Green Indicted For Murder

TAVERN REMAINS OPEN—A padlock hearing on Green's Package Store failed to produce a decision on the operation of the tavern Monday. Judge J.H. McCartt said he would not rule on the padlocking until after murder charges against the owner, Wayne Green, are disposed of in Criminal Court. The murder prompted the padlock procedure.

Judge Reserves Tavern Padlock Decision Until After Murder Trial

A decision on the padlocking of Green's Package Store will not be announced by Criminal Judge J.H. McCartt until after charges of murder against tavern owner Wayne Green are resolved.

Judge McCartt, sitting for Judge Lloyd McClain, heard testimony for almost two hours in the padlock petition hearing Monday, but ruled at the end of the case that to announce a decision while the murder charges were still pending before the court could prejudice the case no matter which way he ruled.

At the close of the case Judge McCartt told Green and his attorneys Hland Windley and Jim Simpson, that although he was not closing the tavern or making a ruling for either side, he thought Green should close the business until the case was over.

The Criminal Court Grand Jury began hearing some 50 murder charges were still pending before the court when indictments Wednesday, too late for publication in this issue.

Hobart Hendrix, a 27 year old Eaton man, was shot to death in the parking lot of Green's Package Store off Highway 95 in Loudon City on August 20, 1976. Hendrix was charged with first degree murder in the incident. His wife, Vivian, was charged with aiding and abetting in first degree murder.

Of 17 incidents listed in the petition of the Attorney General's office asking for the tavern to be padlocked, 10 of them were attested by records of complaints and arrests through the Loudon County Justice Center.

When the attorney general asked Bright how Green handles problems at the tavern, Bright said, "If there is any trouble Green either hits them in the head with a shot gun or shoots someone in the head." This brought objections from Green's attorney, Bright described the reputation of the tavern as being a place of quarrelling, fighting and brawls of the peace and that there were more trouble calls there than any other tavern in the county.

The defense pointed out that no complaints about Green's operation had been taken to the beer board.

Defense attorney Winfrey asked if there were as many complaints as Greens as there were at the Midway, a tavern operated by the brother in law of Sheriff Guy Russell, where a man was shot and wounded about two years ago. Bright said there were no more calls on it than there were other places.

The Chief Deputy said that he had heard that Green sold whiskey and sold beer on Sunday, but had not been able to catch him doing it.

Deputy Junior Teeters, who made most of the arrests listed in the complaint, said that Green's place was generally quiet, but he was arrested from eight to 12 people there in the past eight months, most on charges of drunkenness charges. He did say he had taken guns from a couple of people there.

He too said that it was rumored that Green sold whiskey illegally, but he had no proof of it.

Asked about the reputation of Green's tavern, said it was no worse than the other joints, but was bad, a place of drunkenness, like the others, and that the number of complaints at the tavern had increased in recent months.

Justice Center Records Clerk Clay Lennox listed complaints from February 14 through August 21, the day following the Hendrix killing, where officers were requested at the tavern for various reasons. In most of the cases the complaints were initiated by persons that identified themselves as Mr. Green or his wife.

In two of the cases as many as three persons were arrested at one time records cited by Mr. Lennox showed.

Attorneys for Green stressed that the trouble calls at the tavern were initiated by complaints from the Green to hold down the possibility of trouble.

Chief County Deputy Lake Bright told the court he had been at the tavern several times and observed quarrelling, drunkenness, and arguing. He commented that a horse shoe pit at the back of the tavern is often the site of mud hollering and fights.

When asked how Green usually handles trouble at the tavern, Bright said, "About two weeks ago he hit Taylor Adams in the head with a shotgun." That incident was one of the primary incidents used by the state in the hearing. Although the case was dismissed in General Sessions Court, Bright and Hawk referred to the incident several times. When on the stand later, Green denied that it took place at the horse shoe area behind the tavern while he was inside closing up the tavern.

Under cross examination Teeters said as far as he knew Bright had never been in his place of business until about a month ago when Green himself, he said he was 43 years old, had eight children and had operated the tavern for about five years. He stated he tries to keep the peace at the tavern and when it appears there might be any disturbance he calls the Justice Center trying to stop trouble before it starts.

Mr. Green says he will not serve a person at the tavern if they are drunk or disorderly and tries to cooperate with the law enforcement agencies.

Injunction Limits Pickets At Eaton Plant Entrance

A meeting called last Wednesday by Federal Mediators failed to move the five week old strike at the Eaton Corporation plant in Loudon City any closer to settlement, sources said this week.

Jerry Windle, President of the striking Textile Workers Union at the plant said nothing new was presented at the meeting. "We moved a little, but our position is basically unchanged and there is nothing worth saying about the meeting," Windle stated.

Windle and the Union were served with temporary restraining orders issued by Chancellor James O. Phillips after a hearing in the Chancellor's office Friday morning.

City To Hire CD Appraiser

Loudon City Council acted on several measures Monday night concerning the $500,000 Community Development Program known as the Mexico Renovation Project.

Approval was given to a resolution authorizing City Manager Gary Hensley to certify appraisals of property to be acquired in the project area. Authority was also given to hire a certified appraiser and review appraisals who would place the market values on the property in the project the city hopes to purchase.

Also adopted was a lane acquisition policy and procedure policy that will be used in the program.

The Council approved the production of a slide presentation of the Mexico Renovation Project to be used in future years to show what progress was made in the area through the efforts of the people of the community, who serve as advisors, the city and funds from the federal agency.

The council approved a budget amendment in the State Street Aid budget moving $25,000 in local funds into the materials budget line to complete themselves instead of contracting.

Approval was given to the purchase of a $5,500 curling machine. City Manager Gary Hensley said the purchase of the machine could be recovered with money saved by having the city crews doing the work instead of a contractor.

The purchase of two 1977 Chevrolet cruisers was approved. The cars, purchased through a bid from Miller Motor Company will cost the city $9,000. They reportedly are designed and manufactured for police use with special options. Two older cruisers will be sold by the city through the dealer car auction to help offset the cost of the new cars.

For the first time in several years the Fund has added another member agency. The addition of the Loudon County Association for Exceptional Citizens brings the United Fund agency total to six.

A goal of $50,000 has been set for this year. The United Fund secretary, Dottie Pace said that all agency chairmen and volunteers of the United Fund officials are urged to attend the kick-off dinner. Persons planning to attend should contact Mr. Pace at 566-3646. Roy G. Carlwell is in charge of the Kick-Off Program.

100 EMT's Attend Seminar Hosted By Loudon Chapter

Some 100 persons attended an Emergency Care Seminar hosted by the Loudon County Chapter of the Tennessee Emergency Medical Technicians Association at the Loudon County Rescue Squad Building last Wednesday. EMT's from as far away as 100 miles attended the Seminar.

Counties represented were Knox, Roane, Anderson, Monroe, Marion, Sequatchie, Polk, Blount, Morgan and Loudon. Eastern State Hospital, Loudon County Memorial Hospital, Fort Sanders, Children's Hospital and other health care facilities were represented at the meeting.

The E.M.T. Association expressed their appreciation to the physicians and guests speakers that co-operated in the idea to promote better care for the sick and injured. Ten speakers talked about the overall process of emergency care including the laws governing emergency care.

Opal Bundren, Fort Sanders Hospital Emergency Room Supervisor, spoke on the topic of transfer and transport of the Emergency Room patient and the nurse and E.M.T. working relations. Mrs. Bundren stated that in this age of time the E.M.T. had a most significant role to play in pre-hospital emergency care and it was a must that the nurse and E.M.T. confer the condition in transport to the Emergency Room and if any changes took place.

Dr. Peter Stimpson of Loudon spoke on Anaphylactic Shock, which is a reaction from injection of protein substance to which a patient is sensitive (insect bites are a common example). Dr. Stimpson pointed out that the first few minutes are very critical and anyone that has a reaction of this nature should seek medical attention as quickly as possible.

Robert Robinson, a certified respiratory technician, employed by Loudon County Hospital, spoke on the importance of airway management. He expressed his views that E.M.T.'s should be taught to intubate in the field.

Richard Land, Regional Consultant from the Public Health Dept. of Knoxville, spoke on Orthopedic and athletic injuries. Dr. Sam Hargrove, who spoke on applying tape to injuries and pointed out that it was necessary to properly support and immobilize injured or fractured parts of the body.

Gerald Easter, attorney at law, from Lenoir City, spoke to the body on Personal Liability. Mr. Easter gave one of the more impressive lectures and was highly praised by the entire body. The law is one of the most important parts to cover, and during training it is covered the least.

Pediatric Clinic to Help Needy Families

A Pediatric Language Clinic in the Bacon Building at Loudon by the University of Tennessee Department of Audiology and Speech Pathology under an agreement with the State Human Services.

Funded by a Title XX grant from the University of Tennessee, Dr. Sol Adler is heading the program for Loudon and Blount Counties. Kathy Meeks, a communication specialist will be assigned to Loudon County along with Janelle Honeycutt a social worker.

The program is designed to work with families of handicapped children through emotional support, child-rearing techniques, behavior management and home-training techniques.

The communicatively handicapped children, ages birth through 10 years and their families can be served by the Clinic. There is no charge for the professional services of the clinic, but all clients must be approved through the Department of Human Services.

Income limits are imposed in the program, but are liberal by most standards. A family of four with an income of $9,300 can participate.

Parents of children who are accepted are trained to work with the child at home to further assistance they might be getting through the schools or other agencies. The program is now open and receiving applicants. Ms Meeks said that if the program is successful a number of children and parents can be assisted although each group is kept quite small, but there will be rapid turnover in most cases.

The program is divided into three components, infants, pre school and academic. Infants up to 18 months old. A six week course, 90 minutes one day a week, will be provided for high-risk babies and their mothers. The course will consist of lectures, discussion and demonstration in the following developmental areas: language comprehension and expression, social and motor skills, and problem solving. The social worker will determine future needs at the end of the six week program.

Preschool - 18 months to school age - This program consists of four days a week 90 minutes in-clinic program for handicapped children. Parents will be involved in classroom observation and teaching as well as in group and individual discussion.

Home visits and home training are included.

Academic - school age to 10 years - The academic program has two goals for the 16-77 grant year: 1 - to determine a need for supportive services to the public schools by the program, and 2 - to develop a prototype for serving children with specific learning disabilities in academic subjects and their families.

Redskins In Top Team Form

Loudon Unloads On Lenoir City Football Team, Hands Panthers 48-0 Thrasing

The Loudon Redskins came out breathing fire last Friday night as they played host to County rival Lenoir City. When the stampede had ended, the Redskins had maulled the winless Panthers by a score of 48-0.

The victory was Loudon's third of the season and by far their most impressive all round showing. For Lenoir City it marked their fourth straight setback of the fall and possibly their worst effort of the current campaign. Loudon has seen them lose to Knoxville Holston 13-0, Alcoa 38-0, and Harriman 15-0, prior to Friday night's disastrous play.

Loudon fans appeared to be a little more relaxed following the final gun as compared to the Redskins first two games of the season in fighting to defend their "A.A." State title with a possible third in the works.

"We did have a fine team attitude for Lenoir City," noted Loudon head Coach Bert Ratledge. "The coaches did nothing more to prepare for this one than any of our regular season opponents. The boys just seemed to want to play a little more with the abilities of which they are capable."

Coach Ratledge said he guessed it was time for the Redskins to have a solid performance as the season now swings into a definite threat for the 'Skins overall playoff chances. "Of course it is hard to evaluate a Loudon-Lenoir City sports event, when they get all pumped up for each other," stated the coach. "No, I did not have any thoughts of the score being one-sided. Lenoir City had some bad breaks that contributed to our scoring and then we played well with good offensive blocking and our defense was aggressive," noted Coach Ratledge.

Lenoir City coach Scott Conner was not pleased at all with his teams' efforts. The Panther head coach felt he did not receive the total team play which the Panthers proved they were capable of in battering a stout Harriman team around only the Friday night before.

"Our offense was as bad as I can ever remember. I thought the Alcoa game was bad but we just seemed to quit blocking or quit running when Loudon would stop us. We hurt ourselves with costly turnovers. We had several individuals to do a respectable job on defense although the score makes it look like we lined up along side of Loudon instead of opposite them," stated Coach Conner, trying to manage a slight smile.

"Loudon has a tough team and are big and strong. They opened up some holes that produced a lot of running room for their backs. They have good depth too, they are just a fine football team that wanted to play and win worse than we wanted to play and win. We have a three game home stand coming up now and we feel with a strong showing in each of those games we could be battling for a possible .500 season. We won't lay down and cry over our losing start, we are just looking for the next game. We have played some top double-A play of contenders in these past weeks and that is a big hint to cheer if you are trying to get new fire into a program that has become custom to losing."

Loudon's strong team effort was fully complimented by the fact that almost every player on the Redskins roster saw game time action. The 48 points scored was shared by seven players tallying touchdowns and junior defensive end Jim Brown kicking six of seven conversion placements. The Redskins caused six Lenoir City fumbles, recovered four and intercepted a pass that was returned for a touchdown and capped the triumph.

The Redskins dominated not only the score but the statistics as well, logging a first down difference of 15 to four and had 404 yards of offense, while yielding 81 to the Panthers. Loudon won the toss and took the opening kick-off. Freddie Starritt returned the kick 16 yards to the Loudon 35 and the Redskins were rolling. Quarterback Greg Deatridge tensed at the Lenoir City defense on three straight carries that produced

19 yards. From the LC 47, Deatridge handed the ball to junior fullback Mark Moore and Moore bolted through the Panther defensive line off the blocks of Sam Stewart, Bryan Curtis, Junior Iolen and Bobby Moore to the end zone and a 47 yard touchdown with 9:41 left in the first quarter. Loudon was whistled for a five yard illegal procedure call on the try for extra point but Loudon's Jim Brown still managed to boot the conversion with a wide range of distance which could give the Redskins a 14-0 lead. The Panthers kept their first first down on the game with a 38 yard punt to the quarter as running back Jackie Ryan ran for 12 yards to the Lenoir City 31. Sam Stewart and Mark Moore were instrumental in Loudon's defensive stubbornness to force the Panthers to punt to open the second quarter.

BEST PANTHER RUN—Lenoir City quarterback Jimmy Matlock (10) is on his way to a 48 yard gain in the second half against Loudon.

LOUDON QUARTERBACKS ALL SCORE—Loudon senior field general Carter Cardwell (10) steps from the turf tackle of a Lenoir City tackler to log a touchdown. All the Loudon quarterbacks scored in the 48-0 win.

Loudon had one more serious drive following a booming 52 yard Lenoir City punt by Phil Reed. The Redskins started from their own 28 with Cardwell spiking the dial for real estate. Steve Watkins and David Black shared the running chores as Loudon reached the LC 23 only to have a short pass by Cardwell intercepted by sophomore Bobby Morgan.

JUST ACROSS THE DOUBLE STRIPE—Loudon junior quarterback Eddie Estes (11) checks to be sure he is over the goal line as he added to the Loudon win over Lenoir City with a fourth down touchdown plunge of one yard.

Loudon a possible scoring weapon in the way of a field goal in later games from inside the 20.

Lenoir City, getting the ball for the first time on a 13 yard kick-off return by Doyle Varner to their own 50, managed just seven yards in three plays. Sam Tharp and B.J. Moore led the Loudon defensive charge.

Phil Reed kicked a 41 yard fourth down punt, with Freddie Starritt bringing it back 12 yards with 7:20 to play in the opening period. The Redskins, operating at their own 32, got a three yard plunge from Mark Moore. Greg Deatridge squirmed into the Panther secondary for 17 yards and then Freddie Starritt, finding the big holes that had rocketed Mark Moore on his way to Loudon's first touchdown, set sail on a 48 yard dash of his own as Loudon gained control of the contest by a 14-0 count with just half the first quarter over.

The Panthers again started their offense from their 38, but a poor pitchout had Panther quarterback Jimmy Matlock hurrying to recover the loose football for a nine yard loss. The setback forced a Panther punt of 36 yards.

Loudon was finally checked by the Lenoir defense, despite having excellent field position at mid-field. Marty Galyon almost came up with a Loudon fumble and Jack Thomas and Chris Wampler, a junior and sophomore respectively, made key defensive stops as Loudon punted its first of two fourth down kicks. The Panthers posted their first first down on the game with a 38 yard punt to the quarter as running back Jackie Ryan ran for 12 yards to the Lenoir City 31. Sam Stewart and Mark Moore were instrumental in Loudon's defensive stubbornness to force the Panthers to punt to open the second quarter.

The Redskins senior quarterback, Greg Deatridge, who had the wind knocked out of him by a Loudon last offensive series, was bogged in his final play of the evening. The crowd's Deatridge darted off the blocks of Sam Stewart and B.J. Moore to elude would-be Panther tacklers and on to the end zone for a 63 yard touchdown gallop with just 58 seconds gone from the second quarter clock.

Lenoir City got the ball for just two offensive plays before Freddie Starritt, with 11:50 left in the game, found the hole and the ball was lost on the tackle by Loudon's David Black and Freddie Starritt with 11:50 Moore getting the pigskin at the LC 43.

Carter Cardwell took over the Loudon field general duties with 7:25 to play in the first half. The senior back-up to Deatridge needed just three plays to test the Panther defense before rounding the right end block of Conway Dukes and Gary Brown for a 40 yard touchdown romp. Watkins applied the final knock down at the Panther five as Cardwell registered six points. Loudon missed the extra point kick and had to settle for a 27-0 difference with 8:40 left in the half.

Lenoir City received two offensive series before intermissions but both were deep in their own territory and the farthest they managed to move the ball was to their own 29 on both occasions, never making a first down.

Loudon had one more serious drive following a booming 52 yard Lenoir City punt by Phil Reed. The Redskins started from their own 28 with Cardwell spiking the dial for real estate. Steve Watkins and David Black shared the running chores as Loudon reached the LC 23 only to have a short pass by Cardwell intercepted by sophomore Bobby Morgan.

Lenoir City received the football to start the third quarter but failed to move the pigskin as a 15 yard holding penalty hampered the struggling Panther offense. Phil Reed's leg was back in action for a 47 yard punt and Loudon got its first taste of the second half with the football. Carter Cardwell continued to run the Loudon attack as Coach Bert Ratledge started to give notice Redskins reserves.

Nevertheless it was still Loudon's first offense that

Loudon's strong team effort was fully complimented by the fact that almost every player on the Redskins roster saw game time action. The 48 points scored was shared by seven players tallying touchdowns and junior defensive end Jim Brown kicking six of seven conversion placements. The Redskins caused six Lenoir City fumbles, recovered four and intercepted a pass that was returned for a touchdown and capped the triumph.

The Redskins dominated not only the score but the statistics as well, logging a first down difference of 15 to four and had 404 yards of offense, while yielding 81 to the Panthers. Loudon won the toss and took the opening kick-off. Freddie Starritt returned the kick 16 yards to the Loudon 35 and the Redskins were rolling. Quarterback Greg Deatridge tensed at the Lenoir City defense on three straight carries that produced

19 yards. From the LC 47, Deatridge handed the ball to junior fullback Mark Moore and Moore bolted through the Panther defensive line off the blocks of Sam Stewart, Bryan Curtis, Junior Iolen and Bobby Moore to the end zone and a 47 yard touchdown with 9:41 left in the first quarter. Loudon was whistled for a five yard illegal procedure call on the try for extra point but Loudon's Jim Brown still managed to boot the conversion with a wide range of distance which could give the Redskins a 14-0 lead. The Panthers kept their first first down on the game with a 38 yard punt to the quarter as running back Jackie Ryan ran for 12 yards to the Lenoir City 31. Sam Stewart and Mark Moore were instrumental in Loudon's defensive stubbornness to force the Panthers to punt to open the second quarter.

Perfect Football Contest Wins Top Money

Ten out of 10 has been good for first place in the Football Contest all this season. Mary E. Stevens, Rt. 1, Lake Drive, Loudon, was the first place winner of $12 with all ten games correct.

Only four entries had 10 games bringing the tie-breaker into play. A perfect breaker would have been 40 points (Loudon 48-Lenoir 0). Robby best was closest with 39 and wins $8 for second place. He lives in Sweetwater.

Third was Sara Chibarr, Rt. 1, Loudon, with 34 on the tie-breaker. She wins $2 from the contest sponsors. Winners must pick up their cash awards at the field office on Mulberry Street.

The other two who picked nine games correct were Randall Surber and Freddie Roberts, both of Highland Avenue in Loudon.

Community Education—The Community Education classes for this quarter have started and it is good to note that several folks are taking advantage of this opportunity to further their formal education and/or add to their general knowledge and enjoyment. We do sincerely hope that this program will continue to expand as this year moves on and look forward to having twice as many classes next quarter.

Building Program—There has been a slight delay in the progress of the county-wide building program. We are hopeful of breaking this blockade late this week so that the progress may be resumed. Next fall we must have Philadelphia Elementary ready to use by September, 1977.

Vocational Center—Now that the new vocational center is open and in operation it is gratifying to see the operation of the vocational program improving with one full-time director to head up its operation. Coy Gibson has assured us that enrollment will increase as time passes. While the present student enrollment is a three-to-one ratio between Lenoir City and Loudon-Greenback students, we feel certain that this figure

Planners Hear Of Possible Shopping Center

Whaley Wins Recommendation For Rezoning

The Loudon County Planning Commission last week heard a request from Tom Williams of Loudon to place a rezoning request on the October agenda of the Commission.

Williams told the Commission he was going to request the rezoning of a 10-acre tract of land he owns on Highway 11 at the West Loudon City Limits from suburban residential to general commercial.

Mr. Williams said he has an agreement pending to lease the property for the development of a shopping center.

The Commission assured Williams that they would consider his request and felt it would be approved without objection since there is other commercial property near his. He stated that the plans for the small shopping center called for a large grocery store, drug and variety store, and possibly a bank or savings and loan. Williams was also advised his request would have to be considered by the City of Loudon Planning Commission.

The Commission reversed its action of a month ago when it refused to recommend the rezoning of a parcel of land from agriculture to suburban residential to allow for the construction of an apartment complex by J.B. Whaley.

Whaley won the recommendation last week by a 3-3 vote over the objections of State Planner Steve Campbell and Commission Chairman Ben Galyon. Whaley owns a farm about four miles out of Loudon west of 171, which he says he purchased for development into residential use.

His present plans are for a six-unit apartment complex, complete with swimming pool and tennis courts. He said he plans his own water supply and waste treatment facility.

Campbell opposed the rezoning recommendation to county court on the grounds that the project would open the door for demands for utility services in a rural area of the county which is primarily used for farming and should be kept free of high density housing development. Whaley, who several years ago developed an apartment unit in the city of Loudon said his future plans were for all rural developments and the project he now proposes could be expanded. He plans to spend $250,000 on the apartment units.

Several of the planners said that although they recognized the rezoning recommendation was somewhat outside the guidelines they were operating under the need and the Loudon area outweighed the possible disadvantages it might present.

A request by K.H. Lin, carried over from last month to allow for the relocation of a portion of Rest Camp Road in the third district, to allow for irrigation of a farm he owns was withdrawn. Mr. Lin, represented by attorney Harrison Crabtree, decided that since many of his neighbors opposed a relocation of the road as he proposed, he would withdraw the request.

On another 5-3 vote the Planning Commission approved recommending to County Court that property owned by George Sarten near the YMCA golf course at Martel be rezoned from rural residential to general commercial.

Sarten said he bought the property, the old Candy Factory, in 1970 as industrial property and in 1971 when the county zoned property it was zoned for residential.

He said the buildings on the property have been used for industrial and commercial storage of a million pounds of copper and paper. The Commission said this was an acceptable non-conforming use, such as that of the Texaco Oil pumping station near Sarten's property. Told he could continue using the property as he had under the non-conforming use basis, Sarten said he wanted to make improvements to the property, possibly add a new warehouse and his son wanted to build a wedding shop, which required rezoning.

Squire I. D. Conner said no other property owners were involved and he made the motion to recommend the rezoning and call for a public hearing.

In other action the Planners accepted the roads in the Point Harbor Subdivision on recommendation of County Road Engineer Tom Davis.

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

The other day we were talking to a Loudon man who was around during those years we refer to as the Good Old Days. This man is possibly one of the best and most widely known men in Loudon. All of his life he has been involved in things that brought him in contact with a world of people. Being an outgoing and friendly person makes him a man you can't forget. The man we are referring to is Boss Wallace, who grew up in Loudon and worked for the City of Loudon for many years. Boss told us he had some pictures for the Good Old Days. He has loaned us some excellent old pictures across the years and of course, we were very interested in what he has for the Good Old Days. One of the pictures we had run before, quite some time ago, we are using again this week because of its tie in with the other picture. The one we had used before is of the old Blair Ferry, taken many years ago. Boss's father John Wallace, was a part of this old ferry for many years. The other picture is another ferryboat picture of the same ferry, but a different boat. The man at the wheel is Scott Wallace, Boss's grandfather. The smaller boy is Boss. The larger boy is the late Charlie Wallace, Boss's brother. The two pictures represent two generations of this family who worked their entire life on this old Loudon ferry. Boss said that Scott Wallace, his grandfather was the one who nicknamed him Boss. Not the current driven ferry. We have had a lot of comments on the pictures we ran of the Loudon City area. This has been very pleasing to us. We have enjoyed talking to many readers from that part of our County. Mrs. Dessie Hale called us the other day and stated that the school we were writing about on the East side of Loudon City was housed in the building where Click Funeral Home is now. Click's bought it and remodeled it a few years ago. Mrs. Hale was recalling things she remembered as a girl growing in the Loudon City area. She said when she was a small girl, she was in a store in Loudon City and one of the Livery Stables burned down. The horses had broken out of the burning building and were running down Broadway with their manes on fire. She said it was the most horrid sight she ever saw and that she would never forget it. We appreciate all the calls and comments from our readers. In the last month (on weekends) we have traveled on Interstates in Tenn., Georgia and Alabama a total of 2,300 miles. Our daughter has been seriously ill in Montgomery, Ala. and we have been making the trip every weekend. We have met many new people during this time. Friends we will never forget and many of these contacts have come through our CB radio. These friends have helped us make our trips a little safer and quicker. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Kimberly Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rogers of Loudon City, celebrated her second birthday September 14. She is the granddaughter of A.C. Rogers, Neva Presley and Mr. and Mrs. Joe White, all of Loudon.

Up In Smoke . . .

$1,537,000 Spent On Smoking

Smoking appears to be on a decline in Loudon County, especially among adults. Among teenagers, on the other hand, it is increasing.

Such are the findings, based upon nationwide surveys conducted by governmental and private health organizations.

They point to a marked drop in the percentage of adults who continue to smoke cigarettes and a cutback in consumption on the part of many others.

Their figures show, for the United States as a whole, that only 39.3 percent of men over 21 are smokers now, as against 42.2 percent in 1970 and 52.4 percent in 1964, when the Surgeon-General's anti-smoking campaign began.

As for the women over 21, some 28.9 percent now smoke, compared with 30.5 percent in 1970 and 31.5 percent in 1964.

Quite different is the trend among younger people. The number of girl smokers in the 13 to 17 age bracket has increased by a half-million in the last five years. One-fourth of them smoke and, of these, 40 percent consume more than a pack a day.

In Loudon County, based upon a breakdown of the figures, approximately 3,182,000 packs of cigarettes were sold in the past year.

The findings are from data compiled by the Public Health Service, the American Cancer Society and others.

Related to Loudon County's population over age 18, the consumption was at the rate of 173 packs per person.

Elsewhere in the United States, by way of comparison, the average was 185 packs and, in the East South Central States, 209.

The attitude toward smoking, by those who indulge and those who do not, has changed considerably in the last few years, the Public Health Service finds.

Among the smokers themselves, there have been more determined attempts, more successful and some not, to stop or to cut back.

As for the non-smokers, concerned about the health hazards, they have been agitating to have more public places designated as non-smoking areas.

How many are Loudon County residents spending for their smoking pleasure? Their bill was close to $1,537,000 last year, it is estimated, or about $48 per smoker.

Survey Shows Local Doctor Shortage

Only 29 of Tennessee's 96 Counties have fewer doctors per thousand of population than Loudon County, according to the most recent survey by the Tennessee Department of Public Health.

The survey shows Loudon County only has one practicing doctor for every 3,188 people. Only 29 other counties have a higher number of people for which each doctor must care.

The average for the state, according to the survey, is one practicing doctor for every 1,098 people.

"That means our doctors must see three times more patients than do doctors, on the average," seen in this state.

"Unfortunately, that probably isn't happening. In reality, a doctor can only see so many patients a day in his office and hospital."

"That means either people don't get the amount of doctor care they need, or else they must go outside the county. This concerns us a great deal," says C. Gay Hamilton, Administrator of the Loudon County Hospital.

Hamilton explained that the hospital, being owned by the community, only exists to serve the community.

"We're not in business to make a profit. Our hospital's only objective is to meet community health needs at the lowest cost possible."

"Unfortunately, providing needed services is dependent upon the physician. A hospital can't function without the doctor," he said.

Hamilton said the future looks even more grim for Loudon County residents. "The health planners say the average doctor begins to slow down and cut-back on his practice starting at about age 55. And who can blame them?"

Few people can comprehend the pressures placed on a doctor. These dedicated men are entitled to slow down at some time in their careers."

"Here in Loudon County, nearly half of our practicing doctors are over 65 years of age, or older, and there are no younger men coming on to replace them. What happens when these hard-working men decide to start slowing down a bit, or retire?"

Hamilton asked. "Compounding the problem, he said, is the fact that the county is growing rapidly in population."

Between 1970 and 1974 we showed a 7.9 percent increase in population, compared to only a 5.2 percent increase for the state," Hamilton said.

In the 16 County Health Service Area, of which Loudon County is a part, the average population growth during the same period was only 6.3 percent.

"Every year we have more people to try and care for. But our health care system is just not keeping pace," Hamilton said.

In the 16 County Health Service Area, only four other counties—Union, Morgan, Grainger and Cooke—have a higher physician-to-population ratio than Loudon county.

When the number of hospital beds are calculated on the basis of beds per 100,000 of population, Loudon County only provides one bed for every 256 people. The Tennessee average is one bed for every 186 people.

The hospital administrator said the County Court and Hospital Board of Trustees is already generally aware of the situation.

"What we're trying to do now is to come up with some sound ideas the Board can recommend to the Court."

"One idea we're exploring is the provision of a professional building in conjunction with the hospital. We are told this is absolutely necessary to attract doctors, and we're trying to find out how successful this idea has been in other hospitals in the state," Hamilton said.

He said that ultimately, however, it will be up to the County residents to determine the future of their County's health system.

"It's their's. They pay the bills. Our job is to provide the information they and their elected and appointed representatives need to make sound judgments," Hamilton said.

Kilby Captured In Knoxville

J. S. Kilby, who escaped from Loudon County Jail in June, was captured in a house on Loop Road in West Knox County Saturday.

Knox County Deputy Jim Campbell said Kilby was under a bed occupied by a couple who were sleeping.

After Assistant Chief Deputy Bryan Sturgill, Captain Jeop Johnson and Deputy Ken Medaris had surrounded him, Kilby was being held in Loudon County Jail as a material witness in an auto larceny case. He told Knox County Deputies he eluded them in an auto chase three weeks ago.

Campbell said there was about three inches of space under the bed and he didn't know how Kilby got under it. He added that the man and woman, who appeared to be sleeping, said they hadn't got up yet.

First Aid Clinic At High School Opens

The Loudon High School Red Cross Volunteer First Aid and Health Clinic is in full operation. This program operates in the various clinics in the various county schools.

Since the clinic is under the authority of the American Red Cross, it exercises certain rules and regulations. Among the regulations are restrictions as to giving any medicine that may cause reaction by the patient; therefore, not even aspirin may be dispensed. Each worker is required to hold a valid certificate in First Aid.

There is need for additional volunteers who are willing to become certified in first aid.

To help teenagers, and to become a part of the educational program of Loudon High School, any person interested in becoming involved, who can or cannot become a volunteer worker, may call the Volunteer Chairman, Mary Katherine Mize (Phone 458-3194) for ways to help.

To show the importance of such a clinic, during the first four days, these kinds of ailments have been treated: upset stomach, splinter in finger, pencil lead in arm, injury from volley ball, and from a fall, a bee sting, earache, and a sore knee.

Hospital Care Costs Here Below Average

The cost of providing a patient a day of care in the Loudon County Hospital was about a third less than the national average last year, according to a study just released by the Hospital Administrator G. Gay Hamilton, last year the national average cost of providing an adjusted day of care was $137.77. The cost at the Loudon County Hospital was only $92.86. An "adjusted day of care" is one that is mathematically calculated to take into account walk-in and walk-out (outpatient) care as well as bed (inpatient) care. Hamilton said he expects new data to be released this month by the American Hospital Association will show that the adjusted patient day expense at his hospital averages about 15 percent less than that for the Knoxville hospitals.

Hamilton said these statistics were good news for local businesses and residents.

"It has been proven time and time again that one of the most effective ways for businesses and people to hold down their health insurance premiums is to use the least expensive care available, as long as it is of high quality," Hamilton said.

He explained that when people insist on going to larger hospitals for care, when it can be obtained locally, they pay a larger bill.

"Of course, when more and more people use the larger metropolitan hospitals, the amount of money the insurance companies has to pay increases rapidly. Obviously, they then have to increase their premium charges, which individuals and businesses have to pay," Hamilton said.

Hamilton said that people who believe larger hospitals provide better care are misinformed.

"It is true that larger hospitals generally provide more facilities and services," he cautioned. "But the quality of the care and services we do provide is every bit as good as those found in a larger hospital and, possibly, even better," Hamilton said.

He explained that the health professionals working in the Loudon County Hospital have to meet the exact same license standards as those found in other, larger hospitals.

"And the services we provide have to meet the same strict standards, and pass the same quality tests, as those in bigger hospitals," Hamilton said.

Plus, he said, there may be something the Loudon County Hospital can provide that you can't find, or buy, in any other hospital.

"We're a part of the community. Our patients are our friends and neighbors. Obviously, we're going to try just a bit harder to take care of you."

"In our hospital, you're not just a room number on a chart. You're a individual, a person. And you'll be treated accordingly," Hamilton said.

He cautioned that the physician will admit the patient to the institution where he believes the best care can be obtained.

"But it just doesn't make sense for a patient to insist on going into the big city hospital and services would, of course, help us attract new doctors to our area."

"New doctors mean more patients, and more patients mean a larger operating margin. The cycle tends to feed itself."

"That's the way you provide more and better services to the community while holding down charges," Hamilton said.

Alford Farm Conservation Work Done

The Loudon County Soil Conservation District recently completed a conservation plan with W.E. Alford, Dixie Lee Lenoir City. Alford requested the District's help after buying a 46 acre farm on Happy Hollow Road.

The farm was in rather poor condition. Gullies, grown-up fences, no livestock water and poor pastures were the major problems. Soil tests showed a need for lime and fertilizer to restore soil fertility. A soil map indicated that the farm had good potential for producing pasture and locating ponds for livestock water.

Alford and technicians from the Soil Conservation Service prepared to plan to renovate the pastures, build new fences and construct ponds for cattle. As planned, 30 acres of pasture have been subsoiled on the contour, limed, fertilized and sowed this fall. Two ponds have been completed for livestock water and a large gully has been repaired. The remaining pasture and fence work will be completed within two years.

The Soil Conservation District provides free to all cooperators planning assistance that includes a farm map, soils map with interpretations, and field assistance on ponds, gully control, pastures, cropping systems and other problems. The District Office is located in the Bacon Building in Loudon, telephone number 458-2306.

PASSENGER INJURED—Ross Coker, 18, Philadelphia, a passenger in the car pictured, was treated for a mouth injury at Loudon County Memorial Hospital after the accident about 7 p.m. Friday near Iced Springs Church. Driver of the car was reported to be Danny Hill of Philadelphia.

THIS VIEW OF W.E. ALFORD'S FARM shows a new pond, a repaired gully and pasture recently sowed. Straw mulch was spread around the pond banks and over the old gully. The Alford farm has recently been renovated with help from the Soil Conservation District of Loudon County.

Coach Runs Out Of Gum, Confuses Score

Most Friday night football games are at the most "four block" juicy Friday night game. Loudon Head Football Coach Bert Rutledge the veteran grid master did carry a "recovery" pack to the Maryville-Loudon regular season game that was overwrought last fall and again had plenty for the play-offs.

Coach Rutledge is the typical at ease self admitted he truthfully had been coaching for an entire half trying to break a tie game and give going into overtime. I guess I just watched too many films of Crossville scoring touchdowns and kicking extra points last week. I guess if we had stuck to the ground we might have eventually scored as well as they did.

LC Rides 'Ryan Express' To First Win Of Season

Even a 30 minute game delay failed to dampen the spirits and play of the Lenoir City Panthers in turning back winless Knoxville Gibbs 26-0 Friday night.

The late arriving Eagles ran head long into a Panther offensive explosion that saw Junior Jackie Ryan run for 144 yards on 13 carries, catch a 12 yard pass, and score two touchdowns on runs of five and 67 yards.

Ryan was not alone in his heroics that produced the hungry Panthers with their first win after four straight defeats.

Steve Porter put the Lenoir City gridders on the score board with 3:59 to play in the first period, breaking away from scrimmage on a 53 yard scoring dash.

The Panthers had received the opening kickoff, but was checked on a lost fumble following a first down at the 46.

Gibbs picked up two first downs in getting close to the Panther end zone only to have a possible touchdown pass intercepted by Doyle Varner at the Panther four.

From the four yard line the Panthers marched with authority to their own 47 before springing Porter loose on his touchdown run. The drive of 96 yards took nine plays.

The extra point kick was no good. The Gibbs offense was almost held to a stand still at the Panthers forced a punt.

The Panthers then set up shop from their own 24 for their first offensive series of the second quarter. Two plays and a penalty had moved the ball only a few yards, hence on third down Panther quarterback Jimmy Matlock took to the air and connected with senior end and game captain Phil Reed on a reception and run covering 76 yards and a second Panther touchdown. Eddie Park booted the extra point for a 13-0 score at the half.

Lenoir City's defense allowed Gibbs only one first down in their next two offensive series, while being denied a possible chance at more points themselves through damaging penalties.

Lenoir City suffered 35 yards in penalties in the final five minutes of the first half. Neither team was overly impressive in the third quarter on offense. The Panther defense hawking the Eagle ball carriers and minor penalties and assisting the Gibbs tacklers in slowing the Lenoir City offense.

Lenoir City finally took charge of the game in the fourth quarter, recovering two fumbles, and allowing the visiting Eagles only one real offensive series of which produced their lone six points.

Richard Vest, Roger Landrum, and Jimmy

Johnson all claimed Gibbs fumbles in the course of the game. The final recovery coming at the Gibbs 26. Jackie Ryan accounted for 14 of the Panthers short drive and scooted into the end zone from the five with 7:28 to play. Eddie Park again made the conversion kick.

The Eagles took the ensuing kickoff and moving through the air on passes rammed the ball into the Panther end zone in seven plays. The drive covered 65 yards and the final 37 came on a first down pass.

The pass for a two point conversion was incomplete. Lenoir City answered back with a three yard return of the kick-off to the Panther 33. From this point Jackie Ryan was like a mighty express rounding the end and down the side lines for a 67 yard run and the Panthers fourth touchdown of the game. The kick failed.

Steve Porter, who had the first touchdown jaunt, finished the game with 87 yards of rushing. Doyle Varner had 48 yards to round out the top Panther individuals.

"We blocked much better and we stuck some people for a change," commented Coach Scott Conner. "I feel we had a pretty fair offensive execution and certainly a much improved defensive showing with this win. We needed to win in the worst way. Now we have a little time off to prepare for Ooltewah in two weeks. We need the rest, as some of our key people are pretty well trussed up from our first five games. We hope to be in full squad readiness by the ninth (Ooltewah)."

Greenback Defeated In See-Saw Football Thriller At Porter 26-21

The Greenback Cherokees may well have won the battle but still lost the war. The Cherokee football team fought a hard battle at the Maryville Porter football and lost Friday night in a losing cause to the tune of 26-21.

The Cherokees came from behind twice to take control of the game, but just could not weather the battering Porter rushing attack in the final quarter which carved defeat.

Greenback lost two fumbles in its first two offensive possessions with the second turnover allowing the Panthers to convert a six play 33 yard drive to six points.

All Conference Guard Eric Belcher blocked the try for extra point.

Greenback finally completed an offensive series with out fumbling and after being forced to punt caught the Panthers attempting to pass on first down. Lynn Rucker spear the pass at the Porter 33. Roddy Kizer raced for 25 yards to the Porter 14, but the running became tough from here and Greenback ran out of down at the 10. Porter was attempting to move the ball from deep in own 25 when the Cherokees undressed the Panther ball carrier of the ball for the second time. Roger Hampton claimed the loose pigskin with 5:33 to play in the first half.

Kizer used a pass interference penalty of half the distance to the Porter goal line to rocket his team to spy dirt for a second time with 3:14 on the scoreboard clock. Danny Kizer's kick was off its target.

The Cherokees carried a 13-6 lead into intermission, but Porter narrowed the gap on the second half kick-off by driving the length of the field for a nine play 65 yard touch down march. The touchdown coming on a 27 yard pass play. Still the Panthers were unsuccessful on the try for the conversion and Greenback held a 13-12 difference with 8:29 to play in the third quarter.

Greenback's offense had trouble getting a good second half start and a punt was soon in order.

From their own 39 Porter again "unloaded a scoring march, good for 61 yards in eight well designed plays and the touchdown coming with 4:16 left in the period from nine yards out on a pass. They try for a two point conversion was also good on a pass and a 20-13 Porter lead.

Not to be out done at this stage the Cherokees mounted their own offensive surge that would take the remainder of the third quarter and two plays into the fourth quarter to produce a touchdown.

Greenback moved the ball successful on the try for the conversion and Greenback held a 13-12 difference with 8:29 to play in the third quarter.

Greenback's offense had trouble getting a good second half start and a punt was soon in order.

Rex Collier Has Reminder To Hunters

Last year the Tennessee legislature passed a law requiring that every person hunting big game during gun hunts must wear on the upper portion of their body and head outer garments of daylight fluorescent orange color or less than 500 square inches and visible from front and back.

Last year I got several questions wondering just how a person is to get exactly 500 square inches and if the wildlife officers measure the fluorescent orange garment to make sure that it is 500 square inches. Most commercial fluorescent orange vests will be of sufficient size to fulfill the requirement.

Don't forget that the required color must be worn on the head and must be visible from front and back. No other color will be considered as a replacement for the required fluorescent orange.

Swine Flu Immunization Being Planned

vaccine there will be in the next couple of weeks.

The type of immunization program, whether mass efforts like the polio immunization about 12 years ago, or some other form, such as clinics at the doctor's or Health Department.

This will be determined by the Health Department after meeting with the doctors.

According to Mr. Barid, most immunization efforts in Tennessee's 96 counties will be provided through the health departments and local industry. The initial effort will make vaccine available to inoculate those residents who are over 65 years of age and those with chronic illnesses.

Mr. Barid indicated that the campaign is a result of recent congressional action in providing monies for the nationwide campaign. Tennessee will receive $46,000 plus 2.1 million doses of vaccine for the statewide program.

He noted that the first strain of the new influenza virus was isolated during an outbreak of respiratory disease among recruits in training at Fort Dix, New Jersey, in February of 1976.

"Although a swine influenza virus has been known as the cause of illness in swine for many years, the Fort Dix outbreak is the first known example in the United States since about 1930 of person-to-person transmission of human influenza virus related to that of swine," he said.

Many noted physicians and scientists believe that the influenza pandemic of 1918 which killed some 30 million people worldwide was caused by the swine-like virus.

"Testing of blood of individuals who were living in 1918 shows almost all have antibodies to swine-like virus," said Mr. Barid. "This sort may have caused the 1918 pandemic."

But, according to Mr. Barid, there is no evidence to indicate that the virus recently identified at Fort Dix has the same characteristics of virulence as the 1918 virus, but he notes that public health officials nationwide are taking no chances of another epidemic.

According to Mr. Barid, there is no specific treatment for swine influenza, or for that matter, any influenza. But he adds that there are ways to significantly blunt the impact of this disease.

"Vaccines which were not available in 1918 are now an effective way to prevent the disease," he said. "Antibiotics, which were also unavailable in 1918, are important in treating the complications of influenza and thereby reducing fatalities."

Influenza itself is a respiratory disease caused by a virus with the main types being A and B. Each type includes various strains and from time to time new strains develop.

"When this happens and if the strains are quite different from previous ones, they may cause epidemics because people have not had any previous exposure to them and consequently have not built up any specific immunity against them."

According to Mr. Barid, influenza is a moderately severe illness but usually not a serious health threat unless it breaks out in epidemic proportion.

He does note, however, that influenza can be a very serious disease for high risk groups since many of its complications are life-threatening. For additional information contact the local health department.

Living Standards Rising Locally

The lifestyle of Loudon County residents is at a relatively high level, judging from their mounting acquisition of major household appliances and other expensive equipment.

With the exception of the last few years, a period marked by recession, high inflation and unemployment, non-essentials, local families have been adding to their possessions with each passing year.

Their purchases of stereos, air conditioners, dishwashers, color TV sets, food freezers, cars and other high-cost articles have been on a steady increase since 1960.

What made such expenditures possible was the income gains chalked up by most families in the area.

The rate at which they have been adding to their ownership of automobiles and appliances is calculated from data compiled by the Department of Commerce and others.

With regard to home freezers, for example, the figures indicate that approximately 41 percent of the households in Loudon County now have them. In 1960 they were to be found in only 22 percent of the homes.

Air conditioners, also, are in much more general use locally. About 22 percent of the housing units in the area are equipped with them, as compared with 13 percent previously.

Similarly, many more local homes have TV sets. Over 97 percent of them now do, as against 81 percent formerly.

Ownership of cars has also gone up considerably. Some 97 percent of the families in the area have one or more. In 1960, 81 percent had cars.

The extent to which these four kinds of equipment are to be found in an area is taken as an indicator of its standard of living generally. If 100 percent of the families in a community had every one of them, its index rating would be the maximum possible, 400.

It compares with a United States rating of 240.

Not surprisingly, ownership of expensive equipment is directly related to earnings. The index for families with incomes over $25,000 is nearly twice that for families in the $10,000 to $15,000 bracket.

Loudon FFA Team Competes At Fair

The Loudon FFA Tobacco grading team recently competed in the TVA's Fair Tobacco grading contest sponsored by Austin Tobacco Company for the East Tennessee Chapters and 4-H Clubs.

The team, composed of Benny Beatty, Kenny Bingham, Eddie Maynard and Randy Otran scored 975 points out of a possible 1000 to achieve a sixth place finish in competition with 27 other teams.

The members were required to demonstrate the proper methods of preparing the tobacco for stripping, strip it into proper grades, tie it into hands, press the tobacco and place it in the bulk for market.

The team was coached by Loudon Chapter advisor, David Lynn.

The Imperial Chrysler Plymouth Line For 1977 Is Now At Loudon Motor Company

Chrysler-Plymouth has improved the quality and value of its 1977 products in every price range from the smallest, most economical cars to the largest, most luxurious models, according to Jack Hodge and Harold Amburn of Loudon Motor Co. "The long-time Chrysler policy of providing extra value in its cars is apparent in the 1977 Chrysler-Plymouth line," Hodge said. "In every price range we have made styling and comfort refinements, and we have taken weight-reduction measures aimed at improving fuel economy."

The use of the remarkable Electronic Lean Burn engine system, which offers better acceleration and response, has been expanded, and we are introducing a more powerful version of the reliable 225 CID Slant-Six engine, which we call the "Super Six."

"Rust and corrosion protection have been improved, lubrication intervals are extended, and we have made real progress in parts standardization, which should contribute to faster repair service at dealerships. Other engineering improvements contribute to safety, clean air, and ease of maintenance."

The 1977 Chrysler-Plymouth product highlights for 1977 include:

CORDOBA, the most successful car ever to carry the Chrysler nameplate, offers new front and rear styling, luxurious interiors and optional roof, and important mechanical improvements.

Exterior styling changes include a new chrome-plated grille of formal design, opera windows with a more rectangular shape than those previously used and new taillight housings and lenses.

VOLARE, which, in its introductory year became Chrysler's sales front-runner, continues in three price classes in sedans, coupes, and the popular station wagon, which has been accounting for nearly 40 percent of all Volare sales.

Changes for 1977 include eight new paints, new interior trims, and new options. In Volare coupes, rear leg and knee room have been increased nearly an inch and a four-barrel version of the Electronic Lean Burn 360 V-8 engine is added to the optional engine lineup.

Fuel tank capacity on all Volare V-8 models and on all wagons have been increased from 18 gallons to 20.

NEWPORT receives new front and rear styling and more luxurious interiors. The Newport Custom model is discontinued and its appearance and luxury values added to the Newport line.

NEW YORKER BROUGHAM, Chrysler's top of the line model, continues its classic appearance and luxury appointments. A total of seven appointments: A total of seven two-door and four-door hardtops, sedans and station wagons are offered in the standard-size Chrysler line.

FURY intermediates have new front and rear styling. The new look starts with rectangular headlamps, vertically stacked to present the appearance of a larger car.

A new grille, with vertical box-section texture, accents the rectangular headlamps. Turn signal and parking lamps are located in the bumper directly below the headlamps.

GRAN FURY, the standard-size Plymouth, has a revised model lineup with emphasis placed on providing even greater value and a higher level of elegance for buyers who want and need the roominess and comfort of a full-size car.

A canopy vinyl roof and formal opera windows are optional on both Gran Fury and Gran Fury Brougham two-door hardtops. The vinyl roof and opera windows were previously standard on the Brougham.

Two-door hardtops and four-door sedans are available in the Gran Fury and Gran Fury Brougham series. The Gran Fury Suburban station wagon is offered in a two-seat version, while the Sport Suburban wagon is available in two and three-seat arrangements. In a revision of the model line Gran Fury Custom models are discontinued.

VOYAGER, the multi-purpose vehicle with up to 15-passenger seating capacity, offers a host of interior refinements including swivel front seats, quick-release bench seats for easy removal, and new colors.

TRAIL DUSTER, offered in four-wheel and two-wheel drive, has a new bright grille with integral park and turn signals for 1977. New moldings and a new two-tone paint option give Trail Duster sporty new exterior appearance. Upgraded appointments give Trail Duster a passenger-car-like interior.

ROOMINESS in a small car is a prime feature of the popular 1977 Plymouth Volare station wagon. Premier model above, includes simulated exterior woodgrain treatment and new optional tan plaid cloth seating package with 60-40 split bench front seat. There's a new 225-2 barrel "Super Six" engine option too.

MOST ELEGANT model in the full-size 1977 Plymouth line is the Gran Fury Brougham. Above, the two-door hardtop with optional canopy vinyl roof and formal opera windows. Automatic transmission, power steering, and power front disc brakes are standard.

SO NEW, SO GREAT, AND JUST WHAT YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR—This year's biggest value news is Arrow, a snappy little car with style to spare and a low price. It's Plymouth's exciting answer to look-alike hatchbacks. Economical for today's demands, only as long and wide as it needs to be to seat four comfortably or to double as a small cargo carrier; lightweight, yet sure-footed for responsive ride and handling. Arrow's standard features—like power front disc brakes, tilt steering column, individual reclining front bucket seats, fold-down rear seat—give you the kind of driving you'd expect from something more expensive. But Arrow's a nickel-nurser from the word "go."

It's clean, classic exterior styling is enhanced by elegant interiors including optional leather upholstery. The 1977 Chrysler Newport has new front and rear styling more luxurious than ever before.

CORDOBA, the most successful car ever to bear the Chrysler nameplate, has new front and rear styling for 1977. There are luxurious interiors and new optional roof treatment, including a padded "Crown" roof with illuminated roof band. Another optional "Bar" roof has two removable smoked glass panels to provide the open air feeling of a convertible.

Multi-Purpose Vehicles in the 1977 Plymouth line are the Trail Duster. This vehicle is available in either two or four-wheel drive.

TOPS IN LUXURY among all Chrysler Corporation cars is the 1977 Chrysler New Yorker Brougham.

VOLARE—Plymouth's instant success compact—features increased rear seat leg room in coupes for 1977 and an optional 225-2 barrel "Super Six" engine. The Volare Road Runner has an optional "T-Bar" roof and "Super Pak" dress up package.

'4-H-Room To Grow'

During National 4-H Week, Oct. 3-9, we join in paying tribute to an informal educational program that provides unique opportunities for youth to grow—physically, mentally and spiritually—into productive, contributing members of society.

4-H emphasizes the development of "real life" skills: learning "how to learn" for today and for a lifetime, using one's knowledge to improve the quality of life for self and for others; relating to social, technological, environmental and economic change; and growing through the pursuit and achievement of self-imposed goals.

These skills are desperately needed in a society that increasingly must cope with problems of apathy, unemployment, crime, deterioration of the family as a social unit, and crises in health and morals. Today's youth need to be involved in meaningful activities that will affect their lives and society for the better.

Although social, economic and ethnic backgrounds differ, young Americans share many common aspirations for the future—ambitions that can begin to be realized positively through participation in a work centered, character-building program like 4-H.

In providing "Room to Grow," 4-H enables young people to develop the practical skills and citizenship-leadership abilities that contribute to personal growth and to concern for family, community, nation and world. During National 4-H Week we salute the 4-H members, parents, volunteer leaders, Cooperative Extension Service professionals and private businesses whose efforts combine to make 4-H a viable, contemporary youth program.

THE LOCAL LEADER IN 4-H WORK

You have been asked to be a 4-H leader. This job has come to you because people have faith in you. There is a group of young people who need help. They want you to help them. You have agreed to do this job because you want to help boys and girls. There is no more challenging undertaking.

The local leaders are the backbone of 4-H work all over the country. The success or failure of 4-H depends a lot on their interest or initiative. The boys and girls in any 4-H Club are a mirror of what their leader is like. Look at a 4-H Club at work and you can tell what kind of a leader it has.

Leaders play a vital part in 4-H. That function is to help boys and girls plan and carry out a program based on their needs, interests, and abilities. This program is aimed to develop not only the boys and girls, but through them the whole community life.

4-H leaders say that the greatest satisfaction they receive is in helping boys and girls. Other satisfactions include the opportunity to meet people, the appreciation expressed by members, parents, agents and others in the community, the development of their own leadership abilities, and the knowledge that the community in which they live is a better one because of the boys and girls they have helped to develop.

Also there are special recognition awards for leaders. These awards are symbols of 4-H appreciation for jobs well done. They are awarded for service on the basis of length of leadership.

Wagner Says... Nation On Suicidal Energy Course

The United States is heading toward national suicide unless citizens demand immediate action toward solving the Nation's energy problems, TVA Board Chairman Aubrey Wagner said today.

Wagner, speaking at the annual meeting of Scripps Howard newspaper editors in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, said that when the lights go out, it will be too late to move swiftly.

"If I had to point to one fault we have as a people and political system, it is our penchant for inaction unless the worst happens," Wagner said. "What we need is a sense of urgency that unless we solve our energy problems, we are headed for national suicide."

Wagner said that most people do not believe that the Nation still has energy problems.

"As long as motorists can fill their gas tanks at the neighborhood filling station, the energy problem is not real to them," he said. "To most people, energy shortage and gasoline shortage are synonymous—the exclusion of all else."

But the total problem is still there, Wagner said, and it won't go away by itself.

The National Electric Reliability Council, which keeps track of projected increases in electric power demand and the new power plants being built to meet those needs, has warned of severe shortages in the next 10 years, Wagner said. "This is the thickest of obstacles and complexities placed in the path of power suppliers trying to build new generating capacity."

Wagner said the nature of the energy problem is simple and for a restoration of traditional values in American life, while appealing nationally, have been especially popular in Tennessee and throughout the South.

But perhaps most important of all for Carter in this state is that he is a bona fide southerner. Many Tennesseans consider him almost one of their own.

Given this situation, Tennessee must still be considered a safe Carter state. But there has been a small crack or two in the dike.

No Rate Hike

For the second month in a row, charges for TVA power will show little change in October. The October charges will be down 6 cents per 1,000 kilowatt-hours, leaving them at about the same level as last month and this month.

Under the most widely used residential rates for TVA power, the base electric bill in October for a home using 1,000 kilowatt-hours of electricity will be $28.12. Comparable bills were $28.17 for August and $28.18 for September.

Actual electric bills vary widely with the amount of electricity used in the individual home.

TVA power charges each month reflect changes in fuel and purchased power costs on the TVA system, and the charges for October are based on costs experienced in August. Quarterly financial reviews determine whether any further rate adjustments are needed for overall power system costs, and the TVA Board decided last week that there will be no general rate adjustment for the October-December period.

The Nation's coal and nuclear resources must be developed as quickly as possible. There is no available alternative if the country is to meet its energy needs without continuing reliance on foreign oil.

"For the future, electricity will have to provide an ever-increasing share of the Nation's total energy needs."

"The price of energy should be held as low as possible, consistent with meeting all costs with a reasonable profit."

"Vigorous and continuing research into new and better energy forms and applications is essential."

The Nation must reduce its dependence on foreign oil as quickly as possible.

"The people of the region, the Nation, and the world will need and demand more, not less, energy in the future. Energy conservation is vital, especially in the immediate future, but its role must be seen in proper perspective."

The Nation must protect the quality of its environment as it moves to meet increased energy needs. But the consuming public, those who ultimately pay the bill, must be satisfied that the benefits justify the costs.

Capitol Commentary

By M. Lee Smith

It's a long way from a peanut farm in south Georgia to a debate with the President of the United States in Philadelphia before a television audience of 100 million Americans.

But last Thursday night there stood Jimmy Carter along with President Gerald Ford in the first of three so-called Great Debates.

Late last week most analysts were saying Ford scored slightly better in the 90-minute exchange between the two candidates. But both Ford and Carter conducted themselves well, and it is doubtful the first debate will shift voter sentiment very much in this state or elsewhere.

Of greater concern to Tennessee campaign workers than the impact of the debate were news stories earlier last week detailing a Carter interview with Playboy magazine.

An interview with Playboy was certain to be politically controversial regardless of content. And the subject matter and Carter's choice of locker room words obviously escalated this particular interview into an item of more serious controversy.

The political strategy involved in granting the interview and in the Carter commentary is not clear. Some have suggested the reason was so Carter could counter the criticism of him as higher-than-thou and demonstrate that he is just one of the boys.

If so, that strategy is questionable—particularly for a candidate with a comfortable lead in the polls. The strategy was too cute, too clever.

Throughout the year Carter has talked freely about his born-again Christian faith. As a result of the Playboy interview and for other reasons, some—perhaps unfairly—now question whether Carter is what he represents himself to be.

It's difficult to appraise the swinger and at the same time retain support in Tennessee's Bible Belt. The interview is bound to hurt Carter in this state. The real question is whether it will hurt very much.

No one can say for sure. For some months polls have indicated that Carter should receive a big popular vote, victory in Tennessee this November. All recent surveys show the Democratic nominee winning by margins of 3-2 or better. Carter leads in all areas of the state, including traditionally Republican East Tennessee.

There are several reasons why polls have found Carter riding a tremendous wave of popularity across the state. He has put an optimistic and smiling face before the voters. He has avoided extremes, argued for moderation, and received a popular response.

Carter's relaxed, self-assured personality has been a big plus for him. His campaign themes against the Washington establishment

Ensign Peggy Bledsoe Completes Course

Navy Ensign Peggy L. Bledsoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bledsoe of Venable Road, Loudon, has completed the Officer Indoctrination School at the Naval Education and Training Center, Newport, R.I.

The six-week course is designed to prepare newly-commissioned officers for duty in the Navy staff field corresponding to their civilian profession (e.g. medicine, law, nursing, etc.).

In the final five weeks, Bledsoe studied Navy history and traditions, personnel administration, military law, close order drill and other general military subjects structured to acquaint her with an officer's duties and responsibilities.

During the final week, her studies were concentrated on the relation of her civilian profession to its application within the Navy.

A 1976 graduate of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing, she joined the Navy in January 1971.

SEPTEMBER 30 1976

BACK IN THE

GOOD OLD DAYS

I suppose our town could well be labeled a church going town. Many of our churches date back to our town's early history and some of them have had a very colorful role in the town's early history. To name one, the Loudon Presbyterian Church was a hospital during the Civil War and is a historical marker in our town. Others have had important roles in our town people lives and have contributed a very important element in the lives of its people.

We have a picture this week of one of our old church buildings, which is now torn down. This church purchased and moved into more modern facilities several years ago. This was the Nazarene Church building of many years ago. It stood at the section of town near the first Bacon Hospital entrance on Vonore Road. I am not sure, but I believe another church organization was owner of this building prior to the Nazarene. But again, let me say, I am not sure.

When the church building was built and how many years it was used, I don't know, but I recall meetings in it when I was just a small boy. I recall that Loudon's first (and as far as I know) their only lady minister preached there. I don't know what church group owned and used the building at that time, which was possibly in the late 20's or early 30's. We are glad to have pictures and to write about churches and their people. As we said, our town has and is one that evolves around churches and church activity.

Humane Society Starts Buy-A-Block Drive

In the very near future the Humane Society will be in need of volunteers in all areas of construction to assist in the building. They will also be looking for items such as concrete, linoleum flooring, 12 cabinet, bathtub, garbage cans, hoses and reception room furniture.

Persons who can donate any time or material or wish to contribute to "Buy A Block" campaign, should call 966-5436 or mail the coupon below to L.C.H.S., P.O. Box 263, Loudon.

Last year we brought you $2,329,650,000 worth of automobiles. You've got a lot riding on us.

A lot of cars rode our rails in 1975. We estimate that the manufacturers' value for autos we shipped amounted to $2,329,650,000.

And when you put Southern's shipments together with all other railroads, you've got 76% of all the autos and auto parts Americans buy.

Why do the automotive industry and so many other industries ship by rail? They know it's usually the most economical way to go.

Consider these figures for the thousands of things shipped by rail. The average cost per ton-mile by truck is three times as much as by rail. Air shipping is over forty times the price. And the fuel crunch has made railroad efficiency more than just a matter of dollars and cents. It's a matter of delivering the goods with the smallest possible use of fuel. Then there's the reliability of rail shipping. Add this one to everything else and you have a good idea why there's so much riding on us. And why you need Southern.

So next time you're riding in your car remember, the wheels you're riding on probably rode the rails first.

Court Names Four Members To Board, Backroom Politics Charged

Four members of the nine member Loudon County Memorial Hospital Board of Directors were elected by County Court Monday night amid charges of backroom politics. The move had long been talked about by some squires and when the time came they had the votes to pull off the issue. Squire Boyd Duckworth nominated a full slate of nine board members. The new members are Duckworth, Bliss Kizer, Squire Curtis Williams and Robert Lee. Those replaced were Squire I. D. Conner who has been on the hospital board for some 16 years as Chairman, Squire Jim Blair, pharmacist Calvin Atchley and John Roberts. The board members who were re-elected were Vasin Simpson, Roy Blodson, Gene Hamby, Johnny F. Young and Mrs. Nola Egan.

The issue of electing hospital board members was on the agenda last month but was delayed to give the hospital board enough time to complete a revision of the hospital by-laws.

After the nominations by Squire Duckworth, Squire Conner said he couldn't go along, not because his name wasn't on the list, but under the resolution establishing the hospital board it was to be composed along the same lines of apportionment of the county court and when there were to be appointments the squires from the various districts were to make the appointments in their districts.

Squire Terry Vann said that the motion should be of order because it was not made under the resolution.

Judge Blair said as long as the squires vote on the motion he could see nothing wrong with the motion.

Duckworth said one man had nominated all the new members at a prior hospital board election when Jim Blair was selected instead of him. Vann stated last because the resolution was violated before it was not reason for allowing it to happen again.

Just as Judge Russell was calling for a vote on the issue, he was seconded by Squire J. G. Hudson, Squire Vann, stalked from the courtroom and called the court to order to backroom politics and an not going to give this group the right to elect any more.

Eaton Strike Over, Workers Return

Agreement on a three year wage and benefit contract between the Eaton Corporation and members of the United Textile Workers Local 277 was reached last Thursday night as union members rallied an agreement that ended a six week strike at the Lenoir City lock and hardware plant.

The second year and 25 cents the third year, it was reported. The agreement also included major medical insurance protection, increased life insurance benefits, additional sick pay benefits and retirement pay benefits on the third year of the contract.

Production at the plant is being phased back in the plant during this week with most if not all hourly employees expected to be back on the job by Friday.

By a 185 to 134 vote the union membership accepted across the board raises of 30 cents an hour the first year, 30 cents

Carbide, I.A.M. Agree On Wages

A two year wage agreement between the Union Carbide Corporation and members of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers - Union - 2944 representing hourly employees at the local Films-Packaging Division Plant was reached last week.

What was called a "strong cooperative effort" by both negotiation committees was hammered out in two days of talks last Monday and Tuesday and then ratified by the union membership Wednesday. The acceptance was said to have been by a "large majority" of the union members. The two year settlement contemplated terms of a three year contract reached last year with a wage increase of 42 cent per hour increase for the contract year October 1, 1976 to 43 cent per hour, an additional 30 cent to 43 cent per hour raise the following year which ends Sept. 30, 1978.

The increased represent a nine percent pay hike for each of the two years the company said Thursday.

Utility Workers Lose Back Pay Lawsuit

Chancellor James O. Phillips dealt that will probably be a fatal blow to the lawsuit brought by 12 Loudon Utilities employees against the city owned facility for $57,000 in overtime pay.

Chancellor Phillips issued an opinion Thursday that the Supreme Court ruling on the Fair Labor Standards Act for utility employees was unconstitutional.

The utility employees, claiming they were not justly compensated for "stand-by-duty," where they are on call after regular working hours, based their claim on the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The ruling indicates that while the Utilities is owned by the city of Loudon, their employees are furnishing public services and therefore are not covered by the FLSA amendment of 1974.

Judge Phillips called for the case to be dismissed with the lawsuit will be paid by the plaintiffs.

$58,032 United Fund Drive Underway

Loudon County United Fund Campaign Chairman Bob Smith told the 45 persons attending the Kick-off dinner of the 1977 drive that the tradition of always being successful and knowing that the causes represented by the Loudon County United Fund were all deserving was the motivation that Tuesday's drive for a goal of $58,032 on a good note as James Wampler, representing the firms of Wampler's Sausage and Elm Hill Meats, presented checks from the companies and employees totaling $2,300. Wampler and Elm Hill also provided the steak dinner served those attending the Kick-off event at the King's Inn Restaurant.

Chairman Smith said he has the "best job in the campaign." "Doing a relative new comer to Loudon County I have seen the success and dedication that the workers who have for so many years contributed their time and money. I know you have the motivation to complete the task. That will make my job the easiest in the campaign," he said.

He said with the addition of a new agency that fund goal has been increased, but the people in Loudon County have always contributed according to the needs of all the agencies. There are 16 agencies in the 1977 campaign. Added was the Loudon County Association for Exceptional Citizens which operates the Loudon County Adult Activities Center for the deaf and handicapped adults.

The other agencies who share in the money raised by the U.F. drive are American Red Cross, American Legion, D.D.M.S., Arthritis Foundation, Boy Club, Lenoir City, Daniel Arthur Rehabilitation Center, Empty Bowls, Boy Scouts, Stocking Fund, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Loudon Mile of Dinners, Loudon County Rescue Squad, Philadelphia Community Chest, United Service Organization, Youth Club of Loudon, Loudon County Advisory Committee, and United Cerebral Palsy.

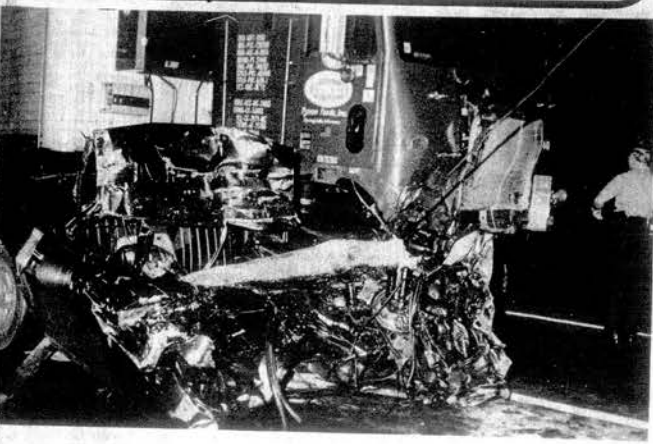

The first report meeting of the current campaign will be held at 1 p.m. Monday, October 11 at the Loudon High School cafeteria.

Area chairmen for the campaign are Tom Pesler, Greenback, Eddie Click, Lenoir City, Jim Farley, Loudon, Tom Thierberg, Philadelphia, Lena Henley, Eaton-Dixie Lee, Jack Atkins, County Industrial Chairman, and Roy Caldwell, Oak Ridge Coordinator.

LOUDON COUNTY UNITED FUND Campaign Chairman Bob Smith of Lenoir City addresses the some 45 some 45 persons who attended the Kick-off of the 1977 United Fund campaign Thursday night at the Kings Inn Restaurant. During the month of October the UF will attempt to raise $58,032 to assist its 16 member agencies.

LENOIR CITIAN KILLED—Jimmy Keener of Lenoir City died instantly when his car collided head on with a tractor trailer on I-40 at the Watt Road Interchange in the edge of Loudon County about 5:35 a.m. Saturday. Keener apparently was traveling east in the westbound lane of the highway when the two vehicles collided. The body was trapped in the wreckage for about 20 minutes and was freed by Loudon County Rescue Squadmen, wrecker crews and the Loudon County Ambulance Service. Highway Patrolman Rick Chester, assigned to Loudon County is at right assisting in the investigation of the accident.

Jimmy Keener Killed In Wreck, Car-Truck Collide On Interstate

Federal services were held in Lenoir City Monday for James Eugene (Jimmy) Keener, 27, who died about 5:30 a.m. Saturday from massive injuries when his small car collided with a tractor-trailer on Interstate 40 at the Watt Road Interchange.

Keener of 1017 Hillcrest Drive, Lenoir City, had apparently been driving east in the westbound lane of the highway when the two vehicles collided, according to Highway Patrol.

It appeared that the two vehicles collided almost under the Watt Road overpass with the car being pinned under the truck and pushed back about 100 yards. The engine and front end of the car were ripped well back under the tractor of the truck. The vehicles came to a stop just inside the Knox County line. Highway patrolmen from Knoxville and Loudon were dispatched to the scene. Although the accident occurred in Knox County the Loudon County Ambulance Service and Rescue Squad were dispatched, along with county deputies who helped remove the victim's crushed body from the wreckage of the car. He apparently died instantly taking the full impact of the crash. Driver of the truck, Herman Hamilton, Bentonville, Ark., was treated for minor injuries.

There was patchy heavy fog in the area, but it was not known why Keener was in the wrong lane of life. It appeared that the car was pinned under the truck and pushed back about 100 yards. The engine and front end of the car were ripped well back under the

Murder Trial Delay Denied

A motion for a continuance of the trial of Wayne Green first degree murder and big wife for aiding and abetting first degree murder was temporarily denied by Judge J. H. McCart Tuesday.

Attorney Bland Winfrey, who represents the defendants, asked that the case be continued until January. His two principal reasons were the fact that a material defense witness, Carl Woody, would be hospitalized at the time of the trial in Buffalo, N. Y. and may be in the hospital for as long as 60 days. The other was due to the pre-trial publicity, which Winfrey said could prejudice the right of his clients to a fair and impartial trial.

Judge McCart recommended that Winfrey take depositions from Woody for use in the trial. The judge questioned the possibility of the witness to appear in January due to the nature of his problem. Judge McCart also disagreed that if the publicity in the case did not warrant a motion for a change in venue, which the defense attorney said he did not want, he did not think the motion was valid.

McCart stated he would temporarily overrule the motion, but would talk to Winfrey about it later. Presently the Greens are scheduled to go on trial next Thursday for the murder of Hobart Benitez, who was shot to death in the parking lot of Green's tavern on Aug. 20.

Gene Tarwater, for Mayor Tom Feder, reported that the city and Fire Department were developing a plan to erect the building locally without waiting for a government grant, hoping that each of the area residents will "buy a brick".

Mrs. Harrison Shares Visit To Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Nell Harrison has just returned from a Bicentennial trip to Washington, D.C. and a visit with Doris Caldwell, a former East Tennessee resident and now employed as a coordinator for programming for the Hearing Impaired in Philadelphia, Pa.

She began her Washington experiences with a brief tour of the area by Ms. Caldwell and later met Mrs. Roscoe Prusky, a former resident of Loudon. Later, the two visited the Libraries of Constitution D.A.R. Hall and the Library of Congress looking for traces of her great-grandfather, Jesse Walton's father with little luck.

A visit with Congressman Duncan was a special treat for Mrs. Harrison. Her husband, Elaire, delivered the Congressman's sister's three children at the old Charles H. Bacon Hospital. Congressman Duncan and gave them passes into the Senate and House of Representatives and invited them for a V.I.P. tour of the White House.

Mrs. Harrison described the White House tour as stupendous, beautiful and historical. She lunched with the Congressman in the Capitol Dining Room.

Her trip to Washington was highlighted by an invitation to a reception for presidential candidate Jimmy Carter following the first debate. She traveled to Philadelphia with her boss who went for the debate for the deaf. Before she was treated with a ride in a two-horse drawn carriage and a tour of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel.

During the reception, Mrs. Harrison got within a few inches of the presidential candidate but quipped "He didn't shake my hand, he reached for someone else's, maybe one he was lusty for."

Unlike most of the other viewers, Mrs. Harrison had the privilege of "hearing" the entire debate with the help of her friends from PBS who broadcast the program for the deaf.

Back in Washington again, Mrs. Harrison arrived at the Union Station, all white marble especially made for this Bicentennial year which included a continual flashing of important things about each state with outstanding patriotic songs. She visited the Air and Space Museum, which goes back to the days of the Wright brothers up to the latest ventures in space.

Impressed with the early American architecture in the area, Mrs. Harrison also visited the Alexandria and the Coffee Bean House and lunched at Bloomingdale's.

She enjoyed a drive up Massachusetts Avenue through Embassy Row past the Vice-President's home and worshipped at the Washington Cathedral.

She toured Georgetown with lunch at Chadwick's and saw the home of Jack and Jacqueline Kennedy and Kissinger's home. She was impressed with the houses which were built wall-to-wall. When she asked her hostess why, Ms. Caldwell explained that it was to help keep the cold out in winter.

Mrs. Harrison was pleased with tours to Mount Vernon, the Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials, the Kennedy Center of Performing Arts, and Arlington Cemetery. She was moved by visits to Robert

Loudon's Big Red Machine Stamps Out 14-7 Win Over Chargers

The Big Red Machine finally hit fifth gear, put the pedal to the metal, and let the wheels roll last Friday night as the Loudon Redskins crunched McMinn Central 14-7.

The Chargers, playing their best game since suffering a heart-breaking loss to McMinn Central, used some well-timed punts, a couple of lucky breaks and early first-half punts to keep the ball game a toss up until the final gun.

The favored Redskins, playing hurt with key individuals on the side lines such as leading tackler Sam Stewart out with over 100 cc's of fluid drained from his knee during the week and a promising sophomore Ben Fields also out for the entire season with knee surgery. The Redskins also had other key individuals still feeling the effects from the hard fought win over Crossville and were below playing standard.

Sophomore Steve Watkins handled the defensive end weakness due to injury. Watkins was doing well until a head on meeting with blockers and ball carrier left him dazed for the rest of the game and in the dressing room at halftime.

Still another sophomore Paul Watkins came on to give a varsity effort in patching up the Loudon ranks.

"We are getting thin in some key places," admits Coach Ratledge. "We have the replacements, they are just not experienced and in games where the scoring is close, a mistake prompted by inexperience can be used most effectively by these teams we have on our schedule, especially the rest of the ones left."

Coach Ratledge was not overjoyed at his teams fifth win without a setback thus far this season. "We played well in spots, Greg (Deathridge, Redskins quarterback) was reading the wrong defensive player at one stage of the game due to a alteration in the final gun.

Central defense. This hampered us for a couple of series. They played well and got some breaks. But every team we face is out to play their very best and it is unmeasurable pressure to put on our players to try and hit a season peak in certain overall phases of our play each week. We still have not hit the score board with any wild scoring night, but neither has our opponents. We are just trying to play each game as they come and see where that takes us or leaves us. The crowd was a big inspiration in behalf of our final drive of the night against Central," committed Coach Ratledge concerning the game.

DECIDING CATCH—Loudon junior running back Fredde Starritt clutches the football just inside the McMinn Central end zone with just 33 seconds left on the fourth quarter clock as he made a lunging catch of a six yard pass from quarterback Greg Deathridge to provide Loudon with a tough 14-7 win over McMinn Central last Friday night for the Redskins fifth win of the season without a loss.

Loudon had its moments early in the game to establish themselves as the much superior team, but fumbles slowed the Redskins drive. The Redskins were almost to midfield when a fumble gave McMinn the ball at the Loudon 40 with 10:37 on the first quarter clock.

The Chargers were swamped by a tearing Loudon defense and a pitchout was poorly executed with Steve Watkins pouncing on the ball for Loudon.

Loudon was off and driving again with Fredde Starritt rambling for 15 yards in four carries and Deathridge six in two snaps. The Charger 11 as time ran out in the first period.

A Loudon fumble on a sure hand-off gave the ball back to the Chargers on the first play of the second quarter.

Three plays and punt was the best the Charger offense could muster and Loudon was within striking distance of a touchdown again.

Starting from the McMinn Central 41, following a 26 yard punt return by Fredde Starritt, the Redskins moved the sticks 16 yards to the 25 on a first down pass to senior Conway Dukes.

Mark Moore, showing the confidence of becoming an exciting ball carrier, darted on 15 yards to the 40. Greg Deathridge tagged for five more yards and then tipped to the one yard line on a six yard carry. Deathridge took the handle on the ball when tackled and an alert center Bobby Moore was first to claim the pickup in the Loudon march in order.

Deathridge nosed his way into the end zone on a 74 snap and Loudon had a 74 lead with 8:36 to play in the half and Jim Brown's conversion kick splitting the uprights.

The Chargers took the ensuing kick-off and returned it 19 yards to their own 31. A slow grinding rushing attack provided two first downs, despite almost losing a fumble that ended in a nine yard gain to the Loudon 25.

An alarming pass interference call of 15 yards on senior veteran defensive back Carter Cardwell, who fell down on a pass out reach for any one to catch and the McMinn Central receiver falling over him. The crucial penalty gave the Chargers an inspired fire to maintain their march on the Loudon defense.

Three rushing plays from a possible surprise "shot gun" gave McMinn the ball at the 41 in the final seconds of the second quarter only to have secondary intercept a pass with no time on the clock to squelch the Loudon attempt to change the score.

The Chargers made it as far,

Redskins May Have Found Ninth Grid Game

The Loudon Redskins may once again have a ninth game to add to their current regular season schedule. Loudon head football coach Bert Ratledge has made a verbal agreement to play upper East Tennessee triple-A opponents McMinn West.

The Hurricanes have already been eliminated from a possible Region One triple-A playoff berth having played such powers as Elizabethton, Kingsport, Unheaten, Newport, and Clinton. The game would be an 11th contest for McMinn West if approved by the TSSAA and only a one year contract. No game night has been determined, but the date would be for Friday night October 29.

as the Loudon 48 to open the second half and then punted to the Redskins 13.

Loudon moved the ball back up the field to the Redskins 41 on five straight rushes. Deathridge off the Loudon 48. Fredde Starritt boomed a 34 yard punt and Central was back on offense.

The Charger ground game was stopped and a third down pass found Loudon linebacker Veer. Fredde Starritt moved on fourth down was also applied. Deathridge again in the Loudon scoring threat and took over on the McMinn Central exhausted the rest of the third period and kept the ball until the 9:22 mark of the fourth stanza before punting 32 yards to the Loudon 24.

Both teams swapped punts with Central reaching the Loudon 29 before trying to kick out of bounds close to the Redskins goal line with 4:09 to play.

Loudon, answering to the cheers of its crowd following, cranked up the "Big Red Machine" that has produced 20 wins in the past 31 games and two such to back state title and the show was on.

Settling both a first-down, upset McMinn Central team and the sweeping hand of the scoreboard clock the Redskins set out to dominate the opposition at the very point they had been so stung and tough the entire season. Fredde Starritt zipped through a wide opening, wedged out by the Loudon line for seven yards to the Redskins 27. Greg Deathridge followed on the heels of power blocking by the right side of the Loudon line to the Loudon 25 and a eight yard scamper.

A five yard penalty only set the scene for a 14 yard recovery run by Deathridge that left the ball marker within inches of a first down.

Deathridge for three, Moore for seven, and Starritt for five more yards had pushed the ball into McMinn Central territory. The pressure was mounting with each tick of the clock and daring Louche maneuver.

Deathridge twisted through the line of scrimmage and was shoe-strung from breaking free, the play gained 10 yards, but the ball slipped away from Deathridge hit the ground and there to keep control was Loudon's Conway Dukes for still two more yards of real estate.

Deathridge carried again for three yards and then flipped a pitch-out to Fredde Starritt around left end for a 20 yard back breaker to the Chargers 11.

Ten running plays had not only moved the ball to a first down and goal at the McMinn Central 56 but had just about used up the remaining regulation playing time on the clock.

The Redskins offense suddenly changed and Deathridge went in the air, finding REDSKINS TRY TO GROUND CHARGER RUNNER—Loudon linebacker Mark Moore is shown finishing off a tackle on a McMinn Central ball carrier after he had eluded the efforts of Redskins defensive players Bobby Moore (50) and David Black.

HUNTING RUNNING ROOM—Loudon's quick-footed quarterback Greg Deathridge plays in an attempt to escape the line of scrimmage. Deathridge ran for 71 yards and a touchdown in the Redskins fifth win of the season.

HEAD ON CRASH—Loudon split end, senior Conway Dukes (83) drives head on into a McMinn Central defensive back after catching a pass. Dukes had two catches totaling a 32 yards in the game won by Loudon 14-7.

FLASHY MANUEVER—Loudon junior fullback Mark Moore (40) makes a slashing cut between two McMinn Central would-be tacklers on one of his numerous carries of the football last Friday night. Mark, who continues to improve with each game, averaged more than eight yards a gallop in 46 rushes.

Loudon Midget Football Teams Play Host To Dayton

by Joe Williams

The Loudon Indians continue to hold in a tie for second place in the Volunteer Midget Football Standings. The Indians finished out a 26-0 win over home-standing Spring City last Saturday night to better their season mark to 5-1. The season effort thus far keeps the Indians in a second place tie with Sweetwater, who has lost but once.

Sweetwater will play host to unbeaten and league leading Harriman this Saturday night in a key conference meeting, while Loudon will be at home with four games against visiting Dayton.

Loudon jumped to a 20-0 first half lead over Spring City as Billy Moore tallied on a 21 yard run and Tony Lennox cashed in a 26 yard pass from Zell Hawkins in the first quarter. Alan Eldridge ran the extra point conversion following Lennox's TD catch.

Moore then ran for a nine yard touchdown in the second quarter and ended the night with a eight yard scoring effort in the fourth stanza. None of the extra point tries were successful.

Moore was the top ground gainer with 77 of the Indians' 172 yards of rushing.

Alan Eldridge and Zell Hawkins totaled 25 and 30 yards rushing respectively.

Terry Hand had one pass reception of 42 yards and Tony Lennox made four aerial grabs for 46 yards total.

Loudon had 12 first downs and gave up just one to Spring City as Billy Lawson, Mark McCallie, and Terry Hand were leading Indian tacklers on defense.

The Loudon Mustangs suffered a major setback in their hopes of a conference tie as they bowed to unbeaten, league leaders Spring City 26-0.

The victors, who had not been scored on in five games dating up to Saturday night's game with Loudon, had to settle for a 6-6 halftime deadlock.

Spring City took the early advantage with a 94 yard run from scrimmage in the first point conversion pass from Brown to Cosner in posting a 16-0 score.

The Loudon Grasscutters' standouts were Mike Viars, Rodney Jones, Troy Kiser, Richie Brannin, Andy Wood, Tim Russell, and Archie Cosner.

The Loudon Grasshoppers scored touchdowns in the first three quarters in a 20-0 romp. Stan Kiser had touchdown runs of 41 and 43 yards and Tim Potter added a 57 yard touchdown run in the third quarter to put away their Spring City visit.

Mann Hampton's conversion run for 71 yards in 16 snaps, and Freddie Starratt had 13 carries for 62 yards.

The Chargers managed to get off three plays before the game ended, but the Loudon goal line was still 58 yards away.

The game stats showed Loudon to be the superior team despite the closeness and hard play by the Chargers. Mark Moore led the Loudon offense with 84 yards in 10 carries. Greg Deatridge ran for 71 yards in 16 snaps, and Freddie Starratt had 13 carries for 62 yards.

Deatridge was live in 10 passing and Conway Dukes had two of those receptions for 22 yards and Steve Schrimsher was back in playing shape after a shoulder and knee injury to make a nine yard reception.

Jim Brown was the defensive stalwart with 10 tackles. He was followed closely by the efforts of Rick Lovin, Junior Rollen, Sam Thearp, Dennis Stewart, Mark Moore, and David Black.

Lenoir City Homecoming To Highlight Loudon County Grid Games

LENOIR CITY HOME COMING COURT—Lenoir City High School will be entertaining with homecoming festivities this Friday night when the Panther football team hosts visiting Ooltewah. Ten senior homecoming queen candidates have been selected, with one of the

The Loudon Redskins are holding a 17th position ranking in the overall UPI Prep Ratings this week and are leading the Class AA Poll in the Associated Press rankings. Loudon has won 30 of their last 31 games and are enjoying a 5-0 workweek this year. Still the Redskins have some rough sledding ahead as their four remaining scheduled opponents have won 15 and lost but four times with half the season to play.

This week's foe, Harriman, is 4-2 and very much in the running for a spot in the region playoffs come early November. A loss to Loudon could cause those pre-season dreams to be hard pressed, if not completely destroyed.

A Loudon loss and an Harriman win could equally assure the State a new Class AA State Champion come Thanksgiving.

The Blue Devils have eight starting seniors who have been first team players since they were sophomores. Many have faced the Loudon regulars since Midget Football days and would like nothing better than to close out their encounters with a victory.

Loudon still has players bruised and hurt, but will probably fail to dress only

Game time is scheduled for 8 p.m. with Loudon a pre-game favorite of 14 points. Lenoir City will celebrate their Homecoming festivities this weekend when Ooltewah arrives on the scene for an 8 p.m. kick-off. The Owls are 0-4 this year and the Panthers are an eight point favorite to win their second game in a row.

Cash Coach Conner, who has named senior running back and linebacker Steve Porter as the lone game captain for this game, says the Panthers will do well to just play competitively. "We are really pleased for variety players," declared Conner. "Frank Underwood was in the hospital this weekend with an infection that resulted from a bruise and is not expected to suit out. Senior starting quarterback Jimmy Matlock who has given us some good leadership is on the shelf with an ankle sprain. Richard Veit will direct the attack against Ooltewah. Plus the loss of our other players following the Loudon game has us down pretty much to where we can not afford to have any one injured."

Pro Billy Harwick Featured At LC Bowling Lanes Grand Opening

The Fort Loudon Bowling Lanes in Loudon City will feature its official Grand Opening this Saturday with professional bowler Billy Harwick being the featured attraction.

Mr. Harwick will entertain with bowling exhibitions at 1 p.m., 3:30 p.m., and at 6 p.m.

Mr. Bill Rhode, owner of the Fort Loudon Lanes, wishes to invite everyone in the Loudon County area to attend the gala festivities and provides the following information on star pro-bowler Harwick.

The seven-year itch is over for Billy Harwick. He scratched his way to a 17th PBA title and came within five pins of a second Firestone Tournament of Champions. Title in a week that has to rank as one of bowling's most heartwarming because of the superstar's own dramatic career.

Harwick's victory in Toledo (April 10) after seven long years without a tournament win is yet another turning point in a professional life that has had more sharp turns and obstacles than a grand prix auto course. But few have run the race with greater success, or more unpredictability.

The start of Billy's professional bowling career was typical of what would follow. In his first year on the tour in 1962, he failed to "cash" in 16 tournaments. The following year, he promptly swept four PBA titles including the coveted PBA National Championship, set a record of 9,283 for 40 games. He was named captain of the All American Team and "Bowler of the Year" by Sporting News. He added three more PBA titles to his list in 1964 along with the ABC Singles and All Events crowns and was voted "Bowler of the Year" by the Bowling Writers Association of America for the first time. Then came the strange year of 1965 when he could win only one title, but it happened to be the inaugural of the Tournament of Champions, where he defeated Dick Weber for the $25,000 first prize. Ironically, 11 years later, the roles reversed and the "elder statesman" was beaten by Marshall Holman, a brash 21-year-old, youngest ever to win the title since Harwick himself.

In three spectacular years, a Harwick won nine major titles and the days of wine and roses seemed unending. But 1966 was a disaster for Billy, the first turning point of a remarkable career. Harwick failed to win a single tour-missing the finals by only nine pins in February, he made the magic circle at Baltimore only to be knocked out in his first TV match, settling for fifth place money. But finally, in Toledo at the $60,000 Monro-Matic, he led the field and despite a disastrous open and ninth frame, he struck out in the 10th to beat Ernie Schlegel, 236-206. At last, Harwick had his 17th tour victory, tying fellow AMF staffer, Dick Ritter, in fourth place for the most PBA titles.

Most observers thought the emotional strain of that long sought win would thoroughly drain Billy of any chance of doing well the following week in the glittering Firestone, but the resilient Mr. Harwick had yet another card in his hand of rebound tricks. After spending practically 72 non-an exhibition game, Harwick returned to Akron on the eve of the tournament and promptly led the pack after 42 games for the second straight week. In the finals, it was a veteran facing almost a cartoon copy of himself a decade ago, cocky Marshall

Holman with a devastating strike ball. Billy opened with three strikes but left the door open in the fourth with a split, and could not make up the narrow five-pin margin that would have spelled victory and an almost unbelievable ending to a star-book comeback. That chapter will have to wait for another day, with the confidence and contentment that stems from a happy family life.

"Burgess Billy" Harwick is obviously back, and says he's here to stay.

Spotlight Law Helps Deer

Each year Tennessee loses thousands of deer to poachers. This drain on the resource is a major cause of the slow growth of the deer herd in East Tennessee.

One of the laws passed during the last session of the State Congress made it illegal to use artificial lights to locate deer. In the past it had been legal to use a spotlight to look at deer if there was no weapon in the vehicle.

This law is aimed at poachers who use the loop hole in the old law and has taken away the last excuse they had and made it easier to convict these criminals.

In addition to this law the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency, in an all out move to crack down on big game poaching, has begun a Wildlife. The HOW program will get violation report cards into the hands of concerned sportsmen statewide this fall.

The card will have labeled spaces for vital information that can help the wildlife officer track down the culprit.

The most important thing in reporting a violation is speed. No matter how good the information, there is rarely anything a wildlife officer can do with week-old information. Report violations immediately. If you know or suspect that someone is poaching or is going to, find out as much as possible about it. If you can tell the officer who, where and when there is a good chance the poacher will be caught.

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency offers up to $100 reward to any person for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person who illegally kills a deer. All information is kept strictly confidential.

Get to know your wildlife officer, find out his phone number and if you know of illegal activity, call him.

YES, THERE IS A PARTISAN ELEMENT in this campaign. I'll try to state it simply.

OUR CURRENT REPRESENTATIVE is a Republican in a House of Representatives controlled by Democrats. Democrats organize the House, choose the speaker, and through the speaker make the all-important committee assignments. Because of this, our current representative is at a disadvantage.

ALTHOUGH I WILL BE NEW to the legislature, as a Democrat I will be in a better position to work cooperatively with more of my colleagues.

BUT THERE'S A LARGER ISSUE—a non-partisan issue — also at stake here. As a new legislator I will be closer to the daily life of our district.

I AM A WAGE-EARNER, a home-buyer, a husband and father of four school aged children. I am acti involved in the situation which concern all of us.

IN SHORT, I FEEL I am closer touch with the people of the 21st District than is my opponent — and that's not a partisan issue.

NOVEMBER 2ND, I offer you a clear choice.

In the U.S. today, according to the Department of Agriculture, the average American can rely on getting only 114 milligrams of vitamin C a day from food—less than the 1,000 milligrams recommended by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration in 1965.

Cherokees Now 4-2, Win 35-8

Greenback Hands Vonore Sixth Loss Of Season As Smith And Rucker Standout

The Greenback Cherokees breezed to their fourth win of the season last Friday night as winless Vonore dropped their sixth game of the season, 35-8. Mitch Smith rushed for 108 yards and two touchdowns and senior Lynn Rucker caught four passes totaling 86 yards and one touchdown and a two-point conversion.

The Cherokees were in control of the game right from the start halting a Blue Devil offensive series without a first down and then receiving a 20-yard punt that only got the ball out to the Vonore 31. The Cherokees needed just seven plays to strike paydirt in the onesided contest.

PUMPING FOR FIRST DOWN YARDAGE—Greenback's talented quarterback, senior Roddy Kizer (12), streaks past a pair of Vonore defensive players, Ricky Steel (70) and Aivan Lane (66), in a mad dash for a first down as Greenback won their fourth game of the season, 35-8 over the winless Blue Devils.

The Cherokees were faced with a fourth down at the Vonore six yard line and just six inches to move the yard stick for a first down. Cherokee field general Roddy Kizer caught the Blue Devils stacked in for a short yardage plunge and hence threw a pass to his flanker, junior Chris Blair for the touchdown. Kizer's kick was good with 7:40 to play in the quarter and Greenback ahead.

