for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch, and Special Milk Programs. Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income criteria for determining eligibility:

INCOME POVERTY GUIDELINES, FISCAL YEAR 1976
Family Size	Free Meals & Free Milk Reduced Price Meals
1	3,200
2	4,280
3	5,250
4	6,280
5	7,190
6	8,110
7	8,950
8	9,790
9	10,550
10	11,210
11	12,000
12	12,810

Each Additional Family Member 750

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced-price meals or free milk. In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for each meal and milk for them, it should contact the school.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color or national origin.

Under the provisions of the policy the school principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he may make a request either orally or in writing to A. Edward Headlee, Superintendent, Drawer D, Loudon, Tenn. for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

Each school principal and the office of the superintendent of schools has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by any interested party.

Loudon County Herald For and about Women Booth-Collins Nuptials Pledged

Laura Katherine Booth and Dwight David Collins were united in marriage Saturday, August 23, at 7:30 p.m. at Loudon United Methodist Church. The Rev. William Horner officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Booth, of San Juan, Puerto Rico, formerly of Loudon and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin C. Collins of Morristown. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. John Roberson of Loudon and Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Booth of Jonesboro.

The sanctuary was decorated with burning tapers held in spiral, tree and seven branch candelabra accented with jade. An arrangement of white gladioli, stock mums, babies' breath and springer ferns banked the altar. Each window was accented with burning candles and greenery and the double aisles were marked with single stock candelabra entwined with ivy.

A program of nuptial music was presented by the choir. R. Swiney, organist which included "Fantasia" by Bach, "My Heart Ever Faithful" and "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, "A Time for Us" by Rota, "Brian's Song" and "Summer '62" by Le Grand, and "Psalm 121" by Marcello. As first duet Mrs. Margaret Bell and student, Jennifer Raina played a Beethoven Sonata. Vocalist, Mrs. Marty Blumberg of Auburn, Alabama sang "Walk Hand in Hand" and Mrs. Charles Pemburn of Albany, N.Y. sang "Eternal Love and Wedding Prayer" by Williams. A flute and organ duet of "Laura" preceded the procession. "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell and DeBussey's "Chair de Lune" was played during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory peau d'ange lace with organza. The high neckline, cuffs and bodice were trimmed with Beethoven lace ruffles. Peau d'ange lace edged the hem and chapel-length train and appliques the long tapered sleeves and bodice of the gown. For her veil, the bride chose a chapel-length ivory illusion edged in Brussels lace and held by a Juliet cap. She wore a pearl and gold necklace, a gift of the groom. Her bouquet was a cascade of butterfly roses, tube roses and babies' breath.

Connie Keeling of Henderson, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jenny and Anne Booth of San Juan, sisters of the bride, Jenny Frye of New Orleans, and Susan Watson of Loudon. Flower girl was Jenny Peeler, of Atlanta, cousin of the bride.

Bridesmaids' gowns were floor length apricot silk organza with off shoulder effect and V-neckline trimmed with ivory lace. They carried cascade bouquets of butterfly ivory roses, Sonya, apricot roses and babies' breath designed like the brides.

Serving as best man was Frank Booth, brother of bride. Groomsmen were Steve tending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Booth, Mrs. Kate Booth, Mrs. Sam Greenwell, Susan and Kathy Booth, all of Jonesboro; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morgan, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Phlegar, Blacksburg, Va.; Mrs. William Roberson, Salt Lake City, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Bernell Richardson, Byron, David and Duane of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dew, Lake City, S.C.; Mrs. Jim Taylor, Marian and Jay, San Juan, Puerto Rico; Mr. and Mrs. Reed Beugston, Orlando Park, Ill.; Dr. and Mrs. John Packard and Will, Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. George Peeler and family, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Velma Harvey, the bride's parents and out-of-town guests were entertained with a patio party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy T. Brewer with co-hostesses Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cardwell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Birkholz.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Collins at the Jolly Ox in Knoxville. Forty-five guests enjoyed the evening.

Saturday morning, the day of the wedding, a brunch was given at Shoney's for the groom, groomsmen and male out-of-town guests. Master of Ceremonies, ring bearer in the wedding, was host.

The bridal luncheon was given at the home of Mrs. W. T. McPeake with Mrs. William Jones and Mrs. Will D. Roberson as co-hostesses. A color scheme of apricot and mint green was carried throughout the decoration and luncheon. A rice tree centered the chest in the foyer and on the bride's table was an arrangement of ivory and apricot roses and babies' breath. The bride received a gift of her china from the hostesses.

Three individual tables were covered with ivory cloths overlaid with ivory lace. On the center table was a tiered bride's cake topped with an arrangement of ivory and apricot roses and babies' breath. Three-angled silver candelabra were accented by similar arrangements. The two surrounding tables featured two silver punch bowls, a scalloped watermelon filled with fresh strawberries and a chocolate fountain's cake topped with frosted grapes.

Out-of-town guests at the Walk for St. Jude, a walk meeting will be held every Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at the Lenoir City Utilities Building.

Mrs. Jerri Ewing and family, Greentown, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. John Tuttle and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Hooker and Sherri of Chattanooga. Those from Morristown were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Harbin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Gibson. Those from Knoxville were Mrs. Larry Flack and Karen, Rita Reaser, Carolyn Rainey, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Bertelso, (decorator), Mrs. French Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Frye, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brown.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Collins wore a light plum tulle suit with printed blouse. Following a trip through the Carolinas to the groom, groomsmen and male out-of-town guests, the bride, a March graduate of U.T., will be a Speech therapist in the Harrington City Schools.

The bride's parents and out-of-town guests were entertained with a patio party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy T. Brewer with co-hostesses Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cardwell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Birkholz.

Inexperience, Tough Schedule, Puts Dim Light On 1974 Repeat For Redskins In '75

How do you answer a curtain call which faces Loudon's Bert Rutledge and his 1975 football team? The Loudon Redskins.

In 1974 Loudon put it all together for a perfect 12-0 season mark and "AA" State Championship laurels. Now, some eight months later and 17 graduated seniors less, the Redskins are confronted with "defending" the always nice, but some times disastrous task of carrying on as NUMBER 1.

Coach Rutledge has experienced such a demanding encore before, having begged all the marbles in 1974 when he got through the 1970 season with what would have been a stellar job of 7-3.

"The 1969 season was fun, but the team in 1970 had the pressure and not really enough talent and experience to be 7-3," spoke Rutledge. "But they were a determined bunch and were in the playoff picture right up until the end."

It appears every team is out to defeat a great champion, but the champ is not best during its given reign, then

You are not actually defeating that which was great. A team is just defeating a team which carries a great honor of winning traditions and sound coaching technique.

The 1975 Redskins have a slight advantage over their 1970 comparable. The team does have a few more key individuals with game experience to likewise tough out the heavy burden of being mentally and physically prepared for a playoff effort on every Friday night of combat.

Loudon gained some 4274 offensive yards in 1974, or almost two and one-half miles of parading the pigskin up and down the 100 yard line.

Loudon Redskins 1975 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Scored 306 points and limited their opposition to just 66 points and 1965 total yards of real estate.

"It takes some good playing by the entire team, and not just on Friday night, will be a great amount of luck to be figured also to get through the season as an unbeaten," declared Coach Jim Gobson.

The 1975 Redskins will be play off of the past, their repeat is still ahead. Can they repeat as "AA" champs? Who will be the team to halt a winning streak that dates back to the 1973 season? Most would a loss do mentally to this Redskins team?

"Part of this team (seniors) have experienced defeats, don't guess the sophomores (undefeated as freshmen) and juniors lost one as freshmen and nine as sophomores on last year's varsity." Know much about defeat, stated Rutledge. "But a defeat is sure to come, as to when and to whom I don't know. I could name nine teams though that stand ready to tackle the charge."

Loudon has 55 team members this fall and Coach Rutledge indicates he will use maybe 30 to 35 without hesitation for live combat.

"We are going to again have good size in the line. I still only Jeff Nichols has played a full season in the offensive line, everyone else graduated. On defense we will have defensive ends that have never lined up at the positions in their playing careers," declared Rutledge. "Neither speaks well of what could be the result," admitted Coach Rutledge.

Speaking with frankness Coach Rutledge would reconstruct a hard charging offensive line that first of all ball with unity and the defense must be anchored at the flanks if the flow of traffic is to be directed into the strength of the Loudon defense.

Thirteen seniors will provide the team leadership with linebacker-fallback Dickie Colvin, offensive center and linebacker Steve Hill, fallback-receiver-linebacker Marlon Brown and running back Rick Melton serving as team co-captains.

Loudon then will provide relief for Nichols and Holen with Sam Thearp, a 240 pound junior, and rest Curtis and Spoon with Steve Lyke, a 205 pound junior.

"Actually all six boys mentioned are capable starting material and when Gary Brown, 225 pound sophomore) gets into shape (missed first two weeks of fall practice with a foot operation recovery) he will be in there too," announced Coach Jim Gobson, who handles the line corps.

Senior Steve Hill, 185, will handle the center duties, Junior Mike Lambert, who will fill a defensive back position and placements, and Kenny Starritt, a fleet of 140 pound lb has the upper hand at split end. Bumper Webster, 1250-Sr., could rotate on occasions.

In the backfield the Redskins have already suffered a setback in the possible eight to 10 week loss of senior running back Porky Campbell with a torn ligament in the left knee.

Nevertheless returning for senior campaigns are Rick Melton, Marlon Brown, and Dickie Colvin. Melton has college scouts interested with his speed. He carried the ball 93 times as a junior, gained 750 yards, and scored four touchdowns. He is up to 180 pounds this season and barring injury could be one of Tennessee's top prep speedsters. Marlon Brown, 206 pounds, inherits the fallback job left by hard running Johnny Deatridge. Brown was used mainly as a receiver in 1974, but is capable of doing a stellar job at running back. He carried the ball 41 times as a junior and scored six touchdowns. College scouts also have him on their checklist; if not offensively, certainly on defense.

Dickie Colvin added 178 yards to Loudon's offense as a junior. The 170 pounder will be counted on for much more this year sharing time with Marlon Brown.

Mark Moore and Freddie Starritt, two cracker-jack sophomores look like sure bets to spell the regulars and without too much notice in loss of talent.

At quarterback the coin is still tossing. Greg Deatridge has the exciting features liked in a field general of Coach Rutledge's Veer-offense. Still the junior needs plenty of work at handling the passing game. On the other hand, junior Carter Cardwell, back up to Dennis Queen last fall, runs a fluid control offense and passes better than Deatridge at present. Neither has the arm of graduated Queen. Both are capable, both want to win, and both will be necessary if Loudon is to put it together for a solid season.

Cardwell has been hampered with an ear infection in recent days and thus Deatridge has had more playing opportunity for fall. But who will start at Knoxville Powell? The coaches don't even know. Sophomores Tim Brown or Steve Schrimsher are at the top of the list as backup. Bumper Webster will be there some, but defense and punt return duties will keep him busy.

So there you have the offense as it stands presently. A winner? Maybe. The line must find out in a hurry size is not everything, they must block as a unit and enjoy putting people down. The quarterbacking seems to be solid as is the running game. The backs are all fast and have power for the tough 100-yard on third down. Receiving is questionable, passing game not on level of 1974 team at this time. Still the offense packs scoring potential and from most any spot on the field.

A look at the defense finds Harrison and sophomore Jim Brown, 176, getting the opportunity to prove themselves worthy of the defensive ends spots. Sam Stewart, 179-Jr., Jim Birkholz, 170-Sr., John Sweet, 156-Jr., and Steve Millspaugh (170-Jr.) will get their chances and with experience can scotch the corners for several seasons to follow.

Nichols and Holen look good at tackle. Rotation of Spoon, Gary Brown, Thearp, Curtis, and Lyke will keep fresh meat in the trenches.

At linebacker Loudon will be reuniting experienced letterman. Marlon Brown should lead the corps. Steve Hill and Dickie Colvin are sure tacklers. Mark Moore is a close fourth man and will present plenty of playing time. Dennis Stewart, sophomore, has also caught the attention of the coaches and is making progress for more playing time. "Stewart is as quick as a cat," beamed Coach Gobson. "We will play him some both ways, he's really improving."

Deatridge or Lambert will be at safety. Melton, Cardwell, Freddie Starritt, Tim Marlowe, Dan Church, Black, Bumper Webster will share the defensive backfield.

DEFENSIVELY Loudon should be again strong, especially up the middle and on the defensive secondary. This is not to say they will be in scrimmages to date Loudon has not shown the "stopping" power of 1974. Not even in the heart of the line. The team ran over but three yards and a cloud of dust can end up with the opposing team crossing the double stripe more times than the offense can match. Ends must learn quickly with as few costly mistakes as possible.

Meanwhile the defense can not live on the past, the season open Sept. 5 and every opponent will be at the Big Red front wall with only one intention and that is to drive the ball down their throats.

The defense, despite its fall showing will hit and could be the toast of the 1975 season.

The Loudon punting game looks safe in the hands of junior Mike Brookshire. His leg is getting stronger and is capable of doing the job. Brookshire lacks the booming whips of graduated Sam Lyke, who ranked as the best in the state last year, but averages for a 41.2 avg. But a 34 to 38 yard average is within range and a stout defense should do the rest. Marlon Brown will attempt to handle the placement and kickoff chores.

Overall Loudon looks to have another stable cast of football performers ready to get busy with a task that shall make them come of age in a hurry. The chances of a repeat for playoff honors and a state title look like exciting goals to shoot for. But the schedule is not favorable for a team or loyal fan with a weak heart. Kingston, McMinn Central,

Maryville, Crossville (AAA), and Goodlettsville are traditional winners, Harrison is improved. Knoxville Young is expected to field its best team in years (8-2 last fall), and Knoxville Powell will test the Loudon defense. And don't count the Panthers out. They are hungry and they are at home.

A fast look at the Region Two team schedules would have to rate Loudon a contender, possibly finishing runner-up for region regular season play. A couple of defeats appear visible and a nine game schedule will certainly make things tight. The first three regular season games will set the tempo, the final three will tell the tale.

Other prospective players expected to provide varsity playing depth will be Eddie Estes (QB), Tim Kiser (Flanker), Skip Poynter (E), Bobby Moore (C), Gene Cate (C), and David Grissom (E).

Coach Keith Bailey has the smallest team of his career in the 10 seasons at Loudon. Only 28 strong, 16 returning lettermen. "We have to go both ways to what we have and we need to get hurt," commented Coach Bailey.

Walled has the best record in the conference. Loudon should again be the best school with for top level of backs in the conference. Eleven in years and make waves. Porter goed after that. Defense will be their cup of tea, re Coach Bailey on the Post Conference depth.

Greenback, Friendsville Battle To 0-0 Tie

The Greenback Cherokees concluded five quarters of Blount County Football jamboree action Friday night with a scoreless 12 minute showing against Friendsville.

The Falcons, tabbed a pre-season conference contender along with Walland, won the coin toss and got the ball at their own 30 yard line. Three plays covered 40 yards to the Cherokee 30. A penalty for off sides his senior year, 33 yards resulted in a fumble recovery for the Cherokees.

Greenback stung the Falcons on a third down 16 yard pass from Rodney Kizer to Harve Hawkins. A face mask penalty added 15 yards.

Hawkins added 17 yards on two runs behind the blocking of Jimmy Brooks.

Greenback was inside the Friendsville nine yard stripe with four minutes showing when the Falcon defense stopped fullback Bobby Smith and Hawkins on successive plays in an effort for a first down at the eight yard line to take possession of the football.

Greenback and Rick Russell came to life on defense for Greenback and forced Friendsville into a passing down. Randy Evans was not to be denied as he intercepted the aerial and returned it to the 20 yard line.

A holding penalty took the Cherokees out of field goal range and two incomplete passes exhausted the clock as the grid preview came to an end.

In other results: Maryville zipped past Walland 13-0 but lost their top

In Friday Scrimmage

Lenoir City Rips Powell

The Lenoir City Panther football team is progressing right along. The Panthers tackled their second full scrimmage of the season last Friday evening, and again came away victorious.

Lenoir City had a rash of mistakes in the Powell scrimmage. But a stout defensive effort and touch-downs by Steve Arnold and Clifford Brown off of passes from Benny Golay. Wali Thaxton led the two-hour practice game with a couple of touch-down jaunts.

Lenoir City coach Henry Blackburn was happy with the overall outcome of his team's effort. "Powell scored first and we were making a mistake at every corner, but once we settled to play I think we pretty well took it to them on offense and our defense was crisp," summarized the coach.

The two scrimmages win this fall, Lenoir City also won a pair of workouts in the spring, accents the fact that the Panthers are again taking football seriously.

end zone.

Stanley Breazeale can stand sideways and the opposing blocker will misfigure him for a tall blade of grass. But heads up with a flow of blockers leading a power sweep and Breazeale becomes a live snare. The junior defensive end is a copy of Keith Rollins (1973) but quicker and just as sure a tackler. Senior Frank Mitchell will handle the opposite side of the line.

Russell and Linginfeller make the middle rugged and Jimmy Brooks can intimidate a nervous offensive center. Bobby Smith, Chambers, Dotson or Belcher will fill the linebacking chores.

Sophomore Tony Vineyard (broken wrist) 195, Chris McNeilly, Roger Hampton and eighth grader Scott Hamantree (172) will rest the starters.

Mich Smith, Hawkins, Kizer and Evans will be the secondary. Quillen will also be used.

The second half may prove too much for the thin ranked Cherokee. Big enough and rangy physical condition will be a factor. The defensive secondary will be spotty on pass defense. Over playing may free ball carriers for some sizeable gains. Injuries are forbidden. Pride and work can make Cherokees mean.

Despite the fears of Coach Bailey his Cherokees are a close knit team. If one player helmet is too tight they all are too tight. This works both ways. A positive attitude can make the Cherokees a darkhouse. An injury or heart breaking loss might not be repairable to this team. Key players are underclassmen.

Seniors must set the example. This team is best placed overall since Greenback made the state playoffs in 1973. A couple of wins early could start the momentum.

Labor Day Softball Tournament To End Summer Rec. Schedule

Loudon Labor Day Tournament to start Friday.

The Loudon Recreation Department will hold its fourth and final softball tournament of the year this weekend. The tournament will run Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday starting at 6:00 on Friday.

Hamilton First National Bank of Oak Ridge will be here to defend its title. Hamilton features the home run power of Loudon Courtian Arnold Hawkins and Harold Connor plus the defensive play of Wayne McGee and Chuck Benjamin. Arnold Hawkins will be trying to repeat as the tournaments most valuable player and home run king.

West end of Athens will join the field after finishing second in the State church league championships this past weekend in Knoxville. West end features a fine defense and the hitting of Eddie Stephens and second basemen

Larry Malone, West End would have been in the World championships they enter, UV but a change in the rule allowed only one team from Tennessee.

Union Valley is another strong contender in any tournament they enter. UV recently won the Knoxville church league division and placed 4th in this year's Fort Loudon Invitational.

Rounding out the field will be Loudon Merchants No. 2, Greenback Blue Jackets Grassy Valley (Knoxville) O'Kain's (Oak Ridge) Loudon Sporting Goods and Hugh Rule Construction (Maryville) Eaton No. 2 and David Lee and Associates (Lenoir City) E.C. Russell (Knoxville) J.L.R. (Corryton) and the AmVets (Johnson City).