Greenback's defense again contained the Vonore offense denying a first down. A punt of 38 yards did give the Cherokee offense a lengthy challenge.

Fullback Danny Dotson ran for six yards and then to the 36 for a first down. Senior running back Mitch Smith took the lead and in a pair of carries added 12 yards.

Dotson and Kizer then swapped calls until the ball rested at the Vonore 27. Kizer then took to the air for the second time in seeking an open receiver and found senior tight end Lynn Rucker. The rangy receiver caught the pass for a 27 yard touchdown effort and a 13-0 first quarter difference over the Blue Devils.

Vonore picked up their first drive of the game to start the second period but their scoring ideas were lost as the Greenback defense took the ball away on downs at the Cherokee 26.

The Blue Devil defense came to life and forced the first of three Greenback punts as they sought to keep good field position in Greenback territory. Down to the Greenback 23, the visitors marched but again ran out of downs and the ball was awarded over to the Cherokee offense.

Greenback kept the ball for the next 4:09 of the last moving second quarter, marching 75 yards in 10 plays. Roddy Kizer's 28 yard pass to Lynn Rucker gave the Cherokee the ball and a first down at the Vonore 15. The Vonore defense became stubborn at this juncture and it took Greenback five more plays to cross over the Blue Devil double stripe. Mitch Smith ripping his way through the line for the final yard. Kizer passed to Rucker for the two point conversion and a 21-0 halftime count.

Greenback quickly opened up a 27-0 lead in the third quarter as they took the second half kickoff. Mitch

Smith returning it 20 yards to the Greenback 40. Smith set the tempo of the scoring drive as he had runs of 11, 10, and finally a gallop of 30 yards to the Vonore end zone to cap the Cherokee play.

The extra point kick was no good.

Vonore then got the ball with just 3:37 having been used in the third quarter by the Greenback offense.

The determined Blue Devils exhibited their best play of the night in controlling the football for the next six minutes and three seconds. From their own 22 the Blue Devils set out on a 12 play drive that would be topped by a 16 yard pass from Raymond McKeelvey to Tommy Blankenship with 2:20 left in the third quarter. Blankenship ran for the extra point conversion.

INCOMPLETE PASS—Greenback's Mike Raines (80) dives for a pass as does a Vonore defensive back. Neither player could come up with the reception. Greenback had 114 yards of total passing yardage in the ball game.

McKeelvey was the big play ball carrier in the scoring drive with a 22 yard run and a night yard scamper. Greenback's Steve Langinleiter threw quarterback McKeelvey for an eight yard loss at the Cherokee eight yard line, but the determined Blue Devils came right back on fourth down and goal to put points on the scoreboard.

Greenback head coach Keith Blasley did not seem to fear the scoring march as he cleared his bench of hard playing reserves to finish out the game, both on offense and defense.

A 43 yard kick-off return on the part of Mitch Smith gave the Cherokee reserves an excellent field position.

Sophomore Kenneth Snodgrass concluded a six play scoring march of 37 yards that carried over into the fourth quarter with a four yard drive. Roddy Kizer ran the ball over for a two point total.

Tony Vineyard paced the reserves with a 23 yard offensive rushing total in the closing minutes of the final act.

Mike Raines was also stoutest player, booming a 47 yard punt.

Both teams failed to establish scoring threats in the final eight minutes of the game as penalties and fumbles plagued execution for each.

Mitch Smith's 108 yards on 12 carries led the Cherokees. Danny Dotson had 43 yards and Roddy Kizer chipped in with 54.

Chris Blair caught three passes for 13 yards and Rucker was good on 96 yards of receptions.

The Cherokee defense was shared through out the entire team with top leaders being Roger Hampton, Steve Langinleiter, Jeff Crisp with 11 tackles and a blocked punt, Chris Blair, Mitch Smith, Scotty Hammontree, Roger Goddard, and Tony Vineyard with seven stops and caused one fumble.

Eric Bolcher also blocked a punt and had six tackles in a less active appearance for the All Conference performer.

SMITH PULLS AWAY—Greenback senior running back Mitch Smith (41) pulls away for a 30 yard touchdown scamper against Vonore last Friday night as the Cherokees prevailed 35-8. Almost making the tackle for Vonore is Ray Ballentine (31).

LC Frosh Tag Third Loss On Loudon, Play Again Tonight

The Loudon freshman football team will be out to break a three game losing streak tonight (Thursday) at the same instant try and square things with their double-A county rival, the Lenoir City Panther freshmen of Coach Bill Satterfield.

The Lenoir City first year gridders pounded Loudon by the score of 20-10 last Thursday night at Loudon.

The Panther frosh took the opening kick-off and drove from their own 25 to the Loudon 18 only to give up the ball on a fumble to Loudon's Rusty Campbell.

Loudon was unable to move the ball and punted to the LC 41. A 15 yard clipping penalty moved the Panthers deeper into their own territory. Ricky Williams did not seem to mind the extra distance as he broke through the Loudon defensive ranks for 74 yards and the initial score of the contest with 4:57 to play in the first period.

Loudon picked up a pair of first downs in reaching the Lenoir 32, but the visitors on held and the ball went over on downs as the first quarter ended.

Loudon had to weather line smashing bursts by Williams and Mike Hall in finally stopping the marching Panthers at their own 24.

Loudon managed to overcome a rash of penalties on a 27 yard pass from John Cardwell to Kerry Brantthover to reach the mid-field stripe. The young Redskins frosh fumbled the ball twice for a loss of 15 yards the final being on a punting attempt that gave the Panthers excellent field position at the Loudon 54.

The Redskins came up with a big play, recovering a Lenoir City fumble at the 24 to again take possession.

The Loudon offense was checked at every corner and a punt to the Loudon 49 followed.

Lenoir City then drove for a touchdown in nine plays, with one touchdown run during the march called back on a clip from the 40. Mitch Williamson was the big workhorse in the scoring drive with five carries for nearly 45 yards.

Kevin Burnes pass to Ricky Williams for the two point conversion and a 14-0 half time lead as Loudon had but 22 seconds of offense left in the second quarter.

Loudon received the second half kickoff but was not able to register a first down in two offensive series.

Lenoir City was stopped on its first offensive efforts of the first period, but from their own 31 needed just three plays to cover the length of the field to touch down. The scoring play being a 64 yard pass reception and run from Mike Hall to Kevin Burnes with 2:40 to play in the third quarter.

The extra point run was good for a 22-0 score.

Loudon made an offensive surge with the ball at their own 20. Tommy Henderson caught two passes for 27 and 11 yards to the Lenoir City 38. Jeff Iddins moved the ball for 13 yards on two carries and John Cardwell fought his way to the Panther 16 as the third period came to an end.

Loudon could not pass the LC 11 however and the ball went over on downs.

Loudon kept the pressure on as Lenoir City managed just a 10 yard punt. But still the Panther defense would not yield and Loudon lost the ball on downs at the Lenoir City 43.

Lenoir City took the ball with 5:21 to play and drove to the Loudon one yard line only

Trunk Workshop October 20-22

By: Susan Stivers
Assistant Extension Agent

Old trunks are coming out of hiding and finding their spot as treasure chests in today's houses. If you are lucky, you may find an old trunk in your attic or stored in a relative's home or barn. Or you may find one at some auction or estate sale.

Young ladies find they make perfect "hope chests." They make great conversation pieces and can be used as a table or extra seating. Trunks make good sewing centers, keeping fabric, patterns, and trims in one place. They are also good for winter clothes storage and for storing bulky items that are difficult to put away. Other uses could be for storage of linens, old books or heirloom hand-me-downs from a grandmother.

The simplest way to restore an old trunk is just to clean it up. Prepare a detergent and water solution, but be sure to test it out on an inconspicuous place before using it. Allow the old trunk to dry and add a coat of paste wax. For honest beauty, leave the trunk in its natural condition.

If your trunk has no natural beauty, try painting it with a flat latex wall paint then rub lightly with gold quilt paint to highlight the grain line. An antiquing kit will give similar results.

Metal bands around the trunk can be painted black or some contrasting color. With the right pictures, a decoupage trunk would look terrific! Another idea is to "fill" the outside of your trunk. With fall and antiques, an old look can really be achieved.

Inside you have several choices. You can leave it alone and keep the lid closed, paint it, paper it, cover with adhesive paper, or line with cedar paneling.

Another idea is to cut pieces of cardboard to fit all the side walls, top and bottom. Cover one side of the cardboard to fit all the side walls, top and bottom. Cover one side of the cardboard pieces with quilted material or some other similar fabric. Stretch fabric and glue to the cardboard. Then fit pieces into trunk and glue in place.

If you need help, there will be a workshop on restoring old trunks October 20-22 at the American Legion Building in Loudoun. Call the Loudoun County Extension Office (458-2671) for more information and to sign up. The class will be limited because of space.

The bids for Philadelphia Elementary School have been delayed due to some difficulties with the site development plan. We are hopeful that invitations to bid on this project can be given this week. Greenback is nearing the final stages of the working drawings and we are hopeful of bidding this project by late October. The two new middle schools are still in the preliminary drawing stages, but are rapidly moving forward. The Board of Education is to hear a brief presentation by the architect on these two facilities at the October 14th meeting of the Board. After acceptance by the Board work can progress rapidly on the working drawings for these two new schools. The site for the Eaton-Highland Park school has been chosen and a price agreed on, to be finalized as soon as the bond funds are available in a couple of weeks. The Loudoun-Steekee school site has been tentatively selected pending State Department approval, but there are several other possible sites for this school that have not been ruled out by the Board.

Vocational Center
The new vocational Center, under the capable direction of Mr. Coy Gibson, is open and in operation. The contractor is due to complete the facility shortly and with the hook-up of the sewage pump station this facility will be in full operation by late October. Classes are meeting and students are being taught vocational skills although the building is not completely finished. This I feel is due in large part to the determination of teachers, students, and largely the Director of this center who has worked long hours and pushed people in Nashville so that the students of Loudoun County use their school this year.

Loudon Is Critical Medical Shortage Area

Loudon County has been designated as having a "critical health manpower shortage" by the U. S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

The County was one of 47 areas in Tennessee so designated by the Secretary and published in the Federal Register (Vol. 41, No. 130).

The designation was made following studies by the Dept. of HEW pursuant to Section 29 (b) of the Public Health Service Act.

Other regulations require the designations to be published in the Federal Register "together with the specific criteria utilized in determining such areas."

In making his determination, the Secretary took into consideration:

- The latest reliable health resources statistics available, such as numbers of primary care physicians, dentists, and other health manpower personnel.
- The range of primary care and other health services available.
- The types of health facilities in the area.
- Health status indicators such as infant and maternal mortality rates, accident rates, disability rates, and life expectancy rates.
- Inaccessibility of health care services in the community, and the ability to obtain required services on a timely and effective basis, taking into account transportation difficulties, travel times, utilization rates, and other factors which impair access to health care services.

According to the study, the area under study must have at least one primary care physician for each 3,000 of population.

In Loudon County there is only one primary care physician for every 3,188 people. The Tennessee average is one primary care physician for every 1,068 people.

Gay Hamilton, Administrator of the Loudon County Memorial Hospital, says he believes two factors contributed to the County being designated as having a critical health manpower shortage.

"One is, of course, the high ratio of primary care physicians per thousand of population. I wish to emphasize those words 'primary care.' Not only do we lack specialists, but we need doctors to handle any kind of patient, regardless of complaint."

"In addition, I believe the under-utilization of our hospital by area residents, and their extensive usage of health resources located in the metropolitan area, helped contribute to the designation."

"It is less clear whether our County's morbidity and mortality rates are abnormally high. I'm almost afraid to check," Hamilton said.

Hamilton said he is now investigating ways that other areas have helped overcome similar problems, especially those involving physician shortages.

"We understand the provision of a physician's office building, operated in conjunction with the hospital, is one of the most crucial needs in order to attract new physicians.

"We are now determining how many hospitals in our size range provide such a facility, and how effective it has been in helping alleviate the physician shortage," Hamilton said.

He said he hopes to have the report completed and given to the Hospital Board of Trustees for its consideration this next month.

Boosters Need Market Items

The Loudon High Band Boosters are still accepting donations of articles to be offered for sale at a Flea Market which will be held on October 30. The location and time of the sale will be announced at a later date.

He explained that the revisions mainly gave more flexibility in land uses and streamlined the administration of the zoning requirements. He presented a point by point written explanation of the amendments that have been proposed by the Loudon County Planning Commission.

Acceptance of roads in the new Point Harlow Subdivision in the Second District was delayed for one month after Road Commissioner Lee Malone said that roads damaged by construction of the subdivision had not been completely repaired.

Bobby Johnson, representing the Auxiliary Police of the County Civil Defense asked the court to consider establishing a separate budget for the AP next year. He said that under the present budget system the AP was not getting proper funds to operate and maintain the service they give to the County Sheriff's Department.

and the cities of Lenoir City and Loudon. He said they needed funds to maintain their vehicles and have proper communications equipment in case of emergency when they would act as the police arm of the County Civil Defense.

Judge Hunsell asked that the AP's prepare a budget and bring it to the court budget committee for consideration.

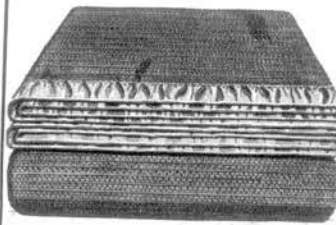

Residents of Easter Road, which is off Vance Road, near Dutton Store, complained of bad road conditions which appeared to keep school buses from picking up school students on the road. They said it was steep, needed rock, and was very rough. They complained that requests of Road Commissioner Erk Millsaps for repair of the road had not brought any action.

On a motion by Squire Roy Bledsoe the court called on Commissioner Millsaps to make necessary repairs to the road to make it usable by the school bus.

Capitol Commentary

By M. Lee Smith

After nine months serious questions involving the state surplus scandal have still not been answered. Last December a routine state audit revealed that G.B. "Sonny" McCarter, director of the state property utilization division, called "friends" to bid on cars to be sold by the state. State Comptroller William Snodgrass promptly reported this information to Gov. Ray Blanton. Blanton, in his credit, summarily suspended McCarter indefinitely and without pay.

From that point news reports revealed a complex maze of alleged deals. The most common pattern was the supposed sale of cars to local governments which either never reached their destination or were almost immediately resold to individuals. In some transactions political friends of the Blanton administration reportedly made profits of 300 and 400 percent on cars which they purchased from the state or local governments.

In addition, two Blanton administration commissioners were shown to have purchased surplus vehicles by means which were at least questionable. In the wake of these news reports, Gov. Blanton appointed a committee to review property disposal procedures. The comptroller conducted a full audit, the General Assembly enacted legislation and information was turned over to district attorneys for possible criminal prosecution. The comptroller's audit was completed in July, confirming gross irregularities. The Governor's committee rendered its report several weeks ago, suggesting several procedural changes and indictments are expected in at least one jurisdiction in the next few days.

In a recent speech Gov. Blanton cited his handling of this problem as an example of the honesty and openness of his administration.

But is it? Let's look further at the record. The state property utilization division is the Department of General Services. Commissioner of the department is Charles Bell, Assistant Commissioner is Leo Smith. To date there has been no evidence directly linking Bell or Smith with the irregularities.

The number one culprit in the surplus car abuse appears to be McCarter. McCarter came to Nashville from Savannah where he had been proprietor of Sonny's Used Cars and earlier a tavern known as The Bloody Bucket. During his ownership of The Bloody Bucket, McCarter was arrested twice and convicted once on gambling charges. Six years ago an audit of McNairy County Highway Department found that McCarter and county highway commissioner W. O. Watson jointly owned a bulldozer which was illegally leased to the county for an exorbitant amount of money. Watson was indicted for this and other activities which left a $14,000 deficit in the highway department budget. McCarter became the object of legal action.

Given the situation, Gov. Blanton should provide answers to these questions. One, Who appointed McCarter division director?

Was it Bell or Smith or Blanton himself or someone else?

Two, And just why was a person with McCarter's background and reputation appointed to this position of responsibility?

Three, And why were Bell and Smith so lax in their administration of the department as to permit the McCarter abuses to occur?

These questions and others demand answers. Now.

Elderly Urged To Have Special Flu Shots

If you are 65 years of age or older and/or have a chronic illness, protection from influenza in the form of a special vaccine will be available in the county health department or your doctor's office.

According to Steve Barid, Director of Immunization Services, Tennessee Department of Public Health, the special vaccine (only county residents) will offer protection from two influenza virus strains—the A-Victoria, which caused most illnesses earlier this year and A-New Jersey (the Swiss Flu), which some experts feel could reoccur in epidemic proportions.

"The new influenza strain was isolated by public health professionals in New Jersey in February of this year," said Mr. Barid, "and health experts recognize the possibility that it could cause one of the most severe epidemics in modern history."

Mr. Barid indicated that most experts feel that this was the same influenza that caused the deaths of 20,000,000 people in 1918, of which 500,000 were Americans.

"This is a serious threat to the populace," he said. "And for that reason, public health professionals across the nation are launching the most massive immunization efforts in the country's history."

He indicated that in Tennessee the vaccine would be administered through county health department programs throughout the state and in some locations in two separate campaigns—the first, for the over 65 and/or chronically ill, and the second, for the remainder of the state's population who want the vaccine.

"A limited supply of vaccine is available for this first effort," Mr. Barid said. "And we're encouraging those who are eligible to make plans to receive the vaccine at that time."

According to Mr. Barid, some of the conditions which would constitute the chronically ill would include persons:

1. with congenital or rheumatic heart disease;
2. with frank or incipient congestive heart failure due to any cause;
3. with emphysema, chronic bronchitis, asthma, tuberculosis, etc.;

4. with miscellaneous or compromising illnesses or conditions such as diabetes, Addison's disease, multiple sclerosis, chronic renal failure, chronic liver failure, etc.; and

5. receiving steroids or antimetabolic drugs.

"Of course, this list is by no means exhaustive but it does give some examples of those most at risk," he said.

"We strongly advise these persons to take advantage of the inoculations since it could prevent severe cases of influenza this winter or death."

Co-Chairman of Educators for Duncan is Charlotte Graubman of Knoxville, a teacher at Central High School. Mrs. Graubman, a member of the Tennessee Education Association and the National Education Association is Vice-President of Delta Kappa Gamma, a National Teachers Professional Society. She has her Masters Degree from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Serving with Mrs. Graubman as co-chairman of Educators for Duncan is Loudon County High School teacher Bert Ratledge. Ratledge has been a teacher and coach at Loudon High School for more than 20 years. A graduate of East Tennessee State University, Mr. Ratledge is a member of the Tennessee Education Association and the National Education Association. In a joint statement, Mrs. Graubman and Mr. Ratledge announced that Educators for Duncan has members from all parts of East Tennessee and that these professional educators are working to re-elect Congressman John Duncan because of their deep concern for the quality of education for all students.

Their joint statement said...We have carefully checked Congressman Duncan's voting record on Education and find that Congressman Duncan has consistently worked for legislation that is in the best interest of the student and the teacher. We endorse Congressman Duncan and ask all East Tennessee Educators to help us in Congressman Duncan's re-election campaign.

Three Hurt In Weekend Wrecks

Three persons were injured in three separate auto accidents investigated by the Tennessee Highway Patrol in Loudon County over the weekend.

At 4:45 p.m. Saturday in a car-truck collision on Highway 70 near Smith Road, Phyllis Newcomb, 17, Concord, a passenger in a car driven by Harvey W. Grizzle, Rt. 1, Lenoir City, was taken to Park West Hospital for treatment of injuries.

A truck given by Grizzle, 30, was sidwiped by a car driven by John Robert Guider, 41, Rt. 1, Lenoir City, according to a report filed by Trooper Earl Hall. Guider was charged with having no drivers license and failure to yield. The report said Guider was passing in a no passing zone at the time of the accident.

At 12:45 a.m. Sunday, Hall investigated an accident where Ralph Wheat, Rt. 1, Lenoir City was injured. He was a passenger in a car driven by David Richard Byrd, 32, Wolf Road, Lenoir City. Driver of the second vehicle was identified as Richard William Woods, 28, of Garner, N.C. The accident occurred on Highway 11 near Ford Road.

Brucellosis Program Underway

By Charles F. McCall
Extension Leader

Animal health workers in the Tennessee Department of Agriculture and USDA-APHIS are launching an intensive program against brucellosis this fall in an effort to eliminate this costly disease from Tennessee cattle.

"Money is being made available for more people to go to work testing cattle, tracing the spread of infection, and informing the cattle-owning public of the need to eradicate the disease," says Charles F. McCall, Extension Leader.

"In addition, money is available to speed the sale to slaughter or depopulation of those chronically infected herds which do not clear of infection through normal testing procedures, says McCall. Owners of these herds will have the option of disposing of their animals and receiving as much as $50 per head for grade animals and $100 per head for purebred in addition to the value of these animals as beef."

One of the most important phases of the program is the limited area testing plan. Some 15-20 target counties which have a high rate of infection for brucellosis and a large number of infected herds will have all cattle within the county tested under the accelerated program. A special team of animal health workers will operate within the county to test the cattle as rapidly as possible. When the team has tested all the cattle and identified those herds which are infected, it will move on to another county, leaving the livestock inspector and veterinary medical officer to carry on the effort of retreating and eventual eradication of the disease.

To aid the accelerated program, the Tennessee Department of Agriculture is enacting several regulations to further limit the spread of the disease by infected cattle. One regulation requires the blood test of all cattle on each change of ownership, and a second requires the testing of all cattle imported into Tennessee from other states.

"Since less than 7% of a percent of Tennessee cattle are infected with brucellosis, the vast majority of cattle are free of infection," says McCall. Herd owners and managers need to concentrate on keeping the disease out of their herds. Practices such as isolation and blood testing of new additions to the herd, maintaining good fences and control of herd bulls, and use of calldown vaccination on heifer calves will go a long way toward keeping clean herds free of the disease.

More information about the accelerated program may be obtained from county extension personnel, practicing veterinarians, and the veterinary medical officer (USDA-APHIS) in your area.

Stafford Attends GOP Legislative Campaign School

Rep. M.F. "Benny" Stafford of Lenoir City recently attended a GOP Legislative Campaign School at Nashville.

As Chairman of the House Republican Caucus, Stafford joined Lamar Alexander and former Governor Winfield Dunn in speaking to candidates on campaign strategy.

The Republican legislative nominees also were given sessions on how the legislature works, fiscal issues, and government operations, the three-term lawmaker said.

"The weekend school was very informative and provided much beneficial guidance, especially for challengers getting their first taste of campaigning," Stafford said.

The legislative school was staffed by Republicans from the General Assembly, state party headquarters, and the Republican National Committee.

Ledford Attends Seminar

David "Peabody" Ledford a candidate for the Tennessee House of Representatives from the 36th Legislative District, was in Nashville recently to participate in a statewide legislative campaign seminar for Democratic nominees.

The seminar, put on by the House Democratic Caucus, brought together all the Democratic House nominees with some of the top experts in various campaign fields including DeLoss Walker, of DeLoss Walker and Associates, Memphis, one of the best-known political consultants in the country.

"The purpose of the seminar was basically two-fold, according to Ledford.

"The various program participants tried to give each nominee an overview of how a campaign should operate and the legislative leadership including House Speaker Ned Ray McWhorter, gave each of us some orientation as to what the responsibilities and duties are for a member of the House of Representatives," he said.

WINNING HOUSE PLAN—Vocational drafting instructor George Brown is shown with one of three students who placed third with a complete set of house plans judged in vocational competition at the TVA&I Fair recently. Cifers At White House Briefing

E. C. Cifers, chairman of the board of Bacon Company, Inc., Lenoir City, participated in a recent White House briefing conducted by members of President Ford's staff for the directors of the National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers. Cifers has been a director of the association since 1971.

During the two-hour meeting in the Roosevelt Room of the White House, members of President Ford's staff discussed the economy, energy, hosiery imports and exports and regulatory agency reform with the hosiery executives.

Calvin Lunford, 458-2881. We have been trying for the past few weeks to go into our files and use some of the old pictures we have promised to use when space permitted. We are always grateful to those who are patient with us in the selection of pictures we use in this effort each week.

This week we would like to use two pictures of historic Loudon County homes, which to us, have a very colorful background. Many of the old Loudon County homes were built prior to the Civil War and many of them played a role in this era of history.

As we have said many times, our people from all walks of life have made our country and have contributed to its colorful history. The old homes point this out in a very realistic way.

The first home we will write about is the home owned by the Bill Butler family on Highway 72 near Sweetwater Creek. It is a beautiful old home, well kept, with rich history as well as design. It was built in the era mentioned earlier.

The other home is the Blair home, located on Highway 11, midway between Loudon and Lenoir City. This old wood structure was used during the Civil War as a hospital. It is a stately well kept home today. I have been told that when the house was built the front was on the opposite side from what it is today. The road changed brought this about.

Some months ago, we were writing about Martins and how they came in the spring Shrine Parade.

The Shriner of Kerbella Temple will have a parade in Loudon at 10 a.m. Saturday in the downtown area. It will include the shrine motorcycle corps, dance troupes, clowns and other vehicles.

The Loudon County Shrine Club and Shriners from throughout the Kerbella district will be holding a ceremonial induction of new members at Harrison later Saturday.

and we asked if there were many of them coming to our area, now, like they did when I was a kid. Well, I found from several people, that they still come to our area in mass and Wallace has Martin gourd and he says they have some very hefty battles with the other birds around his home.

Years ago, many people would make preparation for the Martins by fixing gourds and Martin boxes. I have always heard that they were choosy about their nesting place and would reject some of the gourds and boxes because they were too small, too close to the ground and other reasons. You may know or recall from observing their nesting habits.

We have had many calls on the church picture we ran last week. It seems that many of our Loudon folks remember this old church and for many of them it holds some very dear memories. We are always glad to run pictures which please our readers. We strive toward this goal each week. Sometimes the pictures have interest for some people and not others, but the next weeks picture will have an interest for other readers. With time we hope to just about touch every section of our area.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Murder Indictment Against Green Thrown Out Attempt To Amend Due To Error Held Illegal

GET SIX SUPERIOR AWARDS—The Loudon High Marching Band is shown just after they returned home Saturday night from the Tri State Marching Band Festival in Cleveland where they were awarded superior ratings from all six judges for all four judging categories: band; drum major, feature twirler and colorguard. This week the band will compete in the Bandmasters Open Marching Festival in Sevierville.

The indictment for first degree murder against tavern owner Wayne Green was thrown out of Criminal Court Tuesday by Judge J.H. McCarty after a motion by Green's attorney Blaine Winfrey. The indictment for aiding and abetting in first degree murder against Mrs. Green was also ruled out. Last Friday the grand jury was called back into session on the case after it was discovered that the names of two substitute jurors were not charged by law, and that there was no procedure under state law for amending an indictment. Judge McCarty after hearing the argument, sustained the plea for abatement, which in effect found between Thursday and Friday morning. Two new members were added, and action termed "amending the indictment" was taken, correcting the name. Attorney Winfrey appeared before Judge McCarty Tuesday with five motions in an attempt to have the indictment nulled. He argued that the indictment was illegally constituted since the substitute jurors were not charged by law, and that there was no procedure under state law for amending an indictment. Judge McCarty after hearing the argument, sustained the plea for abatement, which in effect ruled the indictments void. Prosecutors in the case are expected to return the matter to the Grand Jury at its January term. Tentative agreement was reached that if the indictment is returned in January the trial would begin on Feb. 21, 1977. The motions that led to the dismissal of the indictments came only one day before the case was set to go to trial Wednesday. More than 100 jurors had been called for the case. Green is charged with the August 20 murder of Hendrix, who was found in the parking lot of Green's Package Store on old Highway 95 just out of Loudon City, about in the area of the intersection of the old highway and the new highway. Green is conducting criminal court in the absence of Judge Lloyd McCarty because of a petition asking the tavern be padlocked. McCarty heard the case in court term shortly after the court term began but had postponed adjournment pending the outcome of the trial which would have been held this week. After the dismissal of the indictments, Attorney General Kenneth Deatheridge asked that the court reconvene to padlock order. Judge McCarty refused to do so, which will go into effect Monday. Green, it is understood, closed the tavern voluntarily last Saturday pending the outcome of the trial which would have been held this week. In the General Sessions preliminary hearing of the case it was brought out that Hendrix and Green had had a fight which took place inside the bar. It was said that Hendrix left through the front door of Green's tavern and hid in his car. Hendrix hid in the parking lot. Hendrix also reported the two men started fighting again a short time after and shortly after that time Green came in to his wife he had killed Hendrix and to hide his gun.

United Fund Off To Slow Start, $7,177 Pledged

The first report meeting of the 1977 campaign of the Loudon County United Fund was somewhat of a disappointment to leaders of the campaign, but they were encouraged by the reports of activity beginning in all areas of the county to raise $30,000 for the 16 member agencies. Campaign Chairman Bob Smith commented that it was a good report to get at this time. He said that the present campaign figure at $7,177, or 12 percent of the total goal, but he is hopeful that the next report will show more progress. "We have the rest of the month to meet our goal, but I am hopeful we can get everyone working and complete the total drive together," Smith told the group at the meeting held at Loudon High School. The next report is tentatively set for 1 p.m. Monday at the King's Inn Restaurant. Reporting this week were: Margaret Corporation with $4,017; the county contribution of $2,000; Loudon City Business $50; and Loudon Business $10. This added with the $2,300 reported by Wampler-Elm Hill, brought the total report Monday to $7,177. Most of the industrial representatives at the meeting said they will be just getting underway. Several reports were given by business and residential campaigns in Loudon, Loudon City, Philadelphia, Greenback and Eaton-Dixie Lee. A film promoting the United Fund is being shown at various civic clubs in the county and is available for business, civic groups and industry. Those wishing to see the film should contact UF Secretary Dottie Pace at the First National Bank of Loudon City in Loudon City. Campaign worker Rachel Huff encouraged the workers to ask contributors to read the campaign pamphlet because it tells a brief story about each of the 16 agencies which receive funds from the Loudon County United Fund. It was also pointed out that the United Fund is one of the lowest overhead expenses in the nation with less than three percent going to operations. The 16 agencies who are funded by the local UF in the annual campaign are as follows: American Red Cross, American Legion Mile of Dimes, Loudon County Association For Exceptional Citizens, Arthritis Foundation, The Boy's Club of Loudon City, Daniel Arthur Rehabilitation Center, The Empty Stocking Fund, Dan's Club, Mountain Council Boy Scouts of America, Tami Girl Scout Council, Loudon Mile of Dimes, Loudon County Emergency Rescue Squad, Philadelphia Community Chest, United Service Organizations, Inc., Youth Club of Loudon, Loudon County Advisory Council, United Cerebral Palsy.

After the dismissal of the indictments, Attorney General Kenneth Deatheridge asked that the court reconvene to padlock order. Judge McCarty refused to do so, which will go into effect Monday. Barron Gets 3-5 Years In Prison

Alvin Barron of Loudon City received a three to five year prison sentence in Criminal Court last week after entering a plea of guilty to burglary in the third degree. A co-defendant, Gregg Hamrick, indicted for receiving, concealing and disposing of stolen property had his trial continued to October 27. The trial of Eddie McDonald of Loudon, charged with Deputy Lake Bright with assault with a auto and reckless driving, had his trial postponed from last week until Dec. 1. Charles G. Thompson, indicted for receiving and concealing stolen property, entered a guilty plea to receiving stolen property valued at under $100, received a one year prison term.

Microwave Oven Door Prize At Homemakers School

Ladies of Loudon County here is something you will not want to miss. The First Annual American Homemakers School set for Thursday, October 20 at the Loudon High School Auditorium. The Homemakers School, a nationally centered promotion of some 10 food and home appliance firms, is co-sponsored locally by The Loudon County Herald and area merchants. The admission is free, nothing will be sold, and there will be dozens of door prizes. The grand door prize will be a $500 microwave oven supplied by one of the national sponsors. Hotpoint, through Tensony Electric Company of Sweetwater. The admission is free, nothing will be sold, and there will be dozens of door prizes. The Homemakers Schools are now conducted in 37 states. Loudon is one of 296 cities selected for the promotion. This year, the Loudon County Homemakers School has been expanded to include the Southeastern United States. Loudon County Herald Editor Larry Cate said that there will be a 16 page section promoting the school, showing some of the recipes that have made the school a top promotion idea, and have advertisements from the local and national sponsors showing some of the products that will be displayed at the Merchandising Fair preceding the Homemakers School. Bob Fair, advertising manager of The Herald, has produced two Homemakers Schools in Arizona, that have been tremendous successes. "The Homemakers School is an exciting and entertaining event for the homemakers plus they will have an opportunity to win very valuable prizes just for coming," Fair said.

10 Presidential Candidates On Ballot

There will be 10 states of electors, representing the 10 candidates for President of the United States on the ballot in Loudon County and throughout Tennessee on the November 2 national and state election. National Commission Chairman John Gibson said Friday that the state was forced to include some seven additional minority party candidates and this delayed ordering ballots for the election, including the paper ballots for absentee voting. The late order on ballots will cause a delay in voting in person at the election commission office, but persons wishing absentee ballots by mail should go ahead with their request for ballots, the chairman said. The entire upper half of the ballot will be consumed by the election office, but persons wishing absentee ballots by mail should go ahead with their request for ballots, the chairman said. School Bids Are Issued Superintendent of Education Edward Taylor said that after delays the two months of the school building project on the Philadelphia School will follow that within two weeks with the Greenback project. Each is expected to cost around $700,000. The school board will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday and will see a presentation on the two school projects from architect Ben McMurry, Jr. Other major items on the agenda to be taken up by the board are the approval for the site for the Loudon-Steekus area Middle School, several student transfers, and eight items concerning student busing requests.

Dick Dent's job was made in Belgium.

Dick and his family live at 2905 Phillips St. in South Charleston, West Virginia.

He works just ten minutes away at the local Union Carbide plant.

But his job is created thousands of miles away.

You see, Dick's job is to make special chemicals called catalysts.

These catalysts are shipped to Belgium and other countries where Union Carbide plants depend on them to make petrochemicals that are sold abroad.

This interdependence is not unusual in the countries where Union Carbide and its affiliates work.

By manufacturing abroad we have actually increased the foreign demand for many products we make here at home.

This in turn has created more jobs here at home. A recent study shows our investment overseas has directly created at least 2,500 jobs in our plants in the U.S.

Still, we manufacture abroad only when it becomes unfeasible to supply and maintain a market from the U.S.

In fact, we export products from America to 100 foreign countries.

All of which is another way of saying that our international investment is helping improve the standard of living for people abroad and at home.

Including Dick Dent and his family.

Redskins Bid For Third Consecutive State Title In Jeopardy Following 4-12 Upset Loss To Harriman

Strike the Loudon Redskins from the Class AA list, of unbested. The Redskins were surprised by twice beaten Harriman last Friday night by the close score of 14-12. The damaging defeat snapped a 10 game Loudon winning streak and was only their second loss in the past 33 outings.

The biggest surprise of the loss may have been the fact it was Loudon's first loss on its home field since dropping a 12-7 verdict to Cleveland back on October 19, 1973.

The game was played on a rain slick field and in a continual second half pour that seemed to work to the advantage of the underdog Blue Devils.

Loudon received the opening kick-off and with the superior blocking and smoothness of the Class AA Champions they are, reached the Blue Devil 21 with the big play being a 10 yard pass from Greg Deatridge to Conway Duke.

The Redskins lost a fumble to inspire the Harriman defense, but the Loudon defense refused to allow the Harriman offense the shortest of gains and the Blue Devils punted.

When the second quarter started Freddie Starritt was tripped for a yard loss and on fourth down Loudon came out passing with Steve Schrimsher hauling in an 11 yard pass from Deatridge.

Freddie Starritt and Greg Deatridge continued to move the ball to the Harriman one yard line where Deatridge plunged to pay dirt and a score. The conversion kick was blocked with 9:12 to go in the first half.

Harriman had no offense to speak of in the next offensive series and punted to the Redskins 34 with 6:40 showing. Loudon was on the verge of breaking the game open on a 21 yard scamper by Deatridge around left end. The talented senior quarterback was rode into the fence surrounding the playing field and a roughing penalty of 15 yards was added to his gain. Loudon fans came to life as did the Redskins players. But Harriman's defense rose to the call and at their own 21 stopped Loudon short of a first down by some six inches with 3:55 to play in the second quarter.

Harriman's offense was still dominated by the hard rushing Loudon defense and lost two yards in two plays. A delay draw to the left of the Harriman ball carrier suddenly found daylight down the left side lines for a 60 yard gallop.

Greg Deatridge saved the sure touchdown for the moment.

Harriman kept their offensive pace however with a first down pass of some 16 yards finding its mark in the Loudon end zone for a touchdown and a 2-0 Harriman lead with just 46 seconds to play in the first half.

Deatridge chose to go for a two point conversion and again found success with the pass and upped their lead to 14-0.

Rain was the chief factor of the second half as Loudon spluttered and stalled on any attempt to catch up with the Blue Devils.

The Redskins held the ball for 10 straight plays, moving to the Harriman 30 on their first offensive series of the third quarter. The Blue Devils won the ball over on downs however, but lacking offensive punch was forced to punt for the second time in the period.

Loudon appeared to have a sizeable gain with a 16 yard pass to Steve Schrimsher, but the pass was never really caught and only wedged between him and the Harriman defensive back. When the two hit the ground the ball rolled free and a Harriman player jumped on the ball. The play was ruled a Loudon fumble and Harriman got a big break in halting still another Loudon scoring march.

The Harriman offense lost 12 yards in three plays and Loudon received the ball for the third time in the fast moving quarter at midfield.

The Redskins offense perked up this time and Starritt and Deatridge tackled on 17 yards in three snaps of the ball.

Mark Moore and Deatridge moved the ball to the Harriman 31. Deatridge dashed off the right side for a first down gain and Freddie Starritt, breaking three tackles rambled the last 11 yards as Loudon moved to within a couple of points of the Blue Devils at 14-12 with 7:56 on the final quarter clock.

Loudon's bid for a tying two point conversion pass was intercepted and the game was suddenly a barn burner as to whether the Harriman team could weather the elements and the pressure of holding off the Champion Redskins.

Loudon's defense proved too much but the Harriman defense used the indecision of the Loudon offense with under four minutes to play to halt a Loudon series.

Harriman ran the clock down to the final 33 seconds before Loudon was to get its final trip to gain victory.

Deatridge faded back to pass but with no one open ran the ball to near mid-field and what was thought to be of out bounds. The referee signaled the clock to run and Loudon was down to the final seven seconds.

A pass was completed to Kenny Starritt as the game ended. Starritt raced the ball to the Harriman 30 where he was finally downed by a pair of Blue Devil defensive backs and the game was history.

Coach Bert Hatledge was disappointed with his overall team's performance. "We stood around waiting for some one else to do a job we all should have been trying to do for our selves," spoke Hatledge. "I don't know where this leaves us. Harriman has Rockwood, Alcoa and Maryville left on their schedule and have lost twice. Cleveland plays Alcoa and Bradley County on a nine game schedule. Lake City has the possibility of finishing with 74 playoff points, having lost their season opener to Rockwood. We have two games to go."

It is going to be a photo finish it appears no matter who makes the playoff. We are backed against the wall for sure but we have a veteran team of seniors in key positions for us and this will help but only time and the seasons will tell the outcome."

Loudon had a five game winning streak going in the 1976 season following a 1989 State Title only to drop a 27-14 contest to Dayton and then lost 60 consecutive Fridays to Maryville 35-28 and Cleveland 34-15.

That campaign ended in a 6-3 record and Maryville streaked to the state double-A title.

CAUGHT FROM BEHIND—Loudon junior running back Freddie Starritt (22) tries to elude the vice grip hold this Harriman tackler has preventing him from breaking away on a long gain of real estate. Trying to catch up to the play for blocking support is Loudon center B.J. Moore (50).

BLUE DEVILS LOSE YARDAGE—Loudon's defense was often in the Harriman backfield to spy loss of yardage tackles as this one here where Loudon's Junior Rolan (63) punts Blue Devil quarterback Grigby with a seven yard loss. Hoping to make the play is Loudon guard Sam Theary.

Still the Blue Devils were victorious 14-12.

Cindy Queener Crown Queen

Ooltewah Spoils Lenoir City Homecoming With 7-5 Rain Soaked Decision

The Lenoir City Panther Homecoming last Friday night was a distant cry from that of a night of football fun and the pageantry of crowning a new homecoming queen for the new school year.

Pretty senior Cindy Queener was selected as the new homecoming queen and was proudly escorted by former Panther baseball player Duane Bowers.

But even the happy Miss Queener could not find it in her new crown of royalty to control the weather nor the ways of the Ooltewah Owls.

The entire second half of the game was played in a steady pelting of rain with Ooltewah clinging to a 7-3 lead that was continuously challenged by the Lenoir City offense but at the game's end had added but two points to the score board and thus fell to their fifth loss in six games by a count of 7-5.

The win was Ooltewah's first of the season in seven ball games.

Lacking in offensive punch, part due to the rainy field conditions and part to team break down at critical moments the Panthers did everything but score a touchdown on the Owls.

Ooltewah took the opening kick-off but was quickly met by a fired up group of Panther head hunters. The football was knocked loose and Steve Porter recovered the ball for the Panthers.

Stationed at the Owls' 29, the Panthers used nine plays to close within six yards of the Ooltewah goal line. A holding penalty and slightly off target passes led to the decision of the Panthers going for a field goal.

Sophomore Eddie Park, who has subdued for injured Keith Amos at kicking off and handling placements, lined up a field goal attempt from the Owls 28. The fourth down kick was good for a 36 yard field goal and Lenoir City had the early first quarter edge at 9-0 with 7:23 on the opening period clock.

Ooltewah took the ensuing kick-off and gained back to back first downs on some strong rushes and a 13 yard Panther penalty.

The Owls had the ball to the Panther 34 when sophomore Don Mabry intercepted an Ooltewah pass with 4:12 on the first period clock.

Lenoir City regrouped its offense from its own 15. Strong back and no offensive penalty on the Owls gave the Panthers a fourth down punt.

Ooltewah was still contained by the Lenoir City defense and finally gave the ball up on downs at the LC 27.

The Panthers could keep the ball but two running plays, Fullback Doyle Varner lost the handle on the ball and fumbled away the pigskin to the Ooltewah defense at his own 33 as the second period got under way.

The Owls needed no more scoring opportunities to crank up their offense. From the 22 the Owls used five plays with the fullback stepping around right end for the final 17 yards and a touchdown with 7:52 left in the first half. The kick was good and Ooltewah led for the first time at 7-3.

A good kick return by Jackie Ryan and a 15 yard roughing penalty on the Owls gave the Panthers a mid-field offensive start. But the Panther offense was not to record a first down until the Owls were able to escape their goal line shadow as penalties forced them to within less than two yards of their own goal line late in the second quarter. The fourth down punt traveled only to their own 30 and Ryan carried it back to the 19. Steve Porter and Varner gave the Panthers a first down at the eight yard line. Porter, Ryan, and Varner could place the ball start. The fourth down punt traveled only to their own 30 and Ryan carried it back to the 19. Steve Porter and Varner gave the Panthers a first down at the eight yard line. Porter, Ryan, and Varner could place the ball downs under their belt that completely exhausted the third quarter and nearly three minutes of the start of the final canto.

A first down at the Lenoir City 12 and the Owls were quick to move inside the Panther 16. Junior Richard Vest turned in a gem of a defensive play, sailing the Ooltewah ball carrier nine yards deep in his own backfield. The big defensive effort forced the Owls to pass and Steve Porter intercepted the ball at the end zone and returned it to the Lenoir City 35.

Despite being away from their own goal line the Panther offense still sought a way to get untracked on the Ooltewah defense. A fourth down punt was again fumbled by the Owls with Galyon claiming his second Ooltewah bobble at the Owls 32.

Lenoir City seemed destined for a score as Ryan and Varner cracked the line of scrimmage for a Panther first down at the Owls 17.

Varner dashed on two carries to the Ow 11 with 4:27 to play.

Ooltewah held tough and the ball was turned over on downs.

Don Mabry, coming up with his second big individual effort of the half, quickly claimed a Ooltewah fumble at the Owls 10 on their first snap. The Panthers could not dent the Owls defense in four rushing attempts and the ball again exchanged possession, as the clock approached the final two minutes of the game.

Ooltewah stretched the yard marker to the 19, only to have a penalty ruled in favor of the Lenoir City defense and the ball was back almost to the 10 once more. A nine yard loss on a run from scrimmage had the ball within a yard of the Ooltewah goal line and fourth down.

The Owls wisely took a safety on fourth down as the Ooltewah punter allowed himself to be downed in his own end zone.

The Ooltewah maneuver gave the Panthers two points for a 7-5 score difference and a free kick by the Owls at their own 20 and just 45 seconds left on the game clock.

The Panthers attempted to again reach the field goal range of Park with a four down passing attack. The Panthers reached the Ooltewah 38 as Varner and Porter both caught aerials but still the ball was not nearly close enough for a field goal and the pelling second half rain being a major factor in the play of the two teams.

Doyle Varner led the Panther offense with 45 yards in 16 carries and caught three passes totaling 11 yards. Jackie Ryan had a two yard average for the night with 26 yards on 13 tries.

Lenoir City faces Kingston this week in still another tough Region II contest.

Loudon-Harriman Game Missed By Contest Winners

No one got all 10 games correct in the Herald Football Contest last week. Of the six who missed only one game, all of them missed the Harriman upset of Loudon.

There was a tie for first place as two persons were identical in their tie-breaker (closest to the combined scores in the Loudon-Harriman game, 36), thus sharing first and second place each.

With 28 point tie-breakers and winning $10 each are Jackie Eller of Highland Avenue, and an almost next-door-neighbor, Bill Roberts of Highland Avenue.

The third place $5 cash winner with 21 points on the tie-breaker was Mike Lambert of West Lee Highway.

Many people had figured Alcoa to beat Rule and Lenoir City to down Ooltewah, but it didn't happen. The Carter-Farragut game did not figure in the scoring since it was not played until Monday night.

Others who missed only one game, but failed to collect any cash reward are Neil Watkins, Clayton Stamey, and Kim Davidson.

Walland Record Soars To 7-0, Down Greenback 31-8

The Greenback Cherokee strategy to halt the state's longest high school football winning streak at Walland last Friday night was washed away by a 31-8 difference.

Defending Class A State Champions, Walland Indians, upped their current season record to a sparkling 7-0 and 20 consecutive wins by handing Greenback their third setback of the season in seven games.

Greenback, with rain pelting down from the start of the contest until the very end, chose to go on the defense after winning the opening coin toss. The Cherokee strategy received a confident boost as Walland made a play of clipping penalty on the attempted run back of the game's opening kick-off. The 15 yard stop-of-play was called at their own 16 to start the first offensive series.

Greenback, taking advantage of the weather conditions, also employed a eight and nine man defensive line to try and place added pressure on the Indian offense.

None of the inspired Cherokee efforts or the rain could dampen the Walland homecoming performance. The Indians wedged their way out to their own 25 for a first down and then ripped a hole in the Cherokee defense for a 50 yard

LYNN RUCKER—Lynn Rucker's three pass receptions against Walland gives him 15 for the season and 222 yards of offense.

TONY ARNOLD—Greenback senior Tony Arnold has been a most contented player in recent weeks for the Cherokee. Tony was in on 16 tickles (runner-up to Dotson) made to tackles behind the line of scrimmage and recovered a fumble against Walland last Friday night.

run to the Greenback three. The Cherokee made the Indians use their maximum allotted downs to travel the last three yard lines as Walland finally crossed the Greenback double striped on fourth down with 8:54 to play in the first quarter. The kick passing game to register a couple of first downs that placed the ball into Walland territory at the 41.

Walland defense became stingy however and Robby Kizer boomed a 37 yard punt to the Indians six yard stripe.

Walland, rolling behind a strong rushing attack, collected three first downs and stationed the ball at the Greenback 44 before being forced to punt to end the first quarter of action.

The Walland punt went into the Greenback end zone and was brought out to the 20. The Cherokee were flaged for their lone penalty of the game on first down with a half the distance to the goal line resulting from a holding penalty. An end around try by Lynn Rucker carrying the ball was spoiled for a loss of six more yards back to the Greenback four.

Greenback dispensed with anymore offensive play, punting in third down to their own 30. Walland, enjoying the field position, pounded the Greenback defensive wall for a five play scoring march in just a minute and 31 seconds to take a 21-0 second quarter lead with 9:06 to play in the half.

Greenback was unable to generate any type of rushing offense on the gang tackling Walland defense and thus turned to the airways, picking up a first down on the Cherokee 26. Glenn Quillen and Danny Dotson had receptions of seven and 11 yards, respectively before Walland forced a punting situation at the Cherokee 28 with two straight defensive stops for minus yardage.

Kizer was rushed on the punt attempt and his attempt to throw a desperation pass fell incomplete with Walland taking over the ball.

The Indian offense offense ran into considerable defensive opposition from the Greenback defense and thus from the nine yard line settled for a 25 yard field goal and a 24-0 point spread.

Greenback was forced to punt twice in the next 4:14 of the first half as neither team was able to establish any offense.

Walland did have a 25 yard pass reception by Sweet to the Greenback 30, but a fumble on the next offensive play was claimed by Greenback's Tony Arnold.

Walland, with the option, kicked-off for the second half and held Greenback taking a 17 yard fourth down punt at their own 49.

The Indians were checked at the Greenback 27 as Roger Hampton claimed a fumble.

The Cherokee managed to log a first down on a pass to Rucker and a Walland interference penalty, but still the ball could not be moved past mid-field and Greenback punted once more to the Walland 30.

Greenback's defense forced Walland to punt for only the second time in the game with 3:40 to play in the third period.

From their own 20 Greenback moved swiftly with Rucker snagging a 25 yard aerial from senior Roddy Kizer for a first down at the Walland 41.

A 15 yard penalty on the Walland secondary moved the chain to the 26 and a offside penalty gave Greenback still five more yards to improve their field position at the Walland 21. Kizer again hit Rucker on a pass route for 12 yards to the Indian nine and from the nine Kizer threw to his other senior receiver Glenn Quillen for a Greenback touchdown with 2:46 left in the third canto.

Kizer, picking the Walland secondary to pieces with excellent passing hit flanker Chris Blair for a two point conversion and the score stood 24-8.

Walland came right back with a clock killing drive of their own that covered 60 yards. The time consuming touchdown drive last 6:08 with the Indians using 15 plays to strike pay dirt. The kick was good and a 31-8 score posted with 8:38 to play in the game.

The game became rather sloppy from this point on with the Indians never threatening again and Greenback having just one real stout scoring challenge with 4:41 left in the game. Linebacker Danny Dotson recovered a Walland fumble and Kizer drilled a 16 yard pass to the Walland 18.

The Indian defense would allow no more as Kizer was dropped on fourth down.

Greenback was limited to a minus eight yards rushing. Kizer with a six yard rushing mark and six yards from end Glenn Quillen was the only Cherokee ball carriers with plus yardage on the ground.

In the air Danny Dotson caught two passes for 19 yards. Chris Blair had two receptions for 11. Rucker three for 30 and Quillen five for 24 yards and a touchdown.

Overall Greenback threw 30 passes with none intercepted and 14 caught for 214 yards.

Walland, who meets unbeaten Lanier this week, had a tremendous ground attack with 307 yards rushing in the muddy rain soaked game.

Greenback will travel to Townsend in its next football test this Friday night.

LEADS WALLAND VICTORY—John Sweet, former Loudon High School football player, moved to Maryville for his senior season and is a two way starter on the defending State Class A Champions Walland Indians football team. John is an offensive end and a defensive halfback. He was instrumental in a three yard run to give the Panther freshmen the lead. Bobby Thomas' kick was no good.

Flu Vaccine Clinics Scheduled For November

Loudon County Health Nurse Marjorie Pries, coordinator for the Loudon County Flu Vaccine Program, said this week that the County Health Department hopes to have enough Swine Flu Vaccine to hold three mass clinics early in November to vaccinate all who want the protection.

The date of the three mass clinics will be announced when the Department is certain the vaccine will be in hand in sufficient amounts. There will be a clinic at Lenoir City, one at Loudon and one at Greenback.

Mrs. Pries said at present there is only enough vaccine on hand to take care of "public servants" such as utility people, police, firemen, hospital and nursing homes.

Mrs. Pries said the vaccine that they may need a second dose later to give them full immunity but will be advised through the news media, Mrs. Pries stated.

All people 24 years of age and older will receive the vaccine, if they desire it at the place where they work or at one of the three clinics. The local doctors will eventually have the vaccine in their offices. As we have vaccine available, we will supply the industries in the county," said Mrs. Pries.

Persons 18-24 will be given one injection. It is possible that they may need a second dose later to give them full immunity but will be advised through the news media, Mrs. Pries stated.

All people 24 years of age and older will receive the vaccine, if they desire it at the place where they work or at one of the three clinics. The local doctors will eventually have the vaccine in their offices. As we have vaccine available, we will supply the industries in the county," said Mrs. Pries.

Perom 65 and over will receive a combination vaccine (one shot) of Swine Flu and the A-Victoria Strain (this is the flu that was around last year).

All persons with chronic illness, diabetes, pulmonary heart and kidney, will receive the Bivalent vaccine. Others will get the single strain or Monovalent vaccine.

Those who will not receive vaccine are: 1-Healthy children under 18 years of age. 2-People that are allergic to eggs. 3-People with fever should wait until fever is gone. 4-People who have received another type of flu vaccine should wait 30 days before taking this vaccine.

Before taking the Swine Flu vaccine, there will be people at each clinic to answer any questions a person might have regarding the vaccine. Each clinic will have registration form for each person that wishes to take the shot. Each individual must read it, fill it out and sign before the vaccine is given. If for any reason a person is unable to do so, then a guardian or parent must do this for the person.

Mrs. Pries said that further information on the time and place of the mass clinics or other clinics will be published in the local newspapers.

Quarterback Club Indians Capture Sixth Victory

by Joe Williams

The Volunteer Conference Midget Football title could be at stake in two weeks when Loudon travels to Harriman. At any rate one conference race rests heavily with the outcome of that night's final attraction. The Indians and the Harriman Midgets.

Harriman has led the standings from the season start, but Loudon has shown some remarkable improvement with each week's outings and with only one loss to Memphis their record goes ahead hunting for a share of the league leadership.

Loudon however can not look too far in advance as the Quarterback Club sponsored P.O. Ween must travel to Rockwood this Saturday night for their fourth game conference meeting. The Indians have won team once this year to the tune of 26-0, but little is taken for granted in this age group of football play.

The Loudon Indians had their most productive night of the season last Saturday night as they pounced on Dayton 38-0. Seven Indians players all figured into the point total for Loudon.

Alan Eldridge put Loudon on the score board first with a three yard touchdown run. Zell Hawkins passing to Terry Hand accounted for a two point conversion.

Hawkins then hit Hand on a 45 yard reception and run to take a 16-0 first quarter lead.

Hawkins to Lloyd Cook and a Billy Lawson conversion run opened up the fire works in the second period and Pat Brown, running over from the four and Eldridge conversion effort gave Loudon a commanding 32-0 halftime lead.

Loudon capped off the evening with a one yard sneak by Billy Moore to win going away 38-0.

While Loudon was registering a whopping 415 yards of total offense the defensive play of Joe Poynter, Terry Walden, Billy Lawson, Mark McCallie, Billy Snider, and Pat Brown was completely shutting out the Dayton Midgets.

KISER ADVANCES TO FOUR—Loudon Grasscutter Troy Kiser moves the ball down to the Dayton four yard line in the first quarter after taking a pass from Archie Cosner. The Loudon team lost the game however 26-0.

Retty Dunlap had a 562 series and Gwen Whitley rolled a 206 in a scratch women's showing. B. Roberts was the best in handicap men's with a 609 series and Ikie Shepherd followed with a 235 game score. Charlotte Rogers

Letters To The Editor

Open Letter To: Citizens of Loudon County indicated that the City of Knoxville is considering a land fill area in Loudon County. This site is located just off Watt Road approximately one (1) mile north of the Interstate. In case you do not know, a land fill is a garbage dump. A logical question arises: Why must the City of Knoxville consider Loudon County as a garbage dump for the City? The answer is simply because the people of Knox County are opposed to locating such an undesirable element near them and the bureaucrats will not make an unpopular decision affecting their voting populace.

Briefly, let me outline the benefits and costs for Loudon County. Loudon County will not be permitted to use the facility. In this regard I refer you to the recent fight between Knox County and the City of Knoxville over a similar facility located in Knox County. Thus a fair evaluation of the benefits to be received by Loudon County is zero.

- As far as the costs to Loudon County the following is apparent:
1. Vast devaluation of property adjacent to the site.
 2. Mild devaluation of properties near the site.
 3. Some devaluation of properties in the site influence fringe area.
 4. Unpleasant odor throughout the area.
 5. Sanitation problems with well water throughout the County.
 6. Aesthetic deterioration of the area.
 7. Increased tax burden to Loudon County to provide the necessary sanitary controls once the garbage dump has been fully utilized and abandoned.
 8. Increased tax burden to Loudon County to provide the necessary sanitary controls once the garbage dump has been fully utilized and abandoned.
 9. The site will be a haven for rodents and other pest and will require control during life of site. Rats carry diseases and present other sanitary problems.

It becomes apparent that none of the benefits are being passed to the residents of Loudon County while all of the indirect costs are being passed to us. Now the question I ask you is this: "Do you, as a resident of Loudon County, desire that the City of Knoxville (or any one else) use our County as a garbage dump?"

The City of Knoxville is attempting to utilize Loudon County for a purpose which the residents of Knox County would not allow to be imposed on them. It is time we stood and fight such outside interest and let them know that we do not intend to allow them to impose their problems on our County. I urge each citizen of Loudon County to contact his Squire or other influential person and inform him that the land in Loudon County is not to be used as a garbage dump for anyone.

Dear Editor:

Just a note to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to the citizens of Loudon County from the citizens for the Loudon County Adult Activity Center.

Without your support in our fund raising efforts, such as sale, benefit all-sing, and beef give-away, it would not be possible for the Center to operate.

The Loudon County Association for Exceptional Citizens will be holding these type of events in the future so we can continue our center and eventually branch out and help our handicapped people of Loudon County, both mentally and physically.

We need the continued support of Loudon County citizens in our fund raising projects.

We held our meetings the last Friday of each month at New Providence School on Sugar Line Road, off I-75. Any concerned citizen of Loudon County is cordially invited to attend any of our meetings, as they are open to the public.

Again, thank you.
Very truly yours,
Loudon County Assoc.
for Exceptional Citizens

Mobile Home Safety Plan Is Approved

Millard V. Oakley, Commissioner for the Tennessee Department of Insurance has received notice from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development granting approval of the Department's state plan administering the Federal Mobile Home Construction and Safety Standards Program. The approval from the Office of Consumer Affairs and Regulatory Functions is effective immediately.

The approval grants the Division of Fire Prevention of the Tennessee Department of Insurance exclusive authority for the regulation and administration of mobile home construction, factory inspection, and consumer complaints in the state.

Tennessee is the first state in the South to be granted such approval and is one of four states which has received the HUD approval nationwide. The approval charges the Fire Marshal's Office with dual responsibilities: first as the State Administering Agency and secondly as an exclusive Inspect Primary Inspection Agency (PIA).

Commissioner Oakley said "we are pleased to be one of the first states selected to develop and implement a safety and inspection program which will protect consumers and provide quality constructed and fire safe mobile homes."

Oakley credited Gene Hartsook, of Lenoir City, Director of Fire Prevention, with the development of the state plan saying "I am confident that under Mr. Hartsook's direction a statewide program bringing higher standards to the mobile home industry will benefit those families who wish to purchase mobile homes in the future."

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

By CALVIN LUNSFORD
438-2681

We are always glad to have family groups for the Good Old Days. We do appreciate it when folks run across these pictures and think of the Good Old Days.

This week we have a family group picture loaned to us by Malcolm Millsaps. It is a group picture of his family. We are grateful to him for loaning us this picture of a well known Loudon County family. The Millsaps family lived for many years about three miles out of Philadelphia on what we believe was the Smith farm. Anyway, Malcolm said his brother, Robert, who lives in Texas received the Herald each week and was a fan of the Good Old Days. He isn't aware that we are using this old picture. We would like to send greetings to him from The Herald and The Good Old Days. We have many out of state readers and we are always glad to hear about them.

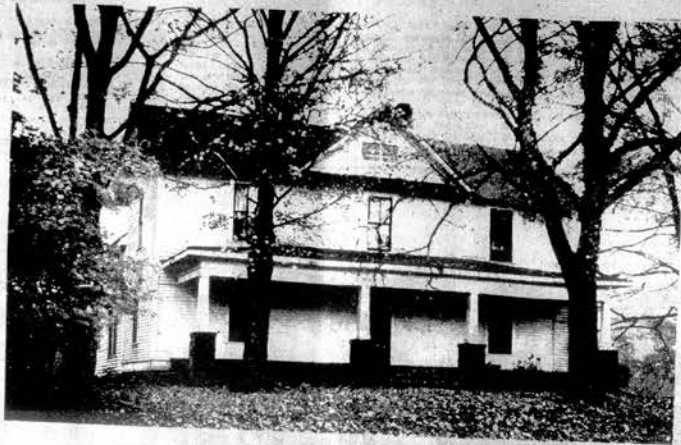

Except for Malcomb and his present family, we don't know any of the others. We do remember his father, who wore a well kept handle bar mustache and was always a neat and dignified looking man. I am sure many of the older folks will recall this family. Malcomb identified them as follows: (left to right, back row) The father, P. W. Millsaps, deceased, Robert Millsaps of Texas, and the mother Jessie Millsaps, deceased. (front row) Hattie Millsaps and Wiley Millsaps, both deceased and Malcomb Millsaps of Loudon.

This old family group picture was made in 1909. As Malcomb and I were talking, it is amazing how these old pictures have maintained their quality through the number of years since they were taken.

Our other picture this week is of another one of our old Loudon County homes, all of whom abound in colorful history. This home, located one mile northwest of Lenoir City on Highway 96, was General Longstreet's camping ground and the did corded bed on which he slept is still a part of the furnishings of this old graceful historical home in Loudon County.

We were talking to Chuck Gatzner the other day and Chuck says his wife has some pictures for us. We are going to and pick them up as soon as we find the time. Chuck, who is an ardent Indian relic collector, tells us he now has increased his collection a large amount.

You might recall us doing a feature article on his collection some time ago. We were very impressed as were other people interested in this hobby.

We are trying to get back to normal after a hectic six weeks of travel. Try to bear with us. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

September Rainfall Normal

Rainfall across the Tennessee Valley region in September averaged 4 inches, compared to the normal monthly total of about 3.4 inches. The rain was about equally distributed across the region.

Highest September rainfall total reported to TVA was 8.1 inches at Falkville, Alabama, about 30 miles west of Huntsville. The lowest total was 1.2 inches at Columbia in middle Tennessee.

Test Tobacco Soil This Fall

Now is an ideal time to collect soil test samples from your year's barley tobacco fields for determining lime and fertilizer needs. It is evident from observing tobacco fields in Loudoun County that we do have a need for lime in many cases. Too many growers have experienced problems with their barley because of strongly-acid conditions - problems that can be prevented next year by applying limestone this fall according to soil test recommendations. The visual symptoms associated with acid soil conditions are those produced by manganese toxicity. Under conditions of manganese toxicity, the leaves of the plants take on a light, greensh-yellow to a pale white mottled appearance with dark green areas along the veins. The symptoms usually are best exhibited about four to five weeks after transplanting. Lime should be applied if you observed the above symptoms in your tobacco fields. If you do not lime the problem will only be more severe next year since the relatively large amounts of fertilizers applied will reduce soil pH levels even further. Soil testing information and materials are available from your county Agricultural Extension Service office. The Loudoun County office is located at Room 206 Bacon Building, Loudoun. If you can't come by, you may telephone 85-2871.

ARCHITECT EXPLAINS DESIGN—School architect Ben McMurray, of Barber and McMurray, explaining the design of the proposed two $1.25 million middle schools at the Loudoun County School Board meeting Thursday night.

Board Approves Plans For School

The Loudoun County Board of Education Thursday night gave their approval to the preliminary to the design of the two $1,250,000 middle schools for the Loudoun and Eaton-Highland Park areas as presented by architect Ben McMurray of Barber and McMurray.

to accommodate 500 students, are identical to hold down costs.

In explaining the design McMurray said that multi-use of space to hold down costs was one of the primary considerations in the building. There are three clusters of four semi-open classrooms, separated by removable walls.

One classroom is set off to itself. One multi-use feature is the lobby of the building which will serve as the cafeteria as well as the lobby for the gymnasium. The stage just off the area, called the commons, overlooks the gymnasium which will seat 600 persons. The stage can also be used as part of the lobby-cafeteria.

BANK CONSTRUCTION UNDERWAY—Construction began last week on the new branch of the Bank of Loudoun County on Mulberry Street in West End Loudoun near the Loudoun High School. Bank officials Ray Birkholz, Jack Randolph, President Ed Bell and Chairman J. W. Wilburn Jr. are shown as workers pour the footings for the new bank. The building is to be complete and open sometime early in 1977.

Greenback Starts Campaign To Build Community Center

Some 500 excited members of the Greenback Community and invited guests attended groundbreaking ceremonies for the $75,000 Greenback Community Building on Morganton Road at Greenback Friday.

Helping in the earth-turning duties Friday were Sam Foraker, chairman of the building committee and President of the Greenback Community Club, Mayor Tom Peeler, and building committee members E.R. Tarwater and Jack Lett.

Mrs. Ducean said that her husband would continue to try and find some financial assistance for the project, which has been turned down on federal grant applications because the community is "too prosperous."

Plans are being made for a barbecue dinner on Dec. 4 to help raise money for the building. Other events are being planned also. Persons wishing to make donations to the fund may send them to Merchants and Farmers Bank at Greenback or Lenoir City.

Congressman John Duncan, who handles the estate, indicate an agreement can be reached for about 800 feet of roadway right of way over that property.

Billy Parker Gets 1-5 Years In Pen

MR. McNABB
Keith McNabb Sales Manager At Volunteer

A Loudoun County Criminal Court jury Monday convicted 19-year-old Billy Parker of Lenoir City of kidnapping and sentenced him to one to five years in prison.

Parker, and another young man, who is still being sought, are accused of taking a 14-year-old Lenoir City girl. The three were subject of a four day manhunt throughout Loudoun County and surrounding states earlier this summer.

Officers are still seeking to arrest Johnny Coffman in Loudoun on a charge of kidnapping in the case. Coffman's mother, Lou Crawley, was indicted for aiding and abetting the kidnapping. The same jury that convicted Parker found Mrs. Crawley not guilty of the charge.

Smith's Name Listed Wrong

Eddie Tom Smith, Democratic candidate for the 21st Legislative District seat, said this week his name is not properly listed on the Loudoun County election ballot.

The ballot lists the name as Edwin Tom (Eddie) Smith. The candidate says his name was listed in the primary correctly. Eddie Tom Smith and should have been carried on the General Election ballot in that manner. The candidate said he will make an appeal to the local election commission and the state coordinator for election to get the mistake corrected.

Officers are still seeking to arrest Johnny Coffman in Loudoun on a charge of kidnapping in the case. Coffman's mother, Lou Crawley, was indicted for aiding and abetting the kidnapping. The same jury that convicted Parker found Mrs. Crawley not guilty of the charge.

DAR Marks Grave Of Revolutionary Soldier

BY MRS. W.B. HARRISON, HIWASSEE CHAPTER DAR

afternoon, October 17, the Daughters of the American Revolution, Hiwassee Chapter, honored John Bowman, a Revolutionary Soldier by placing a simple marker at his grave. The marker with the Seal of the

Daughters of the American Revolution at the top was inscribed "Revolutionary Soldier, 1753-1841, placed by Hiwassee Chapter D.A.R."

John Bowman's gravestone is in a nicely kept cemetery, some twelve miles from Loudon, on a high off hill overlooking the beautiful Stockton Valley. There are many other graves there well marked, whereas there are many that are unmarked. Though fewer in number, they are similar in looks to the many thousands of soldier's graves one sees when viewing Arlington National Cemetery. With some 50 to 100 persons attending, the program began with the presentation of the Nation's Flag by the Color Guard of the American Legion Post No. 128, Rowland Bradshaw was in charge of the Military services with V.F.W. Commander Sam Webb in attendance. The invocation was given by Rev. Jack W. Ferguson, Jr. of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Loudon. The audience participated in the pledge to the American flag and the singing of "America" led by Mrs. Ed Walker, Sr. Chapter. The other Revolutionary Soldier, James Wylie, was marked in 1961 at his gravesite in the Jackson Bend of the Little Tennessee River.

John Bowman was born in Amhurst County, Virginia in 1752, and when independence from England was declared in 1776, John Bowman, then 25 years of age, joined the Revolutionary Army. He was with the Tenth Regiment of Virginia Regulars under Captain Shelton. He was in battles in Pennsylvania and possibly in New York. He was taken prisoner in Philadelphia and in New York was an exchanged prisoner. During his three years in British service, he was a private. On his release as a prisoner, he wintered with the Army of General George Washington at Valley Forge in 1777 and 1778, just 22 miles from Philadelphia where he had spent some time as a prisoner. At Valley Forge, there were 11,000 men with 3,000 incapacitated, many ragged, starving, sick and freezing; but all committed to one proposition: "Liberty or Death." During that time, there were 13 colonies with a total population of 3,500,000, which is less than the population of Tennessee at the present time, which is 3,800,000.

In 1870, John Bowman was discharged and is thought to have returned to his farm home in Amhurst County, Virginia. In 1785, he was married to Basheba Hooker. By 1785 or 1786, John Bowman, with his wife, located in what is now Loudon County, though formerly Roane County and known as the Territory South of the Ohio, formerly known as the State of Franklin, and earlier a part of North Carolina.

Philadelphia where he had spent some time as a prisoner. CHARLES BRYAN SNOW had the honor of unveiling the marker of Revolutionary Soldier John Bowman at ceremonies in the Foosee Cemetery Sunday. The Hiwassee Chapter of the American Revolution sponsored the event attended by some 100 persons, including a large number of the man's descendants.

AT GRAVE MARKING—Marvin Snow, a direct descendant of Revolutionary War soldier, John Bowman, who presented family members and gave a background presentation on Mr. Bowman, is flanked by DAR officials Mrs. Ralph Hall and Mrs. J.R. Morton, Jr. The DAR sponsored the marking of the grave of the man who died in 1841.

Unbeaten Maryville Blocks Redskin Play-off Path

The Loudon Redskins face a most challenging task in their final quest to again make the State AA Football playoffs in November. The Redskins, currently 5-1, has only Maryville (7-0) and Goodlettsville (5-2) on its regular season schedule. To make the playoffs Loudon has to win, which is no picnic of events by any means, and then just pray and hope everything balances out.

The eight game schedule certainly has Loudon as a doubtful returnee for any post season laurels. A TSSAA extension to find a ninth game past the October 1 deadline to schedule a regular season game proved to be only talk. Loudon made repeated efforts to obtain Murphy, N.C. for a Oct. 29 open date and was not successful. Finally an eight game schedule plagued by the Knoxville Rule, also once again for the Region One play-off slots. The two schools had talked before, but never agreeing to terms. Finally it was agreed that it was better

All is in preparation for the incoming Maryville Rebels. Sam Stewart is expected to play, as is bruised and battered Conway Dukes. Mr. Tom Delaney has provided the Loudon Herald with a up date on the first six games of the Redskins and with it we see that Loudon has practically doubled to almost tripling their opponents in several vital categories.

Greg Deathridge leads in points scored with seven touchdowns and 42 points. Freddie Starritt has passed the double stripes on four occasions and has 24 points. Junior Jim Brown has made 13 conversion kicks.

Loudon has recovered 19 fumbles with Jim Brown, Sam Thearp, Dennis Stewart and Steve Watkins all getting two each. Greg Deathridge has three pass interceptions and Carter Cardwell two. Loudon overall has nine.

Sam Stewart has missed two games and still is an individual leader on defense, with 25 tackles and 25 assists. Jim Brown has 26 tackles and 24 assists as the two defensive ends continue to labor at stopping the opposing ball carriers.

Junior Rolan (23 T, 27 A), Sam Thearp (26 T, 31 A), B. J. Moore (22 T, 25 A), Dennis Stewart (32 tackles and 25 assists, best totals on the team), and Carter Cardwell and Mark Moore have proved the starchy of the Loudon defensive unit in tackling.

Deathridge has carried the ball on 83 snaps for 496 yards and passed for 245 yards more on 18 of 43 passes.

Freddie Starritt has 429 yards in 56 carries and Mark Moore 344 in 58 tries. Conway Dukes and Kenny Starritt lead the receivers in yards and catches.

That one team have a shot at a play-off position (the loser no longer fashioning a play-off record). Contracts were being drawn up when the TSSAA stepped down with the third of a building falling and said neither team could fill the voids in their respective schedules at this late a date.

Thus both may have lost, actually they have lost since neither has a game to provide a possible victory with no points can be collected on an open date.

Now the pressure rests with the two teams remaining can Loudon win and if they do what will it get them.

Cleveland is the most likely team candidate to take top honors with a 6-2 record and games with Alcoa (6-2) and Ooltewah (4-6) left. Alcoa is at home, Ooltewah away.

Lake City is the choice as Region Two Runner-up. The Lakers play only Scott County and Lenoir City in the region itself. They have lost once to Rockwood in the season opener and have since rolled to a 6-1 slate. With wins over their next three opponents (York Institute, Knoxville Gibbs, and Lenoir City) stand to finish with a 7-4 point play-off slate or better. All three of the Lakers games are at home. York and Lenoir City are considered outside foes with potential of imposing defeats. Loudon, winner of 31 of their last 33 games, can only play them one at a time. An open date last week may have arrived a week late as Harriman placed a thorn in the Redskin march to a chance for a third straight Class AA crown, winning 14-12.

Twenty more seconds on the clock and the game might have had a different verdict, yet the time was not there.

Bruce Calls For Redskins, Loudon Fans To Rally To The Cause

One of the Loudon Redskins most avid athletic fans has written on open letter to the Loudon County Herald this week in a summons to the Redskins followers for the remaining part of the football season.

The letter reads as such:

The Loudon football TEAM and FANS should show more pride and enthusiasm at the ball games. The fans have not been getting behind the team like they have in past seasons. These players have a lot of pressure on them because they are defending AA State Champions. They have to play hard every week as every team on the Loudon schedule is out to beat them.

The Redskins have been the best for the past two seasons and the fans support and cheering have been a big asset to the success.

Loudon is not out of the play-off picture at this time. They can still receive a 7-6 point total with wins over Maryville and Goodlettsville. The loss to Harriman hurt, but Loudon and the Loudon fans are fighters to the end, and can come back.

Loudon is at home for the last regular season home game this week with the unbeaten Maryville Rebels. The Redskins are up for this one from last year's four overtime loss and tough playoff game win to reach the 1976 championship.

The team should be mentally tough and physically ready to play football the rest of the way. And the Loudon fans should be at their peak in encouraging their team to win. It weeks past the fans have waited until the going gets rough before coming to the game. The team needs that life at the very beginning of the game and it should not die until the game is completely ended.

Letting the players know you are wanting to win just as hard as they are will make them play better. Applauding for good efforts and cheering for their team to be even better will restore some of the pride we fans seem to have taken for granted in Loudon's ability to win in recent seasons.

For the best fans and best team to again go back to Murfreesboro for Thanksgiving it will take a hundred percent plus effort by all of Loudon. Let's really show our support and make up for all that we have quietly lost by not getting fired up and firing up our Redskins.

A concerned Loudon Booster who wants to see the Redskins Champions again.

Bruce Lawson.

25 YEARS OF COVERING REDSKINS—Mr. Tom Delaney is not getting "old" he is only getting better. The long time Loudon Redskin football booster has kept the official statistics for every Loudon game for the past 25 years. Tom, who is about as perfect as they come in the field of keeping the totals on the Redskins as well as says he is slowing down and may try watching a game from the stands after this season. Tom's long and dedicated hours of faithful Redskins coaching has long been appreciated by the local and daily news media as well as the Loudon coaches themselves. In the picture Tom takes a breather to total up a page of stats as Loudon County close to the side of Mr. Delaney in gaining any tips he might receive in keeping up with the game.

Record Number Selects Perfect Football Contest

Eighteen entries in The Herald Football Contest last week correctly named all 10 game winners, the most to do so in the 16 year history of the contest. Two of the contestants also hit the points (Kingston 27 - Lenoir City 8) 35 right on the money for a perfect tie-breaker.

Lumping first and second place cash together and receiving $10 each are Glynis Eller of Highland Avenue and Bruce Lawson of Wharf Street. Glynis' sister, Sheila was third, winning $5 with a 37 point tie-breaker.

Others who also picked all the games but missed the money were Everett Rausin, Beams Henry, Monte Elliott, Nell Watkins, Jay McNabb, Phil Watkins, Raymond Watkins, Bryon Lawson, Emma Palmer, Helen Lawson, Monty Lawson, Bill Lawson and Bill Roberts.

The Maryville-Loudon game, the top prep contest in the state, is the Natchez Trace management area.

Tabled for further study were the establishment of a mussel sanctuary on the Clinch River and an amendment to the Endangered or Threatened species proclamation.

Cherokee Permit Approved

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission, governing body of the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency, has approved the initiation of a 83 annual or bi-daily fishing permit on certain National Forest, effective July 1, 1977.

Meeting in Kingsport on October 7, the Commission also approved the use of mechanical devices for releasing bees, new zoning regulations on Tims Ford Reservoir and Indian Creek, and allowed waterfowl hunting in the Natchez Trace management area.

Quota Hunts Unfilled

This year 26,311 hunters applied for Wildlife Management Area big game hunts and there are still vacancies on various hunts in the state.

Permits for the vacant hunts are on sale at Tennessee Wildlife Resources regional offices on a first come first serve basis. Requests for permits by mail will be accepted. Loudon, Greenback Homecomings Friday Night; Lenoir City Visits Class 'A' Leading Rockwood

Homecoming will be the chief delight of the many Loudon County football fans who will attend the Loudon-Maryville or Greenback-Harrison Chithowee football games this week. Both games have 7:30 p.m. kickoff times. Loudon, for the first time, has some 20 football games which are the underdog to visiting Maryville this Friday night. The Redskins have lost once in six tries this fall and Maryville is perched high above their Region One colleagues with a 7-0 mark. This game rates a must for Loudon if they are to remain in contention for a state-playoff berth in November.

Ten senior girls have been selected to compete for the honor of Loudon Homecoming Queen 1976. The Loudon student body will vote on their number one selection Friday and the results announced in a 7 p.m. pre-game Homecoming festivities.

Butch Ferguson will welcome all alumni to the game by flying his airplane over the field with a large sign streaming from the tail of the plane.

A dance will follow the ball game in the Loudon cafeteria with admission being $2.50 per person in advance and $2.50 on the night of the game. Miss Debbie Thompson is the current reigning Loudon High School queen and the queen of 10 years ago to be honored is Jeanette (Chambers) McNabb.

There will be no Loudon Homecoming Parade this year. Individual clubs, classes, and organizations are scheduling on-campus programs all week in regard to working toward the wrap up of events for Friday night.

Loudon's Student Council, advised by Coach Dewayne Arp, is in charge of the Loudon Homecoming activities.

Greenback is planning a Homecoming event for the first time in two years. The Cherokee Annual Staff, advised by Mr. Paul Huff, is in charge of the Greenback activities.

A queen candidate from grades seven through senior will raise money in the form of votes to decide the winner at the Halftime of the Cherokee-Lenoir grid game.

Wanda Brooks was the last person to wear the Cherokee Homecoming crown in 1973.

Spirit Week has been order for the Cherokee students this week with such dress codes as Overall Day, Tennis Shoe Day, Jeans and Jersey Day, Mr. Irresistible Day where the boys and girls can not talk to each other, otherwise the girl must remove a ribbon from her hair to be worn by the boy who can not resist making conversation, and finally Orange and Black Day.

The Harrison Chithowee team is winless in seven games, while Greenback supports a 5-3 ledger and easy favorite to nail down win number six.

Meanwhile Lenoir City, who held its homecoming festivities two weeks ago, travels to Rockwood for an 8 p.m. kickoff with the State's Class A top ranked team.

The Tigers have blazed to a 7-0 record, averaging 33 points a game and allowing just four per outing on the average to opponents. On four separate nights the Rockwood defense has held their opponents scoreless.

Lenoir City is struggling with a 1-4 record and could gain some self satisfaction to upset the Rockwood team, who will return once again to the Class AA ranks in 1977. Already the Tigers have been added to the Loudon Redskins "dismising" list of yearly foes for next fall.

LOUDON HIGH SCHOOL HOMECOMING COURT—These 10 lovely young senior ladies will be competing for this year's Loudon High School Homecoming Queen. The Queen will be announced in a pre-game ceremony at the Loudon-Maryville game this Friday night. Activities start at 7 p.m. The Loudon Student Council is the sponsor. The

TSSAA Playoff Picture Has Little Change

While there were several major high school football games played last week, and a few upsets, the TSSAA Football Playoff picture changed very little.

The biggest change came about in Class AAA, Region 2 about in Chattanooga Kirkman and Bradley Central of Cleveland. Both Kirkman and Bradley have 7-0 records and 64 play-off points each to lead the region. Kirkman beat Chattanooga City last week 28-6 while Bradley edged Cleveland 21-13. City and Franklin County are tied for second with 6-1 marks and 60 play-off points. Region 3 Kirkman now holds the lead in Class AAA, Region 1 with an 8-0 record and 74 points. Oak Ridge and Cooke County, with 7-0 records and 70 play-off points, have three games remaining while Carter has only two.

One of the leaders in Class AA, Region 4 was upset this week as Union City fell to 6-1 while Bradley edged Cleveland 21-13. City and Franklin County are tied for Training Raccoon Dogs

As wildlife management practices become more complicated, the laws governing the sport of hunting become more complicated. It is especially hard to keep up with the laws concerning the training of raccoon dogs due to the many Private Acts that govern the sport.

Private acts are laws passed by the state legislature that are designed to affect only one county. Raccoon hunting and fox hunting are the two outdoor sports most affected.

are closed to training until 30 days before the opening of the regular season. They are: Clark, Claiborne, Cocke, Grainger, Hancock, Johnson, Sullivan and Washington.

In Hamblen County it is illegal to carry a firearm during any hunt, but he may climb the tree to knock the animal out.

Are you pleased with your State & County Government?

As big and expensive as government is it should be more effective. There are provisions to be considered at the Constitutional Convention which I believe can improve the efficiency of our State & County government.

Greenback Roms By Townsend In Final Football Meeting

The Greenback Cherokees stopped the Townsend Tigers by a score of 36-20 last Friday night to win their fifth game in eight outings.

The game was homecoming for the Tigers and the last football game to be played by a Townsend football team on their home field. Townsend will combine with Walland and Maryville. Everett will form the newly constructed Heritage High School for 1977.

The 1926 Townsend football team was honored at the time of the game with such notable of the then "Lumberjacks" team being the late Lahe Gregory who coached at Vanore, Sevierville, Madisonville, and in Virginia. He died of a fatal heart attack while coaching Vano against Porter several years ago. Another notable figure of the team was their coach Fred "Barnes" Ballard who left the coaching ranks to become one of Tennessee's outstanding newspaper dignitaries.

With a touch of sadness to the game itself, knowing an era was soon to only be memories for this football gridiron when the lights would be turned out on this night, did Cherokees from taming the Tigers.

The first quarter went scoreless despite the fact that the Cherokees rolled up six first downs to none for the Townsend team.

The Cherokees took the opening kickoff, Glenn Quillen racing the ball back from his own four to the 17. Danny Dotson ran for 11 yards and a first down and Greenback continued to march with Lynn Rucker catching a 19 yard Roddy Kizer pass to the Tiger.

Townsend was alert in the secondary and intercepted Kizer's next toss at their own 25.

The Tigers were completely stopped on the ground, gaining only 42 yards rushing for the game. Steve Lingunfer got a hand on the fourth down punt and the ball rolled just 15 yards.

Greenback collected a first down to the Townsend 27, but Mitch Smith lost the ball and the Tigers stopped Greenback for a second time.

The Tigers sought to test Greenback's defense through the air and senior Lynn Rucker intercepted the ball. A 15 yard penalty was added to the catch as Townsend was flagged for a late hit.

Greenback paraded the ball to the Townsend eight yard line in a 2:15, 41-yard drive that ended in a loss of downs.

Townsend, held 11 yards of offense in the first period had to punt again and Greenback received the ball at mid-field.

Mitch Smith ran for 19 yards in two snaps to end the first quarter and Danny Dotson straked 16 yards three plays deep into the second quarter for the Cherokees first touchdown. Roddy Kizer kicked the extra point.

Townsend managed a first down following the ensuing kickoff and with the ball resting at the Cherokee 47 attempted to pass once more.

Junior Chris Blair promptly stole the ball from a Townsend receiver and returned the interception to the Townsend end zone, 58 yards away. The play was called back as Blair was penalized for pass interference. Thus Townsend kept the ball, but Danny Dotson regained the pigskin for the Cherokees with an interception of his own on the next play.

It took Greenback 11 plays to move the ball from their own 27 to a 14:00 halftime lead. The Cherokee march took 4:01 and left but 3:46 to play in the half. Danny Dotson got the touchdown on a six yard run. Kizer kicked the conversion.

Big offensive plays in the drive was a 25 yard run by Dotson, a 16 yard pass reception by Rucker and 25 yards on three carries by Mitch Smith.

The two teams swapped pass interceptions in the final 2:48 of the half with Mitch Smith stopping the Townsend pass for Greenback.

The Cherokee defense held Townsend on three downs to start the second half.

Greenback then drove with authority from their own 19 to the Tiger's two yard line in nine plays. A 43 yard bomb by senior Roddy Kizer to Mitch Smith left the ball at the Townsend eight. The Cherokee drew a five yard motion penalty with Mitch Smith powering his way for 11 yards to the two. Townsend's defense came up with the football on the tackle and Greenback was denied a scoring opportunity.

FIGHTING OFF A TIGER—Greenback senior running back Mitch Smith (41) stiff arms a fast approaching would be tackler in logging a 15 yard gain for a first down.

The Greenback defense would not allow Townsend to escape the shadows of their own end zone and when forced to punt put extreme pressure on the kicker.

Stanley Breazale blocked the punt for minus six yard effort.

Glenn Quillen caught the Tiger defense of guard with the ball resting at the eight yard strip on an end-around carry and the score mounted 21-0.

Denied a first down to the entire third period, Townsend punted away the ball and Greenback returned possession of the ball on a second down pass interception with 27 seconds remaining on the third period clock.

Glenn Quillen sparked the Greenback defense to hold on downs at their own 30 to open the final 12 minute stanza.

Stanley Breazale dove into the end zone from the one on first down and Roddy Kizer conversion to up the touchdown difference to 36-15.

Townsend carried the kickoff back 41 yards to the Greenback 30 and then cashed in a quick scoring pass with no time left on the game clock to add to the final count. The run for extra points was stopped by Rucker and Quillen at the one.

Danny Dotson paced the Greenback offense with 109 yards rushing on 12 plays and Mitch Smith ran for 69 and Roddy Kizer passed four times to finish with 70 yards and the air for the game.

Roger Hampton was lost for the rest of the season with a knee injury, but contributed five tackles and a stop of the ball carrier in the Townsend backfield.

Steve Lingunfer, Jeff Crisp, Tony Arnold, Eric Bolcher, Danny Dotson, and Stanley Breazale were in the leading individual tacklers in the game and were instrumental in causing Townsend mistakes.

Arnold was not through as he again rapped through Tiger blockers and deflected a 41 yard punt that rolled down to the Townsend one yard line.

Stanley Breazale dove into the end zone from the one on first down and Roddy Kizer conversion to up the touchdown difference to 36-15.

Townsend carried the kickoff back 41 yards to the Greenback 30 and then cashed in a quick scoring pass with no time left on the game clock to add to the final count. The run for extra points was stopped by Rucker and Quillen at the one.

Danny Dotson paced the Greenback offense with 109 yards rushing on 12 plays and Mitch Smith ran for 69 and Roddy Kizer passed four times to finish with 70 yards and the air for the game.

Loudon Freshmen Lose Twice in their play this time out and won by a 36-12 score.

Loudon was behind 20-0 in the first half when Tammy Henderson raced back a kickoff off return of 78 yards.

The Redskins Fresh later tallied on a one yard sneak by John Cardwell.

Loudon, who has been hit by injuries of late has had 17 freshmen currently dressed.

The Redskins opened fall practice at Vanore on Monday night, having lost to the Roane Cougars in the season opener in overtime. Kingston played a solid outing Loudon plays Cleveland this Thursday night which bright hopes of ending their tailspin.

The first of this month, several thousand shad-like fish called Alewives entered the state bound for Watauga Reservoir and the Norris Dam Hatchery.	reservoir. Alewives were originally an ocean fish, but through introductions and natural spread have become landlocked in many areas. The Lake Hopatcong fish are the oldest strain of landlocked alewives known. Some of the alewives will be held in the Norris Dam Hatchery for brood stock so the program can be continued if necessary. Although the stocking was not as successful as had been hoped, the introduction was valuable in that it brought brood stock into Tennessee for propagation. Future stocking may now be made without having to travel so far.

The Alewives were taken from Lake Hopatcong in Northern New Jersey and transplanted into Watauga Reservoir. Watauga had very few forage fish for the smallmouth and largemouth bass and the walleyes, the Alewife will provide the right size prey for these predators. Threedom should do well in Watauga as it is at the northern limit of their range.

According to Doug Peterson, Wildlife Resources Agency, the alewives will supply the needed forage to increase the spawning crop of fish in the reservoir and improve sport fishing there. About 10,000 fish were stocked in Watauga.

A record was broken when Jack Semel of Brooklyn, New York, passed through a turnstile at Shea Stadium. For being the one billionth customer to enter the ball park he won the electronic TV sweepstakes. He also won a $100,000 prize and a chance to play the game. Semel's name was drawn from a hat by a TV station and he will be playing the game on Feb. 21.

Economic growth is predicted

The nation's economy will grow by 5 per cent next year, but there will be only slight progress in reducing inflation and unemployment, the Business Council predicts in its quarterly report.

The council's forecast said that the economy should grow to 6.5 per cent by the end of 1977 and that inflation should decline to 10 per cent.

The business organization said it shouldn't make much difference to the economy whether President Ford or Jimmy Carter is elected in Nov.

Quick Stinging Yellow Jackets Pop Lenoir City Gridders 27-8

The Kingston Yellow Jackets struck for 20 points in a five minute span of the first period and rushed to their second win in seven games by defeating Lenoir City, 27-8, at Panthertown last Friday Night.

The balanced Kingston offensive fireworks gave them their 11th consecutive win over the Panthers who last won, 18-7 back in 1966. In fact the success Kingston's 16th in the past 17 games against Lenoir City.

The strong Kingston rushing game produced 332 yards, in only 35 snaps, for an average of 9.2 yards per carry.

Junior fullback Doyle Varner was the pace for the Panthers with 88 yards in 15 tries and a touchdown while fullback Jackie Ryan and wingback Steve Porter pitched in with 44 yards each.

Don Mabry, Richard Vest and Jimmy Matlock also added to Lenoir City's 197 yard total rushing yardage.

Kingston stopped on its very first offensive series, but answered back on the next three possessions to light the scoreboard each time with touchdowns runs from scrimmage of 40 yards, 33 yards, and two yards. The third touchdown was a near gift as Kingston's City fumbled at their own 13 and the Yellow Jackets struck pay dirt in three plays.

MABRY STUNG BY JACKETS—Lenoir City sophomore Don Mabry (24) is halted in his tracks by a host of Kingston defensive players rush to make the stop on the Lenoir City ballcarrier.

RYAN GETS BLOCK—Lenoir City junior running back Jackie Ryan (20) receives a block at the corner as he scrambles for an 11 yard gain against the Kingston Yellow Jackets last Friday night. Ryan had a net rushing of 34 yards on 13 carries in the ball game.

Following the first Kingston offensive series the Panthers got the ball at their own 43 and in a hurry on a pair of dives by Varner and another touchdown. Another off tackle penalty by Varner and Ryan's outside move and Panther fans happy with the chain game on the move at the Jacket 17.

Another penalty and a seven yard off tackle rush by Ryan got another first in close but blocking in the secondary five yard line the Yellow Jacket defense took charge.

Keith Ames back in uniform after suffering a knee injury four weeks ago attempted to place the Panthers on the board with a field goal. The kick was short and Kingston Archie Conner lumbered into the end zone from a yard away to give the Loudon Grasscutters the victory points.

Troy Kiser (41 yards) and Archie Viars (30 yards) were the offensive stars for the Grasscutters in the defensive line.

Archie Conner, Troy Kiser, Richie Hramm, John Hutton, and Rodney Jones accounted for the stout defensive efforts of the Grasscutters, that enabled them to square their season record at 4-4.

The Loudon Grasshoppers' work sheet dipped to 3-5 as they fell to Rockwood 13-6.

Tim Potter, Jamie Godsey, and Stan Kiser were team leaders for the Grasshoppers.

Kingston played long ball and Yellow Jacket fans were dancing all over the place. Boggs again found an opening first after crossing across the grain raced 46 yards on the first snap before Ryan made the stop behind at the 13. Hunt scored on the next play on a power sweep around the right side for Kingston's final tally of the game.

During the opening half Kingston owned 38 yards in just 17 offensive plays while the Panthers ran off, exclusive of punts, 38 plays and 119 yards on the worksheet. The Jackets had streaked 30 yards in one play, 48 in two, 13 in three and 61 in two for their scoring tally.

Kingston had the only threats in the third period with Harrison's 43 yard field goal attempt that was wide to the left stopping one and a wild pitchout canceling another after the Jackets had reached the Panther 36 yard line.

The home team, playing on par with the visitors except for the torrid first 12 minutes; finally got on the scoreboard with 3:40 left to play in the game with a turned fair catch attempt giving the Panthers the opening at the Kingston 42 yard line.

Varner got the scoring drive under way with an eight yard dash up the middle and Vest moved the sticks on a keeper to the right side. Porter added seven yards on an inside reverse and the dandy back repeated the play for another 15 yard celebration at the 15. Varner got the touchdown two plays later and the six pointer was only the fourth against the Kingston defense in the past 11 games. Porter converted on a power sweep to the left side to end the scoring.

Lenoir City had their defensive attack at its best, especially in the second half. Sophomore Chris Walpole knocked down three Kingston serial attempts and got in on 11 tackles in between. Frank Underwood, Don Mabry, Roger Landrum, Keith Ames, Phil Reel, Bobby Morgan, Vest, Porter, Herbert Sarten, Marty Galyon, Jack Thomas, Kenneth Flynn and Jeff Gates also made key plays for the Panthers.

Indians To Challenge Harriman For Share Of Midget Lead

The Loudon Indians of the Volunteer Midget Football Conference will be seeking to gain a share of the conference lead this Saturday night when the Loudon Quarterback Club sponsored midget football teams travel to Harriman.

The Indians improved their season record by beating Rockwood for a second time this fall last Saturday night, 29-0. The Indians, coached by Baxter Custard and Ed Waller, have won seven of their eight games this season. Still they must gear their team to combat the mighty Harriman for this week. Harriman is unbeaten and unscathed in eight games, thus providing a strong set of credentials as to why they have enjoyed setting the pace in the standing of their respective conference race.

The Indians had 305 yards of total offense against Rockwood in turning up for this week's helmet buster.

Pat Brown's 21 yard run in the first period gave Loudon all the points they needed. Billy Moore added the two point conversion run for a 8-0 count.

The Indians put 14 more punts on the board in the second half on a quarterback Zeil Hawkins 21 yard scoring strike to Billy Moore. Hawkins then passed to Terry Hunt for the conversion points. Moore also scored on a seven yard run during the quarter for a 22-0 halftime difference. Moore uncranked a 44 yard dash in the third period for the final points of the game.

Moore had just eight carries in the game, but accounted for 124 yards of rushing. Zeil Hawkins ran for 68 yards and Pat Brown totaled 40.

Mark McCallie, Terry Walsen, Bruce Arden and Pat Brown led the steel wall Loudon defense, limiting the Rockwood team to just 56 yards of offense for the night.

The Loudon Mustangs made up for a 14 1/2 loss to the Rockwood team in a previous meeting with a 22-0 drumming. The Mustangs are now 5-3 for the campaign.

Handy Campbell sneaked for one yard as Loudon moved to a 6-0 first half lead. Tim Lennox carried for the two point conversion.

Kevin White got loose on a 28 yard romp in the third quarter and Tim Lennox placed the game on ice with a six yard scoring jaunt in the final period. Reggie Brown added the two point conversion run.

Tim Lennox and Kevin White shared the warehouse duties on offense with 100 yards in 13 carries and 91 yards in 13 carries respectively.

Lennox, Byron Gobie, Dale Teague and Sidney Locke combined to form a defensive unit allowing just three first downs in the game.

The Loudon Grasscutters showed a complete turn around from their 26-0 loss to Rockwood in their first meeting by pounding out a 6-0 overtime win last week.

call for additional funding, or when he cannot satisfy the complaint the parents want to bring the matter to the board.

A group of parents from Easter Road and Simpson Road, off Highway 72 complained that school buses do not serve their area as they are supposed to. They said the bus driver puts the children off the bus at Dutton Store, Highway 72 and the children, some in kindergarten or first grade, have to walk up to a mile home.

The bus driver said the road is in such bad shape it would be dangerous, especially during wet weather to try and get the bus up a steep, slick hill. The parents said their complaints to Road Commissioner Erk Millsaps had succeeded in getting the road graded and rucked, but they didn't think the road situation was the main problem.

Chairman Wampler appointed Randolph and Kinsey to meet with the bus owner and Road Commissioner to see if the problem could be worked out, but the board also instructed the driver that he is not to put the children off the bus at the store unless they live there or immediately nearby.

The group also asked that students on Simpson Road not be required to walk a half-mile to Easter Road to be picked up. Randolph said that the road system in the County, especially in the first district, is so deplorable he can understand the problems of the bus owners in damaging their equipment and the concern for student safety by trying to travel some of the roads.

Robert Bradshaw asked the board if it was against state law and board policy for the school bus to pick up children before 7 a.m. who was supposed to enforce the law. Bradshaw said he had been familiar with the problem for 20 years. "Surely the bus owners don't run the school system," he said.

Superintendent Headlee said all drivers and owners had been notified not to pick up children before 7 a.m. Board member J. B. Hagler suggested the driver or owner be called before the board at their next meeting.

An unusual request was relayed by Superintendent Headlee where a parent on Watt Road wanted her children picked up before 7 a.m. by a bus that passed their house on its way to begin its run, but did not come back by the house, causing the children to walk a distance to the pickup point.

A request for school buses to complete the loop in the Pathkiller Tail area of Loudon was heard, but not acted on.

Another complaint was heard about a school bus that picked up high school students in the Reservoir Hill area of Loudon in the morning, but the bus did not run in the afternoon, forcing the students to walk home.

Superintendent Headlee said that because of an overload problem on Philadelphia bus a cut-off point on a road was established, with another bus picking up the nine or ten students cut off the route. He said one parent objected because his child had to catch a bus 10 minutes earlier. The board backed the Superintendent in the action and ordered the bus driver not to pick up any of the children behind the new route starting point.

Dick Huff of Loudon, who several months ago was responsible for a survey being made concerning returning to a six week grade period instead of the nine week system now used, reported on the survey. He pointed out first that the survey forms from Loudon Elementary School had been lost and not counted in the totals. Some 945 parents liked the nine week system and voted the six week report. He said the smaller schools all voted for the six week system and the high schools and larger elementary schools liked the nine week system.

Huff said he was pleased with the five week progress report from the teachers and if this continued with consistency would be just as good or perhaps better than six week grades.

Loudon High Coach Teacher Bert Rattledge, who sells retirement insurance, got the board to agree to make payroll deductions for his Lincoln American Life Insurance Tax Shelter Annuity program.

Two teachers were advanced to positions of assistant principals, giving the required experience degree in advanced college degrees. Joyce Kinser was named as Eaton-New Providence, and Larry Paddy Doyle was transferred from an $29 Resource position at Philadelphia to the second grade replacing Nancy Mitchell who has resigned.

Three students were accepted into the county system from the Loudon City School System, but subject to approval by the Loudon City School Board. They are Randy Dunlap from Loudon City Middle School to Highland Park, and Nina Guider and Randy Guider from Loudon City to Eaton School.

Letter To Editor

EDITOR:

Last week forgot. Before I was old enough to vote, World War I was conducted by President Wilson, a democrat. Also, World War II was conducted by President Roosevelt, a Democrat. Then the Korean War, conducted by President Truman. Also the New Frontier was Vietnam, conducted by President Kennedy. Then the Great Society by President Johnson. Five Presidents were all Democrats.

Now we have Jimmy Carter, a Democrat. If I had boys of draft age, I would trigger happy. Although I don't have any boys, but I just kind of in both Wars I and II, I would vote for Mr. Carter.

City To Start Obtaining Property In Mexico Area

Loudon City Council spent most of their time Monday night discussing the $420,000 Mexican Redevelopment Project being financed by the federal government.

The bid of JPC Construction Company of Athens for $99,150 for street, sewer and waterline work in the project area was accepted by the city. The bid was almost $40,000 below what had been estimated prompting the Council to give additional authorization for more street and utility work to be done in the area.

Mayor Lambert, City Manager Gary Hensley, Ray Lovin and Joe Carter were named to recommend additional work in the area.

Three other bids were submitted with the high bid being $196,150, almost double the low bid.

Council accepted a report by the Citizens Advisory Committee, presented by Community Development Director Bill Birchko, that 22 parcels of property, some vacant, but most with substandard housing, be purchased. The purchase along with costs of providing standard housing for those displaced by the project is expected to cost about $224,000.

City Manager Gary Hensley said that he did not completely agree with the Advisory Committee's selection of the property because the vast majority of it is located on Highway 72 from Clyde Street up to the Bacon Building entrance. He said more development were approved by council for use. Provided the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation agrees part of the money would be used to replace the drain system in the Loudon Swimming Pool. The remainder for the construction of playground facilities.

Council agreed to accept the report of the Advisory Committee, but passed a motion to include other substandard property as shown on the Planning Commission Housing Condition map. The motion also asked that the Project staff proceed to try and acquire vacant parcels in the area as fast as possible.

Appraisers will be asked to begin work immediately to determine what the property the city intends to purchase is worth and what amount should be offered the property owner for the land and structures.

By adding additional property to those to be appraised the council thought they could better estimate how much property could be purchased and relocation costs involved in the various parcels for the money they have available.

Manager Hensley announced that bids were called for on the Blair Real Industrial Park in the next two weeks.

For the first time in more than a year the Council approved the installation of a new street light. The light will be replaced in the Low Rent Housing Project on a street that contains housing for the elderly.

Mayor Lambert pointed out that in the past four or five years because of TVA power rate increases the cost of power for street lights has gone up from $12,000 per year to $26,000 per year, and this reason for street lights have been approved.

Council approved the hiring of a City Manager Intern from East Tennessee State University for a six month period. Graduate students in the City Manager program are required to have the six month intern training and are available to the city for a salary of about $250 per month. The Council noted a number of research and work projects that the City Staff was behind on could be speeded up with the addition of an intern.

An ordinance was adopted setting the interest rate paid on delinquent taxes at one-half of one-percent per month with a penalty rate of one-half of one-percent added after the second month of delinquency.

Use of some $30,000 in matching grant funds that are now on hand for park

BEST of FALL '76

by LASSIE Junior

(LEFT) Wool and nylon melton fashioned with a snug hood, set-in sleeves, turnback same-material cuffs and a closing of buttons in a single row. The belt is set-in at the back, loose to tie at the front. Pretty stitching detail on both front and back. A touch of notches... on the pocket, shoulders, cuffs and hood center. Forecast? Another Lassie Junior fashion winner. (With a satin lining, too). Sizes 5-15

(CENTER) The beautiful Aspen material plus the fashion fit of toggles combine to offer an exciting junior fashion for fall. Each toggle is held by rope straps which are encased in same-fabric boxes. Each sleeve strap exhibits another toggle. Strictly shaped, this style has no belt of any kind. Thread-needle stitching abounds. A go-with-everything fashion for the junior figure. Inside, the final word from a satin lining. Also available with wool inner lining. Sizes 5-15

(RIGHT) The lovely look of lamb tops this junior fashion, showing the entire collarline. It features set-in sleeves, buttoned shirt cuffs, and a slight build-up to the shoulders for the latest look. The patch pockets sport a center pleat and buttoned flap. The belt detail, both front and back, is stitched and set-in. One of the brightest fashions to be seen in any forecast for fall. Satin lined, it's also available with wool inner lining. Sizes 5-15

Your Own Sour Dough Bread

Marty Nabors, Home Economist for the Loudon County Herald Homemakers School recently visited Loudon and met with the staff. She was finalizing plans for the Homemakers School to be held October 28.

Sharing bread making techniques will be part of Marty's demonstrations at the Loudon High School Auditorium. She was planning to show this Onion Sour Dough recipe. The loaves may be made long or round and topped with chopped onion and sprinkled with caraway seed just before baking.

Loaves with chopped onion and sprinkled with caraway seed. Bake at 400 degrees F. about 25 minutes, or until done. Remove from baking sheets and cool on wire racks. Makes 2 large long loaves or 4 small round loaves.

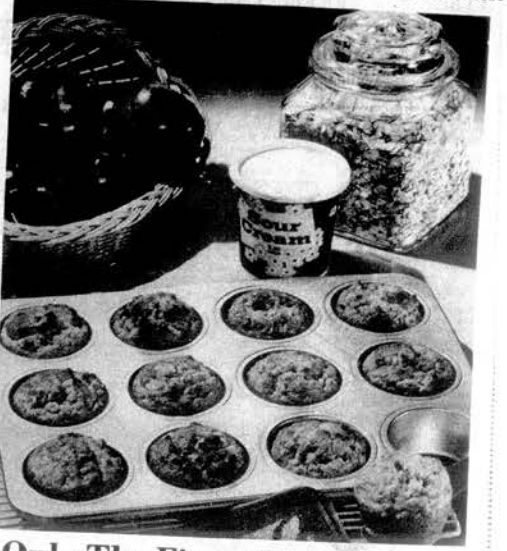

LARGE LONG LOAVES: Roll each half of dough into an oblong, 12x6 inches. Tightly roll from 12-inch side; pinch seam to seal. Pinch ends and fold underneath.

SMALL ROUND LOAVES: Divide each half of dough in half again. Form each piece into a round ball; flatten slightly.

SOURDOUGH STARTER: 3 1/2 cups unbleached, bread-type flour
1 1/2 tablespoons sugar
1 package Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
1 cup milk
2 cups warm water
Combine flour, sugar and undissolved Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast in a large bowl. Gradually add warm water to dry ingredients and beat until smooth. Cover with transparent wrap; let stand in warm place for 2 days.

TO USE IN RECIPE: Measure out amount called for in recipe and use as directed. TO REPLENISH STARTER: To remaining starter add 1 1/2 cups strong bread-type flour and 1 cup warm water. Beat until smooth. Store covered in warm place. Stir before using. If not used in one week, remove 1/4 cups starter and follow directions for replenishing.

ONION SOURDOUGH BREAD:
3/4 cups Sourdough Starter
3 1/2 cups (about) unbleached, bread-type flour
3 tablespoons sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 package Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine
Cornmeal
Egg white, beaten
1 tablespoon water
2-3 cup finely chopped onion
Caraway seed
Prepare Sourdough Starter.
Combine 1 cup flour, sugar, salt, and undissolved Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast in a large bowl.
Combine milk and Blue Bonnet margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquid is very warm (120 degrees F-130 degrees F).
Margarine does not need to melt. Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add 1 1/4 cups starter and 1/4 cup flour. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.
Punch dough down; turn onto lightly floured board. Divide in half. Cover; let rest 15 minutes. Shape as desired (below).
Place on greased baking sheets which have been sprinkled with cornmeal, where dough is to be placed. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.
Combine egg white and water. Brush mixture generously over loaves. Top

Only The Finest Flavors For Oatmeal Muffins

Oats - apples - sour cream - each is delicious in itself. But as the taste trio in Apple Oatmeal Muffins, well, the mouth-watering combination is more than the sum of the parts. Butter one warm and see for yourself!

Apple Oatmeal Muffins are brimful of the flavor of QUICK or OLD FASHIONED QUAKER OATS. Those same QUAKER OATS you've enjoyed for years at breakfast add a nutty-good flavor to your baked goods, you'll find. These muffins also burst with the fancy accent of chopped apple, and the sour cream brings a bonus of tenderness and moistness. Altogether good!

Muffins are practically foolproof if mixed properly. Marty Nabors, Homemakers School Home Economist, suggests that when adding liquid ingredients, stir just enough to moisten the dry ingredients; the batter should look lumpy. Your reward for correct mixing? You'll serve tender, well-rounded muffins, not the tough, tunnelled, soaked ones caused by too much stirring.

Pass around warm Apple Oatmeal Muffins with confidence, knowing you have begun with quality ingredients and a recipe developed in the QUAKER Test Kitchens.

Tea - The Most Popular Beverage

More people drink tea today than any other beverage. Most of it is grown in India, China, Ceylon, Indonesia, Africa, Japan, and Taiwan but experimenters once grew delicious tea in South Carolina.

For centuries, tea has been a beverage associated with leisurely living. The formal serving of tea, in the English style or in Japan, required preparator time, or even hired help. Our life style seldom allows for complicated tea ceremonies but we do have Instant NESTEA-quickly prepared with no messy tea leaves to bother about later. "The cup that cheers" is a flavorful beverage with a taste and aroma that have made it a truly unusual favorite throughout the world. For a warm refresher you may like this NESTEA recipe the very popular "Iced NESTEA" way.

ALMOND DELIGHT
4 cups water
6 measuring tablespoons NESTEA ICED TEA MIX
6 measuring tablespoons honey
1/2 cup orange juice
1-1/2 measuring teaspoons almond extract

2 cups ginger ale
In 2-1/2 quart pitcher, combine water NESTEA ICED TEA MIX, honey, orange juice and almond extract; stir until dissolved. Blend in ginger ale. Makes 12 4-oz. servings.

GOLDEN WEDDING PUNCH
2 cups water
2 tablespoons NESTEA
3 cups orange juice
1 cup lemon juice
1 cup unsweetened pineapple juice
1/2 cup sugar

1/2 cup grenadine
1 28-oz. bottle ginger ale, chilled
In 2-1/2 qt. bowl, combine water and NESTEA; stir until dissolved. Add orange, lemon and pineapple juices, sugar and grenadine; stir until sugar dissolves. Chill. Pour tea mixture into 4 qt. decorative bowl; add ice cubes or ice ring. Before serving add ginger ale, strawberries, lemon and orange slices, if desired. Punch cups may be garnished with sliced strawberries. Makes 24 4-oz. servings.

The Headless Plan Home For Lifetime

SMILING AS SHE SETS THE TABLE FOR LUNCH, Nancy explains that the peacocking dining room set is the only furniture she had to buy when they moved into their new home. In the background is a rich tapestry she bought in Lucerne Switzerland and a tea service, also from Switzerland.

By Gayle Davis
 Loudon School Superintendent Edward Headless and his wife, Nancy are putting the finishing touches on their newly-built home in a rural area of Loudon.

Their home stands far off the road, cloaked by majestic trees on all sides. When passing by, the house looks somewhat like a medieval castle, fresh from a fairy tale, but is actually a comfortable English Tudor home.

Over a cup of hot Russian tea (a favorite drink at the Headless'), Nancy expressed her excitement over the final completion of their dreamhome. The two chose the house plans several years ago and began building last November after choosing the site.

THE EDWARD HEADLESS HAS JUST COMPLETED their new home in the country. The house is English Tudor and features lots of glass doors and windows which adds to its air of spaciousness and beauty.

Lemon Squares

A list of unlikely ingredients combine to make these cookies something to remember for those after school snacks.

CRUST

- 1/2 cup Blue Bonnet Margarine, softened
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 cup flour
- 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 20 Premium Saltine Crackers from Nabisco, crushed
- 1/2 cup coconut

FILLING

- 2 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon peel
- 2 tablespoons water

Blend margarine into baking powder and flour. Add sugars, cracker crumbs, coconut, and mix well. Remove 1/4 cup and reserve. Press remaining crumbs into an ungreased 9" x 13" pan. Mix filling ingredients together. Cook in saucepan till mixture thickens. Cool slightly and pour on top of uncooked crust. Sprinkle reserved crumbs on top. Bake at 350 for 30 minutes.

All of the planning was somewhat reversed, explained Nancy. "We already had all of our furniture except the dining room suit and instead of looking for furniture that would fit our furniture," she said.

Most of the furnishings throughout the home are family antiques, the most impressive of which is a pump organ in the living room that has been in Nancy's family for 75 years.

"The biggest problem we encountered," said Nancy, "was choosing the carpet. We went to Dalton to pick it out and I only had one day to really make up my mind." Once she decided on the beige carpet, the rest was a lot easier, she said, "because we both like subdued earth colors."

"Friends and people we knew had told us about mistakes they had made when building and we kept a list of them so we wouldn't make the same ones," she added.

The first floor contains the living room (which is sparsely spread out across one entire end of the house), a formal dining room, foyer, kitchen, den, powder room, and two-car garage.

Upstairs, two bedrooms are located, along with Edward's office, a library, and two baths. The guest bedroom is set in shades of green and an antique bed and dresser complemented by an old-time washbasin and pitcher and rocker. The guest bath is as early as the bedroom is brown.

The library is a main feature of the upstairs portion of the house? It is located in circular-like room with immense glass panels that overlook the lawn and drive. In the midst of the shelves located in the library is an impressive timepiece obtained by the Headless on a trip to Switzerland. A miniature knight in armor stands atop the flying pendulum medieval timepiece with a shield and mace that he throws around four columns to move the gears and keep time. "It is a novelty," agrees Nancy, "although it doesn't keep very accurate time."

NANCY ENJOYS INFORMAL entertaining and so decided on this center isle cabinet for her kitchen. The kitchen is separated from the den by walnut banisters and contains an informal kitchen table Nancy refinished. She is particularly pleased with a microwave oven, a Christmas present from her husband.

The downstairs den, complete with fireplace, is where the Headless spend most of their time. The den looks out on a back-yard patio.

Nancy jokingly describes the farm they live on as a "lunny farm." The reason could be Myrtle the turtle who is comfortably housed in a

Coffeemaster, A Good Cup

Drip coffee makers are all the rage these days and now there's one on the market, the Sunbeam Coffeemaster coffee maker, that has some unusual features designed to produce a consistently good cup of coffee.

The Sunbeam unit heats all the water to 200-Degrees F, and then mixes it with the dry coffee. This produces a brewing effect for a full-bodied, delicious taste. Another effect is hotter coffee. The 200-Degree cutoff combined with a separate heater that warms the carafe into which the coffee drips and then keeps the finished brew hot produces "piping hot" coffee.

The Sunbeam unit has two separate signal lights, one for the keep-warm heater to indicate the unit is on and one that lights up during the brewing cycle.

The basket has a fine-mesh filter to permit use without paper filters and still make clear coffee. Paper filters can be used if desired to minimize clean-up. The unit makes from four to 10 cups, each a full 8-oz. cup.

Sunbeam's Coffeemaster coffee maker is attractively styled in Harvest Gold with a woodtone face. The glass carafe, which has markings for 4, 6, 8 and 10 cups, has goldtone accents with a coffee brown handle and cover.

The heat pump uses natural heat

The warmth the sun puts into the air is natural heat. The heat pump pulls it out and pours it into your home.

By using this free energy, the heat pump warms you with little or no resistance heat. And this can cut your heat costs in half.

Twice as efficient as conventional electric space heating, the heat pump is the most efficient form of heating available today.

When it comes to choosing a heating system for super efficiency... for energy conservation... and for a lower heat bill (plus summertime air conditioning)... the heat pump is a natural. And we'll provide you with information on choosing and installing a heat pump. Just give us a call.

Eggs And Muffins . . . Easy Entertaining With Sunday Brunch

Looking for a new way to entertain? Invite a few friends over for an informal Sunday brunch. Preparations for such a party are comparatively simple, and the hour leads itself to a relaxing time for all, according to Marty Nabors, Home Economist for the Loudon County Herald Homemakers School. The Homemakers School will be held on Oct. 28 at Loudon High with the demonstration starting at 7:30 p.m.

If it is a nice day, have your brunch outdoors on the patio or in the yard suggests Miss Nabors. Whatever the location, set a pretty table keeping it informal, but colorful.

An American invention, brunch was first popularized in New Orleans during the 19th Century. Generally served between eleven and one, brunch menus range from traditional breakfast fare to anything you might serve for a high lunch.

Miss Nabors urges selecting food that is simple to prepare, yet satisfying. In spite of the hour this is the first meal of the day, so appetites will be high. Start with a big bowl of chilled fresh fruits (prepared the night before, of course). Egg-Vegetable Scramble is the star attraction—a tempting platter with a taste to match. Hot ham slices surround well seasoned scrambled eggs topped with a medley of sautéed vegetables—zucchini, tomatoes, green pepper and onions. Enhanced by the buttery flavor of Blue Bonnet Margarine, this delicious dish will bring compliments galore.

Warm home-made bread is a must for any brunch, and these Pineapple Oatmeal Muffins can be mixed together in minutes. Just wait until you smell the aroma! Rich and flavorful, they too have Blue Bonnet's buttery taste.

Miss Nabors also reminds you of another brunch party, house—you aren't stuck with dishes and clean-up in the wee hours of the morning. Most of the afternoon is still yours, so relax and enjoy!

EGG-VEGETABLE SCRAMBLE

4 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine

margarine. Place eggs on serving platter. Surround eggs with rolled ham slices. Top with cooked vegetables. Makes 8 servings.

PINEAPPLE OATMEAL MUFFINS

GREER'S GROVE ST. LOUDON

Before You Buy Your Very Own Microwave Oven

Microwave cooking has been called the greatest thing in food preparation since the discovery of fire. Although still relatively new on the consumer scene, countertop microwave ovens have become established in the minds of many homemakers as cooking marvels—instantly able to leap mealtime hurdles in a single bound. Microwave ovens are a new and faster way to cook—in fact, with some kinds of food they are up to eight times faster than conventional baking or roasting. Baking an apple with microwaves, for example, takes only about four minutes. But in shopping microwave ovens, speed is not always the most important criterion, points out Ms. Jane Butel, manager of the General Electric and Hotpoint Consumer Institute. Indeed, the oven that "cooks" fastest is often not really the fastest! The seeming anomaly arises from the fact that "cooking" time in a countertop microwave oven can vary greatly from overall "preparation" time, which is what concerns most homemakers. For example, one manufacturer—call him A—states that his oven will cook a five pound beef rib roast to rare in 27 1/2 minutes, while another—whom we'll call B—states his model will cook the same roast in 35 to 40 minutes. Model A's cooking time is based on starting with the roast at room temperature. Since most roasts are kept refrigerated (approximately 35 to 40 degrees) until they are cooked, allowing it to stand outside of the refrigerator until it reaches room temperature (approximately 65 to 70 degrees) takes many hours. Then, after the roast cooks in the microwave oven for the specified time, it must "stand" outside the oven for another 15-20 minutes while the heat slowly penetrates to the center and completes the cooking. Then, you have to take the internal temperature of the roast and, if it is not done—even if you're ready to eat—you must return it to the oven for more cooking. Total preparation time: 47 1/2 minutes (minimum), plus thawing time. By comparison, Model B starts with the roast at refrigerated temperature and cooks it for a specified number of minutes per pound. The internal temperature is taken immediately after the roast is taken from the oven; if necessary, it may be returned to the oven for a minute or two. Total preparation time: 35 to 40 minutes from refrigerator to table. Of these two approaches to microwave cooking, it is obvious that the manufacturer of Model B is more in tune with the way most homemakers are used to cooking. Ms. Butel also suggests that shoppers look closely at microwave oven timers. Some can be set only for a maximum of 15 minutes or less, which could really pin you down to the kitchen during the 1 1/2 hours required to thaw and/or cook large items by microwave energy. Most countertop microwave ovens also have no simple way to simultaneously cook and brown foods—such as steaks—which require only brief cooking time, although special browning dishes are now available which can be used successfully on certain types of food. However, there are microwave ovens which can accomplish browning and cooking at the same time. These full-size cooking centers let you cook with microwave energy, conventionally with electricity, or both ways at once for speed and browning.

Countertop microwave ovens are priced from about $250 to $450, while microwave ovens range from under $800. Both are best buys from the standpoint of speed and convenience in meal preparation. Recipes and ideas using countertop microwave ovens will be demonstrated at the Loudon High School Homemakers School on Oct. 28.

Lean low over the basin, with your elbow up so water won't run down your arm. Place the jet tip in your mouth. With your free hand, press the left button to turn the appliance on. Keep lips sufficiently closed over the tip to avoid splashing, but open enough to allow water to flow freely from mouth into basin. Do not accumulate water in the mouth.

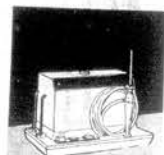

Direct the pulsating water from the jet tip along the gum line of each tooth, always at right angles to and almost touching the teeth. Pause briefly between teeth. The pulsating water gently surges between your teeth and under your gum line to flush away trapped food particles and bacteria that remain even after brushing. It is especially useful for cleaning hard-to-reach crevices, around bridgework, crowns and orthodontic appliances.

NOTE: Never direct the pulsating water toward the tender tissue under your tongue.

As in toothbrushing, clean all surfaces of your teeth. The appliance is especially useful in cleaning inside surfaces of the lower front teeth, an area the toothbrush may not properly clean. Before removing the jet tip from your mouth, press the right button to turn the appliance off.

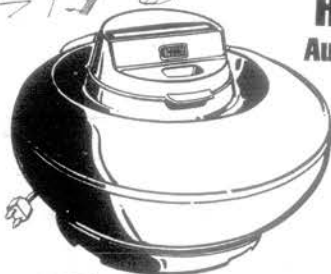

Empty any remaining water from the reservoir, then replace it as the cover. To remove the jet tip - pull, while twisting. Store it on the base or leave it in the handle if you prefer.

Concha Sweet Rolls Fine Dessert

Some sweet breads may be served in place of cookies or cake, for dessert at the end of a meal. These Concha Rolls are a case in point. This is a sticky roll, crumbly with almonds. It makes a fine accompaniment for fresh fruit and berries. Or when served at breakfast, it will satisfy the most incorrigible sweet tooth.

The recipe comes from Mexico, according to Mary Nabors, Home Economist for the Loudon County Herald Homemakers School. It gets its name from the spiral shaped crumb shell found along the West Coast. The dough is basically a sweet dough but much of the sweetness comes from two applications of honey—one before baking and one after. The recipe calls for a package of Fleischmann's Yeast.

Mary pointed out that the liquid is "very warm tap water" and that means warmer than body temperature—98.6 degrees. Actually the best temperature is between 130 and 150 degrees, which can be measured with a candy or deep fat fry thermometer. The dough will rise very slowly if the temperature of the water is too low. If you have an electric mixer use it for the initial beating. It not only makes mixing easier, it also does a thorough job of getting the dry ingredients wet. She also reminds us that strong beating makes gluten form faster which helps in producing a lighter, more evenly textured loaf.

One other point about the recipe: tablespoons of softened Blue Bonnet Margarine are mixed into the dough with the hot water and ½ cup more margarine is added after the first rising. The last amount is spread on the dough, like for Danish pastry. It helps in achieving a flaky texture. Note that the honey is heated.

then brushed on again after baking for an appealing sticky glaze. The recipe:

CONCHA ROLLS
 3-½ to 4 cups unsifted flour
 ¼ cup sugar
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 package Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
 8 tablespoons softened Blue Bonnet Margarine
 Two-thirds cup very warm tap water
 2 eggs (at room temperature)
 ¼ cup (1 stick) softened Blue Bonnet Margarine
 ½ cup honey, heated just until thin
 ¼ cup chopped almonds

In a large bowl thoroughly mix ¼ cup flour, sugar, salt and undissolved Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Add 6 tablespoons softened Blue Bonnet Margarine.

Gradually add very warm tap water to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add eggs and ½ cup flour. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a stiff dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; add egg and ½ cup flour, and elastic, about 5 minutes. Turn in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover, let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Punch dough down; divide in half. On a lightly floured board, roll one half of dough to a rectangle, 15x12 inches. Spread with 2 tablespoons softened margarine. Fold in half. Roll out again to a 15x12-inch rectangle. Spread with additional 2 tablespoons margarine. Fold in half. Roll out to a rectangle, 18x6 inches. Cut into six 1-inch strips. Fold each strip in half to a 1½-inch width. Gently roll to round out and lengthen each strip to a rope ¼ to ½-inch in diameter. Hold one end of each rope firmly and wind dough loosely around to form coil, tucked end underneath. Place on tressed baking sheet, about 2 inches apart. Repeat with remaining dough and margarine. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Gently brush rolls with half of heated honey. Sprinkle with almonds. Bake at 400 degrees F. about 15 minutes, or until done. Remove from baking sheets and cool on wire racks. Drizzle white hot with remaining honey. Makes 12 large rolls.

Basic Bread Two Variations

Like the basic black dress that can be accessorized to fit many occasions, a basic recipe can be adapted to suit an occasion, too. Marty Nabors, Home Economist for the Loudon County Herald Homemakers School recently shared a recipe for white bread which fits that description. A melange of herbs spiraled through the dough offers a distinctive bread to serve for lunch, dinner or lunch box sandwiches. But if a special breakfast or brunch is on the agenda, a sweet orange filling may be used instead of the herbs.

The bread dough prepared by the "no-dissolve" Method was developed by home economist for Fleischmann's Yeast, Miss Nabors, indicating that this takes the guess work out of bread baking by eliminating the step of dissolving yeast in warm water. Instead, the dry yeast is added with the dry ingredients—sugar, salt and part of the flour. Heated liquids are then added and the initial beating is done with an electric mixer. The bread requires two risings, one before shaping the dough and one after.

Good cooks know that herbs, judiciously used, transform simple everyday foods into epicurean creations, and "Marty says that's what happens with this bread. Parsley, thyme, tarragon and garlic offer an interesting ensemble. Years ago it was believed that herbs had mystic powers. Parsley signified revelry and victory and wreaths of it were worn by athletes in ancient times. Thyme stands for courage and was often carried by warriors in battle. Tarragon symbolizes unselfish sharing—combining the three is worthy of a noble occasion, indeed.

Instead of shaping regular loaves of bread, Marty suggests baking half of the dough in a 9-inch tube pan which adds a graceful shape to the table. The recipe makes two loaves.

SWIRL BREAD—HERB AND ORANGE VARIATIONS

6 to 7 cups unsifted flour
3 tablespoons sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 package Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
1 cup milk
1 cup water
6 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 2 cups flour, sugar, salt and undissolved Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Combine milk, water and Blue Bonnet Margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquids are warm. (Margarine does not need to melt.) Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat for 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add 1 cup flour, or enough flour to make a thick batter. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour and 10 minutes.

Turn dough out onto lightly floured board; divide dough in half. Proceed according to directions (below) for desired bread.

To make Orange-Nut

Bread: Roll half of dough into an 8 x 12-inch rectangle. Sprinkle with 1/2 the orange-nut filling mixture (below). Roll tightly from the 8-inch side as for jelly roll. Pinch seam to seal; seal ends of loaf and fold underneath. Place loaf, seam side down, in greased 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Repeat with remaining dough. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) 35 minutes, or until done. Remove from pans and cool on wire racks. If desired, frost with confectioner's sugar frosting and sprinkle with chopped walnuts.

To Make Herb Bread: Roll half of dough into a 20 x 7-inch oblong. Sprinkle with 1/2 the herb mixture (below). Roll tightly from the 20-inch side as for jelly roll. Pinch seam to seal. Place, seam side down, in greased 9-inch tube pan. Seal ends together firmly. Repeat with remaining dough. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. If desired, dust top with flour. Bake in a hot oven 400 degrees F. 35 minutes, or until done. Remove from pans and cool on wire racks.

Orange-Nut Filling: Mix together 1/2 cup chopped walnuts, 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar and 2 tablespoons grated orange peel.

Herb Filling: Mix together 1 tablespoon parsley flakes, 1 teaspoon crushed thyme leaves, 1/2 teaspoon crushed tarragon leaves and 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder.

Peanut Butter And Oats Pack Protein

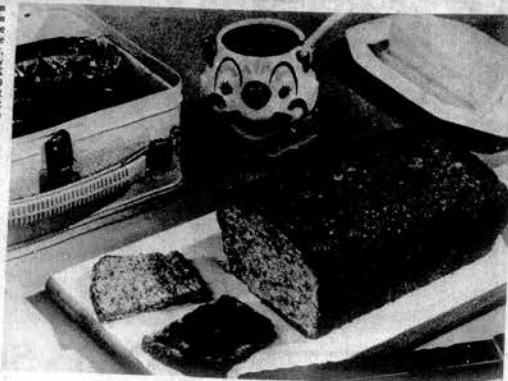

If you like peanut butter on bread, you'll love it baked in this Peanut Butter Bread. The delicious loaf is flavored by the high-quality oatmeal variety. In this recipe, QUICK or OLD FASHIONED QUAKER OATS supplement the nuts in the chunky peanut butter and contribute a nice grain flavor, too.

QUAKER OATS and chunky peanut butter both provide protein, so mothers won't hesitate to send hefty slices along with their children to school. Doesn't Peanut Butter Bread sound good with jelly? Adults, too, will delight in it at coffee. (If you're dieting, leave off the butter and remember that "the spread" in the bread "it's that moist!")

Miss Maury Nabors, Home Economist, reminds you to mix quick bread batter just until the dry ingredients are moistened. The batter will look lumpy, but the finished product will not. Overmixing causes unevenness and tunnels that are so disappointing to a good cook. Try your hand at Peanut Butter Bread—a lighthearted loaf developed in the famous "Trustworthy" QUAKER Test Kitchens.

PEANUT BUTTER BREAD

1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup chunk style peanut butter
1 cup QUICK or OLD FASHIONED QUAKER OATS, uncooked
1 egg, beaten
1 cup milk
Combine flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Cut to peanut butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add oats, egg and milk, mixing just until dry ingredients are moistened. Pour batter into greased 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake in preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 1 hour. Cool 10 minutes; remove from pan. Cool completely. Cut; serve with jelly, if desired. Makes 1 loaf.

You'll see more ideas from the QUAKER Test Kitchens at the Loudon County Herald Homemakers School on October 28.

Old Fashioned Butterscotch Pie

Pies like Grandmother used to make are to dream about. Many of these recipes were handed down like family heirlooms. Some are never written down. In an era of mixes and prepared fillings, many good pies have been all but forgotten. Here's a made-from-scratch butterscotch pie worthy of a revival. The flavor can't be duplicated in a mix. The simple secret of its delectable filling lies in browning the butter-brown sugar mixture. It takes longer to make than a mix, but is well worth it. Pour into a firm, crunchy crust you've made from Nilla Wafers and top with meringue. Serve small wedges - it's rich, but oh so good!

GRANDMA'S BUTTERSCOTCH PIE

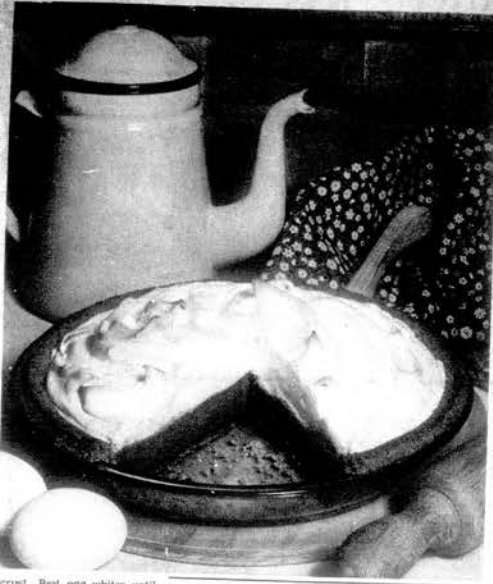

Crust:
40 NILLA WAFERS, finely rolled (about 2 1/2 cups crumbs)
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/4 cup Blue Bonnet Margarine, softened

Thoroughly blend ingredients. Press firmly against bottom and sides of a 9-inch pie plate. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 8 minutes. Cool.

Filling:
6 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine
1 cup dark brown sugar, firmly packed
1 cup boiling water
3 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1-2/3 cups milk
2 eggs, separated
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
6 tablespoons granulated sugar

Melt margarine in heavy skillet over medium heat until golden brown; add brown sugar. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture bubbles. Reduce heat to low; very gradually stir in water and remove from heat. In saucepan mix next three ingredients. Gradually blend in milk, stirring until smooth. Stir in brown sugar mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil; boil 1 minute. Remove from heat. Stir in a little of hot mixture into egg yolks; stir back into hot mixture. Boil 1 minute. Remove from heat; add vanilla extract. Pour into a bowl; place a piece of wax paper directly on surface of mixture. Pour into crust.

crust. Beat egg whites until soft peaks form. Continue beating while adding sugar gradually. Beat until stiff peaks form and sugar is completely dissolved. Pile over filling, forming peaks with back of spoon. Bake in preheated hot oven (425 degrees F.) 4 to 5 minutes. Cool on wire rack 30 minutes. Refrigerate until firm, at least 3 hours. Makes 8 (about 3 1/2-inch) wedges.

The age of an egg may be determined by placing it in a bowl of cold water. If it lays on its side, it is fresh. If it stands at an angle, it is at least three days old. If it stands on end, it is ten days old.

How salt is added when cooking can make a big difference. Salt should be added to soups and sauces early in the process, but should be added to meats just before taking off the stove. Salt can be added to the eggs in a cake recipe and when cooking vegetables, salt should be added to the water in which they are cooked.

Homemaking Tips

A large roast can be carved more easily after it stands for about thirty minutes.

To prevent splashing when frying meat, sprinkle a little salt into the pan before putting the fat in.

A little vinegar added to the water when an egg cracks during boiling will help seal the egg.

Try using a strong thread instead of a knife when a cake is to be cut while hot.

A pinch of salt added to very sour fruits during cooking will reduce the amount of sugar

Shrimp Dishes Popular In Colonial Charleston

"Oh, lady, if you want to see something fine, Jos' look in dis B'I green cyahl ob mine."

As you will see de tender, pure raw s'rimp... This song has greeted the people of Charleston, South Carolina every morning for many, many years. It is the song of the shrimp man, bearing baskets of shrimp and singing about his wares.

Marty Nabors, Home Economist for the upcoming Loudon County Herald Homemakers School tells us that since colonial times, shrimp has found its way to Charleston tables in a variety of tempting dishes—pilafs, puddings, pies, patties.

Miss Nabors shares this version of an old colonial favorite which combines shrimp, tomatoes, green pepper, onion and bread cubes in a hearty, luscious casserole. Versatile Blue Bonnet Margarine adds a buttery flavor to the bread crumb topping. An inviting entree for family meals or entertaining, this Shrimp Bake is easy and quick to make. She suggests complementing the meal with a crisp green salad and a hot bread.

CHARLESTON SHRIMP BAKE

1/2 cup (1/2 stick) Blue Bonnet Margarine
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 1/2 cups chopped green pepper
1/4 cup chopped onion
4 cups stale bread cubes

WHITE STORE MANAGER JACK FICKEY is pictured with Homemakers School Home Economist Carolyn Lewis when she was in Loudon promoting the show set for Loudon High School on October 28. The show, which is free, and features a grand door prize of a $500 microwave oven from Hotpoint. There will also be 20 bags of groceries and other items given away.

Tempting Main Dishes In The Crocker-Frypan

The versatility of an electric frypan and all the tenderness and great flavors of slow cooking have been combined in a new SUNBEAM product, the CROCKER-FRYPAN.

1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 can (1-pound) tomatoes, undrained
1 1/2 pounds uncooked medium shrimp, shelled and deveined
Melt margarine in a large skillet. Remove 1 tablespoon margarine and mix thoroughly with bread crumbs; set aside. Add green pepper and onion to margarine remaining in skillet. Cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally until tender, about 5 minutes. Mix in bread cubes, salt, pepper, tomatoes and shrimp. Turn mixture into a 5-quart oblong frypan. Bake at 350 degrees F. 25 to 30 minutes, or until shrimp are done. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

SUNBEAM has added a removable crockery insert to its deluxe FFP Frypan and produced a special use-care recipe book with tested recipes for slow cooking in the new unit.

The cover of the frypan fits either the frypan itself or the crockery insert when the insert is in place. Standard Frypan recipes and cooking procedures can be followed when the crockery insert is removed.

The FFP Frypan is SUNBEAM'S COOK "N" CLEAN model, with a liner that can be removed from the leg-base cradle. The shield of the cradle prevents grease build-up on the bottom of the frypan and both the crockery insert and frypan liner can be washed in a dishwasher when the cradle is removed, if desired.

The interior of the CROCKER-FRYPAN is black Teflon II and the exterior is porcelainized, again making clean-ups easy. It is available in Avocado as Model 7-152 and in Harvest Gold as Model 7-153.

The crockery insert is lightweight. It can be used as a serving liner at the table, or as a serving dish when not used with the CROCKER-FRYPAN, adding another dimension to its versatility.

SUNBEAM plans to offer the crockery insert separately to consumers who already own SUNBEAM frypans. It will be packed with an instruction book with recipes and it fits all standard, large-sized SUNBEAM frypans.

We have used some pictures of old historical Loudon County homes the past few weeks. We have had many calls and comments on them. Many of our readers, some who have moved to Loudon recently, were not aware of these we will write about is the old Joe Browder home which is located on Riverview Road, west of Loudon City. This old house was built on the site of an Indian Village. The house, constructed of hand made brick, stands today much the same as it was when built over a century ago. Built on the Browder farm, which contains a family graveyard, it was unusual in architecture in many ways.

Our other house we have deep rooted in area history. This being our Bicentennial year, we felt that this would fit in very well. So, as per reader request, we are using a couple more of them and hope our readers like these also. The first of

Answers About Influenza

Here are some questions most commonly asked about influenza:

Q. How effective will the new influenza vaccine be?

A. It is generally believed that effectiveness of today's flu vaccines ranges from somewhere between 70-90 percent. When a distinctive new strain comes along, scientists are now generally able to match a vaccine to the new strain, and it is likely that a high degree of effectiveness could be achieved in a vaccine against the swine virus.

Q. Will the influenza vaccine make me ill?

A. Field trials involving thousands of individuals will provide specific information about side effects of this vaccine. In general, influenza vaccines of recent years have been less likely to cause illness than earlier vaccines. In the past, a small percentage of people who have been vaccinated against the flu have run slight fevers within 24 hours after receiving the vaccination. About 1 percent have run temperatures over 100 degrees, swelling, redness, and ten-ness in the arm occur in 20 to 40 percent of those vaccinated. Severe reactions are very rare.

Q. Can I get flu from the vaccine?

A. The flu vaccine contains a virus that has been killed. One will get flu from taking the vaccine. Because the virus is made in eggs, people who are highly allergic to eggs should not take it.

Q. What can I do for protection if I am allergic to eggs?

A. First, check with a physician to be certain that the allergy is the type that would prevent you from being immunized. However, even if you cannot take the flu vaccine, you will get some benefit from the mass vaccination program. This is so because you will be living in a protected population and therefore will be less likely to be exposed to the disease.

Q. What relationship does this swine virus have to the 1918 influenza pandemic?

A. Influenza viruses were first isolated from man in the early 1930's. Therefore we cannot be sure about the viruses causing earlier epidemics. But testing of blood of individuals who were living in 1918 shows almost all have antibodies to swine-like virus of this sort may have caused the 1918 pandemic.

Q. How was the 1918 influenza pandemic different from other influenza pandemics?

A. It was unique because of its high mortality, and the fact that so many of the deaths occurred among apparently healthy young men and women. It is estimated that the 1918-19 pandemic resulted in a worldwide death toll of more than 20 million, 50,000 of them in this country. By comparison, the Asian flu of 1957-58—the most severe influenza pandemic since—caused an estimated 70,000 deaths in the U.S., primarily among the elderly and individuals with chronic illness.

Q. How is, however, no evidence that the new swine virus is as virulent as the 1918 virus.

Q. Can I get swine flu from eating pork?

A. No. Influenza is spread from person-to-person. When a person has influenza, or is just coming down with it, the fluids in his nose and mouth contain viruses. They are expelled into the air when he sneezes, coughs or talks. Then they get into the nose and mouth of other people and cause disease.

Q. What are the symptoms of influenza?

A. Symptoms of influenza often come on suddenly and may include some or all of the following: fever, chills, headache, dry cough, and soreness and aching in the back and the limbs. Fever seldom lasts more than several days, although the patient may continue to feel weak for several days to a week or more.

Q. When can I get vaccinated?

A. The vaccine for swine flu should be generally available for the public starting in November. A special vaccine

Two Mormons Working Here

Two missionaries from the Church of Latter-day Saints are stationed in Loudon County. They are Elder Mike Hyde of Seattle, Washington, and Elder Burnett Faer of LaCresca, California.

When the male members of the Mormon Church reach age 19 they have the opportunity to serve the church full-time in missions. These missions last for two years, and the persons involved delay their private plans until they return. Each individual missionary works prior to leaving, so as to have the funds to support himself for two years. When necessary they receive financial help from their families.

The Mormon missionary program is called the largest in the world with approximately 25,000 persons in full-time mission work. Bicycles are used by the two men in their travels in Loudon County going door to door telling those who will listen about their church.

"If a senator says he is doing a good job, I expect him to be on the job."

The very first year he was in Washington, our junior senator ranked 87th in attendance—that means that 93 United States Senators did a better job of representing their home states than the senator from Tennessee. In 1971, William E. Brock III missed one out of every four votes that came up in the U.S. Senate. In the six years that he has been a senator, he has never been in the upper 50% in attendance and voting. Tennessee deserves more than that. We need a senator who cares enough about the people of Tennessee to devote his full time and attention to representing us in Washington. Jim Sasser cares. As our senator he will be on the job, voting for us on the floor of the Senate. Let's send Jim Sasser to Washington and have a full-time senator for a change.

Judge Questions Tellico Dam Precedent

A federal appeals court judge has questioned whether completion of the $116 million Tellico Dam, already 92 percent finished, could set a precedent-threatening every animal on the endangered species list.

Judge Anthony Celebrezze of the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals said that completing the dam, with the resulting extermination of a small fish called the "snail darter," could set a precedent "which once established could be applied to anything."

The appellate court held hearings last Thursday on a requested injunction to stop construction of the dam on the Little Tennessee River. It is due for completion in January.

Biologists and environmentalists have appealed a decision by U.S. District Court Judge Robert Taylor that, although it probably would mean the extermination of the small darter, the project was too far along to stop.

The snail darter, a small, tanish-colored fish which feeds on snails lying on the river bottom, was not discovered until 1973. It now is on the endangered species list.

Celebrezze noted that Congress has not given the Tennessee Valley Authority an exemption which would allow the snail darter's extermination.

TVA attorney Thomas Pedersen, of Knoxville, said that Congress had granted an "implied" exemption "by continuing to fund the project."

The appeals judges seek a specific exemption from Congress in this case. But Pedersen replied the method was time-consuming and expensive.

"Congress acted using a rule of reason," Pedersen said. "The thing that we are looking for is the intent of Congress in granting the funds for the dam."

Celebrezze questioned the TVA's theory.

"If they are permitted to make exemptions in this case, exemptions can be made all down the line," Celebrezze said. "Today, we're talking about a little fish, but tomorrow we might be talking about a buffalo someplace."

Celebrezze later concluded that a finding for TVA would be "setting a precedent, which once established could be applied to anything."

An attorney for environmentalists opposing the dam said there was more involved in the case than the fate of the little fish.

"This little fish is a turkey for the real issues," said Zygmunt J. B. Plater. He argued that the integrity of the Endangered Species Act requires the preservation of the snail darter.

Someone gets careless around power lines—lets a TV or CB antenna fall across them, raises a metal pipe or pole into them from the ground. There's a pop and sparks fly. Next day you're reading their obituary in the newspaper.

Farmers Asked To Choose ASC Candidates

Committee election will be conducted from November 24 to December 6 by mail. ASC Committees are responsible for managing government farm programs at the local level. To meet the needs of individual producers, Committees must be concerned and responsible individuals. Loudon County farmers have the opportunity to nominate persons they feel would best serve the farm community.

Mr. Hutton explained that for petitions to be valid, only the name of one person can be entered and that it should be accompanied by a written certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected. Each petition must be signed by at least three eligible voters in the area and reach the county ASCS office by November 1, 1976.

It was further explained that a farmer may circulate or sign nominating petitions for as many candidates as he chooses. Anyone wanting to nominate a farmer for the county ASCS office for full details.

The opportunity to nominate to office is guaranteed to all farmers regardless of race, religion, sex, color, age or national origin. Mr. Hutton said, "Commenting in answer to several inquiries about the duties of Community Committeemen, Mr. Hutton said, 'Their present duties consist mainly of keeping informed on ASC programs and being resource outlets in each county. They also serve as delegates to the County ASCS Committee is elected, and then, they help keep the County Committee informed about farmers' thinking on agricultural problems and about local conditions.'

Farm Building Requirements

By Charles F. McCall Extension Leader

Regardless of the type of construction used, farm building designs must satisfy three general requirements. The foundation must be adequate to support the entire building and its contents, there must be a wall section to stand between the foundation and the roof, and there must be a roof system.

The type of construction familiar to most people is known as conventional construction. It is used in residential houses and in farm buildings. The foundation in conventional construction consists of concrete footings and masonry block. The framed wall sections are typically wood studs and plates. Either trussed rafters or regular rafters can be used in the roof system, which is attached directly to the wall section.

Perhaps the most popular type of construction for farm buildings is pole framing. In pole frame buildings, pressure treated round or sawn wood poles are set in the ground to support the weight of the building. The poles serve both as foundation and as side wall framing. The roofing system can consist of interior support poles and regular rafters can be used. Pole frame buildings can be quickly constructed because the need for concrete footings is eliminated. They're also fairly inexpensive, versatile, and durable.

Rigid framing is another type of construction sometimes used in farm buildings. One of the most typical uses of rigid frames is in steel building construction. Wood rigid frames can also be constructed, but their use in farm buildings is not very common.

Another type of framing somewhat similar to rigid frame construction is curved arch construction. Curved wood arches were once popular for use in large two-story dairy barns, but they are now seldom used in farm buildings. Curved metal arches are common in greenhouses and quonset-type utility buildings.

Rigid frame and curved arch construction do offer some advantages. They are easily prefabricated for speedy field installation. Also, the wall and roof framing is erected together as one unit. One disadvantage is that rather substantial footings are required at each end of each frame. These footings are generally cast in place concrete, which requires time for curing.

Concrete is commonly used for footings, floors, and paving, but it is seldom used as roof sections in farm construction. Side walls are frequently constructed with masonry block and occasionally with tilt-up precast panels.

If you're thinking about a new building, contact the Loudon County Extension Office. We can help you select the best type of construction for your job. We also have many plans that are available.

Parris Opens Auction Firm

Loudon County businessman Ron Parris announced that he has recently established an American Auction Company with offices at 1200 West Broadway in Lenoir City in the John Meigs Building.

Colonel Parris, a licensed auctioneer says his firm motto is "selling On It." He is a graduate of Nashville Auction School and had been associated with David Hartsook and Associate Auctioneers for one year before going into business for himself.

Parris also owns Parris Sign Company in Lenoir City. He is a licensed pilot and holds the flight instructor rating.

He has conducted sales in Florida, Georgia and Tennessee. The largest sale he helped conduct was a $468,000 land sale for Phillips Auction Company in Crossville. He is presently in auctioneer for Lenoir City Auto Auction. Has conducted real estate and warehouse auctions and has sold automobiles at auction in Chattanooga, Fort Oglethorpe and Cookeville.

Hartsook and I are the best of friends, and you'll still see us working some auction sales together. I told my interest in David Hartsook and Associates to Van and opened my own company. It's that simple. Even though I went to auction school, my real "instructor" was David Hartsook. He is an auctioneer by any standard."

The newly listed phone number of American Auction Company is 986-9635.

Vacancies In Vocational Classes

Loudon County Vocational Center Director Coy Gibson told the Center Coordinating Committee Thursday night that the State Department of Education had issued the final work orders on the building. This means the building should be completely finished by mid-November he said.

Portions of the building were not completed when school opened and some classes have been meeting in makeshift conditions at the Center.

Gibson said that only three of the 15 vocational programs at the center do not have the state required minimum enrollment of 10 for each session. They are Graphic Arts (printing), Heating and Air Conditioning, and Commercial Foods. He stated he feels that during the next semester these classes will have sufficient enrollment to be retained in the program. There are 340 students now enrolled in the center.

Asked about how the staff is working out, Gibson stated that all of them are learning more about classroom discipline and teaching methods each day and the instructors are receiving teacher training from the University of Tennessee.

Gibson said that when the center is completed he is planning an Open House to show the facility to the public. After this he feels that students and parents alike will have a better understanding of what the center has to offer and the enrollment next year will improve greatly.

The Coordinating Committee expressed great concern over security at the facility. Gibson said that in the automotive section alone there was some $300,000 in small hand tools that could be carried away.

The Committee moved to engage a professional security service to guard the facility at night and on weekends. They also asked that applications be taken for a custodian-security man. They recommended that the custodian's hours be arranged where he will be on duty when the building is not in use to act as security guard in addition to maintaining custodial services.

STOP SMOKING DEMONSTRATION—The Health Occupations P.M. Vica Club is promoting a "Stop Smoking Campaign". In a recent meeting with the American Cancer Society a smoking demonstration showing the tar that gets into the lungs was shown. Featured instructor Charlotte Hall and Mrs. Charles Morgan show students Patty White and Donna Blankenship the results of smoking. The club is putting up bulleting boards in the schools and has a display at the Lenoir Shopping Center.

TVA Rates Still Said Low

The Federal Power Commission has begun a quarterly survey of electric bills in selected cities across the Nation to provide current information on trends in electricity prices, supplementing its annual report on electric bills.

The Tennessee Valley region is represented by Nashville where the cost of electricity ranked near the bottom among 29 cities covered in the initial survey. Rates in Nashville are based on the most widely used residential rate schedule for electric systems distributing TVA power.

summer air-conditioning. Typical home power consumption is much higher in most areas of the Tennessee Valley because of these uses, and can reach several thousand kilowatt-hours for electric heating in a cold winter month.

Individual home electric bills vary with the amount of electricity used and the rate schedule applied locally. Varying monthly charges for TVA power based on changing fuel and purchased power costs have added about 20 cents since July to the amount shown for Nashville in the FPC survey, but this would not affect Nashville's ranking among the cities covered.

When You Start All You Get Is A Door With A Title On It— The Rest You Have To Earn

When John Duncan went to Congress in 1965, he received the same treatment all freshmen congressmen get. They gave him a cubbyhole for an office and had someone paint his name on the door. That's about all a freshman congressman gets—except maybe a cold shoulder when he's trying to do something for his district. Everything else he must earn. And it's tough. The only way you do things in Washington for your district is through ability and experience. John Duncan has both.

John Duncan has done something remarkable with the empty door they gave him. He's added responsibilities to his job that most congressmen only dream about. He's brought prestige and action to our district. The list is long. It begins with his service on the Committee on Veterans' Affairs and, for the past six years, on the important Ways and Means Committee. He is the ranking minority member of the Health Sub-Committee and also serves on the Trade and Oversight Sub-Committees. (The Oversight Committee is involved with overseeing the work of the Internal Revenue, Social Security, and HEW agencies.) This year, he was chosen to serve as one of 10 members on a special Capital Formation Committee.

There's one more thing about the Duncan door—both in Washington and his district offices. It's always open. He takes the time to be a good congressman.

Keep Congressman Duncan's ability and seniority working for you. Don't trade his remarkable record for an empty door.

Vote To Re-elect JOHN J. DUNCAN To Congress, 2nd District Of Tennessee

A copy of our report is filed with the Federal Election Commission and is available for purchase from the Federal Election Commission, Washington, D.C.

Inserted and paid for by Duncan for Congress Committee, Margaret Garrison, Treasurer.

Brock Explains Financial Position

By M. Lee Smith
For Sen. Bill Brock the last several days have been anything but pleasant. Last week, the Senator's right hand was still bandaged from a summer softball game accident. The wear and tear of his fast-paced campaign was beginning to show. And his reelection game plan was sidetracked.

this race is that his campaign is well planned, well organized, well financed. The organization and money will produce a big campaign blitz in the final two weeks.

Local Cancer Society Offers Memorial Program

When cancer takes the life of someone close to you, a relative, a friend, or a co-worker, the loss is painful. In the sorrow that follows such a loss, there is a wish to honor the deceased. There is also the deep need to strike back at this dreadful disease - to do something so that others may live.

A Memorial Gift to the American Cancer Society is a living memorial. This gift to a loved one means others are helped. Many individuals, organizations, firms and other groups give to the memorial fund regularly. These gifts support an increasingly large proportion of the American Cancer Society's program of Research, Education and Service.

Every gift provides material aid to the Cancer Research Program in laboratories, hospitals, and clinics across the nation; provides fellowships for doctors and scientists; and supports service programs for cancer patients and their families.

Voluntary support for the American Cancer Society makes possible the year-round programs of public education, which alert people to cancer's early symptoms and urge prompt diagnosis and treatment. These programs are helping save thousands of lives each year.

Every contribution is acknowledged with an official receipt to the donor and is tax deductible.

Memorial Gifts may be sent to Mrs. Alma Simpson of the Loudon County Unit at River Road, Loudon, Tenn. 37774.

Contributions should be accompanied by the full name of the deceased, the name and address of the family member to whom the Memorial Card should be sent and the donor's own full name and address.

Under the proposed tariff, the method of charging for local and interstate long distance service will be changed by reducing charges for each basic local message main telephone, main mobile telephone, and payphone. Each of these will be charged a monthly fee of $3.00 per month, and a three (3) call per month allowance at no additional charge. This monthly fee for each of these services will be charged for each of the following five (5) categories: (1) with a three (3) call per month allowance for each group of calls by five cents (5c), with a three (3) call per month allowance for each group of calls by five cents (5c), with a three (3) call per month allowance for each group of calls by five cents (5c), with a three (3) call per month allowance for each group of calls by five cents (5c), with a three (3) call per month allowance for each group of calls by five cents (5c).

These changes are proposed in order to recover those who use Directory Assistance services to pay for these services and to reduce the burden of Directory Assistance expenses to other customers who use their telephone directories and all Directory Assistance services. This matter will be heard before the Tennessee Public Service Commission at 9:30 A.M. on the 29th day of October, 1976, in the Central Hall Building, Nashville, Tennessee. High Potency Vitamin E

Sexual Potency Quickly Improves With New 'E-Pill'

NEW YORK, N.Y. (Special)—An amazing new "supercharged" vitamin E-Pill has recently been developed that reportedly "sexual" increases and rejuvenates men and women of all ages. It also makes them feel healthier and more "youthful". It is now available to the American public.

The new high potency E-Pill not only seems to increase sexual ability of both sexes but also "actually" perks up sexual interest and stimulates a person's desire, according to a spokesman for the manufacturer.

ALSO IMPROVES GENERAL HEALTH

This new, easy-to-take E-Pill contains newly formulated, highly concentrated vitamin E. It tends to quickly build up and strengthen the natural physiological processes of the body that are believed to be basically responsible for its potency, youthfulness, health and long life.

HELPS 4 OUT OF 5 PEOPLE

Indications are that the new E-Pill gives quick and noticeable results to as high as 4 out of 5 people (80%) who have used it. Some people report a noticeable change but feel the high potency of vitamin E in the pill does quickly make them feel better from a general health standpoint. Other reports also show it tends to "perk up" daily activities and give a more relaxed, happier outlook on life.

HOW AVAILABLE

The use of this high potency (one-day) E-Pill is perfectly safe and is now available without prescription from the manufacturer, by mail order only. To get your supply, send $6.95 for a 2 week supply, (or $10.95 for a 30 day supply), with check or M.O. to: E-PILL Dept. 146, 447 Merrick Road, Oceanside, N.Y. 11772. (Unconditional money-back guarantee if not satisfied.)

SHOW OBJECTION TO LANDFILL-Kirk Sessions of Loudon City, spokesman for about 80 persons who attended the County Planning Commission meeting Thursday night in opposition to the proposed sanitary landfill in the Watt Road area is being filmed by two Knoxville TV stations who covered the meeting. At right are members of the Commission.

If the past two presidential elections are any indicator somewhere between 7500 and 8000 Loudon Countians will cast their ballots in Tuesday's national and state election.

The polls in Loudon County will open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the past also the Republican vote has over-whelmed that of the Democrats. There has been a very active effort by both Republicans and Democrats to get out the vote from the top to the bottom of the ballot, but Democrat candidates might be expected to make a better showing in Loudon County than in the past.

The Herald and the Loudon City News will combine staff efforts to obtain the results of the election. There are eight other candidates with directors on the ballot, but there are eight other candidates with directors on the ballot. They do not figure to have any impact on the Loudon County outcome. The other candidates are Thomas J. Anderson, Benjamin Babar, Gus Hall, Lyndon LaRouche, Roger McBride, Lester Mackinnon, Eugene McCarthy and Ernest L. Miller.

In the 1972 Presidential election there were 726 votes in Loudon County with Republican Richard Nixon capturing 537 of them. The 1968 vote was the largest in Loudon County history. It was a three way race won here by Richard Nixon with 429 votes. George Wallace 1966 and Hubert Humphrey 1961. Some 827 persons voted in that election.

Republican United States Senator Bill Brock is being challenged for his second Senate term by Democrat Jim Sasser. Some have called this race a toss-up and could be decided by the amount of lead Brock receives from the Republican East Tennessee counties. There are other candidates under the independent column of the county, Mark Clark Bates, Willie C. Jarow and Arnold Joseph Zandi.

Democrat Public Service Commissioner Frank J. Cochran has opposition from Republican nominee Bob Pitts.

The race between John Dugan, Republican incumbent for United States Representative is locked in the 21st Congressional District seats in the State House of Representatives. In the 21st incumbent Republican Benny Staffer and Eddie Tom Smith have both conducted very active campaigns.

The 36th District takes in only a small portion of Loudon County, three precincts. Republican James A. Mellon, who was defeated two years ago by Anna Belle O'Brien, and Rockwood Democrat David (Peabody) Ledford are the candidates.

Of the three candidates for delegate to the State Constitutional Convention from the 21st District, two are from Loudon County. They are Brenda Lee of Greenback and Rufus (Gord) Ledford of Loudon. The other candidate is Margaret Hood Mairs of Blount County.

Six persons are in that race from the 36th District, none from Loudon County. Candidates are John J. Albertson, Claude Bowman, Shirley Duer, Neeth Fowler, Malcolm Peters and Stanley Rogers York.

Squire Williams Elected Hospital Board Head

The Loudon County Memorial Hospital, with four new members attending their first session, approved several items on its agenda preparing the hospital for the on-site survey by the Joint Commission on Accreditation.

For more than two years the hospital has been preparing for a survey which will lead to accreditation by the American Hospital Association.

A team to survey the hospital is expected to start its work on November 8.

To meet certain requirements that were left hanging the board approved the appointment of a safety committee composed of all hospital department heads and Dr. Elsie Tomlinson, approved a fire plan, bomb threat plan and disaster plan; also approved a revised personnel manual and patient information booklet.

New members of the Board are Robert Lee, Bliss Kizer and Squire Curtis Williams. Squire Chairman I.D. Conner, Squire Jim Blair, Calvin Atchley and John Roberts.

At the beginning of the board session Squire Curtis Williams was elected Board Chairman. Gene Hamby vice chairman and Mrs. Nola Elam, secretary.

Much of the meeting was taken up with Administrator Gay Hamilton explaining financial reports, and programs of physician recruitment underway at the hospital.

Hospital Chief of Staff Dr. Tom McPeake and board members Elam and Homer Vaughn Simpson were not present at the meeting.

The new board members showed considerable interest in physician recruitment. Hamilton explained that a study made early this year showed that much of the reason that people were going to other hospital markets was the lack of specialty physicians in the county, but after identification of the problem and increased interest by the local doctors the president of the hospital provided.

Hamilton said that one tool that the hospital needs in physician recruitment is a professional building. Such a building has been recommended by a Facilities Planning Committee that was appointed by the hospital board in January.

New board member Bob Lee said he was in the emergency room Sunday and found no hospital employees on duty there. He said a Registered Nurse had to leave the second floor station and not only also take care of the paper work required. He said during the time he was there four patients came in for treatment in a short time.

Lee said he was told that there is additional clerical personnel on duty during the week, but he was disappointed to find that an RN would be required to leave a floor station to do paperwork in the emergency room.

Landfill Proposal Draws Opposition

The Loudon County Planning Commission Thursday night drew almost 100 persons and television coverage from two Knoxville stations because of a possible request from Knoxville to place a large sanitary landfill on a farm that is partly located in Loudon County in the Watt Road area.

Although the item on the agenda was one where State Planner Steve Campbell was just to explain to the Commission what their responsibilities were should a request be made, the crowd still came.

Chairman Ben Galvan explained that there would be no decision or action taken at the meeting because there had not been a request from Knoxville for a zoning of any property in Loudon County for a landfill.

Planner Campbell said he had been notified several weeks ago that a site on Watt Road, known as the Maddux farm, which lies in both Loudon and Knox Counties is one of the sites being evaluated for a landfill. Campbell stated that because of the extensive evaluation work going on the site, core drilling and etc. he expects that a zoning request might be made of the local planners at their November meeting.

As to the requirements and authority of the Planners in the matter, Campbell said that landfills are permitted on zones "on review." This means property cannot be zoned for that use, but the planning commission may at its discretion approve or deny the use of the zone for that purpose.

He stated the evaluation now being made of the site will be the basis of the request by the Knox group in answering the requirements of the property and how it might be suited for use as a landfill.

The basic decision to grant permission for the use of or to deny it for the landfill will be in the hands of the Planning Commission, Campbell said.

Kirk Sessions, who identified himself as spokesman for the some 80 persons who attended the meeting because of the landfill question, told the Commission they were all there because of their interest in the possible landfill question, but asked to

Stringfield Terms Total 16-30 Years

The fall term of Criminal Court in Loudon County ended Friday. For one defendant the session brought prison sentences totaling 16 to 30 years.

In one of the last cases Jackie Stringfield was sentenced to four to 10 years in prison for burglary in the third degree. Earlier in two separate trials Stringfield has been given sentences of 12 to 20 years on similar charges.

In a trial that covered most of two days a jury found Jerry McDonald guilty of robbery. Judge J.H. McCardi sentenced McDonald to 5 to 6 years in prison.

Gregg Hamrick was given a three year suspended sentence after entering a guilty plea to attempt to commit a felony. He had been indicted to receiving, concealing and disposing of stolen property.

William E. Norman and Charles Henkins entered guilty pleas to charges of larceny. They were given 11 month and 29 day sentences. Norman, who is already serving 11-29 on another charge had his term suspended upon completion of the current term with payment of court costs.

Gregg Barber entered pleas to petit larceny and was given terms of one to three years and three to three years in prison.

$22,500 Still Needed By UF

An additional $22,500 was contributed or pledged to the Loudon County United Fund Campaign during the past week. Division chairman of the UF campaign reported the pledges Monday at the weekly report session at Loudon High School. The additional funds brings the total for the campaign to $36,314.41 which is 82 percent of the goal of $39,027.

Campaign Chairman Bob Smith reported that three additional industrial reports were primarily responsible for the activity. Eaton Corporation reported a total of $2,897.41 with that campaign not completed. Marmont Corporation, who had previously announced $2,617 in pledges added another $1,071 to that figure making their total to date $6,598. Paul Titus of Union Carbide in Loudon announced that the campaign at that plant was just underway but a $1,000 pledge from the firm was reported Monday.

Loudon City business and residential added $621 and $34,500 respectively. Loudon business reported another $122, bringing their total to $739 and Loudon residential grew by $81 to $315.

The two Bacon Company contributors to the fund announced their campaign was in arrears.

To date there have been no reports from Philadelphia, Greentack or Eaton-Dixie Lee.

Chairman Smith said, "We are on the downhill side of the plant and want to complete our work to keep from going into arrears. There is still a lot of work to be done and I hope we will all give the effort that is needed to successfully complete the job we have taken on."

Nancy Headlee Named To Parenthood Board

Mrs. Nancy Headlee of Loudon was named to the Board of Directors of Planned Parenthood Association of the Southern Mountains, Inc. (PPASM) at the agency's annual meeting held recently in Oak Ridge.

Mrs. Headlee is a second grade teacher at Eaton Elementary School. She is an active member of Loudon United Methodist Church where she and her husband Edward serve as Youth Coordinators. Newly-elected Board president Joe Mitchell said, "We are extremely pleased that Nancy Headlee has joined our current Board member Jake Smith of Lenoir City to represent Loudon County in our agency. Her energy and her concern to help make every child a wanted child will serve the cause of family planning well."

PPASM is a private, non-profit health organization which provides family planning services and information to the counties of Loudon, Roanoke, Blount, Morgan, Anderson, Campbell and Scott. Volunteers keep the Lenoir City office open daily at 401 W. Broadway. Main offices are in Oak Ridge.

Singing services will be held Saturday, October 30 at Riverview Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Tommy Bowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowden of Louisville, Ky., celebrated his sixth birthday on October 20. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. M.D. Bowden of Lenoir City and Mrs. Frank Roberts of Loudon.

GOOD OLD DAYS

In going through our files, as we do when we can find the time, we came across some pictures that we failed to obtain identification for. With the passing of time, it has slipped our mind as to what person they came from. So, as we have done in the past, we are asking for the help of our readers in identifying them.

Over the years people have loaned us pictures of family, school, church groups as well as scenes from our area. Of course, as is indicated by our request, we forgot to write the names down or in some cases the lender didn't know who they were or what group or locality they were made in.

One of our pictures this week was taken in Loudoun many years ago. It is a picture of three young people on the front porch of a Loudoun home. Who they are or where it was, we have no idea. Please help us if you can.

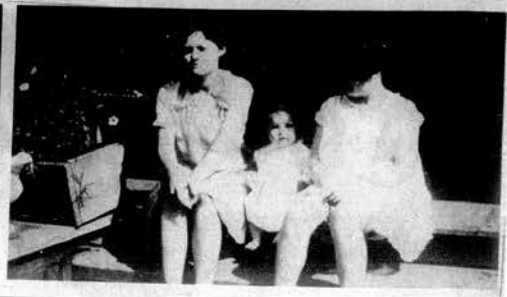

Our other picture is also one we can't identify. It is greatly appreciated when our readers come through for us in these perplexing matters. One thing about this old picture is the 1933 or 1934 Plymouth and the old tinney trailer look fairly new, so it must have been taken in the 30's. Let us know if you recognize it.

With all the coming election activity (possibly the most active in many years), we recall some of the hot contests we have seen over the years.

Possibly the thing other than the speaker platform which used to be built for the political orators in the Loudoun Courthouse Yard, that created the most interest was the election bots. In some cases they gained state wide publicity. They included wheel barrow rides, peanuts

We recall the elections before voting machines, radio and television and other modern means of vote tabulation. Large numbers of interested Loudoun County people would gather at the Loudoun Courthouse. Someone in the courtroom, where the vote counters were gathered, would yell out the windows who was winning as each poll ballot boxes were opened. The crowds would linger to till midnight or later before they left for home assured their candidate had won or lost.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Banks To Close For Nov. 2 Election

All banks in Loudoun County will be closed all day Election day, Tuesday, November 2, it was announced this week.

RADIO WINNER SELECTED—Loudoun County Fraternal Order of Police President Vord Carruth holds a box of tickets as his daughter Giner, held by another daughter, Gina draws the winner of a Citizens Band Radio given by the FOP in a fund raising project. Winner of the radio was Harvey Sproul of Lenoir City. The FOP raised some $800 for their Scholarship Fund in the drive. A $500 scholarship will be awarded annually by the FOP to a deserving student going into law enforcement.

TENNESSEANS HAVE THE RIGHT TO REQUIRE A LIMIT ON EXCESSIVE GOVERNMENT SPENDING...

Government should live within the income we provide it just as we must live within our income as ordinary citizens.

"Our tax dollars being wasted in Nashville and millions more of our dollars being held in Nashville as "surplus" ought to be in the pockets of Tennesseans where they can help families meet real and necessary expenses."

Jim Melton has proposed legislation to help the families of Tennessee. A "Sunset Law" will help. "If Government programs no longer work for Tennessee or don't help Tennesseans, those programs ought to be eliminated."

Steve Watkins Plays Major Offensive Role

Loudon Claims Unbeaten Rebel Scalps In 21-0 Homecoming Victory

The Loudon Redskins are on the rebound. Coach Bert Rathledge's troops provided the Homecoming treat of the season last Friday night by handing previously unbeaten and state ranked Maryville a 21-0 defeat. The loss was the Red Rebels' first defeat since Loudon carved out an overtime win over them in the Class AA semi-final round of last year's play-offs.

Loudon, a 14-12 loser to Harriman, used the game to spring board back into the current Class AA play-off picture. The prestigious win was the Redskins' 22nd in their last 34 games and gives them a 6-1 season record to date with a November 5th game left at Goodlettsville.

The possibility of a third straight play-off berth remains alive at this writing and will probably not be decided definitely until after the next two weeks of the regular season are complete.

Coach Bert Rathledge, after scouting Maryville personally two weeks ago at Maryville Everett, outlined to this writer his opinion as to the chance of a Redskins victory.

The long time Redskin boss emphasized the return of key defensive personnel from the injury list. A determined effort by the entire Loudon team with the offensive and defensive line shouldering the pressure to give a first rate game performance. The outline sounded easy. The eventual task was not.

The Redskins preparation for the Rebels was intense. The coaches labored many hours in settling on just the right sequence of offensive and defensive ideas. The players practiced with determination.

Finally Friday night held the answers. The impressive Maryville team with a near 75 man squad displayed a equal and determined for the taste of victory.

A Maryville win would eliminate any possibility of a Loudon return to the play-offs this fall and would assure the Rebels a first round Region One berth.

Loudon's pre-game spirit was not impressive. The Redskins were almost non-emotional. The packed house of Loudon and Maryville grid fans were at their height in excitement for what each hoped would be a victory for their team.

Coach Bert Rathledge took his team to the dressing room while senior Debbie Yates was announced as the 1976 Homecoming Queen. His final words were not of a last minute play or caution to any segment of the game, but he simply looked his players in the eye and calmly noted that the Maryville team would have to be dealt with if Loudon was to stand a chance at the play-offs.

The team responded with the adrenin following freely. Maryville won the coin toss and chose to receive. Loudon's defense gladly accepting the challenge. Maryville was checked for two yards in three plays with senior Sam Thayer applying a two yard loss with a strong third down tackle.

The Rebels punt and displayed a defensive fortress of their own in forcing a Loudon punt.

David Black, getting the punting nod for this game responded with the best kicking effort since Sam Lyle graduated in 1974-75. The junior defensive back boomed out a 32.2 average in four punts with only a three yard return for the entire night turned in by the Maryville return men.

Maryville started their offense for a second time, following a tremendous individual punt coverage effort by Loudon's Mark Moore who not only made the tackle but was clipped in an effort to slow the ball to the ball carrier.

The penalty gave the Rebels the ball at their own 19. But Maryville backfield to spill the Rebel offense for a five yard loss and Loudon took charge with 10:46 to play in the first half.

The Redskins advanced the ball to their own 21 before punting a second time. But given its best and strongest bid to control the game on the previous offensive march. The Loudon defense would now set the tempo for the Red Rebel play.

Maryville would gain but five more first downs in the entire ball game and only once would they enter Loudon territory again. This time coming with a 21-0 score on the board and just 3:44 to play.

The Rebels reached the Loudon 20, but back to back defensive sacks by Dennis Stewart and Sam Stewart left the Rebels dumb-founded at the Loudon 41.

The Red Rebels highly touted senior fullback and linebacker Danny Spradlin was limited to his worst individual showing in two seasons with only 43 yards rushing to his credit which still doubled anything else added by his fellow offensive running backs.

A tree cutting tackle by Loudon's gummy Freddie Starritt made Maryville punt from their own 46 with 7:16 left in the first half.

Loudon was stationed at their own 30. Greg Deatridge wedged his way for three yards. A most unsuspecting razzel-dazzel maneuver from the usually conservative Coach Rathledge saw sophomore Steve Watkins on the final end of a double hand-off end around reverse. The hard playing Watkins not only gave the Redskins their first initial first down of the night but scampered 36 yards to the Maryville 34. Senior Greg Deatridge did not give the Rebel defense a chance to regain their composure as he

DEFENSIVE STANDOUT AT WORK—Loudon senior defensive end Sam Stewart (86) returned from a two game absence with a knee injury to account for 14 tackles. On this fourth quarter sack of Maryville quarterback Mike Phillips (9), Stewart simply buried the Rebel back to the ground in one of the top defensive efforts of the night.

WATKINS SHINES IN WIN OVER MARYVILLE—Loudon sophomore Steve Watkins carried the football only three times last Friday night but his presence in the yards rushing on his three calls for the evening with his first going for a 36 yard end-around sprint good for 36 yards and set up Loudon's first touchdown. His last dash, a 50 yard broken field dandy, accounted for Loudon's third touchdown of the night. Here he flees the line of scrimmage on the 50 yard jump off a block by senior Steve Lyle (77).

TOUGH RECEPTION—Loudon senior flanker Conway Dukes (8) jumps to his knees in an attempt to haul in this Greg Deatridge aerial in a clutch yardage situation against Maryville last Friday night. Dukes made one catch in the game for 14 yards.

1976 HOMECOMING CROWN FOR DEBBIE—Loudon senior Debbie Yates is the center of attraction as she receives her 1976 Loudon High School Homecoming crown from the 1975 reigning queen Debbie Thompson. Debbie's escort, brother Mike, gives an approving look of the activities.

HEADING FOR PAYDIRT—Loudon junior running back Freddie Starritt (22) out distances two Maryville defensive players in turning the corner and racing untouched for Loudon's second touchdown in the Redskins 21-0 conquest of previously unbeaten Maryville. Starritt had 69 yards rushing in just five carries.

CALLING THE DEFENSIVE STRATEGY—Loudon Assistant football coach Henry Blackburn discusses defensive strategy to be employed by the Loudon Redskins during a timeout last Friday night against unbeaten Rebel (62) receives the coaching instructions from Coach Blackburn as the Loudon defense was in peak performance, shutting out the Rebels offense as Loudon won 21-0.

ELUDES REBEL TACKLER—Loudon's Greg Deatridge (17) who scored Loudon's first touchdown on a one yard sneak, shakes free of a Maryville tackler while looking down field to find his blocking. Deatridge legged the ball on 14 occasions for 54 yards in the exciting grid match between two of the state's top powers.

FOURTH QUARTER CHEW—Loudon head football coach Bert Rathledge consumes only his third piece of gum as the Redskins bounced back from their lone loss of the season to hand unbeaten and highly ranked Maryville a convincing 21-0 defeat.

Greenback Celebrates Homecoming By Roasting Harrison Chilhowee 41-24

Greenback did all their scoring in the first and third quarters while Harrison Chilhowee crossed the double stripes once each in the second, third and fourth periods.

Greenback was in complete command of the game, cashing in touchdown drives on their first three offensive possessions of the game. Reserves were used through out the final 30 minutes of remaining action.

LANGFORD STICKS HC RUNNER—Greenback eighth grader Rickey Langford (14), who will be a prime candidate to fill the quarterbacking chores next fall when stock of this Harrison Chilhowee ball carrier, shows he also is a hitter on defense as he makes a tough Carver (60) and David Morgan.

Greenback held the Lions following the opening kickoff-off and then from the 47 gained 19 yards from Mitch Smith on the first snap of the ball. An illegal procedure penalty wiped off the effort and Greenback started again. This time Roddy Kizer, Mitch Smith, and two runs by Danny Dotson carried 30 yards gave the Cherokees their first points with 7:30 on the first quarter. Greenback's Roddy Kizer made the first of six straight conversion placements.

Harrison Chilhowee was forced to punt for a second time as the first team Cherokee defense was just too tough to move.

Greenback with mid-field positioning drove 32 yards in four plays as fullback Danny Dotson was misplayed. The senior had dashes of five, 18, around a 13 yard carry by Mitch Smith. Dotson scored from the 14 with 3:30 left in the initial period.

Harrison Chilhowee enjoyed the ball but 37 seconds when pass with 3:44 to play in the half with a two point conversion pass also being completed.

Greenback quickly mounted an offensive march to the Lions' eight yard line and appeared to have tallied a touchdown on the final play of the half with Roddy Kizer connecting with Rucker in the end zone. The play was ruled no good as Kizer misjudged the line of scrimmage on his roll out pass. Thus ending the half with Greenback on top 21-8.

Smith returned the second half kickoff for 29 yards and Greenback's first offensive continued to roll as Kizer connected with Rucker for 29 yards from scrimmage and Smith collected 19 of tackle to the Harrison Chilhowee three. Kizer passed Chris Blair for the touchdown with 10:25 on the third period clock.

The Lions lost two yards in three plays and punted 24 yards to their own 39. Kizer threaded the needle to Rucker on second down for a 30 yard scoring bomb and the Cherokees were up by 35-8 and 7:28 to play in the third stanza.

Harrison Chilhowee was quick to answer back with a big play score of their own going 61 yards from scrimmage. The run for the first version was also good. Still 6-38 remained in the offensive mind control.

Greenback was forced to punt their lone punt of the night on the next series. Harrison Chilhowee was right to their own 16 and finally punted the ball from their own seven as the Greenback defense was dominant.

A weak 21 yard punt left the Cherokees at the 29 and Dotson gained 14 for a first down and Smith ran the rest for the score with 1:46 left in the third quarter.

The Lions added a pair of first downs but Mike Raines came up with another stan-

STRUTTING DOWN THE FIELD—Greenback senior fullback and linebacker Danny Dotson (32) who rushed for 94 yards in seven carries against Harrison Chilhowee last Friday night and scored two touchdowns puts the Cherokees on the board early with this 26 yard run. Greenback quarterback Roddy Kizer (12) is also pictured.

dot tackle and Glenn Quillen ended all doubt of a Harrison Chilhowee score with a pass interception at the seven. Quillen returned the ball to the 36 for a 29 yard advancement.

Stanley Breazale, Ken Snodgrass, and Rickey Langford controlled the ball for the Greenback offense for the next 3:14 but was finally stalled at the Lions' 23.

Harrison Chilhowee again went to the air and from the 42 connected on a 52 yard scoring pass with 2:37 to play in the game.

Langford boomed up his arm on Greenback's final offensive series of the night connecting with Rucker and Quillen for 31 yards before running out of downs.

Harrison Chilhowee exhausted the final 52 seconds of the game with Mitch Smith intercepting a pass at the final horn.

Greenback had 513 yards of total offense with Danny Dotson logging 94 yards in seven carries. Mitch Smith had 79 yards running and Roddy Kizer 87 on five snaps.

Lynn Rucker caught three passes for 117 yards and Chris Blair had 56 yards on two catches. Glenn Quillen made it 219 yards through the air with three catches for 31 yards.

Tony Arnold, Chris Blair and Mike Raines were the team leaders on their sixth game of the season.

Loudon Declines Bowl Inquires

Thursday Night Football Games Draw Loudon Interests

Should Loudon not make the playoffs but still have a seven game victory record, suitable for bowl bids, they would not accept the offers.

Coch Bert Ratledge stated he had already received two very nice and respectable offers on the hopes Loudon would be interested in a bowl game some where in the state.

Ratledge says no. "It's too much of a let down to go to the bowl after two straight trips to the playoffs when maybe you

Spook 100 Final Run For Atomic

Drivers will be battling for a $1,000 first prize when late model sportsman racing returns to Atomic Speedway Sunday afternoon.

Highlighting the competition will be a 100-lap affair for the sportsman drivers. Action begins at 6 o'clock with time trials to determine the starting lineup. Tickets are $5 (reserved) and $4.50 (general admission).

Also on the menu will be a 25-lap run for Class A cars and a 20-lapper for the bomber division.

The Atomic regulars will be tested by a new invader from the Midwest.

Ed Singer, Iowa State Sportsman champion from Waterloo, will be in a Camaro. Ed is a past winner of the World Dirt Track championship race held each year in Iowa. Ed also builds race cars to sell in addition to those in which he has become one of the top winners in the Midwest.

Georgia drivers Doug Kesinger, Judy Kidney and Snooks Deor also likely will be in the lineup.

Two of the pre-race favorites will be Charles Hughes, another Peach State flash, and Knoxville's J.E. Vineyard. They are the two winners at the speedway this year.

Since all other facilities in East Tennessee and North Georgia have closed for the season, one of the largest fields ever is anticipated, according to Bob Martin.

PeeWee HC Planned For Saturday

The Loudon Quarterback Club will sponsor its first Homecoming activities Saturday, October 30 when Loudon is host to Lamar City Pee Wee Football team.

A Homecoming parade, which will feature the homecoming queen, will begin at 3 p.m. The parade will line up on Carter Street, proceed down Highway 11, turn left at The Joe Jewellers on to the old high school field.

The Homecoming Queen candidates will be presented and the Queen announced between the Grasscutter and Mustangs games. Candidates for the first homecoming event are Tammy Hughes, representing the Grasscutters, Karen Martin of the Grasscutters, Patty Brown of the Mustangs and Sandra Winkle of the Indians.

Contest Has Close Entries

Two families who are regular entrants in the Herald Football Contest, came up with two winners last week.

Nell Watkins, R. L. Loudon and Jackie Elder of Highland Avenue, each had 10 figures correct, the only one to hit place cash of $22 because of the tie-breaker. She had 20 points (21 would have been perfect with Loudon). Sandra Winkle of the Mustangs, took the second place $8 award with 20 points.

TIGERS CRASH PANTHERS—A Rockwood linebacker moves up swiftly to fill the open hole that Lenoir City quarterback Richard Vest (12) attempts to slide between in the Tigers 47-0 rout of the oft-beaten Panther gridgers.

ROCKWOOD TOUCHDOWN—Leroy Chatman, behind this block put on Lenoir City's Don Mabry, raced 35 yards for his first of two touchdowns in Rockwood's 47-0 victory Friday night.

Rockwood Claws Lenoir City 47-0 For Eighth Win

Rockwood, the number one ranked team in the Class A division, crushed Lenoir City last Friday night by the one-sided score of 47-0. The outclassed Panthers thus suffered their second such lopsided defeat of the season. They fell to Loudon 48-0. The defeat was Lenoir City's seventh of the season with a lone victory to their credit.

Six Tiger ball carriers supplied the scoring sparks as the Tigers offense moved at will while defensively keeping the Panthers deep in their own territory for the duration of the game.

Rockwood emptied the bench during the second half and used four quarterbacks after enjoying a 36-0 half-time advantage.

Lenoir City had two golden opportunities after the Panthers covered a couple of fumbles inside the Tiger 30 but didn't cash in. Lenoir City could not get that close again until the end of the game.

Scoring: Tony Bowling, 80 yard run; Terry Jordan kick; Leroy Chatman, 35 yard run; Mark Pemberton, 1 yard run; Jordan kick; Barry Evans, 42 yard run; Barry Evans, 42 yard run; Lenoir City's Don Mabry, 35 yards for his first of two touchdowns in Rockwood's 47-0 victory Friday night.

Lenoir City picked up 6 and were forced to punt at the beginning of the third quarter. Tony Chatman, on a halfback pass, found Barry Evans on the left side and the speedy receiver traveled 42 yards to paydirt. Jordan increased the lead to 33 with 8:40 showing in the third stanza.

Gary Fulmer intercepted a second down pass and returned the ball 13 yards to set up the next scoring drive at the 48-yard line.

Pemberton lost five and Chatman came in at quarterback and marched the Tigers to the goal with Leroy Chatman leading the left side of the line for the final yard.

The two teams exchanged the ball and a Panther fumble rolled into the hands of a Tiger at the Lenoir City 5. Jeff Cobb went all the way on the next give and the Tigers were through scoring on the Panthers after Jordan made the final two. Jordan's kick was blocked by Frank Underwood and the half ended one play later.

Hammontree Gets SAC-8 Honor

Hammontree

Carson-Newman defensive end and Tim Hammontree was picked as the South Atlantic Conference Defensive Player of the Week for his performance last Saturday in C.N.'s 27-0 win over Gardner-Webb.

Hammontree, an All Loudon County Selection and 1973 Greenback football standout on their Class A playoff team, made five solo tackles and helped on six others in addition to recovering two fumbles, the last setting up the Eagles go-ahead touchdown.

The winning TD was also produced by a former Greenback player, Hammontree's classmate Tony Linginfeller, the Eagles quarterback.

Harriman Catch Clinches Midget Football Title Over Loudon

Potter had 96 yards in 21 carries for the game. Lance Townsend, Jamie Goodsey, Stan Kiser, Jody Henson, and Tim Potter shared the defensive laurels for the game.

The Loudon Grasshoppers battled to a 0-0 first half at halftime but Harriman rallied in the second half with touchdowns runs of one, 80 and 70 yards sweep to a 22-0 final decision.

Troy Kiser rushed for 70 yards in 11 plays to stung the offense for the Loudon Grasshoppers. Archie Cosner, John Hutton, Robbie Palmer, and Bryan Padden played well on defense.

The Loudon Mustangs got touchdowns runs of one yard from Randy Campbell and a eight yard dash by Kevin White to post a 12-0 Mustang victory over the Harriman opponents.

Loudon was held scoreless in the first quarter but countered on Campbell's quarter sneak.

Kevin White, who rushed for 116 yards on 18 carries, added a second half, fourth period touchdown. Tim Lemox ran the ball for 42 yards in providing the Mustangs with a solid one-two offensive punch.

Sidney Locke, Reggie Brown, Coley Woody, Byron Cobble, and Jeff Singleton all treated on defense to limit Harriman to just four first downs in the game.

The main attraction of the night between the Loudon Indians and the older Harriman Midgets was every bit the exciting head knocker that was expected.

The once beaten Indians swapped offensive series with the unbeaten, unscored on finger tips of the intended receiver and hit the ground. The ball bounced directly back into the receivers arms. One referee on top of the play signaled incomplete pass, but was quickly over ruled by a second referee some 20 yards away from the play and so it was the pass ruled complete despite the protests and displeasure of the Loudon players, coaches and aggravated fans.

With a first down and goal at the Loudon one yard line the Harriman team plunged into the end zone with a last minute touchdown and a sudden 18-14 point difference.