Note: Nine of the teams that participated in the Fort Loudon Invitational have participated in this year's state tournaments. They are as follows: Hamilton 1st National Park of Williamsburg, AmVets (Tennessee Open Division) WACO's Easy Shop and Bank of Williamsburg, (Kentucky open division, WACO's won) Union Valley West End, St. Lukes, and Central Methodist, (Tennessee Church League West End 2nd, St. Lukes 3rd).

The Loudon Pee Wee football teams, sponsored by the Loudon Quarterback Club, got off to a slow start Saturday night by winning only one of four contests with visiting Lenoir City.

The Loudon Grasscutters and the Panther Cubs battled in a 0-0 tie, while the younger Grasshoppers of Loudon was the only QFC Club team to win. The Grasshoppers posted a 22-0 triumph.

The Loudon Mustangs never led, but made it close as they bowed by a 20-11 score.

The Loudon Indians were tumbled by a 26-0 count. Allen Eldridge raced some 60 yards for the lone touch-down tally by the Indians.

Loudon will travel to Tullahoma this Saturday night. Games are scheduled to depart at 6 p.m.

It is also rumored that Loudon may dress out its first girl performer in the history of the Quarterback Club sponsored football program.

The Quarterback Club is having to regroup its teams as players being counted on most have grown too big in weight in comparison to their ages to play and has forced the teams to be reconstructed.

Quarterback Club officials are hoping to get their teams in order and a full season can be salvaged by all.

CB Radio Owners Ask To Help In Labor Day Safety

State Safety Commissioner Joe Plummer today asked motorists with Citizens Band radios to assist in the effort of saving lives this Labor Day Weekend. The Commissioner said there are several thousand motorists who have C.B. radios in their cars and trucks and if these persons will cooperate with the Highway Patrol, this will mean a massive lookout for the reckless and drinking drivers as well as, accidents and highway hazards.

"Several states are using C.B. radios in their Highway Patrol unit and are experiencing benefits from it," the Commissioner noted. While the Department of Safety has not purchased C.B. units for the patrol cars, many troopers have taken the initiative and personally bought and licensed them.

"This will be a trial run for us to determine if the Citizens Band units would be a benefit for highway safety here in Tennessee," Plummer said. He added, "I find I must use every device possible in the effort to save lives, and the

School Buses
The State Department of Education is in the process of assisting Loudon County in the review and, in some cases, re-routing of some of our buses. We hope that this will result in better service for the students of our system. Many children must now leave home before 7:30 a.m. and do not return home until around 4:30-5:00 p.m. This is a situation which we must attempt to remedy. However, in the meantime we will try to provide the best possible bus transportation we can arrange.

Kindergarten
The teachers and aides will be involved in home visits during this week in order to meet the children and parents. If possible, prior to the children beginning their school classes. This is a most valuable opportunity for both parents and teachers to meet and discuss expectations for the children as well as the needs of each child. Kindergarten classes will begin on September 2nd, Tuesday, following Labor Day.

REMEMBER! All beginning children (1st grade, too) must have the following shots in order to remain enrolled in school. These shots are: (1) Diphtheria, (2) Measles-rubella, (3) Poliovirus, (4) Tetanus, (5) Whooping cough, and (6) Rubella-German measles. If your child has not taken these immunizations, you take steps to have this accomplished as soon as possible.

Energy-Money Crunch
Those parents who are beginning to purchase winter clothes for your children should bear in mind that we are still involved in an energy shortage. This shortage, together with the short funding provided for the school system means that thermostats will be set lower this winter in order to conserve both energy and money so that we will have enough of both to complete the school year. Your cooperation in this matter is deeply appreciated by both teachers and administrators.

Bond Sales
Total $168,346

Loudon County Savings Bonds Chairman Will A. Hildreth announced today that $168,346 in Series E and H Savings Bonds were purchased in the county during the first six months of the year. Statewide sales of the securities amounted to $40.2 million, slightly under last year's January-June figure. Nationally, sales for the same period amounted to $3,647 million, with one percent of the record sales reported last year. Redemptions were nine percent under the January-June figure for 1974.

According to the Department of the Treasury, Tennessee owns $75 million, and Loudon Counties hold $2,111,000 in Savings Bonds. Most Bond holdings were accumulated through payroll savings, the announcement said.

SUGAR LIMB ABOUT READY—Workmen early this week were building up the shoulders of the new Sugar Limb connector between I-75 and U.S. 11. Paving of the new road was completed last week. Installation of guard rails, road signs and pavement markings is all the road lacks in being completed. It is open for travel now.

State Hogs CETA Funds Judge Told

Judge William Russell this week said he had received letters from United States Senator Bill Brock that charges Governor Ray Blanton with using Title VI funds of the Comprehensive Employment Training Act, which should be passed along to local governments such as Loudon County, to hire an additional 1,800 state employees.

Brock said that despite the fact that the Department of Labor has more than tripled the Tennessee Allocation, from $5.6 million to $18.3 million, local governments are getting less funds because the state is illegally using them for their own employment programs.

The letter to Judge Russell from Senator Brock says the state has skimmed $12 million of the funds to hire state employees. He said although this might technically be legal, it is not the intent of the Congress for state governments to hog the funds. He said the CETA program was designed to provide jobs in the local community, not at the state level. Brock charged that the State Manpower Services Council has not met since last January and is not carrying out its duty to see that the funds are properly spent.

In a letter to Governor Blanton, Senator Brock urged the Governor to review the action of the state and make corrections to get the funds to the local government level where they were intended to go.

Judge Russell said he is hopeful that the state will take the recommendations of Senator Brock, because the county and city governments in Loudon County could use the funds to hire badly needed employees for training in various areas of government service.

Deaths

CAPITOL COMMENTARY

BY M. LEE SMITH

You Bet Your Life

by Joyce Stimpson, R.N.

Since coming to Loudon County a few months ago, I have been surprised at the number of people who have high blood pressure (hypertension) and don't know it. I have also found that most of those who know they have hypertension do not know what high blood pressure is. What is blood pressure? As the heart muscle "beats," it squeezes blood out into the blood vessels. The pressure of this blood against the vessel wall is one part of the blood pressure (the top number). When the heart relaxes between beats, the vessel wall still creates pressure against the blood. This blood vessel resistance is the bottom number of your blood pressure.

Normal blood pressure ranges from about 120-80 to 160-90. Older people usually have a bit higher pressure due to arteriosclerosis ("hardening of the arteries"). In general, most doctors are concerned primarily with the lower blood pressure numbers. If your blood pressure is elevated, you should receive treatment to lower it as soon as possible.

Probably one-half of all people with hypertension do not know they have it. They do not feel bad. Why must they be treated? Because over a period of time, hypertension can lead to heart attacks, strokes and kidney disease.

Most hypertension can be controlled with diet, rest, and/or medication. There is no reason to subject yourself to the dangers of high blood pressure unnecessarily. Every adult should have his or her blood pressure checked, especially if there is hypertension in the family. See your family doctor or nurse, or get in touch with the Loudon County Health Department in the Bacon Building. Don't put it off! The person most responsible for your health is YOU.

Funeral services were held Thursday, August 21 at J. Avery Bryan Funeral Home in Chickamauga, Ga. Burial in Chickamauga Cemetery. Courtesy, Click's, Lenoir City.

MR. SHELTON
Harvey Jack Shelton, age 65, of the Oral Community, Route 2, Lenoir City, died Tuesday, August 19 at Fort Sanders Hospital in Knoxville. He was a veteran of WWI and a member of the V.F.W. Gold Star Post 516 at Sweetwater.

Survivors: wife, Mrs. Mary Moody Shelton; one brother, Turley C. Shelton of Detroit; three sisters, Mrs. Anne Baker of Detroit, Mrs. T. C. (Lucille) Nicely of Memphis, Mrs. Carl M. (Nellie) Burns of Seymour.

Funeral services were held Thursday, August 21 at the St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, Lenoir City, in charge.

A federal grand jury has indicted Builders' Transportation Corporation of Memphis, headed by Frank Phillips, for allegedly making an illegal corporate contribution to Governor Ray Blanton's 1972 Senate campaign.

In response Governor Blanton has charged harassment. He says there has been "continuing harassment of my people, my friends and supporters." The Governor has produced no evidence to support this contention.

Let's look at the facts. In May 1974 a routine audit of Blanton's 1972 campaign contributions and expenditures was completed and accepted by the Secretary of the Senate. The Blanton campaign report filed with the Secretary of the Senate and on which the audit was based, contained no information indicating the campaign received an in-kind contribution as a result of Phillips' payment of campaign employee salaries.

In October 1974, two years after the Senate campaign and three weeks before the end of Blanton's gubernatorial campaign, James A. Brown, Jr., made several charges of irregularity concerning the 1972 campaign including one that he had been placed on a corporate payroll while a campaign employee.

Later Brown produced his W-2 tax record which showed he was paid $1,500 by Builders' Transportation Corporation of Memphis in 1972. Brown said he never worked for the corporation.

In late October 1974 attorney Miller & Oakley, now Commissioner of Insurance, filed with the Secretary of the Senate on behalf of Blanton a formal answer to this and other Brown charges "emphatically and categorically denying all of them."

On January 13, 1975, Blanton filed a new report which stated for the first time that in the 1972 campaign Brown and another employee each had been paid $1,500 by Frank Phillips.

Later that month Phillips said Brown and the other employee had been on his corporation payroll during the 1972 campaign but that he had paid the amount of the salaries back to the corporation subsequent to Brown's allegation.

From these facts it is apparent Phillips or his company or both violated the law as Phillips, in effect, has admitted.

It is also apparent that in October Blanton's attorney did not tell the people of Tennessee the truth. The denial is in sharp contrast to the January report filed with the Secretary of the Senate and the explicit statements of Phillips himself.

Having a campaign employee on a corporate payroll is a campaign contribution by that corporation, Corporate campaign contributions are illegal under federal law.

A violation of that law may not be a wrongdoing that causes one to recoil in horror.

Transportation Available For Senior Citizens

Transportation for persons age 60 and over is available through the Easter Seals Society. There are no income stipulations for this service. First priority of the Easter Seals van goes to senior citizens who have some physical disability and who can not avail themselves of public or private transportation to obtain a medical service. This priority includes local medical appointments as well as trips to Knoxville for medical services. The van is not available for emergency transportation.

The Easter Seals van has four areas for which transportation can be provided:

1. trips for health care services
2. trips for nutritional needs
3. trips to obtain social services
4. trips for social activities

This valuable service should be utilized by those older adults who need it so that some of their transportation problems can be resolved.

For scheduling purposes, the van needs at least 48 hours notice prior to a trip. Appointments must be made through a social service organization. If you need information or want to set up an appointment call: The Office on Aging (458-4456), the Department of Public Health (458-2514), or the Department of Human Services (458-4616).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In light of the state's recent with holding of state education funds, I think it is appropriate that the people of Loudon County become aware of the following statements made by some of the squires of our County Court. Let's call them quotes worth reporting—

"Looking back on it all, the thing I am most proud of, and I consider our greatest achievement is the fact that we kept the tax rate fairly constant for 21 years."

"Well as long as this (cutting state funds) doesn't concern the Lenoir City Schools, I don't give a damn."

"You people (school) teachers" should have realized you were going to make anything when you became a teacher. You should have thought about all of this."

"The main thing we've got to worry about (in getting state funds cut) is getting that football team back out there."

"Quite frankly, I am surprised and disappointed that the teachers don't have any more faith in the County Court than that."

Superintendent Headlee has warned the County Court on numerous occasions that state funds were likely to be withheld if a new building program was not started immediately. These quotes from our squires would be funny if they weren't so tragic.

"HI DADDY"

"Hi Daddy! When are you coming home?"

How happy it would make our Heavenly Father if we responded to His voice in the same joyous manner that this little child has responded to his Daddy's voice.

Enthusiasm for God's Way would turn a greater number of people toward God and His love.

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord" (Psalms 122:1) would be a joyous response to God's command, "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together." (Hebrews 10:25)

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love to the ends of the earth for men to respond to His love by living His path. Without this, the spreading of His love of God, as promised in His word, will never be possible. Therefore, and from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should spread and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free as a child of God.

Names of Senior Citizens Sought

The Office on Aging needs to have the name, address and telephone number of every person 60 years and older in Loudon County. Two of the major responsibilities of the Office on Aging are 1. to provide outreach, and 2. to accumulate pertinent data on numbers and location of elderly persons, their characteristics and needs. If the Office does not know who the older adults of Loudon County are, there is no way that outreach can be accomplished.

Therefore, the Office is asking every older person in the County to call 456-4456, to come by, or to write to the Office on Aging, Hospital Drive, Loudon, Tennessee so that they may have needed names and know what services are needed so that these services can be developed.

In addition, the office would like to have individuals, and groups jet down or call in the names of those persons 60 and older whom they know, so that the office can identify who the 3,700 older adults are.

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

It is quite interesting to look at the quality of some of the pictures we get for use in the Good Old Days. Some, although many years old, still maintain a very good quality. Possibly the difference is in the way they were processed or maybe the camera or film made the difference. I am sure many pictures are put away and not exposed to light for many years. Anyway, there is a big difference.

I guess our thinking about this was motivated by one of the pictures we are using this week. We are sure it is a good many years old. This is indicated by some of the things in the background of the picture. One thing that was common in those days is many of the stores had a gasoline pump and the one in this picture had the old time sight delivery.

The store owner pumped as much as ten gallons up in a sight reservoir (the pumping was done by hand) and when he opened the hose valve, you could watch the gasoline flow out of the reservoir into the cars gas tank. The old store windows and signs of this era and as is shown in the picture are very interesting.

This old picture was loaned to us by Raymond McJunkins quite a while back and we are just now getting around to using it. We talked to Shorty McJunkins about it and he thinks it is possibly his brother, who is now deceased and also, he believes the picture was made in Philadelphia, at the old store and station on the old highway. It was on the Lenoir property. If this is the place, it has significance to me. Later years saw the store building converted into a dwelling house and my family lived there for a few years. My father operated a business on another part of this property and it holds many memories for me. It is possible that the woman in the picture is the wife of the man holding the young baby.

Of course, our thoughts in this are in part projection, but Shorty told us that after we ran it, he would tell us for sure. Our many thanks to our good friend Raymond for the loan of the picture.

Our other picture this week is one loaned to us by W.A. Brewster, and our reason for using it is Mr. Brewster brought us this picture with some comments about the Good Old Days as he recalled many things that had come about during his lifetime. He sent along a picture of him taken at the old Sugar Limb School Building, which he attended in 1906 and he relates the following:

"I started to Sugar Limb which was a beautiful school house and our teacher was Miss Maggie Blair. She was a good teacher and that is where I got my third grade learning. We went at 8 a.m. and got out at 4 p.m. We had a good ball team who were Paul, Joe, Clarence Griffin and myself, W.A. Brewster, John Blair, Alf Conner, Buck, Ben and Archie Shubert and Floyd Gill.

We had about forty pupils in school and sometime we got through with the lessons early and we would go out and play ball. Miss Blair would pitch for us. The school house was built about 1890 and Albert Blair bought it from the county sometime after 1927. I don't know the exact date. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

On Court Agenda... Hamilton To Head Legislative Committee

County Judge Bill Russell said he will appoint magistrate E. P. Hamilton, Jim Blair and Curtis Williams to the new county court legislative committee at the September meeting of county court set for 9 a.m. Monday.

The Legislative Committee will lead the courts effort in developing all new and pending county legislation, with emphasis on passage of private acts which will create new means of revenue for the county. These are to help finance needed school program improvements, teacher raises, etc., which were cut from the budget proposals this past year because of the already increased budget and tax rate.

The agenda also has stated the appointments of two school board members. Two recent board appointees, Bob Carter and Jim Cardwell have resigned, bringing the action back to the court.

Generally members of the various court committees, purchasing, budget and others would be appointed by Judge Russell at the September meeting, but at the request of several members to wait until the October meeting after the special election in Lenoir City to name a replacement for former Squire Henry Foster, has postponed that action. The Judge has indicated he may make several changes in committee makeup and structure.

The issue of a county building inspector, cut in the budget from a fulltime to a parttime position is to be considered again.

Other items on the agenda in order of appearance are as follows:

County Judge report on CETA funds and general report.

Planning Commission—General report. Recommendation concerning agreement with Department of Transportation regarding relocation of State Route 72. Re-zoning request by Jim Hamilton changing portion of parcel 13, tax map 23, located between U.S. 11 and Marled Road from R-1 to C-1.

General report and report on the building program.

Purchasing Committee—General report.

County Court Justice Center—General report.

County Law Enforcement Agency.

Louder County Memorial Hospital—General report.

Budget Committee Report and budget recommendations.

Consideration of appointment to Agriculture Center—General report.

Consideration and election of County Board of Health.

Discussion of Muddy Creek Road Construction. The road has been set for improvements for several months, but several property owners have delayed signing rights of way papers.

Armed Robbers Get $1263 At Service Station

Two black men, one armed with a pistol held up the Lighthouse Oil Company on U.S. 11 at Lenoir City about 6:35 a.m. Tuesday. Deputy Jake Chapman said.

Three blacks came to the station about 5:50. Two men came in and were told by attendant Hobart Lowe that the station was not open. The two men left, but came back walking from Lenoir City.

The one with the gun came in the station as Lowe was counting receipts. The station money and Lowe's gun were on the counter. The men took the station money ($913 and Lowe's billfold containing $350, and his gun.

County To Hire Director For Ed Program

Louder County Education Superintendent Edward Headlee announced this week that his office is taking applications for a part-time position of Louder County Community Education Coordinator. The job, funded through a grant, pays $320 per month for 20 hours per week of work time.

Those applying must have a minimum four year college degree. Applications must be completed and in the hands of the Superintendent no later than Wednesday, Sept. 10.

The Louder County Community Education program will be a joint undertaking of the County Board of Education and the State Community College.

Responsibilities of the Coordinator are as follows:

- 1-Will be responsible for the community education program.
- 2-Will develop a full range of educational programs for the county which will include credit programs, credit programs and various special activities for youths as well as adults.
- 3-Identify educational needs of the county, develop program activities to help satisfy these needs. Identify instructors and agencies to conduct the programs. Participate in registration and supervise the various instructors.
- 4-Attend at least one in-service training session per month at RSCC.
- 5-Engage in community planning.

Thieves Strike Restaurant Twice

Thieves made off with almost $300 and inflicted $85 damage to a door when they broke into Al's Restaurant on new highway 95 at Lenoir City sometime early Thursday. The break-in was discovered about 4:30 a.m.

Taken was $150 from a cash register, money used to open up with each day, and $140 from the cigarette machine. Entry to the building was made by breaking the window out of a door and forcing the door open.

A second break-in at the restaurant was reported to county officers Monday, Chief Deputy Lake Bright said.

The thieves entered the same door as before, broke into the cigarette machine and juke box and took an undetermined amount of money. This time no money was seen left in the cash register.

Crackdown On School Speeders

Louder County Sheriff Guy Russell said this week that he has ordered his deputies to crack down on violations in the school zone areas in Louder County.

Sheriff Russell said he had also asked the Tennessee Highway Patrol to assist, especially in the areas where schools are on or near a major highway.

The Sheriff reported that a number of complaints had been received both from parents and school officials concerning persons speeding in the school zones, in violation of the state law. He said that 15 persons who are caught violating the speed zones will be prosecuted in General Sessions Court. The minimum fine, including costs, for speeding is $27.25, but may be much higher.

DURING SUNDAY SEARCH-Louder County Deputy Allen Clemmer talks with Ronnie Selvidge about the disappearance of a teenage Loudon girl in the Blair Bend section Sunday. Selvidge was later charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The girl was found in the same area about two hours later. Others in the picture are members of the Loudon County Rescue Squad who conducted a five hour search in the area until the couple was found.

School Board Asks For Costs On Building Program

The Loudon County Board of Education Thursday night ordered Superintendent Edward Headlee to have architects begin immediately formulating cost estimates and plans on six school renovation and building program, which developed by the board on cost estimates at Loudon Junior High and Highland Park School until next month when the board hopes to decide which of the two schools will get presents from Browder Elementary which will be closed under the consolidation and building program.

The Board, basically reaffirmed its action on Sept. 11 the board will meet at a look at all the county schools Superintendent Headlee received permission to have future board meetings in the schools on a rotating basis. On Sept. 11 the board held a look at all the county schools Superintendent Headlee received permission to have future board meetings in the schools on a rotating basis. On Sept. 11 the board held a look at all the county schools Superintendent Headlee received permission to have future board meetings in the schools on a rotating basis.

Classrooms in the auditorium area and at Glendale were to have been completed late last week. "You wouldn't know Glendale. It is new from top to bottom," Headlee told the board.

Glendale was one school that the U-T Survey recommended closing, but pleas from the community succeeded in getting the school board to recommend it be remodeled to meet state standards and be maintained as a four teacher, eight grade school.

In a move to give the members of the school board a look at all the county schools Superintendent Headlee received permission to have future board meetings in the schools on a rotating basis. On Sept. 11 the board held a look at all the county schools Superintendent Headlee received permission to have future board meetings in the schools on a rotating basis.

In other board action Vann Blair of Loudon was hired as art teacher for Loudon High School, replacing an instructor who resigned just as school started when he was offered an assistant principal position in the Atlanta, Georgia system.

Two additional bus runs were authorized because of overload conditions that developed when school opened. One was to Highland Park on Scott Collins bus. He had one run, which 100 students were on a 66 passenger bus. To correct the overload an additional run was allowed. At Loudon High School more students than anticipated were on the bus run to Lenoir City for vocational courses. W. B. Costrel was given an added run to ease the overload there.

Approval was given to a one year contract to Loudon County Disposal Service for pickup of garbage at all county schools. The firm plans to place three cubic yard containers at the school and transport trash to the county transfer station as often as is required. The contract was for $200 per month. A custodian at the old Loudon High School had been hauling the trash for $100 a month. It was decided that the health feature of the covered containers, plus a $100 a month savings on plastic bags would make the trash disposal service cost about the same amount as is now being spent, plus eliminate the use of a county truck.

Commissioner Sam Ingram, in withdrawing action with Louder state funds for Loudon County Schools, offered assistance of his staff in developing a plan to present to the county court to correct over 110 deficiencies. The Commissioner, said Robert Selvidge was released under $250 bond pending action in General Sessions Court.

Car Found Burned

Claude Lawhorn, Rt. 1, Loudon, reported to the Justice Center Thursday that his car was broken into and the inside burned while the car was parked overnight at Pole Cat landing on Waits Bar Lake below Loudon.

After Five Hour Search... Missing Man, Girl Are Found

A 15 year old Loudon girl reported missing by her mother Saturday was found safe about 1 p.m. Sunday after a morning long search of the Blair Bend area near the Union Carbide Plant. A Loudon man, Ronnie Selvidge, reportedly home on a weekend leave from his army post in South Carolina, was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, Loudon County Deputy Allen Clemmer said.

Sunday morning about 6:45 City of Loudon police had a report that an abandoned motorcycle was sitting in the middle of a road in a new subdivision that overlooks Blair Bend.

Officers said that they learned that the missing girl had been seen in the company of Selvidge on the cycle at 8 a.m. Sunday. A trail through a field netted officers a pair of sandals.

Captain John Parriss and the Loudon County Rescue Squad joined the county officers along with Loudon Police Chief John Lemax. A search of the entire 500 acre in Blair Bend was started.

A search of all barns, farm buildings and empty houses in the area netted two motorcycle helmets and a sweater top identified as that of the missing girl.

Squad members driving along Blair Bend Road about 11:05 spotted Selvidge. He was taken to the Justice Center by Deputy Clemmer and Chief Lemax. After talking with the man the search then was shifted to the river bottom area just to the Southeast of the Carbide plant.

At 12:56 Squad Captain Parriss and Chief Lemax said the girl came walking up to them and asked for a ride out of the area. "They have me surrounded she said."

The girl was later charged on a juvenile petition with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Selvidge was released under $250 bond pending action in General Sessions Court.

For and about Women

Miss Myers, Mr. Gunnels Are Wed

Before an altar decorated with fall flowers, purple and pink asters and mums, and candelabra, Miss Vickie Jane Myers became the bride of Doug Gunnels.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Myers of Greenback. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Gunnels of Lenoir City.

Dr. Harry Mercer officiated at the 7:30 p.m., Aug. 23, double ring ceremony in Pine Grove Presbyterian Church in Greenback.

The ceremony was lighted by large tree candelabra and two 12-branch, arch candelabra, each adorned with nosegays of flowers. Two spirals accented the outside area of the platform with two small tree candelabras. This area also held asters and mums.

A bridal kneeler, decorated with flowers, was placed for the bride couple and candle pew markers, decorated with flowers, formed the path for the bride's entrance.

Green urns filled with purple and pink asters and mums flanked the altar. Selections of wedding music were played by Mark Carver, organist, who played "Our Wedding Prayer," "People," "Sunrise, Sunset," "Sol My World," "Love Story," "Impossible Dream," and the theme from "Romeo and Juliet."

Mrs. Alfred (June) Ham-montree sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Joe Thompson sang "The Wedding Song," "Bride Over Troubled Water" and "Anne's Song." Mr. Thompson accompanied himself with guitar and dulcimer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of organza styled with a V-neckline and flounced sleeves edged with scalloped Venice lace.

The neckline was edged in flower Venice lace. Both bodice and skirt were appliqued with Venice lace flowers.

The waist was accented with orchid satin ribbons with bows and streamers which repeated the color of the bridesmaid's gowns.

The skirt and chapel train were encircled with a deep flounce of pale orchids edged in scallops of lace. The bride wore a Camelet headpiece of Venice flowers accented with a touch of orchid. Her tiered lace-edged chapel-length veil was appliqued with matching Venice flowers. She carried phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis in a cascade of orchid streamers. Her jewelry was a diamond pendant, a gift from the groom.

Attending the bride were Teresa Broyles of Greenville, maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Debbie Light, Johnson City; Kathy Little, Greenback; Becky Nelson, Knoxville; Claudette Carpenter, Greenback; Kim Shepherd, Maryville; Helen McDonald, Atlanta; Jan Moulton Jones, Knoxville; Jill Bell, Greenback.

Angela Roberts was junior bridesmaid.

The attendants' gowns were orchid organza with empire waists edged with white daisies. Their sleeves were of Venetian style. They carried nosegays of asters, roses and chrysanthemums with accents of purple tulips.

Dana and Donny Simerley, twin cousins of the bride, served as flower girl and ringbearer.

The groom's father was his best man. Groomsmen were Rex Shepherd, Bob Little and Tim Disney, all of Greenback. Steve Light, Johnson City; Jerry Easter, Lenoir City; Bill Jones, Dean Reno, Ronnie Brown, Alex D. Lequany, and Bobby Whisman, all of Knoxville.

The groomsmen were all attired in white tuxedos as was the groom.

Jeff Disney and Danny Evans, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles before the ceremony.

Upon entering the church, the bride kissed her mother and presented her with a pink rose. The bride's mother wore a peach chiffon floor-length gown with a ruffled caplet. Her flowers were phalaenopsis orchids and pink roses in a wrist corsage.

The groom's mother was gowned in pale yellow chiffon with a high neckline and full circle skirt. Her flowers were phalaenopsis orchids and yellow roses.

During the recessional, Rickie Bell, cousin of the bride, who was a junior groomsmen, rang the church bell.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

The serving table was covered with an orchid and white lace cloth, and featured two silver candelabra arrangements with purple statice, asters and pink roses.

The walls of the fellowship hall were covered in white with a drape of pink Jersey Orchid ribbon and nosegays of flowers and ivy accented the drape and went down the sides to the floor.

The four tiered cake was designed with a fountain at the base. The cake was topped with a bride and groom in a ring which was interlaced with flowers.

Guests were served coffee, finger sandwiches, sausage balls, cheese balls, melon balls, nuts, mints and crackers.

The groom's cake was four-tiered chocolate and the orchid and white table was decorated with fresh fruit.

A silver fountain on a round table dispensed punch.

A wedding arch decorated with flowers in orchid and pink formed a background for a table of the wedding couple.

Those assisting with serving were Jean McCall, Maryville; Tracy Prestwood, Oak Ridge; Bruce Barwick, Knoxville; Gail Russell and Doris Bailey, both of Lenoir City; Donna Evans and Sandi Disney, both of Greenback.

The groom's cousin, Kathy Hart, distributed scrolls of welcome and appreciation. Mrs. Mike Disney kept the bride's register.

Background music was played by Miss Lynda Hall, Pianist.

Angela Roberts handed out rice bags during the reception. For a wedding trip to Jamaica and Miami Beach, the new Mrs. Gunnels wore a two-piece dress and jacket ensemble in apricot and mauve satin. Her accessories were matching leather and her corsage was of silk roses with apricot and mauve accents.

Mrs. Gunnels is a graduate

You Bet Your Life

by Joyce Stimpson, R.N.

Has one of your relatives had a heart attack? Do you smoke? Do you have high blood pressure? Are you overweight? Are you frequently under stress? Do you avoid regular exercise? If you answer "yes" to two or more of these questions, you may be next in line for a heart attack.

Some background information first, okay? Your heart is a strong muscle about the size of your fist. It needs oxygen and exercise to function properly. Just like any other muscle, your heart gets oxygen from blood vessels going to the heart muscle.

A heart attack occurs when one of these blood vessels becomes clogged by small fatty deposits ("atherosclerosis") and tiny blood clots. The oxygen then cannot get to the heart muscle, causing the muscle to die.

Heart disease often runs in families, as does high blood pressure. High blood pressure, obesity and emotional stress put extra strain on your heart. Smoking narrows (constricts) your blood vessels. This decreases the amount of oxygen getting to your heart, and also causes strain to your heart.

If you have reason to believe that you might have heart disease, see your doctor for a checkup. Prevention of future problems is certainly worth the effort, and it is possible. Of course, not smoking and losing weight will certainly help wondrous for your health in the meantime. Be concerned about YOU.

Workers Honored For Efforts In Cancer Drive

The Loudon County Unit of the American Cancer Society met Thursday night, August 28, to close out the 1975 year and to make award presentations to those doing outstanding work during the Crusade.

Those receiving awards were Mrs. Ed Swenson, Mrs. John Amos, Mrs. Carrie Lee Anderson, Mrs. Josh Tallent, John L. Brown, Broady Harrison, Ted Wampler, Tom Myers and Joe Mourfield.

Clubs receiving awards were the Lenoir City Ruritan Club, Lenoir City Home Demonstration Club, Corinth Home Demonstration Club and the Morning Circle of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. John Merrick, treasurer, announced that the goal of $6,500 had been met.

Mrs. Harry Pease, president of the Loudon County Unit, said that this was by far the best year ever for Loudon County in many areas. She said more people were remembered with memorials, more service was rendered inside the county and more people received lifesaving educational materials.

This year was the beginning of a free Pap Clinic for cancer screening, held monthly in conjunction with the Loudon County Health Department. Mrs. Pease advised Loudon County women to watch for the Pap Clinic Schedule and call for appointments.

Officers were elected for the coming year. Those elected were Mrs. Harry Pease, president; Betty Harrison, secretary; Mrs. John Merrick, treasurer; Mrs. John Morgan, Educational Chairman; Mrs. Bill Lawson, Co-Chairman of Education; Mrs. Jim Price, Service and Mrs. John Simpson, Memorials.

Memorial gifts are welcomed all year. Anyone wishing to make a memorial may do so through Mrs. John Simpson, River Rd., Loudon.

Philadelphia Personals

Like many Americans, Black Americans gave very little attention any at all, to keeping records. Black people always taken pride in ability to remember to recall well, without the written pages. Many Black people feel that even today and have known to refute and deal with written matters disagree with their memories. Some of the Black History consists of "agreements" and remembrances, and so matter of record.

Needmore

The land making settlement of Needmore's only all community, was acquired through purchase from James Thomas Blair, grandfather of Mrs. Steele Harrison and Louise Tipton, extending the E.H. Sutton Clarke A.J. Horton line, to the Harrison, later, Fats, now John C. Harrison property line, and river to the McQueen property. The Rev. C.C. Russell, 68 acres of this land per acre, Jim, John, and Will Brown, bought from two to four each, and among others, purchased building sites on the Claiborne, Isaac Asbury Wilson, Alexander, Melvin, and the Rev. ### SOME OF LODON'S BLACK HISTORY

Like many early Americans, Black Americans gave very little attention, if any at all, to keeping good records. Black people have always taken pride in their ability to remember long, and recall well, without the aid of written pages. Many of our Black people feel this way even today and have been known to refute and disallow all written matters that disagree with their remembrances. Some of Loudon's Black History consists of "agreements" with remembrances, and some is a matter of record.

Needmore The land making up the settlement of Needmore, Loudon's only Black community, was acquired through purchase from Dr. James Thomas Blair, the grandfather of Mrs. Lucy Steele Harrison and Mrs. Louisa Tipton, extending from the Eli Sutton Clarke, now John C. Harrison heirs, property line, and riverward to the McQueen property line. The Rev. C. C. Russell bought six acres of this land at $25 per acre; Jim, John, Arthur, and Will Brown, brothers, bought from two to four acres each; and among others who purchased building sites were the Claibornes, Isaac West, Asbury Wilson, Mark Alexander, Melvira Harris and the Rev. Sam Blair. Around the year 1875 the Rev. Russell built the first house in Needmore, locating it at the top of Needmore Hill and later named the building community Russellville. The name was destined to be changed as the change came about through a chance remark made by Alfred Claiborne of Knoxville. On one of his trips to Russellville to visit his mother, Alfred stopped at the Russell home for a visit also. Looking down on the sparse settlement below, he said, "And you call THIS Russellville! It looks more like Needmore to me - needs more folks, more houses, more of everything!" From that time on the community has been known as Needmore and two of the present day residents are descendants of the first Blacks who settled there. The George Wilson home is the only house still standing of the original homes built. Fires have destroyed some of the older homes and some have been torn down and replaced by modern structures. Other homes have been built on what were vacant lots for many years. The community itself has not extended southward, northward, eastward, or westward - the original boundaries remain, but the view from the top of Needmore Hill today does not suggest the name it has carried through most of its years.

149 Cars For Every 100 People Here Survey Finds

Loudon County is a highly motorized community and is getting more so all the time, a recent survey shows. Even though local residents have cut down sharply during the last year or two on purchases of new cars, because of general economic conditions, there are more cars in use now than there were five years ago.

The facts and figures on automobile populations and operating costs are from the Standard Rate and Data Service, the American Automobile Association and others. The figures show that there were 149 passenger cars in use in Loudon County per 100 families at the beginning of this year, a relatively high

MRS. SELVIDGE
Mrs. Rhoda Lynn Selvidge, age 71, of Route 1, Lenoir City, died Tuesday, August 26 at Fort Sanders Hospital.
Member of Community ratio.
Elsewhere in the United States it was 144 per 100. In the State of Tennessee it was 142. There has been a steady rise throughout the country in multiple car ownership, the Census Bureau reports. Its latest finding is that 34 percent of the households in the United States have two or more cars. The increase is attributed, to a large extent, to the progressive movement of the population from urban to suburban areas, where the automobile is the basic means of transportation.
In Loudon County at the start of this year, automobile registrations came to 12,670, as against the 1970 total of 11,040.
If represented a net increase in the five-year period, after allowing for the number of cars that were scrapped, of 14.7 percent.

Baptist Church
Survivors: husband, Everett Selvidge; daughters, Mrs. James Joyce Asbury of Knoxville, Mrs. Ralph (Pat) Mackdo of Lenoir City, Mrs. Clifford (Jerry) Roberts of Lenoir City, Mrs. Max (Wanda) Hendrix of Lenoir City; sons, Frank W. ## Students To March For St. Jude, Prizes Offered

A Walk for St. Jude Hospital is being sponsored by interested citizens of Loudon County on October 4. The National Honor Society of Lenoir City High School, Student counselors of Loudon and Greenback High, and the Lenoir City Jaycees are all co-sponsoring organizations in promoting the project, getting hundreds of participants and planning the walk.

Bake sales are scheduled every Saturday prior to the walk and will be held in Loudon in front of the Hamilton Bank and in downtown Lenoir City. Items for the bake sales are donated weekly by various groups. Also, a benefit softball game is being scheduled between the Loudon City League All Stars and the Zodiacs Women fast pitch softball from Knoxville. A tentative date of Sept. 20 had been selected. The walk itself will cover 10 miles, beginning at the Lenoir City shopping center and continuing over Highway 95 to where it dead ends, curves back to old Highway 95 and returns to Lenoir City on new 95, ending at the beginning point of the Lenoir Shopping Center.

The walk will be limited to those students in the 8th grade, high school, college and adults. Any participant under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. The walk will be escorted by the Loudon County Sheriff's Department and the Loudon County Rescue Squad.
Sponsor forms will be available at the high school guidance counselors office or by contacting Ted R. Sitzer at 458-3545 after 5:30 p.m., Q. E. Richmond at 458-4312 or Paul Bivens at 458-2545.

Walkers will have sponsors to pledge to pay them money for each mile they walk with all money going to St. Jude Research Hospital.
Prizes will be awarded to the walkers turning in the most money. Two ten-speed bikes will be awarded to the two top money raisers with a 20 inch bicycle as a 3rd place prize. Two $25 gift certificates, 25 silver dollars, an AM-FM radio, walkie-talkies and many more prizes being awarded for the highest money raisers.
Also a trophy will be awarded to the high school that walks the greatest number of miles. A trophy will be given either to Loudon Elementary, Philadelphia, Davis or Steekee School on Quarter Day for St. Jude Hospital. The trophy will go to the school raising the most money on Quarter Day.
A challenge is being issued to the Mayors of each city in the county to start off the walk.

CAPITOL COMMENTARY

By M. LEE SMITH

(c) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

The election of Richard Fulton as Mayor of Metro Nashville has set off what will be a hard-fought contest for his congressional seat in the Democratic Primary.

The election will be one of the first under the new federal campaign laws. For this reason it will be closely watched at the national level.

Officially as candidates in the Democratic Primary are Metro Nashville Tax Assessor Clifford Allen, former U.S. Attorney Gilbert Merritt, State Representative Mike Murphy, and District Attorney Thomas Shriver. Also in is former TV newscaster Bob Olsen in the Republican Primary.