Loudon managed just three plays before the game was complete and their bid to tie for the conference lead shattered.

Coach Buster Custard was not critical of the heart breaking circumstances but commended his team for their gallant team play. He said he had never experienced anything quite like the conditions for which his team had to play under in a game that stood so important in his 12 years of working in the Loudon Quarterback Club's Midget Football Program.

Hawkins had 83 yards in 12 carries and Billy Moore 31 in seven snaps to pace the Loudon rushing. Terry Hand's four defense dag in and prevented the try for the extra point with only 2:14 left in the game to hold a 14-12 scoring edge.

Harriman was successful in an onside kick recovery at the Loudon 46.

The young Blue Devils Midgets rushed for an 11 yard gain and then on the play of the night unshook a 33 yard passing effort that went off the

Loudon Claims Unbeaten Red Rebel Scals In 21-0 Homecoming Victory

 dashed up the middle for a 17 yard gain to the Red Rebel 17. Maryville threw Deathridge for a two yard loss back to the 19 and a pass to Conway Dukes was out of reach. Watkins was again a thorn to the Maryville defense on third down when he picked up for a first down. Deathridge for two, Freddie Starritt skipping for four and Deathridge slipping into the end zone from the Maryville one on a hole opening block by senior Bryan Curtis.

 Jim Brown's conversion was good and Loudon had the lead at 7-0 with 3:38 to play in the half. Maryville came back with a pair of first downs to place the ball at their own 42. An overthrown pass to a wide open receiver that spelled sure touchdown did little to damp up the spirits of the Maryville followers.

The Rebels decided to try again but Loudon had permitted all the opportunities for possible Maryville touchdowns on this night as Loudon defensive coordinator Henry Blackburn directed the Redskin approach to the Maryville offense.

Passing deep the Maryville quarterback was intercepted by senior Carter Cardwell at the Loudon 17 and just 1:17 left in the first half.

Playing conservative Loudon ran out the clock. The Redskins received the second half kickoff with Freddie Starritt hauling the ball back 25 yards to the Loudon 27.

The Redskins produced a first down but was soon stalled as second and third down passes were incomplete.

David Black punted to the Maryville 23. The Loudon defense pushed the Rebel offense all the way back to the 12 before allowing them to advance to the 29 and a fourth down punt.

Needing some insurance points the Redskins from their own 39 dispatched Fleet Freddie Starritt on a 48 foot race to the Maryville 13.

Junior Rolan and Steve Lyle opening the big hole in the Maryville defensive line.

Greg Deathridge gained five yards in two carries with just over six minutes to play in the third period.

Starritt, catching his breath, rounded right end and inside the end zone flag for eight yards and a touchdown dance in the Maryville end zone with 2:36 showing on the third quarter clock.

Jim Brown supplied the conversion kick. Maryville's offense barely got to clicking in a 12 yard pass completion at their own 42 when Loudon linebacker Mark Moore snatched the ball from the receiver and recovered for Loudon.

Loudon, trying to over come a 15 yard holding penalty, regained 14 yards on a tough catch by Conway Dukes. A fake punt on fourth down with Freddie Starritt attempting to run was spied when the junior running back slipped in the Loudon backfield for a six yard loss and Maryville took offensive possession as the third period came to an end.

Greg Deathridge intercepted a Maryville pass on the very first play of the fourth quarter and returned for 23 yards to the Loudon 47.

Deathridge was shaken up on one tackle and had to be reated by senior back-up field general Carter Cardwell. Cardwell wasted little time in introducing his skills as he bolted for eight yards right through the middle of the Maryville defense.

Pullback Mark Moore added a first down on a three yard buck and Cardwell followed the opening left by Junior Gary Brown for eight more yards to the Red Rebel 34.

Two five yard penalties and a six yard loss by Deathridge upon his return to the game set the stage for a left end run by sophomore Steve Watkins at the 50 yard line.

Watkins turned the corner on Sam Stewart's and Steve Lyle's blocking and then found the up field mow down Rebel would be tackled by center Bobby Moore and Mark Moore cut swiftly back across the grain to the Rebel 47.

Jim Brown again was perfect from the three yard line on the conversion and Loudon was in complete domination 21-0.

But the Redskin defense sought a total victory, shutting out the Red Rebel offense would be the lone satisfaction. Junior linebacker Dennis Stewart was in the Maryville backfield for a six yard sack.

Senior defensive end Sam Stewart fought off a double block to out race the sweeping Maryville quarterback to the corner and muscularly threw the Rebel field general to the ground for a 10 yard loss.

Maryville's offense wilted and the proud Redskin defensive troops slapped hands and congratulated each other on a stellar performance.

Loudon reeled off a first down on a 20 yard run by Moore and then punted the ball away as Maryville's reserve offense exhausted the clock against the worthy Loudon reserves in the final ticks of the game of "Champions".

Coach Bert Hallidge had completed praise for the fine Maryville team, but took time to honor his victorious squad and the superior job they had produced.

He also acknowledged the fine job by his fellow coaches in getting the Redskins ready to play their best game since winning the Class AA Championship at Murfreesboro last November.

Loudon was led effectively by the three runs of Steve Watkins, totaling 88 yards and all instrumental in the actual scoring or eventual score of a Loudon touchdown.

Freddie Starritt had 69 yards in five snaps and Greg Deathridge rambled for 34 yards. Mark Moore added 21 yards and Carter Cardwell logged out 16 more as Loudon had 392 yards of total real estate.

Sam Stewart returned from a knee bruise that has sidelined him for nearly a month and made 14 tackles, eight unassisted.

Dennis Stewart was also in on 14 tackles and Freddie Starritt and Mark Moore had 12 and 11 take downs respectively.

Overall it was Loudon's best game and may well be the step off to what all Redskins hope to be a third straight return to the Class AA Playoffs.

HELPED FROM FIELD. Loudon football assistant coaches Larry Bridges (left) and David Clinton (right) help injured Steve Schrimpsper from the field as the junior suffers a shoulder injury. Schrimpsper was revived for more game duties, but was kept on the side lines to insure no further damage as Loudon was in full control of the battle, beating Maryville 21-0.

ANOTHER BATTLE VICTIM—Loudon quarterback Greg Deathridge had to be helped from the field by his coaches after being shaken up following a hard tackle. Greg was rested for only a few plays before re-entering the rugged football contest.

Walland First Team To Qualify For 1976 Playoffs

Walland High School, the defending Class A football champions, have become the first team in Tennessee to qualify for the first round of the 1976 TSSAA Football Playoff series.

Walland will represent Region 1 in Class A, Region 3 action and will not play again until Nov. 5 when they meet Hendersonville.

Gallatin belted Clarksville 44-4 last week in Class A, Region 3 action and will not play again until Nov. 5 when they meet Hendersonville.

Jackson Central-Merry used a 21-0 win over Covington to up its record to 9-0 in Class A, Region 4. Jackson Central-Merry, with 9-0 play-off points, meets a tough Memphis University School club this week.

Brentwood Academy beat Hickman County 40-6 in Class A, Region 3 action last week. Brentwood is 9-0 with 90 play-off points and tangles with Goodlettsville this Friday.

Watertown pulled a mild upset last week as they blanked Gordonville 21-0. Watertown now meets Nashville Christian this week in Class A, Region 3 action.

Watertown is undefeated in nine games and has 80 play-off points.

Oak Ridge (8-0) took over the lead in Class AAA, Region 1 with 80 play-off points. Carter (8-0) was off last week and is in second with 74 points.

Rogersville (8-0) used a win over Powell Valley to jump atop the Class AA Region 1 standings. Rule and Maryville, both with 7-1 records, are tied for second with 70 play-off points.

Rogersville has 74 play-off points.

Milan fell from the ranks of the undefeated as Marlin AA, Region 4 lead with a 7-1 record and 74 play-off points.

Westview upset them 27-6. Mitchell, with a 6-2 win over Sheffield, took over the Class AA, Region 4 lead with a 7-1 record and 74 play-off points.

Passing deep the Maryville quarterback was intercepted by senior Carter Cardwell at the Loudon 17 and just 1:17 left in the first half.

A GUIDE FOR THE UNDECIDED VOTER.

This is a guide to the records of John Duncan and Mike Rowland on various important issues. It should help you to decide who to vote for as your Congressman from the Second District. Because, ultimately, the candidate for whom you cast your vote must be the one who most closely shares your beliefs—and acts on them.

THE ISSUE: SUPPORT FOR A STATE INCOME TAX.	Congressman Duncan does not support a state income tax. Mr. Rowland does.
THE ISSUE: REGISTRATION OF CITIZENS' FIREARMS.	Congressman Duncan opposes gun registration. Mr. Rowland favors it.
THE ISSUE: PAY RAISES FOR LEGISLATORS.	Congressman Duncan voted against a pay raise for legislators. When, however, the pay raise for congressmen was approved, Mr. Duncan took his entire increase and gave college scholarships to five deserving students. Mr. Rowland favors pay increases for legislators.
THE ISSUE: LESSENING THE PENALTIES FOR CONVICTED DRUG PUSHERS.	Congressman Duncan says No. Mr. Rowland says Yes.
THE ISSUE: GREATER GOVERNMENTAL CONTROL OF PRIVATE CITIZENS' LIVES.	Congressman Duncan opposes greater governmental control of our lives. Mr. Rowland favors it.
THE ISSUE: PRAYER IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.	Congressman Duncan favors prayer in the public schools and voted for the School Prayer Amendment. Mr. Rowland opposes prayer in the public schools. In a letter to Congressman Duncan, sent in November 1971, Mr. Rowland wrote, "I strongly urge you to vote against the so-called School Prayer Amendment to the U.S. Constitution which is pending in the House of Representatives."
THE ISSUE: THE BUSING OF SCHOOL CHILDREN.	Congressman Duncan opposes busing. Mr. Rowland favors it.

Inserted and paid for by Duncan for Congress Committee, Margaret Garrison, Treasurer. A copy of our report is filed with the Federal Election Commission and is available for purchase from the Federal Election Commission, Washington, D.C.

I have served with Benny Stafford for 6 years in the House of Representatives and in a Republican leadership capacity for the past 2 years.

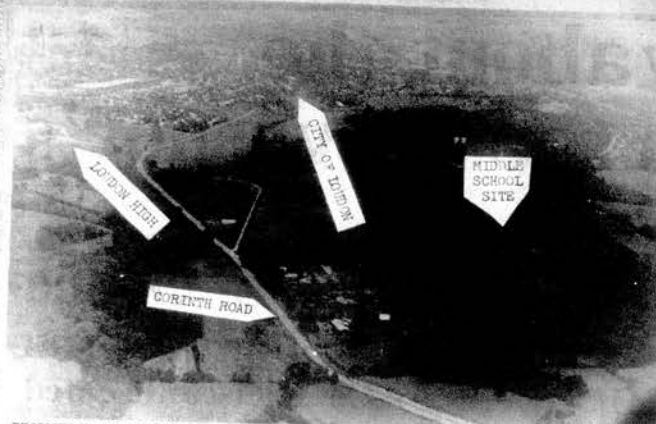

Benny is a person every Republican in the Caucus has reason to respect because of his ability and his concern for problems of the members of the Republican Caucus, in general, as well as for the Republican problems over the entire state. We have never called on Benny for assistance, for information, or for just moral support that he didn't give it to us.

In regard to his actions on the floor of the House, Benny is a person who prepares himself before the vote, then votes upon his information and his convictions and is not a person to vote upon a whim or at someone else's direction.

I wholeheartedly endorse Benny Stafford.

 defer any rebuttal until the item is on the agenda. Sessions also carried petitions signed by some 500 persons, he said, which opposed any action that would place a landfill in the community. He said he would also keep the petitions until the commission was officially asked to act on the proposal should it come.
 Three rezoning requests on the agenda were approved for recommendation to the county court.
 A request to rezone a 10 acre parcel from residential to commercial by Tom Williams was approved. Williams said the land was located on U.S. 11 across from the Farmers Cooperative warehouse and near Carter Lumber Company. He had said earlier he is working on a shopping center development at the site.
 A rezoning from agriculture to commercial was approved at the request of the Bank of Loudon County on property owned by Marjorie Stooksbury for the construction of a billboard for the bank on Highway 72.

 A similar rezoning on property owned by John Cardwell which required a zoning change from rural residential to manufacturing was also approved.
 Planner Campbell told the Commission he was starting to work on an Industrial Development Study for the county. "There is a long list of activity and talk about industrial development in the county, but one thing that is needed is a study which puts the entire effort on paper," he said.
 He stated that with the cooperation of the cities of Loudon, Lenoir, City, Greenback, Philadelphia and the county, he was putting all information on industrial development together in a study. The three parts of the study cover industrial sites, industrial policy and industrial recruitment. The study is being coordinated through the state agencies which relate to industrial development. Campbell mentioned the investment of some $2.5 million in industrial parks in the county. He said the study will be a tool that will give direction to the overall program and be helpful in formulating a stronger recruitment program.

 County Road Engineer Tom Davis reported that TVA was paving new roads in the Tellico reservoir area from US 411 to Bakers Creek and were placing stone on Sinking Creek Road to Highway 96 with hopes of having it paved by mid-November. He said that other work on the Tellico Parkway was being limited to the Third District because that is the portion that must be ready when TVA fills the lake early next year if the schedule holds. The other sections of the parkway will be at least a year away he said.
 Davis also said that the pre-construction conference on the Muddy Creek Road v-ns held Wednesday of this week and that project was now ready to get underway.

 The Commission went on record favoring an application by the Soil Conservation District to the federal government for a $740,000 grant to develop a recreation and nature study area at the Air National Guard West Camp, which is now operated by the County and Auxiliary Police as a County Park. develop a public park at Greenback, need 65 acres of road banks, and reclaim 200 acres of surface mine land in the county.
 The program is based on providing employment in high unemployment areas and Planner Campbell said that the unemployment rate in Loudon County is so low that it is doubtful the application will be approved and funded, but it is possible if it can be shown that unemployed in other counties are looking to Loudon County for employment it may stand some chance.

We Need Benny Stafford

in Nashville, BECAUSE...

- 1) He is responsive to the needs of the people of this district. He talks to and listens to the people concerning critical issues that affect his district.
- 2) He believes in sound fiscal responsibility. He is in favor of eliminating costly programs within state government that are a tax drain on the people and are not rendering services equal to the amount of money spent.
- 3) He is opposed to the State Income Tax, the Severance Tax, and the Commercial Lease Tax because these taxes would place greater burdens on the taxpayers of this district. The State Income Tax would be in addition to the present sales tax. The Severance Tax would drive up the cost of electricity. The Commercial Lease Tax would affect industry coming into the state.
- 4) He support agriculture as a major industry in Tennessee. He has served on the House Agriculture Committee for the past six years and has opposed all legislation that would affect the farmers. He understands the problems involved because he grew up on a working farm.
- 5) He takes a strong stand for law and order. He favors a strong capital punishment law. He supports stronger drug abuse legislation with a mandatory sentence for the drug pusher. He favors legislation for more assistance to the law enforcement agencies. He is working to clarify and strengthen our child abuse laws.
- 6) He is against government bureaucracy. He has voted against all legislation that would create new agencies in state government. He has opposed all increases in state commissions. He believes that people fare better with less government intervention and that state government should do for the people what the people cannot do for themselves.
- 7) As a businessman, he understands the problems that government red tape imposes on small businesses. The businessman is faced with numerous reports that he must file to satisfy the demands imposed on him by state government, and most of his profits are eaten up by the many different types of taxes that he is compelled to pay. Benny Stafford believes and will sponsor legislation that will exempt the first $5,000 of income from the Business Tax Act.
- 8) He understands the problems faced by senior citizens. He believes that all senior citizens should be exempt from paying property taxes on their homes. He supports a change in the Inheritance Tax laws that would be fairer to the surviving spouse. He believes that the state should provide free legal service for our senior citizens.
- 9) He believes in equal education for every child. He feels that the same curriculum should be offered to every child regardless of which school system he attends. He believes in quality education at all levels.
- 10) He is qualified, experienced, and dedicated.

Eddie Tom SMITH

My wife, Sarah, and I were in the class of '59 at Lenoir City High School. We married during my senior year at Carson-Newman College, a few months before I earned a degree in sociology.

Now we're buying an old house on Hill Street in Lenoir City. Our children—Amanda, Lee, Mary Beth and Reed—attend Lenoir City schools. And we're within walking distance of our church—the First Baptist.

my work

My work has helped to shape who I am. Since college I've been fortunate in finding positions which require that I meet many people and—what's more important—listen closely to what they have to say.

In juvenile probation work, in community development programs, and now, working with vocational rehabilitation, I have found listening to be the essential ingredient. When I listen I often discover that people already know what can improve their situations. Hearing them, I can begin to work with them toward their goals.

my special interest

My special interest is people—the day to day life of our district, the challenges of maintaining a home, the responsibilities of raising and educating children. I promote government that shuns waste and focuses on the circumstances of the average citizen.

I am particularly concerned by a lack of communication between the people and their representative. When elected I will continue newspaper columns, discussing issues and current legislation. I hope to establish regularly-scheduled public meetings. A representative, I think you'll agree, has a responsibility to keep in touch.

Our state constitution requires an election every two years. That is the strength of our democracy. Every two years, you have a choice.

Let Me Set The Record Straight!

I am aware that the people of Loudon are being told that I, representing the local Loudon County Education Association at the T.E.A. interviews of senatorial candidates Brock and Sasser, voted for the endorsement of Sasser.

The Facts Are:

I did represent the local association at the interviews. I was asked, as vice-president of the association, to do so since neither our president nor the Chairman of the Political Action Committee could attend. I did not have a vote and I did not cast a vote. Only the Political Action Chairman could vote. I was there not as a participant but as an observer to bring back a report to our local association since this is the first time the TEA has considered political endorsements.

I would not be distressed if what is being said were true. What does distress me is that biased political influence is being used to sway voters in a race that is supposed to be non-partisan, non-political. These tactics even include the removal of most of my campaign posters within two days after they were placed in the Loudon area.

I trust that the people of Loudon would choose to be represented by a person who is honest, fair, unbiased and open-minded. If these are the qualities you seek in your public officials, I solicit your vote because these are the qualities to which I am dedicated.

I would appreciate the opportunity to represent you in this capacity.

Ashe Calls Blanton Administration Corrupt

State Senator Victor Ashe told the 70 persons attending a Republican Prayer Breakfast in Loudon Saturday morning that the administration of Governor Ray Blanton may be the most corrupt in the history of the state.

The remarks by Ashe followed headlines Saturday morning that the FBI has confiscated records from Blanton's legal counsel and the department of corrections concerning paroles and executive clemency. The same papers reported the indictment of four Blanton administration officials including transportation commissioner Eddie Shaw in the state surplus car scandal.

As he called for the election of Republicans to help take action to get corruption out of government.

Loudon County Judge William Russell was the master of ceremonies for the 7:30 a.m. breakfast. Musical entertainment was provided by Jenni Cusick. Scripture reading was by Jimmy Duncan, son of Congressman John Duncan. Prayer at the meeting was offered by Rev. W. H. Rainwater, Rev. Raymond McLuskins, Rev. Charles Redmond and Rev. Billy Joe McCown.

Bailey In

"Bonded Item"

Marine Sergeant E. M. Bailey, whose wife Glenda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Schrimsher of Route 1, Philadelphia, participated in exercise "Bonded Item" in the North Sea.

The primary objective of the exercise was to evaluate and enhance the Allied capabilities for amphibious support for Northern Western Europe.

Participating units evaluated increased standardization of doctrine, equipment and armaments among NATO forces, plus command and control procedures for coordinated action by NATO sea, land and air forces.

It is one of a series of operations, conducted each fall from Norway to Turkey, designed to provide unified and coordinated training of national and NATO forces within the Allied Europe Command.

A former student of Vonore High School, Vonore, he joined the Marine Corps in June 1968.

Senator Bill Brock

He's the one man in Washington who knows who pays the bills.
If Government can solve all our problems by spending... then why are our problems getting worse?

IT CERTAINLY ISN'T BECAUSE WE HAVEN'T GIVEN BIG GOVERNMENT EVERY OPPORTUNITY

- 2,862,468 federal employees are on the government payrolls....
- 1 out of every 6 Americans in the labor force works for some arm of government....
- Every first $1000 of a family of 4 goes for the salaries of these people....
- The federal government is spending a half million dollars a minute every day, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year....
- In order to pay the total bill, the average American actually works from July 15 through Christmas just for the government.

Who's going to pay the bills? You are!

Senator Bill Brock has done a lot for Tennessee. Legislation which he has written or supported has helped maintain a strong national defense, guaranteed that the same rules for granting credit apply to both men and women, worked for total reform and strengthening of the Social Security system, helped reduce the tax burden on small farmers, and with his Budget Reform Act will save every family in Tennessee an average of $300 this year.

WHAT'S WORSE IS NOW THE LIBERAL WING HAS TAKEN CONTROL OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN TENNESSEE

- Their candidate for the U.S. Senate has endorsed a platform that will add another $105 billion the first year to this unbelievable spending of YOUR money....
- Their candidate's new give away scheme will cost the average Tennessee family $2000 per year in additional taxes....
- Their candidate supports compulsory National Health Insurance which would cost every family in Tennessee another $1200 per year....
- Their candidate has supported the Humphrey-Hawkins bill, a massive government employment program. If passed, it would cost every family $200 the first year alone....

Vote for Bill Brock on Nov. 2, you can't afford not to.

Paid For by Citizens for Senator Brock, an authorized committee, C. LeRoy Norton, Jr., Treasurer.

It's time we had a senator who is not above the problems of the poor, the sick, the elderly and the working people.

For too long, Washington has listened to the wealthy, the big business lobbyists, and the power hungry politicians. It's time we had a senator who sees the role of government from the people's point of view... and not through the eyes of a millionaire. Jim Sasser knows what it's like to work hard for a living, struggling to make ends meet against inflation. He knows the severe hardships faced by the poor and the elderly trying to live on fixed incomes. And he thinks it's time Tennessee had a senator in Washington with the people's interests at heart, instead of party politics and personal gain. Let's send Jim Sasser to the Senate... and make our voice heard in Washington again.

Representation. In 1971, my opponent missed one out of every four votes in the Senate. You won't have to wonder where I am in Washington. When the Senate meets, I'll be there, with a vote for the people every time.

Federal Spending. Our government is spending one billion dollars every day, and is going into debt at the rate of one billion dollars a week. I'll work to cut the extravagant spending in government through definitive direction and planning in federal spending policy.

Education. There is simply no excuse for Tennessee ranking 47th in expenditure per pupil in education. My opponent voted against a bill providing $67 million for education in Tennessee. I think it's time we had a senator who understands the importance of a good education for our children.

Health Care. William F. Brock III has introduced legislation in Washington which could call for the phasing out of Medicare. The poor and the elderly should not be deprived of needed medical care, or face the fear of financial ruin when serious illness strikes. I will work for a health program that will make medical care available and affordable to everyone.

Taxes. The tax laws in this country can be summed up in one word—unfair. My opponent opposes paid less than four percent of his income in taxes last year. Like you, I paid more than 20 percent. It just doesn't make sense to me that the people who work the hardest for tax reform that will close those loopholes that benefit the wealthy at the expense of middle and lower-income families.

Energy. We are now importing 41 percent of the petroleum and oil products that are used in this nation. It is a national disaster that we have had to depend on foreign sources for as much as a single barrel of oil. We must have an energy policy that does not allow the oil companies to exploit the consumer for outrageous profits. And we must begin to research and develop alternative sources of energy so that we can become self-sufficient in energy.

Jobs. The recession has left 150,000 Tennesseans out of a job. I don't believe the eight million unemployed in America want a handout—they want a job and an opportunity to achieve. I'll work to promote the free enterprise system to ensure that we provide the necessary number of jobs for our people.

Agriculture. America's greatness rests ultimately on its capacity to feed and clothe its people. In the last few years, farmers have been encouraged to increase production, then the government has closed off markets and policy markets. We must have a food policy that gives farmers a guarantee of reasonable incomes and gives consumers a guarantee of reasonable prices.

Jim Sasser
 for your U.S. Senator

It's time Washington heard you.

14,020 Cars Registered In County

The number of cars in operation in Loudon County continues to increase, year by year, with no saturation point in sight.

As a result, the car density in the local area, as well as the number of two-car and three-car families is now greater than ever.

The latest published figures show that, as of the beginning of this year, there were more passenger cars locally, per 100 families, than in most communities.

On January 1st there were some 14,020 cars registered in the area. This was equivalent to 149 for every 100 local families. In the East South Central States, it was 146.

Despite the slowdown in auto production and sales during the recent recession, the number of cars on the nation's streets and highways is consistently greater than five years ago.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE candidate Eddie Tom Smith and Ann Rowland, wife of veteran and avid CF'er, who uses the handle of "Dr. Hadacol", at a Democratic reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Q.E. Richmond in Lenoir City Monday night. Smith and Mrs. Rowland were looking at the nine medals Hartline won in World War II, including the Bronze Star and Purple Heart.

Mrs. Carter Is DAR Hostess

Hivawsee Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution met Thursday, October 14 at the home of Mrs. Robert Carter, Green Acres, Loudon.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the flag, the American's Creed and a prayer by Miss Rachel Huff. Old and new business was discussed by the Regent, at which time she introduced the guests: Bob Roark and the Edmond McQueen of the T.V.A. Mr. McQueen is a representative of the Historical Society.

The program which followed was well presented by Mrs. Mary Anne Watson Johnson. Mrs. Johnson, playing the character of Molly Pitcher, a noted D.A.R. Patriot, was attired in period costume of the 18th Century. She sat rocking in a chair, retreating her past as no less a heroine. Among the least of her courage displayed was manning a gun that became vacant because of a fallen soldier. Some of the humorous jokes were that she did a little "cussing and chewing" as the men did.

Mrs. Carter, assisted by Mrs. Henri Richlin, joint hostess, served a delicious salad plate. Eighteen members and two visitors were present.

The records show that auto registrations in the United States are now over 106,625,000, which is 15,864,000 more than in 1971. It represents an increase of 8,700 cars per day over the five-year period.

The additional millions of cars, combined with more trucks, buses and other vehicles, is causing traffic jams and bumper-to-bumper driving, especially in urban areas. No relief is in view in the struggle for traveling and parking space.

Much of the increase in car ownership is attributed to the progressive movement of families from heavily-populated urban communities to the suburbs, where the automobile is the basic means of transportation.

The growing proportion of late model cars in and around Loudon County is a reflection of the rising purchasing power in the area. As family income risers, so does the number of cars in operation.

The net result is that auto registrations locally have increased from 9,100 to 14,020 in the last five years.

With more cars in use, more money is being spent annually for maintenance. The expenditures in the past year in local service stations for gas, oil, repairs and incidentals came to more than $4,643,000, as compared with the total that was spent five years earlier, $3,863,000.

"I believe every American has a right to decent medical care."

"I oppose the bill my opponent has introduced in the U.S. Senate which calls for the possible phasing out of Medicare and Medicaid. In its place, Americans would receive a tax credit on medical expenses that exceed 15% of their income. That's fine for the wealthy, but it deprives the poor, the sick and the elderly of their only hope for medical care."

"I believe that we have a responsibility to provide decent medical care for those who

Letters To The Editor

Editor:

I'm writing in response to the letter last week by Mr. Thos. S. Houston.

First of all, Mr. Houston, there is one war which you so inadvertently forgot to mention. In that war, there were over 529,000 Americans killed, more than the total killed in both World Wars combined. By not mentioning the War Between the States, you also forgot to mention that it was the very first Republican president in America who, as you say, "conducted" this war. If we are to accept the fallacy of blaming the Democrats for World Wars I and II, then the same logic applies to the Republicans for the Civil War.

As for WWI, it had been raging for three years and the U.S. had been neutral all the time until the German Government announced that they would torpedo any ship that entered British Ports. They subsequently sank the American ship "The Lusitania", killing 128 Americans.

I applaud the courage of President Wilson, a Democrat, for entering a war in which the German Government would not allow us to remain neutral, and for closely with Bruce, Together we can carry Loudon County for Jimmy Carter.

bringing a quick end to the war after our involvement. I'm very proud and thankful that President Roosevelt had the courage to enter WWII following the surprise attack by the Japanese on Pearl Harbor, which sank 18 ships and killed or wounded about 3,700 American. I'm equally proud and thankful that President Truman, again another Democrat, had the courage to shorten the war by dropping the first Atomic Bomb on Hiroshima.

The involvement in Korea was worthwhile in stopping the Communist aggression; there, although the question of our national security is suspect. This time I applaud President Eisenhower for putting a quick end to that conflict.

That brings us to the Vietnam War, I'm certainly not proud of this one, but don't blame the Democrats. It was Mr. Eisenhower who sent John Foster Dulles around the world making secret agreements and treaties with foreign countries, such as the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO), which obligated us to defend Southeast Asia from Communist aggression.

Just one more, you ask I hope not, but while we remember let's remember the facts. I'll take the Democrats, Mr. Houston, you can have the Republicans.

Sincerely yours,
Doug Stephens

Editor:

I believe this year has almost been a successful Bicentennial. Fourth of July was fun. We have continued to enjoy personal, religious, and political liberties. We have continued to have freedom to choose if and how we will serve our community and country from among many different forms.

One vital community service though is apparently being overlooked. That is the service of being a civilian soldier. For over a hundred years before 1776, American civilians trained, drilled, and provided their own provisions and frequently formed units to protect the Colonies. It was those "week-end warriors" that made the "Declaration of Independence" a reality.

In the early 1900's, young Harry Truman paid 25 cents a drill to belong to a local group that by then was called the National Guard. Today there is still a National Guard. In Oak Ridge, Tennessee, the National Guard unit, which I'm in, is the 120th Military Police Company. Like most units today, in Tennessee we pre-determined regulations. All the Senator or Congressman can do is have the law-maker's process, which, according to the Knoxville Social Security office, in no way affects the final outcome of the review but which, in fact, as often slows down a case as it speeds one up. This also takes more staff time, an additional cost to the taxpayer.

The record shows that Congressman Duncan voted against the act which set up the Medicare program (health insurance under Social Security for recipients over 65, and for the severely disabled) in 1965, and in 1976 for Resolution 218 of the budget which would have allowed a cost-of-living increase for retired persons on Social Security. Many of the programs, benefits, and resources available to the District for which Duncan now seems willing to take credit were in fact passed without his "yes" vote. Look carefully to the record, voters, and send to Congress a person who really cares about people as is shown by Mike Rowland's record in the state legislature.

I hope enough of us continue to care enough to give democracy to our children. To truly celebrate the spirit of '76, more Tennesseans need to voluntarily serve in the National Guard.

Tal Hooker

Dear Editor:

It seems that quite a few voters of the 2nd Congressional district think they owe their vote to Congressman Duncan because he "helped" them by "getting" Social Security for them, or giving a flag to the school where their children go, or arranging a breakfast, luncheon or some such for school children or other groups sightseeing in Washington.

The facts are, however, that the latter courtesies are arranged by staff whose salaries are paid by the taxpayer, the flags cost the taxpayer money not only for the flag itself but also for the cost of having it being made somehow more to be honored because it has flown for a flag pole over the capitol, thus requiring more tax money in wages for the person who runs the flag up and down the pole.

As to Social Security benefits, VA benefits, and other Federal programs of similar nature, the persons receiving these benefits have a legal right to them either by having earned them or by being disabled and thus qualifying under carefully pre-determined regulations. All the Senator or Congressman can do is have the law-maker's process, which, according to the Knoxville Social Security office, in no way affects the final outcome of the review but which, in fact, as often slows down a case as it speeds one up. This also takes more staff time, an additional cost to the taxpayer.

Delegate to STATE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION
21st District - General Election Nov. 2

"Marmi Hood Mairs - factual, informed, mature, concerned with YOUR interest, not special interests"

FACTS...

- 6 of the 13 items to be considered by the Convention deal with the legislative process, including the Governor's term of office, the length of time in which he may veto a bill and limitation of government spending by
- 2 items contain figure amounts which are no longer realistic: $1000 Homestead exemption from sale under legal process and 10% limitation of interest rates.
- In 1870 there were no credit cards, revolving charge accounts or time payment plans. Interest rates on these, frequently disguised as service charges, can be as high as 18%.
- Bank interest rates are controlled, not by banks or state government, but by policy set by the Federal Reserve Board in Washington. In competition with other states for investments and industrial expansion, Tennessee has been handicapped in the past by its own constitution.

Loudon County due to the East Tennessee Education Association meeting in Knoxville. We hope that parents will remember to let their children sleep late.

ELECTION DAY
 Tuesday, November 2nd is Election Day and all schools will be closed on this day, also. We encourage all registered voters to be sure and vote on this day. Your government, at all levels, is only as good as you are willing to make it. Your vote counts, so stand up and be counted this November 2nd.

BUILDING PROGRAM
 A request has been submitted to the State Department of Education in Nashville to permit the following changes in the program now planned for the area south of the Tennessee River in Loudon County.

LOUDON ELEMENTARY—Install a fire escape on the dead-end hallway portion of the building. Allow grade 3 to be housed on this floor since 3rd graders are more capable than are younger students. House the 4th grade on the floor below and house grade 2 on the ground floor of the main building. This means that no children are on the second floor of the old building or in the old gymnasium.

LOUDON JR. HIGH—Grade 8, 1 and 2 will be placed in ten classrooms located in this building after minor renovation of some facilities. This will permit the smaller children to be on a one-level building for safety reasons.

IN E W MIDDLE SCHOOL—Grades 6, 7, and 8 from Steekee and Davis will be located here. This will allow the closing of Davis and the development of a well-developed Middle School program from the opening day.

STEEKEE ELEMENTARY—Grades K, 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 from Steekee and Davis will be located here. This will allow the closing of Davis and the development of a well-coordinated K-5 program at this location.

We are now awaiting word concerning authorization for the change in plans. Those of us in the schools feel that this move will provide a much better opportunity for all children to have a better education than we are now able to offer. As more information becomes available, I will try to keep you informed through this column.

TRANSPORTATION
 The Board appointed a committee to study requests for new or improved bus service south of the Tennessee River. Any request involving more money for bus service will be referred to this committee for possible action.

VOCATIONAL CENTER
 With the final construction stages underway at the vocational center we hope to be able to fully utilize this facility by early November. It may be possible to begin scheduling some evening classes by the first part of 1977 if all plans go accordingly. We are aware that many folks are vitally interested in post-secondary classes at the center, and we are presently planning for this.

Capitol Commentary

By M. Lee Smith
 Although political posturing is a throw-the-rascals-out mood among the national voters, it is not manifesting itself in Tennessee congressional races. In fact, it will be surprising if any Tennessee incumbent congressman receives less than 55 percent of the vote on November 2.

Seven of Tennessee's eight members of Congress are seeking reelection. The only incumbent not running is 4th district Rep. Joe L. Evin (D-Smithville), who announced his retirement early this year. Albert Gore Jr. (D-Carthage) won a hard-fought and impressive August primary election over eight opponents and has only taken general election opposition.

Among those seeking reelection, 3th district Rep. Clifford Allen (D-Nashville) and 7th district Rep. Ed Jones (D-Yorkville) are having the easiest time. Jones has no general election opponent, and Allen has only nominal opposition.

In East Tennessee veteran congressman Jimmy Quillen (R-Kingsport) and John Duncan (R-Knoxville) should be reelected. Jones is opposed by Sullivan County farmer Lloyd Blevins, who also ran against Quillen in 1974 and won about 36 percent of the vote.

Most believe Blevins will fare no better this year. Duncan is facing somewhat tougher challenge from state Rep. Mike Rowland of Knoxville. Rowland's combination of "ifs"—including a Jimmy Carter sweep, declining Republicanism in the 2nd district, and a general attitude among voters of voting against those in office.

But it is unlikely Rowland can muster the votes to defeat Duncan, a conservative, hard-working, well-liked member of Congress. Duncan appears well entrenched and should win a comfortable victory.

Also in East Tennessee, former Republican congressman Lamar Baker is attempting a political comeback against Marlyn Lloyd (D-Chatanooga), who won an upset victory over him in 1974. Lloyd made no mistake in her first term, maintained a moderate-to-conservative voting record, and is a solid reelected.

Baker's hopes depend on this district and on Baker's belief that many Republican-oriented voters who did not turn out in the 1974 Watergate aftermath will vote this year. In West Tennessee former Democratic senator and congressman Ross Bass is also attempting a political comeback against Rep. Robin Beard (R-Franklin) in the 6th district which contains more Democrats than Republicans. Bass has strongly attacked Beard's conservative voting record and his constituent services fund—a fund of private contributions of up to $250 each used by Beard to augment government-paid expenses for travel. But Beard's voting record is in accord with the views of a majority of his constituents, and there is no evidence Bass is having any impact with the fund issue.

Beard has tended carefully to constituent problems during his two terms, is well liked personally in the district, and has significant support among Democrats and independents. He should win reelection by a comfortable margin—despite the party make-up of the district and its sizeable 6th district win for Democrat Jimmy Carter.

In the 8th district Memphis City Councilman A.D. Allandrotos is challenging Rep. Harold Ford (D-Memphis). The district has more registered black voters than white, and voting patterns are racially polarized. Allandrotos supporters say more white voters will turn out on election day, but recent polls reflect virtually no black support for Allandrotos, and Ford is heavily favored for a second term.

When You Start All You Get Is A Door With A Title On It—

The Rest You Have To Earn

When John Duncan went to Congress in 1965, he received the same treatment all freshmen congressmen get. They gave him a cubbyhole for an office and had someone paint his name on the door. That's about all a freshman congressman gets — except maybe a cold shoulder when he's trying to do something for his district. Everything else he must earn.

And it's tough. The only way you do things in Washington for your district is through ability and experience. John Duncan has both.

John Duncan has done something remarkable with the empty door they gave him. He's added responsibilities to his job that most congressmen only dream about. He's brought prestige and action to our district. The list is long. It begins with his service on the Committee on Veterans' Affairs and, for the past six years, on the important Ways and Means Committee. He is the ranking minority member of the Health Sub-Committee and also serves on the Trade and Oversight Sub-Committees. (The Oversight Committee is involved with overseeing the work of the Internal Revenue, Social Security, and HEW agencies.) This year, he was chosen to serve as one of 10 members on a special Capital Formation Committee.

There's one more thing about the Duncan door — both in Washington and his district offices. It's always open. He takes the time to be a good congressman.

Keep Congressman Duncan's ability and seniority working for you. Don't trade his remarkable record for an empty door.

John Duncan Is Your Kind Of Man

Congressman John Duncan was born and raised on a small farm near Huntsville in Scott County. He was one of 10 children. His father was a farmer-carpenter. Money was scarce in this large family, and John's parents were not able to send any of their children to college. Nine of the 10 children graduated from Huntsville High School. Lack of family money, however, did not deter John's ambition to further his education. He won a $100 Sears Scholarship, and with $5 in his pocket, he hitchhiked to Knoxville. He arranged to pay his tuition on the installment plan, started selling concessions at football games, working a few hours each week at Sears, had a paper route—and soon he was on his way.

World War II interrupted his education. He answered the call, and after 3½ years of military service, he returned to finish his education. After finishing law school, he started practicing law in Knoxville. He subsequently served as Assistant Attorney General, City Law Director, Mayor of Knoxville, and was elected to Congress where he has served since. John says his background and struggles have caused him to be more compassionate, and it is evident that he has a keen desire to help people. This was evidenced by the fact that recently he took his entire Congressional pay increase and gave scholarships to five deserving students to attend college this fall.

CONGRESSMAN JOHN DUNCAN CARES ABOUT YOU

A copy of our report is filed with the Federal Election Commission and is available for purchase from the Federal Election Commission, Washington, D.C.

John Duncan Believes In You

John Duncan is a man of the people. Born and raised in the 2nd District, he believes—as do a majority of the people in the district—that:

- Federal bureaucracy and red tape did not make America great—the people did.
- The preservation of individual liberties is the purpose of our constitutional system of government.
- Every individual has the right to achieve the best that is within him, as long as he respects the rights of others.
- Spiritual growth and material prosperity are both enhanced when government intrusion in the social, political, and economic lives of our citizens is limited.
- The American system of free, competitive, private enterprise best serves the interests of consumers, workers, farmers, and businessmen.
- Principle and integrity make good politics.
- Runaway federal spending must be curbed and sound business practices employed in government.
- Reforms are needed in health and welfare programs to correct abuses.
- We must be committed to establish and maintain a strong and sound national defense.
- Any solution to the problem of lawlessness and the rising crime rate must include speedy, equal, and certain punishment for crimes committed.
- Our aim should be a balanced budget and frugal, efficient public services.

John Duncan believes as you do.

Our congressman wants you to know that your concerns are important to him. John Duncan wants your opinions.

John Duncan Listens To You

John Duncan is your voice and vote in Congress.

While a congressman must act and serve for the country as a whole, he must also bring to Congress the viewpoint and understanding of the people of his Congressional District and their special conditions and problems. John has always considered it vital that he know your opinions and viewpoints on the critical issues confronting our nation. He encourages and solicits your views by holding constituent days throughout the district, by his questionnaire, and other means of communication.

He truly believes that he can better serve the people of Tennessee's 2nd District by receiving their views and participation.

People call John one of the most accessible public officials the area has ever had. He recognizes the importance of listening to problems firsthand. Weekends and Congressional recesses find him, not on foreign junkets, but back home listening to the people. He's determined to keep in touch. He makes sure he knows what's on your mind, and he does something about it. He's in touch, in time and in step with the sentiments of the 2nd District.

Because John Duncan listens to you.

John Duncan Works For You

John Duncan is a working congressman. He is a ranking member of the prestigious Ways and Means Committee. He is the senior member of the Sub-Committee on Health, a member of the Sub-Committee on Trade, a member of the Sub-Committee on Capital Formation, and a member of the Sub-Committee on Oversight.

These committees are your voice in Washington on matters concerning health care, marketing opportunities for your products and services, job opportunities, business capital needs, and your national government's responsibility to you.

John Duncan is a working congressman. In response to what you asked him to do, during the 94th Session of Congress, John sponsored 79 bills and co-sponsored 200 other bills in your interest. During the 93rd Session, he sponsored 55 bills you asked him to and co-sponsored 148 others.

John has one of the best attendance records in Congress. He is always on the job looking out for your interests.

John Duncan works for you.

John Duncan Speaks Out For You

John Duncan's seniority in Congress enables him to speak out for you and to be heard. His stature in Congress and his influence are widely recognized.

While activity in the Chamber of the House of Representatives is generally more dramatic, the real legislative work is done in the various committees. Our district is fortunate to have John looking out for your interests on the Ways and Means Committee . . . and the sub-committees on Health, Capital Formation, Trade, and Oversight.

John Duncan shares your philosophy. He is a responsible person, and his legislative record matches his speeches. He has voted consistently against wild-eyed schemes, gun control, forced busing, and every single attempt to levy new taxes on the people. You don't have to wonder where John Duncan stands on the issues—you already know. He has a proven record.

John Duncan knows how to cut the red tape. If you have business with the federal government or some problem with one of the governmental agencies—social security, veterans benefits, small business aid, personal problems—John is always willing to try to be of help and stands ready to assist you at all times. He is there when you need him.

Whatever you need, John Duncan is ready to speak out for you.

Our congressman believes that his job is to vote for you in Washington. He realizes that he is your elected representative and speaks not for personal ambitions—but only for you.

John Duncan Votes For You

Important legislation—sponsored by John Duncan in the 93rd and 94th Sessions of Congress which benefits the people of the 2nd District in Tennessee—includes:

2. Medicare Improvements Bill
3. Jobs Creation Act

14. Retirement Benefits Tax Act
15. Election Reform Act
16. Bill to Increase Amount of Money Social Security Recipients May Earn
17. Tax Reduction Act
18. The Elimination of Overlapping Government Agencies Bill

John Duncan votes in your interest.

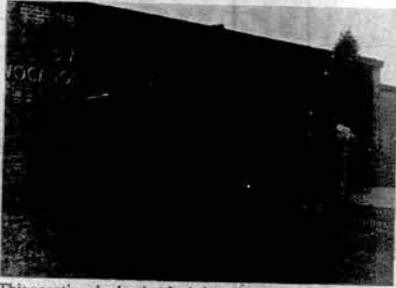

John Duncan Appreciates You

John Duncan is a family man with a deep concern about the kind of world your children and his will live in. He cares about the quality of life in Tennessee and the future of America. He is the only candidate who has visited every community in the 2nd District.

John Duncan fights hard for the people and the interests of the 2nd Congressional District. A "man of action," he has helped thousands of people in their problems with Uncle Sam. When a veteran is entitled to a pension, a senior citizen has a social security problem, a serviceman faces a family emergency, or a citizen needs help with the Internal Revenue, the Defense Department, Farmers Home Administration, or any other Federal Agency, he gets John Duncan's personal attention. He has a written rule, that the poorest person in his district has the same right to his time as the wealthiest.

A lifelong resident of the district, John Duncan knows the people and the problems. He keeps in touch with them—and not just at election time. He returns home almost every weekend to meet with his constituents. He reads all his mail, and every constituent gets a personal reply. He seeks out the views of every constituent. And his periodic newsletters, setting forth his position and the work of the Congress, are read and quoted throughout the district.

John Duncan is dedicated to serving you and appreciates your opinions and support.

This vocational school at Jacksboro in Campbell County is one that our congressman helped to provide the money to build.

New Union County Courthouse at Maynardville was constructed as a result of 90% federal funding. John chats with some of the young people on the "steps."

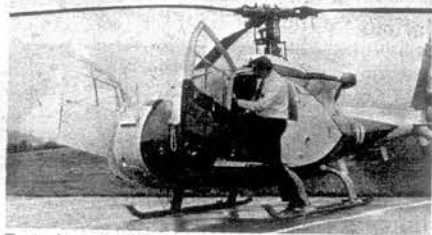

John visits with some of our senior citizens, here in a nursing home.

The new Post Office at Huntsville was made possible, in part, through federal funds.

Knox County (and other counties in the district) have benefited by grants which have made possible the expansion of vocational training schools and centers, helping people to be self-supporting.

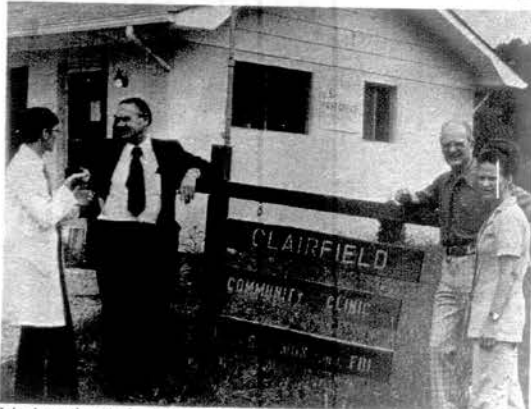

To stay in touch with the people—our congressman sometimes uses a helicopter to make the rounds.

John visits the Claiborne County Nursing Home which he helped obtain funds to build,

Being involved with young folks is important to John. He appreciates this visit of the Girl Scouts, who are learning about our form of democracy.

John loves the people of rural Clairfield and is particularly proud of the good work their new community clinic is doing, a building and a program he was instrumental in getting funded.

Another Justice Building for the district—important to a concerned and caring need for responsible citizenship.

When you have a need—or an opinion—you can talk to John Duncan. He cares about you.

Nursing homes, medical centers, and senior citizens facilities have benefited by our congressman's hard work to obtain funding for them—throughout the district.

Congressman Duncan visits with some of the community leaders in Blount County to get their ideas on how he can best serve them.

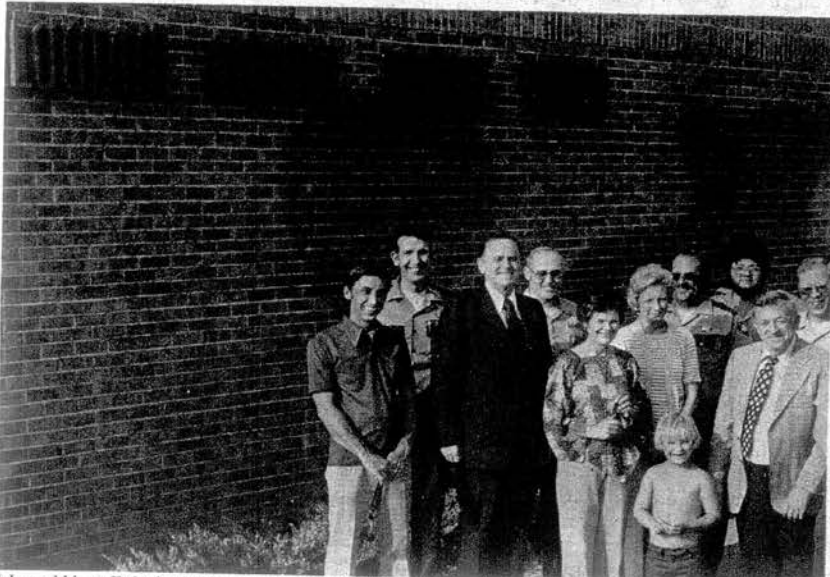

John discusses Monroe County needs with the County Judge.

John chats with Sweetwater folks about their improved law enforcement facilities and programs which he helped to fund through the Department of Justice.

John visits site of new water treatment plant (made possible through federal funds) at Vonore—to serve major parts of Monroe and Loudon Counties.

John and his staff obtained 100 percent funding for the new Justice Center in Loudon County. Here he visits with his constituents.

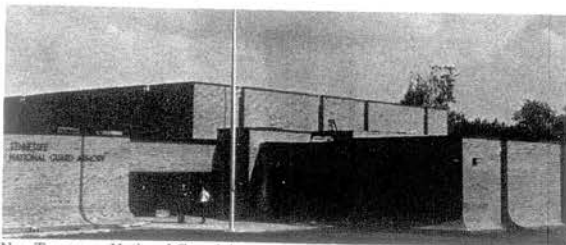

Young people enjoy the recreational facilities adjacent to the Loudon County High School, made possible by a $175,000 grant our congressman helped obtain.

Assistant City Manager of Athens updates John on the success of their water treatment plant, made possible, in part, by funds obtained through Washington.

Folks waiting in Congressman Duncan's office at the McMinn County Courthouse on Sept. 4, 1976. Everyone is seen on a "first come" basis.

New Tennessee National Guard Armory at Athens was made possible by the efforts of John Duncan, State Representative Clyde Webb, and Colonel Richard Ray, now deceased.

People of the 2nd District turn out for our congressman's bi-annual family barbecue and "get-together." This year's event is October 26.

Carter Wins County, State; Sasser Defeats Brock Stafford, Duncan Are Elected, Record Vote Of 9348 Cast Here

Local Vote Table On Page 12

The Loudon County Health Department said this week that they had received additional shipments of Swine Flu Vaccine enabling them to offer the protection to all persons 15 years old and up. Previously the Department was limiting the vaccine to persons 25 and older.

There are three Vaccine Clinics scheduled for this week. The schedule is as follows:

Friday, Nov. 5, from 8:30 to 1:30 p.m. at the Health Department office in the Bacon Building persons 25 years old and up and the chronically ill will be vaccinated. Chronically ill persons should check with their private physician before having the shot.

Sunday, Nov. 7, from 1 to 6 p.m. at the Loudon High School and Lenoir City Memorial Building, all healthy persons from 15 years old, up, may receive the vaccine at free clinics.

Residents at Greenback may take the vaccination at any time the Greenback Clinic is open, Monday-Friday.

At the clinics this weekend volunteers from the Loudon County Red Cross, Emergency Medical Technicians, Home Demonstration Clubs, Service Clubs, Registered Nurses, and the Loudon County Medical Society will be assisting the Health Department.

HOMEMAKERS SHOW WINNER—Mrs. T.L. (Virginia) Mills, Rt. 4, Lenoir City, is shown with the Hotpoint Microwave Oven she won at the Loudon County Herald Homemakers School last Thursday night attended by some 900 persons.

For the first time since pre-World War II, a Democrat has carried Loudon County in the Presidential balloting. Jimmy Carter outdistanced Gerald Ford by 225,463 for Carter and 418 for Ford. The last time it happened was in the 1940 Presidential vote that saw Franklin Roosevelt win here. Carter, early election night was projected to carry Tennessee as well.

The vote Loudon County was also a record, 9,348 persons voted, some 1,300 more than voted in 1960 the previous record high year.

On page 12 of this issue is a complete precinct by precinct chart of the vote in Loudon County for all candidates on the ballot.

Represents the Carter upset in this county only one other Democrat carried the county. Public Service Commissioner Frank Cochran polled 2995 votes in 1974 for his Republican rival Bob Pitts. Senator Bill Brock whipped his Democrat opponent Jim Sasser by 457 votes here, 1900 for Brock and 414 for Sasser, but Sasser was projected to win the statewide vote by a few percentage points.

State Representative Benny Stafford, apparently won reelection, by 1180 for Democrat Eddie Tom Smith. Stafford carried Loudon County by 301 votes. In Blount County Stafford also won, 2784 to 2282 for an overall win of 713 votes.

Congressman John Duncan continued to enjoy a good vote in Loudon County. He polled 2334 votes, the largest of any candidate in a county-wide race, against 1472 for Democrat Mike Rowland, and won the District handily.

In the 36th District Representative race James Melton, the Republican, defeated Peabody Ledford 296 to 250, but Ledford's home county of Roane County and Melton's home County of Cumberland were not reported as this issue was oriented about 2 a.m. Wednesday, although Ledford was

MR. SASSER went to Mrs. Lee with 1621 votes, Mrs. Maize got 835 there and Watson 221.

Looking at the Presidential race here the heavily Republican precincts in Loudon and Greenback went for Ford but not by great majorities. In Lenoir City Carter voters won 3-2 and by 3-1 margin. Carter carried four precincts here, three in Lenoir City and Eatons, by large enough margins to make him the winner in the county. The AP and NBC reported Carter winner in the State within minutes of the closing of polls.

HOMEMAKERS SCHOOL CROWD—A crowd of some 900 persons is shown in the Loudon High School Auditorium Thursday night for the Homemakers School sponsored by the Loudon County Herald and area merchants. More than 80 door prizes were given away during the two and one-half hour program, the first of its kind ever held in Loudon.

900 Attend Homemakers Show

If success is measured in numbers the First Annual Homemakers School and Merchandise Fair held at Loudon High School last Thursday night under the sponsorship of the Loudon County Herald and area merchants was a big hit. There were some 900 persons registered at the event.

Mrs. T.L. Mills, Rt. 4, Lenoir City, was the winner of the $600 Hotpoint Microwave Oven that was given away to the top door prize provided by Hotpoint and their dealer Tompkins Electric Company in Sweetwater.

There were more than 80 door prizes given during the evening. The drawing power of the promotion was evidenced by the fact that door prize winners came from Loudon, Philadelphia, Lenoir City, Greenback, Erie, Knoxville, Athens, Sweetwater, Blount and Kingston.

Scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. was a 90 minute Merchandise Fair with some 24 area merchants having display booths of appliances, furniture, clothing and some offering samples such as orange juice from Mayfields, ice cream from Anderson IGA, and Sausage from Wampler's, the crowd began arriving at 4:30.

When the Homemakers Show began at 7:30 p.m. Home Economist Marty Nabors, who had been at the auditorium since early Thursday morning preparing food, began demonstrating some 14 recipes with the finished food products given away at the end of the show.

Helping Marty during the show were: Janice Woody, Bobbie Fair, Sheila Eller, Jane Rucker and Susan McNabb. Herald staffers, Kay Lindsey, Danny Gibson, Bob Fair and Larry Cate were also members of the 500-foot corps by the time the show was over at 10 p.m. Thursday night.

Herald Editor Larry Cate expressed appreciation to the hundreds that came to the show, the merchants that supported the show through advertising and participation in the event itself, the staff members, Loudon High custodian Clyde Wagner and his staff for their exceptional help. "The Homemaker's Show was the largest promotion we have ever undertaken. It was a tremendous success and we appreciate the role everyone played and the contribution they made," Cate said.

MARKER BEING ERRECTED—Workers are shown erecting a National Historical Marker in the front lawn of the courthouse Monday. The marker will be unveiled at dedication services Saturday at 10 a.m. The public is invited.

Marker Dedication Saturday

Dedication services will be held on the courthouse lawn at 10 a.m. Saturday for a national landmark marker. The service, part of the county Bicentennial Celebration, is sponsored by the Loudon Woman's Club, who sponsored the project of having the courthouse declared a national historic site and placed in the National Registry of Historic Places.

The speaker for the event will be Herbert Harper of Nashville, executive of the Tennessee Historic Commission. It was Harper in his capacity of staff member of the Commission who many years ago recognized the historical architecture of the courthouse and suggested that it be placed on the National Registry. Since then he has become the committee executive.

The bronze marker was designed to coordinate with the existing War Memorial. Mrs. James Harville will unveil the marker at the service. The public is invited to attend.

Eaton To Move More Lock Facilities To Lenoir City

Eaton Corporation has announced plans to move several lock manufacturing processes from its plant in Gallatin to its operations in Lenoir City.

The move coincides with Eaton's plans to begin producing heavy-duty truck brake products at its Gallatin plant. The movement of operations to Lenoir City provides the space necessary to begin brake production. The move will begin before year's end.

According to Robert P. Lyons, general plant manager, here at Eaton's Lenoir City Plant, the company's Brake Division eventually will use the entire Gallatin plant and that all lock and hardware production will move out of Gallatin to Lenoir City. Plans call for this change to take place during the first half of 1977.

Eaton produces a complete line of security products at the Lenoir City Plant, including Yale padlocks, residential and commercial locksets, and automatic locks. Eaton is a manufacturer of products serving the capital goods markets, and consumer and commercial markets throughout the world. Its products include truck components, material handling systems, industrial power transmission systems, automobile components and controls, and home and commercial security products. Sales for the first nine months of 1976 were $129 million. Net earnings were $67 million or $3.87 per share.

Court Refuses Martel Rezoning

Loudon County Court Monday refused to rezone a parcel of property at Martel although the request by landowner George Sarten was recommended by the Loudon County Regional Planning Commission.

Sarten owns a house and acreage between Martel Road and the Southern Railway line which he says was always industrial before the county zoned all property in 1971 when his property was zoned residential. He said the property included the old Candy Factory buildings which he has sold. He sought to have the zoning changed to commercial to allow his son to build a welding shop.

The Lenoir City Planning Commission, which has jurisdiction over the property had not recommended the rezoning. Charles Ehlen, Lenoir City Mayor, said he had several calls from persons saying Sarten planned to build a beer tavern on the property if it was rezoned.

Judge William Russell turned over to the court several petitions that objected to the rezoning.

The vote by County Court was 4-4 against the zoning changing. Voting no were: Shirley Roy Blodgett, Boyd Duckworth, Curtis Williams, J. G. Hubson and R. P. Hamilton. Voting in favor of Sarten were Jim Blair, I. D. Conner, Terry Vann, and Jim Harshbarger.

After the unfavorable vote Sarten said if he couldn't get the property rezoned he would do something about a county road that crosses his property.

Loudon County now has a new Inspector. Under a new agriculture requirement that requires that all honey bee stands be inspected for disease, the court appointed Desney Range of Lenoir City to the post. The inspector is paid $1. per stand inspected. The court had budgeted $400 for the job.

State Planner Steve Campbell told the court that he has had no further indication from Knoxville that they want Loudon County to approve a local farm for a large sanitary landfill. The proposal has drawn opposition already from a group of Watts Road area residents.

Campbell said he expected

United Fund Sets Victory Luncheon

Victory is in sight for the 1977 Loudon County United Fund Campaign. At the weekly report meeting Monday an additional $18,695.75 in pledges and contributions were reported, bringing the campaign total to $224,116. The campaign goal is $26,032, bringing the total to 90 percent of the goal.

Campaign Chairman Bob Smith was greatly relieved at the latest report saying, "I feel better and now believe that during the next week we can reach the goal." Smith is scheduled to give the report at 12 noon Monday at the King's Inn Restaurant. He said a check of what is believed to be coming during this week should put the campaign over the top. He urged all workers to complete their work during the week and be present for the celebratory luncheon Monday.

New reports Monday were an additional $13,300 from Eaton Corporation bringing their total to $6,016.41; Marenzoni added $363 for a $7,751 total. Smith Chair Company reported $200; Bacon Company of Lenoir City in the middle of their campaign reported $991. The Loudon plant also in mid-activity reported $1549.

Sheffield Steel made their first report of $225; Union Carbide - Oak Ridge, the campaign's largest contributor added $5,202, bringing their total to $27,946; and at Loudon brought their total to $4,000 with a $3,000 addition.

Lenoir City businesses added $656 in new donations and Lenoir City residents added another $206. There was a local business report at the session but the residential campaign added another $250. Eaton Essex Lee reported that campaign about 50 percent complete with $145.

The Fund still has not had a report from either Greenback or Philadelphia.

Lane Charged With Larceny

A Lenoir City man who officers helped himself to a case and one half of beer after the owner of a package store refused to sell him beer after midnight has been found in the Loudon County Grand Jury on charges of Larceny.

Depositor Jim Lindsey and Junior Teeters say the man, Kenny Lane, 25, Outer Drive, Lenoir City, reportedly went into Gulf Self Service on Highway 95 after midnight Friday

Rose Keener Named State Nurse In Action

Mrs. Rose D. Keener, of Lenoir City, a public health nurse from the Loudon County Health Dept., was named the 1976 Tennessee Nurse In Action. The announcement was made during the Awards Banquet of the Tennessee Nurses' Association a Convention October 7 at the Sheraton Hotel.

She was selected for her outstanding contributions to mankind through personal involvement in her community by a Blue Ribbon Committee, chaired by John Tesh, WSMV News Co-anchorman, Nashville. She was chosen from eight registered nurses nominated for this honor by their peers from across the state and is the fourth nurse to carry this title.

Mrs. Keener has been a dynamic community leader and an active member of her professional organization for more than 25 years. Her primary interests have been the provision of quality health care for all citizens and the welfare and education of young people. Mrs. Keener has earned a reputation for her expertise and untiring efforts in "getting the job done" and has been involved in almost every progressive program in Loudon County during her distinguished career. Her warm, outgoing personality has enabled her to work successfully with all people.

Mrs. Keener was instrumental in the initiation and organization of numerous redevelopment programs in her area. She worked with the County Judge of Loudon County in organizing the Health Planning Council in accordance with the Comprehensive Health Planning Act of 1966.

Mrs. Keener is active in the East Tennessee Health Planning Council, a coalition of health care providers and consumers named to promote the highest level of health care for residents in a 16 county area. In 1975, as Chairman of the ETRHC she appointed a Task Force to restructure the council to meet requirements mandated by federal legislation for designation as the Health Systems Agency for the area. In 1976, Mrs. Keener was elected as the first president of the restructured council, working with a 55 member Board of Directors made up of physicians, hospital administrators, and consumers.

In 1975, Mrs. Keener was appointed as the only nurse on a blue ribbon advisory committee by the Loudon County Memorial Hospital Board to study the health needs during a low bed occupancy crisis experienced by the hospital. Sr. Citizens Start New Chore Service

On Nov. 1, a new program was started to serve Loudon County Senior Citizens. Names and phone numbers of senior citizens who are ready to work are needed because the Chore Service has started. The Chore Service has two purposes. One is to match senior citizens requiring chore service to senior citizens who can perform those services. The other purpose is to provide senior citizens with an opportunity to earn extra money. All types of chore workers are needed including housepainters, cooks, sitters, yard workers, seamstresses, drivers, etc.

The Chore Services is being sponsored by the Loudon County Office on Aging, Council on Aging, and Senior Citizens Center. A chore worker must be 55 years of age or older and a resident of Loudon County. The person requesting chore worker must be a resident of Loudon County. Persons under 55 years of age may call for the names of workers. The left up to Chore Service workers to decide if they will work for non-senior citizens.

Interested senior citizens need to call the Office on Aging, 458-4456, and give their names, phone numbers, and types of work they are willing to do. This information will be placed in the chore service file. When a person calls requesting chore services, he will be given the names of 3 workers. He will then need to call his own worker. When a worker is called, he or she will decide upon the amount of wage, extent of services, and other details. The Office on Aging will act only as a clearinghouse by getting people requesting chore service in touch with senior citizen workers.

Since many senior citizens live alone and may be in poor health, this Chore Service can help them to get the extra help they need. Interested workers need to call the Office on Aging, as soon as possible so they can start working for others. Persons desiring chore services can start calling for the names of workers. The number to call for Chore Service, either as a worker or employer is, 458-4456.

Burley Cards Are Mailed

Marketing cards have been mailed to all eligible Burley Tobacco producers, says John M. Hutton, Chairman of the Loudon County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee.

To be eligible for a marketing card a producer must certify that tobacco was grown on his farm and that he did not use restricted pesticides containing DDT, DDE, endrin or toxaphene.

Burley tobacco markets will open to receive tobacco around the middle of November, Mr. Hutton said. "Each producer must present his marketing card at the warehouse when the tobacco is weighed and it will be retained by the warehouse until the sale is completed and the check is delivered," he said.

Producers who find additional quota is needed pay secure the marketing card so the lease may be properly recorded. Leases may be completed at the ASCS Office. They can not be made at the warehouse, Mr. Hutton added. Marketing cards must not be used to sell tobacco grown on any other farm. Tobacco left at the warehouse which is considered marketed and is charged against the quota for the farm on which it was grown. The sale of excess tobacco is subject to a penalty of 79 cents a pound. Violation of the marketing quota law can result in serious penalties, Mr. Hutton said.

Mike Belcher Wins State FFA Award For Forestry

Michael W. Belcher, Greenback, is the 1976 Tennessee winner of the Family Lines System's Future Farmers of America forestry award.

He has received recognition for his active and successful participation in FFA programs throughout his high school years and for his personal achievements in forestry projects.

He has received recognition from Congressman John J. Duncan, as well as his high school teachers and officers of the railroad.

Young Belcher attended State FFA Leadership Camp for four years and the State Forestry Camp for two years. At Greenback High School he was chairman of the FFA chapter's winning National Safety Committee for four years, and he participated in numerous radio and television programs to promote farm and home safety, vocational agriculture and the FFA.

While in FFA training, Belcher planted 2,000 pine seedlings and sold 20 cords of pulpwood, and constructed ten miles of firebreaks. Although he now attends the University of Tennessee, he owns 40 Angus cattle and raises two acres of tobacco annually.

He will join six other state winners in Louisville, Kentucky, November 6-9, where they will be guests of the Family Lines and honored for their achievement. The group will then travel to Kansas City for the National FFA Convention.

Employment Office Moves

The Loudon County Office of the Tennessee Department of Employment Security has moved from Cedar Street to Room 307 in the Bacon Building on Vonore Road. The office staff has been expanded and the services the Loudon office offers will soon be as complete as those of the Knoxville offices. The service is free of charge.

Mrs. Nancy Petty has been transferred to the Loudon office and along with Richard Sampson, they will concentrate on both training opportunities and job placements. Training opportunities are limited to people who are unemployed or underemployed and who are disadvantaged in terms of income.

Job service is provided both to the employee and the employer. Mrs. Petty and Mrs. Sampson will visit area employers from time to time to explain their service and take job orders. Or, if an employer has a job opening that he would like listed with the employment office, he should call 458-4315 and explain the qualifications and information about the job opening. After the call to the Loudon office, the job is put on a computerized Job Bank screen and shown to numerous job seekers across the entire East Tennessee area. These same screens are also available daily for local job seekers to look at in the Loudon Employment office.

Along with training and job placement duties, the local office registers persons for work receiving unemployment compensation and food stamp benefits and actively assists them in finding employment. The office can also give labor market information or counsel the applicant as to what social services in the County they might go to for other kinds of help.

The Loudon Office is open regularly from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Mrs. Petty and Mr. Sampson invite persons to visit the employment office for their service and help is free of charge.

Loudon, Lenoir City Face Strong Season Ending Football Foes

The Loudon Redskins will end their regular season football play this Friday night with a journey to Middle Tennessee and a game with Goodlettsville.

Goodlettsville has lost twice, one to Nashville DuPont 7-6 and then blew a 21-0 lead on Nashville Hillsboro to suffer their second loss.

Nevertheless, the team of Coach Earnest Smalley (Shipreck) to those who remember him as a Loudon High School (fullback), is a fine one. They run the Notre Dame Box as does the Lenoir City Panthers do currently. Coach Smalley has a very talented backfield that can pile on points such as the 8-13 pouncing they smacked Kingston with this fall.

Goodlettsville will have in its cast of ball carriers a senior by the name of Terry Potts. He was listed in a recent Tennessee High School college prospect pool as the sixth best in a list of 25 top players that included backs and linemen.

Coach Bert Ratledge says he is maybe "the best" offensive player his Redskins have encountered in some time. "On film he is a fine looking back and follows his blockers, once past the line of scrimmage his natural speed and experience can well send him off on a touchdown run."

Loudon faces a competition from the playoffs this fall due to their eight game schedule and certainly a loss would end all remaining hopes.

The Redskins have had some hard luck to swallow in recent weeks from losing to Harrison 14-17 to having to sweat out important overtime games concerning Cleveland and Lake City for the Region Two playoff slot. Cleveland and Lake City are just about "in". The Blue Raiders got a big lift when they turned back Alcon last week 28-27 in overtime. The Tornados had come from a pair of touchdowns back to tie the score at the end of regulation.

The Blue Raiders play Goolteah (1-8) this week and the odds are much in their favor.

Lake City hosts Lenoir City and even a Panther win, which is believed may just happen despite the contrast in records, would not do enough damage to keep the Lakers from making the play-offs.

Those fans who will follow Loudon to Goodlettsville are urged to allow plenty of time for travel. Going the Loudon fans will gain an hour in time but will lose that time in returning.

The best route is understood to be I-40 to the State 109 exit to their right. Directly to Goodlettsville and also Bert pass Nashville.

Loudon head Coach Bert Ratledge feels the Redskins will give it their best shot. "We need to win as any thing is still possible."

The crafty Ratledge will be entering a 20 year reign as the Loudon head football coach should the Redskins win it would be his 18th victory. Loudon's 33rd in their last 35 games. Coach Ratledge teams have lost 65 to date and tied 14.

the third where they have managed just 14 points. The score by quarters has been 47-14-47-148.

Rockwood Jaycees have announced plans to continue the annual Jaycees Bowl, setting the date for this year's game as Nov. 13.

Several teams with prospects for winning seven games this season are under consideration for invitation.

The game will begin at 7:30 p.m.

This year's game will be the 29th playing of the bowl, making it the oldest active, post-season high school bowl in the State of Tennessee.

Loudon Freshmen Gridders Go Winless In Eight Games

The Loudon Freshmen Football team has ended their season with a winless record in eight games.

The team's first game was a 28-0 loss to the Blue Raiders on September 17. The team's last game was a 28-0 loss to the Blue Raiders on November 5.

The team's record is 0-8. The team's total yards are 100. The team's total points are 0.

LOUDON HEAD FOOTBALL COACH Bert Ratledge, currently in his 20th year as head coach of the Loudon Redskins football team may have a feeling that the world coach Ratledge has the game referees even looking in the Redskins play-off berth very doubtful despite losing only one game.

Loudon could drive no closer to the end zone than the 15. The Loudon defense did halt a Cleveland drive at their own five in the second half.

Coach Jerry Foster, disappointed, said that Loudon had played a very tough schedule and while not winning had certainly gained some football knowledge that should help the players when they join the high school varsity for spring practice.

Injuries and mistakes played key roles in the Loudon Freshmen poor record. And the fact that several of their games were against other teams junior varsity and this some times included sophomores and occasional juniors. Loudon used just freshmen.

Cleveland defeated Loudon on Thursday night of last week by a score of 18-0. The Blue Raiders carried a 6-0 halftime lead into intermission with a three yard touchdown run with 6:18 to play in the half. A surprise 35 yard halfback pass play had given the visitors the ball at the Loudon four.

Loudon made a lengthy first half march from their 30 to the Cleveland 20 as Tommy Henderson broke free for a 40 yard jaunt. Loudon lost the ball on downs as Cleveland held on fourth down and eight.

A 63 yard touchdown dash in the third quarter made the count 12-0 for Cleveland and final touchdown came in the

Panthers Win Second Game

Lenoir City Seeks To End Season On Winning Note; Blanks Knoxville Powell 21 - 0

The Lenoir City Panthers are picking up some momentum for their final game of the season with one beaten, play-off minded Lake City next Friday night. The Panthers of LC hosted the Knoxville Powell this past Thursday night and ripped the Knox Countians by a 21-0 score.

The win was Lenoir City's second of the season in a campaign of disappointment, injuries, and departure of key personnel. Coach Scott Conner was glad to see the Panthers on the winning end for a change and feels this could be a good tonic for the Lake City game to close out the season on next week. "If we play to our potential and don't make the mistakes that have been killing us offensively we should be able to play with Lake City despite their current 8-1 record in Region Two Class AA."

The Thursday night game took on a defensive struggle at first as the two off halves played pretty much at midfield. Powell had its first series punt blocked by senior end Phil Reed at their own 43.

The Lenoir offense was slowed however, by a holding penalty and finally was sent off the field as Doyle Varner's halfback pass was intercepted by the Powell secondary at the 25 yard line.

Powell punched out a first down in a 13 yard run by Sharp, but then punted for just 21 yards. Lenoir City moved the chains from their own 20 to the 41 on equal runs by Steve Porter and Jackie Ryan. Ryan, Porter and Doyle Varner advanced the ball to the Knoxville Powell 48 before fullback Varner zipped for a breakaway 44 yard touchdown on the first quarter game to close.

The nifty effort was denied as Lenoir City drew a five yard notion penalty on the touchdown maneuver. The Panthers continued on down the field only to be finally halted on downs by the Powell defense at the 23 yard line.

Powell could move the ball but two yards in three plays and punted the ball away on fourth down.

Determined to place some points on the score board, Lenoir City sat up shop at their own 46. Quarterback Richard Vest got right to the heart of the issue with a 33 yard bullet pass to end Phil Reed as the ball was placed down on the Powell 21.

Ryan was stopped at the line of scrimmage and Varner managed only two yards on second down as Vest again was looking for a pass receiver on third down. Vest hooked up with senior Jimmy Matlock in the Powell Panthers and zone 19 yards away and with 5:12 left in the half had taken the lead.

The extra point kick was true for a 7-0 difference. Knoxville Powell, experiencing some of Lenoir City's usual short comings, fumbled the ball on their very first offensive snap following the Lenoir City touchdown and linebacker Herbert Sartin claimed the prize for the home team.

From the Powell 22 Lenoir City moved swiftly, taking advantage of the good field position. Quarterback Vest finding the passing game to the credit of the Lenoir City offensive success hit senior Phil Reed on a third down 21 yard touchdown loss to up the score to 13-0 with 3:28 in the half.

The extra point kick made the count 14-0.

The Powell Panthers kept the ball until the end of the first half moving only to the Lenoir City 48 in their quest to score points to their side of the score board.

Lenoir City came out in the second half, taking the kickoff and from their own 26 drove the ball to the Powell four yard line in a well covered march of 12 plays.

An 11 yard pass play from Vest to Porter, a 23 yard scamper by Jackie Ryan and a 13 yard romp from Doyle Varner in the heart of the surge showed the Panther superiority at moving the ball.

The Lenoir City offense suddenly lost its zip once side the Powell 13 yard line and on two straight plunges Ryan and Varner were turned back at the Powell four and the ball changed hands.

A 14 yard first down blast gave Powell working space but the Lenoir City defense was ready for the challenge and the Panthers were forced to punt.

The Lenoir City offense failed to gain a first down and the ball was returned by a Phil Reed punt.

Powell, with close to four minutes gone from the final act tried to uncrank its offense with its best showing of the night departing from their own 22.

The Panthers rushed for three first downs and had closed to within the Lenoir City 32 when the Panther defense regained its composure for two sacks totaling eight yards and took over on downs.

The Lenoir City offense did not win the battle as yet. Steve Porter coughed up the ball on first down and Powell was first down in business at the LC 38.

Powell became glued to the defensive line as the Lenoir City defensive unit allowed no yardage in three straight tries.

Powell punted the ball to the LC nine and the Panthers then removed all doubt as to how this game would be decided. The Lenoir City offense started to take charge despite being back to their own nine yard stripe.

The Panthers rolled off a spirited and impressive play drive that not only gave them an inspiring 91 yard shared in moving the slicks to the very end of the game.

Doyle Varner wedged the ball out to his own 26 with a touchdown pass.

Jackie Ryan, Steve Porter, Varner, and Richard Vest all shared in moving the slicks to the Powell 45. Vest enjoying the best run of 12 yards.

The rotation of ball carriers were repeated again by the Panthers and the ball was moved to the Powell 55.

A five yard penalty only delayed the eventual quest of the touchdown hungry Lenoir City offense and in two five yard blasts, first by Varner and then the final trick by Steve Porter hard the Lenoir City from fashioning a 21-0 shutout.

The Panther offense was well balanced for a night totaling 286 yards.

Powell on the other hand was limited to just 123 yards for the entire game.

Lenoir City had a total of 17 first downs with Doyle Varner's 18 carries for 72 yards being instrumental in the Lenoir City offensive fire works.

Jackie Ryan was just a few strides back with 69 yards on 13 carries and Steve Porter added another 40 yards. Richard Vest finished with 21 yards rushing, but passed for another 37.

Other top defensive players were Jeff Crisp, Steve Boddy Kizer had 46 yards and Mitch Smith and Mitch Smith.

Cherokees Post 7 - 3 Grid Season

Breazale Blocks Two Punts, Scores Twice In 25 - 20 Greenback Finale

The Greenback Cherokees have closed out another highly successful football season. The Cherokees came from behind in the fourth quarter last Thursday night to judge by Midway 25-20. The win was the seventh of the season for Greenback and equals their regular season week end of the 1975 season.

Greenback, who may very well be the best "three time looser" in the Region One Class A list of teams, scored its first touchdown after accepting the opening kickoff.

The Cherokees started the game on an 18 yard kickoff return by senior Mitch Smith to the 28 yard line. Greenback then stepped off four straight first downs in journeying 72 yards in 10 plays to jump to the early lead.

Roddy Kizer, completing three years as the Greenback field general, had a 19 yard run in the march before Mitch Smith galloped for nine yards to the Green Wave 10.

Senior fullback Danny Dotson hammered into the Midway defense on successive plays for four and then six yards and a touchdown with 6:09 to play in the first period. Kizer's kick was good.

Midway, who has never been able to beat Greenback in the long time series that dates back to the early 1960's, received its first try with the football at their own 38. A first down followed by a fumble and finally a fourth down punt attempt.

Senior Stanley Breazale, rushing in from his defensive end position, blocked the effort and All Conference lineman Eric Belcher recovered the ball 15 yards down field at the Midway 10.

Midway's defense threw Danny Dotson for a two yard loss, Kizer's pass to junior Chris Blair was off its mark and a end around run by senior Lynn Rucker was good for eight stripes.

The Green Wave wasted no time in lighting up the scoreboard to start the second half. Midway returned the third quarter kick-off 24 yards to the 45. A first down offside penalty backed the ball to the 40. With the down unchanged Midway went to the airways and connected for paydirt on a 60 yard bomb with 10:45 left in the third quarter. The extra point pass was knocked down.

Greenback answered back with its first offensive try with the football in the second half by traveling 63 yards in 15 plays to pull within a point of Midway.

Roddy Kizer, who collected 30 yards of the real estate on seven carries and then passed for 11 yards to Lynn Kucker, turned the ball over to hard driving Danny Dotson for three straight snaps once the ball was advanced to the Midway nine.

Dotson, scoring his second touchdown, plunged into the end zone from the one with 3:06 remaining on the third quarter clock.

The Greenback conversion was blocked. Midway's offense was unstopable as the Green Wave exhausted the third period time with a 13 play, 62 yard parade of nothing but running plays crashed into the Greenback end zone from the one yard line with 7:49 left in the game to take a 20-13 lead.

The kick for the conversion failed to split the goal posts. Greenback then settled to its task of the kickoff back 14 yards to the 39. Danny Dotson blasted a path for 19 yards and following the ensuing kickoff and Roddy Kizer quipped for 42 yards to the Midway 37 on third down and 24.

Midway and Greenback then swapped punts at the first half closed with Midway out in front 8-7.

Season Final Pee Wee Football Festivities Nets $1,600 For New Uniforms

THE LOUDON COUNTY HERALD, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1976, PAGE 11

By Joe Williams

The Loudon Quarterback Club pulled down the curtain on their Pee Wee Football Program for another season last Saturday night by hosting the four youth teams had Lenoir City. The Club honored a homecoming festivities this last week with a parade and crowning of a King and Queen for the football season. Each of the four youth teams had candidates entered and also constructed floats and signs for the festivities which net over $1600 toward new football uniforms.

pageantry of the evening and also made the playing difficult for all the teams. Loudon won but one contest from the Lenoir City teams.

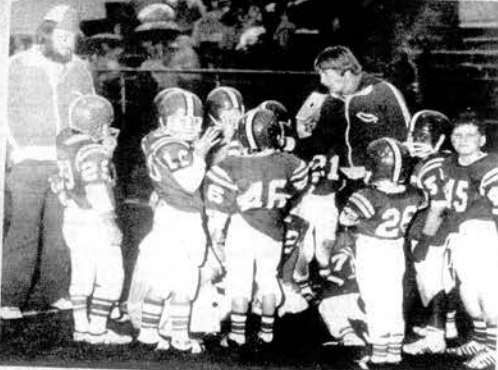

neither team could dent the opposing teams' defense in the first overtime series. Loudon finally hit the second overtime on Tim Lennox's five yard step-off in the second overtime. The run for the two yard plunge but the try for a two point conversion was also checked by the Loudon defense and a third overtime was necessary.

Kevin White crossed the double stripes from four yards out in the third extra play and Byron Goble ran for the two point conversion to give Loudon a 14-6 edge. Lenoir City, who had but two first downs and 27 yards of total offense, was denied an entrance to the Loudon end zone on four plays and the game was over.

Loudon gained 148 yards in the entire contest but still could not produce any points until in the overtimes. The win gave the Mustangs a 7-3 record for the season.

Byron Goble, Tim Lennox, Reggie Brown, Coley Woody, Sidney Joyce, and Dale Teague were the individual standouts for the Mustangs in their season ending game.

LOUDON MIDGET FOOTBALL KING AND QUEEN—Lance Townsend and Tammy Hughes were crowned the King and Queen of the Loudon Midget Football season last Saturday night during a homecoming activity that closed the youth grid season sponsored by the Loudon Quarterback Club.

Your Animal's Health

Protecting your dog's health may also protect your own these days. Recent indications are that humans are contracting a canine form of brucellosis (undulant fever) from family pets. This communicable disease has been difficult to diagnose because the symptoms are similar to those of the flu—fever, aches, headache, loss of appetite, chills.

ZIPS TO FIRST DOWN—Loudon Grasshopper Timmy Potter rounds the end on the Lenoir City defense last Saturday night for a Loudon first down.

Thursday Night Football Hampers Contest

As usual the Thursday football weekend caused problems in the weekly Herald Football Contest. The games selected were all published a week earlier as slated for Friday, but as always happens some were not.

Now veterinary research has developed a rapid screening test for dogs, which indicates the presence of the disease in two minutes. Every dog owner is urged to have his pet checked, for the pet's protection and to protect humans from unsuspected exposure.

County Selected For State Study

Loudon County has been chosen as one of three counties which will be studied by state agencies to determine how much alcohol and drug abuse there is in the county. The study will address what can be done about the problem and what the general feeling of the county residents toward the problems are.

Dave Miller, who is head of the East Tennessee Substance Abuse Council will be working directly with the people in the county to determine what the problems are and what can be done about them.

Judge Bill Russell said these are sometimes overlooked and Loudon County is fortunate that they have been selected as a study site by the State.

"We hope through the cooperation of County officials, employees and all of Loudon County people we can make a successful study of these problems and find some way to deal with them," the Judge said.

Eatonwood Starts Revival

Eatonwood Church of God, Lenoir City, will begin Revival services Wednesday, Nov. 3 through Saturday, Nov. 6. Services begin nightly at 7:30 p.m.

Choral Society Presents Concert Sunday At LC

Loudon County Choral Society will present its Bicentennial Concert Sunday afternoon at the Lenoir City High School Cafeteria, beginning at 2 p.m.

The program, described as a "tour through the history of American choral singing," will include both sacred and secular selections, ranging from serious classical works to popular show tunes.

The 35-voice chorus is under the direction of Vernon McKinney with Mrs. Doris Prater as associate director. Mrs. Natalie Curtis and Mrs. Maxine McKinney are piano accompanists.

The group has presented two standing-room-only "coffee-concerts" in the past two years in the cafeteria. This program will be somewhat different, but there are plans for refreshments to be served at intermission by members of the Lenoir Junior Woman's Club, who are serving as hostesses to various Loudon County Bicentennial events.

The concert is partially funded by a grant from the Tennessee Revolutionary Bicentennial Commission. Additional local sponsorship is from the Loudon County Arts Association.

Grant funds went to buy material for patriotic costumes for members of the group.

The core selection of music for the concert comes from the "I C. Penny Bicentennial Celebration," a collection of music - some of it traditional with new arrangements, and some of it commissioned to be composed for this purpose by the Penny Co. H. H. (Mack) McIntosh, local Penny manager, was instrumental in securing the music for the group.

The program will include a "God Bless America" medley in choral arrangement. "Give Me Your Tired and Your Poor" and "The Dream is America," one of the Penny-commissioned works by Mitch Leigh and Charles Barr.

Mrs. Janice Shea will present a patriotic show tunes medley including "I'm a Yankee Doodle Dandy," "It's a Grand Old Flag," and others.

From the early American period comes a ballad, "Billy Bruke Locks," and the humorous, "The Sow Took the Measles."

Representing America's religious emphasis are "Wondrous Love," "Rock of Ages," "Amazing Grace," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The American folk opera "Fudge and Bess," by Gershwin, the modern ballet-turned-movie, "West Side Story," by Bernstein, and the selection from "Paint Your Wagon," "Marai," to be sung by tenor soloist Eugene McKinney, all contribute to indicate the divergence of cultural development people built and lived in the plantations of the South, the big cities of the North and East and moved onto the Great Plains in a westward expansion.

The program will build to a climax with the Anthem from the symphony "America" written by Ernest Bloch, "Notes From Tom Paine," by Norman Delo Jolo, and the ever-popular "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Thank You

A special thanks to those in the 21st district who voted for and supported me in this general election.

I am forever grateful

Jere Brewer On Honor List

Senior Jere Brewer, a boarding student from Loudon, has been cited at mid-term for academic achievement at Chattanooga's Jere, son of Mr. and Mrs. B.T. Brewer and a second generation Baylor student, which at Baylor is limited to only those students with an overall average of 80 or higher and with no single subject grade below 80.

Altogether, 43 scholars were named to the Distinguished List, reserved for students in each of their five major study courses, and another 116 were included on the Honor Roll. That means more than one-third of the entire upper school enrollment currently is maintaining an average of 80 or higher, despite participating in an accelerated year old private secondary and college preparatory school.

Squires Deny Rezoning Request

some request from Knoxville on the Maddox property this next week if they were going to attempt to locate the land fill there.

The Court instructed Campbell to have the Planning Commission to change the zoning resolution to allow the court to vote also on approval of a landfill site under the "Use Under Review" provisions. The Planning Commission is the only authority of saying yes or no to such a proposal. The court by its action wants the last word on the matter.

Jim Yokum of Greenback Industries told the court that although nothing could be done on the local level about the state enforcing collection of personal property tax in industry it was adding an extra burden on the industrial community that in the case of Greenback Industries increased their tax payment four times what it was last year.

Yokum stated that the New York headquarters of Greenback Industries was holding up future expansion of facilities in the area. Carter said that all industry in Tennessee was being assessed for personal property and that almost every state had a similar law. He assured the man that Greenback Industries was not being singled out and that the 30 percent assessment figure he placed on the equipment and fixtures was taken from the information the firm supplied.

Two rezoning requests recommended by the Planning Commission were approved by the court. The request of J. B. Whaley to rezone a portion of property in the 4th district from A-1 Residential to an apartment complex was approved.

Approval was also given Frank Halcomb on zoning a parcel General Commercial that had previously been Agriculture. The property is located in the 3th district. Roads in the new Point Harbor Subdivision at Lenoir City were accepted as public roads on recommendation from the Planning Commission and Road Commissioner Lee Malone.

Revised by-laws of the Loudon County Memorial Hospital were approved with minor amendments introduced by new Hospital Board Chairman Squire Curtis Williams. The amendments instead of January, and that the hospital be subject to all purchasing regulations and laws now governing other county agencies.

County Building Commissioner Jack Henry reported that 24 building permits were issued in October generating 1,168 in value of $462,000. Permits were four 14 new homes, three mobile homes and four commercial buildings.

A resolution was adopted by the court adding its strength and name to an application of the Dixie Lee Utility Water

Economic Development Agency grant. A spokesman for the District said there is only an outside chance the District application will be approved because there are over $200 million in applications for $23 million in grant funds under the program for the state.

The grant program is one designed to put dollars for employment in areas of high unemployment and Loudon County enjoys one of the lowest unemployment rates in the state. It was said that the minimum criteria of the program is 6.5 percent, but the District wanted to make merits of the expansion program they have.

The system presently serves 1700 homes on its own district and provides water for 400 homes in the Martel District. Their growth study shows a need for a two million gallon per day treatment plant, more than double the size of the present Dixie Lee plant, additional lines, storage capacity and other improvements.

STAY WARM FOR LESS$

You're probably using too much electricity to heat your home. Not deliberately, of course. You're just trying to stay warm. But working against you is the cold outside air. It creeps through and around windows, underneath doors, and through ceilings, walls, and floors.

Stop cold air cold. Insulate ceilings and floors. Put up storm windows and doors. Caulk windows. Weatherstrip doors. Then you can stay warm for less this winter.

Capitol Commentary

by Late Lee Smith

Week week before last the FBI seized records in the office of Gov. Ray Blanton pertaining to pardons and other executive clemencies. In the aftermath of the FBI action, several widely-published news stories have alleged that a federal investigation of political payoffs is underway and have implicated Blanton long time confidant Eddie Sisk.

Prior to appointment to his present position, Sisk was a practicing attorney in Nashville. His integrity has never been questioned, and those who know him well doubt he would be involved knowingly in any serious wrongdoing.

In any event, the FBI action has focused attention on the policies of Gov. Blanton in granting pardons and other executive clemencies.

The Tennessee Constitution provides that the governor shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons after conviction. A pardon by a Tennessee governor of a person convicted of a crime initially convicted that person from having committed the crime.

Pardons are the most extreme form of clemency available to a governor, and generally are not granted in the absence of exceptional circumstances.

Along with the full pardon, a governor has other lesser forms of executive clemency available to him. These include a commutation of a death sentence and a pardon without imprisonment. He may commute any sentence to time served, or, more usually, he may reduce a sentence so that the inmate becomes eligible for parole by the Pardons and Pardon Board.

During his term Gov. Winfield Dunn granted pardons after an affirmative recommendation by the Pardons and Pardon Board. Although Dunn granted 20 pardons during his 4-year term, only a very few pardons were approved. Dunn granted pardons only when subsequently produced evidence indicated a prisoner might not have committed the crime for which he was incarcerated or when a person had been released from prison for many years and had since lived an exemplary life.

While the policy of Gov. Dunn in granting pardons and other clemencies was reasonable, that of Gov. Blanton is not.

Take, for example, the case of Joe Allen Finley of Blount County.

In June, 1974 Finley received a 30 year sentence for grand larceny. Six months later his father Babe Finley petitioned Dunn for a pardon. The elder Finley stated that he was ill with emphysema and needed his son released from prison as soon as possible.

Finley renewed his request. Blanton also sought a recommendation from the board and again the board declined to recommend a pardon. Despite the absence of an affirmative board recommendation, Blanton pardoned Joe Allen Finley on August 29, 1975.

It may be that Gov. Blanton had good and sufficient reason to grant the Finley pardon. But after questions were raised in Blount County, the governor never provided the explanation of the area with any citizens for his decision.

Blanton assumed office in 1975, Finley renewed his request. Blanton also sought a recommendation from the board and again the board declined to recommend a pardon. Despite the absence of an affirmative board recommendation, Blanton pardoned Joe Allen Finley on August 29, 1975.

In Memory

In memory of our loving mother, Mildred L. Johnson, who died September 12, 1973. Oh, what we would give Mom to see you smile, to sit with you and talk awhile. We often sit and think of you, the sadness you used to say and do. Our hearts still ache with many tears. But there is comfort Mom in knowing, that you are at peace in Heaven. You are not forgotten nor will you ever be, as long as life and memory last. We will remember your smile and know that you loved us all and we will always love you no matter what.

Sadly missed by children, Linda Huskins, Patricia Lyles, Tommy Johnson, SPS James K. Johnson, step children, grandchildren, relatives and friends. (11-4-1tp)

Two Charged In Fake Suicide Dragging At I-75 Bridge Suspended

CHARGED IN FALSE DEATH REPORT.—James Vanoy, reportedly the half brother to Donald Augianaga, was arrested Tuesday night for falsely reporting a death. Augianaga was the subject of a dragging operation in the Tennessee River after it was said he may have jumped from the I-75 bridge Monday night.

The report of a man jumping off the Interstate 75 Bridge into the Tennessee River Monday night was apparently faked by a Loudon man and his half brother, officials said.

Dragging operations by the Loudon County Rescue Squad and other squads from the area were called to a halt Tuesday at 9 p.m. after Squad Captain John Parris and Loudon County Sheriff Guy Russell obtained information that the whole thing was false.