Allen, at 63 a long-time Nashville political figure, is favored to win the seat. He is a former State Senator who ran unsuccessfully for Governor several years ago and for Mayor of Metro Nashville in 1971.

In recent months Allen has become a self-styled consumer advocate. His efforts against public utility for lower rates have met with some success.

Allen critics contend his utility attacks are demagogic and oriented more toward obtaining publicity for himself than relief for the consumer.

It is possible the Allen rhetoric will wear thin by election day. As a prominent Democratic Party official said last week, "Clifford has been known to snatch defeat from the jaws of victory."

If Allen wins, he will receive a strong challenge again next year. Metro Trustee Glenn Ferguson has already served notice he intends to give Allen the remaining months of the term to fulfill his pledge of obtaining lower utility rates. Ferguson says he will run next year.

Several other congressional battles are anticipated across the state in 1976. State Representative Larry Bates has indicated he will challenge incumbent Congressman Ed Jones in the Democratic Primary in the 7th Congressional District.

And the Democratic Party will certainly field a candidate against Republican Robin Beard, now serving his second term in the 8th District. Waverly Mayor Jimmy Powers, who finished near the bottom in last year's Democratic gubernatorial primary, has said he may make the race against Beard.

The two most important contests will likely be in the 3rd and 8th Congressional Districts where the Republican Party lost seats last year.

In the 3rd District Democratic Congressman Marilyn Lloyd has worked diligently, made no major mistakes, and solidified her political base. She is not now expected to have major opposition in the Democratic Primary.

The Republican Party will make determined effort to win the seat. But differences of opinion are developing among the 3rd District Republicans concerning who should be the party nominee.

Former Congressman LaMar Baker wants to run again for the seat he held for two terms until losing to Mrs. Lloyd. Some Republican leaders believe Baker served the district well and can win again. Others disagree.

Among Republicans who would like to run are State Senator Ray Albright of Chattanooga and Representative James E. "Buz" Elkins of Clinton.

In the 8th Congressional District the Republican most likely to win the party nomination for the right to challenge Congressman Harold Ford is State Representative Brad Martin.

Although it is a long time until election day 1976 the best guess now is all incumbents will be reelected. The most likely prospect for defeat of an incumbent is in the 8th District where Martin's chances appear good.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The unfriendly tone of Friendsville should change its name to "Traville." If you should make the slightest bobble while driving through this little village you will surely be stopped by a very polite officer who will firmly cite you to appear before a pompous city judge who will systematically levy $27.50 fines on you and a room full of other unwary citizens.

Speed traps have flourished in small southern towns since the advent of the automobile. However, small towns which found this a lucrative source of revenue have generally remained very small towns. Business and industry shy away from such lack of civic pride.

After driving thirty five years in 47 states and three foreign countries, I got my first traffic ticket via the "Friendsville" speed trap and in my group of defendants, I was not the only one to plead a perfect driving record to no avail. So if you occasionally point with pride to your fine driving record, let me know if you need an example for your teenagers, as I did, then don't risk it by driving through Friendsville.

In these inflated times, the speed trap fine won't break you, but what hurts is that gut gnawing frustration of the innocent feel when unjustly convicted. You stand before a judge, duty bound to administer justice, and watch him blatantly deal out justice or injustice as suits his monetary mood. Speed traps breed contempt for the law, and towns that permit them will slowly wilt under public scorn. Their business will drop because many will regret as I did. I voted to the judge "your town will get $27.50 from me this day but it will lose on me in the long run for I will never set foot in this town again," and I live only four miles away.

Sincerely,
Carroll R. Miller
Rt. 3, Lenoir City, TN 37711

Some May Lose Burley Quotas

A number of Loudon County farms with a Burley tobacco quota will lose the quota for 1976 unless some means of preserving history is taken at once, says Martha Blair, Executive Director of the Loudon County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

Records maintained by ASCS show these farms have not grown tobacco or leased the quota to some other farm during the past four years, so there is no history for that period. The 1975 production on these farms is not yet known.

History may be preserved by growing the crop or leasing the 1975 quota to some other farm or by establishing conservation measures such as the seeding of perennial grasses and legumes and reporting this to the ASCS Office.

Loudon County School Superintendent

Community Education Loudon County is presently seeking qualified applicants for the position of Community Education Director for Loudon County. This position will involve approximately 20 hours time per week in working with Loudon County Schools, the University of Tennessee, and Roane State Community College in setting courses for the citizens (all ages) of Loudon County.

Anyone interested in applying should contact the superintendent's office (458-5411) before Tuesday, September 9th. Interviews will be held on Friday, September 12th (tentative date). To qualify for this position an applicant must have a B-S degree from a college or university, a personal source of transportation, and time available to devote to this assignment.

Board of Education The Loudon County Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, September 11th, at Highland Park Elementary School at 7:00 p.m. The meeting will follow a short tour of the school by members of the Board of Education. The Board feels that only by meeting at the various schools can each member have the opportunity to see personally the conditions that exist. I feel that the Board is to be commended for their decision to rotate the location of meetings in order to see the various schools.

FORK OVER YOUR BEANS

Your soybeans, that is. This year bring them to Gold Kist.

We've a ready, steady market for them through our soybean processing plant at Decatur, Alabama.

Right now the plant is running day and night, so we need a lot of beans to keep it running that way.

Marketing through Gold Kist is a good deal, too.

To help you get in and out fast we have receiving stations all over this area. There's one near you. So truck over.

You'll get quick service and guaranteed accuracy in weighing and grading.

In addition, we offer a number of pricing options and a share in any profits we make.

All this goes for your corn and small grains, too.

Go where you will, you won't find a better way to market.

So this year go Gold Kist. Fork over your crops to us. We have a hungry market waiting for them.

Gold Kist. Good things for the farm and from the farm.

Comments On Possible Listing Of Snail Darter

TVA said that it has responded to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's request for comments concerning the proposed listing of the so-called "snail darter" fish as an endangered or threatened species under the Endangered Species Act.

The three-inch fish allegedly exists only in the Little Tennessee River, a portion of which will be impounded by the completion of TVA's Tellico Dam in January 1977. In a letter to the Fish and Wildlife Service, TVA General Manager Lynn Seiber has "strongly urged" that the fish not be listed. Seiber said that TVA believes "there is no scientific basis to support listing the snail darter, there is no environmental need for such action, and that nothing positive would be accomplished." The position given by TVA:

1. Listing of the fish as "endangered" has no scientific basis, since it has never been classified as a new and distinct species. Before this could be done, a scientific classification of the fish has to be published in a recognized scientific journal for consideration and comment by other fish experts. Until this is done, there is no way of telling whether the fish is already known under some other name in other areas or is a subspecies of some other fish.

Certainly, since the Tellico Dam will not be completed until 1977, there is no justification for shortcutting the customary scientific procedures.

2. There has been no scientific study of the range of the snail darter. There simply is no way to determine whether the fish is found elsewhere until it is officially described. Even if the snail darter is a separate species, experts in the field believe that it undoubtedly exists in parts of the Tennessee River system other than the Tellico project area.

3. As a part of the Tellico project, TVA has entered into agreements with The University of Tennessee and a scientific consulting firm for a systematic program developed after consultation with the Fish and Wildlife Service, to conserve the small darter. This program includes, among other things, establishing the fish in the Hiwassee River. TVA feels that listing the fish would add nothing to these efforts and therefore would not further the purposes of the Endangered Species Act.

4. For these reasons, it is believed that the Endangered Species Act does not permit listing the snail darter as an endangered species. Even if it is listed, however, there would be no need to halt the Tellico project. Tellico is a lawfully authorized Federal project which has been under construction since March 1967. It has been repeatedly funded by Congress, over objections of opponents, and impoundment is presently scheduled for January 1977. Its environmental consequences, including specifically its effect on undescribed species of darters which were thought to be rare and endangered, were fully described and considered in TVA's Environmental Impact Statement for the project. The sufficiency of that statement and the reasonableness of the TVA Board's decision to proceed with construction of the National Environmental Policy Act has been litigated and upheld by both the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals.

CB'ers Asked To Aid React

Loudon County Citizens Bank Radio Club President Jim Thompson this week asked CB operators to maintain low power settings on equipment when operating near Channel 9, the emergency React channel.

He said that the Club has handled a large number of emergency calls through the React channel but at times has been interfered with by persons operating on channels 8 and 10 due to "bleed" from high power settings.

But never anything as safe. It's a ground-fault interrupter (GFI). A GFI senses ground faults, electricity escaping from improperly grounded or defective electrical equipment—electricity that could kill you. But that's why the GFI was developed—to stop electrocutions caused by ground faults.

A GFI is instant safety. When it senses "leaked" electricity, it automatically shuts off the power before a dangerous shock can occur. (It can also double as a circuit breaker.)

We know it looks ugly, but a GFI could save your life. So check with your electrician today about installing a GFI at your house.

Roane State Registration September 18

Fall quarter registration at Roane State Community College will be held this year on Thursday, September 18, with classes to begin on the following Monday, September 22.

This fall marks the beginning of the third year since the college moved into new facilities on Patton Lane, three miles off Interstate 40 at the Harriman-Rockwood exit. Students entering Roane State for the first time are advised to contact the Admissions Office prior to Registration Day because a number of students have been pre-registering since mid-July. As a result, many courses are filling rapidly.

The Admissions Office at Roane State is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. or prospective students may make inquiries by phone by calling 354-2000. A number of brochures are available describing many of the courses of study at Roane State.

Fall Quarter classes will continue through December 5. Final exams are scheduled for December 8-10.

NEW CONTEST RULES

Read Before Completing Entry

1. Clip the contest entry blank on this page, or make a reasonable facsimile. The 10 contest games are numbered according to appearance in the entry blank in sponsoring firms advertisements below. List the sponsor's name in the blank beside the corresponding game. This is required for your entry to be scored. Also estimate the total number of points which you think will be scored by both teams in the "Tiebreaker" game listed on the entry blank. This will be used only if it is necessary to break a tie between contestants.
2. Only one entry per person may be submitted. Employees (or their immediate families) of the Loudon County Herald are not eligible to enter this contest. Players of teams in contest are not eligible.
3. All entries must be deposited in the contest box in the Herald office by 5 p.m. Friday or postmarked not later than 5 p.m. Friday, if mailed. Entries received after that time will not be eligible. Address all entries to FOOTBALL CONTEST, The Loudon County Herald, Loudon, Tennessee.
4. Entries will be judged on the number of games right. In case of a tie, the contestant coming the nearest to the actual number of points scored in the Tiebreaker game will be awarded the prize. The names of each week's winners will be printed in the Herald on the following week. All contestants agree that the decision of the judges will be final, and all entries become the property of the Herald.

Loudon Pee Wee's Sweep Past Tellico Youth Teams

The Loudon Quarterback Club sponsored Pee Wee Football program bounced back this past weekend from its opening season encounter with Lenoir City to trounce home standing Tellico in each division of play.

The Loudon Grasscutters coached by Frank Henson, Donnie Coster, and Bill Lennox prevailed in the opening game 30-6.

The Mustangs kept pace by racing to a 21-0 triumph.

Randy Lethgo and Mark McCall turned in several standout blocks for quarterback Billy Moore. Pat Brown exhibited some good runs while Kevin White, Lloyd Cook and Tony Lennox all accounted for touchdowns. Lennox also snagged a two point conversion pass.

The Mustangs are coached this fall by JoJo Henson, Kenny Everett, Penn Campbell, and Jack Nichols.

The Loudon Indians made the trip a clean sweep by downing their foes 30-0. Indian coaches Buster Custard and Ed Waller lauded the defensive play of Greer Carcy.

Kent Everett, Perry Purdy, Stacy Cole, Steve Buchanan, David Mallock, and Donnie Eldridge for the shutout performance.

Offensively quarterback John Cardwell had one of his top showings as did Kerry Branthoover.

Branthoover set up the first score on a 40 yard pass and run. A 10 yard aerial from Cardwell to Branthoover placed Loudon ahead.

Cardwell finished the night off with a pass interception and return of 55 yards to the two yard line. A quarterback sneak accounted for the second TD.

A pair of Branthoover receptions and a short plunge by Cardwell put the game in safe hands.

Fullback Waller Henry received a high grade for his power efforts and offensive blocking.

Loudon has a conference open date this weekend and unless a game can be scheduled outside the league will rest Saturday night.

Team pictures are planned for Monday afternoon at the old Loudon High School Field.

Loudon County Prep Teams "Ready" For '75 Grid Campaigns

The 1975 high school football season stepped off to a medium to fairly heavy start this past weekend. And as fate would have it the first week was not without its surprises.

No Loudon County team saw action last Friday night, but a full slate of activity is scheduled for this week.

Greenback visits Seymour on Thursday night. Kick-off is planned for 7:30 p.m.

New Eagle coach Gary Householder won his first game this past weekend as Seymour intercepted four passes in preserving a 5-0 win over Sunbright.

The Cherokee's are expected to put the ball in the air with authority and should really test the Eagle secondary as Greenback quarterback Rocky Kizer will be bringing forth his favorite receiver

Harold Hawkins or a reliable Lynn Rucker.

Bobby Smith, Randy Evans, Danny Dotson, and Kizer are capable Cherokee's set to handle the chores of grinding out real estate on the ground.

The Cherokee opener should provide an interesting battle with both teams much on par with one another.

Loudon and Lenoir City take the wraps off the fall workouts and put the pads on for real Friday night.

The Redskins journey to Knoxville Powell for the season opener for both clubs.

The defending double-A champion Redskins will get the nod of favorite despite being the visitor in this one, mostly from last year's results.

Nevertheless the Panther offense should take the battle to the Loudon defense and a depleted Redskin offensive unit, due to spring graduation.

For those football fans that will be patronizing the Loudon-Knoxville Powell football game Friday night, but unfamiliar with the exact travel location, the following directions are suggested.

Take U.S. North, turn off the Lexington Exit, then continue on 175 North to Emory Road. Exit, turn left on Emory Road, go approximately three miles, the school is located on the left.

may find the Powell defense better than what they have shown in jamboree and scrimmages efforts once the pigskin is placed on the tee for real.

Loudon's frame of mind as a team could be difference in what otherwise appears from a distance as a good season opening test to get the Redskins to playing football.

Lenoir City takes its 1-0 opening of 1974 to McMinn Central Friday night. The Panthers lost only twice, both to Loudon, last year, but has already taken a solid one on McMinn Central gridders.

The Loudon and Lenoir City season openers are scheduled for 8 p.m. kick-offs.

Loudon County grid followers traveling to view their respective teams in their fall openers are urged to get early starting times in departing for the games so as to minimize all possible traffic risk.

Loudon Football Season Tickets Go On Sale

The Loudon Redskin Athletic Department has placed on sale season tickets for the 1975 football season at the Loudon High School Office.

Loudon Principal Jim Gibson stated that the season ticket package for an adult is $7.00 and $3.00 for students.

The Redskins play four home games this fall out of a nine game regular season, the first game on Dukes Field this fall will be four games into the schedule against Crossville (AAA), on Sept. 26.

Other games to be played in Loudon are October 3, McMinn Central; October 17, Knoxville Young; and November 7, Goodlettsville.

All reserve season tickets must be purchased one week before the first initial home contest.

All tickets, adult or student purchased at the gate on the night of a game are straight $2.00.

Tickets for each individual home game will be on sale the night of each game at all three Loudon Drug Stores and across the counter at the office of the high school.

LC Golfer Gets Scholarship

Gary Dye, known as "Frog" to most everyone, highly skilled Lenoir City High School Golfer for the past three years, has received a Golf Scholarship to Hiwassee Junior College.

Dye, who graduated this past spring, has been termed one of the best young talented golfers in the area. He shoots par golf or better on most of the courses he plays. He has won the MVP trophy for Lenoir City's top golfer for the last three springs.

Gary sparked Lenoir City's Golf team to a 4-0 game victory season this past spring out of some 51 matches. Dye has won the amateur division golf title at several tournaments in the past two years and placed on top of the high school district golfers this past year.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dye, Turman Drive of Lenoir City and is the first Lenoir City or Loudon Countyman to ever be awarded a college golf scholarship.

Church Hill Decides On Early Game

It must be terribly confusing to coach at Church Hill. No disrespect of course, but the Panthers, who are coming off a year of TSSA probation, apparently checked signals on Coach J.W. SALLY AGAIN.

The Church Hill head coach agreed to a Loudon season opening encounter with Loudon for this past Friday night, only to call back in less than 12 hours saying his team voted to not play the Redskins and he would comply with their wishes. Thus Loudon has had to settle for a nine game regular season schedule for a third time in the last four years.

Church Hill gave the impression they would just have to "tuff out a nine game slate." But, check those signals, Saturday's papers find the Panthers notched a last minute addition to their schedule "win over Sullivan East 35-0.

In their opening night football results Knoxville Hule mauled Maryville 30-8. The Rebels are supposed to be second to none for East Tennessee this fall. Looks like they are second to none now. Friendsville decked Wartburg 34-6 and may be for real in Region One. "A" play Rockwood, Madisonville, Sweetwater and South Pittsburg all opened with wins in Region Two "A" wars. Madisonville and Rockwood clash this week. Drop one pearl one in the big four contenders of that region.

Myself and many other people have been under the impression that the Bacon Farm had been sold to TV.

Myself and many other people have been under the impression that the Bacon Farm had been sold to TV, and that a person need not ask to hunt on that property.

I found out differently. The Bacon Farm is still private property under the supervision of Ed Cifers and hunting on that property is allowed by permission only. If you want to hunt on the farm you must have Mr. Cifers' permission.

When hunting on someone else's property, treat it as you would your own. Close gates, crawl under fences, not over them, and do not leave empty shells or other litter on the ground. Be courteous and respect the landowner's rights.

Grid Contest Has New Format

Once again the Loudon County Herald and 30 Loudon County firms are offering $300 in cash prizes over a 12 week period in The 1975 Football Contest, starting this week.

There is something new that contestants must watch for this year. The 10 contest games are listed in the entry blank on the contest page, but the name of the firm sponsoring the game must be listed in the entry blank by the contestant. The games are listed in the sponsor's advertisement and the game of the sponsor must be listed beside the corresponding game in the entry blank or the entry will be declared thrown out.

As usual the best entry wins. Many times the breaker (number of points scored by both teams in the number 1 game) decides the winner in case there are two or more entries with the same number of correct games.

The cash prize each week totals $25. Twelve dollars to the first place, $8 to second and $5 to third.

Complete rules are included in the contest page. Entries must be mailed to The Herald or brought by the office on Mulberry Street before 3 p.m. on Friday.

Flag Football League To Be Considered

There will be a meeting for all persons interested in forming a flag football league at Civitan Field Monday 7 p.m. City Recreation Director Mike Denton announced this week. He said any man 18 years or older will be eligible for the league.

Denton emphasized that anyone interested in the formation of the league should be at the meeting or get in touch with him. He said the meeting will be used as a gaggle for determining interest in the league. If only a few men show up, there will be no league. Denton said.

For more information call Mike Denton at 966-2715.

Rookie Sophomores Get Varsity Test Friday As Loudon Travels To Knox Powell

The Loudon Redskins settled serious business last week in regard to their 1975 football season opener against Knoxville Powell come Friday night.

DAVID BLACK

Loudon, faced with the defense of the 1974 double-A state championship, will journey to Panthertown with a squad depleted heavily by graduation and fall injuries.