James Vanoy, 18, of Dixie Lee Junction, a half brother to Donald Eugene Augianaga, 20, Rt. 1 Loudon, notified the Justice Center about 7:30 p.m. Monday that Donald may have jumped off the I-75 bridge. The man said that his brother told him to stop that he was going to jump when he had gotten out and when the brother looked back after pulling the car off the road he had disappeared. He told Trooper Joe Lemons, who was the first to arrive.

Squad Captain Parris said he obtained information late Tuesday afternoon that there had not been any suicide. He said he and Sheriff Russell went to see Donald's wife, Gail, at the home of her parents in Loudon. She told them that Vanoy had called her Tuesday afternoon and said that her husband was all right and asked if he could bring her two children and join him. She told Parris she replied that she would not.

Warrants were taken by Chief Deputy Jack Bright Tuesday night charging both Vanoy and Augianaga with Malicious Fabrication of a Death. Conviction carries a one to five year prison sen-

It is believed that the fake suicide was undertaken by Augianaga to avoid a possible prison term from a burglary conviction in Knox County. He had been offered parole on the charge if he paid a $500 fine and cost bill, but had been unable to secure the money and faced a prison term. Vanoy was involved in the same case, authorities said, and had served time as a juvenile. He just recently became 18, and is on parole.

Vanoy and Augianaga had both recently been employed at Sandy's Restaurant in Loudon (formerly Fee's) and Augianaga had also worked at Bill's Grill for a short time. Vanoy was arrested about 10:30 p.m. Tuesday at his residence by Chief Bright. He reportedly denied having talked to his brother or having told his wife that he called or that he was alive.

United Fund Goes Over 100 Percent

For the 14th consecutive year the Loudon County United Fund has surpassed its goal. With a record goal of $28,000 there was some concern for the success of the campaign but after the Victory Report Luncheon Monday, Fund Chairman Bob Smith said that he was never in doubt because Loudon County citizens and the Fund workers believe in the United Fund and support the 16 member agencies.

Monday's report saw the total reach $38,182.40, some $10,182.40 over the goal. There was an additional $5,340.74 reported at the meeting and Smith says that there is several hundred more dollars yet to be reported.

New money was an additional $25 from Eaton Corporation, giving them a total of $6,141.41; $27 from Lenoir Car Works, $10 from Lenoir City Haco plant for a $100 total; $75 from Sheffield Steel giving them a $300 total; $250.15 from Union Carbide, Loudon now totaling $4,258.15; the Combined Federal Campaign reported $36,727; Philadelphia Community $227.50; Greenback $112; Lenoir City business added $2,129.50 for a $336.50 total; Lenoir City residential another $218.40 for a total of $868.15. Loudon Business $1,704.47 for a total of $2,453.47; and Loudon Residential $106.50 for $251.97.

Chairman Smith said he was a newcomer to the United Fund, but didn't worry when the campaign started slow. "Everyone knew his job and things fell into place. The workers brought the success and should be thanked over and over again. The United Fund can rest easy because it has the total support of the Community," Smith said.

LOUDON COUNTY OFFICERS Luke Bright talks to secret service agents by phone shortly after deputy Allen Clemmer, acting on information from the Loudon police department, arrested three men, suspected of trying to cash a number of stolen social security checks in the Loudon and Lenoir City area last Wednesday.

3 Charged With Passing Stolen SS Checks Here

Three Knox County men are being held in Loudon County Jail in lieu of $14,000 bond each after passing and attempting to pass Social Security checks amounting to almost $1,000

Less Than 20 Percent Take Swine Flu Shots

According to records at the Loudon County Health Department less than 20 percent of the county have taken Swine Flu shots in the county.

The Health Department has handed the disbursement of the vaccine. Sunday another 1,000 came to the Lenoir City Clinic. Just over 400 turned out at Loudon.

Industrial vaccinations at Union Carbide and Eaton for another 400, and a total of 500 including County that were apparently stolen from mail boxes in Loudon and Lenoir City last week.

About noon Wednesday a man attempted to cash a Social Security check for $400 made out to Kate Hope, Atlanta Avenue, Loudon, at the West End Branch of First Heritage Bank. Bank Vice President Charlie Davis, who is a neighbor of Mrs. Hope and did not know the man who was waiting to cash the check, questioned him about the check and when Davis said he was going to call Mrs. Hope, the man grabbed the check and fled.

David notified Loudon Police Chief John Lennex about the matter and described the car and two other occupants of the car.

A short time later County Deputy Allen Clemmer spotted the car at the Pride Oil Company in Lenoir City. He said one of the men apparently noticed him watching the car and went into the restroom of the station. Clemmer radioed for help from Lenoir City units and other county units, then went inside the restroom after the men left and found Mrs. Hope's check in the trash can.

Clemmer went out and later went back to the restroom, after another of the suspects visited the restroom and found another check.

Arrested were Glyves Williams, 29, George Raymond Lee, 31, and Wayne Ray Williams, 26, all of Knoxville.

The second check found was made in Leona Pope for some $160.

Assisting Clemmer in the arrests were Lenoir City Chief Joe Sims, officers Floyd Williams and Clifton Williams, and deputy Larry Propp.

Chief Deputy Luke Bright called agents from the Secret Service and Postal Inspectors into the case.

After finding a cash register tape from White Store in Lenoir City, officers with help from store officials uncovered two other stolen checks. One was to Gilbert Blankenship of Loudon for $112.50 and one to Carrie M. Dills of Loudon for $94.70.

A cashier from the store identified two of the men who made separate purchases and allegedly had the checks cashed.

On Friday a fifth check to T. Clifford Melton of a Street in Lenoir City for $102 was cashed at the Convent store in Lenoir City. Again the man who allegedly cashed the check was picked from a lineup at the Justice Center.

When the trio was arrested they had some $28 in cash on them.

The three men entered guilty pleas to Omitting and Passing Forged Instruments in General Sessions Court and were bound to the Criminal Court Grand Jury by Judge Tom Ingram. One of them had previously been charged by federal officers on similar incidents.

Chief Bright said that the investigation was continuing with the assistance of the Postal Service and Secret Service. He said possible federal charges against the men were possible.

SEARCH BEGINS.—Loudon County Rescue Squadmen set up a large flood light on the I-75 bridge Monday night shortly after it was reported that a man jumped from the bridge. Twenty-four hours later the river dragging was halted after officials said there was no suicide.

Official Election Count Shows Few Changes

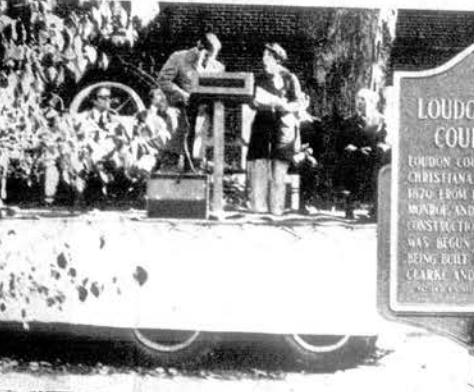

Official tabulation of the voting results in last Tuesday's state and national in Loudon County brought only a few very minor changes in what was reported election night.

There were five candidates that saw their vote totals change. All were the minor candidates for president and one minor candidate for U.S.

Philadelphia Bid Opening

Construction bids on the new Philadelphia School will be opened at a joint meeting of the Loudon County Board of Education and Purchasing Committee at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday night.

The Philadelphia project is part of a $4 million building program now underway by the county. Some $720,000 has been allocated for the Philadelphia project.

Superintendent of Education Edward Headlee said that he hopes bids on the Greenback School renovation and addition will be taken in the next 30 days.

All Loudon County Football Team Stocked With Senior Talent

The High School football season has pulled the curtain on the regular season and for the first time in five seasons Loudon County does not have a team in post season activities from either a play-off berth or a bowl appearance.

The final two weeks of the season saw some surprises erupt in the pressure-packed and East Tennessee play-off domination.

Triple-A Oak Ridge, probably the best team in its division in the state having lost but a single starter from last year's State Championship squad. The Wildcats can't find the answers in facing Knoxville Central (only team to beat the Oak Ridge team last year and this season) and the Bobcats, supposedly rebuilding has earned the playoff berth.

Double-A Loudon with only eight game schedule to present in defense of two back to back Class AA State Championships lost twice, once by minor injury and bad weather and once from mental lack of interest. Still the talent and material was believed to be in Redskin uniform for a possible third straight State Title. The short schedule and continual pressure may have been too much. The era may be exhausted or it may just be gaining new breath only the future will hold the secret.

Walland, Class A State Champions, are back again and have a 23 game winning streak in short order. A fired up Lanier team may only cause headache but Rockwood will also be in the semi-finals and will have a lot of emotion from losing to the Indians last winter.

Maryville, Knoxville Central, and Rockwood stand up as the best hopes for East Tennessee in the Play-offs' wind up at Murfreesboro on Thanksgiving.

While Loudon bowed out as controller of the Class AA grid action, the Redskins are still in a strangle hold for football talent in Loudon County. The Redskins landed nine players on the annual All Loudon County Football team sponsored by the Loudon County Herald and patron sponsors in the county.

On the 1976 team is Loudon senior quarterback and defensive back Greg Deatridge. Deatridge, a third team All East Tennessee honoree, rushed for 589 yards and passed for 300 more this fall. He also ran for eight touchdowns.

Others include senior defensive back Carter Cardwell a standout team leader and hard tackler was in on 51 tackles from his corner back position and intercepted four passes.

Senior Defensive end Sam Stewart led Loudon in tackles with a total of 73 stops and he missed two games with a knee injury. Junior defensive end Jim Brown, a big play man himself had two fumble recoveries and sacked the opposing ball carrier in the back field on 17 different occasions. He was in on 71 tackles and also kicked placement and kick-offs.

Junior Dennis Stewart, better known as "Crazy Man" for his wild and fearless play in seeking out a tackle had two fumble recoveries and was in on the initial take down of the ball carrier 70 times.

Junior Freddie Starritt an exciting ball carrier and determined hitter on defense had 20 punt returns and nine kick-off run backs that totaled over 30 yards for the season. He tallied five touchdowns and rushed for 572 yards on 75 carries.

Three college potential senior linemen from the awesome Loudon line in Junior Hulen, Sam Thearp and Bryan Curtis completed the cast of Redskins honorees.

All three have started for Loudon since being on the varsity. Curtis did not arrive on the scene until his junior year, transferring from Chattanooga. He was used mostly on offense but still was in on close to 50 tackles when going both ways.

blocker and a fiery defensive giant. He had 68 total tackles. Thearp was in on 68 tackles as well as was also used on offense.

Lenoir City, winning their last two games, placed seniors Herbert Sarten, Kenneth Flynn and Steve Porter on the team.

Sarten was a blocking Panther stalwart in the early stages of the season but was returned to inside reverse that caught the Goodlettsville defense off guard - and the sophomore rambled 23 yards to pay dirt with 5:44 left in the opening stanza. Loudon was penalized on the conversion kick and Jim Brown's second try, 15 yards deeper, was barely used of its mark.

Goodlettsville charged back taking the ensuing kick-off and then proceeding toward the Loudon end zone in the score at 6-6 with 1:26 left in the quarter.

The touchdown march covered just 47 yards in nine plays and the touchdown came from the one.

Loudon was hit by a 15 yard clipping penalty on the kick-off and had to start play from its own 17.

The Redskins could not go past their own 21 and punted to mid-field.

Goodlettsville controlled the game tempo with a 12 play drive of poise and patience that saw the Trojans get inside the Loudon 19 on a 14 yard pass and then sweep right end to the flag for the go-ahead touchdown with 5:06 on the first half clock.

The pass for a two point conversion was ruled successful despite the take down by Loudon linebacker Bobby Moore and corner back Carter Cardwell appeared to down the pass receiver a good half yard in front of the end zone flag.

the line when the Panthers needed more muscle up front. A steady tackler Sarten led the individuals in that department.

Steve Porter is a repeat offender for the Panthers playing outstanding as an offensive leader with a 44 rushing average and a sticker defense.

Kenneth Flynn was a Panther stalwart in the early stages of the season but was returned to inside reverse that caught the Goodlettsville defense off guard - and the sophomore rambled 23 yards to pay dirt with 5:44 left in the opening stanza. Loudon was penalized on the conversion kick and Jim Brown's second try, 15 yards deeper, was barely used of its mark.

Lenoir City High School football ended its season with a 14-10 victory over the Panthers in the final game of the season last week. The Panthers' season was completely over after a 14-10 triumph over Lake County.

Loudon Tumble From "AA" Ratings As Goodlettsville Clips Redskins 20-6

The Loudon Redskins traveled some 30 miles north of Nashville last Friday night to close out their 1976 football season. The defending Class AA State Champions, need out of a chance for three straight state titles by a tight game.

Nineteen seniors, playing their last game for the Big Red, would close out an era of Loudon High School football that has seen the Redskins lose only three times in 35 games. Few individuals can identify with such success.

But Friday night the once awesome Redskins gave maybe their poorest performance in some 40 games which would carry back to the 1973 or 72 seasons.

Goodlettsville on the other hand, coached by Ernest Smalen, former Loudon High School grid performer, had been in a mid-season tail spin and sought to gain some season ending glitter by clipping the State Champs.

The Trojans prevailed 20-6 and closed with a 5-5 record. Loudon thus dropping to 6-2. The Redskins got several breaks by way of Goodlettsville penalties in the early stages of the opening quarter. A clip and then a holding infraction denied a 34 yard touchdown scamper by the Trojans with 9:01 left in the initial quarter.

Freddie Starritt, who was one of few Loudon players to show a total effort in the game, zipped for a 16 yard gain as Greg Deatridge made a very impressive pitch to the trailing Starritt to enable him to turn the right corner.

Mark Moore pounded into the line for four yards in two tries before Starritt again escaped for a nine yard scout to the Trojan 20.

Greg Deatridge than ran for four yards and Steve Watkins took a handoff for an

All three have started for Loudon since being on the varsity. Curtis did not arrive on the scene until his junior year, transferring from Chattanooga. He was used mostly on offense but still was in on close to 50 tackles when going both ways.

PRE-GAME DROOPS—Loudon's football team shows little to be desired as they wait to take the field for the regular season final game at Goodlettsville last Friday night. The Trojans prevailed 20-6 as Loudon failed in its bid to make the Class AA State Playoffs for a third consecutive try at another State Championship.

The following firms join The Herald in sponsoring the 1976 All County Football Team and in congratulating them on their outstanding performances. Each member of the All County team will receive a handsome trophy and a certificate for their achievement.

Lenoir City Football Team Annihilates Play-off Bound Lakers, 21-8

THE LOUDON COUNTY HERALD, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1976, PAGE 7

The Lenoir City Panther High School football team has ended its season with its most stirring victory in three years. The off-beaten Panther gridders played their finest overall game of the 1976 season last Friday night, completely dominating the region Two Class AA play-off bound Lake City in a 21-8 triumph.

For Lenoir City, under the direction of first year head coach Scott Conner, the win marked their third win of the campaign and second in a row.

"It was a total team effort," spoke Coach Conner. "I am real proud of the way these boys have battled to pick themselves up week after week. The past couple of weeks we have really pulled together in full team harmony and the results has been most satisfying. They made some breaks Friday night, blocked well and everyone had a commendable defensive effort."

The Lakers had lost but once in nine games this season going into the Lenoir City battle on Friday night and will be making their first TSSAA Playoff appearance in this fall's season ending post season event.

But Friday night was all Lenoir City and the Lakers were soon to realize that.

Junior Richard Vest, who in his last couple of games has been used as a left halfback in the Panthers' Notre Dame Box Offense, has hit on eight of 10 passes and accounted for five Lenoir City touchdowns. The hard playing junior carried the ball 34 times against Lake City and gained 67 yards.

Joining Vest in the role of offensive standout was senior Steve Porter with a game high 80 yards rushing on 19 snaps of the football. Fullback Doyle Varner collected 30 yards in 15 carries to balance to Lenoir City running.

The Panther defense was equally active in controlling the line of scrimmage as Herbert Sarten, Marty Galvan, Kenneth Flynn, Eddie Park, Roger Lambert, and Chris Wampler were instrumental in allowing the home standing Lake City team just three first downs for the entire night.

Lenoir City wasted no time in establishing themselves as superior on this night. The Panthers took the opening kick-off and in 17 plays had marched 73 yards and Steve Porter crashed in to the end zone from the one yard line with 5:18 left on the third quarter clock.

Porter legged the ball six times on the drive for 35 yards. Richard Vest added 29 yards in five carries and Doyle Varner provided the rest of the real estate as Lenoir City's offense moved with a fluid effort.

Lake City got its first offensive chance hampered by a 15-yard clipping penalty on the kick-off and thus had to embark from the own 13 yard line.

The Panther defense carried the Lakers back to their 11 before settling for a fourth down punt.

A holding penalty also spoiled the Lenoir City offensive spirits and Lake City improved their field position to the 49 on the exchange of punts.

Lake City registered its first first down of the game to start the second quarter but had to yield the ball to the Lenoir

City defense on downs.

Lenoir City then impressively over came two 15 yard holding penalties to cover the 83 yards that stood between the line of scrimmage and the Lakers end zone.

Lake City was guilty of a roughing-the-player penalty in the Lenoir City march to their second touchdown with 5:32 left in the first half.

Richard Vest connected with fullback Doyle Varner on a 32 yard touchdown, hook-up and the conversion kick made the score 14-0.

The Panthers had the ball for 41 offensive plays in the first half while Lake City was seeking to find the weakness of the Panther defense on 14 first half offensive snaps.

Lenoir City, who had been awarded the football by the Lake City team to start the game, also had the option to begin the second half and chose to again have the pigskin.

From their own 29 the Panthers control led the football for a total of nine minutes and two seconds which included 22 offensive plays and six first downs.

Steve Porter had a pair of runs of 180 yards each to account for the largest individual chunk of real estate on any one snap of the ball.

Richard Vest again was the trigger man in adding to the Panther scoring as he completed a nine yard touchdown pass to senior Jimmy Madlock with 2:38 left in the third quarter and the conversion kick ran the score to 21-0.

Lake City's offense was inept at every turn, with Lenoir City using a pass in-terception to regain possession of the football after just two downs in the third quarter and then a big individual defensive showing by Chris Wampler and Marty Galvan almost resulted in another Lake City turnover, but off setting penalties forced the play over.

The Lakers failed to gain a first down at any rate and punted the ball away with four minutes gone in the final period.

Lenoir City was checked for one of its few times in the game and returned the football by way of a punt also. Lake City then drove to their only score of the game on a 67 yard effort in five plays. The final 46 yards coming on a Laker touchdown sweep. The two point conversion effort was also good with 4:21 to play in the game.

VICTORY RIDE FOR CONNER—Lenoir City head football Coach Scott Conner gets a welcomed victory ride off the field following the Panthers impressive upset win over play-off bound Lake City, 21-8.

RUNS LIKE A TRAIN—Lenoir City senior running back Steve Porter (30) goes with the power of a train on this carry into the Lake City secondary. The hard playing Porter had 89 yards in 19 carries to help pace the offensive play of the Lenoir City victory over Lake City Friday night.

KNOCKED AWAY—Lenoir City end Phil Reed (83) has a pass knocked away by Lake City's Terry Hoax, but the stopping of this play could not halt the Panthers from posting their third win of the season and most impressive 21-8 showing.

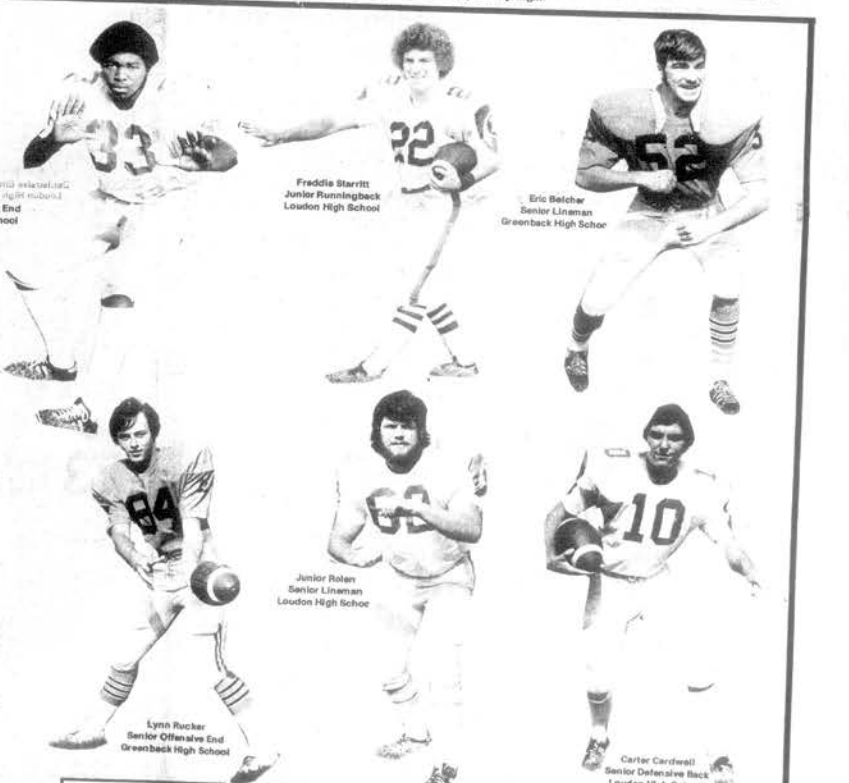

"The teacher says I'm being 're-cycled,' not 'left back'!"

In Uruguay, dueling is legal as long as both parties in the dispute are registered blood donors!

High School Basketball Season Opens With Friday Night Games

Basketball season is back and with it is the return of the dunk shot. The dunk shot should not affect girls' basketball as far as emotion of the game goes, but the possibility of Tennessee High School Girls Basketball could go to a five player full court format for the 1977-78 season. The fight to change the present style is currently in the courts but should drag on until December when the TSSAA will conduct its regional meetings across the state for which the vote of schools will be polled for the possible change.

Tennessee is one of just five states which still plays the six member game of three forwards and three guards. Another aspect to be considered is the move to using a "roving" player, thus allowing four offensive players and four defensive players on the same side of the court with a designated player or players being able to likewise cross the ball line as the ball moves from front court to front court.

Redskin Hoop Tickets Go On Sale

London High School Principal Dr. Gary Dutton says London High School Basketball season tickets are now available at the High School main office. The price of the 12 home game package is $10 for adults and $6 for students. Individual game tickets will be sold for 75 cents to students on days of the game with student tickets a dollar at the door. There will be no advanced adult ticket sales on the day of games and the individual door price will be $1.25.

London High School will jump into the hardwood theme on Saturday night with Chattanooga Riverside bringing their highly rated hoop program to London for a boys and girls affair starting at 7 p.m.

Panther Hoopsters Look To Future With Underclassmen Squad

The Lenoir City Panther Boys basketball team of Coach Willie Joe Smalley is currently 14 members strong. Coach Smalley's Panthers were 13-10 last winter and key injuries may have robbed him of a state tournament berth. Now it's a season of rebuilding and the veteran coach has no seniors of which to serve as leaders.

Chuck Reed a strong six footer is expected to play a lot of guard from early fall scrimmages. Roger Landrum, available now that football is over, is a 6-3 junior that hopes to lend help on the backboards.

PETIE LITTLETON—Ranks as one of the top individuals in the district this winter and will be counted on highly by Panthers.

The leadership will come from a pair of experienced front liners in Junior Petie Littleton (6-5) and Ronnie Hendrix (6-5). Both played regular as sophomores and are the better players from the experience.

There will be nights we will surprise people," states Coach Smalley. "We are going to be young and inexperienced. But these boys are going to be hustlers and won't stop trying. We must build and how long it takes for us to mature and get into the thick of things is now known. We are just going to set our goals at playing hard and hope for a good season."

Fall Barbecue

The annual Fall Barbecue of the Loudon County Sportsman's Club will be held at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 16 at Loudon Junior High. All members and persons who would like to join the club are invited to attend.

HOW'S YOUR ALIGNMENT?

You can feel and look better by keeping your spine straight.

Injury

The Lenoir Hoopsters of Coach Smalley have been in the stage for three seasons, but region tournament was their first round berth.

All this will be ironed out or the current system voted to stay the same come December. Many of the area girls coaches, including Loudon's Dewayne Arp.

Loudon Lady Reskins Among Best Distaffs In Class AA

The Loudon High School Lady Reskins of Coach Dewayne Arp made the Girls State Tournament scene last March and did not loose a single player from that highly successful squad.

Coach Arp sees no let down, only a stronger cast of competitors for his Lady Reskins to have to do battle with.

Over confidence this is Coach Dewayne Arp's best overall team he has been able to construct and should easily achieve a winning season if not a super campaign.

"We can have another fine season if we work and our attitudes don't change," spoke Coach Arp. "I have a great team of workers and having the experience of wading through the tournaments and a state berth will not hurt our chances of returning."

On offense the reserve power will reside about the potentially streak shooting of junior Rita Deford. Deford has a good outside shot and when hitting can destroy and defense. Cathy Delaney, a 5-4 sophomore, shows a bright promise and needs only game experience to someday be an outstanding forward.

change resulted from Loudon High School opening their cage season with a home game against Chattanooga Riverside on Saturday evening.

The Loudon offense will be the same three of the past two seasons. High scoring Fernadette Locke with over 2100 points to her career will again be the key. Jennie Leifer has a better eye from long range and Kim Brantthover appears more at ease with all being seniors and all having played the game so many times.

The Lady Reskins will rate consideration for possible return to a Class AA State Championship. The Loudon distaff has the credentials and fundamental coaching to achieve most any goal they want. Yet they must prove as a team that they can not just play with the big name distaffs but can win against them.

Football Contest In Final Stages

There were too many upsets for anyone to have a perfect entry in the weekly Herald Football Contest. However, five did correctly pick nine games, and four shared in the prizes. Most of the misses were on the Loudon-Goodlettsville and Lenoir-City-Lake City contests.

EXPECTED TO CONTRIBUTE GREATLY—Loudon Girls Basketball coach Dewayne Arp is expecting good things from the play of two of his top juniors, forward Rita Deford and guard Renee Grizzle.

Montooth totaled nine for the Philadelphia team. In a real seasaw game through three quarters, Steekee managed to pull out a 50-44 win over Highland Park.

The Football Contest will continue for two more weeks using the TSSAA regional championship and semi-final playoff games.

Experienced Loudon Boys Face Rebounding Problems

BETSY POWELL—Pantherette senior floor leader must become offensive scorer as well.
PATTY COOK—Twisted knee could twist Pantherette season.

The Loudon High School Boys basketball program is well into fall preparation for the 1976-77 season which is set to tip-off this Saturday night against highly touted Chattanooga Riverside.

The Redskins did not lose a single player from a team that blossomed in the late going of 1975-76 and posted a 15-16 season record and made its first appearance ever for a Loudon High School Boys team in the state tournament.

"We are anxious to get started," was Coach Hugh Watson's thoughts to the season.

Experienced and hungry the Redskins are not "in" for a joy ride. The Redskins will face such giants as Kingsport D-B and Kelson and will host substitutes for Sullivan Central.

Other sure toughies will be Harriman, Kingston, Alcoa, senior city, and Maryville Everett.

To put water to the fire the Redskins are without their all-star pivot 6-6 senior Mark Harrell. Harrell missed all of spring workouts with a knee sprain and then has been on the court just twice since the start of school. His fall complications has been from an appendicitis operation.

He is presently in the hospital after over doing some conditioning for the season. His status is unknown.

Seniors Randy Davis, Mark Blair, Terry Viars, and Steve Millage will be in harness and ready for action.

Davis is a streak shooter and can set the nets on fire when he is on his game. He has made great strides to improve on quickness and going to the bucket with the ball for this season.

Mark Blair will be the surprise on offense and defense it is believed. Blair has tremendous speed and uses it to his advantage.

Terry Viars is again in charge of the team at the point guard and his confidence and smooth leadership is a plus to all the Redskins.

Steve Millage will again be a steady player with exceptional games coming from him on occasions.

Junior Gary Brown, 6-4, 250, will be depended on sooner and with more interest since coming into his own in the tournament portion of last season. Gary has been involved in football and needs several weeks to adjust to the hardwood game.

Most improved and wanting to play, sophomore Stephen Betts, a 6-4 forward will see a lot of playing time.

Juniors Freddie Starritt (football) and Van Ratledge will give depth to the Loudon back court game.

Sophomore Steve Watkins, senior Sam Stewart, and Carter Cardwell will be making bids from the football team to gain a varsity spot.

Stewart was a back board bruiser in spring drills and impressed coaches with his grit.

Dennis Brown (6-2 sophomore) Donnie Russell (6-1, sophomore) and Bobby Roach have all been active in early fall scrimmages.

Freshman team hopefuls will be Tony Henderson, Jeff Purdy, Kerry Brant Hoover, Charlie Waller, and Buddy Arns.

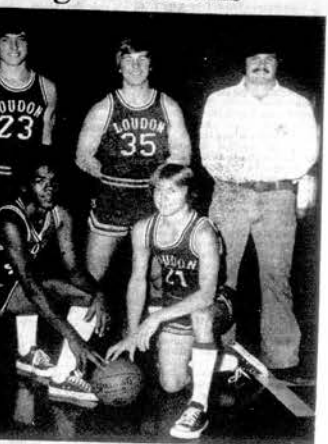

Senior Greg Deatridge may be pass basketball in hopes of an endurance for a football college scholarship.

"We can be a much better team last year and not have a much better record," admits Coach Hugh Watson. "Other teams are improved and we will have to scry for everything we can get."

Rebounding looms as a major concern for the football team along with overall defensive savvy. The offense should be wide open inside and outside scoring punch.

Loudon can run or they can put a control game on the floor. The variety of players and how well they are used will have much to say of the success of this year's team.

The players must recognize

Injured Patty Cook Question For Pantherettes

The Lenoir City Pantherettes of Coach Mike Pickle have been in a rebuilding stage for the past couple of seasons, being knocked from region tournament play in the first round both times.

Coach Pickle grins slightly when he says he must again say the Pantherettes are reconstructing.

The team leader and success of the team will rest much on the offensive play of senior Patty Cook. But Cook a consistent 20 point average performer has been out of practice for four weeks with a twisted knee and could be on the shelf for a indefinite period of time.

"Patty has tried to return to some active workouts this week with the first regular season game on tap for Friday night," stated Coach Pickle.

Joining Patty on the first offensive trio will be senior playmaker Betsy Powell. Betsy is a hustling ball handler and can score. She is expected to be a double figure contributor for sure this winter.

The third forward position is still up for grabs. Junior Sharon Liles was the most likely candidate, but she did not try out for the team and thus opens the door for either sophomore Rosemary Hines or classmate Melissa Smith to claim the position.

The Pantherettes have also lost the potential senior defensive play of Debbie Johnson, who likewise dropped from the team.

The Pantherette guards will be short, although quick. Bet Thaxton will be among the best at getting the ball down the floor and only a junior.

Kim Davant (sophomore) and Cindy McConkey (a junior letterman) rate starting nods at this writing. Davant is considered a good jumper.

Senior Janet Redmond has been converted to guard duties, but could lend assistance to the forwards should she be needed. Sophomore Pam Hartline also figures to play some at guard but has been sidelined with a foot injury and is doubtful to be at playing status for several weeks.

Coach Pickle has been most impressed with the strong improvement of freshman guard candidate Nadine Coart. Nadine is about 5-9 and could give the Pantherettes some rebounding size later in the season if she develops fast enough. Another freshman that has caught the coaches eyes has been Candy Pace also a guard.

"We will just have to wait and see as to how the team shapes up," declares Coach Pickle. "I felt at the start of fall with Patty showing a lot of leadership and maturity that going to be suitable. But with her hurt and the experience we must start out with the early part of the season could be tough on us."

Coach Pickle figured Loudon and Kingston as the teams to be most feared of in the immediate area in Class AA girls.

Greenback Quint Expects Slow Start

Greenback head boys basketball coach Charlie Bailey sees his team as having no definite weakness, but in the same breath declares there is no over powering strength either.

"We are going to be a team that can have its good games and then can fall apart the next night."

The Cherokees will have one of the top small college prospects in the area in senior Rudy Kizer. Kizer is "Mr. Everything" to the Cherokees from top scorer to leading assist man right on up to one of the top rebounders and ball handlers. He has had hamstring illness that has left him watching from the stands in the past two seasons when tournament time arrives. Hopefully he will finally get to go through an entire season injury free.

Teaming with Kizer will be Juniors Steve Linginfelter (6-4, 180) and Jimmy Russell (6-1), Linginfelter is a smooth inside player, but had tendencies to foul as sophomore. Russell is a good jumper, but slim in size. His shooting confidence is expected to improve for this winter and could pick up a lot of points if too much attention is placed on Kizer or Linginfelter.

Danny Dotson (senior) is also a returning starter and letterman at guard. Dotson is capable of being a fine player but often times lets his temper control his play.

Lynn Rucker appears the most likely candidate to move into a starting position at forward. The 6-2 senior played as a reserve his junior year.

Chris Blair (5-7, junior) could claim the starting point job if taken too lightly. Blair is a good ball handler and hustler. He can shoot when left unattended and shows calm emotions under pressure.

Richard Reagan is a junior who also will register playing time once the season is under way.

Mark Roberts is still hurt from football but was a varsity player last year, his teammates abilities and the seasoning of last year to be winning contributors for Loudon to go far in post season activities.

"So far in scrimmages we have shown a great pride to work as a team both on the floor and on the bench," relates Coach Watson. "I feel

Veteran Forwards To Make Greenback Girls Capable

The Greenback High School Girls Basketball team figures to be in the top four district pacers by the time tournaments are in order for late February and early March.

The Cherokees have the same offensive attack back from last year with senior Marti Myers (co-captain) and senior Cindy Tipton looking for stellar seasons.

Junior Pam Neely, an expected co-captain and one of the top district individual players in the Class A, figures to set the offensive tempo as she has done in the past two seasons as a starter.

Senior Robin Anderson is back for her senior year after a fine junior season. She is the team captain. Cindy Hawkins (former Cindy Bell of 1975-76) is also a returning defensive performer and starter. Senior Darlene Woods, who played almost as much as All District guard Debbie Childs (now graduated) last season, moves in to the top rebounding role at 2-1.

Two sophomores rate high to Coach Jerry Masingo as defensive reserves that could even push the current starting threesome. They are Cheryl Belcher (5-10) and Penny Peeler. Peeler is back in operation after a knee surgery kept her out last winter.

Three sophomore forwards are patiently waiting in the wings to make their starting debut. They are Jackie Hall, Jackie McNeilly, and Robin Kizer. All three got in some valuable playing time as freshmen and while not expected to challenge for starting positions this winter are going to need little prompting once they are pressed into action as to how to score points. The three play well together and will be worthy reserve power.

Senior Gay Shephard and sophomore Susan Bell and Annette Chapman round out the 14 player roster of Coach Jerry Masingo who will be starting his fifth season as head of the Greenback Girls.

The Cherokees are a respectable 10-1 last year and were in the region tournament in 1974-75. That nucleus has matured and Coach Masingo believes that he may have the people to do battle with Perdue, Friendswood, Walden, Seymour, and the like. "We have some tough games and will probably lose our share, but I think we can play competitively with about any of the teams in our league on a given night," declares Coach Masingo.

The Cherokees do have some impressive credentials

MUST CLEAN BACKBOARDS—Greenback's Darlene Woods will have to do the rebounding chores when the district honors.

Loudon Defeated By Trojans, 20-6

Carl Hawkins legged the kick-off back 39 yards, almost going all the way. Loudon then got a 21 yard gallop from speedy Freddie Starritt to the Goodlettsville 30, but four consecutive plays could only gain two yards from that point and Goodlettsville took over on downs to extend the first half of playing time.

Loudon opened the third quarter with fair field position at their own 35 and advanced the ball to the 39 before disaster hit by way of a fumble on an attempted reverse to Watkins. The Trojans recovered at the Loudon 30.

Goodlettsville made good of the second half break. Two running plays failed to penetrate the Loudon defense for more than two yards and a third pass was in the hands of Loudon linebacker Mark Moore when the junior lost the handle to his interception and an alert Trojan receiver plucked the ball from the air and stepped two yards into the end zone.

The lucky maneuver upped the Goodlettsville score to 20-6 and was only the second touchdown to be scored on Loudon in the second half of the entire season.

The point spread at the time (8:48 of the third quarter) did not appear to favor the Redskins as they stayed back to their game plan.

Loudon marched to the Trojan 22 before a clip lost 15 yards and the Redskin offense was stopped on downs at the Trojan 22 with 3:08 in the third period.

Loudon's defense was unyielding from this juncture as the Trojans would receive the ball on five offensive series before the game's end and only to punt the ball back to Loudon each time.

Still the Redskin offense was coughing and sputtering. The running game, which had seen Freddie Starritt gain 71 yards in the first half closed off and with the airways available Loudon was either off target or its intended receiver or the ball was mishandled forcing loss of downs.

Loudon lost the ball on downs to start the fourth period with 10:40 to play and the ball positioned at the Goodlettsville 47.

Loudon's next offensive series started at their own 13 and while two plays gained nine the third and fourth downs were stopped cold with the Trojans breathing fire at the Loudon 23.

A gallant defensive stand and a 15 yard penalty set up a 12 yard punt by the Trojans and Loudon would try once more, this time at their own 27.

The Redskins mounted a 10 play series but a fourth down at the 44 of the Trojans ended in a inches short run by Starritt of 190 yards to the 34 for a first down.

Goodlettsville ran the clock down to 46 seconds before Loudon made three attempts to narrow the score. Carter Cardwell, who quarterbacked the entire fourth period, gained five. Steve Watkins bolted for eight yards and Greg Deatheridge made a 17 yard contribution to end the game with Loudon stationed at the Goodlettsville 30.

Freddie Starritt led Loudon in offense with 73 yards on 14 carries and was twice carried from the field after being knocked out from hard kicks.

Greg Deatheridge logged 33 yards in nine runs and Steve Watkins and Mark Moore had 39 and 20 yards respectively.

Sam Stewart, Dennis Stewart, Sam Thea, Junior Rolan and Freddie Starritt paced the hitting on defense for Loudon.

Loudon Coach Bert Riedel was disappointed and said he wished the Redskins had made a better showing in behalf of East Tennessee and the caliber team they were rather than playing with the hurt of not again being in the playoffs.

"We were fat and Goodlettsville wanted to win badly. It was just a let down performance and there is no one to blame or anything to say."

Coach Smallen had the game dedicated to him by his senior players and stated his was probably the best his team had played for an entire game all season which included a 61-13 romp of Kingston.

COACH SMALLEN TALKS TO HIS STAR—Former Loudon athlete Ernest Smallen talks with his outstanding All Star candidate Terry Potter, who has averaged 14.6 yards a carry this season and scored twice against Loudon last Friday night. Potter a very talented offensive player had a net of 71 yards in 19 carries against Loudon.

TOUCHDOWN RUN—Loudon sophomore Steve Watkins (31) weaves his way through would-be Goodlettsville tacklers in route to Loudon's first quarter touchdown.

GOODLETTSVILLE TIES GAME—Goodlettsville runningback Terry Potter slashes over from one yard out as the Trojans fought back to tie Loudon at 6-6 after one quarter of action in the season football wrap up for both teams.

NEW CONTEST RULES

Read Before Completing Entry

1. Clip the contest entry blank on this page, or make a reasonable facsimile. The 10 contest games are numbered according to appearance in the entry blank in sponsoring firms advertisements below. List the sponsor's name in the blank beside the corresponding game. This is required for your entry to be scored. Also estimate the total number of points which you think will be scored by both teams in the Tiebreaker game listed on the entry blank. This will be used only if it is necessary to break a tie between contestants.
2. Each person may enter on his own name five times. The contestant may also enter on the names of his immediate family only, immediate family meaning, wife, husband, children, mother, father, brothers or sisters. Employees (or their immediate families) of the Loudon County Herald are not eligible to enter this contest. Players of the teams in the contest are not eligible. Although an individual can enter his or her own name five times that person may win only one weekly prize under their own name.
3. All entries must be deposited in the contest box in the Herald office by 5 p.m. Friday or postmarked not later than 5 p.m. Friday, if mailed. Entries received after that time will not be eligible. Address all entries to FOOTBALL CONTEST, The Loudon County Herald, Loudon, Tennessee.
4. Entries will be judged on the number of games right. In case of a tie, the contestant coming the nearest to the actual number of points scored in the Tiebreaker game will be awarded the prize. The names of each week's winners will be printed in the Herald or the following week. All contestants agree that the decision of the judges will be final, and all entries become the property of the Herald. The winners of any cash prizes can pick up their cash prizes at The Herald office, 960 Mulberry Street immediately after the names are published.

The 235 vote margin that Jimmy Carter took over Gerald Ford stood the test of the official tally. Carter took 50.72 percent of the local vote, Ford 48.28, leaving one percent for the other eight candidates. That is almost identical to the national percentages which gave Carter his popular vote win of the 832 voters here 119 direct vote for any presidential candidate.

As reported last week Senator Bill Brock carried Loudon County but failed in his state-wide bid for reelection being defeated by former State Democratic Party Chairman Jim Sasser of Nashville.

Elected as State Representatives were Benny Stafford from the 21st District and David (Peabody) Ledford, a Democrat from the 26th District.

Winners in the Constitutional Convention Delegate races were Brenda Lee from the 21st District and Shirley Duer, wife of a Crossville physician.

week will recall a lot of memories for many readers and we hope you enjoy it. It is the inside of the old Eason store on Broadway in Loudon City in the days of every description of this old store. Everything from horse liniment to sewing machines and plows. I guess one of the things we enjoy most about reviving these old and now gone business places is the changes that have taken place. The many modern things that have come along that we had no idea would every come into being.

We had cards and calls from many of our readers and this was greatly appreciated and we know others were thinking of us. We find it a little painful to move around at this time and would like to spend more time selecting pictures for this week's Good Old Days, but please bear with us until we see better days. One of our pictures this salesmen called on stores across this area of East Tennessee. I love the many modern beautiful homes we see in our area, but somehow the old homes built 50, 75 or some 100 years ago offer a live-in part of our lives again. The old front porch with its swing and warm summer nights when people would sit and talk about childhood days, or the problems of the world which seemed so far away. Or perhaps some veteran of World War I who would talk of hardships of being a soldier in his day. Alas, some of the old houses still stand, some have been restored, some stand in need of repair. One of our pictures this week is of such an old home. The Byrum home of Loudon City. This picture was made the 4th of July over 75 years ago. As it stands now, we possibly will have to do another stay in the hospital in the near future, but if we can get to feeling good enough we will try to prepare some Good Old Days material before hand. We sure hope we are able to.

Again we would like to say we are most grateful to the many people who have expressed concern for our welfare over our illness the past weeks. Our friends are the greatest asset we have and mean a great deal to us. The weeks ahead are uncertain for us, but as our physical condition permits we will be trying to bring the Good Old Days to our readers. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Capitol Commentary

by M. Lee Smith

By any yardstick, Nov. 2 was a day of success for Tennessee Democrats.

With a record 1.66 million voters casting ballots, Democrats carried the state handily for presidential nominee Jimmy Carter, and nephews.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Nov. 4 at Valley View Baptist Church, of which he was a member. Rev. Harry Mints, Rev. E.H. Brock officiated. Interment, Valley View Cemetery, Karnes Funeral Home, Loudon, in charge.

turned Sen. Bill Brock out of office, retained five of eight congressional seats, and increased their already lopsided majorities in both houses of the General Assembly.

The results should be sobering to Tennessee Republicans. As Sen. Bill Brock said two days after his defeat, the Republican Party in Tennessee needs to take a long look at itself.

Only four years ago to achieve notable statewide success from 1966 through 1972 the Republican Party, both U.S. Senate seats, five congressional seats, and almost half the seats in the Tennessee House of Representatives. This strength resulted from a remarkable string of election victories from 1966 through 1972. But after last week the only positions Republicans have they did not hold prior to 1966 are one U.S. Senate office and a few legislative seats.

Tennessee is and has been a strong Democratic state. Republicans were able to achieve notable statewide success from 1966 through 1972 only because Democrats were divided among themselves and the Republicans offered capable, attractive alternative candidates. In 1966, for example, three-time Gov. Frank Clement defeated liberal Sen. Ross Bass in the Democratic primary for Senator. Some liberal Democrats who had fought Clement for years declined to support him in the general election, and a few conservative Democrats viewed Clement as showup.

As a result, Baker won election to the Senate. In part, Baker succeeded because he was younger and brighter. But more importantly, he won because of internal problems in the Democratic Party and opposition among some Democrats to the party's nominee.

Again in 1970 Winfield Dunn was elected Governor and Bill Brock Senator, partially because they were attractive candidates. But the more significant reason was that conservative Democrats declined to support nominees John Jay Hooker and Sen. Albert Gore who were from the liberal wing of the party.

The important point is Baker in 1966 and Dunn and Brock in 1970 who not so much because of a trend toward grassroots Republicanism as because of disaffection within the Democratic ranks. Having achieved these impressive victories, the Republicans failed to solidify the rank-and-file support necessary for continued success.

These facts were demonstrated last week in Brock's defeat by Democrat Jim Sasser. Although there were many reasons for Sasser's win, unquestionably the major factor was a unified Democratic effort behind a Democratic nominee with no political liabilities in a state where—according to political polls—Democrats outnumber Republicans two to one.

Of particular concern to Tennessee Republicans should be election results in East Tennessee which traditionally has been a rock-ribbed Republican area.

Although Brock carried East Tennessee, he received six percent fewer votes than he won in 1970. In addition, 3rd district Rep. Marilyn Lloyd (D-Chattanooga) defeated former Republican Congressman Lamar Baker by a huge two to one majority, and Republicans lost three East Tennessee state senate seats.

Perhaps most surprising of all, the closest Tennessee congressional election was in the 1st district in upper East Tennessee where challenger Lloyd Hlevins won 42 percent of the vote against veteran Rep. Jimmy Quillen (R-Kingsport). Hlevins had been expected to provide only nominal opposition to Quillen, who in the past has normally won reelection with 70 percent or more of the vote.

Whether the trend toward declining East Tennessee support and other problems continue for Republicans remains to be seen. A lot can and no doubt will happen between now and the 1978 elections. But for Tennessee Republicans, 1976 election success will be uphill all the way.

BOARD MEETING
The regular monthly meeting of the Loudon County Board of Education will be held in the superintendent's office on Thursday, November 11, 1976 at 7:30 p.m. A copy of the agenda is shown below.

BUILDING PROGRAM
The word is circulating that many parents are concerned about the plans for the two new middle schools to be built soon. I have been contacted by folks who are disturbed about "open-space" schools. Loudon County is not planning to build any "open-space" schools. The plans which are being prepared have the classrooms arranged in "pods" or clusters for the various grade levels, but each class area within each cluster is separated from each other class area by partitions or cabinets or storage spaces. The plans do not call for any two classes to be in the same "open" area.

hope that this information will calm the fears and concerns of those parents who may have been misinformed concerning the plans for the new schools.

PHILADELPHIA ELEMENTARY
The opening date for bids on Philadelphia Elementary School is set for Tuesday, November 16, 1976 at 7 p.m. We hope that the bid invitations for Greenback School will soon be advertised, also.

AGENDA
Loudon County Board of Education

I. Request for leave of absence—Pat McIntosh (Greenback)-1 year leave
II. Interview of new teacher applicants—A. Cathy Witten-Philadelphia (Resource Teacher), B. Camille Duncan-Greenback
III. Request for additional hours per week for custodian at Glendale—Mrs. Spines
IV. Meeting with bus owner—Mr. Ernest Contry, Jr.
V. Committee Reports—A. Bus contract committee, B. Loudon Area bus complaint committee, C. Report card committee
VI. Superintendent reports.

October Rainfall Was Above Normal
Rainfall across the Tennessee Valley region was nearly 3 inches above normal in October, averaging 5.8 inches. This is the second straight month the region has received above-normal rainfall.

becoming an annual event. Sincerely, Virginia Mills, Route 4, Lenoir City.

Dear Editor:
Although I now live in Columbia, Tenn., I still keep up with my home in Loudon as much as I can. I was really pleased then that my husband and I were able to go to the Loudon-Goodlettsville ballgame. Although disappointed, of course, at the results of the game, some Redskin fans gave my spirits a boost. As we traveled home to Columbia after the game, we correctly turned onto the I-65 South Lane at the junction of 140 East and I-65. Some Loudon fans behind us, seeing our license tag, honked as thinking we were taking the wrong turn as in- stead, we would have been headed going to Loudon. To that family in the light colored Volkswagen, whoever you are, I warmly thank you. However, I didn't want you to worry thinking you failed to save us many miles of extra driving. We probably beat you home by three hours and we even stopped to eat. Your action was a thoughtful gesture typical of a Loudon native. You all are great!
Sincerely,
Sarah Karnes Thomason, Columbia, Tenn.

DRIVER INJURED—Michael E. Moser, 19, Rt. 4, Loudon, received minor injuries Sunday morning after his car ran off U.S. 11 just below the Loudon County Justice Center. Deputy Allen Clemmer said Moser told him that he went to sleep, ran off the road and overturned.

Letters To The Herald Editor

Dear Mr. Cate: I want to say thanks again to you and the Loudon County Herald for bringing the First Annual Homemakers School to Loudon. I also want to thank all the many sponsors and area merchants and Miss Marty Nabors, the Home Economist. A very special "Thank You" to the point and Mr. Riches of Tennesson Electric Co. of Sweetwater for the Hotpoint Microwave oven I am enjoying so much. I'm sure everyone will be looking forward to this

IN MEMORY OF JUNIOR KING

On November the 9th, 1974 our Daddy was called by Jesus.
We don't know why, but Jesus had a reason.
And we had no chance to say goodbye.
As each day goes by we miss him more.
But we all hope to meet him on Heaven's peaceful shore.
I see his picture on my table and thoughts go through my mind.
But I know he loved us children he had to leave behind.

Notice to City Property Owners

The 1976 city property taxes are now due and payable. These taxes may be paid through February, 1977; however, on March 1, 1977, a penalty will be added to the 1976 taxes. The 1975 and prior years delinquent taxes which are not paid on or before March 1, 1977, will be turned over to the Clerk and Master's office for collection. The City of Loudon Charter provides that all taxes levied shall be a lien upon the real estate on which they are levied. Whole Communities Disappear...

PARKWAY REPLACES CHURCH—Construction of the new Tellico Parkway is well underway as shown in the background where the new highway crosses State Route 72 near Jackson Community. The bridge is located where the old Bethel Church stood for decades. The property in the photo was purchased by TVA from Verb Simpson and others.

...As TVA Clears

Land For Tellico...

WAS ONCE THE JACKSON COMMUNITY—The sign calls your attention to the one lane bridge traveling toward Loudon. The landscape in the background is clean, but it once housed the Jackson School and stores, plus a community of several families. Now it is being cleared and awaits the backwaters of the Tellico Lake.

TREES ARE ALL THAT REMAIN—About the only recognizable landmark on the once stately farm of Colonel Charles H. Bacon is the grove of trees near the large colonial farmhouse once stood. The grove of trees will soon be on the shoreline of the new Tellico Lake.

County School Board Concerned Over Student Reading Deficiencies

Deepening concern over the lack of basic skills of students (primarily in reading and basic math) was discussed by the Loudon County Board of Education last Thursday night.

Chairman Ted Wampler and other board members said that national surveys show that students are not getting the reading skills they need and that tests of students in Loudon County show that the same trend is evident here.

Loudon High Principal Dr. Gary Dutton said that teachers are aware of the problem and themselves very concerned with the problem.

The board asked that particular attention be given to strengthening the basic skills of reading and math. Dr. Dutton said at Loudon High the faculty was working on a program to achieve a minimum 7th grade level of reading for all students.

Glendale parent Dick Waterhouse questioned the use of a math test in the Title I program for all students in grades 4-6. This Programs Director Bill Lawson replied that the test is a diagnostic test just to see the level of education it needs if there has been a failure to learn the basic skills. "We must do everything we can to improve our efforts to give a child the education that it needs, and this must begin with a strong basic program of reading and math."

The Board Transportation (bus contract) Committee announced it will meet with a committee of bus owners Thursday at 3 p.m. to start discussions that hopefully will lead to a new contract for student transportation. For more than a year the problems of bus transportation, both costs and routes and mileage, have been discussed at length by the board.

The forming of a committee by the bus owners to meet with the board is seen as progress in narrowing a wide gap between the board and bus owners. Bus owner W.B. Costner said that Scott Collins was chairman of the owner's committee, and they were interested in the development of a new contract that would go in effect when the present one expires in 1978.

Board members said they want the contract prepared as soon as possible because it would like to put it into operation on a occasion call for it, such as when a bus owner trades buses. Under the present contract a bus owner cannot trade buses, if they do the board contends their contract is void and a new one would be needed.

Working drawings for the Greenback School renovation and construction project are now in the hands of the State Department of Education, Superintendent Headlee said, and he hopes the architect will be in a position to advertise for bids on the project in about two days. He said that some 18 contractors have expressed interest in the Philadelphia project (Bids on the Philadelphia project were opened Tuesday night. See story elsewhere).

Headlee said that some survey work is continuing on the sites of the two middle schools at Loudon and Eatons, but that acquisition of the properties should be completed during the month.

Chairman Wampler said that the board has been fortunate in finding the two new schools that has been available from owners that have been cooperative. "We have paid a good price for the property, not too much and not too little," he said.

A $1,000 budget amendment was approved by the Board to assist in the operation of the cafeteria operation is costing more than it is taking in because of the small number of students.

After a report by bus owner W.B. Costner that a student had been suspended from writing one of his buses for three days because of improper conduct was still on the bus, the board instructed Superintendent Headlee to inform the parents that the student was not to ride the bus for three days.

Costner said repeated attempts to correct the actions of the student by the bus driver and principal, Robert Huffine failed, Huffine approved the suspension and notified the parents. Costner said the driver told him that Court member Jim Blair said the first driver on the bus, Chairman Wampler questioned Blair's authority to pass anyone on the bus. Costner said the situation had caused other problems.

Board member Ted Randall said he thought Blair might be getting undue blame for the situation.

Loudon Eyes Annexation Of Green Acres, Highway 72 Areas

The possible annexation of portions of new Highway 72, between U.S. 11 and the I-75 interchange, and the Green Acres Subdivision were the principal topics of discussion at the Loudon Council meeting Monday night.

A decision on whether or not these annexations will be undertaken may be made at an adjourned session of the Council at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 29 at the Utility Building.

Following discussion of the annexations, Mayor Gene Lambert asked that the city staff and utility board with the help of the state planning staff and city engineers try to put together a price tag for the annexation, some sort of services schedule to the annexation areas and what financial return the city might expect.

Mayor Lambert said that any annexation must carry two things. A plan of services which provides the annexed property with such things as better streets, street lights, garbage service, upgraded utilities if needed, fire and police protection; and be affordable to the city with revenues generated from the area to pay for the services over a period of years.

Annexation of the Highway 72 area, held to be a primary area of annexation by the Planning Commission, has been renewed with recent agreements with the Elation Purina Company to develop water and sewer service in the area, across I-75 to the new Purina plant. Annexation of the four corners of the interchange are almost certain by the Council, along with other portions of property along the highway 72 right of way.

The Council will hold a work session 90 minutes before the adjourned Session Nov. 29 to look at the figures and determinations by the staff whether or not to proceed on either or both of the areas.

Mayor Lambert said he has had considerable interest from residents of Green Acres asking for annexation, but said he had not talked to nearly all the people there.

A resolution was passed by the Council requesting the Loudon Utility Board to begin negotiations with the Loudon City Utility Board to acquire electrical service now provided by Loudon City to areas recently annexed north of the Tennessee River, primarily in Union Carbide and the Blair Bend Industrial Park.

A city housing board to hear appeals from residents who wish to challenge actions by the City Housing Inspector if their housing is ordered condemned. Appointed were the members of the Housing Authority: Don Canter, Jim Woodard, Jack Fickey, Randal Johns and Ed Arnold.

A first reading was passed on approval of a new City Zoning Ordinance.

Prior to the Council meeting a public hearing on the Zoning Ordinance - State Planner Steve Campbell said the re-writing of the ordinance was a necessary housekeeping item to update the document and in most cases either simplified or streamlined the existing ordinance and that the substance of the ordinance was changed very little.

Herald Early Next Week

The next issue of The Loudon County Herald will be published early next week because of the Thanksgiving Holiday.

Deadline for all news, advertisements, classifieds, pictures and other material will be at 12 noon Monday. The paper will be delivered to newsstands and in the newsstand Tuesday. The paper will return to its regular schedule the following week.

Philadelphia Bids High, 11 Proposals Are Studied

Eleven construction firms placed bids on the Philadelphia School building project. The bids were opened Tuesday night by the County Education Department in a joint meeting with the County Board of Education.

Architect Ben McMurtry asked that he and his staff be given an opportunity to review and study the bid, weighing the bids and alternatives before making a recommendation.

Taking the bids on the face figures all are higher than the $600,000 allowed for the project, after adding the architect's fees, equipment, electrical and building and other costs. It would appear that about $75,000 could have to be trimmed from the project if it is to be built.

The bids called for a base bid construction if the new building, alternate one remodeling the existing building and kitchen equipment, alternate two (educational equipment), and alternate three, a deduction for modifications in the heating and air conditioning equipment.

The bids are described below as base bid, plus, two add alternates, and one deduct alternate, and called for bids to completion.

Brownlee-Kesterson, Knoxville - base bid $748,044, with alternate - $973,334. Completion days 270.

E.K. Emory Company, Inc. Knoxville - base bid $607,000, with alternates $810,957. Completion days 200.

Thieves Make $13,372 Haul At Lenoir City

Building materials and equipment valued at $13,372 were reportedly stolen from the Knott's Works building. The stolen material was the property of E.A. Trivett of Johnson City, who formerly operated a modular home construction firm in the building.

Lenoir City Policeman Clifton Williams said the theft was reported last Thursday by a panel on a large front door, going inside and cutting a lock. He said the merchandise taken was a $7,200 lock lift, 45 interior and exterior doors.

Officer Williams said the building was entered by knocking out a fiberglass panel on a large front door, going inside and cutting a lock. He said the merchandise taken was a $7,200 lock lift, 45 interior and exterior doors.

Knox Drops Local Landfill Proposal

Published and broadcast reports from Knoxville seem to indicate that the City of Knoxville will be considering a farm of Watt Road in North Loudon County as the primary site of a large sanitary landfill.

One report said that the State Department of Health had turned down one of the primary sites and was getting ready to deny the use of another. Just after this there

City Seeks Grant For City Building

The City of Loudon is planning to seek a $200,000 federal grant for the construction of a new Municipal building complex.

Council approved a resolution last Thursday night authorizing Mayor Gene Lambert to sign the application documents. City Administrator Gary Henley program funds, but there more than $280,000 in projects already applied for.

Administrator Henley said he feels that due to the Census Tract unemployment is an area some two miles around the City that there is a 50-50 chance the project would be funded.

The State of Tennessee is administering $12 million in the program funds, but there more than $280,000 in projects already applied for.

Administrator Henley said he feels that due to the Census Tract unemployment is an area some two miles around the City that there is a 50-50 chance the project would be funded.

The grant application is made to the Economic Development Administration under the new public works program. The EDA program provides 100 percent government grants in order to stimulate employment.

No Shortage Of Turkeys This Year

By Susan Stivers
Assistant Extension Agent

Turkeys are available in great abundance this Thanksgiving season, 14 percent more turkey than a year ago. Looking ahead to Christmas, turkey prices should not advance but remain the same or less than current levels. From the lightweight broilers to the huge toms, shoppers can choose a bird that will fill their needs.

If marketing runs anywhere along past practices, you may have these alternatives:

The premium birds - advertised, stuffed, larded, in a pan with thermometers included. These are carefully selected, Grade A quality whether or not they wear the grade. They require only the removal of the wrapping and popped into the oven. Generally these wear a premium price tag.

Nationally advertised and unstuffed birds that may have fat added, though minus the roaster and thermometer.

Grade A, housebrand birds - excellent quality.

Ungraded, housebrand birds. These often are the lower priced of the various selections. Grading is voluntary and the expense is passed on to the shopper. There may be little if any difference in these birds and the graded, housebrand ones.

How much turkey should a shopper buy? The amount depends mainly on the number and size of the servings needed, and whether or not leftovers are desired. The average serving is about 3 ounces of cooked meat without bone, skin or juices. When buying whole ready-to-cook turkeys under 12 pounds, allow 1/2 to 1 pound per serving. For larger birds allow 1/2 to 3/4 pound. With uncooked boneless turkey roasts allow one-third pound per serving.

How should frozen turkey be thawed? There are three suggested ways to thaw a turkey: (1) Leave turkey in original wrap or lightly cover with wax paper if unwrapped. Place on a tray and thaw in the refrigerator until pliable. (2) Leave turkey in original wrap or put in watertight plastic bag. Place in a pan of cold water. Thaw until pliable, changing water often. Poultry may be partially thawed in the refrigerator, then finished thawing in cold water. (3) Leave turkey in its original wrap or lightly cover with waxed paper if unwrapped. Place on a tray. Put in a double-wall paper bag or wrap in several thicknesses of paper. Thaw at a room temperature of 70 degrees F. or below until pliable.

What is the proper way to handle turkey at home? Turkey is perishable. Take it home as quickly as possible and put in the refrigerator or freezer immediately. Fresh, chilled turkey should be used within 1 to 2 days. Frozen turkey will maintain quality at 0 degrees F. for up to 1 year if whole, 6 months if cut-up, and should be cooked promptly after thawing.

As our other picture indicates, it was a large structure, possibly serving a large geographical area. Its products were shipped by many means of transportation. It definitely was a large plant and rich in Loudon County history.

Quite often something comes up in our conversation with the people we talk to. Possibly the best way we could begin this is, do we have any book or magazine collectors in our area? Quite possibly there is, but let us say many books of great age are worth a lot of money. And we won't use owners' names if we get any response from this inquiry. We are just interested.

Someone said that most likely some of the oldest books we would turn up would be old copies of family Bibles, handed down from generation to generation. Of course, the Bible has served as a family record book of births and deaths and many times these records are accepted as legal documents for birth certification and other legal matters.

We know of some families who have some very interesting old publications. But again we won't mention names for fear that someone might decide to try to steal them. We do not want to be the source of information that would cause an incident of this type to happen.

At one time we had a 1913 issue of Popular Mechanic Magazine, but somehow through the years we lost it. I don't know if it would have had any value money wise or not, but we would have like to have kept it. If nothing more than the novelty of showing it to interested people.

Who knows what our readers might have in their possession of interest or value. We have a copy of the Herald of the 1800's. It is priceless to us. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Calvin Lunsford 259-2881

Loudon continues to grow something hard to visualize. It is the general feeling that we have all the ingredients to become an industrial center. Like a lot of other progress, it is taken for granted. Just how much growth has taken place is something hard to visualize. This week one of our pictures is an old aerial map of Loudon. Just how old we don't know, but as can be seen in the picture, our town has grown more than we possibly realized. Until we look at this aerial view of a few years back. Note the areas with few or no buildings. Note the absence of the industrial plants we now have in our town. I am not sure if the ferry was still operating when this photo was made but a close look will show the ferry entrance roads are still there.

Some of the past of Loudon County has been captured by artists. Without these paintings and sketches much would be lost. We are grateful, as are other Loudon citizens, for this effort of gifted people.

The first Burr and Roller Mill in the South, which was operated by Lenoir Manufacturing Co. was established in 1810. How many years it operated we don't know, but the old building burned in 1918. I am not sure, but I believe the walls still stand. I know they did for

Snow Days
Now that winter weather is once again upon us, the same procedures as we were used last year will be followed concerning school closings due to weather. In the event of snow or icy conditions, check with one of the following sources to see if school will be held:

RADIO: WLLI, WBLC, WNOX, WOKI
TV: WATE, WBIR

If school is closed, these stations will notify $3.00 a.m. and should be broadcasting the information by that time. The decision is not made until about 6:00 a.m. in the morning so calling school officials the night before do no good.

Thanksgiving
The annual Thanksgiving holidays in county schools will be Thursday and Friday, November 25 and 26. Those of us in the County Education offices wish everyone a safe and happy Thanksgiving.

Congratulations are in order for the Loudon Jr. High girls and Mrs. Andrew J. Smith of Rt. 2, Lenoir City, has been promoted to senior airman in the U.S. Air Force.

Airman Smith, a missile systems maintenance specialist, is assigned at Homestead AFB, Fla., with a unit of the Tactical Air Command.

The airman is a 1968 graduate of Lenoir City High School and attended the Tennessee College of Automation. His wife, Connie, is the daughter of Mrs. James Hall of Ft. Lenoir City.

Explorer Post Elects Davis As President

Explorer Post 215 of Loudon has selected its new officers for the 1976-77 year.

Those elected were: President, Randy Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Davis; First V.P., George Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Norton; Second V.P., Tommy Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. Simpson; Secretary, Kathy Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Johnston; Treasurer, Ann Swiney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Inky Swiney.

Post 215 is composed of young men and women from the Loudon area. The men may continue their work toward the Eagle Rank, but the women are excluded from earning rank by the National Organization.

New members were also selected at this meeting. Those being invited to join the Post are Greer Carey, John Cardwell and Skip Poynter.

$400 In Tools Are Stolen

About $400 in tools were stolen from the garage of Danny Evans, Oak Street, Greenback last Friday, Deputy Junior Teeters reported.

The tools, mostly small hand tools and automotive tools, were in a tool box.

Use 1 1/2 pints of 2, 4-D acid equivalent per acre. This is equal to 2 3/4 pints of the four pound per gallon formulations on the market. Apply the 2, 4-D in 30-40 gallons of water per acre.

The low-volatile ester formulation of 2, 4-D should be used since it usually provides a higher degree of control than does the amine formulation.

The 2, 4-D treatment won't injure livestock.

However, milking dairy animals should be removed from the pasture for seven days after spraying to prevent contamination of the milk.

A follow-up application next April may be needed to control those seedlings which germinate after the fall application.

Half of Local Folks Below Age 32

In Loudon County, due to changes in recent years in the birth rate and in life expectancy, more than one-half of the local population is now approximately 32 years of age or younger. For every resident who is younger than that there is one who is older. Of the total population, 22.2 years old or younger are in the middle-aged group. By way of comparison, the median age of the American population as a whole is now 28 years old throughout the State of Tennessee. The current median in the area is somewhat higher than it was in 1960, according to the census that was taken then. At that time it was 28.6 years. For a decade or so prior to 1960, locally and in most other parts of the country, the median age level had been moving downward and was getting younger. It was due to the high birth rate experienced during the postwar period. More recently, however, the trend had been in the opposite direction, because of a marked downturn in the birth rate. As a result, the median age is now going up and the population is getting older. It is attributed to the fact that women in their 20's are having fewer children than their mothers did. According to a recent Government survey, today's average wife intends to have 2.17 children in her lifetime, down from 2.4 in 1970. Currently 41 percent of the married women in the 20 to 34 age bracket are childless, as against 28 percent in 1960. Among the explanations given for the change are the high cost of bringing up children, the concern about over-population, the pill, abortion, late marriages and an increase in the number of young people who remain single. How much of an effect these factors may have had locally is indicated by the Commerce Department's so-called "fertility ratio." This shows how many children there are, under age 5, for every 1,000 women in the normal child-bearing ages. Back in 1960, Loudon County's ratio was 414. It is now approximately 307, which is higher than in many sections of the country. In some localities it is as low as 190.

Loudon County Hospital Progress Dependent On Local Support

The Loudon County Memorial Hospital is on the threshold of becoming one of the finest community hospitals in the State, according to G. Gay Hamilton, the hospital's administrator. The hospital executive says he bases his enthusiasm on a preliminary analysis of the hospital's operating data for the July 1, 1975-June 30, 1976, fiscal year. "It appears we made a substantial recovery from the 1973-74 downturn which was highlighted in the recent long-term analysis of the hospital and compared with other hospitals in the state," Hamilton said. The analysis showed that between 1971 and 1975, the number of hospital inlets in the 50 to 69-bed hospital in Tennessee decreased 20 percent, largely due to a major decline in utilization of services. The number of people admitted to all 50-99 bed community hospitals in the State during 1975, for example, was down 25 percent over the 1971 level. By comparison, admissions to the Loudon County Hospital were up 2.5 percent. Even so, Hamilton said he was extremely concerned because the 1975 level of admission had dropped sharply over the 1974 level. "It appeared that the trend affected all hospitals in Tennessee was catching up with us. But the data from our most recent analysis had dropped sharply over the 1974 level. He attributes the recovery to growth in the community of the fact the hospital provides high quality services at a lower cost, compared to the prices for comparable services in larger hospitals. The reason the hospital is able to provide its services so economically, Hamilton said, is due to the dedication of the hospital's Board of Trustees, Medical Staff, and Employees. "They have all strongly backed our cost containment program we initiated through a management engineering program starting in 1973. This long-range program, designed to reduce operating procedures, really began to pay off last year. And while we worked our way through it, our costs, our medical supplies, our quality had improved to quality, Hamilton said. "Further improvement in the scope and quality of services the hospital can provide, the community is now dependent on the community itself, he said. "In my opinion, our hospital now stands at the crossroads of improved strength and service, and marginal existence, which way we go, in large part, depends upon the community it serves," Hamilton said. He believes the key to expanding and improving the hospital's capability to serve its community is largely dependent upon attracting new physicians to the community. "The Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare has designated our County as a 'critical medical service area' due to the shortage of doctors. "That means our local physicians are being called upon to care for an unusually large number of people. We cannot afford to depend upon their dedication and extraordinary service to our community. They must have additional help," Hamilton said. He said he believes two things are needed to attract new doctors to the community. "First, I believe we need to provide a doctors' office building so we can provide our essential and new ones, essential supportive services to use in their private practices. "Next we need to make sure any prospective new doctor would be able to depend on a strongly supported by its community. They won't come here unless they see the health care for the community when the future of the hospital is considered," Hamilton said. Hamilton said there is more at stake than just improved health care for the community when the future of the hospital is considered. "Our objective is to meet the health care needs of the community. But beyond that, the hospital plays an extremely large role in the economic well-being of the entire community," he said. He explained that each year the hospital returns nearly $1 million to the local economy as it collects from patients. "We pay out approximately $1 million a year in wages and salaries, and for supplies, goods and services. Most of that money is spent right here in Loudon County. "Economists say each dollar multiplies itself four times. That means your community hospital is generating nearly $4 million a year in spending power in the local economy; more than $1,000 a day. "So a lot more than improved health depends upon the hospital. There are a lot of jobs and businesses in our community dependent upon those dollars, too," Hamilton said. With continued interest and support from the community, he said he has confidence the hospital will soon develop as a model for all small hospitals in the state. "Community pride will see to that," he said.

Conservation Program Approved

The 1977 Agricultural Conservation Program has been approved for Loudon County, says John M. Hutton, Chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee. "This is the program designed to conserve the soil and water resources of the county," Mr. Hutton said. "It involves a part of the cost of materials needed for these practices but the farm operator furnishes all labor and equipment as well as part of the cost." The Chairman listed the practices included in the program pointing out that those to seed or improve a stand of permanent vegetative cover, planting or improving a stand of forest trees, water impoundment and water runoff control measures are particularly important to most land in the county. Seeding and liming practices require a soil test report and the Chairman urges each interested farmer to secure the test report at once. "A soil test report can be used for ACP practices for a period of 18 months," he said. "So those practices used in 1975 and 1976 may still be followed." Applications for cost-share may be filed at any time at the ASCS Office. Participation in the program is available to farmers regardless of race, religion, sex, color or national origin.

Herald Football Contest In Final Week

The TSSAA football playoffs always give contestants in The Herald football contest a hardtime. Sometimes things don't go just as the ratings have them.

Only one contestant got all the games right: The Walland-Lauer game did not count since it was played on Thursday night.

The Watkins family again came high in the money. With all games correct, Bill Watkins, Rt. 4, won the $12 first place. Second and third was decided on the tie-breaker game, Maryville 16 and Rutledge 22 point tie-breaker. With eight games correct and a 21 point tie-breaker was Phil Watkins. He collects $8. Third place with 15 points was Tracy Stallcup of Philadelphia. Third place receives $8. Two other persons had eight games correct, Glen Eller and Raymond Watkins of Loudon.

This week with the semi-final games of the TSSAA championships making up eight games along with two college games, ends the 12 week run of the 1976 Football Contest.

Loudon-Lenoir City Basketball Teams To Meet In Friday Night Contests

The high school basketball season moves farther along this week into, grabbing the sports headlines for the winter.

Loudon's hoop teams split a Saturday night twinnish with visiting Chattanooga Riverside and to tackle home standing Kingston on Tuesday night.

The Redskins, minus their star senior pivot 6-6 Mark Harrell, will travel to the den of their county rival Lenoir City on Friday night.

The Panthers tripped Kingston in their first test of the winter, while the Panthers were outclassed without their fine senior offensive leader Patty Cook.

Loudon's Harrell was in attendance at the Loudon-Riverside game on Saturday night and reports that the doctors will again allow him to go on his own pace in an effort to get back into playing form for the Redskins.

Redskins head coach Hugh Watson hopes for Harrell to be able to play on a limited basis by the December 3 home game with Harrison.

Meanwhile Loudon will be facing capable Lenoir City, always tough Midway twice which will carry the season past the Thanksgiving holidays.

There is a cast following the surgery and thus doctors feel a rapid recovery is expected with play at full speed by the last of the regular season.

This it will be an injury struck Loudon boys team going against a young ambitious Lenoir City team that has no seniors and very little experience on Friday night.

The Loudon girls should be much the superior sextet in the preliminary game as they not only hold the experience over the Panthers but are much the taller. With Patty Cook on the shelf the Pan-

Loudon Lady Redskins Zing By Error Plagued Trojanettes 69-50

The Loudon Lady Redskins made their 1976-77 regular season debut Saturday night against visiting Chattanooga Riverside's distaff team.

The Loudon sextet, who has a complete veteran team returning for the current campaign, had little trouble in breezing to their first victory, 69-50.

Loudon girls' coach Dewayne Art used his entire squad in posting the one-sided triumph.

Senior super forward Bernadette Locke scored close to her "average game" expectancy for her final high school fling on the hardwood with an opening night 33-point exhibition. Bernadette has scored already over 2,100 points in three years as a Lady Redskins varsity player. She hit on 14 of 28 shots Saturday night and added five foul shots before retiring to the bench in the second half.

Miss Locke was not the whole show for the Lady Redskins as senior playmaker Jennie Leffer jumped in six of 10 shots from long range and made good on nine of 11 foul shots for 21 points and one of her most potent games as a shooter and passer.

Kim Brantthover the third link to the explosive Loudon offense also had a double figure showing with 10 points making zero on five of 10 field goal tries.

The balanced Loudon attack was also carried on by a continuous string of appearances by forwards Cathy Delaney, Rita Deford, Kelly Purdy and Janice Wilkerson. Defensively Loudon was carried on the rebounding side by Juliet Locke with six and Susan Jamerson with five. Jamerson fouled out in the contest, picking up three first quarter fouls to slow her aggressive efforts.

The Lady Redskins still had plenty of back-up as Renee Grizzle, LeeAnn Chiles, Ann Black, Kim McCaskill, and Irene Simpson all learned to pull in 14 rebounds.

Riverside had the back-board advantage with a 66-54 difference, but the game was won on field goal accuracy and fewer mistakes.

Loudon forwards gained an edge with 27 field goals out of 62 attempts for a respectable 42 percent and Riverside could change but a 29 percent showing with 17 of 58 shots finding the center of the rim.

Even with 13 Lady Redskins getting into the act, Loudon made just 16 turnovers on opening night and Riverside committed 31 turnovers.

Loudon moved to a 21-16 first quarter lead, opened up in the second period for a 40-27 halftime difference and then coasted down the stretch.

SIMPSON SWEEPS BACKBOARDS FOR LADY REDSKINS—Loudon reserve guard Irene Simpson goes high into the air to claim this rebound in Loudon's opening distaff decision over visiting Riverside 69-50.

Riverside Jumps To Early Lead In Narrow Win Over Loudon Boys

The Loudon Redskins opened up their 1976-77 High School Basketball season last Saturday night with one of the top perennial hoop powers, in the State, Chattanooga Riverside.

The Trojanettes slipped past the veteran Loudon five by a score of 58-52.

Loudon, playing with out its standard pivot Mark Harrell due to a flare up from an appendicitis operation, never had the lead in the ball game.

Riverside was the first team to break the scoring ice as the game was two minutes old before a field goal was recorded. The Trojanettes then went on to reel off five straight baskets over the next 1:53 of the ball game and had a 10-0 lead with 4:17 to play in the first quarter.

The Redskins regrouped and after eight straight misses counted on a follow-up offensive rebound by junior Gary Brown. Randy Davis made the score 12-4 and the game moved at an equal pace through the next few minutes of action.

Loudon finally settled midway of the second quarter and behind a stout reserve appearance by 6-4 sophomore Stephen Betts and an all out effort from a confident Gary Brown pulled back into the thick of the contest.

Brown filled the nets for an 11-point second stanza and his soft one handed off the back-board with 1:30 left in the first half cut the difference to 30-23.

Riverside rallied with three fast break baskets to pause at intermission with a 36-27 lead over Loudon.

Loudon made minor adjustments at the half and with Senior forward Steve Millsaps setting the tempo came charging back at the Trojanettes. Millsaps, who missed but three shots in the second half, gunned in 10 third quarter points and swished the nets, with 1:34 to play in the canto to narrow the scoring difference to its smallest margin of three points, 46-43.

Riverside again answered with the final points of the period and enjoyed a 46-43 edge entering the last eight minute act.

The Redskins seemed destined to overtake the weakening Trojanettes when they lost Randy Davis with his fifth foul at the 4:38 mark of the quarter and Loudon behind still by three 46-45.

Davis had received four fouls in the first half.

Big Gary Brown followed Davis to the sidelines with 3:46 on the clock and the score 47, as he drew his fifth foul of the night.

Senior Mark Blair had cut the score to its smallest difference from the right corner.

Even with two of their key regulars on the bench and Mark Harrell watching from the bleachers in street clothes the Redskins played tough.

Down to the final, wire the game progressed with Loudon suffering crucial turnovers at the 2:50 and 1:35 marks in the last quarter to help the visiting Trojans maintain their lead.

A key tip in with 1:18 remaining gave Riverside a 58-48 working margin and Loudon could answer with only a basket from Mark Blair and Steve Millsaps down the stretch as the final score read 58-52.

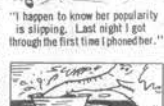

Gary Brown, picking up pretty much his tournament form of last season, led the Loudon scoring with 20 points. The big 6-4, 250 pounder collected 14 rebounds to also take top individual honors in that department.

Loudon hit on 23 of 60 shots for a 38.3 percent and was out rebounded by Riverside 37-33.

The Trojanettes hit 41.2 percent, making 26 baskets out of 63 tries.

Panthers Surprise Kingston, 46-43

The Lenoir City Panthers opened up their basketball season with a slight surprise last Friday night by slipping past a capable Kingston quint.

The young Panthers, five juniors started with no seniors on the team, carved out a 12-9 first quarter edge and then built their lead to nine at the end of the third canto only to have to fight for every point down the stretch and win by three points, 46-43.

Junior forward Ronnie Hendrix, who was plagued by foul trouble in the game, hit a pair of foul shots with just four seconds to play to give the Panthers a 4-3 lead and command of the game the rest of the night.

Lenoir City was led by Litleton with 17 points the third quarter deficit of nine points to close with in one point with 13 seconds left in the game, a missed foul shot by the Jackets and a scramble for the ball which ended up out of bounds and in possession of Lenoir City forced the fouling of Hendrix and the final count on the score board.

Both teams played jittery in the early stages much from the fact that Kingston had the only senior on the floor and also started two juniors and two sophomores to match talents with the Panther underclassmen.

Lenoir City led through out much of the game with a brief exception in the first quarter when Kingston charged out to a 5-2 lead.

Junior Petite Litleton promptly drilled a pair of field goals and guard Chris Ferguson canned a two pointer from 20 feet to give the Panthers a 9-3 lead and command of the game the rest of the night.

Loudon Girls, Steekee Boys Successfully Defend Lions Club Elementary Tournament Titles

The Loudon Lions Club Elementary Basketball Tournament which annually tips off the cage season in Loudon County each winter was again won by Loudon

Junior High Girls and the Steekee Boys. Both teams are defending tournament champions.

Loudon Junior High Principal Tom Rothwell appears to have come up with another fine addition for the season and extended his schools' 'staff' winning streak to over 60 straight wins with a 59-31 decision over Eaton Elementary Girls. The Steekee Boys came from behind in the second half on the shooting of Greg McNabb to down Loudon Junior High 61-42.

The Loudon girls were led by Gail Brown who poured in 31 points and Missy Hayes with 15 and a close to a dozen assists.

Loudon rolled to a 15-6 first quarter advantage and was ahead by 28-8 at intermission, allowing only a pair of foul shots to the Eaton offense.

Loudon was directed by Zell Hawkins with 17 points, 10 of those in the second half. Ken Everett fired in 13 and Curt Wayman added nine.

Wayman and Neil Schrimmaber totaled 14 and 10 points respectively. Kerr led Steekee's win over Eaton with 15 points and three fouls. Eaton guard Robby Gray paced his team with 10 points.

All of the Loudon girls team shared in the playing time while capturing the district title and all the forwards contributed to the scoring. Cindy Orran, Connie Rogers, and Glens Eller were praised for their hustle on defense while also yielding playing time to reserves through out the week long tourney.

Eaton rolled to a 15-6 first quarter advantage and was ahead by 28-8 at intermission, allowing only a pair of foul shots to the Eaton offense.

Wayman and Neil Schrimmaber totaled 14 and 10 points respectively. Kerr led Steekee's win over Eaton with 15 points and three fouls.

The Loudon County Elementary schools are planning a "B" team boys and girls tournament for the first or second week of December and will be hosted by Highland Park Elementary School in Lenoir City.

Patrick tossed in 16 for the losers. Eaton clipped Philadelphia 44-28 on the shooting of Susan Robinson with 16 points. Donna Kiser and Jamie Hoff each contributed eight points each for Philadelphia.

Kingston Girls Pin Opening Cage Loss On LC Sextet

Lenoir City's Pantherettes, forced to open their high school basketball season without star forward Patty Cook who underwent knee surgery last week and will be absent from the team until mid-January, lost in a highly touted Kingston sextet by the score of 61-44.

Lenoir City actually had more team rebounds than Kingston 23 to 18 but managed just 17 field goals in the game as compared to Kingston's 26 hoops. The game was the first for both teams.

Sophomore Melissa Smith pumped in nine field goals and added a pair of free throws to set the offensive pace for Lenoir City netting 20 points. Senior Sletty Powell totaled 14 points and was her team top rebounder with seven retrieves on the offensive boards. Her three second half offensive rebounds were the lone second shot chances the Pantherette offense had in the third and fourth quarters.

Bettis And Viars Share Overtime Heroics In 66-64 Redskin Win At Kingston

The Loudon Redskins had their feet held to the fire by a determined young Kingston team Tuesday night, but finally squeaked out a triple overtime 66-64 triumph.

Loudon Coach Hugh Watson having praise for his entire team said the difference was just the maturity of a year's experience for his team.

Stephen Bettis roared from the bench to ignite the Redskins first win of the regular season with 14 points and 12 rebounds. The 64 sophomore playing with the grace and confidence of a senior did not score a point until the third quarter when he threaded the nets with clutch baskets. His rebound in a follow-up rebound of the first overtime saved the Loudon effort and he quickly gave Loudon the edge in the third over time with a 15 foot jump shot from the foul line.

Senior guard Terry Viars tied the game with 13 seconds left in the third extra stanza with a pair of foul shots.

Loudon had five players to reach double figures and used practically its entire squad to achieve the win.

Joining Bettis in double digits was Steve Millsaps with 14 points also and a game-high clutch figure in the Redskins victory party.

Mark Blair fouled out but contributed 10 points. Terry Viars had 10 points and Randy Davis 10 points.

Loudon trailed early in the first half by a 10-11 difference but soon tied the game as Gary Brown and Steve Millsaps struck baskets ahead at the 3:10 mark of the second quarter 29-25.

Loudon was up by 48-42 with 32 seconds to go in the third quarter only to allow Kingston the chance to knot the score by the end of regulation play at 59-59.

Loudon hit on 21 of 71 shots and Kingston 22 of 61. The Redskins made pressure conversions at the foul line with 24 of 29 finding their mark. Kingston was good on 20 of 31 charity throws.

Loudon out rebounded Kingston by 49 to 30.

PROTECTS LOUDON LEAD—Loudon sophomore Stephen Bettis guards the basketball with caution in the final minute of the third overtime Tuesday night after he had hit clutch baskets to keep Loudon alive in the game and then gave Loudon the edge they needed in a 66-64 win. Bettis was also a defensive stand-out with 12 rebounds and total hustle for the contest.

Maryville - base $625,850, with alternates $786,094. Completion 250 days.

On the basis of total bid package as presented Webb and Sons of Athens appears low. Looking at the base bids as read Wood Brothers of Maryville would appear low.

The architect said he hopes to recommend within a couple of days a base bid for acceptance by the county and then study and revise the alternates, renovation of the old building, kitchen equipment and educational equipment.

N & N Construction Company, Knoxville said they were one of three of the bidders that included kitchen equipment in their base bid instead of putting it in the first alternate as most did. He said this would lower his base bid by $41,000, which could make N & N the low base bidder.

Both the Purchasing Committee and School Board agreed to wait on the study and recommendation of the architect before making a decision because at least four of the bidders are very close.

The Loudon girls rode the hot shooting of Bernadette Locke and a all out pressure defensive effort by the Lady Redskins gun, as to hand Kingston girls a 46-36 setback.

Locke stealing the show had 35 points and was most impressive.

Loudon was minus senior forward Jennie Lefter, who was out with the flu.

Cathy Delaney and Rita Deford played nearly flawless in sharing the starting role for Lefter. Kim Brantthover was also a leader in guiding the win on the offensive court with seven points and a hustling game.

Loudon was able to hit just one field goal in the second half but controlled the game tempo and the score by hitting 20 of 25 foul shots, 17 of 20 by the driving Bernadette Locke.

Loudon enjoyed a 16 point lead at one juncture but kept a consistent 10 point working margin from late in the first quarter.

Renee Grizzle (10 Rebounds), Susan Jameson (nine), and Juliet Locke six rebounds all were tough on the defensive side of the ball line. Kingston managed just 16 of 40 shots for points. Loudon hit 13 of 31 shots but again was cool at the foul line to provide the difference.

Harriman Deals Panthers Double Loss

Lenoir City went on the road for the first time Tuesday night with a visit to Harriman and came away a double loser.

The Blue Devil girls struck a 50-36 loss on the Panthers.

Betsy Powell and Rosemary Hines both scored 14 points for Lenoir City who never was able to establish a lead in the game.

The Lenoir City boys rolled to a quick 16-7 first quarter edge over Harriman but could not hold the ball back as they roared to a 27-36 half time lead and then turned on the fire power with a stout third quarter in posting a 69-56 defeat.

The Panthers had a 4-0 lead to open the game as Harriman had the wrong uniform numbers listed in the score book and thus the Panthers were awarded five technical foul shots, making four.

Petie Littleton slammed in 24 points to spark the Panthers, who lost their first game in two tries on the regular season. Chucky Reed once his biggest helper with 12 points in a reserve role.

Jeff Harris turned in his second straight 20-point showing for the much improved Blue Devils with 23 counters. Harris had collected 35 points in the season opener for Harriman now 2-0.

TVA Charges Power Down In December

Charges for TVA electricity will be going down in December for the third month in a row, mainly because of the low-cost power supplied last month by Browns Ferry Nuclear Plant.

On home electric bills the reduction will be 81 cents per 1,000 kilowatt-hours of electricity used, a decline of about 3 percent. However, December power bills typically show an increase in home power use sometimes a large increase for homes with electric heat—so many consumers may have larger total bills in spite of the lower cost per kilowatt-hour of electricity used.

Each month the level of billing charges for TVA power is determined by the changes that have occurred in actual power system expenses for fuel and for power purchased from neighboring utility systems. The charges that have been calculated from October expenses will generally apply on electric bills from December meter readings.

Many Loudon Seniors Take Roane State College Courses

Many high school seniors in Loudon County are now enrolled in college courses at Roane State Community College under the Advanced Studies plan. This Advanced Studies plan is permitting these seniors to take college credit courses, for which they will receive full college credit upon their successful graduation from high school. Of the 30 students enrolled in instructor Beulah Davis' Composition I class, 23 are seniors at Loudon High School.

In order to be eligible for the Advanced Studies program, the high school senior must have a cumulative average of "B" or above or rank in the upper 25 percent of the class and the student must be nominated by the high school principal and the counselor. Three Women Face Check Charges Here

Three Loudon County women were arrested last week by county deputies on felony check charges.

Charlene McKee, posted $5,000 bond after being arrested for uttering and passing forged instruments. It was reported she attempted to pass a forged check to Al's Steak House in the amount of $10.

When officers arrived at Miss McKee's motel room at the Inn of Lenoir they found a book of checks reportedly stolen from a Sweetwater man, Danny Winters. In the room at the time were Rebecca Watts and Debbie McAllister of Loudon. They were charged with possession of stolen checks. They were held in lieu of $3,500 bond each.

Preliminary hearing in the case is set for Nov. 19 in General Sessions Court.

Planners To Review Industrial Development Study

A very short agenda will be considered by the Loudon County Planning Commission Thursday at their monthly 7:30 meeting.

Only one re-zoning request is on the agenda. A 4th District parcel owned by Jim Bryant along I-75 at the Philadelphia interchange will be considered for a change from agriculture to commercial for possible development.

Provisions in proposed zoning resolution regarding sanitary landfills will be discussed. There is no request for permission for operation of a landfill presently before the Commission but State Planner Steve Campbell will discuss the provisions with the Commission. There has been indications that Knoxville is considering a landfill in north Loudon County, but no formal request for a variance in the zoning has been received by the Commission to date.

Other items are:

- Review of preliminary outline of Industrial Development Study.
- Discussion of impact assessment procedures for development proposals.
- Building, Commissioner's report.
- Road Engineers report.
- The Commission's Board of Zoning Appeals will meet at 7 to hear a request by J.B. Leeper for a 5-foot side yard variance to allow construction of a carport on a lot in Fort Loudoun Estates.

Options Given For Greenback Phone Exchange

About 100 persons, mostly Greenback residents and business and civic leaders from throughout the county, attended a meeting Monday at Greenback School to discuss with representatives of South Central Bell the possibility of getting Greenback added to the Loudon and Lenoir City phone exchanges.

Residents of Greenback are on the Maryville-Alcoa telephone exchange which makes their calls to the county seat or Lenoir City long distance. There have been toll-free lines added at the Justice Center and County Judges Office.

Greenback Squire J.G. Hudson and others had sought to have Greenback remain on the Maryville-Alcoa exchange but just to add Loudon and Lenoir City for local calls.

Telephone officials said it would be possible to add the exchange and for Greenback to remain local with Maryville, but it would cost each subscriber on each of the exchanges $4 per month to have the service.

The company went on to offer options adding either Loudon or Lenoir City to a Greenback phone at the choice of the subscriber. The Loudon phone would be $2.60 per month residential and $7.60 business, with a total one hour time allowed for that rate. Lenoir City on the same basis would be $1.30 and $6.10.

Those attending the meeting were asked to study the options and try to decide what route to pursue in the future.

County School Board Concerned Over Student Reading Deficiencies

taken to clear them up. Randolph was asked by Chairman Wampler to get bus driver Junior Gentry and parent Rolen Bradshaw, about Bradshaw's complaint that his children were being picked up before 7 a.m. Gentry said that at times he does get to the Bradshaw house two or three minutes before 7 but if Bradshaw demands it he will sit in front of the house and not let the children on the bus until 7. The board asked that he not do that, but to try and work out the differences. Gentry said repeated attempts to talk to the man have failed. A one year leave of absence for Greenback teacher Pat McIntosh was approved. New teachers hired were Cathy Witten, Philadelphia resource teacher, and Camille Duncan for Greenback. A request by the Glendale School custodian, Mrs. Spiras, was approved. The woman said that because the school is served by two boilers the 45 hour week she is allowed did not allow proper time to complete her work. An additional five hours per week was approved.

A group of Glendale parents headed by Dick Waterhouse made five requests of the board. They were:

$595,000 Raised For United Fund At OR

More than $595,000 has been pledged or contributed by employees of the Nuclear Division, Union Carbide Corporation, to United Way agencies in Anderson, Knox, Loudon, Roane and Morgan counties.

This year's United Way drive was the most successful in history for about 18,000 employees at the three Oak Ridge facilities. The combined goal of $533,000 was exceeded by eight percent, with all three plants achieving more than 100 percent of their individual goals. The total of $595,081 includes $15,000 contributed by the Corporation.

1 - Funds for field trip ($250) for each of the four classrooms at the school. Waterhouse said that only the 7th grade would get field trips and since many of the other classes contain students who's parents cannot afford the transportation costs he felt the county should provide the money. Chairman Wampler said the county does not provide money for any other schools for such activity. No action was taken.

2 - A request for playground equipment. The parents said the community has no organizations that in many cases provide playground equipment for other schools. Again they were told the board has never provided such assistance, that usually parents organizations have held projects to raise such funds.

3 - Asked repair or replacement of an old refrigerator in the cafeteria. The board asked that the county maintenance crew see if the unit could be repaired. If not that a new refrigerator be purchased.

4 - Reported a fire hazard exists because many windows in the building will not stay up when open. Waterhouse said the windows are a fire escape route, but could be a trap in case of fire if they will not remain open. Superintendent Headlee said that in many of the older buildings this problem exists and the schools have plans to fix them.

5 - Request for outside lights in the backside of the building. The board asked that two night lights be ordered from Fort Loudon Electric Cooperative.

DRIVER, PASSENGER INJURED—An Indiana woman and a Florida woman were injured about 10:30 p.m. Thursday when their car struck two cows on Interstate 40 cattle belonging to Tommy and Elwood Hayes got out of a nearby field and got into the traffic lanes of the highway. The car driven by Carolyn S. Mays, 32, struck and the impact. A passenger Ann Le. Merritt, 23, and Ms. Mays were both treated at Loudon County Memorial Hospital for bruises received in the impact.

Cost Of Raising Child Up 40 Percent, Study Shows

Parents in Loudon County are finding that the cost of bringing up a child has risen considerably in recent years. For the average family, rearing a child from birth to age 18 now takes nearly three times the amount it earns during a whole year, according to the latest Government studies. By way of comparison, 30 years ago a typical family needed no more than $7,425 to provide for a child to age 18, according to figures compiled at that time. Today, it would not come close to covering food costs alone.

Just how much a family spends in the process of bringing up junior depends, for the most part, on its financial ability and its geographic location. In general, it ranges from 2.9 to 3.6 times its annual net income.

For families in Loudon County, where an after-tax income of $10,000 to $11,000 was the average in the past year, the cost is estimated at about $34,600 per child.

The findings are based upon data compiled by the Department of Agriculture, the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the Institute of Life Insurance and others. The bills connected with the birth of the child, which is the initial cost of parenthood, have gone up 40 percent in the last five years, reports the Life Insurance Institute.

On average, including hospital and medical expenses, the layette, furniture and the like, they now come to approximately $2,190. Some of this cost is usually covered by insurance.

As time goes on, food becomes a major item. A family of moderate income will spend about $13,500 to feed the child for the 18 years.

Clothing is also an important expense, especially in the teen years. Over the whole period it comes to about $4,800. Medical care adds another $2,260. Other basic costs include recreation, transportation, housing, education and personal care.

GOOD CROP—Archie Hill, Rt. 4, Loudon is shown with a 110 lb. green pumpkin he raised this year. Also in the picture are some of the sweet potatoes his garden produced.

There's No Mystery In Your Electric Meter

It measures electricity. Nothing more. Nothing less.

Electricity passes through the meter on its way to work in your home or business. Its passage makes the disk in the meter rotate. Each revolution measures a precise amount of electricity.

The more power being used, the faster the disk spins. The disk turns a series of small gears and the gears turn the hands on the dials, which show how much you've used.

That's all there is to it. Simple, accurate, honest—that's your electric meter. See us for a copy of the free folder Your Electric Meter and How To Read It.

Capitol Commentary

by M. Lee Smith

Despite a recent denunciation by Gov. Ray Blanton, Democrat William Snodgrass is almost certain to win re-nomination this week for a twelfth consecutive two-year term as state Comptroller.

The state comptroller is selected by majority vote of a joint session of both houses of the General Assembly. With lopsided majorities in both the House and Senate, the decision on filling the position will be effectively made in a joint House-Senate Democratic caucus. The caucus will convene late this week.

The office of comptroller is one of the most powerful positions in Tennessee government. The comptroller, among other duties, provides staff assistance to the General Assembly, regulates issuance of state, county and municipal bonds, provides technical assistance to county governments, administers the statewide property reassessment program, and serves on numerous state boards and commissions.

Most important of all, the comptroller is the audit officer for state and county governments. And it was in discharging this responsibility that Snodgrass drew Blanton's ire.

investigated one transaction in the previous administration.

Contrary to what Blanton alleged, the facts are that the Comptroller's audit covered the period July 1, 1972 to July 1, 1975. In releasing his findings, Snodgrass cited a lack of internal controls under both Blanton and former Gov. Winfield Dunn. When asked if he turned up irregularities under Dunn, Snodgrass replied, "No."

If he wanted to do so, a comptroller could regularly embarrass governors, state agency heads, and county officials. But Snodgrass has never been known to play the game that way.

In his 22 years as comptroller, Snodgrass has been a proud, stubborn, bureaucratic state official. He is dedicated and hard-working. He has a reputation for honesty and integrity—a reputation he has duly earned.

Above all else, Snodgrass has administered his audit authority with care and fairness. In his audit findings, he has not hesitated to cite deficiencies and irregularities. But he has not sought deliberately to embarrass Republican officials. Nor has he swept under the rug findings that might embarrass Democrats.

That may not sit very well with Gov. Blanton. But for Snodgrass that is the way it is. And for the House-Senate Democratic caucus it is good reason why Snodgrass should and presumably will be re-nominated this week for yet another term.

Winter Weather Will Set Size Of Heating Bills

(This is the first in a series of articles from TVA on today's problems of energy supply and cost, as they are viewed by the people responsible for providing the region's electric power supply.)

Remember last winter's high heating bills? Although all heating costs were up, some users of electric heat got a particular shock when unusually cold weather in some areas of the Tennessee Valley combined with higher electricity costs to produce heating bills much larger than those of earlier years.

Heating a house takes far more energy than other home uses, so power bills in the winter months for homes with electric heat are generally two or three times as large as bills in the milder fall months, and sometimes more.

This winter there will be good news and bad news on electric heating costs. Fuel costs at TVA power plants over the past year have not risen as steeply as they did in 1974-75, and charges for TVA power are now at about the same levels as they were in the last half of 1975. But the bad news is that this can still mean heating bills as large as last year's, depending on how cold a winter this is.

This article is the first in a series outlining what families can do to reduce their energy requirements, including heating, and what TVA officials see in future trends involving electric power supply and cost.

Compared to the low-cost energy that was available a few years ago we are living in a new era today, and there is a tremendous need for consumers to understand what this means and what they can do to reduce the impact of high energy costs," says TVA Manager of Power Godwin Williams.

"For example, anyone who builds a new home today using the insulation levels that were standard in the past is literally throwing away thousands of dollars in future savings on heating and cooling costs—savings that can be gained with the heavier insulation and other measures we are now encouraging in new construction."

Williams said one obstacle to power conservation programs is the complexity of the energy problem. "Many people feel confused by the controversies about why energy costs are higher, the effects of new energy sources, rate structures, and so on, and they can be tempted to ignore the whole problem."

"But there is one fact everyone must understand—we will never again see electric rates back where they were when power plant fuel was cheap, construction and other costs were moderate, and power supply was a simpler job than it is now," he said. "There is no magic wand in sight that is going to lower the costs of supplying power, but there is one thing everyone can do to ease the burden of higher bills. Every consumer can learn to use electricity more efficiently. Conservation cannot offset the effect of higher costs, but it will without question save money on electric bills."

Renovation May Be Cut From Philadelphia Plans

The Loudon County School Board and Purchasing Committee were to meet Tuesday night, after the deadline for this issue, to decide on awarding bids on the $700,000 Philadelphia School building project. Bids were opened last week but awarding of the bid was delayed to allow the architect time to study the bids and make comparisons of the base and alternate bids.

At the time of the bid openings all the bids were too high, if all alternates were exercised. Alternates were for the renovation of the existing building, for educational equipment in the new building, and a deduction for modification of the heating and air conditioning system.

Superintendent Edward Headlee said Monday that he was going to recommend to the Board at the Tuesday meeting that the contract be awarded to the bid with the lowest base bid and lowest educational equipment alternate. The air conditioning alternate, a deduction would also be taken on the bidder under Headlee's recommendation.

Planning Commission Starts Industrial Development Study

Two new documents designed to assist in the planning and development of Loudon County were outlaid to the Loudon County Planning Commission Thursday night by State Planner Steve Campbell. They were an Industrial Development Study and Impact Assessment Procedure for Development Proposals.

Campbell preparing the items at the direction of the Planners, said that the Industrial Development Study will consist of six chapters and is designed to help determine the entire scope of industrial development in the county.

The objectives and purpose of the study, identify guidelines, and type of development suited for the county. It would be of benefit to the Planning Commission and legislative bodies, act as an educational tool setting out guidelines for industrial prospects, and identify sites.

MUSHROOM PLANT CONSTRUCTION—Construction is well underway on the Ralston Purina Company mushroom plant near Loudon. The block building in the background will be the office complex of the facility. The plant itself will cover all the area graded level in the photo. The multi-million dollar facility which will employ several hundred persons is expected to be in operation next summer. The plant is located on a 200 acre farm the company purchased from Ben Galyon just off I-75 on State Route 72 West of Loudon.

Part Of I-40 Here To Be Six-Laned

A portion of Interstate 40 in Loudon County will be six-laned, Deputy State Highway Commissioner William A. Goodwin said last week.

The Tennessee Department of Transportation said that critical sections of the highway from Hope's Gap and Asheville Highway will be expanded prior to the International Energy Exposition in Knoxville in 1982. Hope's Gap is at the fork of I-40 and I-75 north of Loudon City.

The six-laning of portions of I-40 is part of the commitment made by the state to transportation improvement in the Knoxville area for the proposed Exposition.

Work Starts On Ralston Purina Building

Construction on the huge Ralston Purina Company plant at Loudon is underway. Employees for prime contractor H. & M. Construction Company of Milan began about 10 days ago laying concrete block on a portion of the sprawling plant.

The big plant, when completed will have almost nine acres under roof, is located on a 200 acre farm Purina purchased from Ben Galyon of State Route 72 near I-75 at Loudon. Construction is to be complete in early fall next year.

The Loudon plant is Purina's fifth mushroom farm facility. The new multi-million dollar installation will produce fresh mushrooms under environmentally controlled conditions.

Production capacity of the facility when it opens will be 11 million pounds of mushrooms annually.

Employment at the plant is expected to be 350 persons, most of which Purina says will come from the Loudon County area.

Fresh mushrooms grown in the Loudon plant will be distributed in the surrounding five state area. Ralston Purina Company's other mushroom production facilities are located in California, Texas, Florida and Illinois.

Excavation work at the plant site, underway for about seven weeks, is nearly complete. Wright Brothers of Loudon did the earthmoving work.

A number of Purina employees, those involved in plant construction and initial production have already moved to Loudon County.

Construction is expected to start soon on water and sewer lines from the city of Loudon to the new plant.

Ralston Purina is participating in the cost of extending the lines, which will also open up the I-75 interchange for more rapid development.

$3,800 Awarded In Condemnation

Most cases set for trial in the current term of Circuit Court have been either continued or settled out of court. Only two of eight cases set before Judge Willard Kitzrell the first week were tried before a jury.

A condemnation of land for the 175 and Sugar Limb Interchange saw the property owner Orville E. Conner and wife, Martha, awarded $800 for the 1.03 acres taken and $3,000 in damages to the remaining property. An inverse condemnation of the Hills vs. Loudoun County was dismissed.

A death benefit claim by Patricia Oody, daughter of Joseph Baby, who was killed in an auto-pedestrian accident on U.S. 11 at Dixie Lee Junction in 1973 was denied when a jury returned a verdict for the defendant Penny R. Oody. Cases settled during the week were Teresa M. Watson vs. Francis Ridenour and Bobby Ridenour vs. Tammy Sue Lawhon, auto accident; Gary H. Hall and Cheryl S. Hall vs. Mutual Insurance Company of Tennessee, bad faith. The case of Lowell K. Wade vs. Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company, set for trial on Friday, Nov. 26 was reset for Wednesday, Dec. 1.

Loudon Tops Hustling Panther Effort With Final Quarter Foul Shooting, 57-50

The Loudon Redskins have notched their second straight victory at the expense of county rival Lenoir City.

The Redskins, 24, did not have an easy time in whipping their favorite rival 57-50 Friday night. The Panthers, 1-2, out scored Loudon in field goals but was just not able to overcome the veteran play of the Redskins team.

Loudon hit 17 of 52 shots in the game for a 32.7 team percent. The Redskins had 16 field goals to Lenoir City's 17 going into the final quarter but was out shot four to one in baskets in the last eight minutes. Nevertheless, the Redskins converted on 12 foul shots to still capture the quarter and the game.

The two teams battled even in the first quarter with Lenoir City rushing out to a 10-9 lead with 4:12 to go in the initial act.

Loudon missing their first eight shots while the Panthers were hitting on four of six from the field, regrouped and Randy Davis knizled the score at 10-10 with 31 seconds to go in the stanza.

The scoring difference by either team never exceeded four points in the second quarter with Loudon popping in six of 15 shots and five free throws to carry a slim 27-26 lead into intermission.

The Panthers hit six of 18 shots in the second quarter. Loudon junior pivot Gary Brown led the Redskins in the first half with 15 points. The big 6-4 Brown cashed in on four of five field goal tries in the second quarter and teamed with Randy Davis to supply the Loudon offense.

Lenoir City answered with a more balanced effort with junior Ronnie Hendrix playing one of his best games ever in collecting four clutch baskets and Chris Ferguson was three and four from the field in the second quarter.

Loudon moving to a four point working margin on Mark Blair's three point play with 6:40 on the third quarter clock. The play also placed foul plagued Panther center Ray Billingsley with his fourth foul.

Billingsley, who did not score a point in the game lasted only 19 more seconds before drawing his final foul.

one point and a technical foul called on the Loudon bench gave Lenoir City the lead by a point with just 40 seconds left in the period.

Loudon, paced by 13 individual points by Mark Blair, reclaimed the lead by the end of the quarter for a 43-40 difference entering the last eight minutes.

Lenoir City showing a lot of hustle made Loudon work to keep their lead and as late as 2:12 to go rallied on a three point maneuver by Hendrix and a field goal by Hendrix to draw the count to 46-45 before buckling in the Redskins accuracy at the foul line.

Loudon lost forward Steve Millspaugh to fouls with 4:11 to play and both Hendrix and Brown for Loudon had to play careful in the final quarter to avoid their fifth fouls.

Mark Blair and Gary Brown led Loudon offensively with 17 points each. Brown hitting 15 points in the first half and then converting just two of four fouls shots for his game totals in the second half. Brown missed the seven of 13 foul shots but still managed to drag down 30 rebounds.

Blair one for seven in the first half came to live with a 11 point third quarter and fired in four of four foul shots in the fourth period to account for his 17 markers. He had nine individual rebounds.

Stephen Bettis again playing steady added nine points.

Lenoir's Mark Harrell made two brief appearances in the game but shot only once and showed definite signs of having missed much of the Redskins pre-season practice.

Harrell is hoped to be at full strength within the next couple of weeks.

Lenoir City was led by junior forwards Ronnie Hendrix and Pete Littleton. Hendrix tossed in 14 points making seven of 13 shots in the game. The 6-4 redhead grabbed six rebounds.

Littleton scored 11 points and had 10 rebounds.

Chris Ferguson, doing most of his damage to the Loudons, defense in the first half had 10 points for the night and was a standout ball handler.

Chucky Reed and Roger Landrum combined for 12 rebounds in the game and gave the Panthers some big plays. Mark Morton came off the bench to hit three field goals at crucial times. Loudon out rebounded Lenoir City 36 to 35.

The two teams will cross paths again on Friday night January 21 at Loudon.

BACK IN ACTION—Loudon senior standout pivot Mark Harrell made a brief appearance in the Lenoir City game on Friday night. Here he fights Lenoir City forward Ronnie Hendrix (40) for a rebound. Panther Pete Littleton (44) is also close to the action.

Greenback Gains Split With Cougars In Season Opener

The Greenback Cherokee opened up their basketball season last Tuesday night at Copper Basin High School.

The season opener resulted in a split or the twinning. The Greenback girls experienced foul troubles and thus bowed 43-30 to the Cougarettes.

The Greenback boys made up for the preliminary setback by streaking to a 60-48 triumph.

Marty Myers led the Greenback girls in the scoring column with 18 points on the night with seven field goals and four of eight foul shots. Myers, a senior, also led the rebounding on the offensive end with seven.

Usual high scoring junior forward Pat Neely picked up three early fouls and was Copper Basin converted on 11 of 12 foul shots in the second quarter and thus took the lead for good by halftime 28-27.

Greenback had a cold shooting third period (two of 10) and the host Cougarettes increased their margin to 37-27.

Greenback hit 14 of 49 shots to open the season for a 29 percent shooting. Copper Basin shot just 28 percent, 15 of 54, but made 15 of 21 foul shots and out rebounded.

only a two point first period but had two scoring assists in the eight minute act.

Copper Basin seeking a better player combination to overcome its first period deficit sent several reserves in to the game. One Cougar, Ronnie Henley, playing with a wooden leg drew the assignment of defending Kizer.

Kizer quickly turned the tables on such a idea as he poured in 11 second quarter points and then as the Cougars find better coverage of the find better to double team the Greenback scoring ace Kizer hit 10 each of the third and fourth periods.

Junior pivot Steve Langin'etter added 10 points and 11 rebounds before retiring with five fouls in the game.

Lynn Rucker had 13 rebounds to share in the Cherokee 32 team total and totaled nine points.

BLAIR SHOWS SECOND HALF FORM—Loudon senior Mark Blair takes aim on a softjump shot from the stop of the lane as Lenoir City player Chucky Reed tried to stop the effort. Blair had 17 points to be the top offensive star of the night.

MORTON IS READY—Lenoir City guard Mark Morton is all up in the air over the possibilities of Loudon junior big man Gary Brown might decide to shoot the basketball. Panther Pete Littleton also checks the play of Brown while he handles the basketball. Brown had 17 points and 19 rebounds in the game won by Loudon 57-50.

handcapped in her efforts the rest of the game. Neely had four fouls at the end of the game and only nine points.

Senior guard Robin Anderson, pulling down eight missed Copper Basin shots, fouled out and Cindy Hawkins had four on her at the end of the game.

Darlene Woods led the rebounding with nine and Cheryl Belcher played well defensively as a reserve.

Greenback squeaked out to a 12-8 first quarter lead on a five of 13 shooting mark, with the Cougarettes hitting 4-13 in the first stanza.

AN ACE FOR THE CHIEF—Luke Bright recorded the dream of all golfers last Friday when his five iron shot on the 133 yard par three third hole at Madisonville bounced one and then ducked into the cup for a hole-in-one. Bright said it was his first Ace in 15 years of swinging the sticks. He was playing with Larry Cato, who said although he witnessed the "lucky" shot, Bright recounted the event numerous times during the remaining 15 holes of their match.

Pantherettes Are Lady Redskins Third Victim

Loudon's Bernadette Locke, averaging in the 30's hit just five of 14 shots as Pantherette Bel Thaxton attempted to keep her off her shooting game. Locke finished with 14 points and played only a short span of the second half.

Jennie Letter scored 14 points with the best set of statistics, making five of seven shots from the floor and four of six foul shots.

Loudon connected on 17 of 40 shots in the game for 41.4 percent.

Cathy Delaney and Rita DeFord skipped the Loudon bench in the fourth quarter to score eight and four points respectively.

Kim Brantbover added four points and Kelly Purdy played but did not score.

Renee Grizzle's 14 rebounds was the best on any individual. Juliet Locke and Susan Jameson had eight and six, respectively as Loudon won the battle of the boards 44

Lenoir City was paced by the 10 points of sophomore Melissa Smith. Freshman Nadine Cozart made her first varsity start and led the Pantherette guards with seven recoveries.

Lenoir City dropped behind by a 14-1 first quarter score and were never closer. The Pantherettes hit on five of 36 shots for a cool 13.8 percent.

Loudon was charged with just 10 turnovers and Lenoir City despite playing with underclassmen with little experience made just 14 turnovers.

Greenback Boys Win Again; Girls Get Revenge Over Cougarettes

The Greenback Cherokee basketball teams are off and flying and the regular season is barely into its second week of play.

The Greenback girls have avenged their Tuesday night season opening loss to Copper Basin with a 47-36 victory on Friday night.

The Cougarettes, who advanced to the Class A Sub-State tournament round last winter and has much the same team back this season, could not handle the first up Cherokee sextet on Friday night.

Junior Pam Neely, who was stock with fouls in the first meeting, and could score but nine points, made her impression on the Cougarettes differently this time out. Neely swished the nets for 28 points, making 10 of 23 shots the game and eight foul shots.

While Neely was getting her act together senior teammate Marti Myers was contributing 14 points, and Chita Tipton added five.

Greenback reared to a 10-4 first stop lead and following a close scoring second period captured both the third and fourth quarter play to win going away.

Darlene Woods and Robin Anderson shared in individual rebounding honors with eight each and teamed with Cindy Hawkins for one of the Cherokee's best defensive showings in several seasons.

Greenback hit on 17 of 48 shots for a 35.4 percent accuracy and Copper Basin could hit but 15 of 44 floor shots for 34 percent.

The Greenback boys got a tremendous double figure performance from Roddy Kizer, Lynn Rucker, Steve Linginfelter and Richard Reagan in picking up their second win with a loss, 75-49.

The Cherokee's hit a torrid 29 of 46 shots or 63.0 percent for the entire game and limited the Cougars to 30 field goals out of 51 tries for 58.8 percent.

Greenback also added 19 of 27 foul shots to their scoring and Copper Basin scored just nine of 14 charity tosses.

REBOUND DANCE—Greenback guard Darlene Woods (33) appears to be dancing for joy after pulling down a rebound in the Cherokee's well played victory over Copper Basin. Other Cherokee guards are Robin Anderson (42) and Cindy Hawkins.

The Cherokee's hit a torrid 29 of 46 shots or 63.0 percent for the entire game and limited the Cougars to 30 field goals out of 51 tries for 58.8 percent.

Greenback also added 19 of 27 foul shots to their scoring and Copper Basin scored just nine of 14 charity tosses.

Bobby Thomas In Exercise

Navy Chief Aviation Electrician Bobby Thomas, son of Mrs. Lillie M. Thomas of Lenoir City, participated in the NATO Exercise "Display Determination" in the Mediterranean Sea.

He is a crewmember aboard the aircraft carrier USS America, deployed with the U.S. Sixth Fleet. His command joined with naval forces from Portugal, Italy, Turkey and the United Kingdom for the combined exercise which included convoy operations, amphibious assault landings and anti-submarine warfare maneuvers.

The primary objective of the exercise was to train NATO naval forces in combined sea operations, to refine NATO procedures and ensure that operational plans were current.

Participating units evaluated increased standardization of doctrines, equipment and armaments among NATO forces, plus command and control procedures for coordinated action by NATO sea, land and air forces.

LADY REDSKINS GET SECOND TRY—Loudon forward Kim Brantbover (30) sweeps the offensive back boards to give the Loudon forwards a second try of a missed shot.

LOCKE HAS LOW OFFENSIVE SHOWING—Loudon's high scoring forward Bernadette Locke just could not get the ball to fall through the hoop as she unleashed percentage shot after shot to record only 14 points.

Grid Contest Ends For Another Season

The final week of the Herald Football Contest for 1976 was one of the roughest on the contestants. No one got all 10 games right, only two had nine correct and about 100 missed two games. More than half of the entries had four or more games wrong.

The high school TSSAA semi-finals made up six of the games and this caused most of the trouble, as did the losses of UT and Mississippi.

Sharing first and second place with nine correct games and identical tie-breakers of 25 points (it would have been perfect) were Glen Eiler and Sheila Eiler of Highland Avenue in Loudon. They will receive $10 each. Third place $5, was won by Phil Watkins. He missed two games and had 32 points on the tie-breaker.

Others who missed two games but were further away on the total points scored, in the Marville (17) and Cleveland (14) games were Rodney Best, Mike Lambert, Tracy Stallcup, Ralph Stallcup, Charles Robertson, Shel Watkins, Jackie Eiler, Glynn Eiler, Bryan Eller, and James O. Wilson.

Wildlife Group Opposes Rifle Association In Fight Over Shot For Hunters

The National Wildlife Federation has intervened on the side of the federal government in the court fight to preserve U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service regulations that would phase out the use of lead shot in waterfowl hunting.

A longtime advocate of steel shot as a means of reducing lead poisoning among waterfowl, NWF was allowed to join the Fish and Wildlife Service as a co-defendant opposing a suit filed in U.S.

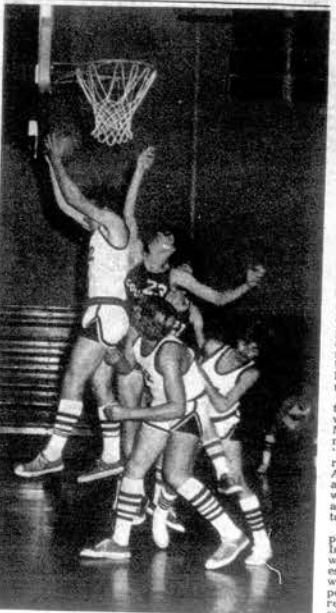

District Court at Washington, D.C. by the National Rifle Association.

The National Rifle Association, contending that steel shot increased the possibility of gun barrel damage and injury to hunters, filed suit on October 4, asking for an injunction against enforcement of steel shot regulations that went into effect last month.

Seventy-two hours later NWF filed a petition to intervene and defend the USFWS regulations. Judge Joseph C. Waddy allowed NWF to enter the case, which he took under advisement after a hearing on October 19.

In an affidavit to the court, Thomas L. Kimball, executive vice president of the NWF, pointed out that NWF first asked the Interior Department, parent agency of USFWS, "to prohibit the use of lead in waterfowl hunting" more than five years ago.

Kimball said a reversal of the agency's decision now would affect the interests of NWF and its sportsmen members in protecting the "conservation of waterfowl resources of the North American continent." An adverse ruling, he added, would "foreclose NWF's ability to defend these interests."

At stake in the lawsuit is the phasing in of steel shot that, Interior and NWF argue, would spare the killing of an estimated two to three million waterfowl annually by lead poisoning. Deaths have resulted from the birds swallowing lead shot while feeding in hunting areas, NWF counsel Oliver A. Houck argued.

After filing an impact statement in holding public hearings, Secretary of Interior Thomas Kleppe announced at NWF's annual meeting in March, 1976, in Louisville, his department's decision to require steel shot for Atlantic flyway hunting, effective September 13.

At the October 19 court hearing witnesses appearing on behalf of the government's regulations included experts from the Federal Cartridge Corp., the Remington Arms Co., Field and Stream Magazine, the Illinois Natural History Survey and the Fish and Wildlife Service.

A decision is expected by late November.

There are nine legislative proposals and 16 administrative proposals submitted before the Oct. 15 deadline.

The administrative proposals are:

1. That the TSSAA football play-off plan be changed to a possible 80 points for eight games. A team may designate two scheduled games as wild card games prior to the beginning of the football season. If no wild card games are designated, the first eight games shall be counted for play-off points. (Submitted by State Play-Off Committee appointed by the Board of

25 Proposals Before TSSAA Board

Twenty-five proposals will be discussed and voted on by TSSAA member schools at three regional meetings slated on Nov. 30, Dec. 1 and Dec. 2.

Last year's East Tennessee meeting was held on a week day during the day. The turnout was one of the largest ever and included many principals. In hopes of attracting larger groups and as many principals and administrators as possible the Board of Control has set all three meetings this year on a week day at 1:00 p.m.

The first meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 30 1:00 p.m. at Jackson Central Merry High School. The East Tennessee meeting is set for Knoxville Wednesday, Dec. 1, 1:00 p.m. The final meeting will be at the TSSAA office building in Heraldo on Thursday, Dec. 2, at 1:00 p.m.

Board of Control members will be elected to represent Athletic Districts 2, 3, 4 and 5. Athletic District 2 was represented by D.M. Miller who was resigned to take another position with his school system. Athletic District 3 was represented by W.H. Millsaps who has retired. Tullahoma's Creed McClure, TSSAA President, now represents Athletic District 4, and Memphis Washington's Mose Walker now represents Athletic District 5.

Legislative Council members will be elected to represent Athletic Districts 1, 2, 3 and 4. Carl Starnes of Bulls Gap now represents Athletic District 1. Athletic District 2 was represented by Ed Osborne who has retired. Athletic District 3 is now represented by Council Chairman Adam Delberry of Nashville. Athletic District 4 is now represented by Estel Mills of Savannah Central High School.

2. That a TSSAA Sports Calendar be adopted. This calendar has been sent to all member schools. (Submitted by Board of Control.)

3. That the present format for girls' basketball be eliminated and one adopted that would change the rules to coincide with regulations now used in the boys' game. This would include the use of only five players and the use of full court. (Submitted by Calhoun High School and Haywood County High School.)

4. That track be classified to correspond with football, basketball and baseball classifications. If the number of teams is not enough to justify three classifications, schools with less than one thousand enrollment will be placed in another class. (Submitted by Keturon High School.)

5. That the TSSAA all-star football and basketball games be discontinued as a sponsored event. (Submitted by Board of Control.)

6. That schools be classified in each sport separately according to their enrollment with the privilege of electing to move to a higher classification for a two-year period being accorded on a separated sport basis. The choice of a school to play in a higher classification in any one or more sports shall not affect the enrollment classification in other sports. (Submitted by Chattanooga Interscholastic League and Montgomery Bell Academy.)

7. That realignment of senior high school basketball districts be considered where two or more basketball districts exist with a metropolitan area and where proximity is not a major factor the strength of the team should be the overriding consideration for tournament alignment whereby each district will be more nearly balanced as to record of strength. (Submitted by the Chattanooga Interscholastic League.)

8. That all sports-track, cross country, etc.—now classified in less than four regions for tournament play shall be reclassified into a minimum of four statewide regions. (Submitted by Chattanooga Interscholastic League.)

9. That an increase in regional and state tournament allowance for travel, food, and lodging shall reflect the current purchasing price of the dollar. (Submitted by the Chattanooga Interscholastic League.)

10. That principals and athletic directors of all member schools be entitled to two passes each (that of four) to all TSSAA tournaments. Each member of the coaching personnel of a school will be entitled to one pass for any session in which said school is competing. Coaching passes for noncompeting schools will be restricted to one pass for each coach of the sport involved. The TSSAA directory shall be used for identification of the coaches. Any change in personnel from those listed must be submitted to the tournament director by their principal or athletic director. Where seating is a factor the TSSAA may require that the necessary passes be applied for in advance of the tournament. (Submitted by Chattanooga Interscholastic League.)

11. That a separate division be adopted for public and private schools in the TSSAA Football Play-Off System.

Public schools will be allowed to "wildcard" game that would be designated with TSSAA on the fall schedule for a two-year period. This game would allow the private schools to schedule the public schools in their area. The district or regional qualifications would be based on the record of the nine regular games. A school might designate as their "wildcard" game any private school, out-of-state school or a public school from a different classification.

Private schools would also be able to designate one "wildcard" game from some public school or out-of-state team. Their qualification for state play-off would be based on their record in their nine regular games. Private schools would be bound to the present limit of scholarship or tuition reduction that is now established in TSSAA.

Any private school choosing to compete in the public school division must abide by all TSSAA regulations for public schools. No scholarship or tuition reductions will be allowed. A private school cannot apply to TSSAA to compete in the public division until there are no team members on any financial aid. (Submitted by East Ridge High School.)

12. That officials for the regional basketball tournaments shall be elected by the coaches of the teams that qualify for regional tournament play. (Submitted by Class A, District 18 Coach and Class A, District 18 Coach and Principals.)

13. That enrollment figures for AAA, AA, and A be revised so that the three groups are appropriate equal in size. Example—AAA—851 and above; AA—425 to 850; A—425 and under.

This is only an example. Equal revision should be left to the TSSAA. Enrollment figures for grouping should be reviewed every two years and revised, if necessary, to maintain the size of the three equal groups as nearly as possible. This would be done by the TSSAA. Schools would be encouraged to play in their enrollment grouping.

Under this proposal each classification would contain approximately 100 teams. (Submitted by Mapleswood High School.)

14. That each football region be divided into four districts of six, seven, or eight teams. This would have playoff schedule requirement of five, six, or seven games.

That the eleventh week of season be eliminated. This extra week would be used for play-off games in each region between district champions. These two winners would be the two best in region and play-off would then proceed under present plan.

This proposal is presented as perhaps a more equitable play-off formula. This plan means a fourteen game system, but over the same period of time. (No extra week of regular schedule.) (Submitted by Mapleswood High School.)

15. That the four TSSAA passes issued each member school be valid for all TSSAA events and be recognized by all member schools. (Submitted by Giles County Schools.)

16. That a method be devised for member schools to bring their team to the state tournament for one session (other than semi-finals or finals) without admission charges. (Submitted by Giles County Schools.)

In chess, the castle gets the rank, rock from the Persian, rakh, which is said to have meant a warrior.

In Memory

In loving memory of Mrs. Betty Jean Stizlar, who died one year ago, November 22.

God called our loved one away, an emptiness still lingers for the place within our hearts that once she filled with sunshine. It is so sad since we are apart. She loved us all so dearly, she proved her love each day, and we have missed her presence since God called her away. But in his wisdom and his grace, He knew what was the best, and though we do not understand, we know she is at rest. Then once again we will meet her, see her smile and hear her voice, and we will forever be together and in his love forever.

Sadly missed by Rick and children, friends and neighbors.

Public Sees Need For Nuclear Power

TVA Chairman Aubrey J. Wagner says the defeat of a referendum on November 2 shows that an informed public recognizes the need for nuclear power to help meet the Nation's energy needs.

"One of the most significant results of the elections was the rejection of antinuclear measures by the voters in six states," Wagner said. "These referenda, defeated by about a 2-to-1 margin, were generally similar to the initiative that California voters had also rejected 2-to-1 last June."

"This makes seven states with a population of 42 million, about 20 percent of the Nation, that have held elections and endorsed nuclear power," he said.

"The great significance of these voters, I believe, is that they show the public's understanding of the importance of energy in their daily lives and their recognition that nuclear power is one of the essential forms that must be used in the years immediately ahead," Wagner said.

Speaking following a recent Board meeting, the TVA Chairman added that "it again illustrates that the American people, given access to the facts, will make sensible decisions."

"Those responsible for energy supply have been virtually unanimous in their support for nuclear power and it is good to know that this energy source has received the endorsement of labor, scientists, engineers, and voters in seven states," he said.

"Opponents of nuclear energy have quoted Albert Einstein to the effect that nuclear power must be taken to the 'village square' for a decision. It has been taken to the 'village square,' he said.

"Now we might hope that the regulatory agencies and other Government policy-makers will get the message, and let us get on with the job of meeting energy needs in the years to come."

Young Named To Committee

Johnnie F. Young of Lenoir City was named to the radiology committee of the Loudon County Memorial Hospital at its regular meeting last week. The committee is studying proposals for the radiology department of the hospital.

The question of who will be in charge of the radiology department has been an issue of some controversy for several months. Dr. Harold Freedman, now doing the radiology work, and Dr. Elsie Turkinson are among persons submitting bids for the job.

In other business, Hospital Administrator Gay Hamilton reported that he feels the hospital passed the recent Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals' survey. Hamilton called the survey "pretty intense" and said he believes the hospital will be passed for one year. He added that the surveys get progressively harder through the years.

In response to a question, Hamilton said the survey recommends that the hospital have a board eligible doctor for radiology. He said the hospital has already sent a letter about Dr. Freedman's qualifications to the Joint Commission.

Dr. Tom McPeake, head of the medical staff, told the board that he thinks the survey was good for the hospital.

Boyd Duckworth asked Hamilton why the hospital does not have a time clock for the employees and why itemized bills are not sent to patients. Hamilton replied that the time clock has been considered twice and the board has rejected the idea. He also reported that itemized bills are sent to patients who request them, but said the bills must be done by hand until the new computer hookup is installed.

Hamilton also explained to the board the planning now under way for a medical office building and addition to the hospital. The board voted to begin preliminary work on the project in August.

The board spent considerable time discussing health care costs, emphasizing the emergency room charges. Hamilton said Dr. McPeake said persons frequently use the emergency

Capitol Commentary

by M. Lee Smith

Despite a substantial number of new members and increased Democratic majorities in both houses, the newly elected 96th General Assembly appears similar to that of recent General Assemblies. In the 99-member House 20 incumbents did not seek reelection and three incumbents who did were defeated in the November general election. Of the 23 seats occupied by new members, Democrats won five previously held by Republicans, while Republicans captured two Democratic-held seats. As a result of these changes, Democrats now enjoy a 66 to 32 majority over Republicans in the House with one independent member. The two-thirds Democratic majority will enable Democrats to suspend House rules if all members vote in a block on partisan issues. In the Senate 17 of 33 seats were up for election this year.

Four incumbents did not seek another term, two were defeated in primary elections, and another lost in the general election. Of the seven seats held by new members, Democrats won three previously held by Republicans, and Republicans won no Democratic-held seats.

The gain of three seats for the Democrats gives the party a 23 to nine majority over the Republicans with one independent member. By comparison, there were 20 Democrats, 12 Republicans, and one independent in the 99th state Senate.

Overall there is little change in the composition of either body in terms of age or occupation. Attorneys continue to comprise the foremost occupational group. While eleven incumbent black legislators are back for another two years, there are five new black legislators. And the number of women legislators declined from five to three.

In leadership positions Speakers John Widler of Somerville and Ned R. McWhorter of Dresden will be reelected to lead the Senate and House, respectively. Republicans will retain Sen. Tom Garland of Greenville and Rep. Tom Jensen of Knoxville as minority leaders.

Although Democratic majority leaders Milton Hamilton of Union City and Tommy Burnett of Jamestown are now in those positions, both are veteran legislators who have served in other leadership posts.

Widler, McWhorter, and the majority and minority leaders in each house are all experienced, capable, honest, hard-working legislators. It is doubtful that any state can exceed Tennessee in the quality of its top level legislative leadership.

Overall the 96th General Assembly appears basically conservative in philosophy. In the House it is likely that Democrats will band together in a number of issues to form a loosely-knit, informal working majority.

As in the past, the Senate should be even more conservative, business-oriented, cautious, and clublike than the House.

And above all else, the 96th General Assembly will be independent of Gov. Ray Blanton and the executive branch of state government. In past years the General Assembly has become the dominant branch of state government in setting state policy and has exerted its will independent of the office of the Governor.

This method of operating will continue in 1977—despite the presence of a Democratic governor and increased Democratic majorities in both houses.

THP Plans Thanksgiving Effort

Tennessee Commissioner of Safety Joel Plummer today called for an all-out effort for traffic safety during the coming Thanksgiving Day Holiday Weekend.

"I am asking all law enforcement agencies throughout the state to cooperate in the effort to cut the tragic death and accident toll during the holiday period, and I am calling on every driver to be especially on the alert during this 102-hour period."

Last year 16 persons were killed during the Thanksgiving weekend, a death every 16 hours. Additionally the average accident rate was up from its 12 minute interval and the injury rate also increased from its average 12 minute interval. According to statistics, this was the second most dangerous holiday of the year in 1975.

"Thanksgiving is a traditional time for family gatherings, religious and sports events; most of these require traveling and result in a heavier than usual volume of traffic on all roadways. With the increased number of vehicles on the road comes an increased chance that you will become involved in an accident."

Commissioner Plummer noted he said motorists can lower their chances of becoming involved in an accident by making a few advance trip preparations. The Commissioner suggested: plan your trip, know how long it will take you to get there by observing the speed limit, if you leave late, plan to arrive late... make sure your vehicle is in good mechanical condition and that the tires are in good shape... if you drink alcoholic beverages, don't drive because you must be alert at all times if you are to avoid accidents, and along this same line, plan frequent rest stops, especially if you are traveling at night.

"All of the resources available to the Highway Patrol will be fully utilized throughout the holiday period in the effort to help save you from injury and death, but in the final analysis you, the motorist, have the main part to play in this life and death drama," the Commissioner concluded.

Philadelphia Scouts Get Awards

Philadelphia Boy Scout Troop 650, sponsored by the Philadelphia Community Club, won the National Camping Award and National President's Award at last week's District Banquet.

In June and July the troop, led by scoutmaster Pat Wright, attended Summer Camp for two weeks and earned numerous merit badges and still awards. Merit badges won were First Aid, Swimming, Art, Leatherwork and metalwork, Skill Awards-Camping, cooking, hiking, conservation and swimming.

They also won two Blue Ribbons for camp inspection. One of the highlights of the summer camp was an overnight canoe trip to a campsite that had to be found by using a map and compass.

Two weeks ago the Troop attended a weekend Camp Blair Claims He Did Not Put Boy On Bus

Squire Jim Blair said that statements concerning him at the County School Board meeting last week were not true. Blair said he did not place a child on a school bus that has been suspended for three days for misconduct as bus owner W.B. Costner was reported to have told the school board. "I know nothing about the problem and the first knowledge of it was when I read the newspaper," Blair said.

force at the Toqua Indian Mound near Glico. The Campore featured a tour of the ancient Indian village and mound. Later they searched for arrowheads and broken pottery. At the evening campfire the state champion Indian dance team performed. Future activities planned by the Philadelphia troop are bowling, campout in Tellico, will cave tour of Lost Sea, and an Anniversary Banquet in February. Troop members are Edie Presley, Tim Bacon, Chris Gage, Randall Sampson, Stuart Gage, Paul Shell, Jeff Collette, Travis Kiser, Eddie Brewster, Jerald Allison, Brock Roberts, and Troy Barnette.

BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

To say we grew up in the radio era would be incorrect. I guess ours was the old and almost forgotten windup record player. It was the thing that was taking the day during my childhood days. Jimmy Rogers was the recording star... the Carter family and many others. Broken springs that wound the old record players up was a constant problem. My father, being a mechanic, was in demand many nights to go to someone's house and replace or repair the springs that powered this old time medium of family entertainment. Later, the miracle of radio was going to come along. The first one to come to Loudoun was brought to Loudoun by the late Carl Kimbrough (father of Mrs. Allen Kimbrough Richesia). Mr. Kimbrough was a local Dodge automobile dealer. His repairman was Ebb Webb. The name Attwater Kent will have very little meaning to most people of our present day, but that was the trade name of the brand of radio Mr. Kimbrough brought to Loudoun. Early radios were all battery powered. It took two or three B batteries, an A battery and a C battery. A very complicated bit of electronic gear. Yes, we know, a fat cry from modern solid state electronics, but that was in the beginning, Cars didn't have radios, this also came later. The top radio station then was K.D.K.A.

In the preceding paragraphs we have said a lot. Possibly you are wondering why all the fuss. Well, we have a purpose which we hope will be of interest to you. Quite often we run into someone who will say, "Wasn't your brother the one who built Loudoun's first radio station?" Yes, with balling wire, homemade parts, clothes line antennas and all the money he could save for batteries. It went on the air, but, unknown to me and my brother that what we were doing was illegal. So, this junk pile (but it worked) was short lived.

Although through the years, Loudoun has never had a radio station, I have no idea why.

Band Boosters
Make Final Dinner Plans

Final plans for a Ham Dinner to be sponsored by the Loudoun Band Boosters Club will be made at a Band Boosters meeting set for the high school band room at 7 p.m., Monday, Nov. 29. Band Director John Calvanehouse urges all members and band parents to attend the meeting.

Cub Scouts
Tour County Justice Center

Cub Scout Den 1 visited the Justice Center Saturday, Nov. 13. They were given a guided tour of the entire building by John Miller of the Loudoun County Ambulance Service.

Those attending the tour were Jimmy Russell, Joe Survel, Monte Brown, Scott Purdy and Jeff Crisp. Den Mothers are Angie Purdy, Judy Brown and Nancy Crisp.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Open Letter to the Editor:
I have visited Loudoun for many years. I've always liked your town, probably because it reminded me so much of my own home in south Georgia. Recently I was there to attend the funeral of my aunt, Nita Howell. Again, your town reminded me of my own home because of the many offerings of love and sympathy which came from so many and meant so much. There was one thing though that caused all of us additional pain at a daily broadcast. We were on hand as John's guest to talk about our town and what it meant to us. Of course, John is the good looking boy on the right in the picture. We thought maybe that anyone who saw the pictures might mistake us for a couple of the popular news reporters we know today.

Later, the way it was with radio in our town Loudoun, Goodnight John, Goodnight, Cal, Oh, well.

Well, that's it for now. See you as soon as we vacate room N-303 at Fort Sanders Hospital.

those facts look very sensational in print.
I do hope that the next time a tragedy such as this strikes your community, you will have more compassion for their family.

EDITOR—The news business deals with all kinds of situations - and suicide just happens to be considered a violent death which, even though it is harsh, news. It would be nice if our newspaper were made up of all good news, but the world has not yet come to that.

TVA Pays $86 Million In Local, State Taxes

State and local governments in the Tennessee Valley region received nearly $86 million in taxes and payments in lieu of taxes from TVA and local power distributors during the past fiscal year. This total was an increase of $15 million over the previous year.

TVA power distributors paid $37,779,221 in taxes and tax equivalents to state and local governments during the fiscal year ended June 30. These 160 local electric systems distributor TVA power to consumers in parts of seven states.

In addition, TVA payments in lieu of taxes amounted to some $48 million. Most of the funds going to the states come from TVA, while most of the funds going to local governments come from the electric distribution systems.

TVA is the largest "taxpayer" to the State of Tennessee, and most of the municipal electric systems distributing TVA power are the largest taxpayers to their city governments.

TVA payments in lieu of taxes by law are 5 percent of its power revenues, except on sales to Federal agencies. Taxes and tax equivalents paid by the local distribution systems are determined by the laws of the various states.

Valley Ag Exports

Total $450 Million

TVA Report Shows

Tennessee Valley farmers made a significant contribution to a positive U.S. trade balance in fiscal year 1976, according to Dr. Gerald G. Williams, TVA Director of Agricultural Development.

Speaking in observance of National Farm-City Week, Williams said Valley farmers supplied an estimated $450 million of farm products to foreign consumers during the year ended June 30.

"These Valley farm product exports were a part of the record high $22 billion in U.S. farm products which were sold to foreign consumers in fiscal year 1976," Williams said. "Farm imports were just over $10 billion, leaving a positive agricultural trade balance of $12 billion. This was more than enough to offset the country's trade deficit for the year in nonfarm goods, giving the U.S. a positive overall balance of trade."

Williams said Tennessee Valley farm commodities exported included poultry, livestock, cotton, soybeans, and tobacco. Processed foods—such as turkey, pork, and apple products—were growing in importance as exportable commodities and offer a large potential for expanding the agricultural sector of the Valley, he said.

Council Approves Annexation On First Reading

Loudon City Council Monday night passed on first of two readings the annexation of Green Acres Subdivision and also set a public hearing on the matter.

The public hearing is scheduled for 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 8 at the Loudon Utilities meeting room.

About a half dozen Green Acres residents were at the meeting to hear about the annexation proposal from the city.

One lady favored the annexation provided the streets were upgraded, one man opposed it, but the others said they were just wanting to know what city services they would get for the city taxes they would pay.

Mayor Lambert said the city would immediately start a program spending $65,200 to provide city services for the 40 homes in the 96 lot subdivision and Loudon Utilities has plans to spend $7,000 putting a six-inch water line loop in the area.

The only city service the mayor would be delayed for several years would be sewer. He said that the city would start immediately trying to get a grant for extending sewer but it may take some time before that service is provided.

A $55,000 street improvement program was budgeted. The first hydrants, $1,200 for street lights, garbage collection at a cost of $2,000, and fire and police protection at a cost of $1,000 each initially.

A reply prepared by the City staff showed the city would collect $3,969 a year in property taxes at the current rate and state shared revenues of $2,500 by annexing the area.

"We (the city) will not make any money from annexing Green Acres. But if we can break even over a 10 to 15 year period, I believe the residents of Green Acres will benefit," Mayor Gene Lambert said.

Garbage collection alone would save the residents $48 per year.

Lower fire insurance rates by being in the city limits, having free garbage collection and lower water rates would almost pay the city taxes it was pointed out.

Mayor Lambert said that eventually the city would provide sewer to the area, whether or not federal funds were available to help, but to do so immediately would make the annexation impossible. The sewer extension there is projected to cost $11,000.

Prior to the Green Acres Annexation discussion the Council and Utility Board met in a work session to discuss Green Acres and the Highway 72 annexation proposals.

The possibility of including the subdivision in an application that is being filed to get a 70 percent federal grant to extend sewer and water down to the I-75 interchange and to the new Ralston Puma plant was discussed.

HELP WOUNDED MAN—Deputy Voyd Carruth and ambulance attendants Doug Easter and Ronny Willis help Richard Majors to a cot after he was shot in the stomach and arm at the home of his father-in-law Saturday night. He later underwent surgery and is improving.

Kelly Charged With Shooting Brother-In-Law

Richard Earl Majors was shot in the stomach and arm Saturday night at the home of his father-in-law, Will Kelly on Riverview Road in Loudon City. Charged in the shooting with felonious assault with intent to commit first degree murder was the brother-in-law of the victim, Billy Joe Kelly of the same address.

Loudon County and Loudon City officers were called to the home about 9:15 p.m. after a neighbor called the Justice Center and reported hearing two shots come from the Kelly home.

Deputy Junior Teeters said when he arrived he found Majors in the front yard next door to the scene of the shooting standing up, but with gunshot wounds in the stomach and arm.

Majors, who married a daughter of Will Kelly about two months ago, shortly after he came to Loudon City from his home in Indiana, was taken to Loudon County Memorial Hospital, then transferred to Fort Sanders Hospital where he underwent surgery. One shot went in the lower stomach and came out through the back. The other apparently tore through the arm near the elbow. He was reported in fair condition early this week.

Teeters and Loudon City officers arrested Billy Joe Kelly immediately. While they were putting him in a patrol car the older Kelly came around the house with a gun in his hand. He was arrested and charged with carrying a pistol. The gun used in the shooting was a .380 caliber automatic pistol.

Kelly said that Majors came to the house either drunk or on drugs and had been asked to leave, but pulled a knife and took a swing at him. At that Kelly said he fired at the man, who was standing in the living room of the house, two times.

Kelly was being held at the Justice Center under $1,500 bond, pending a General Sessions Court hearing on the charge.

BILLY JOE KELLY is shown being taken from a patrol car to the county jail at the Justice Center shortly after he shot his brother-in-law Saturday. He was charged with felonious assault with intent to commit first degree murder.

CAR TORN IN HALF—A Ford Fairlane driven by Clifford Hunt of Loudon City was torn in two by the impact with another car on West Broadway in Loudon City last Wednesday night. The rear portion of Hunt's car is shown in the top photo. The lower picture shows the front portion and the other car in the accident. Hunt was critically injured in the accident.

Three Hurt, Car Torn In Half

Three persons were injured, one critically, in a two-car collision on West Broadway in Loudon City about 9:30 p.m. last Wednesday. One of the cars, driven by Clifford Hunt Jr., said to be an employee of the City of Loudon City, was torn in two by the force of the collision.

Hunt was taken to Fort Sanders Hospital where he was in critical condition for two days. His condition improved to serious at the first of this week. He had multiple injuries.

Others injured were Ralph D. Wright, 30 of Rt. 4, Loudon City and Jessie Proctor, 30 of D Street, Loudon City. They were both treated at Loudon County Memorial Hospital.

The Loudon County Ambulance Service and two units from the Loudon County Rescue Squad were called to transport the injured victims.

Philadelphia Bid Awarded---If Brought Within $750,000 Budget

The Loudon County Purchasing Commission last Tuesday night awarded the Philadelphia School project provided the architect and contractor can work out cuts to get the project within its $750,000 budget.

The low bidder on the project, including all the alternates was Webb and Sons Construction Company of Athens. Their total bid is $81,500. To get the project back in budget it must be cut below $70,000 to allow for architect's fees, demolition of the old building and other factors.

Webb and Son's base bid was $67,200. The first alternate which was the renovation on the portion of the building that was not torn down, enlarging the kitchen-catereria and new kitchen equipment and other improvements. The first alternate bid was $11,250. The second alternate bid adds another $4,600. This is for educational equipment such as cabinets, chalk and tack boards, movable wall partitions and other built-in items. A deduction of $5,228 is allowed for changing the heat and air conditioning units.

The Squires were concerned that the office was created in hopes of collecting debts owed the county agencies, such as the ambulance service, hospital, and the various courts.

It was pointed out that the process server had been serving a large number of civil papers, including those on back taxes. The committee asked that all agencies using the process server report on the extent they have used it and what effect it has had on county receipts. Lloyd Jenkins of Loudon holds the position.

There are three rezoning requests before the court. One is for Tom Williams asking that a 10 acre parcel near Loudon be zoned commercial for a possible shopping center.

The others are for Margie Stokorsky at Loudon and John Carwell in the fifth district, both requests if approved would allow billboard construction on the property.

The Planning Commission will also ask the court to approve rezoning in the county zoning resolution.

GROUND BREAKING FOR ANIMAL SHELTER—About 20 persons braved 30 degree temperatures late Monday afternoon to attend the groundbreaking ceremony of the new Loudon County Animal Shelter, a project sponsored by the Loudon County Humane Society. The facility, a six x 40 concrete block building will be built on county property near the Transfer Station at Loudon. Doing the honors in the photo are Carl Clark, President of the Society and Joyce Stimpson one of the prime movers of the group. The governments of Loudon County and Loudon City are all giving financial support to the Society. The shelter is expected to cost about $10,000 and donated material and labor are being sought to help cut costs.

4-H Sheep Project Wins National Award For Diane Kitchen

A high school senior whose sheep will "help pay for her college education" has won an $800 scholarship for "outstanding achievement in the 4-H sheep program."

Diane Kitchen, 17, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hyram Kitchen of Rt. 3, Loudon, one of six national winners in the program, received her award at the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago, Nov. 29 and 30. Her scholarship was presented by Wilson Foods Corporation which also provided winners with expense-paid trips to the Congress. Winners were selected by the Cooperative Extension Service, which supervises the 4-H program.

The Tennessee 4-H'er started her sheep project seven years ago with one ewe lamb. She still has that ewe and two generations of the ewe's lambs.

"The money left over after expenses for my flock are paid, is put in an account especially for my college education," Miss Kitchen said. "In this way, you could say my sheeps are helping put me through college."

The Loudon County 4-H'er also shears sheep. She shears her own sheep, the sheep at the Knoxville Zoo, and those belonging to neighbors and 4-H members. This money, too, goes into her college fund. Her flock of 32 lambs, includes six registered, purebred Hampshire sheep which she shows throughout the state and at the National Exposition in Louisville.

Miss Kitchen said her sheep come first, but she is active in other livestock programs, including horses, chickens, beef, dairy and livestock judging.

"My sheep have taught me responsibility, respect of animals and self-pride," said the eight-year 4-H'er. "They have given me the feeling of accomplishment, irreplaceable experiences and unforgettable memories."

Miss Kitchen's father is a professor of veterinary medicine. She plans to follow in his footsteps by becoming a veterinarian.

Diane was one of nine 4-H members from Tennessee that claimed $7,400 in scholarships at the Conference. Each was named a winner in programs arranged by the National 4-H Service Committee and supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service.

During their visit to the Windy City, the 4-H'ers toured the museums and other points of interest. They sang together, worshipped together, and rapped with business executives and other delegates from across the country.

Delegates enjoyed varied entertainment and music. The Nashville Brass was presented by Tupperware Home Parties, and Maynard Ferguson and his orchestra by International Paper Company. General Motors delighted delegates with performances by The Spurrinos and Miss America International Harvester Company hosted a luncheon and The Firestone Tire and Rubber Company a breakfast, for some 2,200 persons attending the 4-H Congress.

Delegates and leaders became acquainted at a party given by Standard Brands Incorporated and they were entertained by the Purdue Collegiate Singers and The Purdettes, courtesy of

After The Feast

By Susan Stivers
Assistant Extension Agent

When the blessings and glamour of Thanksgiving begin to wane as you stare at the odd-shaped morsels and broth remaining—try turkey leftovers. Everyone looks forward to turkey salad or a yummy casserole. So, plan ahead for care and use of the extra from your holiday meal. Take care of the food as soon as you can after you finish eating. Many of these foods tend to spoil easily.

PROMPT AND PROPER STORAGE

Prompt and proper storage means safe, economical meals for tomorrow. Separate fowl, stuffing and gravy. Put each in its own covered container and refrigerate at once. With turkey or other fowl, you can cover and refrigerate the whole carcass. However, it will take less space if you remove the meat from the bones. The separate meat will be ready for sandwiches or to make a hot dish. Disjoint the bones so you'll have less bulk for storage and save them to make soup, stock, refrigerator, cooked fowl, stuffing and gravy should be used within a few days.

For longer storage use your freezer. Meat-sized portions of sliced turkey or other fowl keep well for about a month in the freezer. Package in a moisture vapor-proof cooked poultry covered with broth or gravy keep well for up to six months in the freezer.

LEFTOVERS AND SHORT ON IDEAS?

Tomorrow when you look at the packaged morsels, you may feel "long on leftovers and short on ideas." In addition to a second turkey dinner, there are other tasty ways to serve cooked fowl. How about a turkey pinwheel? For this, finely chopped turkey mixed with chopped celery and onion is spread evenly over biscuit dough. Roll the dough like a jelly roll, cut into slices, and bake the "pinwheels" at 450 degrees F. for twenty minutes.

Turkey meat can also be used for salad. Combine diced turkey with grapes, pineapple chunks, and apple wedges. Chill until just before serving time. Blend the salad lightly with salad dressing and serve.

on lettuce. Top with almonds, if desired.
Turkey turnovers are chopped turkey, chopped onion, concentrated cream of chicken soup, and chopped parsley is poured on uncooked pastries cut into circles. The pastries are then folded in half and bake at 425 degrees F. for forty minutes.

The last of the roast turkey makes excellent turkey soup. Use the turkey bones and bits of meat to make a broth, and rice or noodles if desired.

TURKEY BUFFET CASSEROLE

4 ounces medium-wide noodles (2 cups)
1 package frozen broccoli spears
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/4 teaspoon onion powder
2 cups milk
2 cups (1/2 pound) grated process American cheese
2 cups cut-up cooked turkey one-third cup sliced, toasted almonds.

Cook noodles in boiling, salted water until tender; drain. Cook broccoli as labeled directly until just tender; leave flowers whole. Meanwhile, in saucepan over low heat, melt butter; stir in flour, salt, mustard, pepper and milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until thick and smooth. Remove from heat and stir in cheese until melted. In greased, shallow casserole or 8-inch square baking dish, arrange noodles, broccoli stems and turkey; pour cheese sauce over all. Arrange broccoli flowers on top, pressing them lightly into sauce; sprinkle with almonds. Bake, uncovered, at 350 degrees F. for 15 minutes, or until bubbling hot. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

TURKEY BUNWICHES

2 cups coarsely-diced cooked turkey
1 cup diced celery
2 tablespoons chopped chives or onion
1/2 cup diced cheddar cheese
1 teaspoon chopped pimiento
3 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Salt and pepper to taste
Butter or margarine
8 hamburger buns

Combine turkey, celery, chives, cheese, pimiento, and eggs. Add mayonnaise and season with salt and pepper. Slice, top off each bun and scoop out center. Butter halves and tops. Fill buns with turkey mixture. Replace bun tops and wrap each sandwich in foil. Heat at 400 degrees F. for 15 to 20 minutes. Garnish top of each bun with olive, pickle and carrot curls, sprinkled with a toothpick. Makes 8 buns.

TURKEY ASPIC SALAD

1 package (3 ounces) lemon-flavored gelatin
2 cups hot water
2 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup cut-up cooked turkey meat
1 cup cooked peas
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Salad greens
Dissolve gelatin in hot water; add vinegar and salt; chill. When slightly thickened, stir in other ingredients. Turn into salad mold and chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens and garnish with mayonnaise. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

KEEP YOUR HOLIDAYS HAPPY

Each year the gaiety of the holiday season is marred for some who fail to heed warnings concerning the necessity for exercising care in the preparation, cooking, and storing of food. The gracious custom of bringing one's favorite dish to a family gathering can result in illness if perishable food is not adequately refrigerated.

Home canned products should be boiled before eating to avoid possible contamination from salmonella and other harmful bacteria. Turkeys or hams which are baked the night before should be refrigerated and reheated at serving time. (It is best not to bake the stuffing inside the bird's cavity.) Covering the remains of a roast for later consumption is unsafe. Refrigerate all leftovers, even if it means bringing along a couple of portable coolers. The extra precautions are well worthwhile.

The architect and apparent low bidder (Webb & Sons Construction) met this week to determine some recommendations for the Board to consider as possible reductions in the proposed building project for Philadelphia Elementary School. As soon as the decision is made all bus owners, principals, and the following are notified: WJLH Radio, WBLB Radio, WNOX Radio, WOKI Radio, WATE-TV, and WBIR-TV. These stations should be broadcasting the information by 8:30 a.m. as they will know by that time. We wish to thank everyone for their cooperation on these hectic mornings.

County Gets Grant For Reading, Math

The Loudon County Schools have been awarded a Title I grant of $172,321 for school year 1976-7. The grant is used to provide supplementary instruction in Reading and Arithmetic. One teacher and one teacher aide are assigned to each of the eight elementary schools.

Reading is assigned top priority in all eight schools and instruction in Arithmetic and instruction in four schools where there are fewer children needing help with Reading. The Title I program is designed to assist children in the earlier grades who are having some difficulty mastering basic skills in Reading and Arithmetic. The use of Title I funds must be justified on the basis of student basic skills needs, which are determined by standardized test scores and teacher opinion. However, parents of eligible children are encouraged to participate in educational decisions by visiting the schools and attending school parent committee meetings.

Will Graduate

A former resident of Loudon, Sandra Watkins Sanders, will graduate magna cum laude from Florida Technological University in Orlando, Dec. 10. Mrs. Sanders, who graduated from high school in Loudon, Florida, in 1973, will be awarded a bachelor's degree in psychology.

Introducing SST* Selective Sensor Tuning

Clunking mechanical tuners break down, wear out and catch picture spoiling dust. They also attract big repair bills. That's why Curtis Mathes is happy to introduce SST, the most advanced, most trouble-free tuning you can own. SST is totally electronic. There are no mechanical parts to break down. A light touch on the sensor plate selects your channel. You can bypass other channels (both VHF and UHF) and go directly to the one you want. You can even select the order of the channels, putting your favorites at the top, pre-tuning each one to lock in the picture quality for keeps. SST is quiet and convenient. But most of all, it's trouble-free. It's also another good reason why Curtis Mathes is able to offer our exclusive four year warranty.

Family Income In County Increases, Survey Shows

According to a nationwide study of income and its distribution, Loudon County has more of its families in the middle- and upper brackets and fewer in the lower ranges than ever before.

Locally, there has been a progressive movement upward, with many families advancing from their former levels to the next higher ones. Some of them, who had been in the $8,000 to $10,000 group a year or two ago, are now located in the $10,000 to $15,000 spot. Their former positions, in turn, have been taken over by families who had been earning less than $8,000 previously.

Another 14.6 percent were in the $5,000 to $10,000 category. In the $10,000 to $15,000 bracket were 23.9 percent and, above that level, 6.5 percent. The others had $5,000 or less left after taxes. In general, however, despite the income gains, most families were no better off at the end of the year than at the beginning, thanks to inflation.

The findings are detailed in a report released by the Standard Rate and Data Service, covering communities in all sections of the country.

The purpose was to obtain a better financial picture of each area than is possible through the "average income" figure that is usually given.

Does that average apply to a large segment of the population or does it represent a small proportion of high-income families offsetting a large proportion with smaller incomes?

The report shows that 38.4 percent of the households in Loudon County had $8,000 or more left to them as spendable income in the past year after payment of their personal taxes. The proportion, by way of comparison, in the year before, when a similar study was made. Since the figures refer to cash income only, they understates somewhat the situation in farm areas where, in lieu of cash, there are special advantages in the form of lower living costs. Just what portion of Loudon County's population fell within each income bracket in the past year is indicated in the report.

Some 18.4 percent of the local households had net earnings of $5,000 to $8,000. "Some fifteen farm residents of Loudon County are in the running for three members of the ASC County Committee and select a Chairman, but also assist the County Committee throughout the year in the administration of federal programs locally," Miss Blair said. "In the Community Committee mail election, farmers in each community will elect three committee members and two alternates, all to serve one-year terms," she said. She pointed out that any farmer who is eligible to take part in any ASCS program is eligible to vote in the mail election. Voting eligibility is determined without regard to race, sex, color, religion, or national origin.

ASC Nominations Completed

The mail election for ASC County Committee members is being held this month, and ballots were mailed November 24 to all persons eligible to vote in the farmer committee elections," she said. The final date for mailing voted ballots, or for dropping them off at the County ASCS Office, is December 8. Ballots will be counted on December 10 at the County ASCS Office, with the public invited to attend. On December 17, the newly-elected Community Committee members will hold a County Convention to nominate and select a Chairman and Vice-Chairman. The newly-elected County Committee member

Grant Ok'd For Severely Handicapped

Title VI-B of the Education of the Handicapped act has authorized a grant of $1,500 to provide educational services for severely handicapped children. The grant was approved after submission of evidence-of-need data and a project abstract to the State Department of Education in July 1976. A project application has been submitted to the State Department of Education for approval which provides the services of three teacher aides and instructional materials and equipment to supplement the instructional program at New Providence school. The program for severely handicapped children at New Providence is funded primarily by state and local funds.

Stolen Car Found Here

A car stolen in Michigan was found in a farm field at the Gene Millsaps residence on Pond Creek Road near Loudon Saturday. Deputy Allen Clemmer said the car was not listed in the National Crime Information Center as stolen, but he called the person the car was registered to in Michigan. Mrs. Forest Hinch of Lenoir Park told him that the car had been in a garage since her husband had died in October. She checked with the garage and was told that until that time they were unaware the car had been stolen. The car had been damaged.

The Loudon Redskins football team will have a football banquet on Thursday night, December 16 at 7 p.m. at the Loudon High School Cafeteria. The banquet is being sponsored by the Loudon Redskins Booster Club.

Speaker for the event will be Shirley Majors, head football coach at the University of the South, Sewanee. Coach Majors is the father of former University of Tennessee football stars Johnny Majors, Billy Majors and Bobby Majors. Tickets are on sale for the banquet, which will toast both the Redskins varsity and freshmen teams, at $2.00 for adults and $1.50 for students.

Independent banquets are being conducted under the direction of the Loudon Booster Club this year rather than the customary All-Sports Banquet which has been held each spring at the high school. Everyone is urged to turn out for the occasion.

MILLSAPS RIPS DOWN MISSED SHOT—Loudon senior forward Steve Millsaps rips a rebound from the backboard in Loudon's hard fought victory over Midway Tuesday night.

Loudon Girls Come From Behind To Down Green Wave Distaff, 48-37

The Loudon Redskins swept past visiting Midway Tuesday night for their second meeting within a week's time. The Loudon Lady Redskins ran their unbeaten team to five straight games with a come from behind 48-37 win and the Loudon boys likewise had to struggle along in winning 44-39 for their fourth straight win.

The Loudon boys bowed to Chattanooga Riverside in the season opener.

The Loudon girls had a tough time getting cranked up in their contest. Midway bounced out to a 1-0 first quarter lead and was ahead by 14-6 early in the second quarter.

The Lady Redskins regrouped as Bernadette Locke, netting just two points in the first seven minutes, found the range for 11 counters in the second period and guided Loudon to a 20-19 half time lead.

Loudon upped their lead to 34-19 in the third canty only to fall behind by 27-26 as late as the 1:40 mark in the third quarter.

Clutch baskets by Bernadette Locke and Kim Brant Hoover gave Loudon the go-ahead at 34-29 to start the fourth quarter.

Miss Locke who had 20 points in the second half finished with 23 for the night and Kim Brant Hoover added 10 on five field goals.

The Lady Redskins, after hitting on nine of 23 first half shots came in with a 13 of 20 showing in the second half for a 50 percent night of 22 for 43.

Midway hit 15 of 46 shots for 32.6 percent.

rebounded Loudon 30 to 22, but the Loudon guards of LeeAnn Chiles, Juliet Locke, Susan James and Bernice Grizzle performed very well in the crucial points of the game and did a stand out job of containing the Midway offense when the Loudon defense was spurring early in the game. Juliet Locke's eight rebounds

Rockwood Trips Panthers, 58-56

The Loudon City Panthers have been victimized at the foul line once again in the young hoop season. Rockwood was the latest to seize a win over the hard luck Panthers at the charity stripe, 58-56.

The Panthers not hitting well as a team, still managed to nip the Tigers by a point in the first quarter and stretched their lead to four points in the second quarter, 29-25.

Rockwood rallied in the third period to nose in front by two points and built a three point lead in the final quarter.

Lenoir City hit a hot flash by Chucky Reed, Ronnie Hendrix and Petie Littleton to regain the lead by three points in the fourth quarter.

Rockwood fought to stay close and with 14 seconds left converted a two shot foul for a last shot but fouled on the offensive rebound and again the Tigers returned to the charity stripe. The first of a one and one foul shot was made and Lenoir City had but two seconds to take the ball off the glass and get a last desperation shot.

Lenoir City hit 26 of 67 shots for the game for 39 percent. Rockwood made one less field goal, 25, 25 of 61 for 41 percent.

Rockwood made eight of 14 shots at the foul line and the Panthers four of eight.

Petie Littleton led the Panthers with 20 points on nine of 21 shots and had 13 rebounds. Ronnie Hendrix bucketed 15 and Chucky Reed 11 rebounds for his best effort of the season on the boards.

The Lenoir City girls dropped their game 30 to 26. The Pantherettes trailed by a

Redskins Four Game Winning Streak Faces Challenge From Unbeaten Harriman

The Loudon Redskins, winner of four straight games, will carry their District Six credentials into Friday night's top area hoop game with District Five Power Harriman. The Blue Devils are 6-0 for the season. The game is scheduled for Loudon's gymnasium. The Loudon girls will open the Friday night varsity card with the Harriman lassies who have won four of six games. The Loudon Lady Redskins are unbeaten in five starts.

On Tuesday night Loudon has still another big test, this time on the road at Alcoa. The Tornadoes have lost once at this writing and are always a tough team to face on their home floor.

The Loudon girls should have little trouble with the improved but not so talented Tornadoette team.

In other County action Lenoir City will test Alcoa on Friday night at Lenoir City. The Panthers will take Tuesday night off from their regular season schedule.

Greenback has a pair of home games, first a Friday night bout with the Tellico Plains girls and boys teams and then on Tuesday night the Cherokee teams host Harrison Chilhowee Baptist Academy.

Admi Lead

The Lenoir basketball team third straight Monday night Farragut rebound in the quarter to rebound without a Lenoir City Admiinals from making 25 of 50 shooting accuracy connected on 34.1 percent shot.

The game was wild run and show with the ping in 10 of shots and Farragut for a 20-16 Lenoir.

Loudon Boys Struggle For Second Win Over Midway

The Loudon boys team found the Midway varsity every bit as scrappy as in their first meeting.

The Redskins could not find the range the entire night and posted points in short clusters. Midway carved out a 14-11 first quarter lead with the final two points of the quarter coming after the buzzer on Mark Blair's third foul.

The Green Wave managed just two field goals in the second quarter but cashed in four shots to win the second period 12-6 and carry a 26-19 halftime lead into intermission.

Loudon came out smoking in the third quarter and hit four of their first five shots with Gary Brown setting the pace with five field goals for 10 points as Loudon squeezed into the lead for the first time.

Midway tasting an upset played patiently and built a three point lead in the middle of the fourth quarter as Loudon's Blair, Viars, and Myers all performed with four fouls on them.

The Redskins finally drew even at 37-37 with 4:45 to play and Randy Davis firing in six of six foul shots down the stretch padded the Loudon lead for their fourth straight win.

Mark Blair had put Loudon out front with a pair of charity shots at 38-37, before Davis took charge.

The game was a rough and rugged one with 37 fouls being called.

Gary Brown led Loudon with 13 points and nine rebounds.

Randy Davis had 18 points and Mark Blair eight. Blair and Stephen Bettis were the Loudon workmen on the back boards with 11 and 10 in giving the Redskins a 30-30 advantage.

BETTIS FIGHTS FOR REBOUND—Loudon junior forward Stephen Bettis (32) fights for one of his 10 rebounds in the Midway game on Tuesday night. Loudon won the battle of the back boards 38 to 30 and the game 44-39.

Greenback Suffers Twin Loss At Friendsville

The Greenback Cherokees had a disappointing ride to Friendsville on Tuesday night losing both ends of a double header.

The Friendsville girls converted on 29 field goals in a hot shooting exhibition that had all three starting forwards in double figures to produce a 68-51 triumph.

Greenback suffered from the start as senior guard Darlene Woods picked up two fouls in the first 17 seconds of the game and forward Mari Myers was tagged with three fouls by the close of the first period.

The Falcon lassies rolled to a 38-29 first half lead and Greenback could not cut the deficit.

Fam Neely's 21 points sparked Greenback and Marti Myers was close behind with 19 despite riding the bench for several minutes in the first half.

The Greenback boys battled tough all the way only to lose 41-59. Both teams punned in 94 field goals with Friendsville making 13 of 22 foul shots and Greenback's 11 of 23 for a game difference.

Admirals Wipe Out 10-Point LC Lead To Stay Unbeaten, 64-56

The Lenoir City Panther basketball team suffered their third straight setback last Monday night as Knoxville Farragut stormed from behind in the final quarter to hang a 64-56 set back in the L'cians.

The Panthers were again the victims of too many trips to the charity line by the opposing team.

Farragut made 18 of 21 foul shots in the game, but caused in 15 of 16 chances in the fourth quarter to record their third win without a loss.

Lenoir City out scored the Admirals from the floor, making 23 of 34 shots for a 46.3 shooting accuracy. Farragut connected on 23 of 36 shots for a 41 percent showing.

The game started out in a wild run and got offensive show with the Panthers zipping in 10 of 19 first period shots and Farragut eight of 23 for a 30-10 Lenoir City scoring edge.

Littleton (4), Hendrix (6), Billingsley (4), and Reed (6) supplied the balanced Panther shooting attack and hustling Chris Ferguson had five assists in the eight minute span.

Lenoir City was even better in the second quarter with Pettie Littleton rifling in five of five floor shots and working the backboards at both ends of the floor. The Panthers carried a 34-25 lead into intermission.

Lenoir City had hit 17 of 30 shots in the first half to the Admirals 11 of 32.

The second half was a different ball game however as the Farragut quint dumped in nine of 16 floor shots and Lenoir City could find the range for only five baskets out of 11 shots. Still the Panthers had a respectable 48-43 lead.

The Admirals refused to let up and with 3:32 to play knocked the score at 51-51.

Lenoir City had vaulted from a 6-6 deadlock in the first quarter to maintain the upper hand the entire contest until this point in the final canto.

A pair of foul losses following center Ray

Billingsley's third foul gave the Admirals the lead for good at 53-51 and the Panthers never recovered.

Farragut hit only three of eight floor shots in the last quarter but was on target at the foul line to make up the lack of shooting skills from the floor.

Lenoir City cooled to a three for 13 showing in the last period and their six successes at the foul line out of eight opportunities for the game did little to make up the needed difference in scoring.

Lenoir City was led by junior forward Pettie Littleton with 21 points, making 10 of 17 floor shots and collecting 12 rebounds.

Chucky Reed gunned in 12 points on out side bombs.

Littleton and Reed combined for 21 of the Panthers first half points but were given more attention by the Admiral defense in the second half.

The Panthers ruled the pulling down 26 missed shots to Farragut's 27, Ronnie Hendrix had six rebounds and Ray Billingsley five to help Littleton on the boards for the Panthers.

Farragut Is Pantherettes First Victim

The Lenoir City Pantherettes won their first basketball game of the season last Monday night by romping over Knoxville Farragut 53-32.

Coch Miss Pickle's team had lost their first three outings of the year, but was not to be denied in this one.

Sophomore Melissa Smith and senior playmaker Betty Powell provided the strong 1-2 offensive punch for the Pantherettes and sophomore Rosemary Hines controlled the offensive backboards to also place in the double figure scoring.

Miss Smith, who has an excellent outside touch, pumped in 20 points on 10 field goals out of 21 tries. Spunky Betty Powell tossed in 19 points with 11 points coming at the foul line out of 16 chances.

Rosemary Hines provided the early Pantherette cushion with 10 first half points and worked the offensive backboards the entire game to provide the Lenoir City forwards with often times second and third shots.

Lenoir City hit 21 of 55 shots for the game for a 38.1 percent. Farragut managed just 14 field goals and did a lot of their scoring in the late stages of the second half when Pantherette reserves were getting in some valuable playing experience.

Kim Devault led the Pantherette guards with eight rebounds and as a whole the Lenoir City guards of Nadine Cozart, Bet Thaxton, Janet Redmond, Cindy McConkey, and Devault all turned in a sound performance.

The Pantherettes vaulted out to a easy 13-6 first quarter difference and was in control at the half 27-10. The third quarter was all even at 14 each with Lenoir City taking the final stanza 12-4.

Loudon Boys Hand Midway First Loss

The Loudon Redskins continue to make the basketball games close but still manage to win, as they knocked Midway from the unbeaten ranks last Tuesday night at Midway 64-61.

The Redskins fell behind early in the game and were down 15-12 at the first rest stop.

Slow to get started for the fourth straight game, Loudon has however turned on the steam in their last three to win all of them. Tuesday night was such a contest.

Junior Stephen Bettis, fast becoming the best sixth man off the bench to play in the county in years, came on to blister the Green Wave with four straight corner shots.

While Bettis brought the defense to him teammates Steve Millaps (two baskets), Mark Blair, Mark Harrell, Gary Brown, and Randy Davis were testing in a field goal to give Loudon a 32-27 lead at the half.

Midway, playing well in its small gym, refused to wilt in Loudon had moved in command holding the Redskins close right down to the wire.

Mark Blair provided the second half punch for Loudon with a hot shooting six of six field goals and had nine of 11 to swish the shots for the entire game. He had 18 points to lead all scorers.

Randy Davis recorded double figures for the first time this season with 14 and Stephen Bettis likewise had 14 points. Gary Brown settled for 10 points before fouling out with 3:38 to play.

Stephen Bettis and Mark Blair ruled the back boards for Loudon with 14 and 13 respectively. Loudon out battled their opponents 37 to 34 on the boards.

The winners shot 45 percent from the field on 30 of 66 shots. Midway hit 46 percent with 24 field goals out of 54 shots.

Midway made 13 of 30 foul shots and Loudon six of 15.

Terry Viers had five assists to lead Loudon in that department.

Tennessee Wesleyan Defends Lenoir City Rotary Classic Title

Tennessee Wesleyan defeated Knoxville College 84-80 Saturday night in the finals of the Lenoir City Rotary Club Invitational Basketball Classic. The Championship is the second in a row for the Bulldogs of Coach Dewayne Farmer.

Covenant earned third place in the tournament with an exciting 88-85 consolation section over Maryville College.

Paul Webb hit for 27 points in honors, but top individual scoring laurels went to Knoxville College's Greg Jones. The talented Jones, capturing the tournament's Most Valuable Player Award, fired in 38 points. Wayne Emme posted 34 points for the Scots in their heart-breaking loss to Covenant.

On Friday night Tennessee Wesleyan got a 23 point exhibition from Mike Wallace and 22 more points from Randy Burden along with 13 rebounds to move past outclassed Maryville 96-65.

The Bulldogs, playing their entire team at will, pulled to a 42-23 halftime lead and was never out of control of the contest.

Knoxville College had a tougher time in their Friday night opener with Covenant. The tournament's were behind 45-36 at the half and was down 39-44 with 10 minutes to play in the game when they started to find the range.

Covenant attempted to freeze the ball but to no avail as the Knoxville based team zoomed ahead with two minutes to play at 88-66.

Knoxville College finally won the game 74-66. The All-Tournament team consisted of Paul Webb and David Mason of TWC, Wayne Emme of Maryville College, and Bruce McDonald of Covenant. Jones of course being named the MVP.

Judge Harvey Sproul captured the highly competitive "foul shooting" contest between fellow Lenoir City Rotary Club members.

Panther Boys Win; Girls Lose At McMinn Central

The Lenoir City Panthers broke a three game losing skid on Tuesday night at McMinn Central by triumphing the Chargers 59-41. The Pantherettes lost in the final stages of their game by a 37-27 score.

The Panthers never trailed, breaking from the starting gate in typical form. The Panthers failed to weather as the game hit top stride. The Panthers had blown 19 point leads in their three defeats, but the team is without a senior on the squad and has not seasoned into top potential form.

Nevertheless the Panthers with junior Ronnie Hendrix and Pettie Littleton gunning for 18 points each had only one brief scare in the game. From a 4-0 lead the Panthers rallied to a 18-10 first quarter margin and was up by 36-24 at the half.

The Chargers reduced things from a nine point third quarter working margin to four with only minutes to play in the third canto. The Panthers regrouped and led by 41-34 with only one period to play.

Littleton and Hendrix went to work in the fourth stanza with four quick points each and the Panther denied the Chargers but a single shot in roaring to a 15 point difference with three and one half minutes to play.

Lenoir City made 43 percent of their shots for the game, 77 of 63, and out rebounded the rebuilding Chargers 38-32.

McMinn Central shot mainly from out side and hit just 16 of 42 shots for 36 percent.

Pettie Littleton was the best rebounder with 13 while Chucky Reed had eight and Hendrix seven.

Lenoir City sank all five of their foul shots and the Chargers hit on 11 of 20.

The Lenoir City girls pulled to within four points at 31-27 before the Chargers fashioned a last minute surge to capture the Christmas in game 37-27.

Melissa Smith paced the young Lenoir City sextet with 17 points.

Lenoir City trailed by just five at the half 21-16 and played the more experienced Chargers even in the third period.

All three McMinn Central forwards scored in double figures. The loss was Lenoir City's fourth in five games.

NEELY STRIKES AGAIN—Greenback junior gunner Pam Neely was very much at her game last Tuesday night as she teamed with forward Marti Myers to lose in 25 points in a terrific 1-2 scoring punch for the victorious Cherokees.

Neely And Myers Pace Greenback Sextet Victory

The Greenback Lady Cherokees won their second game in three tries on Tuesday night of last week's season with a comfortable 56-45 disposing of home standing Townsend.

The Cherokees of Coach Jerry Masigo captured the early lead of 14-10 with an equal shooting effort from the floor (both teams had five field goals in the opening quarter) and an additional four foul shots at the foul line.

The Greenback girls may have given their best seven minutes of basketball thus far in the young season in the second quarter when they fired out to a 34-17 half time lead.

The Greenback forwards connected on nine of 14 shots in the period, Marti Myers posting eight points and Pam Neely seven in the 20 to 27 seven minute blistering that pretty well decided the game.

Meanwhile the Greenback guards of Robin Anderson,

Cindy Hawkins, and Darlene Woods were limiting the Tigerettes to just three field goals and a foul shot.

Greenback built their lead before Townsend regrouped and with the help of some Greenback carelessness in handling the basketball pulled down the stretch to make the score respectable.

Pam Neely and Marti Myers shared the Greenback offensive fun with 25 points each in a 1-2 performance that had the Townsend defense almost dizzy.

Neely hit 10 of 20 shots in the game and spread her point production out fairly even over four quarters. Myers poured in 11 of 18 shots and netted 17 of her points in the second and fourth quarters with eight and nine respectively.

Chita Tipton added six points and had seven assists to round out the Greenback trio of shooters. She also led in offensive rebounds with five.

The Cherokees hit 23 of 48 shots for the game for their best night of the season at 47.9 percent marksmanship. Townsend hit 19 of 48 shots for 39.6 percent.

Greenback out rebounded Townsend 35 to 27 with Darlene Woods grabbing 14 missed shots, Robin Anderson pulled down eight big rebounds to contribute strongly to the Cherokee defensive play.

WOODS CLEARS THE REBOUND—Greenback guard Darlene Woods takes away a shot over the efforts of a Townsend forward who is swept off balance by the rebounding strength of Miss Woods.

Pressing Tigers Halt Greenback Streak

The Greenback boys fell from the unbeaten ranks last Tuesday night in a surprise upset loss to home standing Townsend, 76-62.

The Cherokees paraded out an easy 16-4 first quarter lead and enjoyed a 14 point working margin for almost four minutes of the second quarter when the Tigers began to claw back in to the fight.

Greenback matched points with the Townsend run-and-gun men in the second act, winning the quarter 23-22 and settling for a 20-20 halftime advantage.

Townsend, employing a scrambling full court press, managed to try to play the wide open, defenseless, shooting game that had kept the two teams even in the second quarter.

After missing six straight shots to open the second half, Townsend's press started to become effective. The Tigers picked off repeated Greenback passes and if the press was broken, the hurrying Cherokees failed to set their offense to achieve the best scoring chances made available to them.

Townsend on the other hand had gained some momentum and was back in the game by way of sinking seven of nine floor shots over a three minute span and also picked up some scoring difference at the foul line.

The Cherokee led by just 51-49 entering the fourth quarter. Townsend's hot shooting did not end as the Tigers, pressing with confidence, canned 14 of 19 floor shots in the final eight minute period and scored 28 points to Greenback's 11. Thus winning going away.

Roddy Kizer paced the Cherokees with 22 points on nine baskets out of 14 shots. He also had nine scoring assists and cleared 12 rebounds.

Steve Langmiller canned 14 points and controlled the boards with a game high of 15 rebounds.

Richard Reagan came off the bench to shoot in 14 points, 10 counters coming in the second quarter and 12 points of his total in the first half. Townsend finished the night shooting 50 percent, making 21 of 42 shots.

Greenback hit 47 percent for the contest with 24 of 51 shots going in.

Greenback had a big edge in rebounds with 42 to the Tigers 24, but again turnovers were a game deciding factor.

Both teams are now 3-1 for the regular season.

FLYING CHEROKEE—Greenback guard Richard Reagan soars to the bucket in a brilliant second quarter scoring performance at Townsend. Reagan totaled 14 points in the game.

Sgt. Dailey In Exercise

Marine Sergeant E.M. Dailey, whose wife Glenda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Schrimsher of Route 1, Philadelphia, recently returned from participation in the maritime portion of the major NATO exercises "Autumn Forge '76".

He is serving as a member of the 3rd Light Anti-Aircraft Missile Battalion, homebased at the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N.C. "Autumn Forge" is the title of the annual training exercises conducted jointly by the nine members of the NATO Alliance.

His unit took part in two major events during the deployment: "Operation Team Work '76" and "Operation Bonded Item".

"Team Work '76" involved fleet operations in the North Atlantic Ocean, the English Channel and the Baltic Sea and included a major amphibious landing in Norway.

"Bonded Item" was a coordinated land, sea and air operation which included a major amphibious landing in Denmark.

FOUR BEDROOMS PLUS A LIBRARY

CAPE COD PLAN ILLUSTRATES DESIGN FEATURES

FEATURE HOMES

© By W. D. FARMER

The separate formal foyer entrance with covered recessed stoop directs traffic to formal areas, including basement stair from central hall. Stair in half story is open rail from spacious family room. The ceiling here is slanted with view to open rail balcony, study or library. The popular fireplace is included and direct access to deck is from the rear of the family room.

There are full separate living and dining rooms, both with more usable wall space for furniture placement. The kitchen is extra large and has direct access to breakfast area with bay window as well as laundry room and shallow pantry. The three first floor bedrooms are endowed with adequate closets and bath areas, the master bath including powder room and private.

The central bath services remaining two bedrooms and daytime guests. There is an additional large full bath up, accessible to enormous extra bedroom and the closet is sized for extra clothing storage as well as for use by upper bedroom.

The exterior style is Cape Cod, enhanced by three dormer, double, multi-lite shuttered windows and double side entry wrought iron rail stoop.

The plan is number 2034. It includes 2,517 square feet of living area. For further information write W. D. Farmer, P.O. Box 40463, Atlanta, Ga. 30326.

TVA Offers Wildlife Management Help

Tennessee landowners whose land is crossed by Tennessee Valley Authority transmission lines can now receive financial assistance to help them practice wildlife management on lands under the powerlines.

According to a new agreement with the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency (TWRA), TVA will pay landowners up to $10 an acre each year to carry out wildlife management practices recommended by TWRA biologists. The program will not result in any additional burden to the electric consumer since the $10 per acre annual payment is the normal cost to TVA for routine maintenance. To determine eligibility for payment TWRA and TVA will inspect the wildlife management activities, which include planting wildlife shrubs, tractor discing, heavy-duty mowing and light hand clearing.

Landowners interested in this program should contact the nearest regional TWRA office. Representatives will visit the property and prepare a Wildlife Management Plan for sections of powerline rights of way. All seed and wildlife shrubs will be donated by TWRA. In addition the participating agencies will also provide technical assistance.

Revenue Sharing To Rise Locally, Report Shows

Loudon County will be receiving more money from Washington during the next four years, via revenue sharing, than it has in the immediate past.

The reason is that Congress has voted, and the President has approved, a bill calling for the payout of $25.6 billion, to be distributed among the states and their counties, cities and other subdivisions.

The amount, to be paid out of general revenues, is to cover the period from January 1st, 1977, to September 30, 1980, which is just prior to the next Presidential election.

It breaks down to about $6.8 billion per year, or some $150 million a year above the present annual rate.

The State of Tennessee and its localities are scheduled to get $123 million of this sum in 1977. The payments will continue at the same rate in 1978 and 1979 and during the first nine months of 1980, according to figures released by the Treasury Department.

Of this total, Loudon County and the entities within the county stand to receive approximately $799,000 a year, assuming a statewide distribution related to population.

Some states are to get proportionately larger shares of the melon than others. Mississippi will collect the most, $42.86 per capita, and Florida the least, $24.42.

However, the anti-discrimination rules that have been in effect with regard to the spending of such funds have been strengthened. Distribution in the future must be free from bias as to race, religion, sex, national origin and age. Violations could result in a reduction of aid.

Moderation And The Mormons

Why do 2,300,000 Americans have considerably more freedom from disease than other Americans? Epidemiologists, who study the distribution of diseases, have long compared the life styles and health of various countries and races. It is harder, however, to find differences in a people of similar racial stock within an affluent country like our own. Mass production, consumption and distribution provide a common lifestyle for most of us. But there is one population with a difference. It is made up of members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, often called Mormons. The first health survey of these people was probably one done in 1938 by John Widstoe, a church elder, chemist and president of the University of Utah. He noted that Mor- mons had 30 percent less diabetes and 91 percent less bladder and kidney disease. In 1972 a study of residents in the East San Francisco Bay area involved 6,929 adults. Of these, 111 were Mormons.

These 111 had a death rate from major disease that was 45 percent lower than that of the general population. This led a California Thisist, Dr. James E. Enstrom, to undertake a major study of cancer in Mormons. The results in three locations were similar.

In Utah County, Utah, the population is 90 percent Mormons. In this county the cancer death rate for men is 35 percent below the national average. For women it is 28 percent less.

The state of Utah has the lowest cancer death rate of any state in the United States—27 and 28 percent below the national average for men and women respectively. Three-fourths of the people in Utah are Mormons.

In California cancer deaths of Mormons and non-Mormons were compared directly. They were 21 percent less for Mormon women and almost one-third less for Mormon men.

Enstrom also did a study of heart attack deaths in Mor- mons. In Utah and in Los Angeles County in California, Mormon death rates from this cause were from one-third to one-half less than average.

Another study, by Dr. Joseph F. Lyon, showed Mormons in Utah were con- tracting cancer one-fourth less often than non-Mormons.

Based on what science already knows from in- ternational data, there are logical explanations for these Mormon advantages. In one of the Mormon books of holy writ, "The Word of Wisdom," certain rules for living are laid down. There are of course degrees of adherence, but devout Mormons try to follow the Church's Health Code.

Most Mormons do not smoke. This of course greatly reduces risk of lung cancer, heart disease and em- physema.

Alcohol is also forbidden. Among teetotaling Mormons liver disease and certain cancers (such as esophageal) are rare.

What about low incidence of heart disease, diabetes and cancer of the colon and breast in Mormons?

These are disorders thought to be linked to diets rich in fats and sweets and poor in roughage. While Mormons are not vegetarians, "The Word of

Farmers Know Best For Farmers

Delegates to the Tennessee Farm Bureau annual meeting were told by their president that the programs and policies adopted by them have generally been right and in the best interest of all.

James S. Putman, the Dyer County dairy farmer, who heads the 156,000 member family organization was making his report to the 56th annual meeting. Several representatives from Rouse County attended the convention.

"No one knows the needs of the farmer better than him- self," Putman said, "however, there are those in the large city and urban areas of our country who seem to think they know exactly what the farmer needs, and are continually trying to impose laws and regulations that cannot be justified based on facts. This creates hardships on farmers and, in many cases, they are not only expensive but very difficult to comply with."

Putman said sound policies and the efforts of Farm Bureau to obtain them may be of even more importance in the future in light of the emphasis given by many on consumer's welfare, whether justified or not.

He listed inflation as still the number one problem facing farmers because of its effect on higher production costs. "Although the rate of inflation has been slowed somewhat, it is still with us," he said. "Certainly the danger of additional deficit spending by the government is ever present. Deficit spending is the greatest cause of the tribulations to inflation, and for this reason, Farm Bureau is opposed to unsound deficit spending. We believe con- sideration should be given to those measures which would reduce deficit spending."

Turning to agricultural programs, Putman said the supply-demand competitive approach is one of the contrib- uting factors to the greatness of this country. "We believe this approach is in the best interest of agriculture, and the 1970's appear to be evidence that it has served farmers much better than our experience under government controlled programs."

"With the removal of government controls from most agricultural com- modities, especially grain, and the ability of this country to produce far in excess of our need to export about one out of four acres of production in this country, we begin to see the importance of markets to farmers of Tennessee and to this country."