"We are no means at full strength nor will our execution be that of a veteran team," reminded Coach Ratledge. Gary Brown, 245 pound sophomore, has reported for duty following recovery of surgery on his feet. But the prospective line star is not in condition for that much help at this time and is still on a slow pace in favoring his surgery.

Senior runningback Porky Campbell is gone for some 10 weeks with a knee injury. Other Redskins have minor, nagging bruises and injuries that have hampered fall 100 percent efforts and thus cut down on preparation.

With graduation claiming 17 seniors from last fall, sophomores are being groomed to fill the vacant topholes.

Four first year varsity performers that must come of age in a hurry, seeing how they will be seeing plenty of combat come Friday night are defensive back David Black, defensive back and reserve runningback Freddie Starritt, defensive end and receiver Jim Brown, and linebacker and runningback Mark Moore.

"Yes, they will all play a lot come Friday night," spoke Bert Ratledge. "Many people figure us to be tough, we should win our share but inexperience of players not having played regular at key positions will hurt until we have played some games. Otherwise I feel the boys holding down the various positions can in time do excellent jobs," evaluated Ratledge.

Mike Brookshire will handle the punting at Loudon since Ratledge dedicated several practices this week to punt coverage and return duties.

Brookshire is a junior and has been erratic in getting off his punts. "Mike is learning, but he sometimes is inconsistent from a good snappy 23 time to punt the ball up in as much as three seconds," confessed Ratledge.

"Mike is strong and getting stronger in his legs. Game experience will help. Once he develops consistency he will be fine."

TO PUNT FOR REDSKINS—Mike Brookshire appears to have won the punting duties for the Loudon Redskins this fall. The junior lineman has shown much promise as a punter and with experience could develop into a tremendous asset to the Redskins this fall.

Coach Ratledge says that he and Coach Gibson (defense and line coordinator), will have about 35 boys in tune for varsity playing time come Friday night. "We hope we can use more," assured Coach Gibson.

This is the largest football squad at Loudon since Ratledge started coaching in 1957. Fifty-six varsity and some 20 plus freshmen.

Loudon will use two quarterbacks apparently, Greg Deathridge and Carter Cardwell, both juniors, for the first game. It's the first time Coach Ratledge can remember he has had such capable depth at directing the team. Eddie Estes, a sophomore "Lefty" could see some playing time on occasion.

Larry Bridges, who has turned out some splendid freshman teams over the past three seasons has been moved up to full time varsity coaching. Bridges, a physical education instructor at Steeke Elementary, will handle much of the scouting duties along with this year's freshmen coaches Gordo Watson and Bill Thompson.

Otherwise he will serve both Coach Ratledge and Coach Gibson in establishing the overall game plan for each week's Friday night opponent.

Johnson City Team Wins Labor Day Softball Tournament

The Loudon Labor Day Weekend Softball Tournament concluded a day earlier than what was previously announced, but the caliber of softball talent was all that was to be expected.

Defending champion Hamilton First National Bank of Oak Ridge lost its first game of the double elimination play down and was able to advance no farther than the semi-finals of the loser's bracket before departing.

Amvets of Johnson City, pushed to the maximum number of games possible for the title by Harrison Sporting Goods of Maryville, captured the holiday event.

Amvets path to the championship started with a 9-4 win over Union Valley. Amvets polished off High Rule Construction 15-9 and advanced to the winner's bracket finals by downing O'Kains Insurance of Oak Ridge 11-3.

The Champs then had to recover from a 7-6 loss to Harrison Sporting Goods in the Sunday finals by capturing the title game with a stingy 9-2 score.

Harrison bolted past E.C. Russell Tompkins Company 10-8 and Eaton Corporation Number 2, 5-3, before dropping to the loser's bracket from a defeat by O'Kains 8-4. Harrison then eliminated the defending tournament champions, Hamilton Bank of Oak Ridge 15-4. A tough 5-3 decision of High Rule Construction and a revenge win over O'Kains by a 6-1 count returned them into contention for this year's title.

O'Kains placed third and High Rule Construction of Maryville wound up fourth.

All the Loudon County entries, Eaton Number 2, a reconstructed Loudon Merchant team, and the Greenback-Blue Devil team, was able to last more than three games.

David Lane of Harrison Sporting Goods was the Home Run King and tournament Most Valuable Player. The slick infielder collected 16 hits out of 26 official times at bat and two walks. He lashed four home runs.

Clifford Brown turned a defensive save into a touchdown on a tumble recovery and run. Steve Arnold, proving to be a blue chip performer defensively and offensively, added two scores on a pass reception and run of over 60 yards and a jaunt through the Powell defense in the scrimmage late stages for a 3-0 conquest.

The Panther defense is expected to be the last of the hard hitting and live tackling before the Panthers play for real at McMin Central Friday night.

LC, Greenback Capture Scrimmages; Intersquad Play A "Hit" With Redskins

The Loudon County High School football teams are busy this week with final game plans in regard to starting the 1975 football season come Friday night.

Lenoir City again staged a full scale workout with Knoxville Powell having defeated them in a scrimmage at LC only a week past.

Clifford Brown turned a defensive save into a touchdown on a tumble recovery and run. Steve Arnold, proving to be a blue chip performer defensively and offensively, added two scores on a pass reception and run of over 60 yards and a jaunt through the Powell defense in the scrimmage late stages for a 3-0 conquest.

HALL TO START—Lenoir City senior fullback and linebacker Danny Hall has become a leader in the "new life" atmosphere of the Lenoir City football team. The Panthers with a determined outlook on the start of 1975 campaign will hinge a lot of their success on the overall play of Hall. Danny was an All Loudon County performer in 1974.

Women Headline Atomic Races

For the first time in more than five years women will be in the spotlight Saturday night at Atomic Speedway. The occasion is a 10-lap powder puff derby to be run in conjunction with the late model sportsman program.

"We ran a powder puff derby the first year we opened," said track owner Bob Martin. "Since that time, only once has a powder puff race been suggested. That died down, but the girls aren't letting us off the hook on this one. They're keeping after us to have it, so now they're getting their chance."

As many as 12 to 15 drivers are expected to run in the event. Most of them will be the wives of drivers, according to

Martin. "I'd like for the women to run more than 10 laps," Martin said, "but I'm not sure the fans could take it. The race should, and most likely will be a wild one."

Racing is scheduled for late model sportsman drivers and Class B competitors following time trials which launch the meet at 8:30. Admission for the special event will be the same as for regular weekly shows - $3.50 (reserved) and $3 (general admission). Children under 12 years are accompanied by an adult.

Following this week's racing, the next event is slated for Sept. 20.

Loudon Tennis Tournament Deadline Extended

The deadline for entry in the Loudon Recreation Tennis Tournament has been extended.

Loudon Recreation Director Bill Birkholz announced late Tuesday that only some 36 people had entered the tournament that drew over 80 performers last fall. "We are going to extend the deadline until noon Saturday," stated Birkholz. "I hope more interest can be generated by then."

There will be eight divisions to the singles only tourney and is limited to Loudon County residents. First and second place trophies will be given in each division. Two "Championship" trophies of some 38 inches in height will go to the winner of the Men and Women classes.

The entry fee is $2.00 and each player must furnish one can of new tennis balls. Entry forms may be picked up at Loudon City Hall, from Bill Birkholz (458-5104 or 458-4104), or by mailing in the entry form found in this newspaper.

Mr. Birkholz encourages everyone interested to please get in contact with him for this will be the final extension for entering the tournament.

Ali-Frazier "Rubber Match" To Be Telecast In Knoxville

The long awaited "rubber match" between heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali and Joe Frazier will be telecast live via closed circuit TV on Tuesday, September 30 at the Knoxville Civic Auditorium Coliseum.

All lost the championship fight on March 8, 1971, in what was billed as Super Fight I, but gained revenge in 1974 by defeating Frazier in a non-title bout. Both fights went the 12 round distance. It will again be a big payday for both fighters with Ali guaranteed $4.5 million and Frazier guaranteed $2 million against 22 percent.

Tickets for the Knoxville telecast are $8 in advance or $10 the day of the telecast. Mail orders are now being accepted at the Coliseum Box Office.

LC To Host 5-Day Stop Smoking Clinic

The Five-Day Stop Smoking Plan will begin September 14 in the Lenoir City Utilities Building at 7:15 p.m., says Jim Wilburn, President of the Loudon County Health Council.

The nationally successful Five-Day Plan involves five evening group therapy sessions and a daily personal control program which can really help you kick the habit.

"Hundreds of thousands of people have gone through the Plan since it began almost 15 years ago," says Co-sponsor Norman Lunt, Seventh-day Adventist Pastor. "The program has a very high rate of success. Very simply, we believe it's the best way to stop smoking."

There is no charge for the clinic. For more information and advance reservations call 986-5831 after 5:30 p.m.

FmHA Lends $1,890,660 To 51 Loudon County Families

A total of fifty-one County families were served by the Farmers Home Administration during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1975, with the loans exceeding $1,890,660, according to an announcement this week by William L. Mason, the agency's local County Supervisor.

Farmers Home Administration is the rural credit arm of the U.S. Department of Agriculture which makes Rural Housing Loans, Farm ownership loans, Farm Operating Loans, Community Service loans and Emergency Loans.

County Supervisor Mason said that forty-six families are now living in new or better homes and enjoying modern conveniences for the first time as a result of Farmers Home Administration's Rural Housing program activities during the past year. These forty-six Rural Housing Loans involved a total of $1,277,960 that went into the local economy. This served as a shot in the arm to the local building industry, carpenters, plumbers, electricians, household businesses and insurance people. Every new house that is built also raises the tax base in Loudon County. This helps the local government and contributes to a viable community and economy. In addition to the one hundred forty (140) families being served by the housing and farming programs, there are two hundred thirty (230) rural customers who are now receiving a pure water supply as a result of water utility district loans made in the past. Most all of the loans are set up for repayment over a period of from seven to 40 years at reasonable rates of interest. This enables each loan to be calculated and set up within the borrower's ability to repay.

County Supervisor Mason added that State Director Paul M. Koger has announced that $78,586 was loaned in Tennessee during the past fiscal year for new, safe and decent rural houses, and that some funds will be available for Rural Housing loans in Tennessee during the current fiscal year. Koger's announcement also said that

TO: Unknown Owners You are hereby notified that the plaintiff has commenced the above-captioned case in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at the city of Knoxville, Tennessee, in and to the tract of land and burial and access rights in certain land in Loudon County, Tennessee, which is described in Exhibit A attached hereto and claim an interest for the use of the Tennessee Valley Authority in the construction, operation, and maintenance of Tellico Dam and Reservoir. Said land and the interest taken therein are described in Exhibit A which is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

The authority for the taking is the Tennessee Valley Authority Act of 1933, as amended, 16 U.S.C. § 831-831d (1970; Supp. III, § 831-831d) and the Federal Land Acquisition and Control Act of 1945, as amended, 16 U.S.C. § 831-831d (1970; Supp. III, § 831-831d). If you desire to present any objection or defense to the taking of the property described in Exhibit A, you are required to serve your answer on the plaintiff's attorney at the time and place set forth in the summons filed on or after September 11, 1975. Your answer shall identify the property in which you claim an interest, state the nature and extent of the interest you claim, and state all of your objections and defenses to the taking. Your failure to do so constitutes a consent to the taking and to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court in and to the action and to fix the compensation.

If you have no such objection or defense to this property, you need not file an answer but may instead serve upon the plaintiff's attorney a notice of appearance designating the property in which you claim an interest. Thereafter you will receive notice of all proceedings in this case affecting the property. At the trial of the issue of just compensation, whether or not you have previously appeared or answered, you may present evidence as to the amount of the compensation to be paid for your property, and you may share in the distribution of the award.

Rule 71A(d) (2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires that a deed be provided within the district in which this action is brought where the plaintiff's attorney may be served. Such an address is Robert H. Marquis, General Counsel, Tennessee Valley Authority, Knoxville, Tennessee 37902. Robert H. Marquis, General Counsel, Tennessee Valley Authority, Knoxville, Tennessee 37902. Charles W. Van Buren, Assistant General Counsel, Don O. Whitehead, Paul T. Dunn, Attorneys for Plaintiff

Rock, Soil Formations Help Determine Land Use Plan

"Soils and rock formations are extremely important in determining land uses and growth patterns for Loudon County," according to Steve Campbell, staff planner with the Tennessee State Planning Office (TSP/O) in Knoxville. A detailed examination of soils, rock formations and other natural factors which affect land use development in Loudon County is provided in the 1960 Loudon County Land Use Analysis and Plan, an official report recently prepared and adopted by the Loudon County Regional Planning Commission with TSP/O assistance. The report identifies nine soil association groups in Loudon County. Each soil group has different characteristics which affect the type of construction that should occur on the land. The nine soil groups were rated to have either slight, moderate or severe limitations on certain types of land uses.

"To this regard," Campbell stated, "the study shows that certain areas of the county should be developed slowly due to the potential high cost of grading, and of providing drainage facilities, urban services and the like."

"Other areas," he continued, "which have soils conducive to development, should experience the majority of the county's growth."

The study points out that local planning commissioners and elected officials should understand that even though certain areas of the county are in the path of expanding urbanization, this does not mean that they should be extensively developed. "The cost of contending with the problems created by development in certain areas may far outweigh the benefits gained," Campbell continued.

For example, the study shows that in the East of Crossroads community one of the dominant soil association groups is characterized as having low fertility and shallow depth to bedrock. Such conditions create severe limitations with respect to wastewater disposal.

"Considerable attention must therefore be given to guiding growth in this area in such a manner as to avoid health-related problems," Campbell explained.

"These findings also suggest that attention should be given in providing the Eaton Crossroads community and other areas having the same problems with public sewerage facilities," he said.

Seven groups of rock formations are also identified in the land use and analysis plan—with each group having certain characteristics which affect the land's suitability for sustaining different land uses.

For example, one of the groups—the Knox formation—is one of the most important water-bearing rock formations in the county. "Extensive development in areas of the county overlying the Knox formation could have adverse effects on ground water yields," Campbell explained.

The study also points out that certain rock formation groups in the county have considerable mineral value. Known deposits of barite (the chief source of barium chemicals), fluorite, and possibly zinc ore exist in the county. With regard to each of

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

One of our pictures this week is one we have had for quite awhile and we are just now getting around to running it. Sometimes we put pictures away and plan to use them sooner than we do, but they get in the batch and we only recall them when going through our files and come across them. This probably proves how forgetful we are. Anyways, we offer our apologies wherein they are due.

This picture was made on the fire escape at Loudon First Baptist Church during Bible School several years ago. Not many people know this fire escape exists. It is on the back side of the church building and has not ever been used for fire escape, which is good. The boys in the picture are all well known Loudon boys. Now they are men and some live in other areas. We can't name them but we are sure many people will be able to identify them in this old picture.

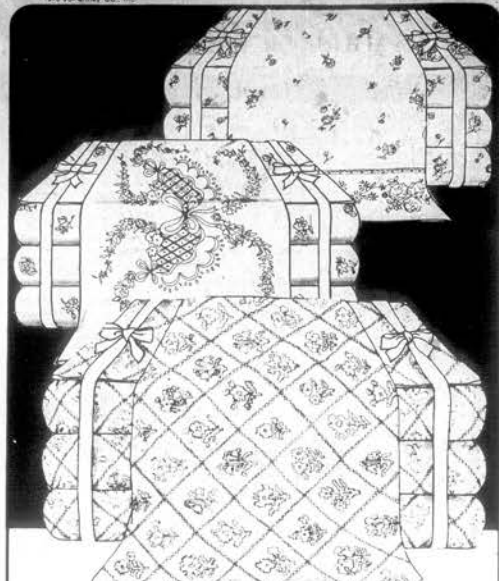

Our other picture this week was taken in a drug store. We say this because of the presence of Dr. Goins Harrison, a well known Loudon man who operated and worked on the streets in Loudon, Knoxville and other places. We think we recognize some of the faces, but we are not sure. We hope some of our readers can offer some identity as to who they are. We always like Dr. Harrison. He had many friends in East Tennessee. He was the son of Dr. Joe Harrison.

have been having a lot of people say to it that it is not as bad as the Summer of 1925, and I am sure they are right. For one thing, it hasn't been as dry as it was that year. I think that was the year the song "Ain't Gonna Rain No More" came on the scene. I believe that during that summer the drought was pretty general across the United States. I have mentioned before the fact that you could wade the river from Loudon over to Harrison's Island. Now I can't prove this but I will venture a good guess that anyone around that summer will recall other things just as unusual. People were hauling water everywhere. Springs, cisterns and wells were all about dried up and creeks/beds in many places were dust bowls. So, it may be hot this summer but we have had a lot more rain than fell in the summer of 1925.

We have a very dear friend of ours who has been recording daily temperature readings in Loudon for many years. We promised not to use his name. We have intended to call him and find out what he has recorded on the hottest day in years past. It could be that it has been a lot hotter in the past. Maybe we can find out and pass it on to you in a later column.

Some of our readers who follow nature's signs say we are going to have an early fall based on nature's early signs. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Wallace Mills of the THP said the young man was a passenger in a car driven by Clark Smith Jr., 19, also of Alabama. He stated the Smith car ran off I-40 just inside the Loudon County line near Knox County.

FFA Alumni To Organize

The Loudon Future Farmers of America Chapter is beginning a drive to recruit former FFA members to join the ranks of becoming alumni members of the Future Farmers of America. The alumni association is made up of former Future Farmers and anyone in the community who is interested in the FFA and vocational agriculture. This local drive is part of a state and national effort currently underway to unite former members into the FFA Alumni Association.

School Board Meets At Highland Park

The Loudoun County Board of Education will hold its first "in school" meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Highland Park School. The board decided at its last meeting it would begin holding meetings in the various schools in the county to give the board members an opportunity to visit in the school plants.

Further work on a priority plan for a county-wide school renovation and building program is expected to be the key item on the agenda, Superintendent Edward Headlee said.

Other items on the agenda will be the consideration of the sale of the Luttrell School property; theft insurance for school property; board policy of leaves during the school term.

The building program will include a decision of Browder School, setting of priorities; authorization for cost estimates by the architect; and consideration of use of school planning at UT to assist in determining educational specifications for the priority one schools.

Superintendent Headlee will report on the Superintendent's Study Council set for later this month; state funds situation; the community education program; and bus driver classes.

Short Docket Awaits Grand Jury Action

The upcoming session of Criminal Court, scheduled to start with Grand Jury action Monday, has one of the smallest dockets in some time. The very small number of bound over cases, 37 at this time, is in sharp contrast to the more than 110 at the last session.

The bound over cases which will be considered by the Grand Jury next week are as follows:

- Pam Wilkerson, selling beer to a minor; John W. Cain, speeding; Paul Monger, uttering and passing a forged instrument; Carl Hinkle, receiving and concealing; John Jenkins, assault and battery and malicious and willful damage to personal property; Fred Morgan, assault on a minor; Lorene Kay Kirkland, possession of whiskey for resale; Donald Eugene Waitrop, possession of whiskey for resale; Clarence Jenkins, public drunkenness; John J. # Kimsey, Randolph On School Board, Henry Appointed Inspector By Squires

MR. KIMSEY

MR. RANDOLPH

Ted Randolph and Gary Kimsey, both of Loudoun, were appointed to the Loudoun County Board of Education by County Court Monday, despite a charge by Squire Floyd Duckworth of a deal and an appeal to the court to name a Philadelphia resident, Doyle Arp to oppose each of the two nominees.