The Bureau head said that agriculture is still making a great contribution to the American economy and cited the surplus in the balance of trade last year that was made possible only because of agricultural exports.

"When one out of every four persons in this country is employed in the production of farm products, or agricultural related fields, it should be a front page story. We are often ignored as consumers but the truth of the matter is we are the largest consumer per worker of any industry. By comparison, capital invest- ment per farm workers has now reached $86,000 while capital investment in manufacturing is only $35,000 per worker."

A report was also made to delegates about the work of Farm Bureau out of legislative activities; service-to-member programs in insurance, computer record keeping, income tax filing, livestock marketing; and information and public relations.

A $2 MILLION FILTRATION PLANT is under construction at the Union Carbide Films-Packaging Division Plant at Loudon. The plant will be completed in the Spring of 1977 and has a capacity of two million gallons per day for treating wastewater from the plant before it is returned to the Tennessee River.

Carbide Adds $2 Million Filtration Plant At Loudon

Union Carbide Corporation, Films-Packaging Division Plant at Loudon has announced that a new $2,000,000 filtration plant is under construction on the east bank of the Tennessee River near the main production plant and is expected to be in operation by early Spring next year.

The new facility, which is required by the Environmental Protection Agency and the Tennessee Department of Public Health, will be utilized to treat plant process wastewater before it is returned to the Tennessee River. Carrying a capacity of approximately two million gallons of water per day, the filtration plant is a system of accumulating, neutralizing, clarifying, aerating, and separating the liquid from solids — so that the water put back into the river meets EPA standards on PH, BOD, COD, settleable and suspended solids.

Utilizing a system of hydrated lime, alum, and polymers, the new system will return a cleaner water to the river than was taken out.

A Knoxville contractor, Brownlee-Kesterson, is employing a large number of personnel on the job, and expects to turn the new facility over to the Loudon plant in good time.

THP Adds K-9 Trooper

Tennessee Commissioner of Safety Joel Plummer announced today that the department, for the first time in its history, has added a K-9 member to its crime fighting arsenal.

"Gator", a 20 month old male German Shepherd, graduated from the Nashville Metropolitan Police Department's K-9 School, November 27th. Gator is fully trained in all phases of basic police dog work and he, along with trainer, Tactical Squad Trooper John Allen, received certificates upon graduation.

Commissioner Plummer noted, "I am pleased to announce this addition to the Tennessee Highway Patrol because I believe he will be utilized in several phases of crime fighting work within the department, and also in conjunction with other law enforcement agencies throughout the state."

Gator will be used primarily in search procedures, crowd control, and weapon searches. The Commissioner noted, "Dogs used in police work must possess exceptional qualities and I understand only about 1 percent of the dogs considered, meet these qualifications."

The dog will be assigned to the THP Tactical Squad, with Trooper Allen as its permanent handler.

Commissioner Plummer expressed his appreciation to the Metro-Nashville Police Department for training Gator and to the family that donated him to the Department of Safety.

Dance Slated

The "Big Eight" CB Club of Sweetwater will sponsor a dance, Saturday, Dec. 4 from 8 to 12 p.m. at Sweetwater High School cafeteria. The Sounds of Today will provide the music. The public is invited to attend.

LOUDON

DEC 2 1976

But, even with the pain and other things that go with the confinement of a hospital, sometimes events take place that bring pleasure to our lives.

Case in point, it seems only a short time ago that a young lad, who meant, and still means a lot to our life, would visit in our home to show me something that he had received for Christmas, birthday or some other special occasion in life. We were always impressed by the quiet manner of this young man. I can't recall that he ever mentioned what his goal was in life but time, as it has was of doing, passed much too rapidly. High School, college, all passing with time, we knew this young man had finished many hard years of school and had become a doctor. His specialty, radiology. As I recall we had only seen each other one time in all the passing years, a time of sorrow in his family's life. Time passed and we heard from friends about this young man from time to time.

In our most recent hospital stay a couple of weeks ago, our orthopedic specialist specified a miligram to pinpoint our problems. This was a new experience for us and we didn't know what to expect. And I guess we, like most patients in hospitals, have a case of nerves. Upon arriving in this section of the hospital, a very considerate assistant moved me into a booth filled with highly technical equipment, in preparing for the miligram. The young lady said that Dr. Kirk would be with us shortly. A familiar smiling face emerged and shook my hand. It was none other than Dr. Clifford (Buddy) Kirk. Our fears soon departed. We knew we were in good hands. How proud we were of Dr. Kirk. One of our Loudon boys, a long time friend, a long time neighbor, and a young man of whom we are extremely proud.

Dr. Kirk is the son of the late Clifford Kirk and Mrs. Kirk who still lives up the street from us. They were a fine family, who, like ourselves, are extremely proud of Dr.

Buddy Kirk. Another of the many fine young people of Loudon of which we are very proud.

Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

BACK IN THE

GOOD OLD DAYS

Some of the comments we want to make in the beginning of this week's column are prompted by some pictures we received this past week. The comments concern the American Legion of Loudon, which has been around a long time. It has done many things for the Veterans of all wars and for the town, sponsoring many civic, patriotic ventures. It has had many energetic and patriotic men to serve in its many offices. I wish space would permit me to name them, but it doesn't. The next best thing is to say hats off to a great organization. It has seen times when its role was at a low ebb, other times when it was at a peak. But most of all it has survived many years, helped patriotism, aided the veteran and been a part of a town and County we are proud of.

The other day our phone rang and Roland Bradshaw, hearing we had been on the shut-in list, left some pictures by the Herald office. We greatly appreciate his interest in thinking of us. Roland had found some old pictures in a desk drawer while cleaning up a bit at the Legion Hall.

He didn't recognize all the faces, neither did he know the occasion for the photo taking. Anyway, he passed them along to us to use as we saw fit. Many times we are embarrassed to not recognize someone in a picture and I am afraid we are at one of these times. We apologize ahead of time. The group pictured in uniform that we recognize are Arch McCollister, Homer Hart and Ulysses Henry.

The other picture is of J.V. (Slim) Schrimsher at the Legion Building snack bar. As most of our readers know, quite a few of the past few weeks of our time has been in the hospital and more to come in the near future.

ATTENTION CAR OWNERS

This is the last week that J&N Industrial Painting, the contractor who recently painted the River Bridge, will be removing paint from vehicles that were damaged during the project. Persons who have cars that received overspray of paint should bring them to the old Mobil Station on Mulberry Street in Loudon to have the necessary work done.

The company will not be responsible for damage or removal of paint after this week. Workmen present to do work from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Goodyear Has More Free Cook Books

Goodyear Service Store manager Danny Jones said this week that he has secured a limited quantity of the popular General Electric Cook Books that the store recently gave away at the Homemakers' School in Loudon.

Before the show was over the cook books were gone with many other women requesting them. Jones said anyone who would like one of the popular cook books, free of charge, may contact him or come by the store on East Broadway and pick one up.

Giving A CB? 40 Channels Coming Jan. 1

If a Citizen's Band radio is on your Christmas shopping list, you may wish to postpone your purchase until the first of the year. This summer the Federal Communications Commission authorized 17 new channels for CB radio, bringing the number available from 23 to 40. The new 40-channel sets should be on sale by January 1.

This does not mean, of course, that old sets will be obsolete. You may even be able to pick up a bargain on one of the 23-channel sets if prices drop somewhat as is anticipated when the new models appear on the market.

Less Than 20 Percent Take Swine Flu Shots

Only 18 percent of the nursing home residents had been vaccinated against the swine flu.

The loss or theft of your Social Security Check could be costly and cause needless worry. Last week several Loudon Countians had their checks taken. This means that it will be some time before duplicate checks will be issued and received, causing inconvenience to the recipient.

Worry and concern of this type can be eliminated. We at First Heritage, at your request, can have your Social Security check sent directly to our bank where it will automatically be deposited to your checking or savings account. No worry of theft. If deposited to checking, your statement will be mailed to you on the fifth of the month to assure you that your check has been received and deposited.

Ask at any of our three offices today. You will be glad you did.

Capitol Commentary

by M. Lee Smith

You can forget the notion Sen. Howard Baker may run for Governor in 1978. Yes, Baker has said—on two occasions to be precise—he is toying with the idea of a 1978 gubernatorial bid. And so, Baker is not making that statement merely to confuse the Tennessee political picture. Or because he wants to send shock waves through several likely Democratic candidates. Baker has given at least some idle thought to a race for Governor.

But when it comes time to make a decision, Baker will opt for reelection to the Senate. That bet is as safe as any ever is in politics.

Baker candidly states his real interest is in the presidency. He intends to run for the nation's highest office in 1980 if he determines he has a reasonable chance to win. But before 1980 there is 1979—a year when Baker's current Senate term will expire and when Tennessee will also elect its next Governor. At that time Baker's options will be three. He can seek reelection to the Senate. He can run for Governor. Or he can do neither and spend the next two years running for President.

In some respects Baker is inclined earlier toward the last option. With no public office or official duties Baker could devote fulltime to a presidential bid—a strategy President-elect Jimmy Carter used with obvious success.

But Baker may have lost this alternative with the recent defeat of fellow Republican Sen. Bill Brock, With Brock out of office and the Republican Party not in good shape in the state, many Baker opt to disengage entirely from Tennessee politics in 1978.

Baker is by far the state's most popular political figure. All polls show it. Having lost the governorship in 1974 and a Senate seat this year, Tennessee Republicans will expect and insist that Baker be on the ticket in some position in 1978.

This leaves Baker the alternatives of a gubernatorial bid or seeking reelection to the Senate and then seeking the presidency would be a logical progression advantages to a race for Governor. Baker could run against the problem-plagued administration of Gov. Ray Blanton. He could be a knight on a white horse, promising (and perhaps later delivering) wide-ranging reforms in the operation of state government.

In addition, the Governor's office would remove Baker from Washington politics and provide him with the opportunity of running for President as an outsider, a campaign theme Carter used most effectively.

There is some question as to how significant these advantages would be for Baker in 1980. And even so, there are drawbacks with a race for Governor.

Baker probably can be reelected to the Senate with relatively little difficulty. And although he would be a strong contender for Governor—perhaps even the favorite—election to that office would not be as easy.

Running for and winning reelection to the Senate and then seeking the presidency would be a logical progression in Baker's career. His presidential intentions would not be a problem in winning another Senate term.

But attempting to bounce from the Senate to the governorship would take some explaining. And just might not be acceptable to Tennessee voters in 1978.

Moreover, Baker doesn't need any advantages the governorship might offer in order to run for President. His prospects now are as good or better than any other Republican.

For these reasons Baker will in the final analysis almost certainly seek reelection to the Senate. A gubernatorial bid is too cute, too clever, too risky—and too unnecessary.

Farm Exports $450 Million

Tennessee Valley farmers made a significant contribution to a positive U.S. trade balance in fiscal year 1976, according to Dr. Gerald G. Williams, TVA Director of Agricultural Development.

Speaking in observance of National Farm-City Week, Williams said Valley farmers supplied an estimated $450 million of farm products to foreign consumers during the year ended June 30.

"These Valley farm product exports were a part of the record high $22 billion in U.S. farm products which were sold to foreign consumers in fiscal year 1976," Williams said. "Farm imports were just over $16 billion, leaving a positive agricultural trade balance of $10 billion. This was more than enough to offset the country's trade deficit for the year in nonfarm goods, giving the U.S. a positive overall balance of trade."

Williams said Tennessee Valley farm commodities exports included poultry, livestock, cotton, soybeans, and tobacco. Processed foods—such as turkey, pork, and apple products—were growing in importance as exportable commodities and offer a large potential for expanding the agricultural sector of the Valley, he said.

Western Europe and Asia were the United States' biggest customers for farm products, Williams said, each buying more than $7 billion worth of products.

Bailey Named To State Coop Board

Paul Bailey of Route 1, Greenback, is the new vice president of Tennessee Farmers Cooperative, supply and service organization owned by farmer-members of 84 local Co-ops across the state.

Mr. Bailey was elected to the post following TFC's 32nd annual membership meeting and November 22 and 23 in Nashville. The annual meeting was attended by nearly 1,000 representatives of farmer Co-ops in all areas of the state.

Mr. Bailey, first elected to the TFC board of directors in 1972, was re-elected last year to another three-year term representing District 4. He is also an active member of Greenback Farmers Cooperative, having served as its president and vice president.

A native of Knox County, Mr. Bailey carries out a general farming operation which includes more than 300 acres. He has served as a member of the Chattanooga Production Credit Association and on the Farmers Home Administration Committee in Loudon County.

He is also a member of the Loudon Production Credit Association, Loudon County Farm Bureau and county and state livestock associations. He received the county's "Outstanding Conservation Award" in 1969-71. Mr. Bailey is an active member of Greenback Memorial Baptist Church, having served as trustee and assistant treasurer. For several years, he was the church's treasurer and served on the building committee.

A graduate of Porter High School, Mr. Bailey served in the Army from Sept. 22, 1943, until Jan. 11, 1946, receiving three European Theatre of Operations Campaign Stars. Except for the time spent in the military, Mr. Bailey was employed at Aluminum Company of America at Alcoa from 1940 until 1960.

He and his wife, Ruth, are parents of four children—Lee, Roy, Kay and Don. They have three grandchildren.

Tennessee Valley Authority Pushing Power Research

(Third in a Series)
In an era when electric power supply involves sharply higher costs, difficult environmental goals, and questions about future energy shortages, TVA is counting on research and development work to help supply at least part of the answers—as it has in the past.

In the thirties and forties, a new supply of low-cost power from TVA dams made electricity available in the Valley's rural areas. In the fifties and sixties, when the region's power needs had outgrown the waterpower supplies, TVA used improved technology that made it possible to generate twice as much power from a pound of coal as earlier coal-burning plants. In the seventies, TVA focused on nuclear energy to help offset some of the rising cost of electricity.

In the 1980's, TVA hopes to begin generating power from this country's two most advanced power plants using uranium and coal respectively—a breeder reactor plant and a fluidized bed combustion plant.

With today's energy problems Government and industry are carrying on a massive energy research effort that ranges from improving present energy sources to development of a variety of new sources, says Harold Falkenberg, Chief of TVA's Power Research Staff. "TVA is contributing to that national effort, but we cannot begin to match the scale of these national programs on our own work, so we try to focus on research areas that seem likely to offer the most promise for the Tennessee Valley region."

Part of TVA's contribution to the national effort involves the Clinch River Breeder Reactor Plant Project near Oak Ridge, Tennessee. The present generation of nuclear power plants can use only a small fraction of the potential energy available in natural uranium. The rest is stored in drums as byproduct material from Government uranium enrichment plants—a stockpile of energy potentially as great as the vast oil reserves of the Middle East.

The key to unlocking that stockpile is the breeder reactor, which can turn this inert material into nuclear power plant fuel. It's called a breeder because it creates more fuel than it consumes. Several of the world's industrialized nations already have breeder reactor plants in operation or well along in development—and this country's first large plant will be the 400,000-kilowatt Clinch River project, scheduled for ground breaking next spring.

"There are problems to be overcome with the breeder, as there have been with every energy source from firewood on," Falkenberg said. "But there is also the prospect of a new energy supply for several centuries."

This project is a joint effort by the Energy Research and Development Administration and the electric utility industry, with TVA and Commonwealth Edison Company the power suppliers directly involved.

While this country and the world worry about how soon we will see the bottom of the barrel for oil and natural gas, there is an abundant supply of coal. The problem is how to burn it and still meet today's stricter environmental standards.

One answer is to equip coal-burning plants with big chemical "scrubbers" to control sulfur dioxide pollution. TVA has worked for years with the Environmental Protection Agency and other organizations on scrubber technology, and construction is nearing completion on TVA's $54 million experimental scrubber installation at TVA's Widows Creek plant in Alabama. But scrubbers involve large costs, and can create environmental problems of their own. There are questions as well about their effect on availability of generating equipment when it is needed.

Falkenberg says his staff is looking hard at an alternative method for clean burning of coal called fluidized bed combustion. In the fluidized bed process, coal is burned in a bed of limestone. A stream of air injected under the bed suspends and mixes the coal and limestone particles, and most of the sulfur dioxide released by the burning coal is absorbed by the limestone through a chemical reaction.

"This process could permit future power plants to use this region's abundant supplies of high-sulfur coal while still meeting air quality standards," he said.

The TVA Board of Directors has approved $4 million for initial planning and engineering work on a demonstration power plant using this process, and construction could begin in the late 1980's if these preliminary studies are favorable. TVA will seek financial help from Government and industry.

Solar energy is an environmentally desirable energy source if it can become economically competitive with conventional sources, and a major national solar R and D program is underway. In the Tennessee Valley, TVA is involved in several small-scale tests to learn more about prospects for solar heating and water heating in this region's climate.

ERDA's broad-scale national research program this year will involve a budget of nearly $2 billion. Millions more will be committed by the electric utility industry's Electric Power Research Institute—including some $8 million from TVA, which helped organize the institute, in the early 1970's.

"We can't expect research to give us quick or easy answers to the complex problems of energy supply and cost America faces today," Falkenberg said. "But we aren't likely to find answers without these major research efforts."

County Court

Process

In a meeting that lasted 27 minutes, Loudon County Court Monday night approved extending the budget for the office of County Process Server for another month trial term. - App. three reworking requests approved a Revised Loudon County Zoning Resolution. Rev. Charles Reda, pastor of First Baptist Church of Lenoir City, was named as Chaplain of the County Court for the calendar year 1977.

Most of the discussion at the meeting centered on Process Server. The court created the post in October as a 90 day trial period, but the position could not be filled as a collector of debts in the county through various agencies and courts of county, as well as serving the courts. Lloyd Jenkins, Lenoir City, has been serving the post since October 12. He is paid the same salary as a county deputy.

At a recent Budget Committee meeting a report on the activity of the Process Server was requested.

At the Court meeting, Squires were presented letters from the various courts, hospital and balance service concerning their activity with the process server.

Mr. Jenkins reported since October 12 he had served 283 papers, 131 delinquent papers, 100 civil warrants and 32 subpoenas. He said until this week he had not been given any fees or debts to collect for the county.

Fire Destroys Home of Dr. Rogers

FIRE DESTROYS DR. ROGERS HOME— Fire Tuesday night completely destroyed the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Rogers at Lakeview Road near Lenoir City. The fire was discovered about 9 p. m. and swept through the spacious home quickly. Neighbors were able to save only a few furnishings. The Loudon County Rescue Squad answered the alarm with three units but there was no chance in saving the home. The Rogers were not at home at the time. They had purchased the home from Lenoir City banker Clarence Bartlett.

Lenoir City Election Features 21 Candidates, Big Vote Seen

Although not totally lacking in issues, the number of candidates in the Lenoir City municipal election this Thursday is expected to draw a large number of voters to the polls between the hours of 9 a. m. and 7 p. m.

The race for mayor leads the parade. Incumbent six year mayor Joe Grayson, formerly a partner in Lenoir Drug Company is challenged by Nathan Taylor, Democratic Party worker and former state senator. Both men have been conducting very active voter contact campaigns.

All six members of the present City Council are on the ballot, but they are being challenged by five newcomers. The incumbents are Curtis Kesser, owner of Kesser's Supermarket; Don Miller, a retired grocer; Thomas A. McNabb, owner of Loudon Oil Company; James W. (Hank) Siskind, a lineman at Oak Ridge; and Charles H. Bacon, owner of the Charles H. Bacon Company; and Harry W. Wampler, vice president and general manager of Elm Hill Meats.

The challengers are Mrs. Michael Ray (Buddy) McCauley, Harold E. (Frosty) Propps, and B.F. White.

Five men are seeking two openings on the Lenoir City School Board, one for a six year term and one for a two year term. Running for the six year term are incumbent Gerald (Gene) Hamby, Earl Fox. For the two year term, Kenneth M. Flynn is challenged by James (Doug) Stephens.

"Awfully Close" Headlee Says Of School Bid

"We are awfully close," Schools Superintendent Headlee said this week when asked if the Philadelphia school construction project was within the $700,000 budget.

Architect Ben McMurray, after meeting with the project contractor, Webb and Son's of Athens, met for several hours last week with Headlee and Philadelphia Principal Buddy Post going over proposed cuts and changes in the project.

Headlee said that he and Post went over the ideas presented by McMurray and added some others of their own. He said that much savings can be made in the extent of the renovation in the old building, especially in the kitchen-catereria area.

"It looks promising and I hope we can have something to present to the board at their meeting Thursday night," Headlee said. The board action, is affirmative would then go to the Purchasing Committee for final approval. Headlee added that final drawings and specifications on the two new middle schools (Loudon and Eaton-Highland) had been sent to the State Department of Education for approval, meaning bids on these projects, $1.25 million each, could be taken in a few weeks.

MR. JOHNSON
Johnson New Manager Of Nursing Home

Myron Johnson, formerly a nursing home administrator in Franklinton, La., has taken a similar post as administrator of the 120 bed Care Inn Nursing Home in Loudon. Johnson succeeded Ernest Vinnett, who has been transferred by Care Inn to Burlington, N. C., to oversee the construction and opening of a new nursing home there.

Johnson has been with AMI, Inc., the management company of Care Inn for six years as administrator of a 50 bed nursing home in Franklinton. His wife, Nelita, three children, a boy 14, daughters 13 and 11 will join him in Loudon later this month he said. He assumed his new post on December 1. Johnson attended Southeastern Louisiana College.

Johnson said he is looking forward to becoming a part of the community and of the efforts of Care Inn to provide quality care for the 120 patients it serves.

Vinnett said the completion and beginning of operation of the Care Inn in Loudon town in operation for 18 months has made very enjoyable because of the reception of the community, government agencies and residents gave the company and their personnel. "I am sure that the community will give Mr. Johnson and his family the same welcome we received almost two years ago," Vinnett stated.

Process Server Office Extended

In a meeting that lasted only 37 minutes, Loudon County Court Monday night approved extending the budget of the office of County Process Server for another three month trial term. Approved was a Revised Loudon County Zoning Resolution.

Rev. Charles Redmond, pastor of First Baptist Church of Lenoir City, was named by County Judge William Russell as Chaplain of the County Court for the calendar year of 1977.

Most of the discussion at the meeting centered on the Process Server. The Court created the post in October on a 90 day trial period, hoping that the position could serve as a collector of debts owed the county through various agencies and courts of the county, as well as serving civil processes for the various courts. Lloyd Jenkins of Loudon has been serving in the post since October 12 and is paid the same salary as a county deputy.

At a recent Budget Committee meeting a report on the activity of the Process Server was requested.

At the Court meeting the Squires were presented with letters from the various courts, hospital and ambulance service concerning their activity with the process server.

Mr. Jenkins reported that since October 12 he had served 263 papers, 121 delinquent tax papers, 100 civil warrants and 23 subpoenas. He said that until this week he had not been given any fees or debts to collect for the county.

Judge Russell said that he feels the officer is doing a good job and that he is just now getting caught up with a backlog of papers that were in existence when the job opened, but he had had indications that the ambulance service and hospital would be using him to collect debts owed them and had been waiting until this time to start using the service.

Squire Jim Blair asked if the officer could collect business taxes and other fees due the County Court. Judge Russell said he could. Clerk Ed Alexander said the business tax was not yet delinquent and he has had no need for the service as of yet.

Clerk and Master Lloyd Black, who handles collection of delinquent taxes, said the officer has given better service in handling the tax papers than has been in the past. Until now County Deputies, who have other duties, have served the papers. Judge Russell said that due to the workload of the county officers the serving of papers was secondary to their job and took longer. Black said collections of back taxes were very good and were a direct result of the work of the process server.

On a motion by Boyd Duck-motter, seconded by Blair a motion was adopted approving the use of $250 in county funds to extend the office by another 90 days.

With Squire Blair voting against it, the Court approved County Zoning Resolution. Referring to the zoning ordinance Blair said, "This is about as close to Communism as we can be. Telling a man how big a lot has to be and what he can do with his property."

The revisions, as outlined to the court by State Planner Steve Campbell at their October meeting, simplified the zoning ordinance and in cases lowered the zoning and planning standards. The vote was 8-1 for adoption.

On a similar 8 to 1 vote the court approved designating one official copy of the resolution and zoning map, which would be maintained in the office of the Building Commissioner, with all amendments made by the county court certified by the County Court Clerk.

Planner Campbell said designating only one copy as the official copy would stimulate problems. He said in the course of time the Resolution will be amended and all copies in existence, except the one maintained by the building commissioner would be outdated because they would not reflect changes between printing of the document.

Re zoning of a 10 acre parcel of property owned by Tom Williams on Highway 11 at Loudon was approved. The zoning was changed from Rural Residential to General Commercial to allow for the possible development of a small shopping center in Loudon.

Re zoning was also approved on a parcel on State Route 72 from Rural Residential to General Commercial to allow the erection of a billboard by the Bank of Loudon County.

Johnson Home Is Burglarized

Items valued at more than $2,000 were stolen from the residence of Danny Johnson, Rt. 4, Lenoir City, between 4 p. m. and 10 p. m. Saturday. A report filed by County Deputy Jim Lindsey indicated.

Taken from the home was a Curtis Mathes Color Console television set, Electrophonic Stereo, $500 in stereo albums, $100 in stereo tapes, coffee maker, antique lamp, 35 mm camera, two Botany 500 suits, other clothing, $70 in change in a bank, a calculator and box of 35 caliber pistol shells.

Entry to the house was made by breaking a glass out of the back door.

710 Here Listed As Unemployed

There are 710 persons in the Loudon County workforce who are unemployed, figures released Monday by the Tennessee Department of Employment Security show.

Tom Iversen, J. D. Wallace's report listed the unemployment rate here at 6.0 percent. The state rate is 6.2 percent and the national total of 6.7 percent.

According to the report there are 11,800 in the labor force in Loudon County and 11,170 of these are working.

Wallace added "The latest figures show that Tennessee has dropped its unemployment rate for the sixth straight month by the state shows the stability and strong base upon which Tennessee's labor market is established and shows the quick availability of our working force."

Loudon Christmas Parade Thursday

Final plans were being made this week for the Loudon Christmas Parade set for this Thursday at 7 p. m. Sponsored by the Loudon Band Boosters Club, the parade will use a route from Carter Street to the courthouse along U.S. Highway 11, band director John Culvahouse said.

Parade Coordinator Jewell Hensley said that all entries in the parade should report to the line-up area on Carter street between 6 and 6:30 p. m.

The star of the parade of course will be Santa Claus making his final official visit to Loudon before Christmas.

Three bands will provide musical entertainment during the parade. Loudon High Band, Junior High Band and the Eatons School Band.

A number of floats will be competing for cash prizes at the parade. These are being sponsored by various Loudon, Lenoir City and area organizations. Two twirling groups, marching units, horses, fire trucks and civic club officers will balance the parade lineup.

The feature which began last year will be the Loudon High School Christmas Queen and Queen Finalists which will ride in open cars during the parade.

M.O.D. To Aide 100 Families At Christmas

The Annual Christmas Basket Project of the Loudon Mile of Dimes will provide a basket of food and toys for about 100 Loudon area families, Mile of Dimes Chairman Jack Lefler said this week.

The organization, that provides about $2,000 in food for the baskets, will continue to accept names of families in need of the baskets through Sunday, Dec. 19. Those on the Mile of Dimes screening committee are J. E. Greenway, Jack Lefler, Charlie Davis, W. B. Costner, Chester Walls, Clarence Morris, A. C. Dukes, Sr., Gene Russell, Curtis Murr, Ray Presley, Joe Hittcoy, Joe Mounfield and any Loudon area church pastor.

The committee needs the names and addresses of needy families, plus the ages of children. The Loudon VFW Post 6156 provides toys for the baskets to brighten the Christmas of the children of the families.

The Loudon Mile of Dimes is an agency of the Loudon County United Fund.

Two Cheerleaders Hurt In Wreck

TWO CHEERLEADERS INJURED—Two cheerleaders from Cherokee Middle School in Kingston were injured in this car Monday night. The car carrying six girls to a basketball game in Loudon City collided with another at Highway 95 and I-75.

Two of seven persons, six who are cheerleaders at Kingston's Cherokee Middle School, were injured in a two-car collision on State Highway 95 at the I-75 interchange about 6:45 p.m. Monday night.

Mrs. Steve Crass, 23, of Harriman said she came off the southbound I-75 exit ramp and was in the intersection before realizing it. She applied her brakes but skidded into Highway 95 and was struck by a car driven by Ronnie A. Ledbetter, 28, Rt. 5, Cedar Hills, Loudon City. Ledbetter told Highway Patrolman George Pierce he also tried to stop and was skidding when the cars collided.

Mrs. Crass was bringing the six cheerleaders to a basketball game in Loudon City where Cherokee was playing Loudon City Middle School.

Pam Grasham, 12, suffered a broken arm in the accident. After treatment at Loudon County Memorial Hospital she was taken to Harriman Hospital. Also injured was 15-year-old Karen Burney, another of the cheerleaders.

She was treated for a leg injury at the Loudon Hospital emergency room and released.

November Coldest on Record

The coldest November on record in the Tennessee Valley region resulted in heavy electric heating use for this time of year, TVA reports. In Chattanooga, for example, National Weather Service temperature data show heating requirements were nearly 70 percent above normal for the month of November.

The deepening cold had its greatest effect on the last day of the month, when generation by TVA power plants was the largest amount ever for a single day—389 million kilowatt-hours. Power requirements of the region reached a level above 20 million kilowatts and approached the record level reached last January. Annual peaks in the region's power use normally come in mid-winter.

Consumers using electric heat can expect power bills to reflect the unusually high heating requirements and power usage in November, TVA said.

Loudon Tumbles Harriman From Unbeaten Ranks With Standout Team Performance, 85-58

The Loudon Redskins showed the poise and finesse that Coach Hugh Watson says is capable of his basketball team last Friday night in routing previously unbeaten Harriman 85-58.

The impressive victory was Loudon's fifth straight following a narrow season opening loss to Chattanooga Riverside.

The game started out with every segment of the top hoop game of the area. Harriman rode the five field goal performance of center Jeff Harris in taking a 14-12 first quarter lead.

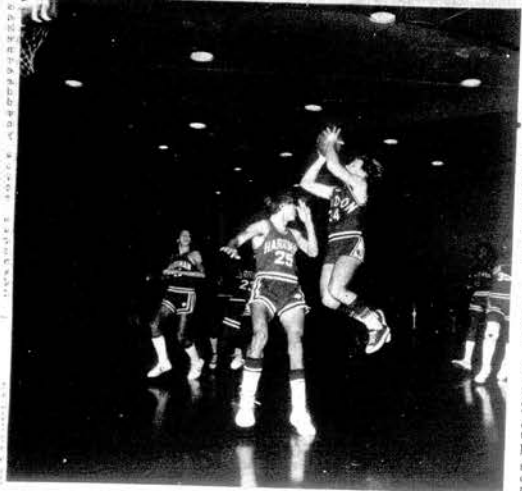

Loudon, with a tremendous team effort, had gotten six early points off the shooting of Steve Millsaps joined Davis in the second quarter Redskins surge that saw both players net six points and Loudon take a 30-26 halftime lead.

The Redskins had built the momentum at the close of the first half and were eager to return to the hardwood in the third quarter.

Loudon connected on five of their first six shots attempted in the third period and the lone miss was quickly rebounded and slammed into the hoop by a hustling Mark Blair.

With 6:30 to play in the third quarter Loudon was ahead by 36-28 and improved the working margin to 42-30 with 4:20 to play in the same canto.

A Gaty Brown three point play with 2:53 on the clock gave the steam rolling Redskins a 49-31 advantage to boost their biggest lead of the game. Harriman came back to cut the score at the end of three periods to 54-40.

RED HOT REDSKIN—Loudon senior guard Randy Davis (34) held the hot hand in Loudon's impressive win over previously unbeaten Harriman last Friday night. Randy gunned in 10 of 15 shots for the night and totaled 22 points. The win was Loudon's fifth straight. Harriman is 6-1.

Hot Shooting Lady Redskins Drill Harriman For Sixth Win

Coach Dewayne Arp's Loudon Lady Redskins caught visiting Harriman at the very start of Friday night's contest and closed with a 66-45 triumph.

The Loudon forwards hit 71 percent of their first half shots in rolling to a 20-5 lead at the first quarter stop and a 43-15 half time advantage.

Bernadette Locke scoring 38 for the night, rifled in eight points in the opening stanza and Jennie Laffer contributed six points. Kim Brantbover added six points also.

QB Club Pee Wee Banquet Saturday

The members of the 1976 Loudon Quarterback Club Pee Wee Football Teams will be honored by the Quarterback Club members with a banquet at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Loudon Junior High Cafeteria.

President Ben Woods said that memberships will be available at the banquet for $5 per person.

Woods said that any players who have not turned their uniforms may bring them to the banquet.

GRIZZLE BLOCKS SHOT—Loudon guard Renee Grizzle rejects this shot by Harriman's Yvonne Sexton as the Loudon girls trotted to their sixth win of the season. Other Lady Redskins guards are Juliet Locke (left) and Susan Jameson (right).

The Redskins pulled out all the stops in the final eight minutes, racing to a score of 85-58, on the 31 point explosion that had the entire team contributing to the final total.

"We only have an eight man varsity at this time," stated a happy Hugh Watson following the game. "But all of them are team players and all expect equal efforts from each other."

Loudon is still without their senior pivot Mark Harrell who as a 67 junior standout was expected to be a key man in this year's team.

Loudon controlled the backboards 28 to 21. The win was Loudon's sixth of the season without a loss.

SLASHING LAY-UP—Loudon senior forward Steve Millsaps (22) slashes by a Harriman player and drives the base line in a challenging lay-up while netting 19 points for the Redskins in a 85-58 win over the Blue Devils.

"The crowd turnout was a real pleasant surprise," spoke both Loudon boys' coach Hugh Watson and girls' Coach Dewayne Arp. "This just shows a team can play better with strong support."

Sure enough both teams play to top drawer expectations with all varsity players contributing. The boys game was the best team showing a Loudon team has exhibited since the days of Yancy Hampton, Dale Amburn, and Ray Simmons.

Harriman losing for the first time this season hit 41.5 percent of their shots on 27 of 65 tries.

But with a tough full court press the Blue Devils were down by 68-49 with 3:17 to play as Steve Millsaps challenged the Harriman defense with thunderous drives to the basket for easy points.

Loudon was well in control at 7:51 with 2:12 to play and the team personnel changing almost as fast as they could be rolled from their seat on the bench.

November Rain Fall Down

Rainfall across the Tennessee Valley region in November averaged only 2.1 inches, nearly 1.5 inches below normal.

Highest November rainfall total reported to TVA was 3.6 inches at the Nantahala Dam powerhouse in western North Carolina.

The lowest total was .9 inch at Johnsonville Steam Plant in west Tennessee.

110 POUND SHARK—Jimmy Ray Rogers of Jacksonville, Fla., formerly of Loudon, displays a 110 lb. shark he caught fishing off the Jacksonville coast recently.

The fish measured six feet, eight inches long. The grouper shown weighed 34 lbs. Rogers is shop foreman for a foreign car dealer in Jacksonville.

ALMOST A DUNK—Loudon forward, senior Mark Blair (44) almost records a dunk on this easy lay in against previously unbeaten Harriman last Friday night.

Junior guard Gary Brown canned 13 points and nine rebounds.

But the follow-up play of Terry Viars with 19 assists and Freddie Starriff, Dennis Brown and Stephen Bettis made the victory a sweet and long remembered by the Loudon fans and players.

Loudon out rebounded Harriman 39 to 18.

REDSKINS KEEP INSIDE TRACK ON HARRIMAN—Loudon kept the inside scoring lanes open most of the night against Harriman on Friday night. Redskins junior Gary Brown rolls down the lane to cash in this easy basket as the Blue Devil defense was ineffective in holding the Loudon center from double figures with 13.

Neely Sinks Bearettes, 54-52 With Last Second Foul Shooting

The Greenback girls' basketball team was finally broken a jinx held by the Tellico Plains Bearettes. The Cherokee lassies won for the first time over the Monroe Countians last Friday night 54-52.

The closeness of the score was strong indication of the heated play of both teams.

Greenback ran up a 23-14 lead with 5:30 to play in the first half as junior Pam Neely hammered home 12 first quarter points and then teamed with seniors Marti Myers and Chita Tipton to take the nine point advantage.

Tellico rallied to tie the game at 27-27 with 1:37 to play in the second quarter and the Bearettes enjoyed the lead for the first time at 29-27 with 58 seconds in the first half. The two teams swapped baskets for a 32-30 Tellico edge at intermission.

Tellico had its biggest lead of the game at 34-30 with 6:10 left in the third quarter, but Greenback answered with Pam Neely totaling all six Cherokee points to trail 38-36 at the start of the fourth quarter.

The game was tied eight times in the fourth quarter before Tellico surged ahead 52-50 with 1:19 left in the game.

Greenback lost the ball with Tellico trying to freeze the final seconds off the clock. A pressing Greenback defense resulted in a foul being called on senior guard Cindy Hawkins. The Tellico forward was upset and threw the ball hitting Hawkins in the face.

After a lengthy discussion a flagrant technical foul was called and Greenback getting a two shot foul. Pam Neely sank both with 22 seconds to play to knott the score at 52-52. The ball was then jumped at mid-court with Tellico winning the tussle.

The Bearettes missed the shot and the ball was lost out of bounds. Greenback advanced the ball into play, throwing it the length of the court to Neely who was fouled from behind on the reception. Subject to a one and one foul shot Miss Neely hit both ends of the situation for a Greenback lead of 54-52 with nine seconds to play.

Tellico got off still another shot at their goal but the ball rimmed and Greenback rebounded.

Senior Marti Myers had kept the Cherokee distaff in the ball game down the stretch with a 12 point quarter, before yielding the foul shooting pressures to Miss Neely.

Neely finished with 24 points week with the Friday night contest at Maryville as the unbeaten 'AAA' Everett possibly standing out most as the Bulldogs and their girls with high season class ranking. A Loudon is double-A and veteran team in both boys and likewise carry excellent marks for the early going of the season against opposing competitors.

The Loudon girls are 7-0 and the Everett girls are also perfect in seven games. Many feel the veteran Bulldogs are destined to capture the "AAA" State crown in March. Loudon has similar dreams in the "AA" rankings. Both teams were state title contenders in their respective divisions last season.

"We feel the game is centered more on prestige than anything else," relates Coach Dewayne Arp. "We believe we have the team to beat them and they feel the same about us. They are probably the best team we will face in the regular season and to play them at Everett will be done tough. Still we welcome the test."

Certainly the game stacks up as a thrilling barn burner with the outcome probably going to the team with fewest mistakes and of course the most consistent to score points from start to end. A cold spell by either team could mean instant disaster with the offensive punch both teams will have to offer.

The Bulldogs quit is also a stiff challenge for the Loudon boys who had to battle both the team and the referees last winter.

Loudon will have little time to dwell over their Friday night journey to Maryville as they must return home for a Monday night visit to Sweetwater. The Wildcats are the Redskins if taken too lightly. Sweetwater beat Loudon at Loudon in their first meeting last year.

The Sweetwater girls are not on par with the Loudon lassies and thus should give Coach Arp an opportunity to use his reserves in most of the game.

Tuesday night Loudon is back at home with Kingston visiting for a boys and girls game. Loudon needed three overtimes to stop Kingston in their first meeting this winter and thus could once again be pushed to the limit to win. The Kingston girls are considered the best of District Five and will be out to get revenge for their lone loss of the season when they meet the Lady Redskins.

Lenoir City has just a Friday night road trip to Knoxville Karsis on their early December slate and will take Tuesday night off for the second straight week.

Greenback is host to Walland on Friday night in a big District Three battle for both the boys and the girls teams of both schools. On Tuesday night Greenback moves to Tellico in a return of their last Friday night meeting at Greenback.

MYERS LAUNCHES FIELD GOAL—Greenback floor leader Marti Myers is fast becoming a big offensive performer in the success of the Greenback girls this winter. Myers launches a shot here in a 25 point night against Tellico last Friday night.

Linginfelter, Kizer Team To Calm Tellico Bears 67-51

The Greenback boys broke a two game losing streak last Friday night with a rousing 67-51 thrashing of Tellico Plains.

Roddy Kizer and Steve Linginfelter accounted for 42 points in guiding the Cherokees to their third win in five games this winter.

Kizer bombed in eight of 18 floor shots toward a 22 point showing and Linginfelter made six of 12 shots from the floor and a perfect eight of eight at the foul line for 20 counts.

Both teams managed to hit 23 field goals in the game with Greenback shooting just 55 percent for a 41.8 percent accuracy and Tellico 50 times for a 38.3 percent.

The game difference resulted at the foul line, where Greenback was good on 21 of 29 foul shots and Tellico just five of 13 tries at the charity station.

The Bears were whistled for 24 fouls in the game and Greenback had 17 fouls called on them.

The Cherokees did not lose a count, taking the first one-15-14 and was up by 42-34 at the half, connecting on 10 of 16 second quarter shots.

Pantherettes Second Half Drought Nets Win For Alcoa

The Lenoir City girls saw their regular season basketball record fall to a dismal 1-4 last Friday night as oft-beaten Alcoa prevailed 32-26. The win was the Toradettes first for the season.

The Pantherettes, playing without starting forward Patty Cook and guard Beth Thaxton, both sidelined indefinitely with similar knee injuries, could not hold the pace down the stretch with the more experienced Alcoa distaff.

Sophomore Rosemary Hines led the Pantherettes with 27 points, scoring 12 points in the first seven minutes to stake Lenoir City to a 18-12 opening quarter lead.

The Pantherettes survived the second period to capture a 27-26 edge at the half.

The third quarter saw Alcoa jump into a quick lead only to have Hines and Melissa Smith counter with field goals to place the Pantherettes ahead for the last time of the night at 31-28 with just under five minutes to play in the third canto. Alcoa then scored 10 unanswered points in claiming a 39-33 lead to start the final seven minute quarter.

Backing lines in the scoring column for the Lenoir City girls was Melissa Smith with 10 points and Betty Powell with eight.

COLLECTING REBOUND—Lenoir City sophomore guard Kim DeVault (12) claims a rebound in a 32-26 loss to Alcoa's distaff on Friday night.

Alcoa Snaps Six Game Loudon Winning Streak; Lady Skins Win

The Loudon High School basketball teams had to settle for a split of their games at Alcoa on Tuesday night.

The Loudon girls ran their winning ways to seven victories without a defeat in the preliminary game by beating the Tornadoettes 53-41.

Bernadette Locke, playing only an average game, led all scorers with 25 points. The senior standout made 10 of 22 shots in the game and only five of 11 foul shots.

Kim Branch Hoover was the top offensive helper for Miss Locke with a season individual high of 23 points. Branch Hoover hit on 50 percent of her floor shots (6 of 10) and made seven of 10 foul shots.

Jennie Letler, who has hit at a 64 percent clip from the floor, had an off night with only one basket in 12 shots.

Loudon (Inset to show much enthusiasm in the win over the Alcoa girls, jumping to a quick 17-4 first quarter lead and then playing even the rest of the night.

The Lady Redskins made only 20 of 38 shots for 53 percent and Alcoa hit 14 of 43 shots for a 32.5 percent night.

Juliet Locke (nine rebounds) and Susan Jameson (eight) paced the Lady Redskins on the backboards to a 42-30 difference.

The Loudon boys saw their six game winning streak come to a halt in a hard played 66-62 defeat.

The game see-sawed through out the four quarters.

of action with Loudon enjoying a 23-16 lead early in the game and Alcoa going up by as much as five points in the late stages of the contest of once biters.

Loudon, playing with balance and hustle, trailed 61-58 with 5:21 on the fourth quarter clock when they lost Mark Blair with five fouls.

The hustling Blair had been the inspiration of the Redskins play until that point and had totaled 12 points and 11 rebounds and three blocked shots.

The Redskins managed only a field goal from Stephen Bettis in the next 25 seconds of play to make the score 63-61 before going on a game ending dry spell that saw Loudon come down the floor on eight straight occasions and score only one point, a foul shot by Terry Viars with two seconds to play as Alcoa weathered out a 66-62 decision.

With Mark Blair setting the tempo for Loudon, junior center Gary Brown went to work scoring 21 points and collecting eight rebounds on nine of 13 shots. The battling Brown accounted for 19 of

Greenback Teams Cage HC Lions

The Greenback Cherokee basketball teams improved their season records with easy wins over home slugging Harrison Chilhowee Baptist Academy.

The Greenback girls got double figure scoring from Pam Neely, Marti Myers and Robin Kizer to notch a 63-26 win in the preliminary game.

Miss Neely's 20 points paced all shooters.

The Cherokee girls hit 30 field goals in the game. There were only a combined total of 18 fouls called in the game.

Greenback shooting in three of five chilly chances and Lorettes 9 of seven.

The Greenback boys won their game easily with 73-39 score.

Roddy Kizer tallied 23 points to guide the one-sided triumph.

Loudon's third period points.

Terry Viars was also a battle worn figure who had played with class. The little point guard had eight assists and found six rebounds, scored five points and directed the Loudon attack with authority.

Loudon connected on 23 of 40 shots for a 57.5 percent, while Alcoa shot 74 times and made 26 for 34 percent. The Tornadoettes out rebounded Loudon 45 to 27.

Quick, Talented Alcoa Buries Lenoir City 86-50

The Alcoa Tornadoes upped their season record to 5-1 on Friday night with a decisive 86-50 romp over a young Lenoir City quint that could not take the wind out of the Tornado sails.

The Blount Countians zipped to 6-0 lead and with superior quickness and the talented visitors never let up. Alcoa made seven of their first 12 shots and then hit a torrid 12 of 17 in the second quarter to double the halftime score at 28-24.

The Tornadoes had a solid 16-4 lead at the close of the first period only to have Chucky Reed convert on a three point play for the Panthers to up their total to seven.

The hot second quarter completely spelled doom for the Lenoir City boys.

Roger Landrum and Ray Billingsley sparked a brief rally by the Panthers that cut the scoring difference to five points, but quickly the visitors ran off a 10 point surge and late in the period the Tornadoes had another 10 point surge to widen the half time difference.

A 10-point barrage in the opening minutes of the third quarter had the Tornadoes regulars heading to the bench with reserves coming on to finish the contest. Lenoir City trailed 71-30 as the last eight minutes were posted on the scoreboard.

Pete Littleton led the boys.

Alcoa also had a good night at the foul line with 20 of 26 going through the nets. Lenoir City had 12 of 23 to fall through at the charity stripe.

Littleton led the Panthers on the backboards with 13 rebounds, but Alcoa won the overall fight with a 42 to 25 conquest.

SCORING TIP—Lenoir City's improving pivot man Ray Billingsley (52) is showing a rapid improvement as the season goes along. Here the high jumping center tips in a shot with his left hand in a 66-50 loss to Alcoa. Billingsley totaled nine in the game.

Greenback hit 19 of 49 shots for the game (39 percent) and Tellico made one more field goal, netting 20 of 52 shots from 38 percent.

Neely hit eight of 21 from the Darlene Woods with 12 rebounds guided Greenback to a stalemate on the backboards at 28-28.

The win was Greenback's third in five games.

Energy Efficient Home Shows Power Cutback

AMBULANCE ATTENDANTS place Brenda McKee, Rt. 1, Loudon on a stretcher driven by Arthur McKee was struck by a vehicle during Church Street in Loudon. A car collision took place. The McKee car, after the initial impact, struck the parked 1977 Oldsmobile of Arthur Williams. Loudon officer James Oody investigated.

Electricity savings during the summer cooling season lived up to expectations in the first of the "Super Saver" homes being built in the Tennessee Valley region, TVA reports.

The special insulation and other standards for this home cut energy requirements for air-conditioning by about 25 percent compared to a conventional new home the same size, according to J. W. Ward, Chief of TVA's Electrical Demonstration Branch. This first home built to TVA Super Saver standards is in Russellville, Alabama, and many others are now under construction throughout the region.

"We expect to see larger savings during the winter heating season, which takes more energy than summer cooling," Ward said. "And these major savings will continue to add up year after year throughout the lifetime of the home."

The Russellville home has a heat pump with its own separate electric meter to monitor electric savings in energy required for heating and cooling. Ward said this home used a total of 1,000 kilowatt hours for cooling from April through September, compared to about 2,400 kWh required for a conventional home of the same size with the same weather conditions.

Metered data were provided by Robert L. Stephenson, Manager of Russellville Electric Department.

The Super Saver home standards provide for special framing in the home's construction to permit use of super-thick insulation in the walls and ceiling, along with other energy-saving provisions in the home design. Information on these standards is available from local electric systems or from the TVA Electrical Demonstration Branch in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

In addition to conserving energy and saving the homeowner money, these energy-efficient homes can ultimately help hold down energy costs overall through their effect on the peak load power systems face in the summer and winter.

The Russellville home is occupied by two adults and has approximately 1,022 square feet of living space. This home has insulation levels of R-39 over the ceiling, and R-19 under the floor and outside walls (twice as thick as insulation installed under present building standards). It is equipped with storm windows and insulated metal doors. This total electric home is heated and cooled with an electric heat pump and contains an electronic air filter, powered attic ventilator, electric water heater, refrigerator and range, and a washer and dryer.

"The home's total electricity consumption averaged 883 kilowatt-hours per month during the six-month period," Ward said. "That averages to a monthly power bill of around $23."

Ward said that the Russellville Electric Department will continue to monitor the home's energy use to record the energy savings that can be achieved during cold weather when power bills in the TVA area are usually the highest.

Belcher Attends Convention

Over 600 agricultural educators joined more than 2,500 vocational educators in Houston, Texas for their annual convention, December 4-8, 1976. The 28th National Vocational Agricultural Teachers' Association convention ran concurrently with the 70th convention of the American Vocational Association (AVA). Wilson G. Belcher (AVA), Wilson G. Belcher (Vocational Agriculture teacher in the Greenback school at Greenback served as an official delegate for the Tennessee Association.

The theme of the AVA Convention was "Vocational Education Builds the Skills of America". Members and delegates had the choice of attending approximately 600 meetings during the five day convention. The total program included general sessions, departmental-sectional, regional-divisional meetings, business sessions, special award and recognition luncheons. The NVATA, AVA AVA programs were at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, Sheraton Houston Hotel, Albert Thomas Convention Center, and the Sam Houston Coliseum.

The week long convention brought vocational educators in agriculture—classroom teachers, teacher educators, and state supervisors—together from all sections of the United States for the purpose of discussing mutual problems, studying traditional innovations, and becoming more knowledgeable about the total theme of vocational education in agriculture. The program of the AVA Agriculture Division was Vocational Education in America.

The NVATA includes over

10,000 vocational educators in agriculture. John J. Murray, the vocational agriculture teacher and program coordinator at the Area Vocational Technical Institute in Jackson, Minnesota served as president in 1976. W.A. McLeod, vocational agriculture teacher at Red Springs, North Carolina is the NVATA Vice President for Region V which includes the Tennessee Association. The NVATA national office is located at Lincoln, Nebraska. James Wall is the Executive Secretary and Sara Stenzel is employed as the Assistant to the Executive Secretary at the national office.

Escaped Florida Man Captured By Sheriff

An escaped Florida fugitive, Frank Lee, was arrested in Lenoir City Saturday by Sheriff Guy Russell, deputies Allen Clemmer, Larry Frospa and Highway Patrolman Larry Davis.

Sheriff Russell said that several weeks ago he received information from Citrus County, Florida that Lee may be staying at either the Kings Inn or the Inn of Lenoir on Highway 95. At the time when officers checked they were checking for possible warrants on Leon Cotton, 34, and George Fisher, 40, both of Ohio. The two men were released from jail Sunday afternoon after it was determined they were not wanted.

Sheriff Russell said Lee, who was being held on burglary charges in Florida when he escaped from the Citrus County Jail, may face illegal firearm charges in another East Tennessee County. He had at least two fake identifications on him when arrested.

Lee, 34, is originally from Concord, but had resided in Ohio for several years, officers said.

SCENES FROM THE LENOIR CITY PARADE—These were some of the float entries in the Lenoir City Christmas Parade last Thursday night, plus Santa, who had to exchange his landing by Helicopter for a horse drawn entry. Parade officials said the parade was the biggest and best attended in the city's history. The crowd estimates ran up to 8,000.

Board Meeting
 The Loudon County Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, December 9th at 7 p.m. in the superintendent's office in Loudon. A copy of the agenda appears below.

Philadelphia Elementary School
 Ben McMurry, Jr. (architect) and Mike Webb (contractor) spent most of Monday, November 29th working on possible areas of reduction in the Philadelphia project. On Friday, December 3rd, Mr. McMurry, Buddy East (principal) and Sup't. Headlee worked for several hours on these items in order to get the project within the budgeted amount of approximately $700,000 (construction cost). We are hopeful that a complete report will be possible at this month's Board meeting.

Greenback School Addition
 The plans are practically complete for the Greenback addition, but problems exist in the plans for sewage disposal. Mr. Bob Frospa, local health official, has recommended that a sewage treatment package plant may be necessary in order to handle the almost 300-student enrollment at Greenback. This problem may create some delays with this project.

Middle Schools
 The preliminary plans for the two new middle schools have been formally submitted to the State Department of Education for their approval. Surveys on the two sites are now in progress for architectural use in locating the buildings on the best spot. We hope to have these two projects out for bids by early next year.

BACK IN THE

GOOD OLD DAYS

458-2681

It would be impossible to list the many personal rewards of doing a column such as this and many times we are more grateful for some of these things than we could ever put into words. Other times we are human enough to just let them pass without mention.

Our mail, our phone calls, the personal comments we get from those we meet, all have a heartfelt meaning to us and we appreciate them so very much. Oft times our mail will come from a distant state and usually from someone we grew up with and went to school with in Loudon or maybe Philadelphia. Our town and it's many memories have a warm spot in our heart. This past week our mail contained a very nice letter with and went to school with. Time has taken these men many miles from the old home town of Loudon, but the memories of friendship and high on their list of memories. All of this information came to us in a letter from Mrs. John (Virginia Craig) Bingham of Porterville, California. She sent a picture of John and John H. (Rudd) Bright, another Loudon boy as they were receiving the Silver Star during World War II. The presentation was being made by Brig. Gen. James M. Lewis to Johnny. "Rudd" stands on his left awaiting the presentation of his Silver Star. This award was presented in combat in France. Rudd now lives in Tacoma, Washington and this past summer, Johnny and his family paid them a visit during vacation. Virginia said they talked about the Good Old Days, The Herald and Loudon. They had their picture made together and we are using it also this week. Our many thanks and pictures. Also the letter and pictures. Also the comments about the Good Old Days. Thanks again. A couple of weeks ago we ran a picture of a group of Loudon boys we couldn't make identification for. The only thing we knew was that they were Loudon boys and the picture was made in Loudon.

But, when our paper came out, our mystery was solved. A Loudon man, who has always meant a lot to us, Frank (Buddy) Robinson gave us a call. At the time of his call, because of our physical condition at the time, we were unable to talk to him, but he was most gracious to take the time to mail it to us. Buddy was in the group and gave us this identification: Chas. Grimes, Clell Miller, R.L. Haskins, Coll Tipton, Red Coleman, Tim Watt, Skeet Miller, Willis Summers and one he couldn't identify.

Buddy expressed his thanks to us for the memories. We can assure him that we are grateful to him for his kind help. We mentioned earlier that Buddy had always meant a lot to us. In our opinion he has always been a solid Loudon citizen. He is a very talented artist and as a young boy growing up in Loudon we delighted in watching him work.

We would like to take a little space here to thank the many people who have called, sent cards, paid visits and other ways they have expressed concern for us during these past nine weeks of being shut-in. We are still on the shut-in list and will be for some time to come with an upcoming trip back to the hospital for surgery. Again, our many thanks to you. Well, that's it for now. See you next week.

Final Swine Flu Shot Clinics Are Scheduled

The Tennessee Department of Public Health this week announced that 3,388 Loudon Counties have had Swine Flu immunizations between October 1 and Nov. 25. In East Tennessee, 141,489 have received the free shots.

Jim Fowlkes, Immunization Representative, East Tennessee Region, said the program is continuing and all persons who have not yet received the vaccine should do so.

County Health Nurse Marjorie Price said that it is estimated that 50 percent of the eligible population in the county has received the vaccine, some 25 percent through the health department and the others through industry, colleges, schools and private physicians. She recommends that the age group 18 to 24 should have a second shot for full protection, one month to six weeks after receiving the first dose. Persons wanting the Swine Flu vaccine, ages 18 and over, may do so on Dec. 8, 15, and 22 between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. at the Health Department, located in the Bacon Building behind Loudon County Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Price said these dates will conclude the Swine Flu program.

Conservation Saves Energy And $

(Fourth in a Series)

With no shortages at the gasoline pumps, and plenty of coal in power plant stockpiles, why the need to conserve energy?

For the same reason Ben Franklin invented the Franklin stove.

The stove was developed as an energy conservation measure, using less fuel because it did not waste most of its heat up the chimney like the open fireplace. The story has a familiar ring today—colonial cities had used up their nearby sources of economical firewood, and the cost of fuel was going up.

As TVA officials pointed out earlier in this series, higher energy costs now are with us to stay, and energy conservation is as essential to the family pocketbook as it is to national energy policies. With the winter heating season upon us, here are some reminders on energy-saving steps during this season of homes' greatest energy consumption and cost.

According to J.W. Ward, Chief of TVA's Electrical Conservation Branch, the biggest step in cutting heating costs is to install adequate insulation.

The place to begin is the attic. Up to 40 percent of the home's heat is lost through the ceiling, Ward said. Sufficient insulation depends not simply on its thickness, but rather the heat resistance (or "R" value) of the insulation. For attics, R-19 insulation is recommended. (Depth will depend on the type of insulation used.) To obtain further savings, floors and outside walls should have at least R-11 insulation.

"With today's ever-rising energy costs, installing insulation is one of the best investments the consumer can make," Ward said. "And it is an investment, for 'be cost of insulation can usually be repaid by the savings in heating costs within a two-year period."

While insulation is the first step, there are several others consumers can take. Storm windows and doors can go a long way in keeping heat within the home, Ward said. If the outlay for storm windows seems too expensive, tacking up sheets of clear plastic outside the windows will give the same results.

Another important way of cutting out unnecessary uses of energy is to caulk around window and door frames and to place weatherstripping around exterior doorways. Outside openings to the outside of the house should be closed off.

The consumer can also install insulation around the hot water heater. Even when the hot water is not being used, the water heater consumes energy, called "standby losses." By wrapping the heater with R-11 insulation, these standby losses can be practically eliminated.

If a home has a fireplace, the damper should be closed when the fireplace is not in use—a substantial amount of the heat from the home heating system can escape up an open chimney. When the fireplace is in use, a glass door over the fireplace opening will distribute the fire's radiant heat into the room, while preventing the loss of room heat up the chimney.

Revised Rates Take Effect Next Month

TVA is notifying local power distributors that Jan. 2 will be the effective date for the modified power rate schedules that were proposed in 1975 and presented in final form in a TVA statement on rate policies issued in early October of this year.

The revisions that have been made will have little effect on power bills of most consumers. Most of the local electric systems that distribute TVA power are adjusting their rates closely to the retail rates they have been using, TVA said. However, cold weather in the next few months will mean increased energy use and will therefore result in higher bills.

In some cases local distributors that need more revenue to meet their costs are moving to the next higher retail rate level in adopting the revised rates, but the resulting effect on overall rate levels will still be relatively small.

The rate schedule modifications resulted from discussions over the past three years between local power distributors and TVA. The modifications are not intended to increase TVA's wholesale revenues. They were designed mainly to simplify some rate schedules, modify some provisions to reflect present cost conditions, and give local power distributors some increase in their margin of revenues over wholesale power costs to cover increases in other expenses.

Revised rate schedules have now been approved by local electric systems serving a majority of the region's two and one-half million power consumers. However, some of the power distributors have opposed one provision of the revised wholesale rate schedule that increases rental charges for facilities provided by TVA where the local system takes power at voltages below the bulk transmission voltage used in transmitting power from TVA generating plants.

This provision was designed to reflect more accurately the relative costs of delivering wholesale power at various voltages. Ultimately it will mean that somewhat more of this cost will be borne by systems taking power at lower voltages, and less by other local systems that have invested in facilities to take power at higher voltages. However, only a small percentage of total wholesale power costs is involved. The original proposal was later revised to defer the increase in rental charges for seven years on present power loads served from existing TVA facilities, then add it gradually to wholesale charges for those power loads.

THP Crackdown On Drunk Drivers Is Announced

Tennessee Commissioner of Safety Joel Plummer today announced a crackdown on drinking and drunken drivers during the month of December. "This marks the final month of the Bicentennial Safety Year in Tennessee, as proclaimed in January by Governor Ray Blanton," the Commissioner noted. During the year, special emphasis has been placed on different areas of traffic safety such as speeding, winter driving, school bus safety, etc., with a great deal of success in these areas. The Commissioner said the drinking driver is one of the greatest hazards in Tennessee. He noted that drinking and speeding are involved in over half of the fatal accidents in the state and termed this a "needless loss of life."

Troopers will concentrate on detection and apprehension of the drinking driver, utilizing different techniques including saturation and mistype roadblocks, day and night throughout the state, frequent tavern checks and close scrutiny of the motoring public. "While the drinking driver is a continuous problem throughout the year, it is even more of a problem during the month of December, with parties and other events occurring much more frequently," the Commissioner said. "Many persons do not realize the seriousness of driving and using mixants," Plummer noted. "Even if you survive and accident, which you probably caused in your driving ability impaired state, even if you didn't kill yourself or someone else or sustain horrible injury, under Tennessee law you can be subject to a fine of up to $1,000, loss of driving privileges for up to 10 years and jailed for up to 11 months and 29 days. "I have this advice for the driver who plans to have a few drinks for the road: You had better have someone take you to your destination who isn't drinking, or park your vehicle, because we will be looking for you in an effort to save your life and the lives of others," Plummer concluded.

Capitol Commentary

BY M. LEE SMITH

In the aftermath of her recent state Senate election victory there has been speculation Sen. Anna Belle Clement O'Brien (D-Crossville) may run for governor in 1978.
In response, the Senator says she has no ambition of the office, but she seems to appreciate and enjoy the speculation. "I have quit saying what I would or wouldn't do in this world," she states, "sometimes you just don't know what might happen."

"Miss Anna Belle," as she is called, is a skillful legislator and will be the only woman in the state Senate next year. For a quarter of a century she has been involved at the highest levels of the Tennessee political process.
Sen. O'Brien is the wife of Criminal Court of Appeals Judge Charles O'Brien. She is the sister of Frank Clement, who served three terms as Governor of the state and ran twice unsuccessfully for the U. S. Senate. And she is the aunt and political ally of Public Service Commissioner Bob Clement.

Beginning in 1962, Mrs. O'Brien worked in each of her brother's five campaigns for statewide office. In between she held several positions with the state. At the beginning of his third term in 1967, Clement named her his administrative assistant. And at that point she became a political force in her own right.
"I worked on jobs," Mrs. O'Brien says of her work in the Governor's office. "Now they call it patronage. But my brother never let me just one instruction. He said, 'Don't ask them their politics. Democratic or Republican. Just ask them if they're registered to vote. If they don't vote, they don't count.'"

On Nov. 9, 1966, the day after Clement lost the 1966 senate election to Howard Baker, Miss Anna Belle married Judge O'Brien. For some time the O'Briens have resided at Lake Tansi Village in the Cumberland Mountains near Crossville.
In 1974 at the urging of her husband Mrs. O'Brien made her first try at elective office, defeating an incumbent Republican in a normally state legislative district.

In the House she set on the back row, avoided the mistake of involving herself in too many legislative issues, and displayed much political skill in accomplishing those things she did want to achieve. She unquestionably was the most effective freshman legislator in the 90th General Assembly.

This year after Republican Sen. Raymond Shadden opted not to seek another term, Mrs. O'Brien ran against George Foster of Huntsville for the 12th district Senate seat. She won by a better than 3:2 margin.
Sen. O'Brien says she will not introduce a large number of bills this year, and "I will not be up waving flags," she identifies her priorities as handicapped children, mental health, and rural roads.
She wants "to put some teeth into the law against child abuse" and will oppose a state income tax and gun control legislation "because that's what the people in my district want me to do." On legislation to increase truck weight limits, she will "probably vote for it."

Sen. O'Brien says she has mixed emotions on the capital punishment issue. "She remembers vividly the agony this issue caused her brother. 'I saw him walk the floor all night long,' she recalls.
Most likely Anna Belle Clement O'Brien will not be a candidate for governor in 1978. But she will be a strong force in the state Senate and will continue to be a person of influence in Tennessee politics.

Display Of Loose Leaf Burley Slated

By Charles F. McCall Extension Leader

Friday, tobacco growers will have an opportunity to observe burley tobacco displayed loose-leaf (untied) on burlap sheets on one of the following markets: Greenville, Rogersville, Knoxville, Sweetwater, Sparta, Carthage or Columbia.

The Tennessee Farm Bureau Federation, The University of Tennessee Institute of Agriculture, R.J. Reynolds, Universal Leaf, Phillip Morris, and Austin Tobacco Companies, warehousemen in the seven market areas, and 224 cooperator growers are working together on this project for the purpose of evaluating labor and cost of handling untied vs. tied burley. Also, to provide growers an opportunity to get the "feel" of handling loose-leaf tobacco should, in the future, change or change the system or marketing burley tobacco be made.

Neither the Farm Bureau Federation nor the University of Tennessee Institute of Agriculture is promoting any change in the marketing system. But, due to the widespread interest expressed Bank President Ed Bell said, "This is the largest dividend paid in the history of the bank. It was made possible through our customers' and stockholders' support, confidence and loyalty."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

As a former resident of Philadelphia, Penn., I was shocked when I read in the Herald that the Philadelphia Elementary School building was being torn down to be replaced with one that would require the students to go through each others' rooms in getting to different parts of the building—no halls. I was even more shocked to hear that the residents of my old home town didn't stop this ravage and rescue this good, old building from destruction, which came about much too prematurely before the School Systems had worked out plans and financing for another building. Hereby having to bus the school children to Loudon—or, are they trying to eliminate the school entirely at Philadelphia?

I have been told that the County actually paid for someone to demolish this building instead of selling it for demolition, and that these people who tore down this building said it was unbelievable the nice large timbers it contained—the like of which can't be purchased now. A good building that could have been sold for other purposes, or even given to the town for a community building.

Now, it looks as if they can't even build the inadequate building which they planned without floating a bond issue to add to the already inflated tax structure. Citizens, you should look into your school administration. This is poor planning and poor economy on the part of the school system. I speak from experience, as my late husband was Superintendent in this county for 25 years and was considered by the State Department as one of the best. He never tore down a building, other than small frame ones, and he built and consolidated this school system into the one big county wide school we now have. I will say there are several old school buildings here that have been converted to other use.

He believed as I do in "spreading your assets, not destroying them."

Mrs. Edith C. Lawson
Williamsburg, Ky.

The following resolution was introduced and read in full: INITIAL RESOLUTION authorizing the issuance of $300,000 Industrial Park Revenue and Tax Bonds of Loudon County, Tennessee. BE IT RESOLVED by the Quarterly County Court of Loudon County, Tennessee (the "County") that for the purpose of financing in part the acquisition and construction of essential public works or facilities, consisting of an industrial park to be developed and funded jointly by the County and City of Loudon, there shall be issued bonds of said County in the aggregate principal amount not to exceed $300,000, which shall bear interest at a rate or rates not to exceed five per cent (5 percent) per annum and which shall be payable from fifty (50) percent percent of the net revenues derived from the sale of the industrial park property (the County being entitled to share such

Eblen Plans Shake-Up Of Lenoir City Police Force

Lenoir City's new mayor Charles Eblen told The Herald following his first City Council meeting Monday night, where he and others elected last Thursday were sworn into office. He plans a reorganization of the City's police department.

It has been rumored throughout the campaign that if Eblen defeated incumbent Mayor Joe Grayson, Eblen would replace police chief Joe Sims. Mayor Eblen said he had told Sims of his plans, and added he may also ask for the resignations of other members of the police force. He said he will study possible applicants and would not make any announcement until after the first of the year.

There have been rumors that either Thurman Stamps, owner of Treasure House Jewellers, or possibly former city officer Roy Rogers, may be named to succeed Sims.

During the meeting Eblen appointed a number of committees, but did not mention either fire or police.

He said he would be Commissioner of Police and Fire, Loudon County General Sessions Judge Tom Ingram gave Mayor Eblen a commission. Curtis Keener, Don Redd, Kelly, Thomas A. McNabb, James (Ham) Skidmore, Nathan Tindler and Harry Wampler, along with new City Recorder-Treasurer Harold (Frosty) Proops, and School Board members Gerald Hamby and Kenneth Wampler, were present.

At the final session for him Mayor Grayson said he sincerely appreciated the members of the City Council, that they had worked cooperatively with him and together for the city.

He mentioned several projects that they had worked in together, obtaining a grant for a recreation complex, bridge and road extension to the shopping center, rail road crossing signals at the Eaton Corporation, the Lenoir City Industrial Park, extension of city sewers and additional street lights, and worked to secure 72 new units for elderly which start after the first of the year.

Mayor Grayson said he played only a small part in the progress and projects that are already started, giving all credit to the six city councilmen.

Present at the swearing-in of Mayor Eblen were prominent Knox County Democratic and Governor Blanton's patronage chief in that county, Boyd Cloud, who was representing the Governor. Also present was Paul Mouser, Chairman of the Knox County Democratic Party.

The Council approved several appointments made by the Mayor.

They were: Don McMurray, City Attorney, replacing Bland Winfrey; Health Officer, Bob Proops; Vice Mayor, Curtis Keener; Finance Committee, Nathan Tindler, chairman, Harry Wampler and Hank Skidmore; Street Committee, Red Kelly and Tommy McNabb; Planning Commission, Eblen and Keener; Industrial Board, Jess Jamerson and Bill Curtis; Beer Board, named two of the three members, Lee

Thompson and Curtis Williams. Of out-going Mayor Grayson, Eblen said he is one of the finest men he has ever known, and that he had done an outstanding job in the service of the city.

FBI Investigates Jail Escape

Loudon County Sheriff Roy Russell said this week he has asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to make an investigation of the escape of a prisoner from the Loudon County Justice Center last week.

Frank Lee, a fugitive from Florida, that the sheriff had arrested 10 days ago, and a federal prisoner, Stan McKay, who was being used as a trustee disappeared sometime early Thursday morning.

Lee was housed in a single cell and was last noticed by one of the deputies about midnight "looking out of the cell door windows." When Sheriff Jim Conner early Thursday morning Lee was gone. Also gone was the man's personal belongings and $450 in cash he had when he was arrested. These items were kept in a prisoners personal effects file cabinet, which was also locked.

The car Lee had been driving when arrested was also taken from the rear of the jail.

McKay told jailer Conner about 2 a.m. he was going out back behind the jail. The prisoners have been in the new justice center jail. McKay, it was said was due for parole in a few weeks. Sheriff Russell said that Jailer Conner, who had turned in his notice before the incident took place, had possession of all cell keys and the file cabinet keys all night and did not know how the escape took place.

The sheriff said that Conner came on duty at midnight and Sheriff Stamps, told him that both men were in the jail when he went off duty.

1st Heritage Expands

The First Heritage Bank is expanding its main office in Loudon. President Don Cantor announced this week. Work has already begun in the upstairs of the adjacent building, remodeling the area to house the proof and transient departments. The area was formerly rented by the bank to Attorney Ivo Sanders and the Farmers Aid Association, both of which have relocated.

The note department of the main office will be moved to the former bookkeeping department with three note teller work areas under the direction of Assistant Cashier Sue Thornburg. The Credit Department will remain in that area of the building.

The area at the front of the bank, now used for the note department, will be used by the mortgage loan department. Ruth Anne Mason works under him in the mortgage department.

Cantor said that the growth of the bank made it necessary to expand both the note and mortgage loan departments in order to provide adequate service to the bank's customers.

New Policy On Transfers Adopted

Students from surrounding school districts who are not Loudon County residents and want to transfer to Loudon County schools during the school year must now make application to the school board.

Paul Bivens Selected For Senator's Staff

A young Loudon man has been selected to be a staff assistant to Senator-Elect Jim Sasser. Paul Bivens, son of Lois Bivens and the late Kenneth Bivens, said he was notified Thursday that he has been selected by Tennessee's new Democrat Senator to serve his staff.

Bivens, a 1975 graduate of Loudon High School, was a member of Sasser's campaign staff in both the Democratic Primary and in the General Election effort that unseated Republican Bill Brock.

Coach Arp Commends Entire Team

Lady Redskins Deck Previously Unbeaten Triple-A Power Everett

Loudon Record Goes To 8-0

The Loudon Lady Redskins have recorded their eighth straight win of the basketball season without a loss. The Lady Redskins Friday night 59-52 triumph at Maryville Everett was more than just a normal victory for Coach Dewayne Arp's talented lassies.

The current cast of Lady Redskins, dominated by six standout seniors, have carried girls basketball to its highest level ever at Loudon High School, but still this team has never really won a prestige contest. A game of highly rated opposition. Always before the team had just been close.

The thinking is positive now, the mythical mile stone for what its worth has been achieved. The Lady Redskins filed into the confines of host Maryville Everett last Friday night with a mission.

The Everett girls, likewise a veteran team, has been to the state tournament in Class "AAA" for the past two seasons running and are rated one of, if not the best potential girls basketball teams in triple-A play to represent East Tennessee come March and the state tournament at the close of this season.

Loudon and Everett had battled through some barn burners when the girls division was listed as Large and Small. Now Loudon is "AA" power and Everett is "AAA" power and Everett is just as strong in the respective "AAA" surroundings.

Friday night's shootout was of top drawer teams, two of the best in Tennessee this season, both unbeaten. Both had won over Bradley County in the summer, yet the Beartees won a state mark 80th straight win on Friday night in actual TSSAA season activity.

Friday night was a yard stick for Loudon and Everett. Who had the team that could handle the pressure and still play basketball at the scale for which both are well trained?

The Lady Redskins, winning only once at Everett in all their meetings, were nothing short of excellence.

added six more. The Loudon defense was showing no mercy as the Bulldogettes were held to 11 points for a 30-25 halftime lead.

Loudon had made good on 15 of 23 shots and Everett 11 of 19 in the first half.

The Lady Redskins zipped to a 24-18 difference with 3:44 to play in the half on a field goal by Brant Hoover. Two baskets by Locke kept the advantage at six until the final 30 seconds and a series of foul shots by Everett cut the gap to 28-25. A dazzling feed from Locke to Brant Hoover for a basket with three seconds on the halftime clock was enough for a five point working margin at halftime.

Jennie Lefler, scoreless in the second period, wasted no time in turning in a racy 25-point effort to get the second half off on a good note for Loudon.

Kim Brant Hoover capped a hustling half court fast break following a Loudon rebound on the guard end for a 34-24 Loudon lead with only 39 seconds elapsed in the third quarter.

Loudon enjoyed a nine point lead for over three minutes, before Everett rallied to win in three at 40-37 with 1:39 left in the stanza on foul shots.

Loudon stalled the last 1:12 for a final shot but the effort was no good.

Everett closed to within a point at 40-39 with 6:43 left in the game but the Loudon team was too poised for the pressure to destroy their effort thus far.

Brant Hoover hit bottom on a 12 foot shot from the lane. Juliet Locke was lost on fouls with 4:04 to play and Loudon back to a 46-41 lead.

A field goal and a pair of foul shots by Bernadette Locke had the Everett team reeling once again at 50-41 with 2:38 to play.

Everett ran off seven straight points before a pair of clutch one and one foul shots by Brant Hoover gave Loudon a 54-49 lead with 1:11 to go in the game.

Coach Dewayne Arp was well pleased with his team's poise and praised each in individual fashion, all the way to his cheering reserves.

"We played with intensity and character, even if we had lost I could not have asked for a more splendid effort and their practice preparation and dedication was just as business like."

Kim Brant Hoover filled the nets for 21 points, played her greatest individual game of her varsity years, and was likewise a humble victor.

Jennie Lefler rounded out a balanced double figure effort by all the Lady Redskins forwards with 10 points and hard team play.

The Loudon defense labored equally determined to close down the potent and explosive Everett shooters.

Renee Grizzle had seven deflected passes or blocked shots to her credit. She controlled the defensive backboard with 10 rebounds.

Susan Jameson may have given her best individual guarding performance with eight rebounds and four steals with several loose recoveries of Everett turnovers.

Juliet Locke got into early foul trouble but played tough until things were in fine shape for the Lady Redskins in the final quarter before drawing her fifth foul.

Lee Ann Chubbaz, senior, was also an active part in the defense as she came off the bench to boost the Loudon fortress with veteran ability and hustling play.

The Loudon reserves seldom rested in their seats as they were either encouraging the offense or applauding the aggressive defense.

Loudon never trailed in the game, despite repeated offensive surges by the home floor Bulldogettes.

The score was all tied at 14-14 after one quarter, but Everett never had the satisfaction of seeing Loudon trail at any point.

Everett learned quickly the Loudon offensive trio was out he victory and not one or two player show. Bernadette Locke gummed in six points, Brant Hoover and Lefler four each.

The second quarter saw Locke go to work with a 10 point spree and fire off two assists as Kim Brant Hoover added six more. The Loudon defense was showing no mercy as the Bulldogettes were held to 11 points for a 30-25 halftime lead.

ipped the Loudon edged to 56-30 and the team began to sense victory.

The win was well earned and highly deserved. Everett dropped to 7-1. Loudon now has won eight and still unbeaten.

The Lady Redskins finished the night at 53 percent in shooting.

Meredith Locks ripped in 12 of 24 shots. Kim Branthover nine of 15, and Jennie Leffer four of eight shots. Loudon hit nine of 10 foul shots.

Everett made 32.3 percent of their floor shots (22 of 68) and six of 12 at the charity stripe.

Loudon also was the best rebounding with a 29 to 25 difference.

The Lady Redskins will host Everett's distaff in the regular season closing game for both on February 18.

HAS HOT FOURTH QUARTER—Greenback high scoring Pam Neely rises up a shot in a 12 point scoring spree in the fourth quarter of the Cherokee's win over Walland.

Greenback Girls End 14 Year Domination By Walland With 57-41 Decision

The Greenback girls have scored their first win over a Walland High School distaff in over 14 years. The Cherokee's got 25 points from Marti Myers and 32 more from junior Pam Neely in blasting the Indian sextet on Friday night 57-41.

Greenback used a torrid nine of 13 showing in the first quarter to run up an eight point first quarter lead of 19-11.

Senior Marti Myers hit six of his first period shots and connected on 10 of 12 attempts in the opening half as Walland trailed 32-17 by halftime.

Pam Neely took over the fire works in the second half with 12 fourth quarter marks to bury Walland.

The win was Greenback's fifth in seven games.

Darlene Woods grabbed 14 rebounds in another improving defensive job for the winners. Robin Anderson, Cindy Hawkins, and Cheryl Belcher also played well at the guard positions. Greenback winning the rebound war 41 to 30.

Greenback hit on 35 of 63 shots for 49 percent. From the foul line the Cherokee's were only seven of 20.

Walland made 18 of 36 attempts for 50 percent and eight of eight foul shots. Greenback fouled but 10 times in the game and have had just 19 fouls called on them in their last two games.

A cold third quarter saw Loudon fall back by as much as 11 points only to again rally to have as many as three offensive chances to obtain the lead in the final seconds of play, but just could not connect for the vital points.

Loudon Football Banquet Slated For Tonight

The Loudon High School Football Banquet is slated for tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. at the Loudon Cafeteria. The banquet is the first of an impressive sport banquet that has been held at the school in six years and is being sponsored by the rather new Loudon Athletic Booster Club.

Tickets for the event are $3 and $1.50 for adults and students respectively and can be purchased either at the school's main office or at the door the night of the banquet.

Awards will be given to individual players for their excellence of play this past season which saw Loudon finish 6-2.

Special guest to the banquet will be the night's featured speaker Coach Shirley Majors of the University of the South, Seawanee.

Coach Majors, famous in Tennessee not only as a fine football coach but also as the father of a long line of football playing sons, has just completed his 35th year of coaching. An charter member of the Tennessee Hall of Fame, Coach Majors and his family have made a distinct impression for four decades in all parts of the country.

Majors' coaching career began in 1942 with a four year stay at Lynchburg. After a short stay at Franklin County in Decherd, he was hired to Huntland where he compiled a 73-3-1 record, losing only one game in a seven year stretch.

In 1957, Coach Majors went to Seawanee where his 20 year tenure has produced a 86-63-5 record. In his second year (1958), Majors produced the Tigers first undefeated season since 1899, a feat he repeated in 1964. Six Little All-American and five of the eight NCAA scholar-athletes, have excelled under his tutelage.

Only in recent years has Majors' fine work become nationally recognized. In 1973, the East Tennessee Chapter of the National Football Hall of Fame presented Majors a plaque honoring him for his contribution to amateur sports; and in 1974, the Football Writers Association honored him as Coach of the Year. Evidence of his esteem among the student body at the University of the South was the dedication of the 1975 edition of the University yearbook, the "Cap and Gown," in his honor.

Perhaps the best criterion for judging coach or teacher is found in what his former students say of him. Those who have played for Seawanee under Coach Majors are confident of the important role football played in making them distinguished and useful citizens in the world today.

Certainly Coach Majors will bring a rich heritage of football and life experience to share with the Loudon football team and the many who are urged to attend the banquet in

Loudon Drops Second Straight Game As Bulldogs Prevail

The Loudon boys have taken a whirlwind dip in their basketball play, losing for the second straight time and third in eight games at Maryville Everett, 67-66.

The loss a hard one to accept, since Loudon had fought from an early eight point deficit to edge ahead by 32-31 from the floor with a three field goal difference. The Redskins hit 50 percent of their shots, 27 of 54. Everett made 36 percent of their field goals, 27 of 63.

This game was settled at the final line as five Loudon players finished the game with four fouls. Everett hit on 15 of 25 foul shots, nine of 11 in the final quarter and Loudon made 12 of 21 foul shots.

Stephen Harrell came off the bench to spark Loudon offensively with 15 points. The 6-4 junior south-paw shooter guarded in three of four first half shots and Gary Brown did likewise as Loudon rallied to take the lead.

Bettis again was the instrumental man in the second half with three more field goals and a lot of defensive hustle by guards Terry Viars and Mark Blair.

Mark Blair made his strongest showing of the season since working back into playing shape after a lengthy illness that has kept him sidelined. Harrell scored eight points.

Gary Brown followed Bettis in scoring with 14 points and was the best rebounder with 12 points.

Mark Blair grabbed 10 rebounds and blocked a pair of shots.

Terry Viars turned in nine scoring assists.

Everett out rebounded Loudon 31 to 29.

LAY-IN—Loudon playmaker Jennie Leffer accounts for two of her 10 points against Maryville Everett with a crisp shot.

Beavers Slap LC With Fourth Quarter Surge

Lenoir City ran out of bullets and the Knoxville Karns Beavers constructed a suitable dam to hold off the Lenoir City Panthers last Friday night in a game of overtime, 81-67.

The game was a run and gun affair, marred by fouls and turnovers. The Panthers suffered the consequences at any rate as they dropped the game for their sixth setback in eight games. Reserve center Roger Landrum was fouled out before half time and junior pivot Ray Billingsley did not make it through the third quarter. The Panthers had remained close in the game until the fourth quarter when a cold spell wiped out any hopes of victory.

Lenoir City was behind 21-17 after one stop and 36-34 by intermission. A strong third quarter pulled the Panthers to within a point at 57-56, but the Beavers ran off and hid in the last eight minutes of action. Lenoir City could manage just four baskets out of 20 shots in the final stanza while Karns was ripping the nets for 10 baskets out of 16 tries. Lenoir City used the hot shooting of Pete Littleton to roar back from a 42-34 third quarter Karns lead to move within a point.

Karns hit their first three shots of the fourth quarter and Lenoir City went 2:12 without a point to give the Beavers the momentum they needed to win their second game. Pete Littleton led Lenoir City in scoring with 20, 12 in the third period and the 6-3 junior had 13 rebounds. Ronnie Hendrix was the other Panther to score in double digits with 17.

rebounded 37 to 29. Karns was better from the foul line with 23 of 32 as compared to Lenoir City's 17 of 23.

Lenoir City hit 25 of 62 shots for 40 percent and Karns made 30 of 60 for 48 percent.

Hypothermia, the loss of body heat because of exposure, remains a problem with hunters and fishermen during the winter months. These same people seldom realize the danger this leading killer during the winter months on water can cause.

The U.S. Coast Guard, which has done extensive work in the field, suggests that before going near the water in winter, put on warm clothing, preferably wool (the sheer bulk of wool provides some insulation even when wet). Wear waterproof outer clothing, including a hat. Approximately 90 per cent of the heat lost by the human body is lost through the head. Secondly, wear a personal flotation device. In cold weather, choose one with extra protection against heat loss, such as specially designed unicolor plastic foam vents, or the "float coat" which is known to most hunters and fishermen.

Should the worst happen, and you find yourself in cold water, get back on the boat if you can. Get as much of your body as possible out of the water, remain calm. Size up the situation. Decide whether to try to swim to shore. Studies have shown that one mile is the longest distance an average person can swim in cold water before being overcome by fatal hypothermia.

In choppy water, or in water with temperatures below 50 degrees, one mile would probably be too far for most people to swim. If you are too far from shore, stay where you are and await rescue, the Coast Guard suggests. Stay as still as possible, because contrary to what one might think, exercise actually increases the cooling of the body; although exercise produces heat, more is lost from the increased blood circulation through arms and legs and the surfaces of the body.

Recognizing a hypothermia victim is easy. He/she is pale, may be conscious, has constricted pupils, and may be shivering violently. The victim usually has rigid muscles, slow and labored breathing, and a slow and irregular pulse. They may appear to be intoxicated.

Never assume intoxication, however. If the apparent victim has been immersed in some or all of the above symptoms, treat for hypothermia.

Even when the victim appears dead, you must attempt to revive through treatment of hypothermia. It can fool even a doctor because many "dead" hypothermia victims have recovered through the determined efforts of rescuers.

The most critical time in treatment of hypothermia is the period immediately after the victim's removal from the water. The victim should be placed in a sheltered area, and wet clothing removed. Great care must be taken to prevent the curious phenomenon known as "after drop." This occurs when heat is applied to the extremities of the victim, which causes the blood vessels to relax and allow the cold, stagnated blood of the extremities to flow back into the body core, thereby further cooling the vital organs.

"After drop" may push the internal temperature of the victim below the critical level and cause death.

The best method of treating hypothermia is to place the victim in a hot bath or shower with a water temperature of between 105 and 115 degrees. Recent research has shown that another excellent method of warming a hypothermia is to administer warm, moist oxygen for the victim to breathe. If neither of these methods is practical, heated blankets, hot water bottles, warm air and other external sources of heat may be used.

Cherokees Run Out Of Gas In 62-59 Loss To Walland

The Greenback Cherokees dropped a see-saw basketball game to visiting Walland last Friday night by the score of 62-59.

The game was tied at 33-33 at intermission but Greenback zoomed to a 51-44 lead to start the final eight minute canto.

The Indians made use of Greenback fouls and turnovers to cut the point difference and finally take the lead to stay with two minutes to play. Greenback scored on only three of 13 shots in the final period.

Roddy Kizer paced Greenback with 23 points, but did not have his best night as he found the rim on just nine of 30 shots. Kizer lagged 14 rebounds.

Jimmy Russell added 10 points on a five of 10 shooting spree and had eight rebounds. Steve Linginfeller was the game's top shot retriever with 15.

Greenback hit 23 of 63 shots for 38 percent and had 47 rebounds. Walland hit 49 percent, 29 of 66, and had 36 rebounds.

The loss leaves the Cherokees with a 4-3 season work sheet.

Hunting Accidents Claim Five

So far in the 1976 hunting season five persons have been fatally injured statewide in hunting related accidents. Six others have been injured.

All of the fatal accidents occurred at a range of less than 10 yards, and four of the non-fatal accidents happened at short range. The most common cause of the accidents was "shooter stumbled and fell" and "weapon fell from an insecure rest".

Only one hunter in Region IV has been reported injured. The accident occurred on the Tellico Wildlife Management Area. The victim had shot a deer and put his gun down to dress it. He noticed that the gun's hammer was still in the firing position and tried to let the hammer down when the firearm discharged striking him in the ankle.

To date no graduate of a TWRA Hunter Safety Course has been involved in a hunting accident.

GUEST SPEAKER—Loudon head football coach Bert Hatledge was the guest speaker at the Loudon Quarterback Club Football Banquet held last Saturday night. Coach Hatledge praised the club's interest in the youth program and also showed a film of Loudon's 1975 State Championship win over Hartsville.

The Redskins, who had dropped two games straight, quickly got out to a 8-2 lead with 3:30 to play in the first quarter. The Wildcats came back to tie the game at 23-23 however with 2:10 showing in the initial half and then go into the half with a 32-29 lead.

Loudon moved the ball inside to center Gary Brown and forward Stephen Bettis to finally go ahead 43-39 by the close of the third period and then tipped the visitors 16-13 in the last quarter.

Gary Brown had 26 points as Loudon's record improved to 6-1. Randy Davis contributed 13.

Brown and Mark Blair had 18 and eight rebounds respectively as Loudon won the board battle 46-45.

30,000 Play BB

Last season an estimated 30,000 students took part in junior and senior high school basketball in Tennessee. Over 18,000 boys participated in basketball while almost 12,000 girls played basketball in 1975-76. Participation in TSSAA football included over 34,500 youngsters. In all, over 184,000 participants took part in TSSAA sports last year.

Return to MTSU

The TSSAA will return to Middle Tennessee State University this summer for its annual TSSAA Coaches' School and All-Star game. The Coaches' School will feature some of the top high school coaches in Tennessee and the top college coaches in the nation. The clinic will attract 700 coaches from Tennessee and the area. All-Star games will be held in girls' and boys' basketball as well as in football. The clinic and games will be held the last of July.

What is the most decisive margin of victory in a Tennessee high school basketball game? The answer is 140 points. On Feb. 14, 1956 Loudon local McMinn County played in the 1956 TSSAA State Tournament but Loudon failed to reach the State Meet that year.

What is the longest basketball game in history in the United States? That honor has to go to the girls' game between Ooltewah and East Ridge. On Jan. 7, 1959 Ooltewah and East Ridge played in 18 overtimes. The longest boys' game was between Dresden and Sharon and was for 13 overtimes in 1961. Both are accepted as national records.

and be approved for admission by the board.

The ruling came after a request for a guideline from Loudon High Principal Gary Dutton and Guidance Counselor DeWayne Arty. In the past there was no guideline at all and when a student from outside the county came to the high school during the school year for which they were admitted because there was no authority by which the principal could turn them away.

In a letter to the board Dr. Dutton said that most of the problems at the school have come from non-resident students. Superintendent Headlee said in many cases they attend school for a few weeks and then drop out, often falling in turn in textbooks provided by the county.

Dutton said most student transfers are for negative reasons and that he would like to see the county tax payers have no obligation to provide educational opportunities for students who live in other counties.

The new guideline was adopted unanimously.

As a result of parent complaints about the nine week grading system used in the county a committee appointed two months ago to study the reporting system, parents got a mid-nine week progress report on students in the county system. The progress report between grade reports will be used for a year.

The School Board school bus contract committee reported on a recent meeting with Judge William Russell and a meeting they had held.

J.B. Hagler said he felt it would be possible to get a new contract by working with the present bus owners. Judge William Russell told the committee, Hagler said, that he felt it would be best to have a new contract ready for the end of the present contract, some 18 months away.

Chairman Wampler said that he hoped a mutually agreed contract can be jointly worked out, but if it can't the board must be prepared to move ahead on its own.

Ted Randolph suggested that a contract decision should be made well in advance of the end of the present four year agreement. Just in case the board needs to look in another direction.

Hagler said that Judge Russell is looking into the possibility of the county furnishing gasoline to the buses, although they are privately owned. The price of fuel and its increase has cost the county many additional thousands of dollars in the last two years because of an excise tax clause in the operator contracts.

Chairman Wampler said he can see why the clause is needed because of the rising costs, but if it is possible for the county to furnish the gas it would save considerably in the future.

Superintendent Headlee told the board that the purchase of 30 acres of property for the Eaton-Highland Park middle school had been completed. The county paid $90,000 for an excise tax clause in the operator contracts.

Headlee said there is a possibility the county can buy a package sewer to plant from Lenox City. A package plant was used at Lenox City High-uni city sewer was extended to the facility about two years ago. Considerable time was spent discussing a new policy for rules of discipline on school buses. Action on the matter was postponed to the responsibility of the students and of the parents.

The proposal that was presented is as follows:

RESPONSIBILITY OF STUDENTS

1. To occupy the seat assigned (if any) by the driver and to refrain at all times from moving around while the bus is in motion.
2. To practice classroom conduct (except for ordinary conversation) while riding a school bus.
3. Keep hands and head inside the bus at all times.
4. To wait until the bus has come to a stop before attempting to get on or off.
5. To leave the bus only at the consent of the driver.

RESPONSIBILITY OF PARENTS

1. To insure that their children are transported at public cost.
2. To provide necessary protection for their children when going to and from the bus stop.
3. To accept joint responsibility with school authorities for proper conduct of their children.
4. To make reasonable effort to understand and cooperate with those responsible for student transportation.

only to enter or leave the bus at the front door after the bus has come to a stop except as otherwise observed.