The two new members were named to succeed Bob Carter and Jim Cardwell, who both resigned about a month after being appointed to the board.

All three First and Fourth District Squires nominated candidates for the board openings. Bledsoe nominated Kimsey, Jim Blair backed Ted Randolph and Duckworth was behind Arp.

Duckworth claimed that the Fourth District was left out of the board and was not represented. He said that the trading went on without saying so meant that Blair and Bledsoe got together and agreed to support the nominees of the other. Duckworth asked that the Judge ask for a legal opinion on the appointment of the school board and further that the new court legislative committee be prepared to have the board elected by the voters removing the burden from county court.

Squire Blair said that Bledsoe had asked him to support Kimsey and he felt that Bledsoe would only nominate a qualified person and agree to vote for Kimsey, but there was no deal or trade made between the two. Duckworth said before the court meeting he was going to nominate Arp, who is in the tool and die business in Loudoun. He did not want to have the votes to defeat the other nominees.

Kimsey received votes from Squires Blair, Bledsoe, Jim Hartsook, Curtis Williams and R.P. Hamilton. Arp received support from Duckworth and Hudson. Squire I.D. Conner said he did not back Kimsey for the first time in 15 years on the court passes.

On the roll call between Randolph and Arp the vote was 6-2 for Randolph. Arps withdrawal were Duckworth and Hudson.

After the vote Squire Bledsoe asked the question of electing the school board members. Judge Russell said he would refer the matter to the Legislative Committee he appointed at the session. The committee is headed by R.P. Hamilton with Squires Blair and Williams as members.

Mr. Kimsey, a native of Bradley County, came to Loudoun County in 1969 when he was employed by the Marmont Corporation. He resided in Philadelphia for four years before being transferred to Nashville by Marmont. In January of this year he moved back to Loudoun after accepting a position as General Manager of Gen Tron Corporation of Sweet Springs. The firm manufactures tempered flat glass for appliances, control panels and oven doors.

The family recently moved into a new home on Butler Drive just outside the City of Loudoun. Kimsey is married to the former Sue Matthews of Cleveland. They have two daughters, Kimberly, 12 and Karmen, 8.

He is a 1960 graduate of Bradley County High, received a bachelors degree in Business Administration from UT-Chattanooga in 1966 and has done work toward his masters degree at UT-Knoxville. He is 33 years old.

While the family resided in Philadelphia Mr. Kimsey was President of the Philadelphia Parent-Teacher Association for two years. He is a member of the Philadelphia First Baptist Church.

Mr. Randolph, 47, is a native Loudoun Countyman. He has been employed by Union Carbide Edwards-Packaging Division at Loudoun for 18 years. He is currently an operator in the CED area.

Randolph, a member and deacon of First Baptist Church, attended Loudoun High School and has some college work at the University of Tennessee. He was Civil Defense Director of Loudoun County for eight years and has served with obtaining a substantial number of grants and numerous pieces of equipment for the county while holding the office. He was also very active in planning the new Justice Center and getting Civil Defense participation in the construction of the facility.

Randolph resides on River Road in Loudoun. He is married to the former Filanche Jones of Philadelphia. They have one daughter, Mrs. Ann Stafford, who lives in Colorado, and a son Ted Jr. who is with the Human Resources Agency.

Inspector Named
Jack Henry, owner of Elworth Shoe Store in Loudoun and Lenoir City, and formerly a state employee recently was named as County Building Inspector. Henry desired Allen L. Bowman in a roll call vote. Henry was nominated by Squire Hamilton, Bowman by Conner.

Before the nominations Judge Russell urged the inspector because requests for regular inspections of houses, commercial buildings and additions were piling up in the office because the county did not have an inspector.

In the recent budget process Squire Duckworth successfully cut a move drastically cut back the inspector's budget to the level of 1973 when the position was a part-time job. After this the building inspector resigned and the office has been vacant for about 10 weeks.

Judge Russell said that Henry would be paid at the rate established by the county personnel plan, but that the budget adopted by the court would be about $5,000 short of the amount needed to operate the position during the year. He said the financial portion of the matter would be put on the October budget. Henry was supported by Squires Bledsoe, Duckworth, Williams, the Hudson manufacturer and Bowman received votes from Blair, Conner and Hartsook.

Resoning Opposed
John Weston and Roger Davis, developers of Blair Bend Subdivision, appeared before the court to oppose the planned rezoning of the W.D. Williamson farm on the Bend from residential to manufacturing.

The City of Loudoun is in process of condemning the 288 acre Williamson farm for an industrial park. Weston and Davis until recently held a one year option on the Williamson farm but failed to exercise the option after they were unable to obtain a suitable farm in Oregon for the family.

Mr. Davis claims that since his subdivision, which has lots priced from $5,500 to $11,000, overlooks the Williamson farm any industrial development would ruin the economic potential of the State Planner Steve Campbell said that Davis had every opportunity to obtain the Williamson farm but failed and that the City of Loudoun was for the first time in a position to get federal funding for the purchase and development of an industrial park. He said that the Williamson were wanting to sell and the City wanted to buy and it would be unfair to the property owners to make them wait until a developer, whom it be Davis or someone else come along with the money to buy the farm.

"The deal is an industrial dream," Campbell said, "and the way the property lays out, the buffers can be designed in to make industrial and residential development compatible."

No action was taken on the matter, but a public hearing on rezoning is scheduled for the October meeting of the county court. The Loudoun County Planning Commission has already approved the rezoning and recommended affirmative court action on the issue.

Another public hearing for rezoning has been scheduled for October which would clear the way for a major shopping center development on Highway 45 by the Lenoir City Company.

The rezoning of a parcel of land owned by Jim Hartsook between Martel Road and Highway 11 was approved. This property will also be used for a shopping center development, with a building containing about 75,000 square feet.

Muddy Creek Road
Squire Jim Hartsook said that the refusal of four property owners along Muddy Creek to sell their U.S. 11 and Martel Road, was endangering the project that would include and rebuild the curves, replacing old bridges and eliminating dangerous curves. He said that four property owners asked to donate about a half acre of land each were the problem. He said others had donated up to four acres of land to get the road project. The state has offered about $20,000 to complete the project, but the county must furnish the rights of way. Hartsook said that he had promised the people who

Pilot Escapes Serious Injury—Eugene Presley of Loudoun received head cuts and a concussion last Wednesday when the Cessna 150 he was flying, shown above, crashed as he attempted to abort a landing attempt at Ferguson Flying Circus at Philadelphia. The plane was demolished when it plowed into a field next to the runway. The aircraft was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Louie Henley of Lenoir City.

Eugene Presley of Loudoun escaped serious injury last Wednesday when the small airplane he was piloting crashed after an aborted landing attempt at Ferguson Flying Circus, a private airstrip at Philadelphia.

Presley, a student pilot with a solo license, was flying a two seat Cessna 150, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Louie Henley of Lenoir City.

The accident occurred around 11:30 a.m. Wednesday. Presley was attempting to land from north to south. During the approach he decided he had too much altitude to land and applied power to go around the field for another approach.

With full down flaps for landing with full power applied the airplane climbed steeply then stalled due to the lack of airspeed. The plane broke off to the left of the runway the left wing striking the ground. Then the airplane went nose first into the ground but did not flip over.

The aircraft was demolished in the crash. Presley received several cuts on the head and a concussion, but walked out of the wreckage. The plane luckily did not burn. Billy Bob Barr, who was in a hangar at the field working on his airplane heard the crash and rushed Presley to the hospital.

Stolen Goods Found In Raid

A raid on the mobile home residence of Kenneth Skidmore on Ash Drive at Lenoir City late Sunday afternoon uncovered several items reportedly stolen from the home of the man's brother-in-law, Tony Hughes Friday.

Sheriff Guy Russell led the raid. He was assisted by Deputies Voyd Carruth, Allen Clemmer and Ira Teeters, along with Lenoir City Police Bill Guider and Raymond Littleton.

The men found a shotgun, three boxes of shells and a radio, which Hughes identified as taken from his home. A piggy bank also taken from Hughes was not found.

Skidmore was not home at the time of the raid, but he was later arrested in Lenoir City and charged with receiving and concealing stolen property. He is being held in jail under $3000 bond.

NEW PHILADELPHIA LIBRARY—The City of Philadelphia has a new community library which opened this week in the Philadelphia City Hall just off the City Square. Librarian, Mrs. Una Maddox and Fort Loudoun Regional Library agent David Millage are shown unpacking some of the 1800 books that are now on the shelves of the library. The new library is open from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday and Friday. Mrs. Evelyn Everett a Philadelphia Councilwoman and member of the Loudoun County Library Board and others in the community were responsible for the move to obtain the City Library. Formerly the city was served by a bookmobile station in a beauty shop in the community.

Dr. Gary M. McCown opened his dentistry practice in Loudoun at the Loudoun Clinic late last week. Dr. McCown, 26, a native of Lenoir City, has been in private practice in Kingston for two years. His new office is on the second floor of the Loudoun Clinic. The phone number is 488-4352.

He, and his wife, Dale King McCown of Kingston, are currently residing in Kingston but are looking for a home in Loudoun.

Dr. McCown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. McCown of Kingston. Mr. McCown is a retired TVA employee.

The dentist is a 1965 graduate of Roane County High School, received his BS at UT-Knoxville in 1969 and received his DDS from UT College of dentistry in Memphis in 1971.

Dr. McCown enjoys trout fishing, fly tying and photography.

Dr. Michael E. Bowman is expected to join Dr. McCown in the practice here in January, 1976.

Four Streakers Are Arrested

The streaking craze went out of style two years ago, but four Lenoir City juveniles tried to revive the stunt Friday night and wound up at the Loudoun County Jail.

Deputy Voyd Carruth said the Central Communications office had been told that several boys were running up and down Taylor Drive, off U.S. 11 north of Lenoir City. He said when he and Deputy Ira Teeters arrived they found two youths in their headlights with blankets wrapped around their

Wicker-Hicks Vows In Lake City

The First Baptist Church of Lake City was the setting for the wedding of Linda Faye Hicks and James Edward Wicker on August 25. The Reverend Hon. Clay officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hicks, Sr. of Lake City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dirl Wicker of Loudon.

Bright of Loudon and Jim Hall of Fall Creek Falls were ushers. They were attired in light blue tuxedos. Mrs. Hicks chose a long, peach polyester dress with long sleeves trimmed with ostrich feathers. Mrs. Wicker chose a long pink chanton dress with short sleeves. Both mothers wore white orchids.

Greenery and candleabra with a center piece of gladiolus and asters in pastel colors decorated the church. A program of wedding music was given by Mrs. Helen Alley, organist and Miss Jennifer Laullen, soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza and chantilly lace. The tucked bodice, high neckline and bishop sleeves were appliqued with Chantilly lace. The hem of the skirt and chapel length train were encircled with lace. The finger-tip veil of lace edged illusion fell from a cup of lace and pearls. She wore a locket of her mother's that was 38 years old and carried a Baby Face bouquet with carnations, daisies and baby breath with an orchid in the center.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Serving at the reception was Mrs. Gaye Williams of Johnson City, Mrs. Susie Wilson of Oak Ridge, Miss Debbie Kirkland of Loudon, Miss Tammy Gordon and Miss Cindy Gordon of Ten Mile, Miss Lisa Oldham kept the guest book and Miss Stacy Snyder was rice girl. For traveling, the bride chose a peach slick suit with matching accessories. After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home at Dogwood Heights Apartments in Johnson City. Mrs. Wicker will graduate in March and Mrs. Wicker will graduate in December, both of Loudon County State University.

Mrs. Sandy Hicks of Morristown, sister-in-law of the bride, was Matron of Honor. Miss Vickie Lockmiller of Decatur was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Pam Johnson of Johnson City, Miss Patty Moore of Concord, and Miss Karen Bledsoe of Loudon. Each bridesmaid wore a rainbow color of dotted swiss-trimmed in white lace with a white picture hat that had lace and ribbon bands to match their dress. They carried neogay style bouquets of carnations and daisies.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Miss Kathy Salisbury and Miss Karen Salisbury of Nashville, Miss Julia McClure of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wilkerson and son Bud of Dayton, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Leach and son, Jamie of Xenia, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams of Johnson City, Mr. Edwin Wright of Decatur, Charles Sinsler of Alcoa, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. McNew and son, Steve, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Snyder and Mrs. Alexander, all of Loudon, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Alexander of Oak Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Wicker of Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Cassin, Mrs. Maysie Wear, Matt Waller, Mike Kirkland, and Miss Sharon Howell, all of Loudon, Mr. and Mrs. Brad Gordon of Ten Mile and Mrs. Ross Elliott of Knoxville.

Miss Kristie Hicks, niece of the bride, and Miss Missy Gordon, cousin of the groom were flower girls. Derek Hicks, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Dirl Wicker, father of the groom, was best man. Oscar Hicks, Jr. and Rickey Hicks, brothers of the bride, Preston Amanda of Maryville last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Birkholz and daughter, Beth, have returned to their home in Fenton, Mich. after spending last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Birkholz and family and other relatives.

Fund Drive In Memory Of Patti Jo Richmond

Leukemia is a dreaded disease that picks its victims at random regardless of race, sex, or age.

Patti Jo Richmond, a beautiful brown eyed little girl, was diagnosed as having leukemia at age five. Patti is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Q.E. Richmond of Lenoir City. Patti was the 40th patient to be treated at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis. Since that time, tens of thousands of children have been treated at St. Jude Hospital for catastrophic blood diseases.

Patti was treated at St. Jude Research Hospital for 14 months, eight months of that time Patti was an inpatient.

Edna Jones Griggs met at the Social Hall of Loudon United Methodist Church Monday evening, Sept. 8 for a joint meeting. The program was presented by Mrs. Virginia Brown, sister of Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson Dr. and Mrs. Brown are medical missionaries from the Baptist Church and are presently serving in Kenya, Africa where they have been for the past 17 years. While on furlough, both Dr. and Mrs. Brown have spoken to various church groups concerning their work. Mrs. Brown's presentation was both informational and inspirational. Following the program, a salad course was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Corrie McPeake, Mrs. Naomi Arp, Mrs. Sara Roberson and Mrs. Dot Dutton.

During that time, Patti was living a happy, normal life the same as any child her age.

Patti had a remission (all signs of the disease disappeared), unfortunately, Patti contracted hepatitis and chicken pox simultaneously which resulted in all her medication having to be stopped so that the hepatitis and chicken pox could be treated. After this, Patti had four other remissions, the first in medical history.

However, the dreaded disease was still hidden somewhere in her body undetected.

Patti Jo Richmond died August 13, 1960. Her tiny body had fought valiantly with the help of dedicated doctors at St. Jude Hospital to overcome the dreaded blood disease, however the odds were too high for her to overcome.

Since that time, five children have been treated at St. Jude from Loudon County and some are still presently receiving some type of treatment.

St. Jude has all the latest technical equipment found anywhere in the world, and there researchers are full time doctor's and scientists who are not allowed to have a private practice because St. Jude requires their researchers to work fulltime to work on finding cures for catastrophic childhood diseases.

United States and most of the nations across the world including Russia.

St. Jude is the largest children's research hospital in the world, and it is operated entirely by contributions. Hospital does not accept hospital insurance or pay. However, they will accept contributions - given by families.

The hospital provides accommodations for one parent plus three, meals a day for the duration of the child's hospitalization. This is no charge for the family.

Also, for instance, if a child has to receive out-patient treatment for five days only (no hospitalization), then St. Jude hospital pays all accommodations expenses for the five days stay in Memphis.

The only requirement for admission to St. Jude Research Hospital is that you have to be referred from a private doctor and the child has a catastrophic disease.

Loudon Countians are being asked to walk for St. Jude on October 4 to help continue the efforts of the hospital. Anyone wishing to make a contribution in honor of or in memory of a person should contact Honorarium Chairman Larry Sizlar at 438-5545 after 5:30 p.m.

memory of a child who lost their fight with leukemia. The plaque will read, "In memory of Patti Jo Richmond, from the Citizens of Loudon County."

CAPITOL COMMENTARY

BY M. LEE SMITH

(c) 1975, M. Lee Smith & Associates

The furor over the influence of politics and patronage on the operation of institutions under the Tennessee Department of Mental Health continues. And as it does, it is apparent that Commissioner Harold Jordan will find it increasingly difficult to manage the department effectively.

Even in the best of times the Mental Health Department is the toughest of all state agencies to administer. There are approximately 3,500 mental health employees, constituting about one-fourth of the total state work force. The department's eight large psychiatric and mental retardation institutions—spread from Greeneville to Memphis—are understaffed and underfunded. Many of the physical facilities are old and outmoded.

Jordan first came to the department early in the administration of Governor Winfield Dunn when he was appointed Assistant Commissioner for Psychiatric Services. This year Governor Ray Blanton named him Commissioner.

In recent weeks Jordan has been caught in the middle between two strong forces. On one side has been the Tennessee mental health community, of which Jordan is the chief spokesman. On the other has been Blanton administration county patronage committees, generally supported by the office of the Governor.

The first major incident occurred in early August when Jordan flew to Greene Valley Developmental Center and personally fired J. Lewis Byrd, Assistant Superintendent. The firing occurred in response to a demand by the Greene County patronage committee.

Then in mid-August Jordan offered Dr. Earl Ninow, Superintendent of Western State Psychiatric Hospital at Bolivar, the opportunity to transfer to Central State Psychiatric Hospital as Superintendent. Ninow had been engaged in a running confrontation with patronage committees in the Bolivar area.

Jordan referred to the proposed transfer as a promotion and said, "Dr. Ninow has done a good job at Western State. He has gotten the mental health community to maintain confidence in him. But he has virtually no support elsewhere in the mental health community."

In this situation he cannot be an effective head of the state's largest executive department.

With the situation polarized, Jordan said he made the decision Ninow could not remain at Western State. He first offered him the opportunity to transfer. When Ninow declined Jordan said he had no alternative but to dismiss him.

The problem for Jordan is that his explanation has not been accepted by the mental health community, the press, or the public in general. This is because Jordan has appeared to act—whether in fact he so acted—in response to the demands of patronage committees and not in accordance with good professional judgment.

Right or wrong, Jordan has now lost credibility with the mental health community, no segment of which has come to his defense and almost all of which has supported Ninow. A cursory check late last week indicated most of Jordan's central staff in the department maintain confidence in him. But he has virtually no support elsewhere in the mental health community.

In this situation he cannot be an effective head of the state's largest executive department.

Seven Loudon Lions Attend Conference

Seven members of the Loudon Lions Club attended the 17th Annual Fall Conference held in Gatlinburg on Saturday, September 6. Gene Davis—3rd Vice-President, Edward Headlee—Secretary-Treasurer, Harold Puckett—Membership Chairman, Bill House—Past President, Jim Pope—Zone Chairman, Glyn McCull—District Retention Chairman, and Charles McCall—Past District Governor all attended the afternoon session held at the Civic Center in Gatlinburg.

The wives spent the afternoon shopping or sight-seeing in the rain and then joined their husbands for the banquet at 6:30 in the evening. The meal was catered by Helma's of Knoxville and the speaker was International Director Thomas Cleaves from Arizona. Entertainment, was provided by the Newport Baptist Choir.

The afternoon session provided reports on each activity which receives funds from the White Cane Day collections. This year the goal is $50,000 to adequately fund such projects as Leader Dogs for the Blind, Recordings for the Blind, Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind, Tennessee School for the Blind, Volunteer Blind Industries, and other sight conservation activities which the Lions Clubs support.

Jordan fired Ninow. Jordan maintains that Ninow was not fired for political reasons. And he does not rely on the alleged "deplorable" conditions as the reason for the dismissal. In fact, Jordan has agreed with former Mental Health Commissioners Richard Treadway and Nat Winston that similar conditions can be found at other state mental institutions.

In a private interview last week Commissioner Jordan said that Dr. Ninow over a period of time implicitly criticized him and the Governor, increased problems with the patronage committees, and refused to cooperate in attempting to resolve differences.

Four Men Arrested Two Hours After Car Theft

Four men were arrested by Bradley County officers Sunday morning less than two hours after a car was stolen from Billy Powell's Cleanup Shop on Highway 95 in Lenoir City.

The car, a 1972 Chevrolet owned by Larry Foshee of Lenoir City.

Lenoir County officers said that Powell spotted the car about 3 a.m. at the Exxon station on 95. He asked the occupants where they got the car and they said they had bought it. He went back and checked with the owner and found the car had been stolen. Justice Center Dispatcher Harry Bell put out a bulletin on the car and about a hour later the Bradley County officers stopped the car at Charleston.

Arrested driving the car was Billy Parker 18 of Lenoir City. Others in the car were Billy Joe Fritts, 18, also of Lenoir City, Michael Frank Lindley, 21, and Shawn Michael Miller, 18, both of Michigan.

They were brought back to Loudon County and charged with auto theft.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

DEAR EDITOR: In 1933 Adolph Hitler came to power in Germany. One of his first acts was to create an elite force called the S. S. Troops. Their prime purpose was to put down any opposition to the State. They were so brutal and inhuman, that soon the poor souls who opposed these beasts gave the well earned name, Storm Trooper. If a citizen had a complaint and tried to voice it, he was threatened, intimidated, but more often beaten and even killed, especially the Jew. I am not a German, but I am a Christian Jew, who loves and believes in this Country.

Just recently I had a horrifying experience that surely matched those of the German people.

I had a complaint, a legitimate complaint, and I honestly believe every citizen in the City of Loudon will agree with me.

The Police Patrol pass my house at regular intervals, a trail any citizen appreciates. However, on one particular day it would seem the two officers patrolling forgot their duties, and decided to have a little fun on the side, (Inhuman Fun). As the patrol car passed my house one of the officers sprayed my dog with MACE gas.

Now to those of you who do not know what MACE gas is, I will try to give you the Humane Society's version of it. Mace is a gas used by police to quiet riots. It is a highly controversial substance. When sprayed in the face, it induces nausea and temporary blindness. However, when used on animals such as had donated land that no one would be paid for rights of way nor would any land be condemned. He asked that he be given one more month to try and secure the needed property. Harzook also said that the Dixie Lee Utilities had not been approached about relocating their waltines which are buried under the present roadway. He asked Judge Russell to undertake this task.

Education Edward Headlee reported to the court that although State Commissioner Sam Ingram had reinstated funds to the county that the check that was due from the state in August, 1975, ($125,000) has not been received. He stated that the bus owner payroll was due on Sept. 17 and the teacher payroll on Sept. 18 and there was not enough money available to meet the expenditures.

Headlee did say he felt that the funds would be received in time. He reported also on the progress the school board was making on putting together a building program and priorities on the various projects for the county schools. ## 12 BIG WEEKS

$300 IN CASH PRIZES

$25 Each Week

- *12 First Place
- *8 Second Place
- *5 Third Place

NEW CONTEST RULES

Read Before Completing Entry

1. Clip the contest entry blank on this page, or make a reasonable facsimile. The 10 contest games are numbered according to appearance in the entry blank in sponsoring firms advertisements below. List the sponsor's name in the blank beside the corresponding game. This is required for your entry to be scored. Also estimate the total number of points which you think will be scored by both teams in the Tiebreaker game listed on the entry blank. This will be used only if it is necessary to break a tie between contestants.

2. Only one entry per person may be submitted. Employees (or their immediate families) of the Loudon County Herald are not eligible to enter this contest. Players of teams in contest are not eligible.

3. All entries must be deposited in the contest box in the Herald office by 5 p.m. Friday or postmarked not later than 5 p.m. Friday, if mailed. Entries received after that time will not be eligible. Address all entries to FOOTBALL CONTEST, The Loudon County Herald, Loudon, Tennessee.

4. Entries will be judged on the number of games right. In case of a tie, the contestant coming the nearest to the actual number of points scored in the Tiebreaker game will be awarded the prize. The names of each week's winners will be printed in the Herald on the following week. All contestants agree that the decision of the judges will be final, and all entries become the property of the Herald.

55 Redskins Team To Post 38-0 Win Over Punctless Powell

by DANNY GIBSON
Sports Editor

The Loudon Redskins made their 1975 grid debut last Friday night at Knoxville Powell with a solid team showing which pounded the Panthers 38-0.

Loudon coaches Bert Rattledge and Jim Gibson used all of their 55 squad members in chalking up their season opening victory.

"Everyone played at least eight to 10 plays that dressed for the game," stated Rattledge. "It was a good season opening game."

Junior Greg Deatridge proclaimed Gibson. "No one got hurt and it gave us an opportunity to test our entire personnel."

quarter out under the direction of junior quarterback Carter Cardwell. A first down call to Marion Brown gained 13 yards but an illegal procedure penalty of five yards and a mishandled exchange by Cardwell and Freddie Starritt caused a fumble. Powell recovering at the Loudon 35.

Loudon's defense was again ready for the challenge and yielded no ground. Nevertheless, Loudon's offense broke down from its early showing and Mike Brookshire was put on center stage for his first varsity punting experience. The junior responded with a 41 yard effort that saw no Powell return.

The Panthers from their own 22 finally got a first down with 4:55 left in the half. Powell managed but two first downs in the game. Loudon had 17.

Freddie Starritt hammered the ball to the nine yard line on a coasing as he rambled right for a nine yard scoring jump with 2:06 left in the third stanza. The extra point kick was blocked as the score stood 32-0.

Loudon coaches turned the remainder of the game over to first year reserves with the result not being bad at all.

Composed of mostly sophomores, the Redskins intended to dominate, giving up only their second first down of the game to Powell with barely two minutes showing in the game.

Meanwhile under the leadership of sophomore Eddie Estes the Redskins found themselves fronted with a third down and 27 midways of the fourth quarter. A delay of game penalty and two illegal procedure mark offs reverse. But Estes stepped back into a well guarded post by his offensive line and let fly with a side line bomb to end Cowboy Dukes covered 66 yards and Loudon finished points of the night, running the count to 38-0 with 6:37 showing on the game clock.

For Loudon the game was not termed conclusive as the rank Panthers had little to cheer about. The Redskins controlled the line of scrimmage with three teams of blockers manning the trenches during the game. Junior Sam Thearp may well have graded out the top offensive lineman. The defense was sparked by no less than 30 team members. Dickie Colvin, Junior Rolan, Marion Brown, David Black, Steve Harrison and Jeff Nichols all landed bruising hits.

On offense it was a show of team execution in the line and possible tip-off as to what to expect during the season and in the future.

Rick Melton carried the ball eight times, running around, by and over opposing would-be tacklers for 168 yards and two touchdowns.

Marion Brown, expected to be just as capable in the clutch, had 58 yards on nine tries. Mark Moore, sophomore, showed power and hustle with 33 yards on six carries. Freddie Starritt added 22 yards on five runs. Dickie Colvin 26 yards, Cardwell 17 yards, Deatridge 33 yards, and Estes nine yards all played beautifully.

Bumper Webster and Kenny Starritt got into the act late with ground gains.

Overall Loudon gained 480 yards to just 51 for Powell. On paper the Redskins look tough but the test of strength is still ahead with the Loudon opposing schedule not offering this type of game for the remainder of the campaign. Hopefully there were no spoiled heads from this game as a cocky group of unpreparedness for future engagements could put the Redskins on the sidelines early as a playoff contender.

SACKS QUARTERBACK—Powell quarterback Jeff Littlejohn is caught in a bone crushing tackle by Loudon defenders Carter Cardwell (10) and John Sweet (12). Such tackles as these allowed the Panthers to get but two first downs in the entire contest won by Loudon 38-0.

Football Contest Has Many Misses

As usual the first week of the Herald's Football Contest caught the contestants guessing and many favored teams playing on last seasons records being defeated.

Three people correctly picked eight winners, but all three had different point selections on the tie-breaker (35 points scored in the Loudon game).

First place cash of $12 is claimed by Renee Hill of Rio Cochob Drive in Athens who had 38 points in the tie-breaker. Second was Scott Hill of the same Athens address with 25 in the tie-breaker. He won $8. Third place and $2 was claimed by Mildred Brewer of 210 Collins Street, Loudon.

Everyone missed the Harrison upset of Kingston, and many missed Young over Holston and South over Rule.

The contestants who missed three games were Maurice Hill, Kevin Hill, Tina Ross, Edward Hill, Calvin Hill, Doris Hill, Sherry Simpson, Marie Miller, John Foster, Susan Foster, Nell Watkins, Sherry Atkins, Mrs. Floyd McDaniel, Paul Alexander, Iwanna Sue Blankenship and Greg Hensley.

The cash winners may pick their money at the Herald office.

A new slate of 10 games headed by the Loudon-Kingston clash awaits contestants this week.

NEAR BREAK AWAY—Loudon punt return specialist Bumper Webster (30) almost steps free for a sizable gain in Friday night's blitz of Knoxville Powell.

defensive effort as Powell took the opening kickoff and was contained at its own 45.

Deatridge engineered a 13-play, 75-yard march to pay dirt with 3:30 left in the first quarter. Marion Brown, laboring fullback for the Redskins, bulled his way into the end zone from the two-yard line.

Sophomore Freddie Starritt scooted around right end for a two point conversion run as Powell drew an offside penalty on the after touch-down effort.

Loudon again rose to the task of stopping the Powell offense and following a 21 yard punt, set up operations at the 40.

Deatridge needed but three plays to move the 60 yards needed for a second touch-down. The junior field general uncoiled a bullet of 21 yards to end John Sweet for a first down in the Powell 29. Senior running back Rick Melton, who had accounted for 45 yards in the first quarter, sailed through a large hole opened by the Loudon offensive line (key blockers Zack Gibson and Bryan Curtis) for 34 yards and a touchdown. The conversion kick was blocked.

Powell laid again in his efforts to move the football as the second quarter got underway.

Loudon started the second

Waterfowl Seasons Set

In its regular meeting the Wildlife Resources Commission set the 1975-76 waterfowl seasons.

Duck season will run from December 3 to Jan. 20 and will be based on the point system. This system assigns a point value to each bird and the hunter is through for the day when his last bird's value brings the days total to 100 or more.

Canvasbacks and redheads each count 100 points. Female mallards, wood ducks, black ducks and hooded mergansers are 90 points each. Pintails, bluewing and greenwing teal, gadwall, shovellers and scup each count 10 points. Male mallards and all other ducks count 35 points. Coos are not assigned a value and 15 per day may be taken.

Hunting hours run from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset except on opening day when hunting will begin at noon local time.

Goose season runs from November 12 through January 20 with a daily bag limit of 5, only one of which may be a Canada goose. (Two Canada geese may be taken in Lake Tipton, Loudon and a portion of Shelby Counties.) Hunting hours run from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset.

Twenty-four counties including Anderson, Blount, Knox, Loudon and a portion of Trammel and Hill are prohibited.

Portlands of Blount, Loudon, and Monroe Counties were closed to the hunting and trapping of raccoon and opossum. This is the area in which the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency and University of Tennessee is currently conducting a research study on raccoons.

The 1976 fishing regulations were also set. These will be published later this year in the 1976 Fishing Guide.

Tennessee Football Facts

Compliments Of
Bank of Loudon County

Beattie Feathers, the first professional running back to gain 1,000 yards rushing in a single season, was one of General Neyland's finest tailbacks. Feathers, who played for Tennessee from 1921 through 1933, was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame in 1955.

During his career, Feathers led Tennessee to two undefeated seasons, a Southern Conference crown, 25 victories, 3 defeats, 2 ties for a winning percentage of .867. As a sophomore, he scored eight touchdowns (including two runs that went for better than 70 yards). A year later Beattie was selected an All-Southern Conference performer on the strength of has 12 touchdowns in 1933, he tallied 13 touchdowns to lead the newly formed SEC in scoring; Feathers was named an All-American that year.

As a three-year starter, Beattie Feathers gained 1,888 yards (second highest mark in UT history) on 309 carries for a 6.1 average. Feathers passed for 128 yards and had 196 yards in receptions for a career total of 2,219 yards (eighth in the Tennessee record book). The 5'11" fullback also scored 33 touchdowns for 198 points (third in the Vol record book). Without question, Beattie Feathers established himself as one of the all-time great backs in SEC history.

The 1976 fishing regulations were also set. These will be published later this year in the 1976 Fishing Guide.

quarter out under the direction of junior quarterback Carter Cardwell. A first down call to Marion Brown gained 13 yards but an illegal procedure penalty of five yards and a mishandled exchange by Cardwell and Freddie Starritt caused a fumble. Powell recovering at the Loudon 35.

Loudon's defense was again ready for the challenge and yielded no ground. Nevertheless, Loudon's offense broke down from its early showing and Mike Brookshire was put on center stage for his first varsity punting experience. The junior responded with a 41 yard effort that saw no Powell return.

The Panthers from their own 22 finally got a first down with 4:55 left in the half. Powell managed but two first downs in the game. Loudon had 17.

Freddie Starritt hammered the ball to the nine yard line on a coasing as he rambled right for a nine yard scoring jump with 2:06 left in the third stanza. The extra point kick was blocked as the score stood 32-0.

Loudon coaches turned the remainder of the game over to first year reserves with the result not being bad at all.

Composed of mostly sophomores, the Redskins intended to dominate, giving up only their second first down of the game to Powell with barely two minutes showing in the game.

Meanwhile under the leadership of sophomore Eddie Estes the Redskins found themselves fronted with a third down and 27 midways of the fourth quarter. A delay of game penalty and two illegal procedure mark offs reverse. But Estes stepped back into a well guarded post by his offensive line and let fly with a side line bomb to end Cowboy Dukes covered 66 yards and Loudon finished points of the night, running the count to 38-0 with 6:37 showing on the game clock.

For Loudon the game was not termed conclusive as the rank Panthers had little to cheer about. The Redskins controlled the line of scrimmage with three teams of blockers manning the trenches during the game. Junior Sam Thearp may well have graded out the top offensive lineman. The defense was sparked by no less than 30 team members. Dickie Colvin, Junior Rolan, Marion Brown, David Black, Steve Harrison and Jeff Nichols all landed bruising hits.

On offense it was a show of team execution in the line and possible tip-off as to what to expect during the season and in the future.

Rick Melton carried the ball eight times, running around, by and over opposing would-be tacklers for 168 yards and two touchdowns.

Marion Brown, expected to be just as capable in the clutch, had 58 yards on nine tries. Mark Moore, sophomore, showed power and hustle with 33 yards on six carries. Freddie Starritt added 22 yards on five runs. Dickie Colvin 26 yards, Cardwell 17 yards, Deatridge 33 yards, and Estes nine yards all played beautifully.

Bumper Webster and Kenny Starritt got into the act late with ground gains.

Overall Loudon gained 480 yards to just 51 for Powell. On paper the Redskins look tough but the test of strength is still ahead with the Loudon opposing schedule not offering this type of game for the remainder of the campaign. Hopefully there were no spoiled heads from this game as a cocky group of unpreparedness for future engagements could put the Redskins on the sidelines early as a playoff contender.

Redskin Freshmen "Pass" First Test 18-8

The Loudon Freshman football team started its season off on a winning note last Thursday night at Knoxville Karns. The Redskins Fresh of Coach Gordon Watson and Coach Bill Thompson stung Knoxville Karns with an 18-8 defeat.

The young Redskins, geared back following a seven yard Loudon punt and took the lead in the second quarter on an 11 yard run and two point touch-down conversion pass for an 8-6 advantage.

Watkins, Gibson and Dennis Brown ground out real estate before Watkins again converted the touchdown. This time 24 yards to Rick Sutton. The conversion effort was no good, but Loudon had the lead 12-6.

Neither team could crack the others defense in the early going. However Loudon had to rally from a blocked punt to hold the Beavers at the 13 before setting its offense untraced.

Quarterback Steve Watkins and running back Mark Gibson got Loudon out of the hole with some tough running to the Loudon 36. A nice change in strategy found end Ben Fields open for a 64 yard pass reception and Loudon ran from quarterback Watkins with 5:48 left in the first quarter.

Watkins failed on the extra point effort.

Knoxville Karns bounced

Speaking of Sports

By DANNY GIBSON

The football season is only two weeks old and I am ready for Wednesday night bingo or counting different color cars that pass through the downtown traffic light. Certainly my vision of guessing what number will be called next or what color car will appear coming across the bridge, better than figuring out what is taking place in football this fall.

Apparently I have been reading too many John Brannon "fiction predictions". I would have never considered Hale over Maryville a week ago. Nor, following the Golden Bears' decision, did I think that Knoxville South stood close to challenging the Blue team. Yet the Rockets prevailed. Harriman upset Kingston 6-0. And how about Young over Holston and especially Farragut over Bearden 7-0. Oh, yeah, I saw Missouri take the Tide apart also and might add the 20 point book value on "Bama may have broken a lot from dipping into the egg money early this year."

Back to high school. Lenoir City Coach Henry Blackburn said he was not looking for excuses, but his team will return to play on another Friday night. McMin Central used Panther miscues to whip up the score.

Steve Arnold was denied a pass reception that could have meant six points as the referee blew a pass reception call, saying Arnold was not secure enough on the playing field before stepping out of bounds.

To add insult to injury the Panthers were flagged for 15 yards before the game ever started. The Panthers were ruled "late" arrivals for the opening kickoff. "I checked watches with the referee 20 minutes prior to game time," declared Blackburn. "When we returned the referee had it after, I had three minutes left. My sport watch loses maybe a second or two a year. I was never so shocked to find out how time flies. No have not altered the watch it is still in sequence with all radio, TV, and bank clocks as it was when I left Lenoir City Friday."

"I'll bet Coach Blackburn relates that story to a few speaking engagements down through the years to come. How about ole Bobby Smith, the Greenback senior fullback transferred to the Cherokee after finding it just not pleasurable for him in Panther football gear. But apparently now happy. Smith looks to be in his best physical shape ever and his efforts of last Thursday night at Seymour, 20 carries for 143 tough yards, makes him a leading candidate for "man of the year" among Greenback followers. Bobby says the line opened the holes and he just trailed after them. As for leaving the Panthers at Lenoir City Smith makes no comment. "I just want to play and do as good a job as I can. This is my senior year, and we (Greenback) want to have a good record."

If Greenback can keep its players healthy and Smith carrying the football line runs away locomotive the Cherokees might just cut an album.