7. To obey the driver cheerfully and to report promptly to the school principal when instructed to do so by the driver.
8. To be in the place designated both morning and evening ready to board the bus at the time scheduled. The driver is responsible for the maintenance of this schedule and cannot wait for tardy students.
9. Help keep the bus clean and orderly.
10. To cross the traveled highway if necessary after leaving the bus in the following manner:
 - A. make certain the bus is not moving.
 - B. when unloading, go to the front of the bus with sight of the driver and wait for the proper signal before crossing.
 - C. upon signal from the driver, look both to the right and left and proceed across the highway in front of the bus.
 - D. walk (not run) in front of the bus when crossing the highway.
11. Report to the driver at once any damage to the bus that is observed.
12. To stay off the traveled roadway at all times while waiting for a bus.
13. To warn the driver of approaching danger if there is reason to believe the driver is not aware of the danger.
14. To inform driver when absence is expected from school (if known in advance).

A lot has been said in my life about the influence one person has on another person's life. I, myself, as I have seen time pass, find that this is possibly very true. I guess we just don't take the time to consider the true value of this. Hundreds of people we have known have had a very effective influence on us over the passing years. Once in a while we have the chance to write about some of these. It is not that we value some more than others, it comes about in ways like the person we have a picture of in our column this week. A man we respected for his character and also his craft abilities. The man we are writing about is the late Fred Deford who was a very skilled wood craftsman and worked in Loudon's wood working factories for many years. In later years, he operated his own woodworking shop at his home on Highway 72 (better known to many of us from the Good Old Days as Bacon Highway).

We believe we are correct in saying he built many cabinets and counters for Loudon stores a few years ago. We could be wrong about this, but we believe we are correct. Anyway, if we are incorrect, someone will inform us at a later date. We might mention that we are always glad to be corrected. Many times we depend on memory or information passed on to us by many sources and we are not being critical of this. Other people have memory laps too. The preceding comments have no reflection on the story about the late Mr. Deford, but merely was a chance for us to make excuses for our short comings.

Mr. Deford was a man who took pride in his craft which is reflected in many of the things around our area that he made. We are sure many of these items are still in use. He was a man who was close to his church and reflected a Christian witness in his life. For several years he worked at the old Loudon Mantle Factory, which was where the Greer's warehouse is now located. We are grateful to the Deford family for the loan of this picture.

Our other picture this week is another one brought to us by Roland Bradshaw. This picture was taken in the Loudon American Legion Building several years ago, possibly when it was first opened after World War II. We don't have any identification for those in the picture. I am sure some of our readers know who they are.

The other week in the old picture we had a group of servicemen, we couldn't identify all of them. Well, Ed Bundy gave us a call and said he was in the picture, which was made in Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. Ed was the one in the front row with the slouch hat on. Our thanks to Ed.

We would like to send our Season's Greetings to all of our readers. We hope you have a nice holiday and a Happy New Year.

TACD Meets For Annual Convention

By: Paul Aydelett
District Conservationist
The Tennessee Association of Conservation Districts held their 33rd Annual Convention in Chattanooga December 5-7. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arp and Mr. and Mrs. John Cardwell represented the Loudon County Soil Conservation District.

Over 400 Soil conservation district supervisors, watershed directors, and guests met at the Chattanooga Head House for the three day meeting. Program highlights included messages from TACD's president, Joe Wilson; John Chism, Clark County, Kentucky Soil Conservation District Youth Board; and William J. Johnson, Deputy Administrator for Technical Services, Soil Conservation Service, Washington, D.C.

Paul K. Arp, chairman of TACD Soil Stewardship Committee, presented awards to the three ministers honored by the Association's Soil Stewardship Awards Contest. The winning minister was the Reverend Ronald H. Matthews of Romeo United Methodist Church, Mosheim, Tennessee. Reverend Matthews presented his sermon, "This is Our Father's World," at the Association's Vesper Services.

Other program features included a meeting of the Association's Ladies Auxiliary, election of officers, recognition of the state's top district in the Goodyear Awards program and meetings for youth in conservation. The Association also reviewed many policy positions and adopted new resolutions concerning soil and water conservation issues in Tennessee.

Meat Taken From School

A case of beef and a frozen turkey were taken from the Brewer School Cafeteria during the past weekend, Deputy Larry Provas said. There was no sign of forced entry and all doors of the school were locked Monday morning, principal Bob Yates told the deputy.

DISCUSS PROGRAM—Mr. Millard Harris, President of TACD's Ladies Auxiliary, Paul K. Arp (center) and Rev. Ronald Matthews discuss TACD Soil Stewardship program for 1977.

CHRISTMAS QUEEN-Janet Fagg, elected last week as the Loudon High Christmas Queen from a field of Princesses, is shown as she is presented during the Loudon Christmas Parade last Thursday. She is a freshman at LHS.

A JOOLY SANTA-Santa was a jolly fellow when he visited for the Loudon Christmas Parade last Thursday night. Hundreds of persons lined the 1.3 mile parade route to see the parade.

THE CLASSIC CHRISTMAS PUDDING

The earliest record of plum pudding is in the memoirs of Chevalier d'Arvilleux in the year 1658. Today it is considered a classic Christmas dish. The English hide silver charms or a sixpence in the batter—and lucky the child who finds one.

- 3 cups fine bread crumbs, one-day-old
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
- 3/8 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- 3/4 cup milk, scalded
- 6 eggs, well beaten
- 1/2 pound suet, ground
- 1 1/2 cups raisins
- 1/2 cup currants
- 1/4 cup candied orange peel, chopped
- 1/4 cup candied lemon peel, chopped
- 1/4 cup candied citron, chopped
- 1/4 cup dates, chopped
- 1/4 cup tart apples, chopped
- 1/4 cup rum, brandy, or cider

Combine crumbs with salt, spices, and brown sugar. Stir in the scalded milk and cool. Mix in eggs and suet, then add all the fruits and rum, brandy, or cider. Work mixture with your hands to distribute fruit evenly. Place in a greased 2-quart mold. Seal securely with lid or foil and stand on a rack in the bottom of a kettle. Add enough boiling water to cover the mold halfway. Cover kettle tightly and steam over a low heat for 5 to 6 hours. Add more boiling water when necessary. Serve warm with Hard Sauce. Makes 12 servings.

Today the men and women of Union Carbide bring you this recipe with our very best wishes for a deliciously merry Christmas and a fruitful New Year.

Capitol Commentary

BY M. LEE SMITH

Across Tennessee you can talk to district attorneys, cops, convicted felons, bleeding hearts, newspaper editors, and state legislators. On one subject they all agree: The state needs more and better prison facilities - and needs them now.

Last week Charles Bass, assistant commissioner of the Department of Correction, said the Tennessee prison system is suffering from a critical overcrowding problem which may last for a decade. Of particular concern is the Main Prison in Nashville, which is designed to house 1,600 prisoners and now has about 2,800 on the grounds.

Elsewhere in the corrections system similar conditions are found. Turney Center, a minimum security facility at Only, and Ft. Pillow in Lauderdale County have larger populations than their rated capacities. And Brushy Mountain State Prison at Petree has a near capacity population with renovation still incomplete.

Only in Memphis where a new $8 million regional prison opened a month ago is there a modern functioning correction facility.

At the Main Prison the state does little more than warehouse hardened criminals and provide a finishing school in crime for inexperienced first timers.

Murder, homosexual rape, and stabbings are commonplace. And the threat of riot - particularly in the heat of summer - is always present.

There are several reasons for the inadequacy of the Tennessee correction system. In the 1960's and before the penal system was the most neglected area of state government. At budget time the Correction Department generally fared the worst. And if capital construction needed to be reduced, correction facility improvements were postponed.

In more recent years governors and legislators have been more amenable to the approval of funding for new prison facilities. In 1972 Gov. Winfield Dunn proposed a regional correction system, a program which received much acclaim.

But then another problem surfaced. While almost everyone agreed philosophically with the regional facility concept, few local communities were willing even to consider the location of a new prison in their area.

The most notable example of local opposition occurred in Morristown, where the Dunn administration determined to locate a regional center. Despite vehement local opposition, Gov. Dunn initiated construction of the Morristown facility.

By the time Gov. Ray Blanton assumed office, the Morristown center was about 40 percent complete. Blanton continued construction on the administrative buildings, a portion of the center, but sought an alternative use for the facility.

The Morristown example of public opposition was followed in Chattanooga and recently in Madison County. Now, almost five years after initiation of the program, only one regional center has been completed. Another has been announced for Nashville, and a third is possible for the Knoxville area. But it will be some time before construction can begin and the effects of overcrowding can be relieved.

Meanwhile, because of the overcrowding, it is almost necessary to release one prisoner every time a new inmate is admitted to the system. The heavy prison population is forcing far too intense use of executive clemencies, paroles, and extended furloughs to return inmates to society.

District attorneys view the situation with alarm and say it is destructive to the criminal justice system and dangerous to the life and property of law abiding citizens. But most district attorneys acknowledge nothing can be done to alter these practices unless and until the state penal system is expanded.

Today the Morristown center stands 80 percent complete, vacant, and unwanted. And the critical overcrowding at the Main Prison in Nashville continues unabated.

Estimating Your Social Security Retirement Check

A word about maximum benefits. Some people think that if they've always earned the maximum amount covered by social security they will get the highest benefits shown on the chart. This isn't so. For people reaching 65 in 1976, maximum monthly benefits are $364 for a man and $378.80 for a woman. The reason is that the maximum amount of earnings covered by social security was lower in past years than it is now. Those years of lower limits must be counted in with the higher ones of recent years to figure your average earnings and thus the amount of your monthly retirement check.

For more information - If, after reading this page, you still have questions about your social security benefits, call any social security office. The people there will be glad to help you.

First National Branch Approved

First National Bank of Loudon County this week received approval from the Comptroller of the Currency to establish a banking office at 217 Mulberry Street, Loudon, according to Will A. Hildreth, President. "The new bank will be a full service office and will be equipped with multi-drive facilities," Mr. Hildreth said. The building is scheduled for completion by mid-1977. "We are extremely pleased that approval has been finalized, since many of our good customers live in Loudon," Mr. Hildreth commented. "Our decision to place another branch in Loudon County was made primarily because of our philosophy to locate near our customers." First National Bank, in addition to its Loudon City location, has branches at Dixie Lee Junction and at Eaton Crossroads. Total assets of the bank are approximately $3 million, and nearly $3 million from the previous year.

The Entire Staff of The Loudon County Herald $78,225 Could Be Trimmed From Philadelphia School

Approval was given last Thursday night by the Loudon County Board of Education to sign a construction contract with Webb and Sons Construction Company of Athens for the Philadelphia School.

The approval was given on a 4-1 vote, subject to sufficient cuts being made in the original $78,000 bid to get the total project, including architects fees, and that the complete bid be provided a week before the final approval and establishment of the construction contract. Superintendent Headlee said that there had been several meetings between himself, Philadelphia Principal Buddy Post, architect Ben McMurry, and contractor Mike Webb, but the final list of deletions is not yet completed. Friday Headlee released a list of changes and deletions that would cut $78,225 out of the project.

"We are far enough along to say the project will be well within the budget," Headlee said. "Most likely in the $70,000 range." If the Board takes all the cuts listed by Headlee the construction bid would be $70,000. He said some of the cuts planned in several areas, deletion of classroom and building signs, not installing some cafeteria equipment such as walk-in cooler and walk-in freezer, no landscaping and doing the renovation in the old portion of the building except the kitchen in the cafeteria. Headlee said that as of last Thursday night the 30 day bid period was expiring, and the contractor to have the best for the new building, ordered before Jan. 1 if the bid prices were to firm.

Under the plan of services promised by the city the residents will get a new six inch water line and fire hydrants, fire and police protection, some $55,000 in street improvements, street lights, twice weekly garbage collection and other city services. The only service which may be delayed for several years is sanitary sewer.

With Community Approval Green Acres Is Annexed

Green Acres Subdivision, containing some 40 homes and 120 residents, has been annexed by the City of Loudon. Final action on the annexation was taken Wednesday night following a meeting of the Loudon City Council with the homeowners in the area.

The decision on the annexation rested on the majority feelings of the homeowners in the subdivision. Petitions, surveys and personal appearances at the meeting indicated that 96 of the residents favored annexation by the city, five were opposed and the others had no opinion or did not express themselves.

Under the plan of services promised by the city the residents will get a new six inch water line and fire hydrants, fire and police protection, some $55,000 in street improvements, street lights, twice weekly garbage collection and other city services. The only service which may be delayed for several years is sanitary sewer.

Many of the residents who favored the annexation said that the additional taxes they would pay would be offset by lower insurance rates afforded city residents, free garbage pickup and lower water rates, plus the promise of the water line, improved streets and street lights.

There were some vocal opponents who said the city action would be of no benefit to them.

Immediately after the action the Council ordered the police patrols and limited fire protection in the area. The new water line is to be in by spring and street work is to begin in the spring. Garbage collection will begin the week of January 3, and street lights will be installed as soon as the fixtures are received.

New 72, Interchange, Taken Into City, Sewer Fee Set

The City of Loudon completed its second annexation within a week Monday night when the final reading for bringing the right of way of State Route 72 from Highway 11 to I-75 and then annexing property on all four corners of the Highway 72 interchange.

Action on annexing the property was taken by the City Council on Monday night. The City Manager Gary Hensley said that Phillips plans a service window at the rear of the building with a circle drive around the building. He said it appears with plans Phillips has there will be no problem of parking and entrance and exit onto the highway. The first reading was approved subject to Phillips presenting his plans in writing to the Council, showing how he plans to do the work.

The Council set Thursday, Feb. 17 as the date for their annual workshop. Manager Hensley is to arrange a place for the council to meet all day to discuss plans and all phases of city government.

Decision Expected On X-Ray Contract

After nearly a year of discussion, study and controversy the Loudon County Memorial Hospital Board of Directors is expected to make a decision on the X-ray contract. The Hospital Board next Monday will meet at 3:30 p.m. to discuss various proposals presented on operating the radiology department. The main question concerns Dr. Harold Freedman who has done the radiology work at the hospital for 10 years and Dr. Elene Tomkinson, a board certified radiologist, who says her certification should allow her the contract. Both the physicians have entered bids on the work. The winner of the contract stands to make in excess of $25,000 a year in fees from the hospital.

Hospital Board Chairman Curtis Williams called a special meeting of the Board to begin at 7 p.m. to consider the recommendations of the radiology committee. The contract with Dr. Pete Stimpson and his wife, Joyce, a urologist, for the facility operation of the Greenback Clinic was extended 30 days to Jan. 6. Hospital Administrator Gay Hamilton said that Mrs. Stimpson is on a full-time basis, the fee she should be compensated for time spent at the clinic. That the clinic was paying its own expenses, but except for last month she has been unable to take a salary. He said she was willing to participate in a long term development plan for the clinic and he had asked TVA medical planners to help in making plans for the facility and possible seeking federal grants to develop the clinic.

Hamilton said that there has been some interest by dentists in offering dental services from the clinic, but there was not enough room, in addition to the services Mrs. Stimpson is offering. He asked TVA to make available a mobile dental unit and they said they might be six months before one could be available.

There is a possibility that the clinic might qualify for the National Health Corps, for a nurse practitioner, such as a Health Corps physician. Mrs. Stimpson said she has spent nine months building 12 to 15 patients per day and would want to continue her work in Greenback if there were any plan to move a doctor in her. She said she felt she was adequately meeting the needs of the community. Mrs. Velia Elam, a Hospital Board member, stated that Mrs. Stimpson had been warmly accepted by the community and was doing an excellent job, but she felt the clinic Lansford had a vertebra removed at Post-Operative Hospital. The painful problem had hospitalized him twice in the past two and one-half months. He said Sunday he expects to be home by Christmas and his column should reappear in The Herald by the first of the year, although it will be some three months before he can return to his job at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

Chapman crawled through dense smoke caused by a grease fire, found the children in a back bedroom and got them out of the apartment unharmed.

Mother Credits Chapman With Saving Children

A young Loudon City mother of two small children credits actions by Loudon County Deputy Jake Chapman Wednesday with saving the life of her children.

Mrs. Steve (Joy) Denny said Chapman crawled through dense, choking smoke through her apartment into a bedroom where the children were and brought them out unharmed.

When she returned to the apartment and opened the door, smoke from a grease fire in the kitchen forced her out. She screamed for help, and Chapman ran to the apartment. He crawled to the back bedroom and found the children. "It all happened in a few seconds time, but I have saved the lives of my children," Mrs. Denny said.

"STERLING THE CHRISTMAS PUDDING" from Harper's Weekly, December 30, 1876. Courtesy of The New York Historical Society, New York City.

Looking ahead to Christmas — Give a gift you make yourself

Some of the nicest gifts you can give are those you make yourself. They have a special way of showing you really care. The recipes below are for interesting holiday treats that you can make before the festivities begin. Attractively wrapped they will make most welcome gifts, or perhaps you'll want to show them out at home, for guests and your loving family.

Ham or Bourbon Balls
Make these a few weeks before giving, so they have a chance to ripen.
1 cup pecans, almonds or walnuts, chopped fine
1 cup vanilla wafer crumbs
2 tablespoons Dutch cocoa
1 cup powdered sugar
1½ tablespoons white karo syrup
¼ cup rum or bourbon
Mix all ingredients together. Using about 1 rounded teaspoon of the mixture, form small balls. Roll in extra powdered sugar and store in tightly covered container, making sure they are not crowded together. That's it! For a change, try chocolate wafers instead of the vanilla, but leave cocoa out of recipe if you do.

Lekker!
¼ cup honey
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup chopped candied lemon and orange peel
¼ tsp. nutmeg
¼ tsp. cloves
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1 tsp. baking soda
1 cup unblanched almonds, sliced thin
Grated rind of ½ lemon
2½ cups sifted flour
Heat honey and ¼ cup sugar to boiling. Remove from heat and add peel, spices and baking soda dissolved in 2 tablespoons cold water. Add remaining ingredients and knead until well blended. Roll dough to ¼ inch thickness. Put on cookie sheet and bake in moderate oven, 325° for about 25 minutes. Turn out on wire rack and remove paper immediately. Turn, right side up. Cook remaining ¼ cup sugar and ¼ cup water until mixture spins a thread. Spread on lekerli and cut in diamond shapes. Store in airtight container for at least a week before giving or using.

Nut Loaf/ Sensation
¾ cup sugar
¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour
¾ tsp. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
2 packages pitted dates — about 1 lb.
1 cup well-drained maraschino cherries
3 cups shelled Brazil nuts — 2 lb. unshelled, or 1 cup
1 tsp. vanilla
Start heating oven. Grease, then line with waxed paper, a loaf pan measuring 9" x 5" x 3". Place first 4 ingredients in sifter. In large bowl put nuts, dates and cherries and sift flour mixture over them. Mix with hands till fruits and nuts are well coated. Beat eggs till foamy, add vanilla, stir into nut mix until well mixed. Sprinkle evenly in pan, bake until done. Cool in pan on wire rack for 5 minutes. Remove from pan, peel paper off, cool on rack. Wrap in aluminum foil and store in refrigerator. Will keep for 3 or 6 weeks.

Happy holiday nibbling to all!

Loudon Football Banquet Has Crowded Turnout

The Loudon Athletic Booster Club honored the Loudon High School Football team and the Loudon Freshmen team with a football banquet on Thursday night. The meal for the varsity was compliments of The First Heritage Bank of Loudon.

The first of an independent sports banquet, honoring just one sport, that has been held at the school in some six years received an excellent turnout.

Coach Shirley Majors, Head Football Coach at the University of the South, Sewanee, was the guest speaker and left an impressive image of himself and of his virtues in coaching athletics.

Coach Majors referred to former Loudon quarterback and stand-out Gordo Watson, of the Redskins 1969 State AA Championship team, and stellar performer at the University of the South from 1972-74 as an example of his short, but meaningful speech. Gordo, who captained the University of the South football team in his senior year, was labeled a standout athlete and a student leader, which he honors his community.

Coach Majors listed the fact to be a good athlete a person has to get out and work from his shorts up. He described Gordo with this quality of a player and person and so praised his coaching of years before college as his foundation to greatness.

"With his sound knowledge for the game, Gordo's timing only made him a more valuable asset to the success of our team," related Coach Majors.

Coach Majors took time to direct praise on the fine coaching staff at Loudon and their willingness to work and the rich tradition of playing as a winner by the Loudon gridder.

You have to put your every inch and ounce of your body into the idea and belief that you can and will win. Faith is traits a player and coach can share.

Coach Majors expressed that to have an individual star player is most fortunate, but to have a team that works to get the job done not only contributes to the star performance of the player, but serves as honest satisfaction to all the team itself. It takes every one doing his job to be can do it best for a team to be a real winner, spoke Coach Majors.

Coach Majors closed with a personal note saying he was most honored to visit with the fine people of Loudon and their football team. He said he was associated with such honorable and characterful young men and their families and friends. Coach Majors spoke of the fondness of his own family and their interest in the game of football and life. He told how he feels football is a symbol of actually living life in the community.

"Where else but on a football field can a person hit his opponent with all the force his body can unleash and still look like a winner at the time friends," Coach Majors spoke on his enjoyable years as a coach and told several related stories of his many experiences, which brought bounds of laughter and thrills from the banquet crowd.

Coach Bert Rattledge made a short address, saying the smiles of the past couple of seasons (Loudon had won back to back AA State titles in 1974 and 1975) were all different now. "Our goal was a Loudon football boss, and we missed the opportunity by only the slimmest of margins, but we have some great memories that are to never be taken away and our teams of the future will strive to once again bring Loudon another championship." Coach Rattledge made a special appreciation to the Loudon Booster Club for their hard working efforts to better the athletic program at Loudon.

He also gave praise to the Loudon Quarterback Club for their development of the young boys who some day hope to star for the Loudon varsity.

VFW Post 5081 of Loudon was represented by Commander Sam Webb who presented Coach Rattledge and Loudon High School a check for $1000 in regard to the future renovation of the stadium press box.

Helen Glass of River Road was the recipient of a figurine of a battle worn Loudon football player, given away by way of a drawing at the banquet. The Booster Club project netted almost $100 for the night in future plans and hopes to provide the Athletic Department at Loudon with a Mini-Bus for such things as Baseball, tennis, and B team Basketball.

Mr. A.C. Dukes was the banquet's Master of Ceremonies and awarded individual trophies for the occasion.

The Burch Crabtree Award, given by the Harvey Crabtree Family to the best all round football player, went to senior quarterback Greg Deatridge.

Deatridge also received the Loudon Lions Club Best Back Trophy and All Loudon County honor from the Loudon County Herald.

Senior lineman Junior Rolen was a unanimous pick as the Lineman trophies, while Sam Stewart, senior defensive back, and look home a watch from The Tie Jewellers as the best defensive lineman in receiving the Tie-Toe Award.

The VFW Best Back was junior scat back Freddie Starritt and the Tie-Toe Award to the best defensive secondary player went to Carter Cardwell.

Senior Carter Cardwell was selected by his teammates as the player with the most Sportsmanship and was honored with a trophy given annually by Karnes Funeral Home.

Ricky Lovin, senior lineman, was acknowledged as the top Scholastic member of the football team and the trophy given annually by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arrp was given by Mrs. Arrp on Thursday night and announced her interest and love for Loudon High School football was just as meaningful now as it had been to her and Mr. Arrp through all the many seasons past.

Nine Loudon players were honored with trophies and certificates as being selected to the Annual County Herald All County team. They were Greg Deatridge, Carter Cardwell, Sam Stewart, Junior Rolen, Brian Curtis, Jim Brown, Dennis Stewart, Freddie Starritt, and Sam Thearp.

COACH MAJORS SPEAKS TO LOUDON FOOTBALLERS—University of the South Head Football Coach Shirley Majors addressed the Loudon football team and banquet guests at the Loudon Booster Club Football Banquet last Thursday night.

Meeting For Deer Stocking

By Rex Collier
In August, 1976 a meeting was held in the courthouse to determine if the people of Loudon County wished deer stocked in the county. The people who attended the meeting voted not to stock the deer.

Since that time several people have contacted me, saying that they did not know of the meeting and wanted to have deer put in the county. Because of this dissatisfaction another public meeting has been arranged.

This meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 4, 1977 at 7:00 p.m. in the big courtroom upstairs in the courthouse, Loudon.

The purpose will be to determine if Loudon Countians want deer stocked in the county and if they will be willing to help protect them. All landowners, hunters, and other interested parties are invited.

The Pantherettes came to life in the third quarter with all three forwards sharing in the scoring and making seven of 14 floor tries to roll up a 30-22 working margin.

The game was played even in the final seven minutes. Freshman guard Nadine Cozart led the Pantherettes.

Greenback's Kizer Blister's Nets For 51 Points In 100-82 Triumph At Lanier

Greenback senior All State Candidate basketball player Roddy Kizer set a school scoring record last Tuesday night with a sparkling 51 point outburst that paced the Cherokees to a 100-82 win over Lanier. The game was played on the Eagles home court.

The Eagles chose to not give Kizer any special defensive attention and the senior guard scored 15 more points in the next eight minute act for 34 at the half and Greenback in control of the game 56-37.

A "tired" Kizer was limited to nine points in the third quarter and eight in the fourth period to achieve his game high mark of 51.

Kizer hit 21 of 30 floor shots for a sizzling 70 percent accuracy and nine of 11 foul losses. He collected a game high 17 rebounds for honors in that department and still took time to hand out seven scoring passes to teammates. The overall performance was termed fantastic by fans and fellow players.

The quiet spoken Kizer was more pleased over the fact that Greenback had won the game and that they had scored 100 points.

Chris Blair, cashing in a pair of foul shots at the game's end, put the score board on the century mark.

Kizer received a steady offensive backing with Steve Linginfelter adding 19 points and Lynn Rucker 12.

The Cherokees hit 37 field goals and 26 of 34 foul shots. Lanier made 33 field goals. Greenback attempted 78 shots in the fast moving game, thus shooting 49 percent.

The victory was Greenback's fifth of the season.

SETS NEW GREENBACK SCORING MARK—Greenback's senior All State candidate in the Class A Division, Roddy Kizer, is shown in his top offensive form of last Tuesday night at Lanier. The 6-1 sharpshooter 51 points making 21 of 30 shots and nine of 11 foul losses. He also had seven scoring assists and 17 rebounds in a 100-82 Cherokee win.

Steady Admirals Post Seventh Loss On Lenoir City Panthers

The Lenoir City Panthers saw their season record drop to a disappointing 2-7 last Thursday night as host Knoxville Farragut, loser of Knoxville Farragut, loser of only one game to date, breezed to a 45-24 triumph.

The Panthers were led in scoring by Clay White with 19 points. White was making his first starting assignment in place of an injured Chris Ferguson who had a sprained ankle.

White's five field goals in 10 shots was the best of any Panther shooter. Usual high scoring Patsie Littleton had his worst shooting night of his varsity play with only two of 12 finding the mark for four points.

Lenoir City shot 37 percent, 22 of 60, as compared to Farragut with 49 percent accuracy on 29 baskets out of 59 shots. The Admirals also made nine of 15 foul shots to Lenoir City's one of two.

controlled by Farragut 45-22. Patsie Littleton and Ronnie Hendrix each had five recoveries for the Panthers.

Farragut led from the start, pulling away steadily throughout the contest.

Bearettes Use Last Quarter To Avenge Greenback Loss

The Tellico Bearettes had to come from behind twice to gain a season split with Greenback in basketball. The Tellico staff overcame a 18-14 first quarter lead to take a 35-33 halftime lead. Greenback came back to establish a 45-43 upper hand going into the final quarter.

Tellico rolled to a 15-9 difference in the stanza and Greenback lost for the third time this winter 58-54.

All three Greenback forwards registered double figures with Pam Neely leading the scoring parade with 23 points. Marj Myers made 20 points and Chita Tipton contributed 12.

The Cherokees hit 20 of 40 shots, while Tellico made 22 of 40 shots and out rebounded Greenback 37 to 22.

Both teams made 14 foul shots.

Greenback hit on just five field goals in the second half. Pam Neely got off to a fast start with 12 early points in the first period, but was calmed to her final total over the next three quarters.

The loss was Greenback's third in nine games.

51 Points Not County Record

Greenback's Roddy Kizer's brilliant 51 point performance in a 100-82 whacking of home standing Lanier last Tuesday night was a greenback High School individual scoring record, but is not the top point production by an individual.

Loudon High School's Reed Stansley holds this distinction as well as the Loudon scoring mark with 62 points in a 197-57 route of McMinn County on Feb. 16, 1964. In that game the McMinn County team, beaten only three times and a state power, played "dead" in the second half in disgust of the officiating thus prompting the one-sided score.

Kizer is still to be commended for his talented efforts and with almost three-fifths of the regular season remaining may still reach the high scores to set another record.

Kizer hit 21 of 30 shots and nine of 11 foul shots in getting his 51 total. He also grabbed 17 rebounds and handed out seven scoring passes to teammates.

Kizer is averaging almost 22.5 points a game this winter with a 51 percent shooting eye.

Unbeaten Lady Redskins Need Overtime To Clip Stubborn Owlettes

The Loudon Lady Redskins will carry the top record of the participating districts in this year's 26th Annual Maryville-Alcoa Jaycee Basketball Classic the week after Christmas. The Lady Redskins are currently 11-0 for the regular season, but had to go into overtime to keep their record unbeaten for the holidays. State "A" power Oolawah, who won the Small State Title in 1975 and was in the state meet last year, came back from a 24-10 Loudon lead on Friday night to tie the game at 38-38 at the game's end, but just could not carry the fight any farther as Loudon charged to a 64-41 decision.

TWO FOR KIM—Loudon forward Kim Brant Hoover had some key baskets in the Lady Redskins overtime conquest of Oolawah last Friday night. Kim scored 16 points.

The loss was only the second for Oolawah this season, losing to the "AAA" Bradley County outfit. Loudon made use of all starting forwards double figure play to grab the early lead. A short scoring drought and some questionable officiating by the Hamilton County referees helped the Owlettes to recover almost without trying. Loudon led 35 to 26 at the half and was up only 45-42 entering the final seven minute period. Oolawah managed to gain the lead at 31-40 and held the three point working margin for some two minutes before Loudon became active at both ends of the floor. Tough defensive play by Juliet Locke, Renee Grizzle (despite four fouls) and Susan Jamison gave the Loudon forwards opportunity after opportunity to regain the scoring difference. Loudon finally got the ball for the last time in regulation play with 1:16 to go and trailing by 23-33. Sensational senior Bernadette Locke showed just how calm and poised she could play by holding the ball until the final 10 seconds before taking the ball to the basket for a two shot foul. With two seconds to play Miss Locke hammered home the tying points and then accounted for nine of Loudon's 11 overtime scores to give the Loudon sextet another impressive victory. Bernadette Locke had 40 points, much to be expected for such a stout and competitive opponent. She was assisted by Kim Brant Hoover with 16 points, and several 10 foot hoops coming at clutch times in the game to keep the Loudon momentum going. Jennie Leffer had 10 points and a hustling game. Oddly enough both teams made 29 field goals with Loudon converting on 20 of 27 foul shots. The Owlettes hit 15 of 19 at the foul station.

Bernadette Locke made 11 field goals and 19 of 20 foul shots. Renee Grizzle was a tiger on the backboards with 11 rebounds and did not play but 20 seconds of the third quarter and only about three minutes of the fourth quarter due to foul trouble placed on her in the second half. Loudon made only seven turnovers in the game.

Redskins Push By Kingston Quint

Loudon broke away from a 15-01 midway the final period Tuesday night, scoring six unanswered points. They went on to a 64-59 victory over visiting Kingston. The Redskins had rallied from a 6-point deficit to draw even with the tough Redskins, but it was poor foul shooting that kept the Redskins from taking the lead. Kingston missed the front end on four, one-and-one situations during the fourth quarter, and each time trailed by three points, while at the line. Randy Davis, sensational outside shooter, hit 20 points to lead the victors, and Gary Millsaps and Steve Bette, with 11 and 10 points respectively. Kingston closed in on Loudon after falling behind by as much as 12 points in the first half. The Jackets trailed 28-17 at halftime. Karl Beckwell hit a basket from 20-feet at the opening of the fourth period to move the Jackets to within 2 points of the Redskins, but Brooksbank missed twice on the first of one-and-ones in succession. Then Terry Eastwood hit a 19-foot jumper and big Garry Brown of Loudon and Ron Baggett of Kingston traded baskets, leaving the hosts ahead, 40-38. With 5:18 to go Davis hit from out front and took a jump shot. Brooksbank connected on one of two from the line. Donal Francis grabbed the rebound from Brooksbank's missed charity shot and struck it through the hoop. That was as good as Kingston could do. Davis hit, Kingston's Beckwell missed the front of one-and-one and Millsaps and Davis combined for 4 more points. At that juncture Kingston was down by 4, but Brooksbank rammed one in, Bette hit and Brooksbank was true twice from the line. With 1:40 to go, Loudon led 50-46. When Millsaps missed from the foul line with 1:29 to go, Kingston had the rebound but lost it out of bounds. On the rebound Brown was fouled and got one of two, but again Kingston lost the rebound after getting a hand on it, but Mark Hair scored. That he

A meeting of the school board was set for Tuesday of this week for the board to consider the cuts. At the meeting they were expected to possibly make some changes in the proposals and perhaps leave in some of the recommended cuts, since they will put the project well within the $750,000 budget.

Steve Harrison, who was clerk-of-the-works on the Loudoun High School construction some 10 years ago, was invited to the meeting by the board to see if he would be interested in performing that duty on the Philadelphia, Greenback, and the two middle school construction projects.

The board approved having a clerk-of-the-works for the construction and approved Mrs. Harrison for the position. Harrison told them he was paid by the architect on the Loudoun High job and it was the responsibility of the architect to provide the clerk to see that the specifications were followed. The board asked that Headline contact McMurry about awarding that position to Mr. Harrison if they could agree on a salary. Lynne Smith was hired as a teacher at Highland Park Elementary School to replace a teacher that had resigned.

A request by Arlan Franks that he be allowed to continue driving a school bus, although he is over 65 years old, was denied by the board. The board position was that the age rule is a state law and they would be in violation of the state law and libel if they permitted a driver over 65 to operate a bus.

Another request for school bus service inside Roanoke County was postponed until Mrs. Paul Coker, who made the request, can appear before the board.

community hopes that it can attract a doctor to practice there sometime in the future.

Hamilton stated that it might be possible to get Mrs. Simpson approved in the Health Corps and get funds over her salary in that means. The grants he talked about earlier for improving the clinic and helping pay salaries would be easier to obtain if the Greenback facility was operated as an extension of the hospital he said.

Mrs. Simpson said this grant procedure or the Health Corps route may take several months and she wanted some type of agreement with the county before that time.

Hamilton said the Health Planners would be at the hospital to look at the extension was agreed on by both parties. Chairman Curtis Williams appointed Mrs. Elam, Gerald Hamby and Bliss Kiter to an permanent committee on the Greenback medical facility

After Seven Months. . .

Escapee George Jenkins Is Captured

George Raymond Jenkins, who escaped from the Loudoun County Jail the second time on May 5, was recaptured Wednesday after seven months of eluding attempts by local law enforcement officers to recapture him.

Wednesday night officers received information that Jenkins was in the company of another man in the Loudoun City area and was given a description of a car they were supposed to be in headed for Georgia.

During the night officers spotted Jenkins and thought they had him pinned down at his home in Loudoun City. Again as he has done about a dozen times in the past he got out and hid in a wooded area near the home.

The officers, County Deputies and Loudoun City police officers, surrounded the area and kept Jenkins bottled up all night. He told County Chief Deputy Luke Bright later that he had walked within inches of him during the night.

Thursday morning two deputies covered the doors to the man's home and Loudoun City officer Floyd Williams went inside and made the arrest.

Jenkins was being held on federal charges of taking a stolen car over the state line.

He was to face a federal court trial on May 5, the day he was asked to take a shower before going to court. Catching the jailer looking the wrong way, he managed to slip out the back door of the jail.

In Federal Court Thursday, after Jenkins was taken to the Knox County Jail, his attorney had plea bargained three cases against him with the U.S. Attorney's office and a sentence was agreed upon.

Court proceedings appeared to be moving toward a smooth and swift conclusion, but Jenkins had another surprise in store.

He entered guilty pleas to both escape charges and also submitted on the indictment accusing him of bringing a stolen car from Georgia to Loudoun County.

The best question the judge asked, in the normal course of events, is answered in the affirmative.

But when the judge asked Jenkins if he was so pleading because he was in fact guilty, the defendant replied, "No, sir."

That answer brought normal procedures to a halt. Judge Taylor asked him again and Jenkins replied that he had bought the car in March of 1973 but had no knowledge that it was stolen. He said he had made a down payment of $150 and was supposed to pay the seller $50 more the following week.

The busy turn of events brought U.S. Attorney John L. Bowers to his feet asking the court for permission to withdraw the plea bargaining arrangements since sentencing on the escape charges had been pedicated on a longer term on the theft count.

Judge Taylor granted the request and set Jenkins' trial for Jan. 4. The guilty pleas for escape stood, but both cases were referred to the probation department for presentence investigation.

Stolen Truck, Tools Recovered, Guns Missing

In less than two hours after a break-in at the home of Charles J. White, Martel Estates, Loudoun City, was reported Sunday night, most of the more than $10,000 in property taken had been recovered.

A 1973 Chevrolet Pickup truck containing thousands of dollars worth of carpenter tools, and five guns taken from the house and other items were taken. The break-in was discovered about 10:30 p.m. Sunday. The thieves had driven the truck through the basement door and damaged a sliding door into the basement to gain entry to the house. About 12:30 the same night the truck was found on Evans Road in Knox County by a resident of the area.

The items missing were a Winchester automatic rifle, .410 single shot shotgun, a 30-06 automatic rifle, a 20 gauge over and under shotgun, and a 22 lever action rifle, and a skill saw.

Deputy Voyd Caruth answered the complaint and said an investigation into the theft is continuing.

First Heritage Official Named To State Board

Governor Ray Blanton announced the appointment of T. J. Selby of Loudoun to serve four year term on the Building Finance Committee of the Industrial and Agriculture Development.

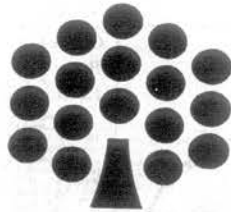

Selby is the manager of the Mortgage Loan and Real Estate Department of First Heritage Bank in Loudoun. He is the former owner of Selec Crossville and a previous account executive for the State of Tennessee. The Building Finance Committee of the Industrial and Agriculture Development issues certificates of public purpose and necessity for general obligation bonds to local municipalities as authorized under the Tennessee Bond Act and the Tennessee Industrial Park Act.

The committee meets five to seven times a year for the purpose of project evaluation.

Health Care And Your Hospital

by G. Gay Hamilton Administrator
Loudon County Hospital

The community's response to the recent spate of articles we've prepared about our hospital has been so positive that we've been encouraged to write a weekly column.

Since I grew up in this community, many of you folks know me pretty well and are probably wondering how I suddenly acquired this modest talent for writing.

Well, I'll confess right off that I've had a little help from a friend who is a writer who tries his best to translate my thoughts into a readable form.

Having made it through this confession, I'd like to devote this first column to further discussion about some of the problems small hospitals like ours are encountering.

As we've previously pointed out, small hospitals in Tennessee seem to be going the way of the old one-room school house. Fortunately, ours has been able to get along better than most, largely because you folks take an interest in it.

To keep our little hospital thriving, and responsive to your needs, we've got some work to do, but that's another story.

In considering small hospital problems, I recently learned Tennessee is not the only state having such problems.

In the neighboring State of Georgia, the number of hospitals having 50 beds or less dropped 73 percent, while those with 50 beds or more increased 13 percent.

Now I've learned that the entire national small-hospital system is apparently having problems, and is starting to get some national attention.

For example, the U.S. Public Health Service's Small Health Coordinating Committee (RHCC) recently held a national conference to consider some of the special problems our rural hospital administrators are facing as a result of federal legislation.

If I had to sum-up our situation, I'd do it this way: More than half of the care we provide is given to beneficiaries of federal programs, mostly Medicare and Medicaid. To care for these patients, we've got to comply with volumes of rules and regulations, which apply equally to any hospital accepting these patients. Some of these rules and regulations make good sense in big hospitals. But they're just plain nonsense in a small hospital like ours, and vary expensive to comply with. That's half of the problem. Here's the other half: The government doesn't pay its full share of the hospital's total expense of providing a day of care to one of its program beneficiaries. For example, it won't pay any of its share for education, charity care, or bad debt. Because over half our patients sharing in these costs, that means the remaining paying patients have to pay higher costs.

Well, big hospitals have more regular paying patients to call on to help pay the federal government's share of the total operating expense. We don't have too many.

In other words, the special needs of the small hospital are just not being recognized by the Medicare and Medicaid programs.

Many of the friends ask me what they can do to help solve this problem. I've given this some thought, and here's what I think would help.

The new 96th Congress, and the Carter Administration, are going to try and reform the Medicare and Medicaid programs. Action will likely be initiated by Sen. Herman Talmadge (D-Ga.) to reintroduce massive Medicare and Medicaid Administrative and Reimbursement Reform Act, which he has promised to do soon after the new Congress convenes.

It seems to me that any person concerned about the future of their community hospital, especially those like ours in rural areas, should express their concern to their congressmen and Senators.

Specifically, they should urge that the needs of small hospitals receive special consideration in any move to reform Medicare and Medicaid.

If you would be interested in doing this, you can write Representative John Duncan by sending your letter to the U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515.

U.S. Senator-Elect James Sasser can be written in care of his office at P.O. Box 1450, Nashville 37202.

U.S. Senator Howard Baker's address is United States Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510.

It's your hospital, and it seems to me the people who represent you in Washington should know how you feel about before they make decisions affecting its future.

By the way, if you do write, I'd enjoy receiving a copy of your letter.

If you have any questions about our hospital, or hospital care, please send them to me, and I'll try to answer them as best I can. But please, no medical questions. Your doctor is the person to answer those.

Sincere wishes for a merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Johnny S. McKey, Jr.

Ledford, representing only a portion of Loudon County, the 4th Civil District and the Loudon Outside West Precinct, said that persons from throughout the county are welcome to attend the meeting and express their concerns and problems concerning state government with him.

Ledford's district also includes portions of Cumberland, McMinn and Roane Counties.

They have renovated part of the lodge building for their meeting room, made improvements throughout the park, built a firing range, and are in the process of making a beached swimming area at the lake site. Anyone wishing to use the park for organized group meetings may do so by contacting the FOP.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To: The LOUDON HERALD
In your December 9th issue, you published a letter from me concerning the Philadelphia school building. In copying my letter, you left out one phrase which I considered the most important one in the letter: "I would appreciate your making this correction. I stated in my original letter, 'A good building that could have been renovated and added to in order to make room, or could have been sold for other purposes, or even given to the town for a community building.' The words 'could have been renovated and added to in order to make more room' were left out. To me, this phrase meant more to the letter and is really the thing that should have been done to the building. Had this been done, Philadelphia would have had a lovely building for the amount of money being spent and they could have continued to have an auditorium, which is a room which has been done away with in so many buildings because of cost. Thank you for publishing my letter. I have had many comments of approval."
Mrs. Edith C. Lawson

CLASS OF 51 MAKES CONTRIBUTION—Ted Lomax, a member of the Loudon High School Class of 1951 presents Loudon High Principal Dr. Gary Dutton a series of cassette tapes on student growth and development to be placed in the school library. The $100 set of educational tapes is part of a new state required program where visual and audio educational programs are included in the library program of high schools. Lomax said the money for the tapes was funds left over from a class reunion. Dutton said that the tapes series "Road To The Winner's Circle" will be of great benefit to the students who will use them.

Board Studies Security System Needs

A security system and formulation of policies for the Loudon County Vocational Center were the major items of business for the monthly meeting of the Center's Governing Board Thursday night. The board asked that action to approve the purchase of a security system for the building be delayed until the board can look at other alternatives other than the single system that was bid recently. Only one firm bid on the system through the purchasing department. That system would cost $1490 for installation and a $5 monthly maintenance fee, plus the cost of a telephone line connecting the system at the school with the system at the school with the purchasing department.

TVA Charges Continue Decline

Fuel and purchased power expenses for TVA continued to show a downward trend last month, and this will leave power charges for January bills at about the same levels as they were in January 1976. The agency announced Thursday. January electric bills may be larger than December's for homes using electric heat, if weather trends cause heavier heating requirements. However, the cost per kilowatt-hour of electricity used will generally be lower than on December bills. Home electric bills in January will show a reduction of 97 cents per 1,000 kilowatt-hours as a result of last month's lower fuel and purchased power expenses. In addition there will be relatively small increases or decreases in rates at various levels of use, under revised rate schedules applied by individual local electric systems effective January 2. Under the most widely used residential rate schedule, the January bill for the first 1000 kilowatt-hours will be $23.47. Under the corresponding previous rate schedule, the bill for that amount of electricity use was $23.42 in January 1976, and rose to $26.18 in September. Charges on power bills have been declining each month since September, reflecting a decline in fuel and purchased power costs that was due in part to the increased output of low-cost power from TVA's Browns Ferry Nuclear Plant. Under the revised rate schedules, power charges each month will continue to reflect changes in TVA's actual costs for fuel and purchased power.

STOLEN TRUCK RECOVERED—A pickup truck stolen from Lloyd Jones Loudon about a month ago was recovered by Loudon County Deputy Junior Teeters Wednesday morning. The truck was found on a field off Meriganton Road at Greenback after running the truck off the road. Above Chief Deputy Luke Bright shows the siding to two men who had had some building material stolen in the Greenback area recently. The owner of the material has still not been found. There has been several building material thefts in the Greenback area recently officers said.

Farmers Home Starts Bank Loan Guarantee Program

The Farmers Home Administration has begun a program through which it will guarantee rural housing loans made by commercial banks, savings and loan associations, and other private lenders. William L. Mason, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor for Loudon County, announces.

William Lee (Bill) Shubert will celebrate his eighth birthday Dec. 25. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shubert of Loudon. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Rose Tate of Loudon, Mrs. Rose Tate of Dogwood and the late Charles Tate.

Guaranteed housing loans will be available for moderate income borrowers who cannot get housing mortgage credit without a guarantee. Applicants who cannot qualify for guaranteed loans may apply for loans made by Farmers Home Administration. At present, the USDA agency will offer loan guarantees only under its single family housing loan program. Farmers Home Administration will continue to make single family housing loans with its own funds. It will also continue to make but not guarantee loans for rural rental housing, farm labor housing, housing site development, and other purposes.

Single family housing loans are made in open country (towns of up to 10,000 population, and certain designated towns between 10,000 and 20,000 population). They finance modest but adequate housing and related facilities, William L. Mason explains. Loans may be used to buy, build, improve, repair, or rehabilitate houses and to provide adequate water and waste disposal systems. Guaranteed loans will be made only to applicants with moderate income, defined by Farmers Home Administration as adjusted gross income of less than $15,000 per year for residents of Tennessee, and not eligible for Farmers Home Administration subsidized rural housing loans. Low income applicants may be eligible for subsidized rural housing loans made by Farmers Home Administration. Loans to be guaranteed are limited to 97 percent of the market value of homes and sites for the first $25,000 and 95 percent of the loan in excess of $25,000. The borrower must have equity from his own resources, in the form of cash or land for the down payment, notes Mason.

The top limit for a guaranteed rural housing loan is to a resident of Tennessee is $33,000. The maximum repayment period is 33 years. Mason also reports that Farmers Home Administration regulations guarantee for rural housing loans options for selling, assigning, or selling participations in the guaranteed loans.

Tax Load Locally ... Up To $390 Per Capita

Are residents of Loudon County paying a high or a low price for the operation of their local government?
Per capita, how much is it costing them, in state and local taxes, compared with the cost in other communities?
In Loudon County, as in almost every other area of the country, taxes have been rising sharply in recent years, in line with the mounting cost of government.
To provide the services that people want, such as better educational facilities, more police protection and improved health care, and to meet their welfare, transportation and other needs, has put most communities in a bind.
The net result, according to statewide figures compiled by the Commerce Clearing House, an authority on government finances, is that Americans paid an average of $664 in state and local taxes in fiscal 1975, an increase of $46 over the previous year. As recently as 1970, the average was $427. Thus, in five years, there was a jump of 55 percent.

In Loudon County, based upon the report and upon data from other sources, such taxes amounted to approximately $390 per capita in the past year.
By way of comparison, the average throughout the State of Tennessee was $451 per capita, which was $27 more than in the prior year. In the East South Central States as a whole, it was $450.
In some states, faced with special local conditions, such as unusually heavy welfare costs, the tax load was much heavier than in others. The range was from a high of $1,025, in New York, which was the only state above $1,000, to a low of $46 in Arkansas.

On an overall basis, state and local taxes in the past year reached a record total of $141.3 billion. This was twice as much as was collected in 1969.
In Loudon County, the tax burden came to approximately $10,569,000. In many areas of the country there has been growing resistance recently to higher taxes. It has forced a reduction in spending for capital improvements and, in some cases, a cutback in existing services.

Dear Santa Claus:
 My name is Lynn Rogers. I am a little boy five years old. I live in Philadelphia, Tennessee and go to kindergarten at Philadelphia school. My teachers are Mrs. Gebert and Miss McDaniel.
 I live in a green house right beside the railroad tracks. I live with my daddy, my nanny, my aunt Lois, my two sisters, Missy and Christie. Missy is three years old and Christie is 18 months.
 Will you please bring me a Six Million Dollar Man and the Transport station for him. I would like a mighty max too and a Jawa game. I would also like a J.J. doll and maybe a big boys bicycle.
 Please bring Missy a baby that way and Christie a baby doll.
 I've got a pretty Christmas tree up that me and Missy helped Aunt Lois decorate. I will leave some cookies and milk under the tree for you Christmas Eve. Thank you for thinking about me and my sisters.
 Love
 Jamie

Dear Santa,
 My name is Lynn Rivers. I have been a pretty good boy. I go to Philadelphia School. I am seven years old. Please bring me the air hockey that I have been wanting. My little sister would like a baby doll.
 Elzie Lynn Rivers, Jr.

Dear Santa Claus,
 How are you and your wife? I hope you both are fine. Water you bring my bird a water cup or some bird biscuits? I hope you can because he has been a pretty good bird. For my Birthday I got the Bionic Woman doll, so I would like to have her Barbie house or something for her. I also would like to have a stuffed animal with a radio in it if you can. I also would like to have Tuesday Taylor. I would really like to have the Moon Base Alpha Headquarters with the three dolls, teamader Keenig, Helena Russell, and Perferer Bergman. I would also like to have the house for Malibu Barbies and I think it is called Hawaii cottage. I'm not sure that is what it is called (it was at Sears). And you can bring me anything else you want to. A Hint! (I sure would like to have a real, small, puppy dog.)
 Your friend,
 Carolyn Tuck

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Capitol Commentary

BY M. LEE SMITH

Pinball gambling—uncontrolled and much of it by minors—is mushrooming in many areas of Tennessee. The problem originated in October 1975 when the state Court of Criminal Appeals ruled that pinball machines are excluded from provisions of Tennessee law forbidding gambling. The result of this decision was to legalize gambling on so-called bingo pinball devices. Only in Tennessee and Nevada are gambling payoffs permitted on pinball machines. The 1976 General Assembly had ample opportunity to enact corrective legislation but declined to do so. A bill to define pinball machines as gambling devices was introduced, passed the Senate, but was defeated in the House. Rep. Neal Small (R-Memphis), chief sponsor of the bill in the House, blames defeat on unregistered lobbyists for pinball interests. Even more unfortunate than failure of the General Assembly to define pinball machines as gambling devices was enactment of another proposal sponsored by Sen. Ed Gillock (D-Memphis) to allow minors to play pinball machines after normal school hours. Gillock, now under federal indictment on charges of bribery and abuse of power, says his pinball bill was only intended to allow minors to play non-gambling devices at such facilities as the new Libertyland theme park in Memphis. Many find the Gillock explanation hard to swallow. And regardless of the intent, a random check with law enforcement officials across the state indicates the problem of pinball gambling by minors is widespread. Lt. Ronald B. Howell, Memphis vice squad chief, was recently quoted in a Memphis newspaper as saying, "Minors can't gamble legally. But they're doing it in increasing numbers—kids here in Shelby County are learning to gamble thanks to the legislature. Whether by minors or adults there is no question pinball gambling in Tennessee is big business. Although no figures can be obtained on the size of pinball operations in the state, those with some knowledge of the industry guess the yearly gross may exceed $100 million. And with the law now as it is, machines are proliferating rapidly in taverns, clubs, amusement centers, and grocery stores. Even those who favor legalized gambling should think twice about payoffs pinball machines. For the player the winnings sometimes average no more than 50 percent of the amount gambled—terrible odds that no astute gambler would take. Recently in Nashville, a young boy, estimated to be no more than 12 or 14, scored a hit on a payoff pinball machine at a drive-in market. He collected his winnings from the employee at the market check-out counter and said to two bystanders, "I've got a system, and I can beat that machine." Also in the market was an old man sitting in an easy chair. When the boy left, the old man said, "By God, there ain't no machine backed up the Wildlife Art of Guy Coheleach

4 ORIGINAL PAINTINGS PLUS A SELECTION of LIMITED EDITION PRINTS

ON DISPLAY At Our Lenoir City Main Office & at Our Downtown Loudon Branch JANUARY 3rd thru 8th

The Bank of Loudon is pleased to exhibit original paintings and wildlife prints by Mr. Guy Coheleach (pronounced Ko-leek) in our Lenoir City Main Office Lobby and Loudon Branch Lobby beginning Monday, Jan. 3 thru Sat., noon, Jan. 8. (NOTE - A smaller display will be shown in the Lobby of our Lenoir City Downtown Central Branch).

We are especially pleased to have this beautiful exhibit as Mr. Coheleach has been acclaimed the world's foremost wildlife artist by no less an authority than the National Audubon Society.

An original elephant canvas hangs in the White House. Visiting heads of state are presented with a lithograph of his "Bald Eagle". Because he believes in conservation he has donated prints which have been used to raise over $2 million for the protection of wildlife.

His subjects range from the great, exotic cats, rhinos and charging elephants he photographs on safari in the African jungle to the cardinals, ducks and herons in the swamps and marshes near his long island home.

Come by the Bank of Loudon County in Lenoir City and Loudon and SEE FOR YOURSELF the exquisite beauty of Guy Coheleach's wildlife paintings. This is a very rare exhibit — one that you can't help but appreciate.

The Coheleach Exhibit can be seen during our Normal Banking Hours: Monday, Tuesday and Thursday—9:00 a.m.—2:00 p.m. Friday—9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Saturday—9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon Closed All Day Wednesday

From The First Heritage

In true tradition of the story old
When the mystic sounds of the season unfold
The First Heritage Family cherishes this reason
To bring to all, greetings of this season.

Hark the Herald Angels sing
Heralding the birthday of a King
May true peace and love surround your tree
Is the sincere wish of The First Heritage family.

The tradition of the family Christmas
Is what The First Heritage would like to express
From our family to your family glad tidings
Holiday greetings and a new year filled with happiness.

Ours is a daily, as well as a seasonal wish
That we have contributed along your way
Our interest is personal and community wide
Plus the percentages on savings accounts we are able to pay.

Our family's joy is our service to you
Not only this season, but the whole year through Serving the community and the people in which we believe
Your gift to us, the greatest we could receive.

Once again we give thanks for having shared in your life
To have laughed with you in joy, To have helped in strife
Through planning and improved service, we're trying hard Golden PassBook, Golden Club, Master Charge and BankAmericard.
To increase the carefree joy of Christmas Day
There is still Holiday Lay Away for gifts, or to help you pay.

In keeping with service, matching today's pace
Our new Downtown remote window and parking space
To improve our service, and cope with the needs of today
Our West End Branch has an added Drive In to speed you on your way.
Plans are underway for a Lenoir City Facility
So we can serve Loudon County to the best of our ability.

The past years' events brought the decision to change our name
But the concern for our community and customers remain the same
The confidence of local investment has brought confidence untold
And assures our customers of future local control.

We count the years' blessings at this season
And it's not hard to find the reason
The strength of the past makes the Heritage team
Building a stronger future with a dedicated team.

The best of sincere wishes are ours to bring
As the distant tolling holiday bells ring
The greatest happiness and prosperity of every day
That this year the First Heritage Family can bring your way.

Hospital Board Decides Against Exclusive Radiology Contract

By Gayle Davis
Staff Writer

After a heated dispute lasting almost a year, the Loudon Memorial Hospital Board unanimously voted not to award an exclusive contract for the provision of radiology services Monday night to either Dr. Harold Freedman or Dr. Elsie Tomkinson, who have both been vying for the hospital contract for over six months.

The controversy over the contract began last January when the hospital board awarded the exclusive radiology contract to Dr. Freedman. Dr. Tomkinson challenged the board's action, with her attorney, Harrison Crabtree, quoting state laws that prohibit a person serving on the hospital board and having a contract with the hospital, both of which were true of Dr. Freedman.

Freedman's resignation from the board, he had been under contract to the hospital for radiology for over 10 years.

At this time, the radiology committee recommended to the board that an exclusive contract be awarded. After several months of deliberations and discussions, the committee met Monday night to reach a final decision as to whether Dr. Tomkinson or Dr. Freedman would be awarded the contract.

Dr. Walter Shea, who acted as committee chairman together with Hospital Administrator Gay Hamilton, reported that both candidates for the contract were qualified and according to Dr. Shea, "No derogatory information could be found about either party."

Both Dr. Shea and Director Hamilton had checked references listed on both candidates' proposals for the contract. Hamilton questioned board attorney Harvey Sproul and Harrison Crabtree as to whether the references of either physician should be considered, because no hospital had not expressed authorization to use the information included in the reports. "Some of the people I talked with about the proposal and candidates asked not to be identified," he stated.

Attorney Crabtree noted that no request was ever made for permission to use the references he cited listed on the proposal.

With the issue of references still unsettled, Johnny Young, newly appointed member of the board, pointed out, "both are an asset to the hospital. If we award the contract to one of them, then we hurt another good and capable doctor." He recommended that the committee tell them both the hospital is no longer in the contract business and recommend to the board that some other action be taken.

Dr. Shea challenged Young's recommendation by stating that "I'm not sure that's what the committee was appointed to do."

Attorney Crabtree clarified that a contract be awarded, he agreed with the committee that appointing a department head would be a reasonable solution.

Young made a motion that there be no contract awarded for the radiology department and that the staff be allowed to appoint a radiology director, along with the administration.

In a rediscussion of the feasibility of the exclusive contract proposal, Dr. Shea pointed out that one of the doctors had earlier refused to sign a contract and had some difficulty in getting along with the administration.

Young added "Although at the time I voted for the exclusive contract, I have reevaluated the situation and feel that the medical staff should participate in this matter."

Roy Bledsoe repeated what had been brought out in earlier meetings that were a contract not awarded, neither of the doctors wished to be responsible for the other's work. Bringing a fresh light into the discussion, she and Young agreed that some system of rank in the radiology department would have to be devised, such as appointment of a chief of radiology.

Comparing the two radiologists in the same department Hamilton likened them to "two cooks in one kitchen." "The way I see it," he added "two doctors doing radiology work in the space could not help but conflict with each other and a schedule would have to be made and one should be designated as director of radiology."

Shea noted that the radiology department "has more responsibility than any other department." He then brought up the responsibilities of a head of radiology, should one be appointed, focusing mainly on the problem of scheduling.

Young expressed faith in the hospital staff by suggesting that they should select the radiology director because "they are the ones who have to work with them."

Judge William Russell said that action on the matter by the hospital staff would be appropriate as a legal matter and was sure the staff would be willing to cooperate.

Attorney Harvey Sproul closed the discussion of the radiology contract problem by stating that although exclusive contracts have been held up in the United States, none have been tried in the state of Tennessee. Because of this fact, although the board, committee, and hospital staff had previously recommended that a contract be awarded, he agreed with the committee that appointing a department head would be a reasonable solution.

Comments by the physicians, made at some previous meetings indicated that all but Dr. Jerry Rogers and Dr. Tomkinson were using Freedman for radiology.

The motion was seconded by Roy Bledsoe and was presented to the board at a later meeting as such, gaining their unanimous support vote.

In the past months, when both Tomkinson and Freedman were performing radiology on a physician request basis, Freedman was being used by the majority of the physicians. Comments made at some previous meetings indicated that all but Dr. Jerry Rogers and Dr. Tomkinson were using Freedman for radiology.

$77,421 In Cuts, Changes Made In Philadelphia Project

After more than 30 days of work to bring the construction of the new Philadelphia Elementary School into budget, the School Board last Tuesday night awarded a construction contract to Webb and Son's Construction Company for $704,487.

The Philadelphia project was budgeted $750,000. Other costs will be $35,000 for architects and engineering, $4,000 spent on demolition, plus there will be charges for survey work on the property and the salary of a clerk of the works. All this is expected to push the project to the limit of the budget.

Superintendent Edward Headlee and Principal Buddy Boat are studying a list of possible cuts. They expect to be able to cut about $4,000 from this equipment list through eliminations, substitutions and modifications of the equipment.

Before approving the contract the board along with architect Ben McMurry and contractor Mike Webb went over all possible cuts and changes. These totaled $77,421. The changes were not structural, but changes in materials, engineering, substitutions in floor coverings, paint, some areas, and deletions of certain equipment. Most of the omissions were in the existing building, that was to undergo extensive renovation. Included in this area is the cafeteria-kitchen, subject of many of the changes that lowered the price of the contract.

The board had hoped that the architect would furnish a clerk of the works for the Philadelphia project as well as the two planned middle schools and the Greenback construction, but McMurry said that if there was a clerk share that expense of a usage basis. They hope to hire Steve Harrison, who was the clerk on the Loudon High project.

The contractor said he will begin work at Philadelphia immediately after January 1st and hopes to have the school completed for the fall 1977 term.

White Christmas Was A Surprise

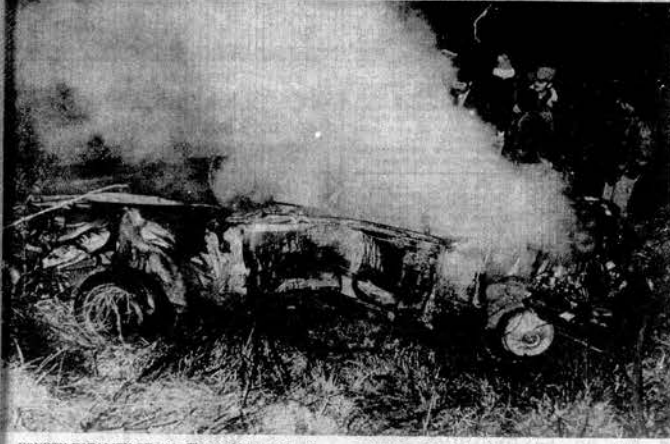

One of the biggest surprises this Christmas was not what was in a gift under the tree, but the snow that brought Loudon County and East Tennessee its first Christmas since 1969.

The snow began to appear about 1 p.m. and by 2 was covering the ground with a white blanket. The frozen condition of the ground caused every flake to remain and streets and highways were quickly covered and becoming slick.

The accumulation of less than a half inch seemed to grow on the streets as a freezing rain later in the afternoon added to the hazardous cover.

There were a number of minor accidents caused by the weather. The Loudon County Ambulance Service records show that three persons suffered broken hips in falls over the Christmas holiday, but none was attributed to the snow.

The contractor said he will begin work at Philadelphia immediately after January 1st and hopes to have the school completed for the fall 1977 term.

FOURTH FATALITY OF 1976—The smoking remains of the 1970 Plymouth of Mrs. Paul (Martha June) Coley, Rt. 2, Lenoir City is pictured down an embankment on I-75 near Lenoir City after an accident about 7 a.m. Wednesday.

Car-Truck Crash On I-75 Claims Life Of Eaton Employee

A fiery car-truck collision on I-75 just north of the Lenoir City exit about 7 a.m. Wednesday claimed the life of Mrs. Paul (Martha June Cannon) Coley, 54, Rt. 2, Buttermark Road, Lenoir City.

Trooper Rich Chester said Mrs. Coley, a long-time employee of the Eaton Corporation in Lenoir City, was apparently on her way to work when she apparently pulled from the emergency lane in the southbound lane of I-75 into the path of an overnite Freight tractor-trailer driven by Charlie Clark, 35, of Virginia, who suffered minor injuries.

The truck hit the car in the left rear. Both vehicles plunged through a guardrail and down an embankment. The car immediately burst into flames witnesses said. The truck traveled another 150 feet and overturned on its side.

At first officers investigating the accident could not determine the identity of the victim. The body was so badly burned that Deputies and Troopers, along with members of the Loudon County Rescue Squad could not tell whether the victim was a man or woman. A rescue squad fire truck and recovery team was called to the scene to put out the fire and remove the body from the wreckage.

The force of the collision knocked the victim into the backseat of the car. Trooper Chester said it could not be determined if the woman was killed by the collision, but either way he felt she may have been knocked out by the collision. County Coroner Ray Houk was quoted as believing the victim died in the collision and not from the burns.

Trooper Chester said there were several dishes in the burned out car and he understood a Christmas dinner was to be held at the Eaton plant that day. He felt she may have pulled off the road if one of the dishes had shifted and

A word about maximum benefits. Some people think that if they've always earned the maximum amount covered by social security they will get the highest benefits shown on the chart. This isn't so. For people reaching 65 in 1976, maximum monthly benefits are $364 for a man and $378.80 for a woman. The reason is that the maximum amount of earnings covered by social security was lower in past years than it is now. Those years of lower limits must be counted in with the higher ones of recent years to figure your average earnings and thus the amount of your monthly retirement check.

For more information - if, after reading this page, you still have questions about your social security benefits, call any social security office. The people there will be glad to help you.

Speaking Of Sports...By Danny Gibson

Tennessee Gals To Play Five-Girl Basketball

...Starting March 13

Bye-bye Model-T, here comes five girl basketball! How about that sports fans? It definitely looks like the long time conversation piece among coaches and state basketball followers as to the best interest for girl basketball players in a six girl game as played now and the five player style continues to boys' rules, will soon be only thoughts of the past.

The new rule takes effect March 13th or the day after the finals of the current girls' basketball season. Thus setting the stage for a new look in girls' basketball come next year.

The change of play has been one of much controversy with the final decision resulting from the U.S. District Court.

The change came through the efforts of a young 16-year old Oak Ridge High School basketball player Victoria Cape and her father who filed a lawsuit back in the summer charging the TSSAA with discrimination in playing six-on-six girls basketball. The lawsuit's strong point was that the current six-on-six format was out dated to the better benefits of a girl player in an attempt to further her playing opportunities in college women's basketball. College basketball for women is played by five men, or women standards.

However the words you hear so often in the world today, discrimination, unconstitutional even, has been added to the pros and cons of girls basketball.

Most coaches contacted last week expressed outrage at the TSSAA decision to begin five-on-five girls basketball. However, the state organization, with the promise of financial support from other state groups still playing six-on-six girls basketball, plans to continue its appeal of a ruling handed down late in November by U.S. District Judge Robert L. Taylor in Knoxville. The appeal goes to court in Cincinnati.

Four other states, Texas, Iowa, Arkansas, and Oklahoma still play the game with six girls. Iowa is recognized as having the most successful girl's state tournament in the country. Tennessee has ranked second for several seasons.

In the opinion of most coaches, Judge Taylor has little business telling high school associations how to govern. Furthermore, TSSAA members voted four weeks ago to retain the six-on-six girls basketball format, despite the ruling made public by Judge Taylor less than two weeks before the TSSAA regional meetings.

Over 15,000 girls participated in basketball in Tennessee last season. Now it appears that numerous girls will be discriminated against on the reverse side of Judge Taylor's decision. Girls with borderline ability could be groomed into good guards, or even outstanding in some cases. Now those borderline players will be the spectators of the future.

That's harsh reality for girls in this state.

"If you cut out the six girls, you will cut out approximately 1200 girls, who now play basketball," says Bob Baldrige, assistant to the executive secretary. Technically, teams can carry as many girls as they wish up until regional tournaments, but there is a 12-player limit is enforced. But very few coaches carry a great surplus of players, mainly due to cost and the limited amount of time for practice.

Thus Tennessee stands to lose about one-sixth its girls basketball program.

Also a lot of coaches and principals are asking the girls' sports organizations of the three regional meetings in December, Member schools voted four weeks ago 172-92 against five-on-five girls basketball, expressing their interest in retaining the six-on-six, half-court style of play.

The six girl format gives a girl two chances to become a part of the team. The coach looks for forwards first. Those who do not possess the skill of shooting, but have other skills, usually tackle or guard going to court so his son can catch a pass to situations, charging unfairness to his son of not becoming a "touchdown" hero.

Another classic example of our current crybaby society of which we are all a part unfolds another song of their way and the rest going along to keep peace among all.

Personally the change will bother me little. I feel the girls' game as we see it now is satisfactory. Mainly because it is different. The coaching is different. The new way of play will soon have the girls being compared to boys and the girls as a high as the boys and thus the girls game will no longer be rated Five players basketball for girls would be fine if all the Locks or in past Lenoir City's Marietta Blackburn. But these women basketballers are going to find a home in major college basketball if the courts reduce play down to a one-on-one face off. But just because a girl will now understand the basics of a five player game does not mean they will be grabbed up by every college institution that has women basketball as a future player. Only the best will go and the best might well be a sound defensive minded, rugged rebounding guard who never scores a point in the six player ball of today.

Bradley County Girls' Coach Jim Smiddy, who used to play for five player girls rules, now says different. He relates that several of his guards have found the change to five player college rules no problem.

Loudon's Dewayne Arrp says he cares not. "The team I have now is a veteran squad and could be a winner either way. Although I believe I would rather they play the six girl type be better for it better at this time. Next year might tremendous seniors and our team might perform better going full court since we will be inexperienced and young in offensive talent," commented Coach Arrp.

Coach Arrp has won 17 and only lost 47 games in five years of highly successful coaching of the six player type basketball. This ruling on the surface at least, looks like a compromise between the TSSAA and Judge Taylor. James Cape, Victoria's father, had filed a petition in Taylor's court on Monday of last week for an injunction to implement the Judge's ruling in Jan. 1.

What shall be of thought and interest is what if for some unforeseen happening, such as weather conditions, should extend the girls' state tournament an extra day then the finals could well be a preview of what lies in store for all in the season of 1977-78.

Lady Skins Win Holiday Tournament Opener

The Loudon Lady Redskins had little trouble rolling to their 12th straight win of a basketball season on Monday night as they crushed once beaten District Three Class 'A' power Friendsville 59-41.

The triumph came in the 26th Annual Maryville-Alcoa Jaycee High School Basketball Classic. The Lady Redskins were to have met off-beaten Walland in the fourth quarter lead.

Renee Grizzle, Lee Ann Chibson, and Juliet Locke exhibited a stout defense that destroyed the scoring attempts of the Friendsville forwards at every position.

Friendsville made a comeback in the second period to close within 18-12, but again the Loudon offense caught fire and the Lady Redskins defense became stingy as a 13-7 scoring difference in the first three minutes of the final half Loudon led at halftime 31-19.

Friendsville fought from a early 31-21 deficit in the third period to a 33-26 difference with 3:17 to go in the quarter.

A timeout was enough to regroup the Loudon attack and an offensive flurry that saw the Falcons score 12-2 for a 45-28 working margin at the end of three cantos.

Loudon reserves saw plenty of action in the first quarter as the victors upped their lead to over 20 points at one stage.

Bernadette Locke led Loudon on offense with a near average effort of 28 points, six rebounds and five assists. The senior floor leader hit on eight of 18 shots and 12 of 17 foul shots to total her 28 markers and sat out almost all the final quarter.

Kim Brammover was the only other Loudon forward in double digits with 14 points. Jennie Laffer added seven points despite some early foul trouble that forced her to the side lines for close to half the quarter.

Cathy Delaney, Rita Deford, and Janice Wilkerson all shared playing time in Laffer's absence as the Lady Redskins pounded out their 12th win without a loss this season.

Loudon hit on 21 of 46 shots for a 46 percent accuracy following the holiday vacation. Friendsville made 15 of 32 shots for 46.9 percent, but had 31 turnovers to the pressing Loudon staff that completely left them inferior to challenge the Lady Redskins.

Neither team shot to well from the foul line with Loudon making 17 of 27 and Friendsville 11 of 20. 43 fouls were called in the game.

Loudon won the backboard scramble with a 23-20 edge. Janneson four, Renee Grizzle blocked four shots as all the Loudon guards performed in the game.

ONE SHOT DEFENSE—Loudon's defense rarely allowed Friendsville over one shot at the basket in Monday night's Maryville-Alcoa Jaycee Classic victory. Susan Janneson rips down this missed Falconsite shot.

classic on Tuesday night to complete their showing in the hoop event.

Loudon showed signs of being off for the holidays in their win over Friendsville (8-2) as the Falcons held a 2-0 lead for the first 1:56 of the opening period. The Lady Redskins finally found the range with Bernadette Locke (7 points), Jennie Laffer (2 points) and Kim Brammover (16 points) balancing out the once beaten Friendsville Falconsites attempted to stop the wheeling and dealing offensive play of Loudon's Bernadette Locke with double coverage. Bernadette will score 28 points and rest much of the final quarter in the Lady Redskins 59-41 triumph.

Special Boar Hunts Urged By Stafford

State Rep. Benny Stafford (R-Lenoir City) says Tennessee hunters are the answer to the wild boar dilemma in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

The four-term lawmaker said environmental problems caused by the estimated 2,000 wild boars would be alleviated if special hunting were allowed in the national forest or if the boars could be shipped to a state-managed hunting area such as Tellico.

He said the boars, which migrated to the mountain national park from other less safe areas, tear up the ground looking for food.

"There's no reason to protect large numbers of wild boars that are damaging park or private property," Stafford said. "There are many families that could benefit from the meat from boar hunts."

In addition, he said, hunters pay for licenses, big game stamps, and other permits should have some kind of chance at bagging their game. He said several hunters have complained to him that they bought all the necessary papers and gear only to find themselves in managed areas where they had not even seen a boar, much less killed one.

"To add insult to injury, I've also had reports that some of the boars in the Smokies are being trapped, and buried by park rangers—this is an outrageous waste that could be avoided," he said.

Stafford contacted the Wildlife Resources Agency about the boar problem and learned that WRA Director Harvey Bray agrees animals should be subject to hunts either in the national park or at a state area.

According to Bray, the agency has already been trapping and shipping the boars from the Smokies to state hunting areas, but has encountered some resistance from residents near the park.

"We're dealing with conflicting factions in this situation," Bray said. "Some Smokies area residents are springing out traps to keep the boars in their area—they can hunt them when the animals come out of the park."

Because of the cost of trapping and shipping the wild boars, both Bray and Stafford favor boar hunting at the national park. However, if they fail to convince the National Park Service of the merits of the idea, a fuller program will probably be launched to move the boars back to state-managed areas.

"Some kind of action needs to be taken on this problem soon and I know many hunters who would be glad to assist," Stafford said.

SETS REBOUNDING TEMPO—Loudon senior guard Juliet Locke (59) was the top rebounder for the Loudon Redskins in their convincing 12th straight basketball victory with out a loss.

DELANEY POWERS IN CRIP SHOT—Loudon sophomore forward Cathy Delaney came off the bench to rest a foul-plagued Jennie Laffer in Monday night's Maryville-Alcoa Jaycee Basketball Classic against opposing Friendsville and registered eight points with a good hustling performance.

Local Hoop Teams Prepare For Opening Of Second Half Of Season

All the presents have been opened, the gift wrappings cleaned up from the paper-littered floors and the shiny new toys eagerly tried out by children throughout the area. Things are beginning to get back to normal in local households after another year of hectic, last minute shopping, heartfelt rounds of Christmas carols and elaborate, and delicious, holiday meals. The sudden pause in the local sports scene for the holiday break is also about over. The Loudon Lady Redskins ran their unbeaten regular season string of victories to 13 with a pair of wins in the Maryville-Alcoa Jaycee High School Basketball Classic on Monday and Tuesday. Lenoir City's basketball teams stayed busy with an appearance in the Newport Invitational High School Tournament that concluded today (Thursday). Greenback teams did not play any games during the holidays, nor did the Loudon boys' team. The regular season schedule resumes this week with a full slate of contests to open up the New Year. Loudon's boys and girls hoop squads have three games next week, all of which are on the road. On Monday night the Redskins travel to Sweet water, and on Tuesday night visits the Maryville Red Rebels. Friday night finds Loudon at Cleveland before returning home for a two week home stand that includes McKinn Central, Cleveland, Jan. 7.

Alcoa, and Lenoir City. Lenoir City starts the New Year out at home on Tuesday night with an improving McKinn Central team and then visits Alcoa on Friday, Jan. 7.

Greenback goes to Walland on Tuesday night and then returns home on Friday for a three game home stay with the Townsend first on the list for Friday night.

More Public Support For Nuclear Energy

The public is more worried today than previously about future energy supplies and generally agrees that nuclear power plants will have to provide a larger share of the power supplies in the future, a recent national survey shows. The survey was conducted by Louis Harris and Associates for Ebasco Services, Incorporated of New York City, which builds power plants of all kinds and is a consultant to the utility industry. In compiling the survey information, interviewers asked 61 questions in 1,497 households. An additional 309 interviews were conducted with people living in the vicinity of three nuclear power plants in California, Illinois, and New York. By nearly a three to one margin (63-22 percent), the public views nuclear power as a safe, relatively less expensive, and plentiful source of energy which should be developed to fill the gap caused by reduced dependence on oil and hydroelectric power, the survey concluded. The study also showed that confidence in nuclear safety has risen in the South since a similar survey was conducted a year ago, but has declined marginally in the other three regions of the country. By a 60-30 percent majority, the public believes that nuclear power has a favorable impact on economic growth and development and provides a positive effect on jobs, new industry, and whole new communities, the study said.

Meeting For Deer Stocking

By Rex Collier
In August, 1976 a meeting was held in the courthouse to determine if the people of Loudon County wanted deer stocked in the county. The people who attended the meeting voted not to stock the deer.

Since that time several people have contacted me saying that they did not know of the meeting and wanted to have deer put in the county. Because of this dissatisfaction another public meeting has been arranged.

This meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 4, 1977 at 7:00 p.m. in the big courtroom upstairs in the courthouse, Loudon.

The purpose will be to determine if Loudon Countyans want deer stocked in the county and if they will be willing to help protect them. All landowners, hunters, and other interested parties are invited.

3,950 Jobs In Energy Field Predicted For Area

Neida Harrell, Energy Opportunities Consortium (EOC) Project Manager, said this past week there will be 3,950 projected new jobs available in East Tennessee during the next two years for people trained in energy-related maintenance and operational skills.

The EOC Project Manager, addressing more than 50 area high school guidance counselors and business people at State Technical Institute at Knoxville, based her projections on a recent survey of 37 industrial firms and 10 educational institutions in the 10-county East Tennessee Development District (ET-DD).

Part of an EOC seminar on manpower development in East Tennessee, the address initiated discussion among seminar participants on the problem of educating workers for the projected technical jobs.

The survey, funded by an Economic Development

Administration grant through the Technical Assistance Center of the University of Tennessee-Knoxville, was conducted by two UTK graduate students, Stanley A. Cook and Richard A. McWhirter.

Some findings of the survey team were:

—the 37 firms surveyed expect to increase their employment rolls by 13.5 percent. The greatest increase in new jobs available will be in the fields of engineering and science technicians, industrial machinery repairers, welders and maintenance electricians.

—approximately 85 percent of the graduates of educational institutions specializing in technical and vocational training find jobs in East Tennessee. Almost 70 percent find jobs in the occupation they trained for.

—the 10 vocational schools, junior colleges and technical institutions provide less than 50 percent of the training for present employees in the selected technical fields.

—area vocational-technical schools cannot now accommodate the demand for admission.

—there is a need for programs upgrading the skills of those currently employed as well as training for first-line supervisors (foremen).

—many technical or vocational training programs in this geographic area produce graduates deficient in technical skills.

—there are indications that the demand for workers in several occupations will not be met by educational institutions. These occupations are: engineering and science technicians; heavy equipment operators, diesel mechanics, instrument repairers, and tool-and-die makers.

—All firms surveyed were willing to serve on advisory boards, to participate in training, and even to lend facilities, provided the courses taught were results-oriented.

A panel of six local businessmen and educational leaders talked about manpower opportunities in East Tennessee after presentation of the survey.

Included in the panel were: Wendell Russell, chairman, Manpower Development Division of the Oak Ridge Association; Universities; Wayne C. Jones, President, State Technical Institute at Knoxville; Clenton J. Smith, Economic Development Director, East Tennessee Development District; Tom Sudman, Senior Vice President of Services, United American Bank; Carroll Marsalis, Chairman, Division of Career Education, Roane State Community College; and Dennis Mynatt, Education Resource Planner, Division of Economic Development, Tennessee Valley Authority.

Sudman said during panel discussion that there was one area of technical skill which had been left out of the study for computer technicians.

He estimated that there will be a shortage of computer technicians because he did not know of an area program which teaches the skills needed.

Mynatt said that minorities and women tend to train for jobs where the market is glutted. He said these groups should be made aware of the opportunities in the engineering and science technology areas.

Russell, expressing pleasure that area industry and educational institutions were pooling their resources to meet the problem, said that enough is not being done in East Tennessee to train East Tennesseans.

"We should take care of the people at home first," he said. In response to Russell's comment, Marsalis said that the student himself has to be willing to do hard technical study before he can get a technical job.

Mynatt then said he has found that many students who come to TVA right out of high school cannot handle basic math and science skills. He said these students are encouraged to enroll at two-year technical schools.

Others who addressed the group were: R. B. Daniels, Chief of Post-Secondary Vocational Technical Education, Tennessee State Department of Education; Dr. Paul Kelley, Knoxville City Schools; Jim Cannon, Knox County Schools; Dr. Sig Dietz, East Tennessee Professional and Guidance Association; and Tom Waldrop, EOC President.

EOC was formed to facilitate joint working relations between the University of Tennessee, Union Carbide Nuclear Division and TVA. Serving as a bridge between these organizations and business, industry and local government sectors, its interest is to coordinate and promote joint projects relating to national energy problems.

Jobs Up In TVA Region

Income levels were up last year in the Tennessee Valley region but employment was down, primarily because of the national economic recession, according to estimates by TVA's Division of Navigation Development and Regional Studies.

Per capita personal income for the region in 1975 reached $4,570, more than 77 per cent of the national average of $5,902. The 1975 level was more than two and one-half times the national level of 10 years earlier, when regional per capita personal income of $1,825 was 30 per cent of the national average. Per capita figures show average personal income for every man, woman, and child in the total population, rather than family incomes.

Nonfarm employment in the region declined by 4.2 percent in 1975, leaving the total number of jobs at slightly less than 2.4 million. Nationally, the decline in nonfarm employment was 1.8 percent. Economic data so far in 1976 indicates employment rising from 1975 levels, however.

County Economy Shows Big Gains

A look at the record books shows that the Loudon County economy made surprising gains in the last few years. Despite inflation, unemployment, high taxes and the various other problems that arose, common to all sections of the country, there was progress locally. A principal indicator of this progress is the volume of business that was done by local retail establishments. The reports show that it increased considerably during the five years ending January 1, 1976. It reflects the fact that area families, most of whom had their pay envelopes fattened each year, remained active in the marketplace, spending as much as was necessary to maintain the standard of living to which they had become accustomed. The growth in the period is brought out in data compiled by the Standard Rate and Data Service. It shows that retail sales in Loudon County stores, as of the beginning of this year, reached an annual rate of more than $50,037,000. Five years earlier they totaled $31,865,000.

It was a bigger increase than was recorded in many parts of the country. Much of it was due, of course, to inflation. It was equivalent to consumer spending last year at the rate of $5,312 per local household, as compared with the 1970 rate of $4,156 per household.

Fundamental to the growth in retail activity in the local area during the five-year span was the marked increase in income accounted for by the average family. During most of the period it more than kept pace with the rising curve of inflation, compensating for the mounting taxes, the bigger grocery and housing bills and the zooming medical costs.

The figures for Loudon County show that personal income, after deduction for taxes, climbed to $88,915,000. Five years before it was $62,207,000. Currently, with inflation under somewhat better control than a year ago and with measures being planned to stimulate the faltering economy, the expectation is for an upturn in the months ahead.

STOLEN MERCHANDISE RECOVERED—Four juvenile boys, ages nine to 13, were charged with breaking and entering the Big Orange Country Store on Highway 95 on Dec. 21. Merchandise, mostly candy and small items, shown on the table above were recovered on Christmas Eve by Chief Deputy Lake Bright and Deputy Jake Chapman. Store owner J.B. Looper said the boys entered the store seven times in one night to get the merchandise.

THP Adds More CB Radios

Tennessee Commissioner of Safety Joel Plummer said today that installation of Citizen Band (CB) radios has begun, on an experimental basis, in 60 Highway Patrol units that patrol the state's interstate highways. Eight CB Base Stations are being installed at District Headquarters in Chattanooga, Cookeville, Jackson, Knoxville, Kingsport, Lawrenceburg, Memphis and Nashville. The CB radios were purchased with a $10,300 grant. This purchase of the radios is a part of our continuing evaluation of the CB radio in the area of traffic safety, the Commissioner said.

Duff On ASC Board

C.V. Duff of Lenoir City, who has served as a member of the Loudon County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee for a three year term, was re-elected by delegates attending the County ASCS Convention on December 17. The delegates also elected Carl A. Smith of Lenoir City, and Ben Ritchey of Loudon as first and second alternate members of the committee. John M. Hutton, Greenback dairyman, was again chosen as Chairman of the Committee. The other member is Bill Henderson of Philadelphia. The committee is responsible for the local administration of government farm programs such as Agricultural Conservation, Production Adjustment and Marketing Quotas, Price Support, Storage and Drying, Equipment loans, and such other programs as may be directed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Capitol Commentary

BY M. LEE SMITH

While the General Assembly has appropriated millions of dollars in the past few years for both higher education facilities and a massive statewide vocational education construction program, facilities at Tennessee Preparatory School (TPS) in Nashville have deteriorated to the point where the school is a disgrace to the state.

TPS is not, as many erroneously believe, an institution for juvenile delinquents. It is a school for neglected and dependent children, most of whom are orphans or from broken homes.

Children at the school live in conditions that are filthy, overcrowded and overworked. Many of the buildings are crumbling fire hazards, and dirty with little or no privacy.

TPS does not qualify for Medicaid funds and is in danger of losing other federal money. The school is in violation of state law concerning the number of supervisors required to care for children.

The death of one student and near death of another earlier this year have prompted Education Commissioner Sam

Ingram to initiate an inquiry as to whether more adequate supervision might have prevented these occurrences.

Periodically TPS is the subject of investigations and news stories, including a recent news analysis by the Nashville Tennessean. But to date no action has been taken to correct the near-scandalous problem.

In late 1972 Gov. Winfield Dunn demanded the resignation of Education Commissioner E.C. Stimbart - in part because Stimbart had delayed for months to develop a plan to alleviate conditions at TPS. Subsequently, Dunn and the State Board of Education recommended that TPS be phased out and students placed in regional cottages around the state with cottage residents attending local public schools.

The proposal to abolish TPS in favor of the cottages met with strong opposition and criticism of the hastiness with which the plan was conceived and presented. The most vocal opposition came from a few TPS alumni, politicians who looked upon this institution as a political plum for their area, the school staff who saw their livelihood threatened, and some elements of the media.

Because of the opposition the General Assembly opted not to abolish TPS. The cottage program was tried on an experimental basis, never really given a chance to work, and now has been abandoned. Meanwhile, conditions at TPS have continued to deteriorate.

Recently a TPS self-study recommended substantial changes and improvements which would cost $15-20 million. The proposals were received with little enthusiasm by the State Board of Education, which as the governing body for TPS has exerted virtually no leadership to bring about improvements at the school.

As the self-study indicated, TPS facilities need almost total re-building. Better still, a new school should be constructed away from the present TPS site, which is expensive property in the midst of a heavily industrialized area.

Either alternative will be expensive. But Gov. Ray Blount and the 1977 General Assembly should consider TPS an area of top priority in the allocation of state dollars.

This is a problem which demands a solution.

Maynard Ends Army Course

Army Private Ronald H. Maynard, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Maynard, Route 4, Loudon, recently completed seven weeks of advanced individual training at Ft. Benning, Ga.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, and mine warfare; field communications and combat operations. This qualified him as a light weapons infantryman and as an indirect fire crewman.

He was taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad.

Pvt. Maynard is a 1975 graduate of Loudon High School.

Local Families In Market For Homes

For Loudon County families who are in the market for new homes, how much can they afford to spend for them, taking into consideration both purchase price and carrying costs?

As recently as two years ago, the American Bankers Association was adhering to the old rule-of-thumb, that the price should not be more than 2 1/2 times yearly income.

Today, that limitation seems to be no longer realistic. Because of the small amount of construction in the last few years there is not enough housing available to meet the pent-up demand.

As a result, the price of homes has been soaring. The Federal Home Loan Bank Board reports that the average price of new homes bought with conventional mortgages is now $50,500 - more than three years ago. It ranges above and below that price in various parts of the country.

For a large part of the population, especially young couples who are at the home-buying stage, that is too big a load for them to handle.

In Loudon County, however, where incomes have been on the rise, many families are in a position to spend more for homes than they could in previous years.

As it works out, the $50,500 cost represents, for local families with average incomes, close to 4.8 times their annual net earnings. In many other communities, where incomes are lower, the investment would be greater than this in terms of years of income.

More surprising, to some housing experts, is the rapid rise in the cost of used homes. They are at the record high, nationally, of $43,900.

Added to the initial investment are the taxes, mortgage payments and maintenance costs that have to be met. They average 29 percent of take-home pay, according to the National Association of Home Builders. The result is that more and more people are being priced out of the market.

Nevertheless, most Americans are committed to the goal of home ownership. In Loudon County, no less than 75.7 percent of the dwellings are now owned by their occupants, the latest figures show.

Health Care And Your Hospital

by G. Gay Hamilton

Loudon County Hospital Administrator

The New Year is not going to start off too well for our Medicare patients.

As you know, the Medicare program provides two kinds of coverage: "Part A" which helps pay hospital expense, and "Part B" which pays doctor costs.

Our Medicare patients often forget that neither Part A or B pays all of the expense.

Under a hospital bill, the Medicare patient must pay a variable deductible. This is an amount which roughly equals the bill for the first day of care.

make sure the costs are fair, and that the policy will actually provide the needed coverage.

We also wish to encourage Medicare patients to contact our business office if they have any questions about their hospital coverage, or to contact the nearest Social Security office for information and advice.

In addition, if any Medicare beneficiary has any questions they feel need to be answered in this column, please send them to me here at the hospital, and I'll try to answer them as best I can.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

Some very good people have taken on a false sense of security about a Cancelled Check. They feel "I paid it and I have my cancelled check to prove it." Things have changed even for these very good people. Some documents are not adequate evidence for an income tax deduction. For your information here is a Service Publication 334 Chapter 20 page 106 "A cancelled check payable to a named payee will not by itself support a business expenditure without other evidence that the check was used for a certain business purpose. A cancelled check, together with a bill for the payee, ordinarily will establish the element of cost."

Proper records are a must in the business world unless you want "You Know Who" to get all of your hard earned money. Good people, that cancelled check is not good enough!

James E. Stewart,
Loudon, TN

Dear Editor:

I note that Mr. Gay Hamilton in his maiden ghost written column in the Herald laments the statistic that hospitals under 50 beds are on the decrease while those over 50 beds are on the increase.

It is really not all that tragic. After all, anytime a 45 bed hospital adds 10 beds and an under 50 bed hospital disappears and on over 50 bed hospital appears.

Solicitously,
Francis H. Clark
Barber Lane, Loudon

3 Charged With Passing Stolen SS Checks Here

LOUDON COUNTY OFFICERS Lake Bright took to secret service agents by phone shortly after deputy Alvin Clements acting on information from the Loudon police department, arrested three men suspected of trying to cash a number of stolen social security checks in the Loudon and Lenoir City areas last Wednesday.

Three Knox County men were held in Loudon County in lieu of $14,000 bond each for passing and attempting to pass Social Security checks amounting to almost $1,000 that were apparently stolen from mail boxes in Loudon and Lenoir City last week. About noon Wednesday a man attempted to cash a Social Security check for $400 made out to Kate Holcomb of the First Bank of Loudon. The man was identified as David John L. Polter, 41, of Lenoir City. He was arrested by police officers and taken to the Lenoir City Jail.

GUY COHELEACH IS ONE OF THE FOREMOST WILDLIFE ARTISTS

The Bank of Loudon County is pleased to present a mini-exhibition of original wildlife paintings and limited edition prints, by Guy Coheleach, acclaimed one of the world's finest wildlife artists.

An original elephant canvas hangs in the White House. Visiting heads of state are presented with a lithograph of his "Bald Eagle". Because he believes in conservation, he has donated prints which have been used to raise over $2 million for the protection of wildlife.

His subjects range from the great, exotic cats, rhinos, and charging elephants he photographs on safari in the African jungle to the cardinals, ducks and herons in the swamps and marshes near his Long Island home.

Come by the Bank of Loudon County in Lenoir City and Loudon and see for yourself the exquisite beauty of Guy Coheleach's wildlife paintings. This is a very rare exhibit — one that you can't help but appreciate.

The complete exhibit will be shown at our Lenoir City main office and Loudon Office. A smaller display will be shown at the Lenoir City downtown Central Branch.

If you miss seeing the Display of Beautiful Wildlife Prints and Originals at the Bank of Loudon County, you'll really miss something!