Eddie Estes, Carl Hawkins, Conway Dukes

Is Loudon for real? Opening game stats has them looking like "settling ducks," but positive attitudes and little thought to box car headlines might make them a Big Red Terror.

Certainly Powell was a game foe but lacked punch on offense or defense. Kingston, lost to Harriman 6-0, will be stinging for a win and the name Yellow Jackets can't be any more direct. The game Friday night is a crucial one for both teams. It will challenge Loudon's maturity for four quarters of pressure packed play.

Loudon's touchdown conversion efforts are rock bottom. Either a kicker, or a center, or a blocking line or work by all concerned had best be shoring up the slack as a point or two from three yards out can be important in those big games where the scoring is seldom.

Loudon had the bull ring in operation Monday with the big studs taking on the big studs. It was all work. The coaches were pleased with Loudon's straight ahead drive by all linemen Friday night but almost all were taken aside during the Powell game to point out blocking errors.

Not selling the Redskins short of a capable team, and I do mean team. I was impressed by the play of Loudon reserves. Carl Hawkins (Boo Boo) handled the defensive job of a corner back like he was an every Friday night starter. The sophomore will be there one day. And you can't sell Eddie Estes and his offensive troupe short of brilliance. With the chips down and Estes at the controls he and Conway Dukes made the chalk board drawing of a side line post pattern look easy as it was for a coach to draw up the play. The Redskins stock looks solid for a few seasons to come. But now we must only think of this one.

The Loudon crowd out numbered the Powell home patrons by some 10 to one. Kingston will be a bit more attentive.

Suggestion to those preseason playoff contenders that have been so railed pumbed about by less publicized foes: "Take a stanback and come back strong." It is the big powers keep falling some coaches might be taking a bottle or two to escape the entire season.

SURE HANDED CHEROKEE—Greenback split end Harold Hawkins being tackled back for a sizable gain Thursday night as he gained 90 yards on pass receptions and scored twice.

TAG GREEN—Tag Green, Lenoir City senior lineman, was lost to the Panthers for the season Friday night when he sustained a broken ankle in the LC-McMin Central football season opener. "We sure hate to lose," stated Coach Henry Blackburn. "Tag was one of our more improved players this fall and we were counting on his playing time. It's his senior year."

Greenback Crushes Seymour 26-6 As Smith Runs, And Runs, And Runs

by DANNY GIBSON
Sports Editor

The Greenback Cherokees zoomed past home standing Seymour Thursday night by a score of 26-6.

Coach Keith Bailey's Cherokees vaulted from a first half 6-6 deadlock with fullback Bobby Smith lumbering for 97 yards and strong offensive line play by Lynn Rucker, Rick Russell, Steve Linginfelter, Jimmy Brooks, Roger Hampton, Eric Belcher and Harold Hawkins. Tony Chambers (senior guard) was off to a fine first quarter until a knee injury sent him to the sidelines for the rest of the game.

"I was pleased with our first game showing," smiled a winning Coach Bailey. "We made some half time adjustments on defense that was hampering us some in the first half. But the offensive unit took charge and turned things around for us. The line looked as strong at controlling the line of scrimmage and moving them (Seymour) out as our best line play of two years ago. (Greenback made the Class A playoffs that year). Bobby Smith is going to be an exciting runner. This should help our passing attack. Roddy (junior quarterback Roddy Kizer) is much improved and direct on offense with much more authority than when he was a sophomore. It was a better season start than at Jacksboro last year." (Greenback was mauled by the Region I champs 36-0). The Cherokees found the stalling tough Friday night

Kingston Eyes Redskins' 15-Game Winning Streak

Loudon visits Kingston this Friday night in what may feel like project a Region II double A playoff representative. The Jackets are already in a bad dilemma having lost to Harriman last week and now faced with the Redskins.

Looking at the game from Kingston's thinking the Loudon football success has been spread over three seasons, as they roll into week and now faced with the Redskins.

Looking at the game from Kingston's thinking the Loudon football success has been spread over three seasons, as they roll into week and now faced with the Redskins.

Roane County with a 15 game winning streak on the block and State Champions written all over the place from 1974. A win would even the standings for the two teams and both could get on with the season with hopes of each making the playoff scene.

If Loudon Can't Pass?? They Sure Won't Run!!

"We may have lost (Harriman defeated Kingston Friday 6-0) and we may get beat this week (Kingston plays host to Loudon) but it will come on the ability of Loudon to pass the football," declared Roane County News Sports Editor Roosts Cook. "Loudon just doesn't have the horses to go anywhere on the Kingston defense. They (Loudon) will never register a hundred yards rushing this Friday night."

Lenoir City, ship wrecked by their own mistakes a week ago at Etawah, host high flying Harriman this weekend in Panther town. The Blue Devils are thinking playoffs now that Kingston has been dealt with.

A home field effort and few (few mistakes could make this one interesting. Otherwise the Panthers will have the early season blues, which can kill many a preseason dream.

Greenback will kick off its home opener with Lanier Friday at 7:30. The Cherokees view this one as a must, both teams were impressive in season opening wins. Greenback barely slipped by last year. Both teams return much the same faces. Look for another thriller. Bobby Smith could prove the difference for Loudon. Steve Linginfelter's strong running will make the season passing of Kizer more explosive. Two wins would make Greenback foes more observing.

The Redskins will be the team to beat nonetheless and if they are to shoulder the weight this year's schedule provides the rocky road beginning in Kingston Friday. The pavement ended last week. Gates open at 6:30 with game time set for 8 p.m.

GREENBACK LOCOMOTIVE—Cherokee fullback Bobby Smith was a punishing runner Thursday night as he determinedly fought for yardage in setting the rushing tempo of the Greenback 26-6 win over Seymour. Smith had 143 yards on the ground. Other Greenback players are Eric Belcher (52), Lynn Rucker (84), Rick Russell (74).

gave the Cherokees their first down of the game on Smith's 36 yard burst to the Eagle 18. Kizer attempted to pass to Lynn Rucker before rolling out on second down and racing down the right sideline to the end zone for a 4-6 tie with 3:52 on the clock. Danny Dotson and Glen Quillen threw key blocks. The extra point try was no good.

Seymour drove to the Greenback seven yard line only to have Harold Hawkins intercept his second pass as the first half. This time the interception came with 28 seconds left in the half and inside his own end zone.

The Cherokees took charge of the game from the start of the second half. Eleven plays, (Continued On Page 11)

Error Plagued Lenoir City Falls To Quick Scoring Chargers 40-0

by Larry Cate, Managing Editor

The Lenoir City Panthers opened their 1975 football season hoping to upset favored McMinn Central on the Charger field, but a string of Panther mistakes which started with the game only a few seconds old and continued down to the final seconds found Henry Blackburn's scrappers on the wrong end of a 40-0 score.

Five times Lenoir City turned over the ball either by to pass for the PAT failed and McMinn Central was in a 12-0 lead with 5:47 remaining in the first quarter.

Steve Arnold took the short kick-off for the Panthers and returned the ball from the 27 yard line on first down by Danny Hall the third Panther turn over occurred. Little quarterback Benny Goley had his first interception of the season fall into the hands of Central's David Armstrong, putting Central back into position for another try at paydirt from the Panther 36. It took 11 plays for the Chargers to get the six points. It came on the first play of the second quarter with 11:22 showing on the clock. Dave Barnett clustered two yards for the score. The drive saw the Chargers gather four first downs with Hollifield, Norris and Barnett getting the three to Clifford Brown, but Central's defenders batted the ball away. Central in two plays moved from their own 10 to the Lenoir City 30 as the first half ended.

Central received the opening second half kickoff with Jordan getting a 16 yard return. In 10 plays Hollifield directed runners Norris, Armstrong, and Barnett down the field and capped the drive off with a 25 yard passing strike to Norman Jordan. Central extended its lead to 24 with 7:26 remaining in the third frame.

It didn't take long for Central to get the ball back. After a kickoff return by LC's Wall Thaxton of 19 yards to the 24, Goley pitched to Thaxton on the first play. The backfield loss was wide and Central's David Armstrong was on the ball at the Panther 15.

In four plays, five yards by Hollifield, eight by Norris, and more by Norris and then a Joe scoring plunge by Norris with 5:11 remaining in the quarter, put the Chargers in command 30-0. Another two point pass by Jordan made the score 34-0.

After the touchdown giving the Chargers an 18-0 lead a two point extra point went incomplete.

Central's kick off went to Jeff Stamps who returned four yards to the Panther 25. Here started the Panther's only point pass by Jordan made the score 34-0.

The first play didn't go too well with Goley taking a 10 yard second down ball for a 35 yard ride down to the Central 38, for the first Panther first down of the contest.

Thaxton added another PD on the next play collecting 29 yards. Hall then fumbled, Goley was stopped for no gain and a Goley pass to Arnold was incomplete. On fourth down from the Central 10 Goley hit Arnold cutting to the left corner of the end zone. The pass was a strike but the receiver was judged out of bounds by the official giving Central the ball at the Panther 10.

The Chargers collected two first downs and got to their 24 before being forced to punt. Lenoir City in turn couldn't move and punted away a Goley pass to Stamps was intercepted a Hollifield pass and raced from his 38 to the Central 23. Bringing the Panther hopes back alive.

The following kick off went to Wall Thaxton and the Panther lugged the ball 17 yards. On first down Doyle Varney got one, then a handoff from quarterback Benny Goley to Danny Hall was mishandled. McMinn's big 240 pound Mark Stone covered the ball with authority.

McMinn Central then moved for its second score from the Panther 34 in a nine play drive. Quarterback Freddy Hollifield fed the pigskin to Barnett and Kyle Norris to get the ball to the Panther 8, then a clipping infraction sent the ball back to the Panther 18. Hollifield hit wide receiver Norman Jordan in the numbers and the ball fell loose. On the next play, identical to the one that failed, Jordan stepped in the pigskin and gathered it another five yards into the end zone with an 18 yard scoring pass. An attempt to pass for the PAT failed and McMinn Central was in a 12-0 lead with 5:47 remaining in the first quarter.

The Panthers put on a last ditch attempt to get points after receiving the final kick off of the game. After punting out of first down taking four plays Goley uncovered a 27 yard pass to Steve Arnold, giving the Panthers the ball on the Central one yard line.

SMITH ROMPS FOR TOUCHDOWN—Greenback's human tank, fullback Bobby Smith (30) slips almost untouched into the end zone for a touchdown as his Cherokee team mates put the Seymour defenders on the ground. Pictured for the Cherokees are Tom Rader (72), Roddy Kizer (12), Danny Dotson (22), Rick Russell (white helmet under football), and Eric Belcher (52).

SLIPS—Greenback's Roddy Kizer (12) and Harold Hawkins (42) appear to be in debate as to who should have the football which has suddenly been lost on the ground.

While this play had its problems, the Cherokees regrouped for a convincing 26-6 triumph over Seymour.

Smith Is Horse In Greenback Win

four first downs, covered 61 yards and a two yard slash by senior Bobby Smith put Greenback into the lead with six minutes left in the period. Steve Linginfelter led the Greenback defense in stopping the Eagles after a moving from their 26 to the Seymour 41.

With 1:28 left in third canto Greenback embarked on another drive from its 32. Danny Dotson and Bobby Smith chewed up real estate with Smith's efforts punishing the Seymour would-be tacklers.

The junior running back sipped for 14 yards. Fullback sensation Bobby Smith matched the effort with a 18 yard romp through the Seymour ranks.

Nine plays had the Cherokees camped on the Seymour goal line only to be denied a touchdown from the one.

An alert Eric Belcher was not to be deprived, as he came away with his second fumble recovery of the game and with just 1:43 left in the game.

A five yard penalty from the two only gave the Cherokees working room as Kizer unloaded a scaring whip to Harold Hawkins. The passing duo duplicated the maneuver for good measure in

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
 NORTHERN DIVISION
 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, upon the relation and for the use of the TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY, Plaintiff vs.
 NOTICE TO: Unknown Owners
 YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT

OR LESS, IN MONROE COUNTY, TENNESSEE, RIGHTS WITH RESPECT TO SIX TRACTS OF LAND IN MONROE COUNTY, TENNESSEE, AND TWO TRACTS OF LAND IN LOUDON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, WHICH CONTAIN A TOTAL OF 2.463 ACRES OF LAND, MORE OR LESS, UNKNOWN OWNERS. Defendants.
 No. Civ. 3-75-228
 TO: Unknown Owners
 You are hereby notified that the plaintiff has commenced the above-entitled action in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee in and to condemn all of the land and access rights in certain land in which you have or claim an interest. The land is described in Exhibit A which is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

The authority for the taking is the Tennessee Valley Authority Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 58, as amended, 16 U.S.C. 831-831d (1959, Supp. III, 1971).

It appearing from the bill in this cause, which is sworn to, that Barbara Sue Simmons Harvey resides outside of Loudon County and cannot be personally served with process, it is ordered that publication be made for four consecutive weeks in the Loudon County Herald, a newspaper published at Loudon, Tennessee, in Loudon County, Tennessee, requiring the said Defendant to appear before the said Court on or before the first Monday in October next, and make defense to the bill filed in the above cause, which seeks Absolute Divorce, or otherwise said bill will be taken for confessed and cause proceeded with ex parte.

Project number 1-75-216/72, Loudon County. All persons holding claims against the contractor, McKinnon Bridge Co., Inc. and Salsman Constr. Co., or their agents, for materials or labor entering into the construction of this project, must file itemized notice of claim (five copies) with the original copy sworn to before a Notary Public. This notice of claim to be received at the Office of G. S. Allen, State Construction Engineer, Tennessee Department of Transportation, 110 Transportation Building, Nashville, Tennessee 37219, on or before October 21, 1975, in order to obtain the advantages available to claimants by legal statutes.

The payment of the indebtedness secured by that certain trust deed executed by Robert L. Shubert and wife, Rhonda Gay Shubert, dated January 18, 1974, and of record in Trust Book 140, page 4 in the Register's Office of Loudon County, Tennessee, the undersigned as Substitute Trustee pursuant to appointment recorded in Trust Book 140, page 319 in the Register's Office of Loudon County, Tennessee, and under and by virtue of the authority vested in him by the terms of said trust deed and by the owner and holder of said indebtedness, will sell at the front door of the County Courthouse in Loudon, Loudon County, Tennessee, for cash to the highest bidder in law of all right and equity of redemption, at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, October 1, 1975, the following described premises:

TVA Changes Tellico Land Activity Schedule

Revised schedules for land management activities in the Tellico Reservoir area in preparation for completion of the dam in January 1977 have been issued by TVA. These activities include timber products salvage, agricultural licensing, structure sales, and family relocation.

Timber which has been sold as salvage removal between Highway 411 and the dam site is scheduled to be removed by Oct. 30, 1975, and timber upstream from Highway 411 is to be removed by Dec. 31, 1975. Timber on lands coming into TVA's possession in 1975 will be advertised and sold in January 1976 and removed by April 30, 1976.

In accordance with TVA's usual agricultural licensing procedures, TVA will continue to rent for agricultural use lands which are not required for construction purposes. Lands will be rented from Sep. 1975 through Oct. 31, 1976, with the following exceptions:

Lands below the normal pool level located between the Highway 411 and the Tellico Dam site will not be rented for livestock pasturing for 1976 but will be rented for hay, small grains or row crops.

Lands below normal pool level located upstream from Highway 411 will be rented for livestock pasturing through March 31, 1976, and for hay, small grains, or row crops through Oct. 31, 1976.

No TVA structures or land for private structures will be advertised in connection with agricultural licenses for crop year 1976.

In addition, beginning in the fall of 1976, all available land above the normal pool will be advertised for agricultural use for from one- to five-year periods on a sealed bid basis.

In preparation for reservoir filling, TVA will offer for sale certain structures which were purchased as part of the land acquisition program. These structures, which are primarily farm buildings and residences, will be sold by sealed bid in Jan. 1976. Purchasers will be required to remove all structures within 30 days of the award of contract, and all structures must be removed from the project area by March 31, 1976. All structures in private possession which are located on land now in TVA's possession below normal pool must be removed by Oct. 31, 1975.

Because of the need to complete reservoir-clearing work in preparation for the scheduled dam closure, TVA will be attempting to relocate all families now living on land in TVA's possession by Dec. 31, 1975. Individuals seeking relocation assistance or requiring additional information concerning other land management activities should contact the TVA office at 1101 Congress Parkway, P. O. Box 406, Athens, Tenn. 37702. The telephone number is (615) 745-1783.

Loudon County proved to be a stronger market than most during the past year, according to a nationwide survey of business activity, just released.

Despite the fact that the country was going through a period of recession and inflation, which affected every corner of the nation, the local economy held up relatively well. Its stability is indicated by its income and spending figures.

The details are contained in the new, copyrighted "Survey of Buying Power" compiled by Sales Management, the marketing publication.

For the Loudon County population as a whole, it shows, income was at a high level in the year. The total amount that was available to local residents for discretionary spending, after payment of personal taxes, was $84,494,000.

Just what this boiled down to, in terms of the individual family, is indicated by the median income per household, which is the midpoint on the local income scale. It amounted to a net of $9,544.

Although local residents were more restrained in their spending than normally, many of them having difficulty in making both ends meet, the majority were better situated financially and were in the marketplace in sufficient strength to produce a fairly good year for retail merchants.

Loudon County Market Stronger

As a result, stores in the area chalked up gross sales of $45,215,000.

The survey gives each community a rating, based upon the amount of retail business actually done as compared with its estimated full capacity.

This it does via an index of buying power, a weighted figure involving income, population and sales.

Loudon County's index rating is 1001, which means that it is believed capable of producing that percentage of the nation's retail business.

Because it accounted for less than that in the year, 1968 percent, it is concluded that a considerable amount of local buying potential has not yet been realized.

During the next year, the program is expected to be the first of its kind in Loudon County. The program is fully developed and will offer credit and college and high school courses along with ment and self-direction.

One of our pictures this week is of another train wreck. This is one of several derailments that have occurred in this area. We have as yet not located any of the pictures of this in the pictures of the bad passenger train wreck near Loudon. This happened in the middle 20's and as far as I can tell, no one took any pictures of it. At least, we have failed in our efforts to locate any one who has any pictures of this in their albums. So, we continue to receive from time to time the freight wreck pictures. Maybe we will get lucky one of these days and find some of the big train wrecks, at least, we hope so.

Our other picture is of an old house at the East End of the Highway 11 bridge. It dates back in history in a very colorful manner. It's background deals with a town called Loudon which was a very different town from what we have today. With the Bicentennial coming up, it would be a good place to consider for restoration. The building itself is old, but the history and time it represents are most colorful and of interest to our entire area.

We were talking to John Wolfe, who used to live in Loudon. Well, John's wife was from the Luttrell Community of Loudon County and attended school there and she has some old pictures of school groups which we hope she will hunt up and loan to us for use in the Good Old Days. Maybe there are others from this section that have some old pictures made in their school or church that they would loan us to use. This section is just as much a part of our County as any of the rest. So, we would like to write about it. We talked to folks from that area pretty often and they express an interest in the Herald, which pleases us very much. We know that Luttrell at times had some outstanding basketball teams and were active in the many tournaments held across the years.

The last time we were visiting in this section they were using the old school gym as a community building. I don't know where they still use it or not.

Church activity in this community was a very important part of community life. We would be interested in church group pictures if any are available from folks down that way.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.
